for its root was in abundant water.
8 The cedars in the garden of God could not compare with it.
No cypress trees could rival its boughs.
No plane-trees could match its branches.
No tree in the garden of God
could compare to its beauty.
9 I made it beautiful with its many limbs.
All the trees of Eden in God's garden envied it.'" 10 Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: "Because you were exalted in height
—its top set up among leafy branches,
its heart haughty in its height—11 I gave it into the hand of a ruler of nations, who surely dealt with it.

I drove it out
as befits its wickedness.
12 Ruthless barbarians from the nations cut it down. They cast it down on the mountains and in all the valleys its branches fell.
Its branches have laid broken in all the streambeds of the land.
All the people of the earth have come out from its shade and abandoned it.
13 All the birds of the sky lived on its fallen trunk and all the beasts of the field upon its fallen branches.
14 So none of all the trees by the water should exalt themselves in their height or set their top among the leafy boughs. None of their well-watered mighty ones should attain their height.
For they have all been given to death, to the lowest regions under the earth, among the children of men who go down to the Pit."

15 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "In the day when he went down to Sheol I caused the deep to mourn and cover itself for him.
I restrained his rivers,
so the great waters were stopped.
I made Lebanon mourn for him.
All the trees of the field wilt away for it.
16 I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the Pit.
All the well-watered trees of Eden,
the choice and best of Lebanon,
were comforted in the lowest parts of the earth.
17 They also went down with him to Sheol, to those slain
by the sword,
those who were his mighty arm,
who lived in his shadow among the nations.

18 ‘Who is like you in glory and greatness among the trees of Eden? You will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lowest parts of the earth. You will lie among the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword.’

This is Pharaoh and all his multitude.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Lamentations for Pharaoh

Ezekiel 32 1 On the first day of the twelfth month of the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: 2 “Son of man, lift up a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him: ‘You compare yourself to a young lion of the nations, but you are a crocodile in the waters.

You thrash about in your rivers and muddy the water with your feet
and foul their streams.’”

3 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “I will throw My net over you with a host of many peoples.
They will haul you up in My net.
4 I will leave you on the land.
I will hurl you on an open field.
I will cause all the birds of the sky to settle upon you.
I will gorge the beasts of the whole earth with you.
5 I will strew your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your refuse.
6 I will drench the land with the flow of your blood up to the hills.
The ravines will be full of you.
7 When I extinguish you, I will cover the sky and darken the stars.
I will cover the sun with cloud,
and the moon will not give her light.[17]
8 I will darken all of heaven’s bright lights over you and set darkness on your land.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.

9 “I will disturb the hearts of many peoples when I bring about your destruction among the nations, into lands you have not known.

10 I will make many people appalled at you.
Their kings will be totally aghast at you
when I brandish My sword over you.
They will shudder every moment,
every man for his own life,
on the day of your downfall."

11 For thus says ADONAI Elohim: "The sword of the king of Babylon will come upon you.
12 By the swords of the mighty I will cause your multitude to fall.
They are all ruthless among the nations.
They will devastate the pride of Egypt.
All of its multitude will be annihilated.
13 I will destroy all the beasts from beside plentiful water.
No human foot will muddy them again,
nor will hoofs of beasts muddy them.
14 Then I will make their waters settle and make their streams flow like oil."
It is a declaration of ADONAI.

15 "When I make the land of Egypt desolate and waste when it was previously full,
when I strike all that live there,
they will know that I am ADONAI.
16 This is the funeral song—chant it, daughters of the nations, chant for Egypt.
All her multitude will chant it."
It is a declaration of ADONAI.

17 On the fifteenth day of the month in the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: 18 "Son of man, wail over Egypt’s throng.

Bring them down
—her and the daughters of lofty nations,
to the underworld,
to those who go down to the pit.
19 Who do you surpass in beauty?
Go down, lie with the uncircumcised.
20 They fall among those slain by the sword.
She is given over to the sword.
They drag her down with all her throng.
21 The strongest warriors will speak of him and his allies
from the midst of Sheol.
They have gone down,
they lie still, the uncircumcised,
slain by the sword.

22 “Assyria is there and all her company, their graves surround them
—all of them slain,
fallen by the sword.
23 Her graves are set in the deepest parts of the Pit.

Her company surrounds her grave
—all of them slain, fallen by the sword
—who put terror in the land of the living.

24 “There is Elam and all her multitude surrounding her grave —all of them slain, fallen by the sword
—who went down uncircumcised into the underworld, who caused terror in the land of the living.
They bear their disgrace with those who go down to
the Pit.
25 They have made her a bed among the slain with all her throng,

her graves about them
—all of them uncircumcised, slain, fallen by the sword— though they caused terror in the land of the living.
So they bear their disgrace with those who go down to the Pit.
They are laid among the slain.

26 “Meshech-Tubal is there and all her throng, her graves around them —all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they spread their terror in the land of the living.
27 They do not lie with the mighty, the fallen from among the uncircumcised, who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war.
They put their swords under their heads.
Their iniquities rest on their bones because the terror of the mighty ones was in the land of the living.
28 You also will be shattered and lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword.

29 “Edom is there, her kings and all her princes, who for all their might are laid with those slain by the sword.
They lie with the uncircumcised,
with those who go down to the Pit.
30 “The princes of the north are there, all of them, all the Zidonians, who have gone down with the slain, ashamed for all the terror that they caused by their might.
They lie uncircumcised with those slain by the sword.
They bear their disgrace with those who go down to the pit.

31 When Pharaoh sees them, he will be comforted for all his throng, Pharaoh and all his army,
slain by the sword.”
It is a declaration of Adonai.
32 “For I have put My terror in the land of the living.
He will lie among the uncircumcised,
with those slain by the sword,
Pharaoh and all his multitude.”
It is a declaration of Adonai.

Watchman, Blow the Shofar

Ezekiel 33 1 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: 2 “Son of man, speak to the children of your people and say to them:
‘When I bring the sword upon a land, suppose the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him as their watchman. 3 If, when he sees the sword coming upon the land, he blows the shofar and warns the people, 4 then whoever hears the sound of the shofar but ignores the warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. 5 He heard the sound of the shofar and ignored the warning; his blood will be on himself. However, if he had taken warning, he would have saved his soul. 6 But if the watchman sees the sword come and does not blow the shofar, the people are not warned. Then the sword does come and takes a person from among them—he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman’s hand.’

7 “You, son of man, I have set you as a watchman for the house of Israel. When you hear the word from My mouth, warn them from Me. 8 When I say to the wicked: ‘Wicked one, you will surely die!’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked about his way—that wicked one will die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. 9 If you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it and he does not turn from his way, then he will die in his iniquity—but you have saved your soul.

10 “You, son of man, say to the house of Israel: ‘You have said, “Surely our transgressions and our sins are upon us and we are pining away in them. So how can we live.” 11 Say to them: ‘As I live’—it is a declaration of ADONAI—‘I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Return, return from your evil ways. Why will you die, O house of Israel?’

12 “You, son of man, say to the children of your people: ‘The righteousness of the righteous person will not deliver him in the day of his transgression. Nor will the wickedness of the wicked person make him stumble in it on the day he turns away from his wickedness. Nor will the righteous person be able to live by it on the day he sins. 13 When I tell the righteous that he will surely live, but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered. But in his iniquity that he has committed, he will die. 14 When I say to the wicked, “You will surely die,” yet he turns from his sin and does what is just and right—15 if the wicked restores a pledge, gives back what he had taken by robbery, walks in the laws of life, committing no iniquity—he will surely live, he will not die. 16 None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right; he will surely live.’

17 “Yet the children of your people say, ‘The way of ADONAI isn’t fair!’ but it is their way, theirs that is unfair.18 When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die in it. 19 When a wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live by it. 20 Yet you say, ‘The way of ADONAI is not fair!’ House of Israel, I will judge every one of you according to his ways.”

Jerusalem Falls

21 In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a survivor from Jerusalem came to me saying, “The city has been struck down.” 22 The hand of ADONAI had been upon me in the evening, before the survivor came. He had opened my mouth by the time of his coming to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.
23 Then the word of ADONAI came to me saying: 24 “Son of man, the inhabitants of these ruins in the land of Israel keep saying, ‘Abraham was only one, yet he inherited the land. Since we are many, the land is given to us as a possession.’ 25 “Therefore say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘You eat with the blood, lift up your eyes to your idols and shed blood.
Should you possess the land? 26 You rely on your sword, commit abominations and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife.
Should you possess the land?’ 27 Say this to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘As I live, surely those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword. Whoever is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and whoever is in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the plague. 28 I will make the land a desolation and a horror. The pride of her power will cease. The mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that no one will pass through.’ 29 They will know that I am ADONAI, when I have made the land a desolate waste, because of all their abominations that they have committed.”
30 “Now as for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you by the walls and in the doorways of the houses. Each one speaks to one another, each saying to his brother: ‘Come now, hear what message is coming forth from ADONAI!’ 31 So they come to you, as people come, and sit before you as My people and hear your words—but they do not do them—for with their mouth they express doting love, but their heart goes after their own dishonest gain. 32 Look, you are like a love song to them, one who has a beautiful voice and can play well on an instrument. They hear your words, but do not practice them. [33] When this comes to pass—behold, it is coming—they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Adonai, Our Shepherd

Ezekiel 34 1 The word of Adonai came to me saying: 2 “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to those shepherds, thus says Adonai Elohim: “Oy, shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! Should shepherds not take care of the sheep? 3 You eat the fat. You clothe yourself with the wool. You kill the fat ones. But you do not take care of the sheep. 4 You do not strengthen the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring back the stray or seek the lost. Instead, you have ruled over them with force and cruelty. 5 They were scattered for lack of a shepherd. They became food for all the beasts of the field as they were scattered. 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains and on every high hill. Over all the face of the earth My sheep were scattered. No one searched. No one sought.” 7 Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of Adonai: 8 “As I live”—it is a declaration of Adonai—“as surely as My sheep became prey and My sheep became food for all the beasts of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My sheep,” 9 therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Adonai, 10 thus says Adonai Elohim: “Behold, I am against the shepherds and I will demand My flock from their hand. I will dismiss them from tending the flock. The shepherds will no longer feed themselves. I will rescue My sheep from their mouth, so they will not be food for
them.”
11 For thus says Adonai Elohim: “Here I am! I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out. 12 As a shepherd seeks out his sheep on the day he is among his scattered flock, so I will seek out My sheep. I will rescue them out of all the places where they have been scattered, on a day of cloud and thick darkness. 13 I will bring them out from the peoples. I will gather them from the countries. I will bring them back to their own land. I will shepherd them upon the mountains of Israel, by the streams and in all the habitable places of the land. 14 I will shepherd them in a good pasture—their grazing place will be on the high mountains of Israel. There they will lie down on good grazing ground. They will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. 15 I will tend My flock and make them lie down”—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

16 “I will seek the lost, bring back the stray, bind up the broken and strengthen the sick. But the fat and the strong I will destroy—I will tend them with justice. 17 As for you, My flock”—thus says ADONAI Elohim—“behold, I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and male goats.[18] 18 Was it too little for you that you were feeding in the good pasture? Must you trample down the rest of your pastures with your feet? You were drinking clear water. Must you muddy the rest with your feet? 19 Yet My sheep must eat what you have trampled with your feet and drink what you have muddied with your feet!”
20 Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim to them: “Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.
21 Because you thrust with your side and with shoulder and gore all the weak with your horns, until you have scattered them all over, 22 I will save My flock. They will no longer be prey. I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23 So I will set up One Shepherd over them, My servant David—He will tend them, He will feed them Himself and be their shepherd.[19] 24 I, ADONAI, will be their God, and My servant David will be Prince among them. I, ADONAI, have spoken.
25 “I will make a covenant of shalom with them. I will remove the evil beasts from the land, so they may dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest. 26 I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. I will cause the rain to come down in its season. There will be showers of blessing. 27 The tree of the field will yield its fruit. The ground will yield its produce. They will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am ADONAI, when I have broken the bars of their yoke and have delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them. 28 They will no longer be prey to the nations. The beast of the earth will not devour them. They will live in security. No one will make them afraid. 29 I will make their agriculture renowned. They will no longer be consumed with hunger in the land. They will no longer bear the scorn of the nations. 30 They will know that I, ADONAI their God, am with them. They, the house of Israel, are My people.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

31 “So you, My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, you are human, and I am your God.” It is a declaration of ADONAI Elohim.

Edom Made Desolate

Ezekiel 35 [1] The word of ADONAI came to me saying: [2] “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it.
[3] Say to it, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir. I will stretch out My hand over you and make you utterly desolate. [4] I will lay your cities waste. You will be devastated. So you will know that I am ADONAI.

[5] “Because you have a long-standing hatred and have delivered Bnei-Yisrael to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of their final punishment, [6] therefore, as I live’—it is a declaration of ADONAI—‘I will destine you for blood, and bloodshed will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, therefore bloodshed will pursue you. [7] I will make Mount Seir an utter desolation. I will cut off from it all who come and go. [8] I will fill its mountains with its slain; on your hills, your valleys and all your streams those slain by the sword will fall. [9] I will make you everlasting desolations; your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.

[10] “Because you said: ‘These two nations and these two lands will be mine! We will possess them’—though ADONAI was there —[11] “therefore, as I live”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“I will deal with you with the same anger and envy that you had because of your hatred against them. I will make Myself known among them, when I judge you. [12] You will know that I, ADONAI, have heard all your blasphemies that you uttered against the mountains of Israel saying: “They are laid desolate—they are given for us to devour!” [13] You have magnified yourselves against Me with your mouth. You multiplied your words against Me. I heard it.”

[14] Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. [15] As you rejoiced over inheriting the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be desolate, Mount Seir and all Edom—all of it. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.”

Comfort to the Land of Israel

Ezekiel 36 [1] “You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say: ‘Mountains of Israel, hear the word of ADONAI. [2] Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “The enemy has said against you, ‘Aha!
Even the ancient high places have become our possession!’
[3] Therefore prophesy and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim:
‘Because they ravaged and crushed you from every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations and you became the talk and evil gossip of people,’ [4] therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of ADONAI, thus says ADONAI Elohim to the mountains, the hills, the streams and the valleys, the desolate wastes and the cities that are forsaken, which have become prey and derision to the rest of the surrounding nations. [5] Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Surely in the fire of My wrath I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, that have taken My land for themselves as a possession with the joy of all their heart and contempt in their souls, in order to seize it as plunder.’ [6] Therefore, prophesy to the land of Israel and say to the mountains and the hills, the streams and the valleys, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I have spoken in My wrath and in My fury, because you have suffered the scorn of the nations.’ [7] Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘I have lifted My hand. Surely the nations that surround you will themselves suffer scorn.

[8] “‘But you, mountains of Israel, you will shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit for My people Israel; for their return is near. [9] For behold, I am for you. I will turn to you. You will be tilled and sown. [10] I will settle a large population upon you—the whole house of Israel, all of it. The cities will be inhabited. The desolate places will be built up. [11] I will multiply man and beast upon you. They will increase and be fruitful. I will cause you to be inhabited as you were before. I will do better for you than at your beginnings. You will know that I am ADONAI. [12] I will cause people, my people Israel, to walk upon you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer deprive them of children.’”

13 Thus says Adonai Elohim: “Because they say to you, ‘You are a devourer of men and you deprive your nation of children,’ 14 therefore you will no longer devour men and you will no longer deprive your nation of children.” It is a declaration of Adonai. 15 “I will no longer let the scorn of the nations be heard against you. You will no longer bear disgrace from the peoples. You will no longer cause your nation to stumble.” It is a declaration of Adonai.

16 The word of Adonai came to me saying: 17 “Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their deeds. Their way before Me was like the uncleanness of a woman in her niddah. 18 So I poured out My fury on them for the blood which they had shed upon the land and because they had defiled it with their idols. 19 I scattered them among the nations, so they were dispersed through the countries. According to their way and their deeds I judged them. 20 Wherever they went among the nations, they profaned My holy Name, since it was said about them, ‘These are the people of Adonai, yet they had to leave His land.’ 21 But I had concern for My holy Name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations wherever they went.

22 “Therefore say to the house of Israel, thus says Adonai Elohim: ‘I do not do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for My holy Name, which you profaned among the nations wherever you went. 23 I will sanctify My great Name, which has been profaned among the nations—which you have profaned among them. The nations will know that I am Adonai’”—it is a declaration of Adonai—“‘when I am sanctified in you before their eyes.’”

New Heart, New Spirit

24 “‘For I will take you from the nations, gather you out of all the countries and bring you back to your own land. 25 Then I will sprinkle clean water on you and you will be clean from all your uncleanness and from all your idols. 26 Moreover I will give you a new heart. I will put a new spirit within you. I will remove the stony heart from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.[20] 27 I will put My Ruach within you. Then I will cause you to walk in My laws, so you will keep My rulings and do them.

28 Then you will live in the land that I gave to your fathers. You will be My people and I will be your God.

29 "So I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it plentiful. I will not bring a famine upon you. 30 I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field, so that you will no longer bear the disgrace of famine among the nations. 31 When you remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, you will be disgusted with yourselves because of your iniquities and your abominations.
32 Not for your sake will I do this"—it is a declaration of ADONAI —"let that be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel!"

33 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "In the day that I pronounce you clean from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited and the ruins will be rebuilt. 34 The land that was desolate will be tilled instead of being a wasteland in the sight of all that passed by. 35 They will say, 'This land that was a wasteland has become like the garden of Eden. The waste, desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.' 36 Then the nations that are left all around you will know that I, ADONAI, have rebuilt the ruined places, and replanted what was desolate. I, ADONAI, have spoken it. So I will do it."

37 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "I will again be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them—I will populate them with people like a flock. 38 Like the holy flock, like the flock of Jerusalem during her moadim, so the waste cities will be filled with flocks of people.[21] Then they will know that I am ADONAI."

Dry Bones Live

Ezekiel 37 1 The hand of ADONAI was upon me. The Ruach ADONAI carried me out and set me down in the middle of the valley. It was full of bones. 2 He led me all around them. Behold, there were very many on the floor of the valley. Behold, they were very dry. 3 Then He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?”[22]

I answered, “ADONAI Elohim, You know.”

4 “Prophesy over these bones,” He said to me. “Say to them:
‘Dry bones, hear the word of ADONAI!’ 5 Thus says ADONAI Elohim to these bones: “Behold, I will cause Ruach[23] to enter you, so you will live. 6 I will attach tendons to you, bring flesh on you and cover you with skin. Then I will put breath in you.
You will live. You will know that I am ADONAI.”

7 So I prophesied just as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake. Then the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8 I saw, and behold, there were tendons on them, flesh came up and skin covered them above, but there was no breath in them.

9 Then He said to me, “Prophesy to the Ruach. Prophesy, son of man, and say to the Ruach, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Come from the four winds, Ruach! Breathe upon these slain, that they may live.” 10 So I prophesied just as He commanded me. The Ruach came into them and they lived. They stood up on their feet, a vast army.

11 Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say: ‘Our bones are dried up; our hope is lost; we are cut off—by ourselves.’ 12 Therefore prophesy and say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I will open your graves. I will bring you up out of your graves, My people. I will bring you back to the land of Israel. 13 You will know that I am ADONAI, when I have opened your graves and brought you up out of your graves, My people. 14 I will put My Ruach in you and you will live. I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I, ADONAI, have spoken and that I have done it.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Reunification of Southern and Northern Kingdoms 15 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: 16 “You, son of man, take one stick and write on it, ‘For Judah’—for Bnei-Yisrael joined with him. Then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph’—the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel joined with him. 17 Join them one to another for yourself, as one stick, so they may become one in your hand.

18 “When the children of your people speak to you saying, ‘Won’t you tell us what you mean by these?’ 19 say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph—which is in the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel joined with him—and I will put them together with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick. They will be one in My hand.’ 20 The sticks that you write on will be in your hand before their eyes.

21 “Then say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I will take Bnei-Yisrael from among the nations, where they have gone. I will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land. 22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will be king to them all. They will no longer be two nations and never again be divided into two kingdoms. 23 They will never again be defiled with their idols, their detestable things or with any of their transgressions. I will save them out of all their dwellings in which they sinned. I will purify them. Then they will be My people and I will be their God. 24 My servant David will be king over them. They will all have One Shepherd. They will walk in My ordinances and observe My rulings and do them. 25 They will live in the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, where your ancestors lived. They will live there—they, their children and their children’s children, forever, and My servant David will be their prince forever. 26 I will cut a covenant of shalom with them—it will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will give to them and multiply them. I will set up My Sanctuary among them forever.[24] 27 My dwelling-place will be over them. I will be their God and they will be My people. [28] Then the nations will know that I am ADONAI who sanctifies Israel, when My Sanctuary is in their midst forever.’”

Gog's Alliance Invades Israel

Ezekiel 38 1 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Gog of the land of Magog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.[25] Prophesy against him 3 and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim: 'Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. 4 I will turn you about and put hooks into your jaws. I will bring you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen—all of them splendidly dressed—a vast assembly with breastplate and shield, all of them wielding swords. 5 With them will be Persia, Cush and Put, all of them with shield and helmet, 6 Gomer and all his troops, the house of Togarmah from the extreme north and all his troops—many peoples with you.

7 "'Be prepared, prepare yourself, you and all your company gathered around you. Be a guard for them. 8 After many days you will be summoned. In the latter years, you will come against the land that has been brought back from the sword and regathered from many peoples on the mountains of Israel, which had been a continual waste. But they were brought out from the peoples. When all of them are dwelling securely, 9 you will come up, you will come like a storm, you will be like a cloud covering the land—you and all your troops and many peoples with you.'"

10 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "It will come to pass in that day that things will come into your heart and you will devise an evil plan. 11 You will say, 'I will go up against the land of unwalled villages. I will fall upon the quiet people who live securely, all of them living without walls, having no bars or gates, 12 in order to seize spoil and carry off plunder, to turn your hand against the waste places now inhabited and against the people gathered from the nations, who have been acquiring livestock and property, who live in the center of the world.'

13 "Sheba, Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all its young lions will say to you: 'Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your company to plunder? To carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and property, to make off with immense spoils?’

14 “Therefore, son of man, prophesy, say to Gog, thus says Adonai Elohim: ‘In that day when My people Israel dwell safely, will you not know? 15 You will come from your place out of the extreme north—you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and mighty army. 16 You will come up against My people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the last days. I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me—when I am sanctified through you, Gog, before their eyes.’”

17 Thus says Adonai Elohim: “Are you the one that I spoke about in former times through My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them? 18 In that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel”—it is a declaration of Adonai—“My fury will rise up in My nostrils. 19 In My jealousy and the fire of My wrath I have spoken! Surely in that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. 20 The fish of the sea, the birds of the heavens, the beasts of the field, all creeping things that creep upon the ground and all humans upon the face of the earth will shake at My presence. The mountains will be thrown down. The steep places will fall. Every wall will fall to the ground. 21 I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains”—it is a declaration of Adonai—“every man’s sword will be against his brother. 22 I will punish him with pestilence and blood. I will pour out rain on him, on his troops and on the many peoples with him, a torrential rain, with hailstones, fire and brimstone. 23 So I will magnify and sanctify Myself. I will make Myself known in the eyes of many nations, and they will know that I am Adonai.”

Destruction of Gog

Ezekiel 39 1 “You, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. 2 I will turn you around, drive you along, and lead you up from the extreme north. I will bring you upon the mountains of Israel. 3 Then I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand. 4 You will fall on the mountains of Israel—you, all your troops and the people that are with you. I will give you as food to all kinds of birds of prey and to the beasts of the field. 5 You will fall on an open field, for I have spoken.’” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

6 “I will send fire on Magog and on those who live securely in the islands. Then they will know that I am ADONAI. 7 So I will make My holy Name known among My people Israel. I will not let My holy Name be profaned anymore. The nations will know that I am ADONAI, the Holy One in Israel. 8 Behold, it is coming.
It will be done”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“this is the day that I have spoken about.

9 “The inhabitants of Israel’s cities will go out and kindle fires with the weapons—shields and breastplates, bows and arrows, war clubs and spears. They will make fires with them for seven years. 10 They will not take wood out of the field or cut anything from the forests, for they will make fire from the weapons.
They will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

11 “On that day, I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of the travelers east of the sea. It will block those who travel through, since they will bury Gog and all his multitude there. Then they will call it the valley of Hamon-Gog.
[26] 12 The house of Israel will bury them for seven months, in order to cleanse the land. 13 All the people of the land will bury them. It will be memorable for them, a day when I am glorified.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

14 “Men will be continually set apart to travel through the land and bury the travelers remaining on the face of the land, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months, they will make their search. 15 When they travel through the land, if any sees a man’s bone, he will set up a sign by it, until the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. 16 Hamonah will also be the name of the city. So they will cleanse the land.
17 “You, son of man”—thus says Adonai Elohim—“say to every kind of bird and to every beast of the field: ‘Assemble and come! Gather from all around to My sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel.
You will eat flesh and drink blood. 18 You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth—as rams, lambs, goats, bulls—all of them fatlings of Bashan. 19 So you will eat fat until you are gorged and you will drink blood until you are drunk, from My sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you. 20 You will be filled at My table with horses and horsemen, with mighty men and all the warriors.’” It is a declaration of Adonai.

Israel Will Know Adonai

21 “I will put My glory among the nations. All the nations will see My judgment that I will execute and My hand that I will lay on them. 22 The house of Israel will know that I am Adonai their God, from that day onward. 23 The nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile for their iniquity, because they broke faith with Me. So I hid My face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies. All of them fell by the sword. 24 I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their transgressions. I hid My face from them.”
25 Therefore thus says Adonai Elohim: “Now I will restore Jacob from exile, when I have compassion on the whole house of Israel. I will be zealous for My holy Name. 26 They will bear their shame and all their disloyalty by which they broke faith with Me, when they were living securely in their land, with no one making them afraid. 27 When I have brought them back from the peoples and have gathered them out of their enemies’ lands, I will be sanctified in them in the eyes of many nations.

28 Then they will know that I am ADONAI their God, since it was I who caused them to go into exile among the nations and I who will gather them back to their own land. I will never again leave them there. 29 I will never again hide My face from them. For I have poured out My Ruach upon the house of Israel.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Measurements of a New Temple

Ezekiel 40 1 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month—in the fourteenth year after the city was struck down, on that very day—the hand of ADONAI was on me, and He brought me there. 2 In visions God brought me to the land of Israel and set me down upon a very high mountain. On it, toward the south, was something like the construction of a city. 3 He brought me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like bronze.[27] He had a linen cord in his hand and a measuring rod.[28] He was standing in the gateway.

4 The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, hear with your ears, set your heart on all that I show you—for I brought you here in order to show you—and report all that you see to the house of Israel."

5 Behold, an outer wall was all around the House. The measuring rod in the man's hand was six cubits long,[29] each of which was a normal cubit and a handbreadth. When he measured the thickness of the wall structure, it was one rod,
and the height was one rod.

6 Then he went to the gate that faced east and went up its steps. When he measured the threshold of the gate, it was one rod wide. Also the other threshold was one rod wide. 7 Each guard chamber was one rod long and one rod wide. The space between the chambers was five cubits. The threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate, facing the House, measured one rod. 8 When he measured the porch of the gate toward the House, it was one rod. 9 When he measured the porch of the gate, it was eight cubits; its pillars were two cubits. The porch of the gate faced the House. 10 Now the guard chambers of the east gate were three on this side, and three on the other side—the three had the same measurement. The side pillars had the same measure on this side and on that side. 11 When he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, it was ten cubits, and the length of the gate was 13 cubits. 12 A barrier wall was in front of the guard chambers, one cubit on each side. Each chamber was six cubits on each side. 13 When he measured the gate from the roof of the one chamber to the roof of the other, the width was 25 cubits, door facing door. 14 Then he did the pillars—60 cubits. A gateway extended all around to the pillar of the courtyard. 15 Now from the front of the gate of the entrance to the front of the inner porch of the gate measured 50 cubits. 16 There were shuttered windows toward the chambers and toward their pillars within the surrounding gate, and likewise the porches had windows all around inside. On each pillar were palm trees.

17 Then he brought me to the outer court.[30] Behold, there were rooms and pavement, made for the surrounding court, with 30 rooms along the pavement. 18 The pavement was by the side of the gates, as wide as the gates were long. This was the lower pavement. 19 He measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the exterior front of the inner court—it was 100 cubits, to the east and to the north.

20 Next he measured the length and width of the gate of the outer court facing toward the north. 21 Its guard chambers were three on this side and three on that side. Its pillars and its porches had the same measurements as the first gate—50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. 22 Its windows, porches and palm trees were the same measurements as the gate facing toward the east. Its stairway had seven steps, and its porch was in front of them. 23 A gate to the inner court was opposite the other gate, northward and eastward. He measured 100 cubits from gate to gate.

24 Then he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate toward the south. He measured its pillars and its porches. They had the same measurements. 25 The gate and its porch had windows all around, like the other windows, 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. 26 Its stairway had seven steps, and its porches were in front of them. It had palm-trees on its pillars, one on this side and another on that side. 27 There was a gate to the inner court toward the south. He measured from gate to gate toward the south—100 cubits.

[28] Then he brought me to the inner court through the south gate. When he measured the south gate, it had the same measurements. [29] Its chambers, pillars and porch had the same measurements. There were windows in it and in the surrounding porch. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide.
[30] There were porches all around, 25 cubits long and five cubits wide. [31] Its porch was toward the outer court. Palm-trees were on its pillars. Its stairway had eight steps.
[32] Then he brought me into the inner court toward the east.
He measured it with the same measurements. [33] Its chambers, pillars and porch had the same measurements. There were windows in it and in its surrounding porch. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. [34] Its porch was toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its pillars on this side and on that side. Its stairway had eight steps.
[35] He brought me to the north gate. He measured it with the same measurements: [36] its chambers, pillars and porch. There were windows in it all around. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. [37] Its pillars were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its pillars, on this side and on that side. Its stairway had eight steps. [38] A chamber with its entry was by the pillars at the gates; there they rinse the burnt offering. [39] In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering. [40] Off to the side, on the outside as one goes up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables.
On the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables.
[41] Four tables were on one side and four tables were on the other side, by the side of the gate—eight tables, on which they would slaughter. [42] There were four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit high. The instruments for the slaughter of the burnt offering and the sacrifice were laid on them. [43] Hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened in the House all around. The flesh of the offering was to be placed upon the tables.
[44] Outside the inner gate in the inner court were chambers for the singers, one of which was at the side of the north gate, facing south. The one at the side of the east gate faced north.

45 He said to me, “This chamber that faces toward the south is for the kohanim who keep charge of the House. 46 The chamber that faces toward the north is for the kohanim who keep charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, those from the sons of Levi who come near to ADONAI to minister to Him.”
47 Then he measured the court. It was 100 cubits long and 100 cubits wide, a square. The altar was in front of the House.
48 He brought me to the porch of the House. He measured each pillar of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side. The width of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. 49 The length of the porch was 20 cubits and the width 11 cubits. It was ascended by way of steps, where pillars stood, one on each side.

The Inner Sanctuary

Ezekiel 41 [1] Then he brought me to the Temple, and measured the pillars—six cubits wide on one side, six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tent. [2] The width of the entrance was ten cubits. The sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side and five cubits on the other side. He measured its length, 40 cubits and its width, 20 cubits. [3] He went to the inner room and measured each pillar of the entrance, two cubits; the doorway, six cubits; and the width of the doorway, seven cubits. [4] When he measured the inner room's length, it was 20 cubits, and the width was 20 cubits, in front of the Temple. He said to me, "This is the Holy of Holies." [5] When he measured the wall of the House, it was six cubits,
and the width of every side chamber was four cubits, surrounding the House on every side. [6] There were 33 side chambers. There were supports in the wall, which belonged to the House for the side chambers all around, so that they were not supported by the wall of the House. [7] The side chambers were wider as they wound about higher and higher. Because the winding about of the House went higher and higher round about the house, therefore the width of the House expanded.
One went up from the lowest row to the highest by way of the middle. [8] I saw also that the House had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were a full rod of six cubits up to the joint. [9] The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits. The space between the side chambers of the House [10] and the outer chambers was 20 cubits wide all around the House on every side. [11] The doors of the side chambers were toward the space, one door toward the north and another door toward the south. The width of the space was five cubits all around.
[12] The building that was before the separate area at the side toward the west was 70 cubits wide. The wall of the building was five cubits thick all around and its length was 90 cubits.
[13] When he measured the House, it was 100 cubits long; the separate area and the building with its walls, was 100 cubits long; 14 and the width of the face of the House and the separate area toward the east was also 100 cubits.

15 When he measured the length of the building facing the separate area behind it, with its galleries on each side, it was 100 cubits. Now the inner Sanctuary and the porches of the court— 16 the thresholds, the shuttered windows, and the galleries all around in three stories opposite the thresholds— were paneled with wood all around, from the ground up to the windows (even the windows were covered), 17 over the space above the door, as far as the inner House, and on all the wall outside all around inside and outside, by measurement. 18 It was made with cheruvim and palm trees. A palm tree was between cheruv and cheruv. Every cheruv had two faces: 19 the face of a man toward the palm tree on one side and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. Thus was it made on all the House all around. 20 The cheruvim and palm trees were made from the ground up to above the door and on the wall of the Temple.

21 The Temple's doorposts were square. Now the front of the Sanctuary had something resembling 22 an altar—three cubits high and two cubits long, made of wood. Its corners, its base and its sides were also of wood. He said to me, "This is the table of the Presence of ADONAI."

23 The Temple and the inner Sanctuary each had double doors. 24 The doors each had two turning leaves—two leaves for one door and two leaves for the other. 25 Cheruvim and palm trees were made on them, on the doors of the Temple, just like those made on the walls. There were thick beams of wood on the face of the porch outside. 26 There were shuttered windows and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the porch, the side chambers of the House and the thick beams.

The Outer Courtyard

Ezekiel 42 [1] He led me out to the outer courtyard toward the north. He brought me to the chamber that was opposite the separate area and opposite the building toward the north. [2] The length of the building with the door on the north was 100 cubits and the width was 50 cubits. [3] Opposite the 20 cubit space belonging to the inner court and opposite the pavement belonging to the outer court was gallery by gallery in three stories. [4] In front of the chambers was a walkway ten cubits wide and 100 cubits long. Their doorways were toward the north. [5] The upper chambers were narrower, because the galleries took more away from them than from the lower and the middle ones in the building. [6] For they were in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courtyards; therefore more space was taken away than from the lower and the middle floors, in comparison with the ground. [7] A wall that was outside by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court in front of the chambers, was 50 cubits in length. [8] For the chambers that were toward the outer court were 50 cubits long while those facing the Temple were 100 cubits. [9] Below these chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer courtyard.

[10] In the thickness of the wall of the courtyard toward the east, in front of the separate area and in front of the building, there were chambers. [11] The passageway in front of them were similar to the chambers on the north, as long and wide as them, with all their exits and similar arrangements and doors.[12] Corresponding to the doorways of the chambers on the south, there was a doorway at the head of the passageway—a way directly in front of the wall toward the east, as one enters
them.

[13] Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate area, they are the holy chambers, where the kohanim who are near to ADONAI eat the most holy things. There they will put the most holy things—the grain offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering—for the place is holy. 14 Once the kohanim enter, they are not to go out of the holy place into the outer court without leaving there their garments in which they minister—for they are holy. They will put on other garments and approach the area for the people.”

15 When he had finished measuring the inner House, he brought me out by way of the gate facing east and measured all around. 16 When he measured the east side with the measuring rod, it was 500 rods, with the measuring rod round about. 17 When he measured the north side, it was 500 rods by the measuring rod. 18 When he measured the south side, it was 500 rods, with the measuring rod. 19 Then he turned about to the west side and measured 500 rods with the measuring rod. 20 So he measured the four sides. It had a wall all around—the length was 500 and the width was 500—to make a distinction between the holy and the profane.

The Glory Returns

Ezekiel 43 [1] Then he led me to the gate, the gate looking east, [2] and behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters. The earth was radiant with His glory. [3] The appearance of the vision that I saw was like the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city. The visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar. So I fell on my face. [4] Then the glory of ADONAI came into the House by way of the gate facing the east. [5] The Ruach took me up and brought me into the inner court. Then behold, the glory of ADONAI filled the House.

[6] Then I heard someone speaking to me from the House, while a man was standing beside me. [7] He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of My throne, the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of Bnei-Yisrael forever. The house of Israel will no longer defile My holy Name—neither they nor their kings—by their prostitution or by the corpses of their kings in their high places. [8] Whenever they set their threshold next to My threshold and their doorpost next to My doorpost, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy Name by their abominations that they committed. So I have finished them off in My fury. [9] Now let them put away their prostitution and the corpses of their kings, far from Me.
Then I will dwell among them forever.

[10] "You, son of man, describe the House to the house of Israel, so they will be ashamed of their iniquities. Let them measure accurately. [11] If they are ashamed of all they have done, sketch out the House for them, its layout, its exits and its entrances, its complete design, with all its ordinances and all its laws.
Write it down in their sight, so they may observe its complete design and all its ordinances and do them. [12] This is the Torah of the House: the whole territory around it on top of the mountain will be most holy. Behold, this is the Torah of the House.

The Altar

13 “These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (a cubit being a normal cubit plus a handbreadth). Its gutter will be a cubit deep and a cubit wide. Its rim will be one span surrounding the edge. This will be the base of the altar. 14 From the base on the ground to the lower ledge will be two cubits and the width one cubit. From the smaller ledge to the larger ledge will be four cubits and the width a cubit. 15 The altar hearth will be four cubits high. Four horns will project upward from the hearth. 16 The hearth will be 12 cubits long by 12 wide, with four sides square.17 The ledge will be 14 cubits long and 14 wide with four sides square. The border surrounding it will be half a cubit and its bottom will be a cubit all around. Its steps will face east.”

18 Then he said to me, “Son of man, thus says Adonai Elohim:
‘These are the statutes for the altar on the day when they will construct it, in order to offer burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood on it. 19 Give a young bull for a sin offering to the Levitical kohanim who are from the offspring of Zadok, who come near to Me to minister to Me’”—it is a declaration of Adonai. 20 “You are to take some of its blood and put it on its four horns, on the four corners of the ledge and on the border around it. So you will purify it and make atonement for it.
21 Take the bull of the sin offering and burn it in the appointed place of the House, outside the Sanctuary.

22 “On the second day, offer a male goat without blemish as a sin offering. They will purify the altar as they purified it with the bull. 23 When you have finished purifying it, offer a young bull without blemish and a ram out of the flock without blemish. 24 Present them before Adonai. The kohanim will cast salt upon them. They will offer them up as a burnt offering to Adonai. 25 Every day for seven days, prepare a goat as a sin offering. They will prepare a young bull and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.26 They will make atonement for the altar and cleanse it for seven days. This is how they will consecrate

it. 27 When they have completed the days, from the eighth day and onward the kohanim will make your burnt offerings upon the altar as well as your fellowship offerings. Then I will accept you”—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

Prince at the Eastern Gate

Ezekiel 44 [1] Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the Sanctuary looking east. It was shut.[2] ADONAI said to me: “This gate is to be shut. It must not be opened. No one may enter through it, for ADONAI God of Israel has entered through it. So it is to be kept shut. [3] Only the prince, since he is a prince, will sit there to eat bread before ADONAI. He will enter by way of the porch of the gate and go out the same way.”

Levitical Priesthood

4 Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the House. I looked, and behold, the glory of ADONAI filled the House of ADONAI. So I fell upon my face. 5 ADONAI said to me,
"Son of man, set your heart, behold with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of ADONAI'S House and all its laws. Set your heart to the entrance of the House, with all exits of the Sanctuary. 6 Say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, thus says ADONAI Elohim: 'Enough of your abominations, house of Israel! 7 You brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My Sanctuary, to profane it—
My House—when you offer My bread, the fat and the blood.
They have broken My covenant, to add to all your abominations. 8 You have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have set keepers of My service in My Sanctuary to please yourselves.'"

9 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, may enter My Sanctuary, not any foreigner who is among Bnei-Yisrael. 10 For the Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray after their idols, will bear their iniquity. 11 Yet they will be ministers in My Sanctuary, overseers of the gates of the House and ministering in the House. They will slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people. They will stand before them to minister to them. 12 Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have lifted up My hand against them"—it is a declaration of ADONAI. "They will bear their iniquity. 13 They will not come near to Me, to minister to Me as kohanim, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the things that are most holy.
They will bear their shame and their abominations, which they have committed.

14 "Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the House, for all its service and for all that will be done in it. 15 So the Levitical kohanim, the sons of Zadok who kept charge of My Sanctuary when Bnei-Yisrael wandered from Me, will draw near to Me to minister to Me. They will stand before Me to offer Me the fat and the blood”—it is declaration of ADONAI. 16 “They are ones who will enter My Sanctuary and draw near to My table to minister to Me. They will keep My charge. 17 It will be that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they will be clothed with linen garments. No wool will come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. 18 They will have linen turbans upon their heads and linen underclothes upon their loins; they will not wear anything that causes sweat. 19 Before they go out to the outer court—to the outer courtyard to the people—they must take off their garments in which they minister and leave them in the holy chambers. They will put on other garments, so they do not consecrate the people while in their garments. 20 They must not shave their heads or let their locks grow long, but must carefully trim the hair of their heads. 21 No kohen may drink wine before entering the inner court. 22 None may take a widow or a divorced woman as his wife, for they must take virgins of the offspring of the house of Israel or a widow who is the widow of a kohen.

23 “They will teach My people the difference between the holy and the common and explain to them the difference between the unclean and the clean. 24 In a lawsuit, they will stand to judge, and judge in accordance with My ordinances. They will keep My laws and My statutes in all My moadim and keep My Shabbatot holy. 25 They must not come near a dead person to defile themselves—only for a father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister who had no husband may they defile themselves. 26 After he is cleansed, they will count seven days for him.27 On the day he goes into the Sanctuary, into the inner court to minister in the Sanctuary, he is to offer his sin offering.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

28 “It will be an inheritance for them. I am their inheritance. Do not give them any possession in Israel for I am their possession. 29 They will eat the grain offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering. Every devoted thing in Israel will be theirs. [30] The first of all the firstfruits of everything and every offering of every kind from all your offerings will belong to the kohanim. You will also give the kohen the first of your dough, to make a blessing to rest on your house. [31] The kohanim may not eat any carcass, whether bird or beast, that dies of itself or is torn.”

Levitical Land

Ezekiel 45 1 “When you allot the land for inheritance, set apart an offering to ADONAI, a holy portion of the land. The length will be 25,000 and the width will be 10,000.[31] It will be holy within all its surrounding borders.2 Out of this, there will be the Holy Place, 500 long by 500 wide, square all around, and 50 cubits for the open land surrounding it. 3 From this area you are to measure a length of 25,000 and a width of 10,000, in which will be the Sanctuary, which is most holy. 4 It is to be the holy portion of the land, for the kohanim ministering in the Sanctuary, who draw near to serve ADONAI. It will be a place for their houses as well as a place consecrated for the Sanctuary.
5 An area 25,000 long by 10,000 wide will be for the Levites, the ministers of the House. It will be a possession for themselves—20 chambers.

6 “You will give the city possession of an area 5,000 wide by 25,000 long, alongside the offering of the holy allotment. It will be for the whole house of Israel.

The Prince’s Allotment

7 “The prince will have a portion on either side of the holy allotment and the city’s property, adjacent to the holy offering and the city’s property, on the west side westward and on the east side eastward. Its length will correspond to one of the tribal portions, from the western boundary to the eastern boundary. 8 It will be land for him as a possession in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress My people. They will give land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.”

9 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Let it be enough for you, princes of Israel. Get rid of violence and destruction, execute justice and righteousness, take away your oppression from My people”—it is a declaration of ADONAI. 10 “You are to have just balances, an honest dry measure and an honest liquid measure.
[32] 11 The dry and liquid measure will be of a uniform measure:

the bath will contain a tenth part of a homer, and the ephah a tenth part of a homer; the standard measure will be the homer.
12 The shekel will be 20 gerahs; 20 plus 25 plus 15 shekels will be your mina.
13 “This is the offering that you are to set apart: a sixth of an ephah out of a homer of wheat, a sixth of an ephah out of a homer of barley, 14 along with the set portion of oil—a bath of oil—as the tithe of the bath for each kor, which is ten baths (or a homer, since ten baths are a homer), 15 and one lamb of the flock out of 200, from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These are for the grain offering, burnt offering and fellowship offerings, to make atonement for them.” It is a declaration of Adonai.
16 “All the people of the land must give this contribution to the prince in Israel. 17 It will be the prince’s role to give the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings at the feasts, New Moons and Shabbatot, in all the moadim of the house of Israel. He will prepare the sin offering, the meal offering, the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

Offerings for Moadim

18 Thus says Adonai Elohim: “In the first month, in the first day of the month, take a young bull without blemish and purify the Sanctuary. 19 The kohen will take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it upon the doorposts of the House and upon the four corners of the ledge of the altar and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 So you will do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance. So you will make atonement for the House.
21 “In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you will have the Passover, a feast of seven days when matzah will be eaten. 22 On that day the prince will prepare a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land. 23 He will prepare a burnt offering to Adonai for the seven days of the feast—seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily for seven days and a male goat daily for a sin offering. [24] He will prepare as a grain offering, an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram and a hin of oil for each ephah. [25] He will do this in the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, during the Feast, for seven days, for sin offering as well as burnt offering, grain offering as well as oil.”

Ezekiel 46 1 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “The gate of the inner court that faces the east will be shut for the six working days.
On Yom Shabbat it will be opened and in the day of the New Moon it will be opened. 2 The prince will enter by way of the porch of the gate from outside, and stand by the post of the gate. Then the kohanim will prepare his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings. He will worship at the threshold of the gate, and then go out. The gate will not be shut until the evening. 3 The people of the land will worship at the door of that gate before ADONAI on Shabbatot and New Moons.

4 “The burnt offering that the prince offers to ADONAI on Yom Shabbat will be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish. 5 The grain offering will be an ephah for the ram. The grain offering for the lambs will be a gift of his hand and a hin of oil for an ephah. 6 On the day of the New Moon it will be a young bull without blemish, six lambs and a ram—they must be without blemish. 7 He will prepare a grain offering, an ephah for the bull and an ephah for the ram, for the lambs whatever his hand may reach and a hin of oil for an ephah. 8 When the prince enters, he will enter by way of the porch of the gate and he will also exit by that way. 9 When the people of the land come before ADONAI at the moadim, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship will exit by way of the south gate.
Whoever enters by way of the south gate must exit by way of north gate. He should not return by the way of the gate where he came in, since he must exit straight ahead. 10 When they enter, the prince will come in among them. When they go out, they will go out together.

11 “At the feasts and the moadim, the grain offering will be an ephah for a bull and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs a gift of his hand and a hin of oil for an ephah. 12 Now if the prince prepares a freewill offering, burnt offering or fellowship offerings as a freewill offering to ADONAI, the gate for him facing east must be opened for him. Then he will prepare his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings as he does on Yom Shabbat. Then he will go out. After he exits, the gate should be shut.

13 “You are to prepare a lamb of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering to ADONAI daily—morning by morning you are to prepare it. 14 Also you will prepare a grain offering with it morning by morning, a sixth of an ephah and a third of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour—a grain offering to ADONAI continually. It is perpetual statute. 15 They will prepare the lamb, the grain offering and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.” 16 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons as his inheritance, it will belong to his sons. It will be their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he gives of his inheritance as a gift to one of his servants, it will be his until the year of liberty, when it will revert to the prince. His inheritance will belong to his sons. 18 The prince must not take from the people’s inheritance, evicting them wrongfully out of their property. He must give inheritance to his sons out of his own property, so that My people will not be displaced, anyone from his own property.”
19 Then he brought me through the entrance that was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the kohanim, looking north. Behold, there was a place at the far western end.
20 He said to me, “This is the place where the kohanim will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, where they will bake the grain offering, so they do not bring them into the outer court, to consecrate the people.”
21 Then he brought me out to the outer courtyard and led me past the four corners of the courtyard. Behold, in every corner of the courtyard there was another courtyard. 22 In the four corners of the courtyard there were enclosed courts, 40 cubits long by 30 wide—these four in the corners had the same size.
23 There was a row of masonry surrounding them, surrounding the four. Boiling places were built under the surrounding rows.
24 He said to me, “These are the boiling places where the ministers of the House will boil the sacrifices of the people.”

River of Life

Ezekiel 47 1 Then he brought me back to the door of the House.
Behold, water was flowing out from under the threshold of the House eastward—for the front of the House faced east. The water was flowing down from under the right side of the House, south of the altar. 2 He brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around outside by the way of the outer gate, the way of the gate looking east. Behold, water was trickling out from the right side.

3 When the man went out eastward with a line in his hand, he measured a 1,000 cubits. Then he led me into the water—water to the ankles. 4 Again he measured a 1,000, and led me into the water—water to the knees. Again he measured a 1,000, and he led me into the water—water up to the waist. 5 Again he measured a 1,000, and now it was a river that I could not pass through, for the water had risen, water to swim in—a river that could not be crossed. 6 He said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man?"

Then he brought me back to the bank of the river. 7 When I had returned, behold, there were very many trees on one side and on the other, along the bank of the river.[33] 8 Then he said to me, "These waters go out toward the eastern region. They go down to the Arabah and enter the sea. When they arrive at the sea, the waters of the sea will flow and will become fresh.
[34] 9 It will be that every living creature that swarms will live wherever the rivers go. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because this water goes there and makes the salt water fresh. So everything will be healed and live wherever the river goes. 10 Fishermen will stand by it; from En-gedi to En-eglaim, it will be a place for spreading of nets. Their fish will be of many different kinds—like the fish of the Great Sea, a huge quantity. 11 Its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be set aside for salt. 12 On the river, on its bank, on this side and that side, will grow every kind of tree for food. Its leaf will not wither; its fruit will not fail; it will bear new fruit every month, because its water flows out from the Sanctuary. Its fruit will be for food and its leaf will be for healing.”

Borders of the Holy Land

13 Thus says Adonai Elohim, “This will be the border, by which you will divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel, Joseph receiving two portions. 14 You will inherit it, each one like another, as I lifted My hand to give to your fathers. So this land will fall to you as an inheritance.
15 “This will be the boundary of the land: on the north side, from the Great Sea, by way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad—16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath, as far as Hazerhatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. 17 So the border from the sea will be Hazar-enon at the border of Damascus, with the territory of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern side.
18 The east side, between Hauran, Damascus, Gilead and the land of Israel, will be by the Jordan. You will measure from the northern border to the eastern sea. This will be the eastern side.
19 The south side southward will be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, to the Wadi of Egypt and to the Great Sea. This will be the southern side toward the south.
20 The west side will be the Great Sea, from the southern border as far as the front of the entrance of Hamath. This will be the western side.
21 You are to divide this land for yourselves to the tribes of Israel. 22 So you are to divide it by lot for an inheritance for you and for the outsiders who dwell among you, whoever bears children among you. They will be to you like the native-born of Bnei-Yisrael; they will be allotted an inheritance along with you among the tribes of Israel. 23 In whatever tribe the outsider lives, there you will give him his inheritance.” It is a declaration of Adonai.

Ezekiel 48 [1] “Now these are the names of the tribes: Dan’s portion will be from the northern frontier, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar-enan at the northern border of Damascus, beside Hamath, and from eastern side to the sea.[2] Next to the territory of Dan, from the east side to the west will be Asher’s one, [3] Next to the territory of Asher, from the east side to the west will be Naphtali’s one. [4] Next to the territory of Naphtali, from the east side to the west, will be Manasseh’s one. [5] Next to the territory of Manasseh, from the east side to the west will be Ephraim’s one. [6] Next to the territory of Ephraim, from the east side to the west, will be Reuben’s one. [7] Next to the territory of Reuben, from the east side to the west, will be Judah’s one.

[8] By Judah’s border, from the east side to the west, will be the contribution which you will set aside, 25,000 cubits in width and in length like one of the portions, from the east side to the west. The Sanctuary will be in the midst of it. [9] The allotment that you will set apart to ADONAI will be 25,000 in length and 10,000 in width. [10] The holy allotment will be apportioned for these—for the kohanim. Toward the north it will be 25,000 cubits and toward the west 10,000 in width, toward the east 10,000 in width and toward the south 25,000 in length.
ADONAI’S Sanctuary will be in the midst of it. [11] The sanctified portion will be for the kohanim of the sons of Zadok, who kept My charge and did not go astray as the Levites went astray when Bnei-Yisrael went astray. [12] It will be for them a portion set apart from the offering of the land, most holy, by the border of the Levites.

[13] Alongside the border of the kohanim, the Levites will have 25,000 in length and 10,000 in width. The entire length will be 25,000 and the width 10,000. [14] They must not sell or exchange any of it or transfer the choice portion of the land, for it is holy to ADONAI. [15] The 5,000 that remain in the width, in front of the 25,000 thousand, will be for common use, for the city, for living and for pastureland.

“The city will be in the midst of it, [16] and will have these measurements: the north side; 4,500; the south side 4,500; the east side, 4,500; and the west side, 4,500. 17 The city will have open land: toward the north 250, toward the south 250, toward the east 250, and toward the west 250.18 The remainder of the length, according to the holy allotment, will be 10,000 eastward and 10,000 westward. It will be alongside the holy allotment. Its produce will be food for those who serve the city.

19 Those who serve the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, will till it. 20 The whole allotment will be 25,000 by 25,000, square;
you will set apart the holy allotment with the property of the city.

21 “What is remaining from this side and on the other of the holy allotment and the city property will be for the prince.
What is adjacent to the 25,000 of the allotment toward the eastern border, and westward adjacent to the 25,000 toward the western border, alongside the portions, will be for the prince. The holy allotment and the Sanctuary of the House will be in the midst of it. 22 The property of the Levites and the property of the city will be in the middle of what belongs to the prince; what belongs to the prince will be between Judah’s border and Benjamin’s border.

23 As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west, will be Benjamin’s one. 24 Next to the territory of Benjamin, from the east side to the west, will be Simeon’s one. 25 Next to the territory of Simeon, from the east side to the west, will be Issachar’s one. 26 Next to the territory of Issachar, from the east side to the west, will be Zebulon’s one. 27 Next to the territory of Zebulun, from the east side to the west, will be Gad’s one.
28 Next to the territory of Gad, at the south side southward, the border will be from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the Wadi, to the Great Sea. 29 This is the land that you will divide by lot to the tribes of Israel as an inheritance, and these are their portions.” It is a declaration of Adonai.

30 “These are the exits of the city: on the north side, 4,500 by measure, 31 will be the gates of the city named after of the tribes of Israel—three gates northward—the Reuben Gate, one;
the Judah Gate, one; the Levi Gate, one. 32 At the east side, 4,500, will be three gates: the Joseph Gate, one; the Benjamin

Gate, one; Dan Gate, one. 33 At the south side, 4,500 by measure, will be three gates: the Simeon Gate, one; the Issachar Gate, one; the Zebulun Gate, one. 34 At the west side, 4,500, with their three gates: the Gad Gate, one; the Asher Gate, one; the Naphtali Gate, one. 35 It will be 18,000 cubits all around.

"From that day on, the name of the city will be: 'ADONAI Is There.'"

The Unfaithful Wife

Hosea 1 1 The word of ADONAI that came to Hosea son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel. 2 When ADONAI first spoke with Hosea, ADONAI said to Hosea:

"Go, get yourself a prostitute as a wife and children with a prostitute!
For the land is an unfaithful prostitute,
far from following after ADONAI." 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. 4 Then ADONAI
said to him:
"Name him Jezreel[1] for in yet a little while I will visit the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and I will destroy the kingdom of the house of Israel.
5 In that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."
6 Then she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And He said to him:
"Name her Lo-ruhamah[2]—
for no longer will I have compassion on the house
of Israel
that I should ever pardon them.
7 But on the house of Judah I will have compassion and deliver them by ADONAI, their God, yet not by bow, sword or battle,
nor by horses and horsemen."
8 After she weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. 9 Then He said:
"Name him Lo-ammi[3],
for you are not My people
and I am not yours."[4]

Restoring the Covenant Promises

Hosea 2

1 “Yet the number of Bnei-Yisrael will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted.[5]
Instead of ‘You are not My people’ being said to them, they will be called ‘Children of the living
God.’
2 Then the descendants of Judah and descendants of Israel will be gathered together.
They will appoint themselves one head
And they will go up from the land.
For the day of Jezreel will be great.
3 Say you to your brothers, ‘Ammi’[6]
and to your sisters, ‘Ruhamah’[7].
4 Contend with your mother, contend!
For she is not My wife nor I her husband.
Let her put away her fornications from her face and her adulteries from between her breasts.
5 Or else I will strip her naked and expose her as on the day she was born.
Then I will make her like a wilderness.
Yes, I will make her like desert land,
and I will let her die of thirst.
6 I will have no compassion for her children, for they are children of prostitution.
7 For their mother has practiced prostitution.
She who conceived them has been shameful.
For she said, ‘Let me go after my lovers, who are giving me my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.’
8 Therefore see, I will hedge her in with thorns, and I will build a wall around her

so she cannot find her paths.
9 Then she will chase after her lovers, but she will not overtake them.
She will seek them, but not find.
Then she will say:
‘Let me go and return to my first husband, for was it better for me then, than now.’ 10 But she did not realize that I Myself gave her the grain, the wine and the fresh oil.
I lavished on her silver, also gold—
which they made into Baal.
11 Therefore I will return and take back My grain in its season,
and My new wine at its appointed time, and I will snatch away My wool and My linen for covering her nakedness.
12 So now I will uncover her lewdness to the eyes of her lovers,
and no one will rescue her from My hand.
13 I will also put an end to all her rejoicing— her feasts,
her New Moon,
her Shabbat, and all her moadim.
14 I will also devastate her vines and her fig trees, of which she said: ‘These are my payment that my lovers have given to me.’
But I will turn them into a thicket
and beasts of the field will devour them.
15 Then I will punish her for the days of the Baalim[8]
to whom she would burn incense—adorning herself with her rings and jewelry, going after her lovers— but Me she forgot.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Compassion and Covenant Love 16 “So then, I Myself will entice her, I will bring her into the wilderness and speak to her heart.

17 I will give her back her vineyards from there and make the valley of Achor a door of hope.
She will respond there—
as in the days of her youth,
as in the day she came up out of the land of Egypt.
18 In that day—it is a declaration of Adonai— you will proclaim, ‘My husband,’
and never again call Me, ‘My Baal.’
19 Then I will remove the names of the Baalim out of her mouth, no longer to be mentioned by their name.
20 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, the flying creatures in the sky,
and the creeping things on the ground.
I will break into pieces the bow and sword and warfare from the land,
and I will cause them to lie down securely.
21 Then I will betroth you to Me forever— yes, I will betroth you to Me with righteousness, justice, covenant loyalty and compassion.
22 I will betroth you to Me with faithfulness, and you will know Adonai.
23 So it will be in that day, I will respond —it is a declaration of Adonai— I will respond to the skies,
and they will respond to the earth, 24 and the earth will respond with grain, new wine, and fresh oil— and they will respond with ‘Jezreel!’[9] 25 I will sow her in the land for Myself.
I will have compassion on Lo-ruhamah.
I will say to Lo-ammi, ‘You are My people!’[10]
and they will say, ‘My God!’”

Buying Back His Wife

Hosea 3 1 Then ADONAI said to me: “Go again! Love a woman who is loved by a companion and committing adultery—just as ADONAI has loved the Bnei-Yisrael, while they were turning to other gods and loving raisin cakes.”
2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver and an omer and a half of barley. 3 Then I said to her: “For many days you must stay with me. You must not practice prostitution.
You must not have a man, and I will be the same toward you.”
4 For Bnei-Yisrael will remain for many days without king, without prince, without sacrifice, without sacred pillar, and without ephod or teraphim.[11] 5 Afterwards, Bnei-Yisrael will return, and they will seek ADONAI their God and David their king. Then they will turn in awe to ADONAI and to His goodness in the last days.

Destroyed For Lack of Knowledge

Hosea 4

1 Hear the word of ADONAI, Bnei-Yisrael!
For ADONAI has a dispute with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth,
no covenant loyalty,
and no knowledge of God in the land.
2 Curse, deceive, murder, steal, commit adultery!
They practice violence,
and bloodshed follows bloodshed.
3 Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone dwelling in it will languish along with the beasts of the field and the flying creatures of the sky— even the fish of the sea will be removed.
4 Yet let no one dispute and let no one argue.
Your people are like a kohen
who makes quarrels.
5 So you will stumble by day.
Also a prophet will stumble with you by night, when I destroy your mother.
6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Since you rejected knowledge,
I will also reject you from being My kohen.
Since you forgot the Torah of your God, just so I will forget your children.
7 The more they multiplied, the more they sinned against Me.
I will change their glory into disgrace.
8 They feed on the sin of My people and relish their iniquity.
9 But it will be like people, like kohen.
So I will punish them for their ways, and repay them for their deeds.

10 They have eaten but will not be satisfied.
They have fornicated but will not increase.
For they stopped giving heed to ADONAI.
11 Prostitution and wine—even new wine— it takes away
understanding.
12 My people consult their wooden idol and their divining rod informs them.

For a spirit of prostitution leads them astray

and they have been a prostitute—
out from under their God.
13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops and on the high places they burn incense under oak poplar, and terebinth— for its shade is good.
Therefore your daughters are prostitutes and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.
14 Will I not punish your daughters for prostitution or your daughters-in-law for adultery?
For they consort with prostitutes,
and they sacrifice with cult prostitutes.

A people without understanding will be thrust down.

15 Though you, Israel, are a prostitute, let Judah not become guilty.
But do not come to Gilgal
or go up to Beth-aven,[12]
and do not swear: ‘As Adonai lives!’
16 For Israel is stubborn like a stubborn cow.
Now Adonai will pasture them like a lamb in the open field.
17 Ephraim is joined to idols; let him alone!
18 Their liquor has come to an end.
They surely have practiced prostitution.
Her rulers have deeply loved disgrace.
19 A wind will wrap her up in its wings.
They will be ashamed of their sacrifices.

Judgment for Betrayal

Hosea 5

1 Hear this, O priests!
Pay attention, O house of Israel!
Give ear, O house of the king!
For the judgment applies to you: For you were a snare at Mizpah
and a net spread on Tabor.
2 Rebels were deep in slaughter, so I am a chastisement for them all.
3 I myself have known Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me.
For now, Ephraim, you are a prostitute— Israel is defiled!
4 They will not give up their evil deeds to return to their
God.
For a spirit of prostitution is in them, and ADONAI they have not known.
5 The Pride of Israel will answer to his face: Israel and Ephraim will stagger in their iniquity, Judah also will stumble with them.
6 With their flocks and with their herds they will go to seek ADONAI, but they will not find Him— He has withdrawn from them.
7 They have betrayed ADONAI, for they have begotten foreign children.
Now the New Moon will devour them, with their portions.

8 Blow a shofar in Gibeah, a trumpet in Ramah!
Sound an alarm at Beth-aven:
“Behind you, Benjamin!”
9 Ephraim will be become desolate in the day of rebuke.

Among the tribes of Israel
I made known what is certain.
10 The princes of Judah were like those who move a boundary mark.
I pour out My fury on them like water.
11 Oppressed is Ephraim, crushed by judgment,
for he willingly followed a worthless thing.
12 So, I will be like a moth to Ephraim and like decay to the house of Judah.
13 When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah his wound,

Ephraim went to Assyria
and sent envoys to a warring king.

But he cannot heal you
nor will he cure your wound.
14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will tear and go away.
I will carry off, and nobody will rescue.
15 I will go and return to My place until they admit their guilt.
Then they will seek My face.
In their distress they will seek Me earnestly:

Prayer of Teshuvah

Hosea 6

1 Come, let us return to ADONAI.
For He has torn, but He will heal us.
He has smitten, but He will bind us up.
2 After two days He will revive us.
On the third day He will raise us up, and we will live in His presence.[13]
3 So let us know, let us strive to know ADONAI.
Like dawn His going forth is certain.
He will come to us like the rain,
like the latter rain watering the earth.

Covenant Loyalty More Than Sacrifice 4 "O Ephraim, what shall I do for you?

O Judah, what will I do for you?
For your loyalty is like a morning cloud or like dew rising early, vanishing.
5 Therefore I cut them down by the prophets.
I slew them by the words of My mouth.
Now the judgments pronounced against you: light will go forth.
6 For I delight in loyalty[14] and not sacrifice, knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
7 But like Adam, they transgressed a covenant.
There they dealt treacherously with Me.
8 Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with bloody footprints.
9 Like marauding bands waiting for a man, so a company of priests murders on the way toward Shechem.
For they have committed crime.

10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing:
Ephraim’s prostitution is there,
Israel has become unclean.
11 Also, Judah, there is a harvest for you, when I return
My people from captivity.”

Iniquity of Senseless Ephraim

Hosea 7

1 “When I would have healed Israel, the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered, even the wickedness of Samaria,
for they practice fraud.
So a thief breaks in;
a marauding band will raid outside.
2 But they never admit in their heart that I remember all their evil.
Now their deeds are all around them.
They are right before My face.
3 They gladden the king with their evil and the princes with their lies.
4 All of them are practicing adultery, as an oven heated by a baker who stops stirring or kneading dough
when it is leavened.
5 On the day of our king, princes become sick from wine.
His hand drags scorners along.
6 For their hearts are like an oven, as they wait in ambush.
All night their anger smolders.
In the morning it burns like a blazing fire.
7 All of them are hot like an oven, and they devour their rulers.
All of their kings have fallen.
None among them calls on Me.
8 Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples.

Ephraim has become a pancake
that never gets turned over.
9 Strangers devoured his strength— yet he does not know it.
Gray hairs have spread on him—
and he does not know it.
10 Though the Pride of Israel has answered him to his face,

yet they did not return to ADONAI their God, nor seek Him about all this.
11 Ephraim is like a senseless silly dove, they call to Egypt; they go to Assyria.
12 As they are going, I will spread out My net over them,
I will bring them down like a bird from the sky.
I will chasten them as in the report that comes to their assembly.
13 Oy to them!
For they strayed from Me.
Devastation to them!
For they rebelled against Me.

Should I redeem them
after they spoke lies about Me?
14 Nor did they not cry to Me in their heart when they were wailing on their beds.
For the sake of grain and new wine
they slash themselves—
they keep turning away from Me.
15 I trained and strengthened their arms, yet they kept planning evil against Me.
16 They will turn back—only not upwards.
They are like a treacherous bow.
Their princes will fall by the sword because of the insolence with their tongues.
This will be for their ridicule in the land of Egypt.

Idols Thrown Down

Hosea 8

1 “Put a shofar to your mouth!

Like a vulture he comes against the house of ADONAI.
For they overstepped My covenant and transgressed
My Torah.
2 Will they cry out to Me, ‘My God, we—Israel—knew
You’?[15]
3 Israel has rejected goodness— an adversary will pursue him.
4 They crowned kings, but not by Me.

They appointed princes
I did not approve.
Their silver and gold they made into idols— just so they would be cut down.
5 Samaria! Your calf is thrown down!
My anger is kindled against them!
How long will they be incapable of innocence?
6 For a craftsman from Israel made it, so it is no god.
For the calf of Samaria will be splinters.

7 “For they sow wind, and reap a whirlwind.
There is no mature grain—
the sprout yields no meal.
Should it produce anything,
strangers would swallow it up.
8 Israel has been swallowed up!
Now they are among the nations,
like an ornament with no delight in it.
9 For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey alone by itself.
Ephraim has hired lovers.
10 Although they hire among the nations, I will now round them up.
So they will begin to decrease
under the burden of king and princes.
11 “When Ephraim multiplied altars for making sin offerings, they became his altars for sinning.
12 Though I were to write out for him ten thousand things from My Torah, they are regarded as something strange.
13 Sacrifices are gifts for Me— should they sacrifice meat and then eat it?
ADONAI will not accept them.

Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sin— they will return to Egypt.
14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built temples, while Judah has multiplied fortified cities.
So I will send fire upon its cities that will consume their citadels.”

Days of Desolation Are Coming

Hosea 9

1 Do not rejoice, O Israel, do not celebrate like the peoples— for so you have gone whoring away from your God.
You have loved a prostitute's pay, on every grain-threshing-floor.
2 Threshing-floor and wine-press will not sustain them,
and new wine will fail her.
3 They will not dwell in ADONAI'S land.
Instead Ephraim will return to Egypt, and eat unclean food in Assyria.
4 They will pour no wine-offerings to ADONAI— they would not be pleasing to Him.

Their sacrifices will be like the bread of mourners for them.
All that eat it will be defiled, for their bread is for their appetite, not coming into the House of ADONAI.
5 What will you do for a moed or for the day of ADONAI'S feast?

6 Look, even if they escape the desolation, Egypt will gather them up;
Memphis will bury them.
And their precious silver treasures?
Weeds will possess them.
Thorns will be in their tents.
7 The days of punishment have come; the days of retribution have come.
Let Israel know! The prophet is a fool; the man of the spirit is mad!

For great is your iniquity
and great the hostility.
8 Ephraim is a watchman with my God, a prophet.
A bird catcher’s trap is on all his paths.
Hostility is in the House of his God.
9 They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their iniquity, He will punish their sin.

10 “Like grapes in the wilderness I found Israel.
Like early fruit on a fig tree in its first season I saw your fathers.
They came to Baal-peor
and devoted themselves to shame.

So they became as detestable
as the thing they loved.
11 Ephraim’s glory flies away like a bird— no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!
12 For if they should raise their children, I would make them childless to the last man.
Yes, woe to them
when I depart from them!
13 Ephraim, as I have seen, is like Tyre, planted in a meadow, but Ephraim will bring his children out to the slayer.”

14 Give them, ADONAI, what will You give?

Give them a miscarrying womb
and dried up breasts.

15 “All their wickedness is at Gilgal, for there I despised them.
Because of their wicked practices, I will drive them out of My House.
I will love them no more.
All their princes are rebellious.
16 Ephraim is blighted; their root is withered;
they bear no fruit.
Even if they bring forth children, I will slay the cherished ones in their wombs.”
17 My God will cast them off, since they did not listen to Him.
So they will become wanderers among the nations.

Israel to be Shamed in Captivity

Hosea 10

1 A luxuriant vine is Israel, who produces fruit
for himself.
Like the abundance of his fruit
he has multiplied his altars.
Like the goodness of his land,
they made beautiful sacred pillars.
2 Their heart became smooth[16].
Now they will bear their guilt.
He will break down their altars.
He will destroy their sacred pillars.
3 Surely now they will say: “We have no king, for we have not feared ADONAI.
The king—what can he do for us?”
4 They spoke words— empty oaths to make a covenant.
But judgment springs up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.
5 The inhabitants of Samaria will quarrel over the calves of Beth-aven.
Indeed its people will mourn over it, but its priests
will tremble over it.
For its glory will surely depart from it.
6 It also will be carried to Assyria as tribute to a warring king.

Ephraim will receive shame
and Israel will be put to shame by its own counsel.
7 Samaria is being cut off.
Her king is like a splinter on the surface of the water.
8 The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel will be destroyed.
Thorns and thistles will come up on their altars.
And they will say to the mountains: “Cover us!”
And to the hills: “Fall on us!”[17]
9 “From the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel.
There they took their stand.
Will not war over sons of iniquity overtake them in Gibeah?
10 When I desire, I will chasten them, and peoples will gather against them when they are yoked to their two sins.
11 Though Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh,

I put a yoke
over her fair neck.
I will make Ephraim pull;
Judah will plow;
Jacob will drag a harrow by himself.”

Plow Up Your Ground [12] Sow for yourselves righteousness.[18]

Reap in accord with covenant love.
Break up your unplowed ground.
For it is time to seek ADONAI, until He comes and showers righteousness on you.
13 You have plowed up wickedness, you have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of delusion, for you have trusted in your own way, in the multitude of your mighty men.
14 A tumult will arise among your people.
All your strongholds will be demolished, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle, when a mother was dashed in pieces with her children.
15 Just so has Bethel done to you because of your great wickedness.
At dawn the king of Israel
will be utterly cut off.

My Son Called Out

Hosea 11

1 “When Israel was a youth I loved him, and out of Egypt I called My son.[19]
2 They called out to them but they departed from their presence.
They kept sacrificing to the Baalim and burning incense up to idols.
3 Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk.
I took them on My arms.

But they never acknowledged that I had healed them.
4 With human cords I was drawing them, with bonds of love, and I became to them as One lifting a yoke from their jaws.
I bent down to them and fed them.
5 He will not return to the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian will be his king— because they refused to return.
6 So a sword will fall on his cities, and destroy and devour his gate bars because of their own counsels.
7 So My people are bent on turning from Me.
Although they are being called upwards, none will rise up.

8 “How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I surrender you, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I set you as Zeboim?
My heart is turning over within Me.
My compassions are kindled.
9 I will not vent My fierce anger.
I will not again destroy Ephraim.
For I am God—not a man—
the Holy One in the midst of you, and I will not come in fury.”

10 They will walk after ADONAI.
He will roar like a lion.
Indeed, He will roar
and the children will come trembling from the west.

11 “They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, like a dove out of the land of Assyria, and I will settle them in their houses.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Ephraim Multiplies Lies

Hosea 12

1 “Ephraim surrounded Me with lies[20]
and the house of Israel with deceit.”
Though Judah roams restlessly with God, yet he is faithful with holy things.[21] 2 Ephraim is grazing on wind and pursuing the east wind.
All day he multiplies lies and ruin: making[22] a pact with Assyria, while carrying oil to Egypt.
3 ADONAI also has a dispute with Judah: He will punish Jacob for his ways, repaying him for his deeds.
4 In the womb he grasped his brother’s heel, and in his vigor he strove with God.
5 Yes, he wrestled with the angel and won; he wept and sought his favor.
At Bethel he will find us,
and there He will speak with us.
6 Even ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot— ADONAI is His memorial-Name.
7 So you should return to your God, keep covenant loyalty and justice, and wait for your God continually.
8 A merchant loves to extort, with deceptive balances in his hand.

9 Now Ephraim has said: “How rich I have become! I found wealth by myself.
I won’t be guilty of any sin with any of my property.”

10 “Yet I have been ADONAI your God, since the land of Egypt.

I will yet again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the moed.
11 I also spoke through the prophets and I multiplied visions.

Now through the prophets
I will make parables.
12 Since Gilead is full of iniquity, they are utterly worthless.
In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls—even their altars will become heaps of rocks along the furrows of My field.”

13 Now Jacob fled to the field of Aram, when Israel served for a wife— yes, he kept watch for a wife.
14 So by a prophet ADONAI brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was kept.
15 Ephraim has provoked bitter anger, so his bloodguilt will remain on him— his Lord will repay him for his contempt.

No Other Savior

Hosea 13

1 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.
He exalted himself in Israel,
but he became guilty through Baal, and died.
2 But now, they sin more and more.
They made themselves molten images, idols skillfully made from their silver, all of them the work of the craftsmen.
They say about them:
"Let those who sacrifice kiss the calves."
3 Therefore they will be like morning clouds, like dew passing away early, like chaff blown from the threshing-floor, or like smoke from a chimney.

4 "Yet I have been ADONAI your God since the land of Egypt.
You should know no God but Me,
and there is no Savior apart from Me.[23]
5 I Myself knew you in the wilderness, in a land of terrible drought.
6 While they were fed, they were satisfied.
Filled, their hearts became haughty.
Therefore they forgot Me.
7 So I became like a lion to them— like a leopard lying in wait by the way.
8 I will meet them like a bear robbed of her cubs, and I will tear open their chests.
There I will devour them like a lioness.
A beast of the field will rip them to shreds.
9 It has corrupted you, O Israel, for you are against Me —against your Helper!
10 Where then is your king?

So, will he save you in all your cities?
Or your judges, to whom you said:
‘Give me a king and princes!’
11 I give you a king in My anger, and take him away in My wrath.
12 Ephraim is bound by iniquity; his sin is treasured up.
13 Pains of birth come on him.
He is not a wise son.
When the time comes,
he should not delay at the opening of the womb.
14 Should I ransom them from the hand of Sheol?
Should I redeem them from death?
O death, where are your plagues?
O Sheol, where is your sting?[24]
Comfort is hidden from My eyes.”

15 Because he is the son of kinsmen, he should have been fruitful.
An east wind will come—the wind from ADONAI, coming up from the wilderness.
His spring will become dry,
and his fountain will dry up.

He will plunder the treasury of every precious vessel.

Salvation Like Dew for Israel

Hosea 14

1 Samaria will bear her guilt,[25]
for she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword,
their infants dashed to pieces,
their pregnant women ripped open.
2 Return O Israel, to ADONAI your God, for you have stumbled in your iniquity.
3 Take words with you and return to ADONAI.
Say to Him: “Take away all iniquity, and accept what is good,
so we may repay with offerings[26] of our lips:
4 ‘Assyria will not save us.
We will not ride on horses,
and we will never again say, “Our god,”
to the work of our hands,
for with You, orphans find mercy.’”

5 “I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely, for My anger will turn away from him.
6 I will be like dew for Israel.
He will blossom like a lily,
and thrust out his roots like Lebanon.
7 His tender shoots will spread out.
His beauty will be like an olive tree and his fragrance
will be like Lebanon.
8 Those dwelling in his shadow will return.
They will grow grain and bud like a vine.
His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

9 Ephraim: “What more are idols to me?
I have responded and observed Him.

I will be like a luxuriant cypress tree.
From me will be found Your fruit.”

10 Who is wise? Let him discern these things.
Who is intelligent? Let him know them.[27]
For the ways of ADONAI are straight, and the just walk
in them,
but the wicked stumble in them.

Joel

1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Joel 1 1 The word of ADONAI that came to Joel the son of Pethuel:
Mourn the Land's Destruction 2 Hear this, elders!
Give ear, all inhabitants of the land.
Has this ever happened in your days,
or even in the days of your fathers?
3 Tell your children about it— your children to their children,
their children to another generation.
4 What the locust left, the swarming locust has eaten,
and what the swarming locust left,
the canker-worm has eaten,
and what the canker-worm left,
the caterpillar has eaten.
5 Awake, drunkards, and weep!
Wail, all you drinkers of wine—
on account of sweet wine,
for it is denied to your mouth!
6 For a nation has invaded my land.
Vast—yes, without number!
Its teeth are lion's teeth,
with jaw-teeth of a lioness.[1]
7 He has turned my vine to waste and my fig tree to splinters.
He has stripped off all the bark and flung it down—
its branches are left white.
8 Wail like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth!
9 Grain offering and drink offering are cut off from the House of ADONAI.
Kohanim—ministers of ADONAI—mourn.
10 The field is ruined, the land grieves, for the grain has been devastated, new wine is dried up, oil languishes.

11 Be ashamed, O ploughmen; wail, O vinedressers,
over wheat and over barley,
for the harvest of the field is lost.
12 The vine withered, the fig tree wilted.
Pomegranate, palm and apple tree
—all trees of the field—are withered,

for joy has withered away
from the children of men.
13 Gird yourselves and weep, kohanim!
Howl, ministers of the altar!
Come, lie in sackcloth all night,
ministers of my God.
For grain and drink offering are withheld from the House of your God.

The Day is Near!

14 Consecrate a fast.
Proclaim a solemn assembly.
Gather elders and all living in the land to the House of ADONAI your God, and cry to ADONAI.
15 Ah, the day!
The day of ADONAI is near!
As havoc from Shaddai it will come.
16 Is food not cut off before our eyes— joy and gladness from God's House?
17 Seed has shriveled under the dirt clod.
Storehouses are desolate,
granaries are torn down,
for the grain has withered.
18 How the animals groan!
The herds of cattle are perplexed,
because they have no pasture.
The flocks of sheep also suffer.
19 To You, ADONAI, I cry!
For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
and flame has set ablaze all the trees of the field.
20 Also beasts of the field pant toward You.
For the water of wadis are dried up,
and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Joel 2

1 Blow the shofar in Zion!
Sound an alarm on My holy mountain!
Let all living in the land tremble—
for the day of ADONAI is coming— surely it is near![2] 2 A day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as blackness spreads over the mountains.
A great and mighty people—
from antiquity there was never anything like it, nor after it ever again from generation to generation.[3] 3 A fire devours before them and behind them flame blazes up.
Like the Garden of Eden is the land before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness.
Nothing at all ever escapes them.
4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses—
they gallop like war horses.[4] 5 Like the clatter of chariots,[5]
they leap on the tops of mountains,
like crackling flame of fire devouring stubble, like a mighty horde in battle array.
6 Before them peoples are in anguish.
All faces become ashen gray.
7 They run like mighty men.
They climb a wall like men of war.
They each march in line,
never deviating from their ways.
8 One does not crowd another.
Each one marches on his own highway.
They plunge through the weapons,
never breaking off.
9 They rush on the city, they run on the wall,
they climb up into the houses,

coming through the windows like a thief.
10 Before them land quakes, heaven trembles,
sun and moon become dark,
stars withdraw their brightness.[6] 11 ADONAI utters His voice before His army.
For His camp is very vast—for mighty is it that carries out His word.
For great is the day of ADONAI—[7] very terrifying!
Who can endure it?

Call for Teshuvah 12 "Yet even now"

—it is a declaration of ADONAI— "turn to Me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping and lamenting."
13 Rend your heart, not your garments, and turn to ADONAI, your God.
For He is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger, abundant in mercy,
and relenting about the calamity due.
14 Who knows? He may turn and relent, and may leave a blessing behind Him —so there may be a grain offering and a drink offering for ADONAI, your God.

Blow the Shofar 15 Blow the shofar in Zion!

Sanctify a fast;
proclaim an assembly.
16 Gather the people; sanctify the congregation;
assemble the elders;
gather the children,
even those nursing at breasts.

Let the bridegroom come out from his bedroom and the bride from her chamber.
17 Between the porch and the altar let the kohanim, ministers of ADONAI, weep, and let them say:
"Have pity, ADONAI, on Your people.
Don't make Your heritage a scorn,
a byword among the nations.
Why should the peoples say,
'Where is their God?'"[8] 18 ADONAI will be zealous for His land, and have compassion on His people.
19 ADONAI will answer and say to His people: "Behold, I will send you the grain,
the new wine, and the fresh oil,
and you will be satisfied with it.
I will no longer make you a mockery among the nations.
20 "But I will remove the northern invader far from you
— yes, I will banish him to a dry and desolate land—
his vanguard into the Eastern Sea and his rearguard into the Western Sea.
His odor will go up—
Yes, his stench will rise."
For He[9] has done great things!

Rain and Restoration

21 Do not fear, O land. Be glad! Rejoice!
For ADONAI has done great things.
22 Do not be afraid, beasts of the field, for the desert pastures have sprouted, for the tree bears its fruit.
Fig tree and vine yield their strength.
23 So be glad, children of Zion, and rejoice in ADONAI, your God.
For He gives you the early rain[10] for prosperity, Yes, He will bring down rain for you,
the early and latter rain as before.
24 The threshing floors will be full of grain and the vats will overflow with new wine and fresh oil.

25 "I shall restore to you the years that the locust, the swarming locust, the canker-worm and the caterpillar have eaten— My great army that I sent among you."
26 "You will surely eat and be satisfied, and praise the Name of ADONAI your God, who has dealt wondrously with you.
Never again will My people be shamed
27 You will know that I am within Israel.
Yes, I am ADONAI your God—there is no other— Never again will My people be shamed."

Promise of the Ruach Adonai

Joel 3

1 “So it will be afterward,[11]
I will pour out My Ruach on all flesh:[12]
your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions.
2 “Also on the male and the female servants will I pour out My spirit in those days.[13]
3 I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth—blood, fire and pillars of smoke.[14]
4 The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before the great and awesome day of Adonai comes.
5 Then all who call on Adonai’s Name[15] will escape, for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be rescue, as Adonai has said, among the survivors whom Adonai is calling.”

Valley of Jehoshaphat

Joel 4 1 “For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore Judah and Jerusalem from exile, 2 I will gather all nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will plead[16] with them there on behalf of My people, even My inheritance, Israel, whom they scattered among the nations
and they divided up My land.
3 They cast lots for My people, traded a boy for a prostitute,
and sold a girl for wine, which they drank.”

4 “Moreover, what are you to Me, Tyre and Sidon[17] and all regions of Philistia? Did you render retribution for Me? Even if you were rendering retribution for Me, swiftly, speedily, will I return your retribution back on your own head. 5 For you took My silver and My gold, and you carried My valuable treasures into your temples.
6 “The children of Judah and of Jerusalem you sold to the Greeks in order to remove them far from their own territory.
7 “Behold, I am rousing them from the place where you sold them, and I will return your retribution on your own head. 8 I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheba[18], to a nation far off—for ADONAI has spoken.”

9 Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare for war.
Stir up the mighty men.
Let the warriors advance and attack.
10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning knives into spears.
Let the weak say, “I am strong.”

11 Rouse yourselves and come, all nations around, and gather there.
ADONAI, bring Your mighty ones down!
12 “Let the nations rouse themselves and go up to the valley of Jehoshaphat.

For there will I sit
to judge all the surrounding nations.”
13 Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.
Come, tread, for the winepress is full —the vats overflow— for their wickedness is great![19] 14 Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision!
For the day of ADONAI is near in the valley of decision.
15 The sun and the moon become dark, the stars withdraw their brightness.
16 ADONAI will roar from Zion and give His voice from Jerusalem.
Heaven and earth will shudder,

Shalom in Zion but ADONAI will be a refuge for His people, and a safe place for the children of Israel.

17 So you will know that I am ADONAI, your God, dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain.
Then will Jerusalem be holy,
and foreigners will cross through her no more.
18 It will be in that day, the mountains will drip sweet
wine,
the hills will flow with milk,
and all the wadis of Judah will flow with water.[20]
A spring will flow out from the House of ADONAI
and water the valley of Shittim.
19 Egypt will become a desolation and Edom a desert
wasteland,
because of the violence against the children of Judah,
because they shed innocent blood in their land.
20 But Judah will be inhabited forever— Jerusalem from generation to generation.
21 I will acquit their bloodguilt that I had not acquitted,

for ADONAI dwells in Zion.

The Lion Roars at the Nations

Amos 1 [1] The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds from Tekoa. He perceived these words concerning Israel during the days of Uzziah, king of Judah, and during the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. [2] He said: ADONAI roars from Zion, From Jerusalem
He gives His voice.
The shepherds' pastures mourn,
and the top of Mount Carmel withers.
[3] Thus says ADONAI: For three crimes of Damascus,
even for four, I will not relent.

For they threshed Gilead
with iron threshing sledges,
4 I will send fire into Hazael’s palace.
It will devour Ben-hadad’s citadels.
5 I will break the Damascus gate-bar and cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven, wielding Beth-eden’s scepter.

So the people of Aram
will go into exile to Kir.
ADONAI has said it.
6 Thus says ADONAI: “For three crimes of Gaza,
even for four, I will not relent.
For they exiled an entire population, giving them over to Edom.
7 So I will send fire on the wall of Gaza —it will devour its citadels.
8 I will cut off Ashdod’s inhabitant, wielding Ashkelon’s scepter.
I will turn My hand against Ekron
and the rest of the Philistines will perish.
My Lord ADONAI has said it.
9 Thus says ADONAI: For three crimes of Tyre,
even for four, I will not relent.
For they gave an entire population over to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of brothers.
10 I will send fire on the wall of Tyre— it will devour its citadels.
11 Thus says ADONAI: For three crimes of Edom
even for four, I will not relent.
For he pursued his brother with a sword and stifled his compassion.
For his anger tore continually,
and he kept his wrath forever.
12 So I will send fire in Teman— it will devour Bozrah’s citadels.
13 Thus says ADONAI: For three crimes of the sons of Ammon even for four, I will not relent.
For they ripped open pregnant women of Gilead to expand their territory, 14 I will kindle fire on Rabbah’s wall and it will devour its citadels, amid shouting on a day of battle,

with storm on a day of whirlwind.
15 Their king will go into exile, he and his princes
together.
Thus ADONAI has said.

Amos 2 [1] Thus says ADONAI: For three crimes of Moab
even for four, I will not relent.
For he burned the bones of Edom's king to lime, [2] So I will send fire upon Moab— it will devour Kerioth's citadels.
Moab will die in an uproar,

with a shout of alarm
and the sound of the shofar.
3 I will cut off the ruler from her midst, and slay all her princes with him.
Thus ADONAI has said.

As for Judah and Israel
4 Thus says ADONAI: “For three crimes of Judah
even for four, I will not relent.
For they despise ADONAI’S Torah and have not kept His statutes.
Their lies have misled them—
those their fathers walked after.
5 So I will send fire upon Judah— it will devour Jerusalem’s citadels.”
6 Thus says ADONAI: “For three crimes of Israel
even for four, I will not relent.
For they sell the righteous for silver and the needy
for a pair of shoes.
7 They trample the head of the poor into the dust of the earth
and thwart the way of the humble.
A man and his father go to the same girl,[1]
to profane My holy Name.
8 Upon garments taken in pledge they stretch out beside every altar, and drink wine confiscated as fines
in the house of their gods.

9 “I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like cedars
and as strong as oaks—
yes, I destroyed his fruit from above and his roots
from beneath.
10 It was I also who brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness to possess the Amorite’s land.
11 I raised up prophets from your sons and Nazirites from your young men.
Is this not so, Bnei Yisrael?”

declares ADONAI.
12 “But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and you commanded the prophets saying, ‘Do not prophesy.’ 13 Behold! I will cause a tottering beneath you as a cart totters when full of sheaves.
14 Then flight will fail for the swift.
The mighty will not strengthen his power, The warrior will not save his life.
15 The archer will not stand, the fleet-footed will not escape,
the horseman will not save himself.
16 The valiant among the warriors will flee naked in that day.”
declares ADONAI.

The Prophet Reveals Destruction

Amos 3 1 Hear this word that ADONAI has spoken against you, Bnei Yisrael, against the whole family that I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying: 2 “Only you have I known from among all the families of the earth.
Therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together unless they meet by appointment?
4 Does a lion roar in the forest when he has no prey?
Does a young lion growl from his den unless he has taken prey?
5 Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground if it has no bait?
Will a snare spring up from the ground without taking anything?
6 If a shofar alarm sounds in a city, will people not tremble?
If there is calamity in a city,
has not ADONAI caused it?
7 For the Lord ADONAI, will do nothing, unless He has revealed His counsel to His servants the prophets.[2] 8 A lion has roared, who will not fear?
My Lord ADONAI has spoken, who shall not prophesy?
9 Proclaim on the citadels in Ashdod and the citadels in the land of Egypt: “Assemble on Samaria’s
mountains:
Behold the great tumult within it,
even the oppression within it.”
10 They do not know how to be honest, —declares ADONAI— those who are saving up violence and destruction in their citadels.

11 Therefore thus says my Lord ADONAI: “An adversary will surround the land!
He will bring down your strength.

Your citadels will be plundered
12 Thus says ADONAI: “Just as the shepherd snatches out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear,
so will Bnei-Yisrael dwelling in Samaria escape with the corner of a bed
or a head of a couch.
13 Hear, and testify against the house of Jacob.”
It is the declaration of my Lord
ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot.
14 “For in a day I shall punish Israel for the transgressions of Israel, and attend to the altars of Bethel— the horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.
15 I will also strike the winter house together with the summer house.
The houses of ivory will perish,
and great houses will be demolished.”
It is the declaration of ADONAI.

Word for Worldly Women

Amos 4

1 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on Samaria's hill, who oppress the poor,
who crush the needy,
who say to their masters: "Bring, so we may drink."
2 My Lord ADONAI has sworn by His holiness: "Behold, days are coming upon you when he will drag you away with meat-hooks, the last of you with fishhooks.
3 You will go out through breaches— each woman
straight ahead,
and you will be cast to Harmon."[3]
It is the declaration of ADONAI.
4 "Come to Bethel and transgress, in Gilgal multiply transgression.

Every morning bring your sacrifices
and your tithes every three days.
5 Offer up hametz as a thank offering, call out about freewill offerings— boast about it!
For so you love to do, Bnei-Yisrael.”
It is the declaration of my Lord Adonai.

Yet You Have Not Returned

6 “So also, I myself have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places—
yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares Adonai.
7 “Also I myself have withheld from you the rain—when three months remain to the harvest, I caused it to rain on one city,
while on another city I sent no rain;
one piece of ground would get rain,
while the portion not rained on would wither.
8 So two or three cities go staggering to one city to drink water, but would not be satisfied— yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares Adonai.
9 “I struck you with blight and mildew.
Your many gardens and vineyards,
your fig-trees and olive trees the locust has devoured— yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares Adonai.
10 “I sent among you a plague in the manner of Egypt.
I slew your young men by the sword,
with your chariot-horses in captivity.
I made the stench of your camp rise up even to your own nostrils— yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares Adonai.
11 I overthrew some of you as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah[4].
You became like a firebrand snatched from a blaze—
yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares Adonai.

Prepare to Meet Your God

12 “Therefore here is what I will do to you, Israel.
Because I will do this to you,
prepare to meet your God, Israel!” 13 For behold! He who forms mountains who creates the wind, who declares His thoughts to man,
who makes dawn out of darkness,
who walks above the heights of the earth—
His Name is Adonai Elohei-Tzva’ot!

Seek Adonai and Live

Amos 5 1 Hear this word that I take up as a lament over you, O house of Israel: 2 She has fallen, never rising again—virgin Israel— She is forsaken on her land,
with nobody to lift her up.
3 For thus says Adonai Elohim: “The city that sends out a thousand
will have a hundred left,
and one that sends out a hundred will have ten left for the house of Israel.” 4 For thus says Adonai to the house of Israel: “Seek Me, and live!
5 But do not seek Bethel, do not go to Gilgal,
do not cross over to Beersheba.
For Gilgal will surely go into exile,
and Bethel will come to trouble.
6 Seek Adonai, and live— lest He rush like fire through the house of Joseph.
Yes, it will devour Bethel,
with no one to quench it.[5]

Sins of Injustice

7 You who turn justice to wormwood threw righteousness to the ground.
8 He who made the Pleiades and Orion and changes deep darkness to morning.
Who darkens the day into night.
Who summons the water of the sea and pours it out on the face of the earth —ADONAI is His Name.
9 He flashes destruction on the mighty, so destruction will come against a fortress.
10 They despise one who reproves at the gate, so they detest one who speaks with integrity.
11 Therefore, because you trample on the poor, exacting
from him a burden of grain,
you built houses of hewn stone,
but will not dwell in them,
you planted pleasant vineyards,
but will not drink their wine.
12 For I know your crimes are many and your sins
countless— afflicting the righteous, taking bribes,
and turning the needy aside at the gate.
13 Therefore the prudent keep silent at such a time —for it is a distressful time.
14 Seek good and not evil, so you may live,
and so ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot may be with you —just as you said!
15 Hate evil, love good, maintain justice at the gate.
Maybe ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot will extend grace to Joseph's remnant.[6]

16 Therefore thus said ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot, my Lord:
"There will be wailing in all plazas and in all streets.

They will say: ‘Alas! Alas!’
The farmer will be called to mourning
along with those who know the lamentation song.
17 In all vineyards will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst”
—ADONAI has spoken.

Dreadful Day of ADONAI

18 Oy to you—longing for the Day of ADONAI![7]
What would it be for you?
The Day of ADONAI will be darkness and not light.[8] 19 It will be as when a man is fleeing from a lion— and meets a bear!
Or he comes home,
leans his hand on the wall,
and a snake bites him!
20 Will not the Day of ADONAI be darkness, not light?
Gloom, not brightness?

Justice Better Than Sacrifices 21 “I hate, I despise your festivals!

I take no delight in your sacred assemblies.
22 Even if you offer me burnt offerings and your grain offerings, I will not accept them,

nor will I look
at peace offerings of your fattened animals.
23 Take away from Me the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the melody of your harps.
24 But let justice roll like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing torrent.
25 Did you bring sacrifices and offerings to Me in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?
26 But you lifted up your images —Siccuth your ‘king’, and Chiun,[9] your star gods— which you made for yourselves,[10]
27 So I will send you into exile, beyond Damascus.”
ADONAI has spoken, Elohei-Tzva’ot is His Name.

At Ease in Zion

Amos 6 1 Oy! You who are at ease in Zion, trusting in Samaria's hill!
Distinguished ones of the foremost of nations— to whom the house of Israel comes 2 Go over to Calneh and look.
From there go to great Hamath,
go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are you better than these kingdoms?
Or is their territory larger than yours?
3 Dismissing the day of calamity, you bring near the throne of violence.
4 Reclining on beds of ivory, sprawling on their couches,
dining on lambs from the flock
and calves from amid the stall,
5 chanting to the sound of harp like David, inventing their own instruments of song, 6 drinking wine from bowls, anointing with choice ointments— yet they are not sickened over the breakdown of Joseph.
7 Therefore now they will go into exile at the head of the exiles.
Sprawling revelry will cease.
8 My Lord ADONAI has sworn by Himself —declares ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot— "I loathe the arrogance of Jacob,
I despise his palaces,
so I will shut down the city and everything in it."

9 If ten people remain in one house, they will die. 10 One's beloved—the one burning incense for him—will lift him up to carry the bones out of the house, and he will say to one in the innermost recess of the house: "Is anyone else still with you?"

And he will say: “No one.” Then he will say, “Hush! For we must not mention the Name of ADONAI.”

11 For behold, ADONAI will command, He will smash the big house to fragments and the little house to splinters.
12 Will horses run on the cliff?
Will one plow there with oxen?
Yet you turned justice into venom,
the fruit of righteousness into wormwood.
13 You are rejoicing for no reason, saying: “Haven’t we taken two horns for ourselves by our own strength?” 14 “For behold, I am raising up against you, O house of Israel, a nation,

and they will afflict you
from Lebo-Hamath[11] to the Valley of the Arabah.”
declares ADONAI, the God of Hosts.

Locusts and the Trial by Fire

Amos 7 [1] This is what my Lord ADONAI has shown me: Behold, He was forming locusts at the beginning of the spring crop—after the cutting of the king's hay. [2] When the locust-swarm had finished devouring the vegetation of the land, I said:

"ADONAI Elohim, please pardon!
How can Jacob stand, for he is small?"

[3] ADONAI relented concerning this.

"It shall not be," ADONAI said.

[4] This is what my Lord ADONAI has shown me: Behold, ADONAI Elohim was calling for the trial by fire, and it would have devoured the great deep, and it would have devoured the territory. [5] But I said:

"My Lord ADONAI, stop, please!
How can Jacob stand, for he is small?"

[6] ADONAI relented concerning this.

"This also shall not happen,"
says my Lord ADONAI.

Plumb Line on a Wall

7 This is what He has revealed to me: Behold, my Lord was standing by a vertical wall, and in His hand was a plumb line.
8 Then ADONAI said to me: “What do you see, Amos?”

I said: “A plumb line.”

Then my Lord said:

“Behold, I am setting a plumb line among My people
Israel—

I will no longer pass over them.

9 So the high places of Isaac will become desolate,

the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste, and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

10 Then Amaziah, the priest of Beth-el, sent word to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying: “Amos has been conspiring against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land cannot endure all his words. 11 For this is what Amos has said: ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go captive from his land.’”

12 Then Amaziah said to Amos: “Seer, go away! Flee back to the land of Judah. Eat bread there, and prophesy there. 13 But at Bethel you are not to prophesy any more—for it is a royal sanctuary and a house of the kingdom.”

14 So Amos responded and said to Amaziah: “I am no prophet, nor am I a son of a prophet. Rather, I am a shepherd tending fig trees. 15 But ADONAI took me from following the flock and ADONAI said to me: ‘Go, prophesy to My people Israel.’ 16 So now, hear the word of ADONAI: You are saying, ‘Do not prophesy against Israel and do not preach against the house of Isaac.’
17 Therefore, this is what ADONAI says:

‘Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city,

your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword,

and your land divided up by a measuring line.

Now, as for you—you will die in an unclean land, and Israel will surely be led away captive out of its land.’”

A Basket of Summer Fruit

Amos 8 1 This is what my Lord Adonai has shown me: See, there was a basket of summer fruit. 2 He said: “Amos, what do you see?”

“A basket of summer fruit,” I said.

Then Adonai said to me: “The end has come to My people Israel.

I will not again pass over them.

3 The songs of the palace will become howls in that day.”

It is a declaration of my Lord Adonai.

“So many corpses flung everywhere! Hush!

4 Hear this, you who trample the poor, destroying the afflicted of the land 5 saying: ‘When will the New Moon be over, so we may sell grain?

Or Shabbat, so we may open the wheat market?

—Let’s reduce the ephah measure and increase the shekel,
cheat with deceitful balances,

6 buy the poor for silver, the needy for a pair of sandals!

We’ll even sell the refuse of the grain!’”

7 Adonai swore by the Pride of Jacob: “Never will I forget all their deeds!

8 Will not the land tremble over this?

Will not all who dwell in it mourn?

Yes, it will rise up like all the Nile —it will surge and sink again like the Nile of Egypt.”

9 “It will be in that day”

—declares my Lord Adonai— “I will make the sun go down at noon, yes, I will darken the earth in daylight.

10 I will turn your festivals into mourning and all your songs into a dirge.[12]
I will pull up sackcloth on every waist and baldness
on every head.
I will make it like the mourning for an only son— its end a bitter day.”[13] 11 “Behold, days are coming”
—declares my Lord Adonai— “when I will send a famine on the land —not a famine of bread
nor a thirst for water,
but of hearing the words of Adonai.[14] 12 So people will wander from sea to sea and roam from north to east,
searching for the word of Adonai, but they will not find it.
13 In that day, the fair virgins and the virile young men will faint from thirst.
14 Those swearing by Samaria’s guilt will say, ‘As your gods live, Dan!’
or ‘As the way of Beersheba lives!’
But they will fall,
never to rise again.”

No Escaping His Eyes

Amos 9 1 I saw my Lord standing by the altar, and He said:
"Strike the tops of the pillars,
so the porches shake!
Break all of them off at the head!
Then the last of them I will slay with the sword—
none of them fleeing will escape
and no fugitive will slip away.
2 If they should dig down to Sheol, from there My hand will take them.
If they should go up to heaven,
from there will I bring them down.
3 If they should hide themselves at the top of Carmel, I will search them out and take them from there.
If they hide themselves from My eyes at the bottom of the sea, from there I will command the sea serpent to bite them.
4 If they should go into captivity before their enemies,
from there I will command the sword to slay them.
I will set My eyes upon them for calamity
and not for prosperity."

5 My Lord is ADONAI-Tzva'ot.
It is He who touches the land so it melts, and all its inhabitants will mourn.
Then it will surge like all the Nile,
and sink again like the Nile of Egypt.
6 He who builds His upper stories in heaven fitted its vault over the earth.
He who summons the waters of the sea
and pours them out on the face of the earth
—ADONAI is His Name.

7 “Are you not like the children of the Cushites to Me, Bnei-Yisrael?”
It is the declaration of Adonai.
“Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt, the Philistines from Caphtor, and Aram from Kir?” 8 Behold, the eyes of my Lord Adonai are on the sinful kingdom.
So I will utterly destroy it from the face of the earth.
Nevertheless, I will not annihilate the house of Jacob.”
It is a declaration of Adonai.
9 “For behold, I have commanded, and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations, like grain
being tossed in a sieve,
without a pebble falling to the ground.
10 By the sword shall all the sinners of My people die,
those who say:
‘The calamity will not overtake or confront us.’

David’s Sukkah Restored

11 “In that day I will raise up David’s fallen sukkah.[15]
I will restore its breaches,
raise up its ruins,
and rebuild it as in days of old 12 —so they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations called by My Name.”
It is a declaration of Adonai, the One who will do this.
13 “Behold, days are soon coming”
—it is a declaration of Adonai— “when the plowman will overtake the reaper and the one treading grapes, the one sowing seed.
The mountains will drip sweet wine
and all the hills will melt over.

14 Yes, I will restore the captivity of My people Israel.
They will rebuild desolated cities and dwell in them.
They will plant vineyards and drink their wine.
They will also make gardens and eat their fruit.
15 Yes, I will plant them on their land, and they will never again be plucked up out of their land that I have given to them.”
ADONAI, your God, has said it.

Obadiah

Edom's Arrogance and Ruin

Obadiah 1 1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says Adonai Elohim concerning Edom: We have heard a report from Adonai— and an envoy has been sent among the nations: "Arise and let us rise up against her in battle."

2 Behold, I will make you least among the nations, you will be greatly despised.

3 The arrogance of your heart has deceived you— living in the clefts of the rock—

his dwelling place is lofty, saying in his heart: 'Who shall bring me down to the earth?'

4 Even if you soar like the eagle, and even if you set your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down.'"

declares Adonai.

5 "If thieves came to you, if robbers by night— how ruined you would be!—

would they keep stealing after they had enough?

If grape-gatherers came to you,

would they not leave some gleaning?

6 How Esau will be ransacked, and how his hidden treasures searched out!

7 All your allies will force you to the border.

The men that are at peace with you will deceive you and overpower you.

Those who eat your bread will set a trap under you.

(He has no discernment.)

8 In that day,”—declares Adonai— “will I not destroy the wise men from Edom
and understanding from the hill country of Esau?
9 Then your mighty men, O Teman, will be shattered — so everyone will be cut off from the hill country of Esau by slaughter.

10 “Because of your violence to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you,
and you will be cut off forever.
11 On the day that you stood aloof— on the day that strangers carried away his wealth, while foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem— you were just like one of them.
12 You should not look down on your brother on the day of his disaster,
nor should you rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction.

You should not speak proudly
in the day of their distress.
13 Do not enter the gate of My people In the day of their disaster.
Yes, you. Do not gloat over their misery
in the day of their disaster.
Yes, you—do not loot their wealth in the day of their calamity.
14 Do not stand at the crossroad to cut down his fugitives, and do not imprison his survivors in the day of distress.

The House of Jacob will be a Fire 15 "For the day of Adonai is near against all the nations.

As you have done, it shall be done to you.
Your dealing will return on your own head.
16 For just as you have drunk on My holy mountain, so all the nations shall drink continually.
Yes, they will drink and gulp down,
and then be as though they had never existed.
17 But on Mount Zion there will be deliverance, and it will be holy.
Then house of Jacob will dispossess
those who dispossessed them.
18 The house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph flame, while the house of Esau will be straw—
they will set them on fire and consume them.
So there will be no survivors of the house of Esau."
—for Adonai has spoken.
19 Then those of the Negev[1]
will possess the hill country of Esau,
and those of the foothills the Philistines.

Then they will possess the territory of Ephraim and the territory of Samaria,
while Benjamin will possess Gilead.
20 The exiles of this army of Bnei-Yisrael will possess what belonged to the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, while the exiles of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev.
21 The victorious will go up on Mount Zion to judge the hill country of Esau.
Then the kingdom shall be ADONAI'S.

Jonah Runs From His Mission

Jonah 1 1 Now the word of ADONAI came to Jonah,[1] son of Amittai, saying: 2 “Rise, go to the great city Nineveh and call out to her, for their evil has risen before me.”
3 But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish, from the presence of ADONAI. He went down to Jaffa and found a ship going to Tarshish, paid the fee and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish—away from the presence of ADONAI.
4 Then ADONAI hurled a forceful wind into the sea and there was such a mighty storm on the sea that the ship was about to shatter. 5 So the sailors were afraid and cried out, each man to his own god. Then they cast the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the lowest part of the ship, to lay down and fell fast asleep.
6 So the chief sailor came near to him and said to him, “What, are you sleeping? Get up! Call out to your god. Perhaps the gods will consider us, so we will not perish!” 7 Then each man said to his companion, “Come, let’s cast lots
—so we may know because of whom this evil is happening to us.” So they cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah.[2] 8 Then they said to him, “Tell us, now! On whose account is this evil happening to us? What is your profession and where did you come from? What is your land and from what nation are
you?”
9 He said to them, “I am a Hebrew and I fear ADONAI God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land.”
10 Then the men became afraid with an overwhelming fear and they said to him, “What have you done?” For the men knew that he had fled from the presence of ADONAI, because he had told them. 11 So they said to him, “What should we do to you so the sea will become calm for us?”—for the storm was raging on.
12 “Pick me up and throw me into the sea,” he said to them, “then the sea will become calm for you. For I know it is because of me that this great storm is upon you.”

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to the land, but they could not, because the sea kept raging against them. 14 So they cried to ADONAI and said, “Please, ADONAI, don’t let us perish on account of the soul of this man and don’t put innocent blood on us. For you, ADONAI, have done as you pleased.”
15 So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea—and the sea stilled from its raging. 16 Then the men became afraid with an overwhelming fear of ADONAI, and they offered a sacrifice to ADONAI and made vows.

Jonah 2 1 Now ADONAI prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.[3][4]

Jonah's Prayer of Distress 2 Then Jonah prayed to ADONAI his God from the belly of the fish, 3 saying: "From my distress I cried to *ADONAI

and He answered me.
From the belly of Sheol I cried for help and you heard
my voice.[5]
4 For you hurled me from the deep into the heart of the seas, and currents swirled around me.
All your waves and your breakers swept over me."
5 And I said, "I have been banished from before your eyes.
Yet I will continue to look toward your holy Temple."
6 Waters surrounded me up to my soul.
The deep sea engulfed me—
reeds clung to my head.
7 To the bottoms of the mountains I went down.
The earth with her bars was around me, forever!
Yet You brought my life up from the Pit, ADONAI my
God.
8 As my soul was fading from me, I remembered ADONAI and my prayer came to You, toward Your holy Temple.
9 Those who watch worthless empty things forsake their mercy.
10 But I, with a voice of thanks will sacrifice to you.
What I vowed, I will pay.
Salvation is from ADONAI." 11 Then ADONAI spoke to the fish and it vomited Jonah onto the dry land.

Nineveh Repents

Jonah 3 [1] Now the word of ADONAI came to Jonah a second time, saying, [2] “Rise and go to Nineveh, the great city, and cry out to it the proclamation that I am telling you.”
[3] So Jonah rose and went to Nineveh according to the word of ADONAI. Now Nineveh was a great city to God—the length of a three day journey. [4] So Jonah began to come into the city for one day’s journey, and he cried out saying: “Another forty days and Nineveh will be overthrown!”
[5] Then the people of Nineveh believed God and called for a fast and wore sackcloth—from the greatest of them to the least of them. [6] When the word reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his robe, covered himself in sackcloth, and sat in the ashes. [7] He made a proclamation saying:
“In Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his nobles, no man or beast, herd or flock, may taste anything. They must not graze nor drink water. [8] But cover man and beast with sackcloth. Let them cry out to God with urgency. Let each one turn from his evil way and from the violence in his hands. [9] Who knows? God may turn and relent, and turn back from his burning anger, so that we may not perish.” [10] When God saw their deeds—that they turned from their wicked ways—God relented from the calamity that He said He would do to them, and did not do it.

Jonah's Displeasure at God's Mercy

Jonah 4 1 But it greatly displeased Jonah and he resented it. 2 So he prayed to ADONAI and said, "Please, Lord, was not this what I said when I was still in my own country? That's what I anticipated, fleeing to Tarshish—for I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and full of kindness, and relenting over calamity. 3 So please, ADONAI, take my soul from me—because better is my death than my life."
4 Yet ADONAI said, "Is it good for you to be so angry?"
5 So Jonah went out from the city and sat east of the city.
There He made a sukkah and he sat under it, in the shade, until he saw what would happen in the city. 6 Then ADONAI God prepared a plant and it grew up over Jonah, to give shade over his head to spare him from his discomfort. So Jonah was very happy about the plant. 7 But God at dawn the next day prepared a worm that crippled the plant and it withered away. 8 When the sun rose, God prepared a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he became faint. So he implored that his soul would die, saying, "My death would be better than my life!"
9 Then God said to Jonah, "Is it good for you to be so angry about the plant?"
"It is," he said, "I am angry enough to die!"
10 But ADONAI said, "You have pity on the plant for which you did no labor or make it grow, that appeared overnight and perished overnight. So shouldn't I have pity on Nineveh—the great city that has in it more than 120,000 people who don't know their right hand from their left—as well as many animals?"

Micah

1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7

Micah 1 1 The word of ADONAI that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah—visions he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Smashing Idols in the High Places

2 Hear, O peoples—all of you!
Attention, O land and everything in it!
ADONAI Elohim will be witness against you— The Lord
from His holy Temple.
3 For behold, ADONAI is coming forth out of His place.
He will come down and trample on the high places of the land.
4 The mountains will melt away under Him and the valleys will split apart
like wax before the fire,
like water being poured down a slope.

5 All this is because of Jacob's transgression and the sins of the house of Israel.
Who is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
Who are the high places of Judah?
Are they not Jerusalem?
6 So I will make Samaria into a ruin in the countryside, planting places for a vineyard.
I will hurl her stones into the valley and will lay bare her foundations.
7 All her images will be smashed, all her prostitute's pay burned with fire, and all her idols I will make desolate.
For from prostitute's pay she collected them and to prostitute's pay they will return.

8 Concerning this let me lament and howl.
Let me walk barefoot and naked.

I will make a howl like jackals
and a mourning like ostriches.
9 For her wounds are incurable.
For it has come up to Judah.
It has reached the gate of my people— even up to Jerusalem!
10 Tell it not in Gath—weep not at all.
At Beth-le-aphrah[1] roll in the dust.
11 Pass on, you who dwell in Saphir —nakedness and shame— she who dwells in Zaanan will not come out.
Wailing of Beth-ezel[2]: He will take from you its standing-place.
12 For she who dwells in Maroth has languished for something good.

For calamity has come down
from ADONAI to Jerusalem's gate.
13 Harness the chariot to the steed, O inhabitant of Lachish!
It was the beginning of sin
for the Daughter of Zion—

because in you were found the rebellions of Israel.
14 Therefore you will give parting gifts to Moreshethgath— houses of Achzib as a deception to the kings
of Israel.
15 Yet I will bring the possessor to you, inhabitant of Mareshah.
The glory of Israel will come
as far as Adullam.
16 Shave yourself bald, yes shear your hair for the children of your delight.
Enlarge your bald spot like a vulture, for they went from you into exile.

Covetous Schemers

Micah 2

1 Oy to them who scheme wickedness, who work out evil upon their beds!
In the light of the morning, they do it, for the power is in their hands.
2 They covet fields, so they seize them, or houses, and take them away.
So they oppress a man and his house—
a man and his inheritance.

3 Therefore, thus said ADONAI: “Behold, I am scheming a calamity against this family from which you cannot remove your necks.
Then you will not walk haughtily,
for it will be a time of distress.”
4 In that day He will lift up a parable for you, and there will be wailing lamentation, saying: “We have been utterly ruined!
He changes the portion of my people.
How He removes it from me!
To the faithless He apportions our fields!”
5 Therefore you will have no one casting for territory by lot in the congregation of ADONAI.

6 “Do not prophesy,” they prophesy.
Unless they prophesy about such things, He will not turn back reproaches.”
7 Is it said, “O house of Jacob, is the Ruach ADONAI short of patience?
Are these His deeds?”
“Do not My words deal well
with one who walks uprightly?”
8 But recently My people arose as an enemy.

You strip off the outer robe of a garment from those passing through confidently— those returning from war.
9 The wives of My people you cast out from their exquisite houses.

From her young children
you take away My splendor, forever.
10 Arise and go!
For this is not the resting place,
because of uncleanness that destroys— a grievous destruction.
11 If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood speaks lies—
"I will prophesy for you of wine and strong drink"—
Then he would be a spokesman of this people.

12 "I will surely gather Jacob—all of you!
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel.
I will put them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock within its pasture.
They will be noisy with people.
13 One breaking through will go up before them.[3]
They will break through,
pass through the gate and go out by it.[4]
Their King will pass through before them —ADONAI at their head!"

Unjust Leaders, False Prophets

Micah 3 1 Then I said: “Hear, leaders of Jacob, rulers of the house of Israel.
Is it not for you to know justice?
2 You haters of good and lovers of evil, you are robbing their skin from them and their flesh from their bones.”
3 Now that they have eaten the flesh of my people, stripped their skin off from them,
and smashed their bones to bits,
they cut it up like flesh in a pot,
or like meat within a caldron.
4 Then they will cry out to Adonai, but He will not answer them.
Thus He will hide His face from them at that time,
because of their evil deeds.

5 Thus said Adonai about the prophets who are misleading My people,
those who bite with their teeth and cry “Shalom”
—a word that He did not put in their mouth— yet
they consecrate war against him:
6 “Therefore you will have night without vision, and darkness without divination.
The sun shall set on the prophets,
the day shall become dark upon them.”
7 So the seers will be ashamed and the diviners will be abashed.
Indeed all of them will cover their lips, for there will be no answer from God.
8 Nevertheless I myself am filled with power— with the Ruach Adonai— with judgment, and with might,

to declare to Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, leaders of the house of Jacob, rulers of the house of Israel:
You who abhor justice,
and twist everything upright,
10 who build up Zion with bloodshed, and Jerusalem with injustice.
11 Her leaders give judgment for a bribe.
Her priests give direction for a price.
Her prophets practice divination for money.
Yet they lean on ADONAI by saying: “Is not ADONAI in our midst?
No calamity will come upon us!”
12 Therefore, because of you Zion will become a plowed
field.
Yes, Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins, and the Temple Mount will become a high place in a forest.

Torah Will Go Forth From Zion

Micah 4

1 But at the end of days the mountain of ADONAI's House will be established as chief of the mountains,
and will be raised above the hills.
Peoples will flow up to it.
2 Then many nations will go and say: "Come, let us go up to the mountain of ADONAI, to the House of the God of Jacob!
Then He will direct us in His ways, and we will walk in His paths."
For Torah will go forth from Zion, and the word of ADONAI from Jerusalem.
3 He will judge between many peoples and decide for mighty nations far off.
They will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning shears.
Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war again.
4 But each man will sit under his vine and under his fig
tree,
with no one causing terror,
for the mouth of ADONAI-Tzva'ot has spoken.
5 Though all the peoples will walk each in the name of his god,
so we ourselves will walk[5] in the Name of ADONAI
Eloheinu, forever and ever.

6 "In that day"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI— "I will gather her who is limping,
and her who was banished will I collect, even those whom I have afflicted.

7 I will make her who was limping into a remnant, and her who was banished a mighty nation.
ADONAI will reign over them on Mount Zion from that time and forever.”

8 But you, watchtower of the flock, are the hill of the Daughter of Zion.
To you she will come.
Even the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the Daughter of Jerusalem.
9 Why are you crying out aloud now?
Is there no King within you?
Has your counselor perished,
so that agony has gripped you like birth pangs?
10 Writhe and give birth, Daughter of Zion, like a woman in labor.
For now you will go forth from a city.
You will dwell in the field,
and you will come as far as Babylon.
There you will be rescued.
There will ADONAI redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
11 But now many nations have assembled against you, those who are saying, “Let her be defiled, and let our eyes gaze on Zion.”
12 But they do not know ADONAI’S thoughts, nor understand His plan.

For He has gathered them
like grain to a threshing floor.
13 Arise and tread, Daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron,
and I will make your hooves bronze.
You will thresh many peoples.
I will devote their unjust gain to ADONAI, their wealth
to the Lord of all the earth.
14 Now gather yourself in troops,[6] O Daughter of Troops.
He has laid siege against us.
With a staff they have struck the Judge of Israel on the cheek.

Eternal Ruler from Bethlehem

Micah 5 1 But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah[7]— least among the clans of Judah—
from you will come out to Me
One to be ruler in Israel,
One whose goings forth are from of old, from days of eternity.
2 Therefore He will give them up until the time when she who is in labor has given birth.
Then the remnant of His brothers
will return to Bnei-Yisrael.
3 So He will arise and tend His flock with the strength of ADONAI— in the majesty of the Name of ADONAI His God.
And they will live securely,
for then He will be great to the ends of the earth.
4 This One will be shalom.[8]

When Assyria invades our land
when he treads on our citadels,
then we will raise up against him seven shepherds
and eight human princes.
5 They will devastate the land of Assyria with the sword
— even Nimrod’s land with a drawn blade.[9]
He will deliver us from Assyria,
when he invades our land,
when he tramples on our territory.

The Remnant of Jacob

6 Now the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples,
like dew from ADONAI, like abundant showers on grass
that does not wait for a man,
nor lingers for the sons of men.
7 For the remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples,
like a lion among the forest beasts,
like a young lion among flocks of sheep, who, if he passed through, would trample and tear to pieces,
and there would be no deliverer.
8 May your hand be raised up against your adversaries,
and may all your foes be cut off.
9 "Now in that day"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI— "I will cut off your horses among you, and I will destroy your chariots.
10 I will cut off the cities of your land, and throw down all your strongholds.
11 I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you will have no more diviners.
12 I will cut off your carved images and your sacred pillars from among you, so you will no longer bow down
to the work of your hands.
13 I will uproot your Asherah poles from among you, and destroy your cities.
14 So I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that have not listened.

Adonai Pleads His Case

Micah 6 1 Hear what Adonai is saying: “Arise! Contend with the mountains,
and let the hills hear your voice.
2 Hear, Adonai’s dispute, O mountains— the enduring foundations of the earth.
For Adonai has a dispute with His people and He will argue His case with Israel.
3 O My people, what have I done to you?
Or how have I wearied you? Answer Me!
4 When I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
5 O My people, remember, please: What did Balak, king of Moab, propose?
What did Balaam son of Beor answer him?
From Shittim as far as Gilgal,

so that you might acknowledge the righteous acts of ADONAI."

What Is ADONAI Seeking From You?

6 With what shall I come before ADONAI?
With what shall I bow myself before God on high?
Shall I present Him with burnt offerings,
with year-old calves?
7 Will ADONAI be pleased with thousands of rams, with hordes of rivers of oil?
Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my belly for the sin of my soul?
8 He has told you, humanity, what is good, and what ADONAI is seeking from you: Only to practice justice, to love mercy,[10]
and to walk humbly with your God.

9 The voice of ADONAI calls to the city— it is wisdom to fear[11] Your Name— "Pay attention to the rod and to the One who appointed it."
10 Does the house of the wicked still have treasures of wickedness?
Or is an undersized ephah denounced?
11 Can I be pure with wicked balances?
Or with a bag of deceptive weights?
12 For the rich of the city are full of violence and its inhabitants speak lies.
Their tongue in their mouth is deceit.
13 So also I will strike you severely, desolating you because of your sins.
14 You will eat but not be satisfied, and emptiness will be within you.
You will try to escape,
but you will not reach safety.

Whatever you make safe,
I will give to the sword.
15 You will sow but not reap; You will tread olives but not anoint yourself with oil, and grapes but not drink
wine.
16 Now, you observe the statutes of Omri and every practice of the house of Ahab,
and you walk in their counsels.
Therefore I will make you a horror,
and her inhabitants a hissing,
so you will bear the scorn of My people.

None Upright Among Mankind

Micah 7

1 Woe is me! For I am like gatherings of produce in summer, like gleanings of a vineyard.
There is no cluster to eat,
no first-ripe fig that I crave.
2 The pious have perished from the land, there is none upright among mankind.
All of them lie in wait for blood.
A man hunts his brother with a net.
3 Both hands are diligent at doing evil.
The official and the judge ask for a bribe.
The distinguished man utters a desire of his soul.
Thus they weave it together.
4 The best of them is like a prickly bush, the most upright like a thorn hedge.
The day of your watchmen—of your visitation—is coming.
Then their confusion will occur.
5 Do not trust in a friend.
Do not trust in a close companion.
Guard the openings of your mouth
from her who lies on your breast.
6 For son treats father with contempt; daughter rises up against mother;
daughter-in-law against mother-in-law: a man's enemies are the people of his own house.[12]

Zion's Vindication 7 But I—I will watch for Adonai.

I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.
8 Do not rejoice over me, O my enemy.

Though I have fallen—I will arise.
Though I sit in darkness, ADONAI is my light.
9 I will bear the indignation of ADONAI, because I have sinned against Him, until He pleads my cause,
and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me out to the light, and I will behold His righteousness.
10 Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her
— she who said to me:
“Where is ADONAI, your God?”
My eyes will gaze at her—

now she will be trampled like mud in streets.

11 A day to rebuild your walls— a day the boundary will be far off, 12 a day when they will come to you from Assyria to the cities of Egypt, from Egypt to the River,
from sea to sea,
and from mountain to mountain.
13 Yet the land will become a wasteland because of her inhabitants, because of the fruit of their misdeeds.

14 Tend Your people with Your staff, the flock of Your inheritance,
dwelling alone, in a forest
in the midst of a fertile garden.
Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
15 As in the days of your coming out from the land of Egypt I will show him wonders.
16 Nations will see and be put to shame despite all their might.
They will put a hand on their mouth, their ears will be deaf.
17 They will lick dust like a snake.
Like crawling things of the land,
they will come trembling out of their hiding places.
To ADONAI Eloheinu they will submit in awe— in awe of You.

He Will Again Have Compassion 18 Who is a God like You pardoning iniquity, overlooking transgression, for the remnant of His heritage?

He will not retain His anger forever, because He delights in mercy.

19 He will again have compassion on us.
He will subdue our iniquities,
and You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.
20 You will extend truth to Jacob, mercy to Abraham, that You swore to our ancestors
from the days of old.

Nahum

1 | 2 | 3

Judgment of Nineveh

Nahum 1 1 The oracle[1] concerning Nineveh—the book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 A jealous and avenging God is ADONAI.
Yes, ADONAI is the avenger and master of wrath.
ADONAI is avenger to His adversaries, Yes, a keeper of wrath for His foes.
3 ADONAI is slow to anger and great in power, but He will by no means acquit the guilty.
ADONAI's way is with a whirlwind or with a storm
wind, Clouds are the dust of His feet.
4 Rebuking the sea, He made it dry, as He has dried up all the rivers.
Bashan and Carmel languished,
Yes, Lebanon's budding languished.
5 Mountains quaked because of Him, and the hills have melted.
The earth has heaved up at His presence— yes, the world and everything dwelling in it.
6 Before His indignation who can stand?
Who can withstand His burning anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire,
and cliffs break down before Him.
7 ADONAI is good as a refuge in the day of distress, and He knows those who take refuge in Him.

8 But with an overwhelming flood, He will make that place a total ruin.
Darkness will pursue His enemies.

9 What can you scheme against ADONAI?
He will make a complete destruction.
Distress will not arise twice.
10 For even like tangled thorns they will be consumed,
or like drunkards who are drunk,
or like stubble that is fully dry.
11 Out of you has come a schemer of evil against ADONAI, a counselor of Belial.[2] 12 Thus said ADONAI: Though they are strong and numerous, even so they will be mowed down and pass away.
Although I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you no more.
13 I will now break his yoke from you, and tear apart
your bonds.
14 ADONAI has issued a command against you: no more will your name be spread.
From the house of your gods
I will cut off the idol and metal image.
I will prepare your grave—
for you have become worthless.

Nahum 2

1 Behold, upon the mountains are the feet[3] of him bringing good news,[4]
proclaiming shalom.
O Judah, celebrate your festivals!
Fulfill your vows!
For never again will Belial pass through you.
He has been utterly cut off.

Devastation of Nineveh

2 A shatterer has come up against you.
Guard the rampart! Watch the way!
Chazak! Be very courageous!
3 For ADONAI turned aside Jacob's pride like Israel's pride— for spoilers emptied them out and ruined their vine branches.
4 He makes the shield of warriors' red— valiant men are clad in scarlet!
the chariot burns with metal fire on the day of his preparation,
The fir trees are shaken.
5 The chariots dash madly about through the streets, rushing to and fro in the plazas, their appearance is like torches, darting like flashes of lightning.
6 He will recall his majestic ones.
They will stumble in their march.
They will hasten to her wall.
Now the siege work is set up.
7 The river gates will be opened, and the palace will melt away.
8 What was erected[5]
will be exiled and carried away.
Her handmaids are lamenting like the sound of doves,
beating their breasts.

9 Nineveh was like a pool of water for days —now they are fleeing.
Stop, stop! Yet no one turns back.
10 Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold!
For there is no end of treasure—
glory from everything precious.
11 Emptiness, desolation, waste!
Heart melting, knees buckling, anguish in all the loins, all their faces grown pale!

12 Where is the lions' den, the feeding place for young lions— where the lion went for a lion's cub— with nothing to disturb them?
13 The lion rips enough for his cubs, strangles prey for his lionesses.
Yes, he fills his den with prey,
his lair with torn flesh.
14 "Here I am against you"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot— "I will burn up her chariots in smoke.
A sword will devour your young lions.
I will cut them off from the land of your prey, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

City of Corpses

Nahum 3

1 Oy, bloody city!
Full of deceit, full of plunder.
The prey never departs.
2 Crack of whip, rattling of wheels,
horse galloping,
chariot jolting,
3 horseman climbing up, blade of sword and flash of spear, many slain, a mass of corpses
—no end to the corpses—
they stumble over their corpses!

The Harlot Humiliated 4 Because of the many fornications of the elegant prostitute, the mistress of sorceries, who sells nations by her fornications, and clans through her sorceries— 5 Behold, I am against you —it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot— I will lift your skirts over your face, I will show nations your nakedness and kingdoms your disgrace.

6 Yes, I will fling filth on you.
I will treat you with contempt
and set you up as a spectacle.
7 So it will be that all who see you will recoil from you and say,
"Nineveh has been ravaged!
Who will lament for her?"
Where will I find comforters for you?
8 Are you better than No-amon[6], situated among channels of the Nile, water surrounding her,
whose fortress and wall was water?[7] 9 Cush and Egypt were her might—unlimited.

Put and Libya were her allies.
10 Yet she went off to exile among the captives.
Even her babes were dashed to pieces at the head of all streets.
They cast lots for her dignitaries, and all her great men were bound with chains.

11 You too will become drunk.
You will hide yourself.
You too will seek refuge from an enemy.
12 All your fortifications will be fig trees with firstfruits — when shaken, they will fall, into an eater’s mouth.
13 See, your people within you are women[8].
The gates of your land are wide open to your enemies — fire has devoured your gate-bars.
14 Draw water for a siege.
Strengthen your fortifications!
Go into the mud and tread mortar.
Take hold of the brick mold.
15 There fire will devour you.
Sword will cut you off,
devouring you like the locust.
Multiply like the locust.
Multiply like the swarming locust!
16 You have multiplied your traders more than the stars of heaven.
Locusts have stripped and flown off.
17 Your princes are like locusts, your officials like a locust swarm, camping in the walls on a chilly day.
The sun rises, and they are chased away, and where they are is unknown.

18 Your shepherds have become drowsy, king of Assyria, your nobles lie down.

Your people are scattered on the hills, with no one to gather them.
19 There is no cure for your brokenness, your wound is severe.
All who hear the report about you, clap hands over
you.
For over whom has not passed
your constant cruelty?

Burden for Justice in Judah

Habakkuk 1 1 The oracle[1] that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

2 How long, ADONAI, have I cried for help, yet You do not hear?
I cry out to You—'Violence!'
yet You do not deliver.
3 Why do You show me wickedness, and why must I behold mischief?
Yes, devastation and violence are before me.
There is strife, and contention arises.
4 Therefore, Torah has no effect, and justice never goes forth.
For the wicked encircle the righteous Therefore justice comes out perverted.

ADONAI's Answer: Chaldeans 5 "Look among the nations! Observe!

Astonish yourself! Be astounded!
For a work is being done in your days.
You will not believe it if it were told.[2] 6 For I am about to raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter, impetuous nation, marching all over the land,
to seize dwellings not its own.
7 Dreadful and terrifying, Its justice and dignity derive from itself.
8 Its horses are swifter than leopards, fiercer than wolves at dusk.
Its horsemen come galloping.
Its horsemen are coming from afar.
They fly like a vulture,[3] swooping down to eat.

9 All of them come for violence— an assembling of faces to the east.
He gathers captives like sand.
10 He scoffs at kings, and rulers are a joke to him.
He laughs at every stronghold—
he heaps up dirt and takes it.
11 Then a wind sweeps through and passes on.
He is guilty—This, his strength, is his god.”

Appeal for Justice on Chaldea 12 Are not You from antiquity— Adonai my God, my Holy One?

We will not die.
Adonai, You have ordained him for judgment— as You, O Rock, have established him to chasten.
13 With eyes too pure to see evil You cannot look at such trouble!
Why do You look at the treacherous?
Why do You remain silent when a wicked one swallows up those more righteous than him?
14 You made man like the fish of the sea, like a creeping thing—with no one ruling over him.
15 He brings up all with hook in jaw, drags away in his dragnet,
or gathers with his fishing-net.
Therefore he rejoices with glee.
16 Therefore he sacrifices to his dragnet, and offers incense to his fishing-net.
For through them his portion is rich
and his food abundant.
17 Will he empty his net for this reason —continually slaying nations—with no compassion?

Habakkuk 2

1 I will take my stand at my post, and station myself on the rampart, and I will watch to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer regarding my argument.

Vision for an Appointed Time 2 Then Adonai answered me and said:
"Write down the vision,[4]

make it plain on the tablets,
so that the reader may run with it.
3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time.

It hastens to the end
and will not fail.
If it should be slow in coming, wait for it, For it will surely come—it will not delay.”[5]

Trust, Judgment and Glory

4 Behold, the puffed up one— his soul is not right within him,
But the righteous will live by his trust.[6]
5 Indeed, because this wine betrays, a proud man never rests.
He enlarges his desire like Sheol, Like death, he is never satisfied.
So he gathers to himself all nations,
and collects all peoples for himself.
6 Will not all take up a proverb against him or a scornful riddle about him?
“Oy to one expanding what isn’t his!
How long?
Oy to one burdening himself with heavy debts!”
7 Will biting you arise suddenly, and those shaking you awaken, as you will become plunder for them?
8 Since you looted many nations, all the survivors will plunder you— because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, the city and all its inhabitants.

9 Oy to one surely getting unjust gain for his house— to set his nest on high,
to escape the reach of calamity!
10 You schemed shame for your house, by cutting off many peoples,
so going wrong yourself.

11 For a stone will cry out[7] from a wall, and wooden beams will answer.

12 Oy to him who builds a city by bloodshed, and establishes a town with injustice!
13 Behold, is it not from ADONAI-Tzva'ot that peoples toil to fuel a fire,
and nations exhaust themselves for emptiness?
14 For the earth will be filled with knowing the glory of ADONAI, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Oy to one who makes his neighbor drink, who pours out Your fury, and even making him drunk In order to gaze at his nakedness!
16 You are filled with disgrace rather than glory.
Drink—you too—and be uncircumcised.
The cup of ADONAI'S right hand will surround you, and disgrace will come upon your glory.
17 For the violence done to Lebanon will spread over you, destruction of beasts terrifying them, because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, the city and to all its inhabitants.

18 What use is an idol when its craftsman has carved it?
Or a metal image—a teacher of lies?
For a craftsman has trusted in the image that he created, to make dumb idols.
19 Oy to one who says to wood: "Awake!"
To a dumb stone: "Rouse yourself!" Can it teach?
Look, it is plated with gold and silver,
but it has no spirit within it.
20 But ADONAI is in His holy Temple.
Let all the land be silent before Him.

Habakkuk's Confidence in Adonai

Habakkuk 3

1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, as a passionate song.

2 ADONAI, I have heard the report about You and I have come to fear.
ADONAI, revive Your work throughout the years,
throughout the years make it known,
In wrath remember compassion.

3 God comes from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah His majesty covers the heavens, and His praise fills the earth.
4 With brilliance like light, rays emanate from His hand.
There His power was hidden.
5 Pestilence goes before Him, a fiery bolt goes forth at His feet.
6 He stood, and the earth shook.
He looked, and startled nations.
Ancient mountains were shattered,
hills of antiquity sank down.
His ways are everlasting.

7 I saw tents of Cushan under calamity.
The curtains of the land of Midian are trembling.
8 ADONAI, is your wrath against rivers?
Or Your anger at the rivers?
Or is Your fury with the sea?
For You ride on Your horses,
Your chariots of salvation!
9 Your bow is laid bare.
Sworn are rods—a decree. Selah You cleave the land with rivers.
10 The mountains saw You and writhe.

A downpour of water overflows.
The deep gives its voice—
it lifts up hands high.
11 Sun and moon, stand in lofty abode.
At the flash of Your arrows they go,
at the radiance of the lightning of Your spear.
12 With indignation You pace the land.
With anger You thresh nations.
13 You went out for the salvation of Your people— for the deliverance of Your anointed one.[8]
You shatter the head of the house of the wicked— to lay it bare from foundation up to the top. Selah 14 You have pierced his chief rulers with his own staff— They stormed in to scatter me.
Their exultation is like devouring the weak in secret.
15 You marched forth, Your horses in the sea—much water foaming.
16 I heard, and my belly trembled.
My lips quivered at the sound.
Decay comes into my bones.
I tremble where I stand,
since I must wait quietly for a day of distress to come up against the people who will invade us.

17 Though the fig tree does not blossom, and there is no yield on the vines,
Though the olive crop fail,
and the fields produce no food,
the flock is cut off from the fold,
and there is no cattle in the stalls.
18 Yet will I triumph in ADONAI, I will rejoice in the God of my salvation![9] 19 ADONAI my Lord, is my strength.
He has made my feet like a deer’s,

and will make me walk on my high places.

For the choir director: On my stringed instruments.

Hand of Judgment Upon Idolaters

Zephaniah 1 1 The word of ADONAI that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah: 2 I will totally sweep away everything from the face of the earth,
declares ADONAI.
3 I will sweep away man and beast, I will sweep away
the birds of the sky
and the fish of the sea—
also the stumbling blocks—the wicked.
I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth,
declares ADONAI.[1]
4 "I will stretch out my hand upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place —the names of the idolatrous priests along with the kohanim, 5 those bowing down on the roofs to the host of the heavens.
those bowing down, swearing to ADONAI

and also swearing by Molech
6 those turning from following ADONAI, not seeking ADONAI or consulting Him.

The Day Is At Hand

7 Be silent before ADONAI God.
For the day of ADONAI is at hand![2]
ADONAI has prepared a sacrifice, He has consecrated his guests.
8 On the day of ADONAI's sacrifice, I will punish the princes,
the king's sons
and all who dress in foreign attire.
9 In that day I will punish all who skip over the threshold
while filling their master's House
with violence and deceit.
10 In that day—declares ADONAI— there will be the sound of screaming from the Fish Gate, wailing from the second district
and a loud crash from the heights.
11 Howl, inhabitants of Maktesh![3]
For all the people of Canaan[4] are destroyed.
All who weigh out silver are cut off.
12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men whose spirits have hardened, who say in their hearts,
'ADONAI will do neither good nor evil.'
13 Their wealth will become plunder, their houses a ruin.

They will build houses
but not live in them.

They will plant vineyards
but not drink their wine.

14 The great day of ADONAI is near— near and coming very quickly!
The sound of the day of ADONAI is bitter— the shouting of the warrior is there.
15 That day is a day of wrath a day of trouble and distress, a day of devastating storm and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 a day of shofar and alarm against the fortified cities
and against the high corner towers.
17 I will bring such distress upon mankind that they will walk like the blind— for they have sinned against ADONAI.
Their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.
18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to rescue them on the day of ADONAI'S wrath.
With the fire of His passion
the entire earth will be consumed.
For He will make a total,
dreadful annihilation of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Judgment of Nearby Nations

Zephaniah 2

1 Gather together! Gather together, O shameless nation— 2 before the decree is brought forth, before the day passes away like chaff, before ADONAI'S burning anger comes upon you, before the day of ADONAI'S anger comes upon you!
3 Seek ADONAI, all you humble of the land who have executed His judgment.
Seek righteousness; seek meekness![5]

Perhaps you will be hidden
on the day of ADONAI'S wrath.
4 For Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon will be a wasteland.
Ashdod will be driven out at noon and Ekron will be uprooted.
5 Oy to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of Cherethites!
The word of ADONAI is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines, and I will destroy you until there is no inhabitant.
6 The seacoast will become pastures, with meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.
7 The coast will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah, upon which they will graze.

In the houses of Ashkelon
they will lie down in the evening.
For ADONAI their God will visit them and return them from captivity.
8 I have heard the taunts of Moab and the jeers of the children of Ammon, who taunted My people and expanded on their border.
9 Therefore, as I live, declares ADONAI-Tzva'ot God of Israel, Moab will be like Sodom and Ammon like Gomorrah—
a possession of weeds and a salt pit, a perpetual wasteland.
The remainder of My people will plunder them.
The remnant of My nation will dispossess them.
10 This is what they will get for their pride, for they have taunted and expanded against the people of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.
11 ADONAI will be fearsome against them.
For all the gods of the earth
He will make waste away.
To Him will bow, each from its place, the islands of the nations.
12 You Ethiopians too will be slain by My sword.
13 He will stretch out his hand against the north and devastate Assyria and make Nineveh as a wasteland—
dry as a desert.
14 Flocks will lie down in her midst, all kinds of beasts—both the little owl and the great owl will lodge in her pillars.
A voice will hoot in the window.
Ruin will be in the doorway,
for the cedar beams will be exposed.
15 This is the exultant city, dwelling securely,

saying in her heart,
‘It’s me—no one else but me!’
How did she become a ruin,
an abode for wild beasts?

Everyone who passes by her hisses and shakes his fist.

Downfall of Disobedient Jerusalem

Zephaniah 3

1 Oy to the oppressive city— filthy and defiled!
2 She did not obey; she took no correction.
She did not trust in ADONAI.
She did not draw near to her God.
3 Her princes within her are roaring lions.
Her judges are wolves of the night,
leaving nothing but bones for morning.
4 Her prophets are reckless, treacherous men.
Her kohanim have profaned what is holy.
They do violence to Torah.
5 ADONAI is righteous in her midst.
He will do no injustice.
Morning by morning He brings His justice to light.
He does not fail.
Yet the unjust knows no shame.
6 I have cut off nations.
Their towers have become desolate.
I have destroyed their streets.
with no one passing by.
Their cities are laid waste,
with no one—none living there.
7 I said, 'Surely you will fear Me, you will accept correction, so her dwelling place would not be cut off— all that I appointed against her.'

But they arose early and made all their deeds corrupt.
8 Therefore, wait for me, declares ADONAI, for the day when I rise up for plunder: for My decision is to assemble nations, to gather kingdoms,[6]
to pour out My fury upon them—
all My burning anger.
For in the fire of My wrath
all the earth will be consumed.

The Future Restoration of Israel's Remnant 9 For then I will restore to the people pure speech, so that all of them

may call upon the Name of ADONAI
and serve Him shoulder to shoulder.
10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, My worshipers, the daughter of My scattered ones will bring My offering.
11 On that day you will not be ashamed because of all your deeds by which you rebelled against Me.
For then I will remove from your midst your proud,
arrogant ones,
and you will never again be haughty
on My holy mountain.
12 But I will leave among you a people meek and humble.
They will take refuge in the Name of ADONAI.
13 The remnant of Israel will do no injustice nor will they tell lies,
nor will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouths.[7]
For they will graze and lie down
and no one will make them afraid.
14 Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion!
Shout in triumph, O Israel!

Rejoice and exult wholeheartedly,
O daughter of Jerusalem!
15 ADONAI has taken away your punishments.
He has turned back your adversary.
The King of Israel, ADONAI, is in your midst.
Never again will you fear harm.
16 On that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, ‘Have no fear, O Zion, do not let your hands fall limp.
17 ADONAI your God is in your midst— a mighty Savior!
He will delight over you with joy.
He will quiet you with His love.
He will dance for joy over you with singing[8].’
18 “I will gather those among you who grieve over your moadim— it is a burden of shame on you.
19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all who oppress you.
I will save the lame and gather the outcast.
I will make them a praise and a name
throughout all the land where they suffered shame.
20 At that time I will bring you in.
At that time I will gather you.
For I will give you renown and glory
among all the peoples of the earth,

when I restore your captives
before your eyes,”
declares ADONAI.

Haggai

1 | 2

A Call to Build the House of Adonai

Haggai 1 1 In the second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Adonai came through Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah[1], and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol[2]: 2 "Thus says Adonai-Tzva'ot: 'This people say the time has not come—the time for the House of Adonai to be rebuilt.'"
3 Then the word of Adonai came through Haggai the prophet:
4 "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this House lies in ruins? 5 But now," thus says Adonai-Tzva'ot: "Set your heart on your ways!
6 You sowed much but bring in little.
You eat but are never satisfied.
You drink but not enough to get filled.
You put on clothes but no one is warm.
And whoever earns wages works for a bag full of holes."

7 Thus says Adonai-Tzva'ot: "Set your heart on your ways!
8 Go up to the hills, bring wood and build the House. Then I will delight in it and I will be glorified," says Adonai. 9 "You have looked for much, but indeed, there is little. What you have brought home, I have blown away. Why is this?"—it is a declaration of Adonai-Tzva'ot—"because My House lies in ruins, while you are running, each to his own house. 10 Therefore, because of you, the sky has withheld dew and the earth has withheld its yield. 11 For I have called for drought on the land, the hills and the grain, on the new wine, the oil, on what the ground brings forth, on mankind and beast, as well as all labor of hands."
12 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and all the remnant of the people, heeded the voice of Adonai their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, since Adonai their God had sent him. So the people revered ADONAI. 13 Then Haggai, the messenger of ADONAI, spoke to the people with the message of ADONAI, “I am with you!”—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

14 Then ADONAI stirred the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came and did work on the House of ADONAI-Tzva’ot their God, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

Glory of this Latter House

Haggai 2 [1] On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of ADONAI came through Haggai the prophet: [2] Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and to the remnant of the people: [3] "Who remains among you who saw this House in its former glory? So how do you see it now? Does it not seem as nothing in comparison in your eyes? [4] But now, Zerubbabel, chazak!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"and be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and all people of the land, chazak!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"and work! For I am with you!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot. [5] "According to the word I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt.
My Ruach is standing in your midst. Do not fear!" [6] For thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot: "In just a little while I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land,[3] [7] and I will shake all the nations. The treasures of all the nations will come, and I will fill this House with glory," says ADONAI-Tzva'ot. [8] "The silver is mine and the gold is mine!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot. [9] "The glory of this latter House will be greater than the former," says ADONAI-Tzva'ot.
"In this place, I will grant shalom"—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

ADONAI's Promise to Zerubbabel

[10] On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to Haggai the prophet, [11] "Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot: 'Ask now the kohanim for a ruling. [12] If a person carries consecrated meat in the corner of his garment, and with his corner he touches bread, stew, wine, oil or any food, will it become holy too?'"

Then the kohanim answered and said, "No."
[13] So Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by contact with a corpse touches any of these, does it become unclean?"
The kohanim answered and said, "It does become unclean."

14 Then, Haggai answered and said, “So it is with this people.
So is this nation before Me”—it is a declaration of Adonai—“and so is every work of their hands. What they were offering there was unclean. 15 But now, set your heart back from this day onward. Before stone was set upon stone in the Temple of Adonai, 16 how were things? When one came to a grain-heap of twenty measures, there were ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were twenty. 17 I struck you with blight and with mildew and with hail—every work of your hands—so you were nothing to Me”—it is a declaration of Adonai. 18 “Now, set your heart back from this day on—from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day the Temple of Adonai was founded, set your heart: 19 Is there still seed in the storehouse? Also the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate and the olive tree—are they still bearing fruit? From this day on I am going to bless you.”
20 Then the word of Adonai came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, 21 “Say to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah: ‘I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, 22 and I will overturn the throne of kingdoms and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overturn the chariot and its rider, so horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother.
23 “On that day’”—it is a declaration of Adonai-Tzva’ot—‘I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant’—it is a declaration of Adonai—“‘and I will set you like a signet ring.
For I have chosen you.’” It is a declaration of Adonai-Tzva’ot.

Return to the Lord

Zechariah 1 1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet Zechariah[1], son of Berechiah son of Iddo, saying: 2 "ADONAI has been furious with your fathers. 3 Therefore tell them, thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot,
'Return to Me'[2]—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot—'and I will return to you,' says ADONAI-Tzva'ot. 4 Do not be like your fathers to whom the former prophets cried out saying, thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, 'Turn back now from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.' But they did not listen or pay attention to Me.' It is a declaration of ADONAI.

5 "Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6 But My words and My decrees, which I commanded My servants the prophets—did they not overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said 'As He determined, ADONAI-Tzva'ot has dealt with us according to our ways and our deeds.'"

Among the Myrtle Trees 7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shevat, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, saying: 8 "In the night I saw, and behold, a man riding upon a red horse was standing among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine. Behind him were red, sorrel and white horses.[3]

9 Then I asked, 'What are these, my lord?'

Now the angel speaking with me said to me, 'I will show you what these are.'

10 Then the man standing among the myrtle trees answered and said, 'These are the ones ADONAI has sent to walk back and forth throughout the earth.'

11 They answered the angel of ADONAI who stood among the myrtle trees saying, 'We have walked throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth sits quietly and is still.'

12 Then the angel of ADONAI answered and said, ‘ADONAI-Tzva’ot, how long will You withhold compassion on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah with whom You have been angry for 70 years?’ 13 ADONAI answered the angel who was speaking to me with pleasant, comforting words.

14 Then the angel speaking to me said, ‘Cry out saying, thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “I am exceedingly zealous for Jerusalem and for Zion 15 and I am infuriated with the haughty nations. I was a little angry with them, but they furthered their own calamity.”

16 “Therefore,” thus says ADONAI, “I will return to Jerusalem with compassion. My House will be built there,” declares ADONAI-Tzva’ot “and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.” 17 Again cry out, saying, thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “My cities will again overflow with prosperity and ADONAI will again comfort Zion and will again choose Jerusalem.’”[4]

Four Horns and Four Craftsmen

Zechariah 2 [1] Then I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw four horns! [2] I said to the angel speaking with me, ‘What are these?’

He said to me, ‘These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.’

[3] Then ADONAI showed me four craftsmen. [4] I asked, ‘What are these coming to do?’

He answered, ‘These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no one could raise his head, but the craftsmen have come to frighten them, to cast down the horns of the nations that have lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.’

Measuring Jerusalem

5 I lifted up my eyes—and behold, I saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.[5] 6 I asked, ‘Where are you going?’
He answered me, ‘To measure Jerusalem to see how wide and how long it is.’[6] 7 Then behold, the angel speaking with me left and another angel went out to meet him, 8 saying to him, ‘Run, speak to this young man saying: “Jerusalem will be inhabited as a village without walls because of the great number of men and livestock in it. 9 For I”—it is a declaration of Adonai—“will be a wall of fire around it and I will be the glory inside it. 10 Oy, oy!
Flee from the land of the north”—it is a declaration of Adonai
—“because I scattered you like the four winds of heaven”—it is a declaration of Adonai. 11 “Oy, Zion! Escape, you who are living with the daughter of Babylon.” 12 “For thus says Adonai-Tzva’ot, He has sent me after glory to the nations that plundered you—because whoever touches you touches the apple of His eye—13 ‘For behold, I will shake My hand against them and they will be plunder to their servants.’
Then you will know that Adonai-Tzva’ot has sent me.
14 “‘Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion! For behold, I am coming and I will live among you’[7]—it is a declaration of Adonai. 15 ‘In that day many nations will join themselves to Adonai and they will be My people and I will dwell among you.’
Then you will know that Adonai-Tzva’ot has sent me to you.
16 Adonai will inherit Judah as His portion in the holy land and will once again choose Jerusalem. 17 Be silent before Adonai, all flesh, for He has aroused Himself from His holy dwelling.”

Joshua the Kohen Gadol

Zechariah 3 1 Then he showed me Joshua the kohen gadol standing before the angel of ADONAI and the satan[8], standing at his right hand to accuse him.[9] 2 ADONAI said to the satan,
'ADONAI rebukes you, the satan. Indeed ADONAI, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebukes you.[10] Is not this man a brand plucked out of the fire?'
3 Now Joshua was wearing filthy garments and standing before the angel 4 who answered and spoke to those standing before him saying, 'Remove the filthy garments from him.'
Then to Joshua he said, 'See, I have removed your iniquity from you and will dress you with fine clothing.'[11]
5 Then I said, 'Place a clean turban on his head.'
So they put a pure turban on his head and clothed him with garments while the angel of ADONAI stood by.
6 The angel of ADONAI exhorted Joshua saying: 7 'Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "If you will walk in My ways and keep My charge, then you will judge My House and watch over My courts and I will give you a place to walk among these standing here. 8 Listen well, Joshua kohen gadol, both you and your companions seated before you, because they are men who are a sign—behold, I will bring forth My servant the Branch. 9 For behold! The stone I have laid before Joshua is one stone with seven facets. On it I will engrave an inscription," declares ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "that I will remove the iniquity of this land in one day. 10 In that day," declares ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "every man will invite his neighbor to sit under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

Two Olive Trees and the Capstone

Zechariah 4 1 Then the angel who had been speaking with me returned and woke me—like a man who is wakened from his sleep.
2 He asked me, ‘What do you see?’
I replied, ‘Behold, I see a solid gold menorah with its bowl at the top of it, and its seven lamps on it with seven pipes for the lamps that are on the top of it. 3 Also two olive trees are by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on the left side of it.’[12]
4 Then I responded by saying to the angel speaking with me,
‘What are these, my lord?’
5 The angel who spoke with me responded by asking me, ‘You do not know what these are?’
I replied, ‘No, my lord.’
6 Then he responded to me by saying, ‘This is the word of ADONAI to Zerubbabel saying: “Not by might, nor by power, but by My Ruach!” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot. 7 “What are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain. He will bring out the capstone with shouts of “Grace, grace” to it.’” 8 Again the word of ADONAI came to me saying: 9 “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this House. His hands will also finish it. Then you will know that ADONAI-Tzva’ot has sent me to you. 10 For who despises the day of small things?
These seven—which are the eyes of ADONAI that run back and forth throughout the whole earth—will rejoice when they see the plumb line in Zerubbabel’s hand.” 11 Then I responded by asking him, “What are these two olive trees, on the right and on the left of the menorah?” 12 Again I asked him, “What are these two olive branches beside the two golden pipes that empty the golden oil out of them?”
13 He said to me, “You do not know what these are?”
I said, “No, my lord.”
14 So he said, “These are the two anointed ones, who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth.”

Flying Scroll and Basket

Zechariah 5 1 Once again I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw a flying scroll!
2 Then the angel asked me, “What do you see?”
I replied, “I see a flying scroll twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide.”
3 He said to me: “This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land: everyone who steals will be swept away from here according to it, and everyone who swears will be swept away from here according to it.” 4 “I will send it out”—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot—“and it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one who swears falsely by My Name and will reside inside his house destroying it, both its wood and its stones.”
5 Then the angel speaking with me came forward, and said to me, “Now lift up your eyes and see what is appearing.”
6 I asked, “What is it?”
He replied, “This is the measuring basket[13] that goes out.”
He continued, “This is their eye in all the land.” 7 Then behold, a lead cover was lifted and a woman was sitting in the middle of the measuring basket. 8 The angel exclaimed, ‘This is Wickedness!’ Then he shoved her back inside the measuring basket, throwing the lead weight over its mouth.
9 After this I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw two women emerging with the wind in their wings (they had wings like the wings of a stork) and they raised the measuring basket between the earth and the heaven.
10 I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “Where are they taking the measuring basket?” 11 He said, “To build a temple for her in the land of Shinar.
When it is prepared, she will live there in her own place.”

Four Chariots

Zechariah 6 1 Again I lifted up my eyes, and behold, I saw four chariots emerging from between the two mountains—mountains of bronze! 2 The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot black horses, 3 the third chariot white horses and the fourth chariot had strong dapple horses.[14]
4 Then I responded by saying to the angel speaking with me,
"What are these, my lord?"
5 The angel answered me saying, "These are the four winds of heaven that go forth from the presence of the Lord of all the earth.[15] 6 The chariot with the black horses is going to the land of the north and the white ones have gone out after them, but the dappled ones have gone out to the land of the south."
7 When the strong ones went out, they requested to go to walk throughout the earth. He said, "Go! Walk throughout the earth." So they walked throughout the earth." 8 Then he called and spoke to me saying, 'Look! Those going toward the land of the north have given rest to My Ruach in the north country.'

Crowns for Joshua 9 And the word of Adonai came to me saying: 10 'Take from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah who have come from Babylon, and go the same day, go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah! 11 Take silver and gold, make crowns and set on the head of Joshua son of Johozadak, the kohen gadol. 12 Then speak to him saying, "Thus says Adonai-Tzva'ot: Behold, a man whose Name is the Branch will branch out from his place and build the Temple of Adonai. 13 He will build the Temple of Adonai. He will bear splendor and sit and rule on His throne. Thus He will be a kohen on His throne. So a counsel of shalom will be between them both. 14 The crowns will be in the Temple of Adonai as a memorial to Helem, Tobijah and Jedaiah, and to Chen son of Zephaniah. 15 Those who are far off will come and build in the Temple of Adonai." Then you will know that *Adonai-Tzva'ot has sent me to you. It will come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of Adonai your God."

Justice and Chesed

Zechariah 7 [1] In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of ADONAI came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, in Kislev. [2] Now Bethel sent Sarezer and Regem-melech together with his men to seek the favor of ADONAI, [3] and to speak to the kohanim of the House of ADONAI-Tzva'ot and to the prophets saying, "Should I mourn and consecrate myself in the fifth month as I have done for so many years?"

[4] Then the word of ADONAI-Tzva'ot came to me saying:
[5] "Speak to all the people of the land and to the kohanim saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh months for the past seventy years, did you really fast for Me? [6] When you eat and drink, are you not eating and drinking for yourself? [7] Are not these the words that ADONAI proclaimed through the former prophets when Jerusalem with its surrounding cities were inhabited and prosperous, when the Negev and the lowland were inhabited?'"

[8] Again the word of ADONAI came to Zechariah saying, [9] "Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot: 'Administer true judgment and practice mercy and compassion each to his brother. [10] Do not oppress the widow or the orphan, the outsider or the poor.
Furthermore, do not let any of you devise evil against one another in your heart.'

[11] "But they refused to pay attention. They stubbornly turned their backs and stopped their ears from hearing. [12] Indeed, they made their hearts as hard as flint preventing them from hearing the Torah or the words that ADONAI-Tzva'ot sent by His Ruach through the former prophets. Consequently, great wrath came from ADONAI-Tzva'ot. [13] It came about that just as He called and they did not listen, so they would call and I would not listen," says ADONAI-Tzva'ot. [14] 'I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations they have not known. Thus the land was left so desolate behind them that no one passed through or returned, for they made the pleasant land
desolate.'"

Zealous for Zion

Zechariah 8 1 Then the word of ADONAI-Tzva'ot came saying:
2 "Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "I am exceedingly zealous for Zion,
I am burning with jealousy for her." 3 Thus says ADONAI, "I will return to Zion and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth and the mountain of ADONAI-Tzva'ot will be called the Holy Mountain." 4 Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "Once again old men and old women will sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with his staff in his hand because of his age. 5 The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

6 "Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, 'It may seem difficult in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, but will it also be difficult in My eyes?'—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.
7 "Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, 'Behold, I will save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west.8 I will bring them back and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem. They will be My people and I will be their God, in truth and righteousness.'[16] 9 "Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, 'Let your hands be strong—you who hear these words spoken by the prophets who were there the day the foundation of the House of ADONAI-Tzva'ot was laid—so that the Temple may be rebuilt. 10 Before those days there were no wages for man or animal, nor was there any shalom from adversity for those who came or went because I set every one against his neighbor. 11 But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days"—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

12 "For there will be a sowing of shalom: the vine will yield its fruit, the ground will produce its increase, and the heavens will give their dew. I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. 13 It will happen that just as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you and you will be a blessing. Fear not! Let your hands be strong!'

14 For thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “Just as I determined to harm you when your fathers provoked Me to anger,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, ‘and I did not relent, 15 so I have again determined in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
Fear not! 16 These are the things that you are to do: speak the truth one to another; administer the judgment of truth and shalom in your gates;[17] 17 do not let any of you devise evil in your hearts against your neighbor; and do not love false oaths, for I hate all these things,”—it is a declaration of ADONAI.
18 Again the word of ADONAI-Tzva’ot came saying: 19 “Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “The fast of the fourth, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth month will become joy, gladness and cheerful moadim. Therefore, love truth and shalom!’ 20 Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “Peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will again come. 21 The inhabitants of one city will go to another saying ‘Let us go to entreat the favor of ADONAI and to seek ADONAI-Tzva’ot. I also am going.’ 22 Indeed, many peoples and powerful nations will come to seek ADONAI-Tzva’ot in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of ADONAI.” 23 Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “In those days it will come to pass that ten men from every language of the nations will grasp the corner of the garment of a Jew saying, ‘Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.’”

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

Zechariah 9

1 The burden[18] of the word of ADONAI is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus.
For the eyes of men and all the tribes of Israel are toward ADONAI— 2 and also upon Hamath bordering it, and upon Tyre and Sidon, though they are very shrewd.
3 Tyre built herself a fortress and heaped up silver like dust
and fine gold like dirt in the streets.
4 Behold, the Lord will impoverish her and destroy her power on the sea,
while she will be devoured by fire.
5 Ashkelon will see it and fear.

Gaza will writhe in pain
as will Ekron because her hope will dry up.
The king will perish from Gaza
and Ashkelon will be uninhabited.
6 A mongrel people will live in Ashdod and I will cut off the Philistines' pride.
7 I will remove the blood from his mouth, forbidden food from between his teeth.
Whoever is left will be a remnant for our God.
He will be like a leader in Judah,
and Ekron will be like a Jebusite.
8 But I will camp around My House against marauding forces.
No oppressor will overrun them again— for now I watch with My own eyes.

Zion's Coming King

9 Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion!
Shout, daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, your king is coming to you,
a righteous one bringing salvation.
He is lowly, riding on a donkey—
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.[19] 10 I will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem,
and the war bow will be broken.
He will speak shalom to the nations.
His rule will extend from sea to sea, from the River
to the ends of the earth.
11 As for you also, by the blood of your covenant,[20]
I will release your prisoners from the waterless Pit.
12 Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope!

Today I declare that I will restore twice as much to you.
13 I will bend Judah as my bow and fill it with Ephraim.
I will rouse your sons, O Zion against your sons, O Greece.
I will wield you like a warrior’s sword.
14 Then ADONAI will be seen over them as His arrow flashes like lightning.
ADONAI Elohim will blow the shofar and march in whirlwinds of the south.[21]
15 ADONAI-Tzva’ot will defend them.
They will consume and conquer with sling stones.
They will drink and roar as with wine and be filled like a bowl,
like the corners of the altar.
16 ADONAI their God will save them on that day as the flock of His people.
They will be like gems of a crown sparkling over His land.
17 How good and beautiful it will be!
Grain will make the young men thrive
and new wine the virgin women.”

Good Shepherd Cares for Judah

Zechariah 10

1 Ask ADONAI for rain in spring!
ADONAI makes the storm clouds and will give rain showers
and plants of the field to everyone.
2 The idols utter deceit and diviners see lies.

They relate false dreams
and comfort in vain.
Therefore the people wander like sheep, afflicted
because there is no shepherd.[22]

3 My anger burns against the shepherds and I will punish the leaders.[23]
ADONAI-Tzva’ot cares for His flock, the house of Judah.
He will make them His valiant steed in battle.
4 From Judah will come the cornerstone,[24]
from him the tent peg,

from him the battle bow
and from him every leader together.
5 They will be like mighty men treading down muddy streets in war.
They will fight, because ADONAI is with them and will put horsemen to shame.
6 I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph.
I will bring them back,
for I have compassion on them.

They will be as though
I had never spurned them,
for I am ADONAI their God and I will answer them!
7 The Ephraimites will be like a warrior.
Their hearts will be glad as with wine.
Their children will see and be glad.
Their hearts will rejoice in ADONAI.
8 I will signal for them and gather them.

Surely I will redeem them
and they will be as numerous as before.
9 Though I scatter them among the peoples, they will remember Me in distant places.
They and their children will survive and return.
10 I will restore from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon till there is no room for them.
11 He will cross the turbulent sea and calm its raging waves.
All the depths of the Nile will dry up, the pride of Assyria brought down, the scepter of Egypt removed.
12 So I will strengthen them in ADONAI
and they will walk in His Name.
It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Devastation of Surrounding Lands

Zechariah 11

1 Open your gates, Lebanon—
fire will devour your cedars!
2 Wail, cypress tree! For the cedar has fallen.
Those majestic ones are devastated.
Wail, oaks of Bashan!
For the thick forest is cut down!
3 Listen to the wailing of the shepherds,
for their glory is destroyed!
Listen to the roaring of young lions,
for Jordan’s thickets are ruined!

Two Staffs

4 Thus said ADONAI my God: “Shepherd the flock marked for slaughter! 5 Their buyers slay them and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, ‘Blessed be ADONAI, for I am rich!’ Their own shepherds do not spare them. 6 I will no longer have compassion on the inhabitants of the land”—it is a declaration of ADONAI. “Behold, I will hand everyone over to his neighbor and his king. They will devastate the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand.”
7 So I pastured the flock for the slaughter, especially the afflicted of the flock. Then I took two staffs—one I called Favor and the other I called Union—and I pastured the flock. 8 Next I disposed of the three shepherds in one month—for my soul was impatient with them and their soul also detested me. 9 Then I said, “I will not shepherd you! Let the dying die, let the perishing perish, and let those who are left eat one another’s flesh!” 10 So I took my staff called Favor and broke it to pieces, in order to break my covenant that I made with all people. 11 It was broken on that day. The afflicted of the flock that were watching me knew that this was the word of ADONAI.” 12 Then I said to them, “If it seems good to you, pay me my wages, but if not, don’t bother!” So they weighed out my wages
—30 pieces of silver.[25]
13 Then ADONAI said to me, “Throw it to the potter—that exorbitant price at which they valued Me!” So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw them into the House of ADONAI, to the potter.[26]
14 Then I broke my second staff called Union, in order to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. 15 Again ADONAI said to me, “Once more take up the equipment of a foolish shepherd! 16 For behold, I am going to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for the dying, seek out the young or heal the injured or nourish the healthy. Instead he will eat the meat of the choice sheep, even tearing off their hoofs.”

17 Woe to the worthless shepherd
who deserts the flock![27]
May a sword fell his arm and his right eye!
May his arm be all withered
and his right eye totally blinded!”

Jerusalem, a Cup of Reeling

Zechariah 12 [1] The burden of the word of ADONAI concerning Israel.

A declaration of ADONAI, who stretched out the heavens, laid the foundation of the earth and formed the spirit of man within him: [2] “Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples when they besiege Jerusalem as well as Judah. [3] Moreover, in that day I will make Jerusalem a massive stone for all the people. All who try to lift it will be cut to pieces. Nevertheless, all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against her. [4] In that day”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with madness. I will keep My eyes on the house of Judah but will blind every horse of the peoples. [5] Then the leaders of Judah will say in their heart, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength through ADONAI-Tzva’ot their God.”

[6] “In that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a burning torch among sheaves. They will devour on the right and on the left all the surrounding peoples, yet Jerusalem will remain in her place, in Jerusalem. [7] ADONAI also will save the tents of Judah first, so that the honor of the house of David and the honor of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not exceed that of Judah. [8] In that day ADONAI will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem so that the weakest among them that day will be like David and the house of David will be like God—like the angel of ADONAI before them. [9] It will happen in that day that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Mourning the Pierced One

10 “Then I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication, when they will look toward Me whom they pierced.[28] They will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son and grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for a firstborn. 11 In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, mourning like Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo. 12 The land will mourn clan by clan. The clan of the house of David by itself and their wives by themselves, the clan of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves, 13 the clan of the house of Levi by itself and their wives by themselves, the clan of the Shimeites by itself and their wives by themselves.14 Each of the remaining clans will mourn by itself and their wives by themselves.”

Final Cleansing from Sin

Zechariah 13 1 “In that day a spring will be opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem to cleanse them from sin and impurity.[29] 2 It will happen in that day”—it is a declaration of Adonai-Tzva’ot—“that I will erase the names of the idols from the land and they will no longer be remembered.
Furthermore, I will remove the prophets and the unclean spirit from the land. 3 If anyone still prophesies his father and his mother to whom he was born will say to him, ‘You cannot live because you tell lies in the Name of Adonai.’ When he prophesies, his own father and mother, the ones who bore him, will pierce him through. 4 Therefore in that day each ‘prophet’ will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. He will no longer wear a hairy mantle in order to deceive 5 but will say, ‘I am not a prophet. I am a farmer—I have been a bondservant from my youth.’ 6 Then someone will ask him, “What are these wounds between your hands?”—and he will answer, “Those that I received in the house of my friends.”

7 Awake, O sword, against My shepherd, against the man who is My companion!
It is a declaration of Adonai-Tzva’ot.

Strike the shepherd
and the sheep will be scattered![30]
I will turn My hand against the little ones.
8 Then it will happen —it is a declaration of ADONAI—
that in the entire land
two-thirds will be cut off and die, but a third will be left in it.
9 This third I will bring through the fire.
I will refine them as silver is refined, and will test
them as gold is tested.
They will call on My Name
and I will answer them.
I will say, ‘They are My people,’
and they will answer, ‘ADONAI is my God.’[31]

Coming to the Mount of Olives

Zechariah 14 1 Behold, a day of ADONAI is coming when your plunder will be divided in your midst. 2 I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to wage war. The city shall be captured, the houses ransacked and the women ravished. Half of the city will be exiled but the remainder of the people will not be cut off from the city. 3 Then ADONAI will go forth and fight against those nations as He fights in a day of battle. 4 In that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives which lies to the east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a huge valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north and half of it toward the south. 5 Then you will flee through My mountain valley because the mountain valley will reach to Azel. Yes, you will flee like you fled from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then ADONAI my God will come and all the kedoshim
with Him.[32]

6 In that day there will be no light, cold or frost. 7 It will be a day known only to ADONAI, neither day nor night—even in the evening time there will be light.[33] 8 Moreover, in that day living waters will flow from Jerusalem, half toward the eastern sea and half toward the western sea, both in the summer and in the winter.[34] 9 ADONAI will then be King over all the earth. In that day ADONAI will be Echad and His Name Echad.[35]

10 The whole land, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem, will become like the Arabah. Jerusalem will be raised up and occupy her place, from the Benjamin Gate to the place of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king’s winepresses. 11 People will dwell in her, and no longer will there be a ban of destruction—Jerusalem will live in security.

12 Now this is the plague with which ADONAI will strike all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot while they are standing on their feet; their eyes will rot in their sockets; and their tongues will rot in their mouths. 13 It will happen in that day that a great panic from ADONAI will be among them. Each person will seize the hand of his neighbor and they will attack each other. 14 Even Judah will fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding peoples will be gathered together—an abundance of gold, silver and apparel. 15 A similar plague will strike the horse, the mule, the camel, the donkey and all the animals in that camp.

16 Then all the survivors from all the nations that attacked Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, ADONAI-Tzva'ot, and to celebrate Sukkot. 17 Furthermore, if any of the nations on earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, ADONAI-Tzva'ot, they will have no rain. 18 If the Egyptians do not go up and celebrate, they will have no rain. Instead, there will be the plague that ADONAI will inflict on the nations that do not go up to celebrate Sukkot. 19 This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate Sukkot. 20 In that day "Holy to ADONAI" will be inscribed on the bells of the horses and the pots in House of ADONAI will be like the sacred bowls in front of the altar. 21 In fact every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be Holy to ADONAI-Tzva'ot, so that everyone who comes to sacrifice will take them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite[36] in the House of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.[37]

Malachi

Jacob Loved Adonai

Malachi 1 1 An oracle[1]: The word of Adonai to Israel by Malachi[2].

2 “I loved you,” says Adonai.
But you say: “How have you loved us?”
“Was Esau not Jacob’s brother?”
—it is the declaration of Adonai— “Yet I loved Jacob 3 and Esau I hated.
I made his hills a wasteland and gave his inheritance
to jackals of the wilderness.”
4 For Edom may say, “We have been beaten down, but we will return and rebuild the ruins.”
Thus Adonai-Tzva’ot says: “They may rebuild but I will tear down.
They will be called a wicked territory, the people
Adonai denounced forever.
5 So you will see, and you will say: ‘May Adonai be magnified beyond the border of Israel!’”

Despicable Sacrifices 6 “A son honors his father, and a servant his master. So if I am Father, where is My honor? If I am Master, where is My reverence?”—says Adonai-Tzva’ot—“you, kohanim who despise My Name!”

But you say, “How did we despise Your Name?”
7 “By offering defiled bread on My altar.” But you say, “How did we defile You?” When you say, “The table of Adonai is despicable.”
8 “When you bring a blind one as sacrifice, is it not wrong? Or when you bring a lame or sick one, is it not wrong? Offer them now to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Or will he acknowledge you favorably?” says Adonai-Tzva’ot.

9 “So now, implore God’s favor! Then, will He be gracious to us? Since this has come from your hands, will He accept any of it from you?” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
10 “If just one of you would shut the doors, and not light My altar uselessly! I have no delight in you,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
“Nor will I accept any offering from your hand.
11 “For from sunrise to its setting[3] My Name will be great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to My Name with a pure grain offering, for My Name will be great among the nations,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
12 But you are profaning it when you say, “The table of ADONAI is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food—despicable!” 13 You also say, “It’s so tedious!”
“And you sniff at it,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot. “So you bring plunder, the lame and the sick. Then you bring them as the offering. Should I accept this from your hand?” says ADONAI.
14 “Moreover, cursed is a deceiver who has in his flock a male,
but makes a vow and sacrifices something blemished to my Lord. For I am a great King,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “and My Name shall be revered among the nations.”

Warning to the Kohanim and Levites

Malachi 2

1 “So now, kohanim, this commandment is for
you.
2 If you will not listen, and if you will not take to heart to give glory to My Name”
—says ADONAI-Tzva’ot— “then I will send the curse on
you,
and I will curse your blessings.
Yes, indeed I have cursed them,
because you did not take it to heart.
3 Behold, I am rebuking the seed on account of you, and will spread dung on your faces
—the dung of your festivals—
and take you away together with it.
4 Then you will know that I have sent this command to you, to be My covenant with Levi,”
says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
5 “My covenant was with him for life and shalom, and I gave them to him for reverence.
So he revered Me, and he was awestruck by My Name.
6 Instruction of truth was in his mouth.
Injustice was not found on his lips.
In shalom and uprightness he walked with Me, and he turned many from iniquity.
7 For a kohen’s lips should guard knowledge, and instruction must be sought from his mouth.
For he is a messenger of ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
8 But you have turned from the way.
You caused many to stumble in Torah by the instruction, You corrupted the covenant of the Levites,”

—says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
9 “So I also have made you despised and lowly to all the people, because you are not keeping My ways but show favoritism in Torah.”

10 Do we not all have one Father?
Has not one God created us?

Why do we deal treacherously
—a man against his brother—
defiling the covenant of our fathers?
11 Judah has dealt treacherously, an abomination done
in Israel, even in Jerusalem!
For Judah has defiled ADONAI's Sanctuary, which He loves,
and married the daughter of a foreign god.
12 ADONAI will cut off the man who does this, until he is cast from the tents of Jacob,
and from offering a gift to ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

Covenant With Your Wife

13 Secondly, you do this: Tears cover the altar of ADONAI
— you are weeping and groaning because He no longer accepts the offering or receives it favorably from your hand.
14 Yet you say, “Why?”
Because ADONAI bears witness between you and the wife of your youth,
whom you have treated deceitfully.
Yet she had been your companion
and your wife by covenant.
15 Did the One not make her with a remnant of Ruach?
Then what is the One seeking?
Offspring of God!
So protect your spirit—
do not betray the wife of your youth.
16 “For I hate[4] divorce,”
—says ADONAI the God of Israel— “and the one who covers his garment with injustice,”
says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
So protect your spirit—do not act treacherously.

17 You wearied ADONAI with your words.
Yet you say: “How did we weary Him?”
When you say: “Everyone doing evil is good in the sight of ADONAI, and He delights in them.” Or, “Where is the God of justice?”

My Messenger is Coming

Malachi 3

1 “Behold, I am sending My messenger[5], and he will clear the way before Me.[6]
Suddenly He will come to His Temple
—the Lord whom you seek—and the Messenger of the covenant
—the One whom you desire—behold, He is coming,”
says Adonai-Tzva’ot.
2 But who can endure the day of His coming?
Or who can stand when He appears?[7]
For He will be like a refiner’s fire,[8]
and like soap for cleaning raw wool.
3 And He will sit as a smelter or a purifier of silver, and He will cleanse the sons of Levi,
and purify them like gold or silver.
Then they will become for Adonai
those who present an offering in righteousness.
4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to Adonai, as in days of antiquity and years of old.
5 “Then I will draw near to you in judgment, and I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, adulterers,
perjurers those who extort a worker’s wage,
or oppress the widow or an orphan,
those who mislead a stranger.
They do not fear Me,”
says Adonai-Tzva’ot.
6 “For I am Adonai. I do not change, So you, children of Jacob, are not consumed.

Bring the Whole Tithe

7 “From the days of your ancestors you have turned aside from My statutes, and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says Adonai-Tzva’ot.
Yet you say: “How should we return?”
8 “Will a man rob[9] God? For you are robbing Me!”
But you say: “How have we robbed You?” “In the tithe and the offering. 9 You have been cursed with the curse, yet you keep robbing Me—the whole nation! 10 Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse. Then there will be food in My House. Now test Me in this”—says Adonai-Tzva’ot—“if I will not open for you the windows of heaven, and pour out blessing for you, until no one is without enough. 11 I will rebuke the devouring pest for you, so it will not destroy the fruit of your land, nor will your vine be barren in the field,” Adonai-Tzva’ot says. 12 “All the nations will call you blessed. For you will be a land of delight,” says Adonai-Tzva’ot.
13 “Your words against Me are grievous,” says Adonai.
Yet you say: “What did we say against You?”
14 You say: “Serving God is worthless.” Also: “What good is it that we kept His service or that we walked as mourners before Adonai-Tzva’ot? 15 So now we are calling the proud blessed.
Those who practice iniquity are built up. Indeed, they have tested God, and escaped!”
16 Then those who revere Adonai spoke with each other, and Adonai took notice and heard, and a scroll of remembrance[10]
was written before Him, for those who revere Adonai, even those who esteem His Name.
17 “So they shall be Mine,”—says Adonai-Tzva’ot—“in the day I make My own special possession. So I will spare them, as one spares his son serving him. 18 Then you will return and distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.”

The Day Is Coming

19 [11]“For behold, the day is coming —it will burn like a furnace— when all the proud and every evildoer will become stubble.
The day that is coming will set them ablaze”
—says Adonai-Tzva’ot— “leaving them neither root nor branch.”

20 “But for you who revere My Name, the sun of righteousness will rise,
with healing in its wings.
Then you will go forth and skip about like calves from the stall.
21 You will trample on the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I am making,”
says Adonai-Tzva’ot.

22 “Remember the Torah of Moses My servant, whom I commanded at Horeb—statutes and ordinances for all Israel.
23 “Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet[12], before the coming of the great and terrible day of Adonai. 24 He will turn the hearts of fathers to the children, and the hearts of children to their fathers—else I will come and strike the land with utter destruction.”

Torah Is a Tree of Wisdom Psalm 1

1 Happy is the one who has not walked in the advice of the wicked, nor stood in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seat of scoffers.
2 But his delight is in the Torah of ADONAI, and on His Torah he meditates day and night.
3 He will be like a planted tree over streams of water,
producing its fruit during its season.
Its leaf never droops—
but in all he does, he succeeds.

4 The wicked are not so.
For they are like chaff that the wind blows away.
5 Therefore the wicked will not stand during the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6 For ADONAI knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to ruin.

Coronation of Messianic King

Psalm 2

1 Why are the nations in an uproar,
and the peoples mutter vanity?
2 The kings of earth set themselves up[1]
and rulers conspire together[2] against ADONAI
and against His Anointed One[3]: 3 “Let’s rip their chains apart,
and throw their ropes off us!”
4 He who sits in heaven laughs!
ADONAI mocks them.
5 So He will speak to them in His anger,
and terrify them in His fury:
6 “I have set up My king
upon Zion, My holy mountain.”

7 I will declare the decree of ADONAI.
He said to me: “You are My Son—
today I have become Your Father.[4] 8 Ask Me,
and I will give the nations as Your inheritance,
and the far reaches of the earth as Your possession.
9 You shall break the nations with an iron scepter.[5]
You shall dash them in pieces like a potter’s jar.”[6]

10 So now, O kings, be wise,
take warning, O judges of the earth!
11 Serve ADONAI with fear,
and rejoice with trembling.
12 Kiss the Son, lest He become angry,
and you perish along your way—

since His wrath may flare up suddenly.
Happy is everyone taking refuge in Him!

Magen David Psalm 3

1 A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.
2 ADONAI, how many are my foes!
Many are rising up against me!
3 Many are saying to my soul: “There is no deliverance for him in God.”

Selah

4 But You, ADONAI, are a shield around me, my glory and the lifter of my head.

5 I cry out to ADONAI with my voice, and He answers me
from His holy mountain.

Selah

6 I lie down and sleep.
I awake—for ADONAI sustains me.
7 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people all around who have taken their stand against me.
8 Arise, ADONAI! Deliver me, my God!
For you strike all my enemies on the cheek.
You shatter the teeth of the wicked.
9 Deliverance belongs to ADONAI.[7]
Let Your blessing be on Your people.

Selah

Prayer for Sleep in Shalom

Psalm 4

1 For the music director, on stringed instruments, a psalm of David.
2 Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness!
You set me free when I am in distress.
Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.
3 O sons of men, how long will you turn my glory into my shame?
How long will you love worthlessness and pursue falsehood? Selah
4 But know that ADONAI has set apart the godly for His own.
ADONAI will hear when I call to Him.
5 Tremble, but do not sin![8]
Search your heart while on your bed, and be silent.
Selah
6 Offer righteous sacrifices and put your trust in ADONAI.

7 Many are asking, “Who will show us some good?”
May the light of Your face shine upon us, ADONAI!
8 You have put joy in my heart— more joy than when their grain and new wine overflow.
9 I will lie down and sleep in shalom.
For You alone, ADONAI, make me live securely.

Morning Prayer for Justice

Psalm 5

1 For the music director, on the wind instruments, a psalm of David.
2 Hear my words, ADONAI,
consider my groaning.
3 Listen to the sound of my cry for help,
my King and my God, for I pray to you.
4 ADONAI, in the morning You hear my voice.
In the morning I order my prayer before You and watch expectantly.
5 For You are not a God who rejoices in evil.
No wickedness dwells with you.
6 Braggarts will not stand before your eyes.
You hate all wrongdoers.
7 You destroy those who speak falsehood.
A person of bloodshed and deceit ADONAI detests.

8 But because of your great lovingkindness, I will enter Your House.
I will bow toward Your holy Temple, in awe of You.
9 Lead me, ADONAI, in Your righteousness, because of my enemies.
Make Your path straight before me.
10 For nothing upright is in their mouth.
Inside them is a ruin—their throat an open grave.
They flatter with their tongue.[9]
11 Declare them guilty, O God!
Let them fall by their own schemes.
Banish them because of their many transgressions—
for they have rebelled against You.

12 But let all who take refuge in You rejoice!
Let them always shout for joy!
You will shelter them and they exult—those who love
Your Name.
13 For You bless the righteous, ADONAI.
You surround him with favor as a shield.

Prayer for Mercy

Psalm 6

1 For the music director, on the eight-string lyre, a psalm of David.
2 ADONAI, do not rebuke me in Your anger!
Do not discipline me in Your wrath.
3 Be gracious to me, ADONAI, for I am weak.
Heal me, ADONAI—for my bones are shuddering with fear, 4 as is my soul— and You, ADONAI—how long?
5 Turn toward me, ADONAI, deliver my soul!
Save me—because of Your mercy.
6 For there is no memory of You in death, in Sheol who will praise You?
7 I am worn out with my groaning.
Every night I make my bed swim,
drenching my pillow with my tears.
8 My eyes are weakened with grief— they age because of my enemies.

9 Away from me, all you evildoers!
For ADONAI heard the sound of my weeping.
10 ADONAI has heard my cry for mercy.
ADONAI accepts my prayer:
11 “May all my enemies be ashamed, and stricken with terror.
May they turn back in sudden disgrace.”

Adonai Magen

Psalm 7

1 A passionate song of David, which he sang to Adonai concerning Cush, a Benjamite.
2 Adonai my God, in You I have taken refuge.
Save me from each of my persecutors, and deliver
me.
3 Otherwise he will rip me apart like a lion,
with no one to rescue me.
4 Adonai my God, if I have done this—
if there is guilt on my hands,
5 if I have paid back evil to anyone at peace with me,
or unjustly attacked my adversary,
6 then let the enemy chase me,
overtake me, and trample me into the ground,
leaving my honor in the dirt! Selah

7 Arise, Adonai, in Your anger, arise against the fury of my enemies!
Awake for me!
You decreed justice.
8 Let an assembly of peoples gather around You and return on high, above them.
9 Adonai judges the peoples.
Vindicate me, Adonai,
according to my righteousness and integrity in me.
10 Please, end the evil of the wicked
and sustain the righteous.
A just God examines hearts and minds.
11 My shield is God—
Savior of the upright in heart.

12 God is a righteous judge,
a God who is indignant every day.

13 If He does not relent,
He will sharpen His sword.
He has bent His bow and made it ready.
14 He prepares His own deadly weapons.
He makes His fiery arrows.
15 Look! The one pregnant with trouble conceives mischief
and brings forth deceit.[10] 16 He digs a pit, scrapes it out, and then falls into the hole he has made.
17 His mischief will turn on his own head.
His violence will boomerang on his crown.

18 I will praise ADONAI for His justice.
I sing praise to the Name of ADONAI Elyon!

Humanity is God's Splendor

Psalm 8

1 For the music director, upon the Gittite lyre: a psalm
of David.
2 ADONAI our Lord, how excellent is Your Name over all
the earth!
You set Your splendor above the heavens.
3 Out of the mouths of babies and toddlers You established power,[11] because of Your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.
4 When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You established— 5 what is man, that You are mindful of
him?
And the son of man, that You care for him?[12] 6 Yet You made him a little lower than the angels, and crowned him with glory and majesty!
7 You gave him dominion over the works of Your hands.
You put all things under their feet:[13]
8 all sheep and oxen, and also beasts of the field, 9 birds in the air, and fish in the ocean— all passing through the paths of the seas.

10 ADONAI our Lord, how excellent is Your Name over all
the earth!

Our Righteous Judge

Psalm 9

1 For the music director, to the tune of “The Death of the Son,” a psalm of David.
2 I will praise ADONAI with my whole heart.
I will tell about all Your wonders.
3 I will be glad and rejoice in You.
I will sing praise to Your Name, Elyon!
4 When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish
before You.
5 For You upheld my right and my cause.
You sat upon the throne, judging righteously.
6 You rebuked the nations, You destroyed the wicked—
blotting out their name forever and ever.
7 The enemy is finished, in ruins forever.
You overturned their cities—
even the memory of them has perished.
8 But ADONAI reigns forever.
He established His throne for judgment.
9 He judges the world in righteousness and governs the peoples justly.
10 ADONAI is a stronghold for the oppressed, a high tower in times of trouble.
11 Those who know Your Name trust You— for You, ADONAI, never have forsaken those who seek You.
12 Sing praises to ADONAI, who dwells in Zion.
Declare His deeds among the peoples.
13 He who avenges blood remembers.
He will not forget the cry of the afflicted.
14 Be compassionate to me, ADONAI.
See my affliction from those hating me.

Lift me up from the gates of death.
15 Then I will tell all your praises in the gates of the daughter of Zion,
rejoicing in Your salvation.
16 The nations sank into the pit they made.
The net they hid caught their own foot.
17 ADONAI is known for executing judgment.
The wicked one is trapped in the work of his own hands.

Selah

18 The wicked will turn to Sheol, as will all the nations that forget God.

19 For the needy will not forever be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever.

20 Arise, ADONAI, do not let man triumph.
Let the nations be judged before You.

21 Strike them with terror, ADONAI.
Let the nations know they are only human. Selah

Freedom from Terror

Psalm 10

1 Why, ADONAI, are You standing far off?
Why hide Yourself in times of trouble?
2 In pride the wicked hotly hunts the poor.
Let them be caught in the plots they have planned.
3 For the wicked one boasts about his soul's desire.
The greedy one curses, reviling ADONAI.
4 The wicked one, with his nose in the air, never seeks Him.
All his thoughts are: "There is no God."
5 His ways are secure at all times.
He haughtily disregards Your judgments.
He snorts at all his adversaries.
6 He says in his heart: "I'll never be shaken!
From generation to generation nothing bad will happen."
7 His mouth is full of cursing, lies and oppression.
On his tongue are trouble and iniquity.[14]
8 He lies in ambush near villages.
In hidden places he slays the innocent.
His eyes watch in secret for the helpless.
9 He lurks in a hiding place like a lion in a thicket.
He lies in wait to catch the helpless.
He catches the unfortunate one, dragging him away in his net.
10 The victim is crushed, brought down, and falls into his mighty claws.
11 He says in his heart: "God has forgotten.
He hides His face—He will never see it."
12 Arise, ADONAI! O God, lift up Your hand.

Do not forget the afflicted.
13 Why does the wicked one revile God?
He says in his heart:
"You will never require anything."
14 You saw—for You see trouble and grief, to take it in Your hand.
The victim puts his trust in You—
You are the helper of the orphan.
15 Break the arm of the wicked, evil one!
Call him to account for his wickedness—
until no more is found.
16 ADONAI is King forever and ever!
Nations will be wiped off His land.
17 You hear, ADONAI, the desire of the meek.
You encourage them and incline Your ear.
18 You vindicate the orphan and oppressed, so that man, who is earthly, may terrify no more.

Judgment from Heaven

Psalm 11

1 For the music director, a psalm of David.
In ADONAI I have taken shelter.
How can you say to my soul:
"Fly like a bird to your mountain?
2 For look, the wicked bend the bow.
They fix their arrow on the bowstring
so they can shoot from the shadows
at those who are upright in heart.
3 If our foundations are destroyed, what should the righteous do?"

4 ADONAI is in His holy Temple.
ADONAI'S throne is in heaven.[15]
His eyes are watching.
His eyelids observe the children of men.
5 ADONAI examines the righteous.
But the wicked and one loving violence His soul
hates.
6 On the wicked He will rain down fire, brimstone and scorching wind as the portion of their cup!
7 For ADONAI is righteous—He loves justice.
The upright will see His face.

Silence the Flattering Lips

Psalm 12

1 For the music director, on the eight-string lyre, a psalm of David.
2 Help, ADONAI! For no one godly exists.
For the faithful have vanished from the children of men.
3 Everyone tells a lie to his neighbor, talking with flattering lips and a divided heart.
4 May ADONAI cut off all flattering lips— a tongue bragging big things.
5 They say: “With our tongue we’ll prevail.
We own our lips—who can master us?”

6 “Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the groaning of the needy,
now will I arise,” says ADONAI.
“I will put him in the safe place—he pants for it.”
7 The words of ADONAI are pure words— like silver refined in an earthly crucible, purified seven times.
8 You will keep us safe, ADONAI.
You will protect us from this generation forever.
9 The wicked strut all around, while vileness is exalted by mankind.

Trust in His Chesed Psalm 13

1 For the music director, a psalm of David.
2 How long, ADONAI? Will You forget me forever?
How long will You hide Your face from me?
3 How long must I have cares in my soul and daily sorrow in my heart?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?
4 Look at me and answer, ADONAI my God.
Light up my eyes, or I will sleep in death.
5 Or else my enemy will say: “I have overcome him!”
and my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.

6 But I trust in Your lovingkindness, my heart rejoices in Your salvation.
I will sing to ADONAI, because He has been good to
me.

There Is No God?

Psalm 14

1 For the music director, of David.
The fool said in his heart:
"There is no God."
They are corrupt; their deeds are vile; there is no one who does good.[16]
2 ADONAI looked down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there are any who understand, who seek after God.
3 They all turned aside, became corrupt.
There is no one who does good
—not even one.
4 "Will evildoers never understand— those who consume My people as they eat bread— and never call on ADONAI?"
5 There they are, in great dread.
For God is with the righteous generation.
6 You would frustrate the plan of the lowly.
Surely ADONAI is his refuge!
7 O may He give Israel's salvation out of Zion!
When ADONAI restores His captive people, Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad!

Walking with Integrity Psalm 15

[1] A psalm of David.
ADONAI, who may dwell in Your tent?
Who may live on Your holy mountain?
[2] The one who walks with integrity, who does what is right,
and speaks truth in his heart,
[3] who does not slander with his tongue, does not wrong his neighbor,
and does not disgrace his friend,
[4] who despises a vile person in his eyes, but honors those who fear ADONAI, who keeps his oath even when it hurts, and does not change,
[5] who lends his money without usury, and takes no bribe against the innocent.
One who does these things will never be shaken.

The Path of Eternal Life Psalm 16

[1] A Michtam of David.
Keep me safe, O God, for in You I have found shelter.
[2] I said to ADONAI: “You are my Lord— I have no good apart from You.”
[3] As for the kedoshim who are in the land, they are noble—in them is all my delight.
[4] As for those who run after another god, may their sorrows multiply.
I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood, nor lift up their names with my lips.

[5] ADONAI is my portion and my cup.
You cast my lot.
[6] My boundary lines fall in pleasant places —surely my heritage is beautiful.
[7] I will bless ADONAI, who counsels me.
Even at night my heart instructs me.
[8] I have set ADONAI always before me.
Since He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.
[9] So my heart is glad and my soul rejoices.
My body also rests secure.
[10] For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol nor let Your faithful one see the Pit.[17]
[11] You make known to me the path of life.
Abundance of joys are in Your presence,
eternal pleasures at Your right hand.[18]

A Plea for Vindication Psalm 17

[1] A prayer of David.
Hear, ADONAI, a just plea, listen to my cry!
Give ear to my prayer—from lips with no deceit.
[2] From Your presence comes my vindication.
Your eyes see what is right.
[3] You have examined my heart.
You searched me at night.
Though You test me, You find nothing.
I resolved that my mouth will not sin.
[4] As for the deeds of mankind— by the word of Your lips
I have kept out of the ways of the violent.
[5] My steps have kept on Your paths.
My feet have not slipped.
[6] I called upon You, O God, for You will answer me.
Incline Your ear to me,
hear my speech.
[7] Be wonderful with Your lovingkindness, O Savior of those taking refuge at Your right hand from those rising up against them.
[8] Protect me like the pupil of the eye.
Hide me in the shadow of Your wings,
[9] from the wicked who attack me— my enemies, who surround me.
[10] Their callous heart they shut tight.
With their mouth they speak proudly.
[11] Our steps are now surrounded.
They set their eyes to throw us down to the ground,
[12] like a lion eager to tear to pieces, like a young lion crouching in cover.
[13] Arise, ADONAI! Confront him!
Make him bow down!

Deliver my soul from the wicked with Your sword, 14 from men, with Your hand, ADONAI, from men of the world whose portion is in this life.
You fill their belly with Your treasure —with plenty of children— and leave their surplus to their babes.
15 I in righteousness will behold Your face!
When I awake,
I will be satisfied with Your likeness.

Adonai lives! Blessed Be My Rock Psalm 18

1 For the music director: a psalm of David the servant of Adonai. He chanted the words of this song to Adonai on the day Adonai delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.
2 He said, I love You, Adonai my strength!
3 Adonai is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer.
My God is my rock, in Him I take refuge,
my shield, my horn of salvation, my stronghold.
4 I called upon Adonai, worthy of praise, and I was rescued from my enemies.
5 Cords of death entangled me.
Torrents of Belial overwhelmed me.
6 Cords of Sheol coiled around me.
Snares of death came before me.
7 In my distress I called on Adonai, and cried to my God for help.
From His Temple He heard my voice,
my cry before Him came into His ears.
8 Then the earth rocked and quaked.
The foundations of mountains trembled.
They reeled because He was angry.
9 Smoke rose from His nostrils and consuming fire from His mouth.
Coals blazed from Him.
10 He parted the heavens and came down, with thick darkness under His feet.
11 He rode upon a cheruv and flew.
He soared on the wings of the wind.
12 He made darkness His cover, His sukkah all around Him— dark waters, thick clouds.

13 Out of the brilliance before Him passed His thick clouds, hail and fiery coals.
14 ADONAI also thundered in the heavens, and Elyon gave forth His voice, hail and fiery coals.
15 He shot His arrows and scattered them, hurled lightning bolts and routed them.
16 Then ravines of water appeared.
The foundations of earth were exposed,
at Your rebuke, ADONAI, at a blast of breath from Your nostrils.
17 He reached down from on high and took hold of me.
He drew me out of mighty waters.
18 He saved me from my powerful enemy, from those who hated me— for they were much stronger than
me.
19 They came against me in my day of calamity, but ADONAI was my support.
20 He brought me out to a wide-open place.
He rescued me since He delighted in me.
21 ADONAI rewarded me for my righteousness.
For the cleanness of my hands He repaid me.
22 For I kept the ways of ADONAI, and did not turn wickedly from my God.
23 For all His judgments are before me.
I do not put His rulings away from me.
24 I also had integrity with Him, and kept myself from my sin.
25 So ADONAI rewarded me for my righteousness, for the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.

26 With the loyal You deal loyally.
With the blameless You are blameless.
27 With the pure You are pure, and with the crooked You are shrewd.

28 For You save lowly people, but haughty eyes You
humble.
29 For You light up my lamp.
ADONAI my God shines in my darkness.
30 For with You I rush on a troop, with my God I scale a wall.
31 As for God, His way is perfect.
The word of ADONAI is pure.
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
32 For who is God, except ADONAI?
And who is a Rock, except our God?
33 God girds me with strength and makes my way straight.
34 He makes my feet like those of deer and makes me stand on my heights.
35 He trains my hands for battle, so my arms can bend a bronze bow.
36 You gave me the shield of Your salvation.
Your right hand upholds me,
Your gentleness makes me great.
37 You broaden my steps beneath me, so my ankles have not slipped.
38 I pursue my enemies and overtake them, and will not return till they are wiped out.
39 I will crush them till they cannot rise, till they fall beneath my feet.
40 For You girded me with strength for battle.
You made those who rose up against me bow down
before me.
41 You also made my enemies turn their backs to me.
I cut off those who hate me.
42 They cry out, but there is none to save —even to ADONAI, but He did not answer them.
43 Then I beat them as fine as dust before the wind.

I pour them out like mud in the streets.
44 You free me from strifes of the people.
You set me as head of the nations—
people I did not know are serving me.
45 As soon as they hear, they obey me.
Children of foreigners cringe before me.
46 Children of foreigners lose heart and come trembling
from their hideouts.
47 ADONAI lives! And blessed be my Rock!
Exalted be God my salvation!
48 God—He gives me vengeance and subdues peoples under me.
49 He delivers me from my enemies.
Indeed You lift me up above those who rise up against me.
You deliver me from the violent man.
50 Therefore I praise You among the nations, ADONAI, and sing praises to Your Name.[19] 51 Great victories He gives to His king.
He shows loyal love to His anointed—
to David and his seed, forever.

Glory from Heaven and Torah Psalm 19

1 For the music director, a psalm of David.

2 The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky shows His handiwork.
3 Day to day they speak, night to night they reveal knowledge.
4 There is no speech, no words, where their voice goes unheard.
5 Their voice has gone out to all the earth and their words to the end of the world.[20]
In the heavens He pitched a tent for the sun.
6 It is like a bridegroom coming out of his bridal chamber.
It is like a strong man rejoicing to run his course.
7 It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other end.
Nothing is hidden from its heat.

8 The Torah of ADONAI is perfect, restoring the soul.
The testimony of ADONAI is trustworthy, making the simple wise.
9 The precepts of ADONAI are right, giving joy to the heart.
The mitzvot of ADONAI are pure, giving light to the
eyes.
10 The fear of ADONAI is clean, enduring forever.
The judgments of ADONAI are true and altogether
righteous.

11 They are more desirable than gold, yes, more than much pure gold!

They are sweeter than honey
and drippings of the honeycomb.
12 Moreover by them Your servant is warned.
In keeping them there is great reward.
13 Who can discern his errors?
Cleanse me of hidden faults.
14 Also keep Your servant from willful sins.
May they not have dominion over me.
Then I will be blameless,
free from great transgression.
15 May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be acceptable before You,
ADONAI, my Rock and my Redeemer.

ADONAI-Nissi

Psalm 20

1 For the music director, a psalm of David.
2 May ADONAI answer you in the day of trouble!
May the Name of the God of Jacob set you up securely on high.
3 May He send you help from the Sanctuary and support you from Zion.
4 May He remember all your meal offerings and accept the fat of your burnt offering. Selah 5 May He grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans.
6 We will shout for joy in your victory and lift up our banners in the Name of our God!
May ADONAI fulfill all your petitions.

7 Now I know that ADONAI saves His anointed.
He answers him from His holy heaven with saving strength of His right hand.
8 Some have chariots, some have horses, but we remember the Name of ADONAI our God.
9 They have collapsed and fallen, but we rise up and support each other.
10 ADONAI, save the king!
Answer us on the day we call!

The Victorious King

Psalm 21

1 For the music director, a psalm of David.
2 ADONAI, the king rejoices in Your strength!
How greatly he delights in Your salvation.
3 You granted him his heart's desire, and You did not withhold the request of his lips. Selah 4 For You met him with the best blessings.
You set on his head a crown of pure gold.
5 He asked You for life, You gave it to him, length of days forever and ever.
6 His glory is great through Your salvation.
Honor and majesty You bestow on him.
7 For You bestow on him eternal blessings, gladden him with joy in Your presence.
8 For the king trusts in ADONAI, and in the lovingkindness of Elyon he will not be shaken.
9 Your hand will find all your enemies.
Your right hand will overtake those who hate You.
10 You will make them like a fiery furnace at the time of your appearing.
In His wrath ADONAI will swallow them up and fire will consume them.
11 You destroy their offspring from earth, their seed from the children of men.
12 Though they intended evil against You and devised a plot, they cannot succeed.
13 For You make them turn their backs.
You aim Your bowstrings at their faces.
14 Be exalted, ADONAI, in Your strength!
We will sing and praise Your might.

Suffering Servant

Psalm 22

1 For the music director, on “The Doe of the Dawn,” a psalm of David.
2 My God, my God,
why have You forsaken me?

Distant from my salvation
are the words of my groaning.[21] 3 O my God, I cried out by day, but You did not answer, by night, but there was no rest for me.
4 Yet You are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.
5 In You our fathers put their trust.
They trusted, and You delivered them.
6 They cried to you and were delivered.
In You they trusted, and were not disappointed.
7 Am I a worm, and not a man?
Am I a scorn of men, despised by people?
8 All who see me mock me.
They curl their lips, shaking their heads:
9 "Rely on ADONAI! Let Him deliver him!
Let Him rescue him—since he delights in Him!"[22]
10 Yet You brought me out of the womb,
made me secure at my mother's breasts.
11 From the womb I was cast on You—
from my mother's womb You have been my God.
12 Be not far from me!
For trouble is near—
there is no one to help.
13 Many bulls have surrounded me.
Strong bulls of Bashan encircled me.
14 They open wide their mouths against me,
like a tearing, roaring lion.
15 I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are disjointed.
My heart is like wax—
melting within my innards.
16 My strength is dried up like a clay pot,
my tongue clings to my jaws.

You lay me in the dust of death.
17 For dogs have surrounded me.
A band of evildoers has closed in on me.
They pierced[23] my hands and my feet.
18 I can count all my bones.
They stare, they gape at me.
19 They divide my clothes among them,
and cast lots for my garment.[24]
20 But You, ADONAI, be not far off!
O my strength! Come quickly to my aid!
21 Deliver my soul from the sword—
my only one from the power of the dog.
22 Save me from the lion's mouth.
From the horns of the wild oxen rescue me.

23 I will declare Your Name to my brothers.
I will praise You amid the congregation.[25]
24 You who fear ADONAI, praise Him!
All Jacob's descendants, glorify Him!
Revere Him, all you seed of Israel.
25 For He has not despised or disdained the suffering of the lowly one.
Nor has He hidden His face from him,
but when he cried to Him, He heard.
26 From You is my praise in the great assembly.
I will fulfill my vows before those who fear Him.
27 Let the poor eat and be satisfied.
Let them who seek after Him praise ADONAI.
May your hearts live forever!
28 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to ADONAI.
All the families of the nations will bow down before You.

29 For the kingdom belongs to ADONAI,
and He rules over the nations.
30 All the rich of the earth will feast and worship.
Everyone who goes down to the dust will kneel before Him—
even the one who could not keep his own soul alive.
31 His posterity will serve him, telling the next generation about my Lord.
32 They will come and declare His righteousness to a people yet to be born—
because He has done it!

Adonai-Ro-eh Psalm 23

1 A psalm of David.
ADONAI is my shepherd, I shall not want.
2 He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
3 He restores my soul.
He guides me in paths of righteousness
for His Name's sake.

4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me:
Your rod and Your staff comfort me.
5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You have anointed my head with oil, my cup overflows.
6 Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of ADONAI
forever.

The King of Glory

Psalm 24

1 A psalm of David.
The earth is ADONAI'S and all that fills it—[26]
the world, and those dwelling on it.
2 For He founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the rivers.
3 Who may go up on the mountain of ADONAI?
Who may stand in His holy place?
4 One with clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted his soul in vain, nor sworn deceitfully.
5 He will receive a blessing from ADONAI, righteousness from God his salvation.
6 Such is the generation seeking Him, seeking Your face, even Jacob! Selah 7 Lift up your heads, O gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
that the King of glory may come in.
8 "Who is this King of glory?"
ADONAI strong and mighty, ADONAI mighty in battle!
9 Lift up your heads, O gates, and lift them up, you everlasting doors:
that the King of glory may come in.
10 "Who is this King of glory?"
ADONAI-Tzva'ot—He is the King of glory! Selah

Teach Me Your Paths

Psalm 25

1 Of David.
To You, ADONAI, I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, in You I trust, so I will not be ashamed, and my enemies will not gloat over me.
3 Surely no one who waits for You will be ashamed.
But the treacherous without cause will be ashamed.
4 Show me Your ways, ADONAI.
Teach me Your paths.
5 Guide me in Your truth, and teach me, for You are God, my salvation,
for You I wait all day.
6 Remember, ADONAI, Your compassions and Your mercies— for they are from eternity.
7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my rebellion.
According to Your mercy remember me,
for the sake of Your goodness, ADONAI.
8 Good and upright is ADONAI.
Therefore He directs sinners in the way.
9 He guides the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble His way.
10 All ADONAI's ways are lovingkindness and truth to those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.
11 For Your Name's sake, ADONAI, pardon my guilt, for it is great.
12 Who is this man who fears ADONAI?
He will instruct him in the way he should choose.
13 His soul abides in goodness, and his offspring will inherit the land.

14 The secret of ADONAI is for those who fear Him.
He makes His covenant known to them.
15 My eyes are always looking to ADONAI, for He will pull my feet out of the net.
16 Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted.
17 The troubles of my heart increase.
Bring me out of my distress.
18 See my affliction and my suffering, and take away all my sins.
19 See my enemies, how many they are— they hate me
with violent hatred.
20 Guard my soul and deliver me.
Let me not be ashamed, for I take refuge in You.
21 May integrity and uprightness protect me— for I wait
for You.
22 Redeem Israel, O God, from all their troubles.

Walking with Integrity

Psalm 26

1 Of David.
Vindicate me, ADONAI, for I have walked in my integrity,
and trusted in ADONAI without wavering.
2 Probe me, ADONAI, and test me, refine my mind and my heart.
3 For Your love is before my eyes and I have walked in Your truth.
4 I have not sat with men of falsehood, nor do I consort with hypocrites.
5 I detest the company of evildoers, and do not sit with the wicked.
6 I will wash my hands in innocence, so I can walk around Your altar, ADONAI, 7 hearing the voice of thanksgiving while proclaiming all Your wonders.
8 ADONAI, I love the House where You live, the place where Your glory dwells.
9 Do not take my soul away with sinners, nor my life with people of bloodshed— 10 in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hand is full of bribes.
11 But I—I will walk in my integrity.
Redeem me and be gracious to me.
12 My feet stand on level ground.
In congregations I will bless ADONAI.

Let Your Heart Take Courage

Psalm 27

1 Of David.
ADONAI is my light and my salvation: whom should I
fear?
ADONAI is the stronghold of my life: whom should I dread?
2 When evildoers approached me to devour my flesh —
my adversaries and my foes—they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an army camp besieges me, my heart will not fear.
Though war breaks out against me, even then will I be confident.
4 One thing have I asked of ADONAI, that will I seek:
to dwell in the House of ADONAI
all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of ADONAI, and to meditate in His Temple.
5 For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His sukkah, conceal me in the shelter of His tent,
and set me high upon a rock.
6 Then will my head be high above my enemies around
me.
In His Tabernacle I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy.
I will sing, yes, sing praises to ADONAI.

7 Hear, ADONAI, when I call with my voice, be gracious to me and answer me.
8 To You my heart says: “Seek My face.”
Your face, ADONAI, I seek.
9 Do not hide Your face from me.

Do not turn Your servant away in anger.
You have been my help.
Do not abandon me or forsake me,
O God my salvation.
10 Though my father and my mother forsake me, ADONAI will take me in.
11 Teach me Your way, ADONAI, and lead me on a level path— because of my enemies.
12 Do not turn me over to the desire of my foes.
For false witnesses rise up against me,
breathing out violence.
13 Surely I trust that I will see the goodness of ADONAI in the land of the living.
14 Wait for ADONAI.
Be strong, let Your heart take courage,
and wait for ADONAI.

Hoshia-na!

Psalm 28

1 Of David.
To You, ADONAI, I call— my Rock, do not be deaf to me.
If You were silent to me,
I would become like those going down to the Pit.
2 Hear the sound of my pleas, when I cry to You for help, when I lift up my hands toward Your holy Sanctuary.
3 Do not drag me away with the wicked and with doers of iniquity, who speak peace with their neighbors, while evil is in their hearts.
4 Repay them for their deeds, their evil acts.
Repay them for the deeds of their hands.
Bring back on them what they deserve.
5 Since they show no regard for the deeds of ADONAI
nor the work of His hands,

He will tear them down
and never build them up.
6 Blessed be ADONAI, because He has heard the sound of my supplications.
7 ADONAI is my strength and my shield.[27]
My heart trusts in Him, and I was helped.
Therefore my heart leaps for joy,
and I will praise Him with my song.
8 ADONAI is their strength— a stronghold of salvation for His anointed.
9 Save Your people, bless Your inheritance, shepherd them and carry them forever.

God Thunders Throughout Creation Psalm 29

1 A psalm of David.
Ascribe to ADONAI, O sons of God, ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.
2 Ascribe to ADONAI the glory of His Name.
Bow down to ADONAI in the beauty of holiness.
3 The voice of ADONAI is over the waters.
The God of glory thunders— ADONAI is over mighty waters.
4 The voice of ADONAI is powerful.
The voice of ADONAI is full of majesty.
5 The voice of ADONAI breaks the cedars.
Yes, ADONAI shatters cedars of Lebanon.
6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, Sirion like a young wild ox.
7 The voice of ADONAI hews out flames of fire.
8 The voice of ADONAI shakes the desert.
ADONAI shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
9 The voice of ADONAI makes the deer writhe in birth and strips forests bare, and in His Temple all are saying, “Glory!”
10 ADONAI sits enthroned over the flood.
Yes, ADONAI sits as King forever.
11 ADONAI gives strength to His people.
ADONAI blesses His people with shalom.

Joy Comes in the Morning Psalm 30

1 A psalm, a song for the dedication of the Temple, of David.
2 I will exalt You, ADONAI, for You have lifted me up,
and did not let my enemies gloat over me.
3 ADONAI my God, I cried to You for help, and You healed
me.
4 ADONAI, You brought my soul up from Sheol.
You kept me alive, so I would not go down to the Pit.
5 Sing praise to ADONAI, His faithful ones, and praise His holy name.
6 For His anger lasts for only a moment, His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may stay for the night,
but joy comes in the morning.
7 When I felt secure, I said: “I will never be shaken.”
8 ADONAI, in Your favor You made my mountain stand strong.
When You hid Your face,
I was terrified.
9 To You, ADONAI, I called, and to my Lord I made my plea:
10 “What gain is there in my blood, in my going down to the Pit?
Will the dust praise You?
Will it declare Your truth?
11 Hear, ADONAI, and be gracious to me.
ADONAI, be my help.”

12 You turned my mourning into dancing.
You removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy.
13 So my glory will sing to You and not be silent.

ADONAI my God, I will praise You forever.

Refuge, Sukkah, Shelter Psalm 31

1 For the music director, a psalm of David.
2 In You, ADONAI, have I taken refuge: Let me never be put to shame.
In Your righteousness, deliver me.
3 Turn Your ear to me, rescue me quickly.
Be a rock of refuge for me, a stronghold for my deliverance.
4 Since You are my rock and my fortress, You lead me and guide me for Your Name's sake.
5 Free me from the net they hid for me, for You are my refuge.
6 Into Your hand I commit my spirit.[28]
You have redeemed me, ADONAI, God of truth.
7 I detest those who continue to watch worthless idols,
but I trust in ADONAI.
8 I will be glad and rejoice in Your lovingkindness, for You saw my affliction.
You knew the troubles of my soul.
9 You did not hand me over to the enemy.
You set my feet in a wide-open place.
10 Be gracious to me, ADONAI, for I am in distress.
My eyes waste away with grief,
my soul and my body as well.
11 For my life is consumed in sorrow and my years in sighing.
My strength fails because of my anguish and my bones waste away.
12 Because of all my adversaries I am the contempt of my neighbors
and a dread to my acquaintances.
Seeing me on the street, they flee from me.

13 I am as forgotten as a dead man.
I have become like a broken vessel.
14 For I have heard the whispering of many.
There is terror on every side

as they conspire against me
and plot to take my life.
15 But I have trusted in You, ADONAI.
I said: “You are my God.”
16 My times are in Your hands.
Deliver me from the hands of my foes and from those who pursue me.
17 Make Your face shine on Your servant.
Save me in Your lovingkindness.
18 ADONAI, let me not be ashamed, for I have called upon You.
Let the wicked be ashamed—
let them be silent in Sheol.
19 Let the lying lips be mute.
For they speak arrogantly against the righteous, with pride and contempt.
20 How great is Your goodness, which You have stored up for those who fear You, which You have given to those who take refuge in You, before the children of men.
21 In the shelter of Your presence You hide them from people’s plots.
You conceal them in a sukkah from the strife of tongues.
22 Blessed be ADONAI, for He has shown me His wonderful love in a besieged city.
23 I said in my alarm, “I have been cut off from Your sight!”
But You heard the sound of my pleas when I cried out to You.
24 Love ADONAI, all His kedoshim!
ADONAI preserves all the faithful, but the proud He pays back in full.
25 Chazak! Let your heart take courage,[29]

all you who wait for ADONAI.

Confess, Return and Learn Psalm 32

1 Of David, a contemplative song.
Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven,
whose sin is pardoned.
2 Blessed is the one whose guilt ADONAI does not count,
and in whose spirit there is no deceit.[30]
3 When I kept silent, my bones became brittle through my groaning all day long.
4 For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me.
My strength was drained as in the droughts of summer.

Selah

5 Then I acknowledged my sin to You and did not hide
my iniquity. I said:
“I confess my transgressions to Adonai,” and You forgave the guilt of my sin.[31]

Selah

6 So let everyone who is godly pray to You in a time when You may be found.
When great floodwaters rise,
they will not reach him.
7 You are my hiding place— You will protect me from distress.
You surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah 8 “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go.
I will give counsel—My eye is on you.
9 Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no
understanding,
and must be held in with bit and bridle or they will not come to you.”
10 Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but lovingkindness surrounds the one who trusts in ADONAI.
11 Be glad in ADONAI and rejoice, you righteous, and shout for joy,
all who are upright in heart.

All Creation Praise the Creator

Psalm 33

1 Sing for joy to ADONAI, you righteous.
Praise is fitting for the upright.
2 Praise ADONAI with the harp.
Sing praises to Him with a ten string lyre.
3 Sing to Him a new song![32]
Play skillfully amid shouts of joy.

4 For the word of ADONAI is upright and all His work is done in faithfulness.
5 He loves righteousness and justice.
The earth is full of the love of ADONAI.
6 By ADONAI'S word were the heavens made,
and all their host by the breath of His mouth.
7 He gathers the waters of the sea together in a heap.
He lays up deep waters in storehouses.
8 Let all the earth fear ADONAI.
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.
9 For He spoke, and it came to be.
He commanded, and it stood firm.
10 ADONAI foils the purpose of the nations.
He thwarts the plans of the peoples.
11 The plan of ADONAI stands forever,
the purposes of His heart from generation to generation.
12 Blessed is the nation whose God is ADONAI,
the people He chose for His own inheritance.
13 ADONAI looks down from heaven.
He observes all humanity.

14 From His dwelling place He gazes on all the inhabitants of the earth—15 He who fashions the hearts of all,
who discerns all their deeds.
16 No king is saved by his great army,
no warrior is delivered by great strength.
17 A horse is a false hope for victory,
nor can its great strength save.
18 Behold, the eyes of ADONAI are on those who fear Him, waiting for His love, 19 to deliver their souls from death,
and to keep them alive in famine.
20 Our soul waits for ADONAI—
He is our help and our shield.
21 Our heart rejoices in Him,
because we trusted in His holy Name.
22 Let Your lovingkindness, ADONAI,
be upon us, as we have waited for You.

Taste and See

Psalm 34

1 Of David, when he feigned insanity before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he left.
2 I will bless ADONAI at all times.
His praise is continually in my mouth.
3 My soul boasts in ADONAI.
The humble ones hear of it and rejoice.
4 Magnify ADONAI with me and let us exalt His Name
together.
5 I sought ADONAI, and He answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.
6 They who looked to Him were radiant, and their faces will never be ashamed.
7 This poor man cried, and ADONAI heard, and saved him out of all his troubles.
8 The angel of ADONAI encamps around those who fear
Him, and delivers them.
9 Taste and see how good ADONAI is.
Blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him.
10 Fear ADONAI, His kedoshim, For those who fear Him lack nothing.
11 Young lions may lack, and go hungry, but those who seek ADONAI want for no good thing.

12 Come, children, listen to me: I will teach you the fear
of ADONAI.
13 Who is the one who delights in life, and loves to see good days?
14 Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking treachery.
15 Depart from evil and do good.

Seek shalom and pursue it.[33]
16 The eyes of ADONAI are on the righteous, and His ears are attentive to their cry.
17 The face of ADONAI is against evildoers, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.
18 The righteous cry out and ADONAI hears, and delivers them from all their troubles.
19 ADONAI is close to the brokenhearted, and saves those crushed in spirit.
20 Many are the distresses of the righteous, but ADONAI delivers him out of them all.
21 He keeps all his bones— not one of them is broken.[34]
22 Evil kills the wicked— those who hate the righteous will be held guilty.
23 ADONAI redeems the soul of His servants —no one who takes refuge in Him will be held guilty.

Justice for the Oppressed

Psalm 35

1 A psalm of David.
ADONAI, oppose those who oppose me.
Fight those who fight me.
2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and rise up to my help.
3 Draw out also a spear and battle-axe.
Stop those who pursue me.
Say to my soul: “I am your salvation.”
4 May those who seek my life be ashamed and disgraced.
May they be turned back and humiliated
—those who plot evil against me.
5 May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of ADONAI driving them off.
6 May their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of ADONAI pursuing them.
7 For without cause they hid their net for me, and without cause they dug a pit for my soul.
8 Let ruin come upon him by surprise.
Let the net he hid entangle himself
—into that same pit let him fall.
9 Then my soul will rejoice in ADONAI
and delight in His salvation.
10 All my bones will say: “ADONAI, who is like You, rescuing the poor from one too strong for him, the poor and needy from one who robs him?”
11 Violent witnesses rise up.
They question me about things I know nothing about.
12 They repay me evil for good— my soul is forlorn.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth.
I afflicted my soul with fasting,
my prayer kept returning to my heart.
14 I went about mourning as though for my own friend or brother.
I bowed down dressed in black as though for my own mother.
15 But at my stumbling they gathered in glee.
Wretches gathered against me whom I did not know,
tearing at me without ceasing.
16 They mocked profanely, as if at a feast, they gnashed at me with their teeth.

17 My Lord, how long will You look on?
Rescue my soul from their ravages—
my solitary existence from the lions.
18 I praise You in the great assembly, acclaiming You among a throng of people.
19 Do not let my deceitful enemies gloat over me without cause, nor let those who hate me for nothing
wink an eye.[35]
20 For they never speak shalom, but devise deceitful words against the quiet ones in the land.
21 Yes, they open their mouth wide against me, saying:
“Aha! Aha! Our own eyes have seen it!”
22 You have seen it, ADONAI—be not silent!
ADONAI, be not far from me.
23 Arise, awaken to my defense, to my cause—my God
and my Lord!
24 Vindicate me, ADONAI my God, according to Your justice,
and do not let them gloat over me.
25 Don’t let them say in their heart: “Aha! Just what we wanted!”

Don’t let them say:
“We swallowed him up!”
26 May they be ashamed and humiliated, those who rejoice over my misery.
May they who exalt themselves over me
be clothed with shame and disgrace.
27 May they shout for joy and be glad, those who delight in my righteous cause.
May they always say:
“Exalted be ADONAI, who delights in His servant’s shalom.”
28 Then my tongue will declare aloud Your justice and Your praises all day.

With God Is the Fountain of Life

Psalm 36

1 For the music director, of David the servant of ADONAI.
2 An oracle of Transgression—within my heart, to the wicked one: “There is no fear of God before his eyes.
[36]
3 For he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to notice his iniquity—or hate it.
4 His mouth’s words are iniquity and deceit.
He has ceased to be wise and do good.
5 Even on his bed he plans sin.
He puts himself on a path that is no good, never refusing evil.”

6 Your love, ADONAI, is in the heavens, Your faithfulness up to the skies.
7 Your righteousness is like the mountains of God.
Your judgments are like the great deep.
You preserve man and beast, ADONAI.
8 How precious is Your love, O God!
The children of men find refuge in the shadow of Your wings.
9 They drink their fill from the abundance of Your House.
You give them drink from the river of Your delights.
10 For with You is the fountain of life— in Your light we see light.
11 Continue Your lovingkindness to those who know
You, and Your justice to the upright in heart.
12 May the foot of pride never tread on me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.

13 There the evildoers lie fallen— thrown down, not able to rise!

Inheritance of the Kedoshim Psalm 37

1 Of David.
Do not fret because of evildoers,
nor be envious of them who do wrong.
2 For like the grass they soon wither and fade like a green herb.
3 Trust in ADONAI and do good.
Dwell in the land, feed on faithfulness.
4 Delight yourself in ADONAI, and He will give you the requests of your heart.
5 Commit your way to ADONAI.
Trust in Him, and He will do it.
6 He will bring out your vindication as light, and your cause will shine as noonday.
7 Be still before ADONAI and wait patiently for Him.
Do not fret over one prospering in his way,
over one carrying out wicked schemes.
8 Put away anger and turn from wrath.
Do not fret—it only leads to doing evil.
9 For evildoers will be cut off, but those who wait for ADONAI— they will inherit the land.
10 Yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more.
Yes, you will look at his place,
but he will not be there.
11 But the meek will inherit the land, and delight in abundant shalom.
12 The wicked plots against the righteous and gnashes
at him with his teeth.
13 The Lord laughs at him— for He sees his day is coming.
14 The wicked have unsheathed their sword and have bent their bow to bring down the poor and needy,

to slay those whose conduct is upright.
15 Their sword will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.
16 Better a little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked.
17 For the arms of the wicked will be broken, while ADONAI upholds the righteous.
18 ADONAI knows the days of the blameless— their inheritance endures forever.
19 They will not be ashamed in an evil time and in days
of famine they will be satisfied.
20 For the wicked will perish, and the enemies of ADONAI will be like the beauty of the fields— they will vanish
—vanish like smoke.
21 The wicked borrows and does not repay, but the righteous is a gracious giver.
22 For His blessed ones inherit the land.
But those He curses will be cut off.

23 From ADONAI a man's steps are made firm, when He delights in his way.
24 Though he stumble, he will not fall headlong,
for ADONAI is holding his hand.
25 I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous one forsaken, nor his children begging for bread.
26 All day long he is gracious and lends.
So his offspring will be a blessing.
27 Turn from evil and do good, so you may live forever.
28 For ADONAI loves justice and does not abandon His godly ones.
They will be preserved forever,
but the seed of the wicked will be cut off.
29 The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it
forever.

30 The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom and his tongue speaks justice.
31 The Torah of his God is in his heart.
His steps do not slip.
32 The wicked lies in wait for the righteous, seeking to slay him.
33 But ADONAI will not leave him in his hand, or let him
be condemned when judged.
34 Wait for ADONAI and keep His way, and He will exalt
you to inherit the land.
When the wicked are cut off, you will see it.
35 I have seen a wicked, ruthless man flourishing like a leafy tree in native soil.
36 But once he passed by, he was no more.
Though I looked for him, he could not be found.
37 Notice the man of integrity and watch the upright—
for the man of shalom has a future.
38 But transgressors will be destroyed altogether.
The future of the wicked will be cut off.
39 Yet the salvation of the righteous is from ADONAI.
He is their stronghold in time of trouble.
40 ADONAI helps them and delivers them.
He rescues them from the wicked and saves them—
because they take refuge in Him.

A Burden Too Heavy for Me

Psalm 38

1 A psalm of David, for a memorial.
2 ADONAI, do not rebuke me in Your anger or discipline me in Your wrath.
3 For Your arrows have sunk deep into me and Your hand has pressed down on me.
4 There is no health in my flesh because of Your indignation.
There is no wholeness in my bones because of my sin.
5 For my iniquities are on my head— like a burden too heavy for me.
6 My wounds are foul and festering because of my foolishness.
7 I am bent over, bowed down greatly.
All day I walk about in mourning.
8 For my heart is filled with burning pain, and there is no health in my body.
9 I am numb and utterly crushed.
I groan because of anguish in my heart.
10 My Lord, all my longing is before You, and my sighing is not hidden from You.
11 My heart pounds, my strength fails me.
The light of my eyes—also, not with me.

12 My friends and my companions stay away from my wound, and my kinsmen stand far off.
13 They who seek my life set traps.
Those who seek my hurt threaten destruction,
uttering lies all day.
14 But I, like someone deaf, hear nothing, like a mute,
not opening his mouth.

15 Yes, I am like one who cannot hear, whose mouth has no arguments.
16 But I wait for You, ADONAI— You will answer, O Lord
my God.
17 For I said: “Don’t let them gloat over me or exalt themselves over me, when my foot slips.” 18 For I am about to fall, and my pain is before me constantly.
19 So I confess my guilt.
I am troubled because of my sin.
20 My lively enemies are numerous.
Many hate me wrongfully.
21 Those who repay evil for good oppose me because I pursue what is good.
22 Do not forsake me, ADONAI.
O my God, be not far from me.
23 Hurry to my aid, my Lord, my salvation.

Make Me Know the Number of My Days Psalm 39

1 For the music director, for Jeduthun, a psalm of David.
2 I said: “I will guard my ways, so I will not sin with my tongue.
I will muzzle my mouth while the wicked are before me.”
3 So I became utterly speechless, kept silent even from good,
but my anguish was stirred up.
4 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing, the fire burned.
Then I spoke with my tongue:
5 “Let me know, ADONAI, my end and what the number of my days is.
Let me know how short-lived I am.
6 Behold, You made my days mere hand-breadths, and my lifetime as nothing before You.
Surely all humanity is but vapor. Selah 7 Everyone goes about as a mere phantom.
Surely they are making an uproar in vain, heaping up stuff— yet not knowing who will gather it.[37] 8 And now, my Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in You.
9 Deliver me from all my transgressions.
Do not make me the scorn of a fool.
10 I am speechless, not opening my mouth —for You have done it.
11 Remove Your scourge from me.
I perish by the blow of Your hand.
12 With rebukes You chasten one for iniquity and You consume like a moth what he finds pleasure in.

Surely all humanity is but a vapor. Selah
13 Hear my prayer, ADONAI, and listen to my cry— do not keep silent at my tears.
For with You I am an outsider, a sojourner, as all my fathers were.
14 Turn your gaze away from me, so I may smile again, before I go, and am no more.”

Written About Me in the Scroll Psalm 40

1 For the music director, a psalm of David.
2 I waited patiently for ADONAI.
He bent down to me and heard my cry.
3 He brought me up out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire.
Then He set my feet on a rock.
He made my steps firm.
4 He put a new song in my mouth— a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear,
and trust in ADONAI.
5 Blessed is the one who put his confidence in ADONAI, who has not turned to the arrogant, nor to those who fall into falsehood.
6 Many things You have done, ADONAI my God —Your plans for us are wonderful— there is none to be compared to You!
If I were to speak and tell of them, they would be too many to count!
7 Sacrifice and offering You did not desire —my ears You have opened— burnt offering and sin offering You did not require.
8 Then I said: “Here I am, I have come— in the scroll of a book it is written about me.
9 I delight to do Your will, O my God.
Yes, Your Torah is within my being.”
10 I proclaim good news of righteousness in the great assembly.
Behold, I am not shutting my lips—
ADONAI, You know!
11 I did not hide Your righteousness within my heart.

Rather I declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation.
I did not conceal Your lovingkindness and Your truth
from the great assembly.

12 ADONAI, do not withhold Your compassions from me.
Let Your mercy and Your truth always protect me.
13 For evils beyond number surround me, my sins have overtaken me
—I cannot see—
they are more than the hairs of my head —and my heart fails me.
14 ADONAI, please deliver me!
ADONAI, come quickly to help me!
15 Let those who seek my life to sweep it away be put to shame and humiliated.
Let those who wish me evil
be turned back in disgrace.
16 Let those who say to me, “Aha! Aha!”
be appalled over their own shame.
17 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You.
Let those who love Your salvation continually say: “ADONAI be magnified!” 18 But I—I am poor and needy— yet my Lord is mindful of me.
You are my help and my deliverer—
O my God, do not delay!

Even My Close Friend

Psalm 41

1 For the music director: a psalm of David.
2 Blessed is the one who considers the wretched—
ADONAI will deliver him in the evil day.
3 ADONAI will protect him and keep him alive.
He will be made blessed in the land.
You will not give him over to the desire of his foes.
4 ADONAI will strengthen him on his sickbed.
May You restore him completely from his bed.
5 I said: "ADONAI, have mercy on me.
Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."
6 My enemies speak evil about me: "When will he die and his name perish?"
7 And if someone of them comes to see me, he speaks falsely.
He stores up evil in his heart,
then he goes out and chatters.
8 All who hate me whisper together about me They imagine the worst about me:
9 "Something evil was poured into him— he will not get up again from the place where he lies." 10 Even my own close friend, whom I trusted, who ate my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.[38] 11 But You, ADONAI, have mercy on me, and raise me up, so I may repay them.
12 By this I know that You delight in me: that my enemy
does not shout in triumph over me.
13 You uphold me in my integrity and set me before Your face forever.

14 Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and amen!

My Soul Thirsts for God

Psalm 42

1 For the music director, a contemplative song of the sons of Korah.
2 As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul
pants for You, O God.
3 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When will I come and appear before God?
4 My tears have been my food day and night, while they say to me all day: “Where is your God?”
5 These things I remember as I pour out my soul within
me.
For I used to go along with the throng, walking with them to the House of God, with a voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a festival.
6 Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why are you murmuring within me?
Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,
for the salvation of His presence.

7 My God, my soul is downcast within me!
Therefore I remember You from the land of Jordan
and from the peaks of Hermon, from Mount Mitzar.
8 Deep calls to deep in the roar of Your waterfalls.
All Your waves and breakers have swept over me.
9 By day ADONAI commands His love, and at night His song is with me— a prayer to the God of my life.
10 I will say to God my Rock: “Why have You forgotten
me?
Why do I go about mourning, under the oppression of the enemy?”

11 As with a crushing in my bones, my adversaries taunt
me,
by saying to me all day, “Where is your God?”
12 Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why are you murmuring within me?
Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,
the salvation of my countenance and my God.

Send Forth Your Light Psalm 43

[1] Vindicate me, O God, and champion
my cause against an ungodly nation.
From a deceitful and unjust man, deliver me!
[2] For You are my God, my stronghold.
Why have You spurned me?
Why do I go about gloomy because of the oppression of the enemy?
[3] Send forth Your light and Your truth— let them guide me.
Let them bring me to Your holy mountain and to Your dwelling places.
[4] Then I will come to the altar of God, to the God of my exceeding joy, and praise You upon the harp
—O God, my God.
[5] Why are You downcast, O my soul?
Why are you murmuring within me?
Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him, the salvation of my countenance.

Arise, O God of Our Fathers

Psalm 44

1 For the music director, a psalm of the sons of Korah, a contemplative song.
2 We have heard with our ears, O God —our fathers have told us— of a work You did in their days, in days of old.
3 With Your hand You displaced nations, but You planted them.
You afflicted peoples, and You drove them out.
4 For it was not by their own sword that they took possession of the land, nor did their own arm save
them.
But it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your face— for You favored them.
5 You are my King, O God— command victories for Jacob!
6 Through You we push back our foes.
Through Your Name we trample those rising up against us.
7 For I do not trust in my bow, nor can my sword save
me.
8 For You saved us from our oppressors and put to shame those who hated us.
9 In God we make our boast all day and Your Name we praise forever. Selah 10 Yet You have spurned and humiliated us, and no longer go out with our armies.
11 You make us retreat before the enemy.
Those who hate us have plundered us.
12 You gave us to be devoured like sheep[39]
and have scattered us among the nations.

13 You are selling Your people cheaply— not even getting a great price for them.
14 You made us a taunt for our neighbors, a scorn and ridicule for those around us.
15 You have made us a byword among the nations, headwagging among the peoples.
16 All day my disgrace is before me, and my face is covered with shame— 17 because of the sound of taunting and reviling from the face of a vengeful enemy.
18 All this came upon us, though we did not forget You,
nor were we false to Your covenant.
19 Our heart did not turn back, nor did our steps stray from Your path.
20 Yet You crushed us in a place of jackals, covered us with the shadow of death.
21 If we had forgotten the Name of our God or stretched our hands to a foreign god,
22 would God not have discovered it?
For He knows the secrets of the heart.
23 But for Your sake we are slain all day.
We are counted as sheep for slaughter.[40]
24 Awake! Why do you sleep, my Lord?
Wake up! Do not cast us off forever.
25 Why do You hide Your face and forget our misery and oppression?
26 For our soul sinks down to the dust.
Our belly cleaves to the earth.
27 Arise, be our help, and redeem us
for Your mercy’s sake.

A Royal Wedding Song

Psalm 45

1 For the music director, according to “Lilies.” Of the sons of Korah, a contemplative song, a love song.
2 My heart is stirred with a good word.
I speak my verses to the king.
My tongue is the pen of a skillful writer.
3 You are the most handsome of the sons of men.
Grace pours from your lips.
Therefore God has blessed you forever.
4 Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one, in your splendor and your majesty.
5 In your majesty ride victoriously, on behalf of truth,
meekness and justice.
Let your right hand display awesome things.
6 Your arrows are sharp.
Peoples fall beneath you—
into the heart of the king’s enemies.
7 Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and a scepter of justice is the scepter of Your kingdom.
8 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness.
Therefore, God, your God, anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.[41]
9 All your robes have myrrh, aloes, cassia.
From ivory palaces, stringed instruments make you glad.
10 Kings’ daughters are among your honored women.
At your right hand stands the queen in gold of Ophir.

11 “Listen, O daughter, consider and incline your ear.

Forget your people and your father’s house.
12 Then the king will desire your beauty.
Honor him, for he is your lord.
13 A daughter of Tyre comes with a gift.
The richest people will court your favor.”
14 All glorious is the king’s daughter within the palace—
her gown is interwoven with gold.[42]
15 She will be led to the king in embroidered garments.
Her virgins, her companions following her, are coming in to you.
16 They are led in with joy and gladness— they enter into the palace of the king.

17 Your sons will take your fathers’ place.
You will make them princes throughout the land.
18 I will cause your name to be remembered in all generations.
Therefore the nations will praise you forever and ever.

He Makes Wars Cease

Psalm 46

1 For the music director, of the sons of Korah, according to Alamoth, a song.
2 God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.
3 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth change, though the mountains topple into the heart of the seas,
4 though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains quake at their swelling. Selah 5 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God— the holy dwelling place of Elyon.[43]
6 God is in the midst of her, she will not be shaken.
God will help her when morning dawns.
7 Nations are in uproar, kingdoms totter, He utters His voice, the earth melts!
8 ADONAI-Tzva'ot is with us.
The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah

9 Come, see the works of ADONAI, who brings devastations on the earth.
10 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth.
He breaks the bow and shatters the spear.
He burns chariots with fire.
11 "Be still, and know that I am God.
I am exalted among the nations.
I am exalted in the earth."
12 ADONAI-Tzva'ot is with us.
The God of Jacob is our strong tower. Selah

In Celebration of God's Reign Psalm 47

1 For the music director, a psalm for the sons of Korah.
2 Clap your hands, all you peoples!
Shout to God with the voice of joy!
3 For ADONAI Elyon is awesome, a great King over all the earth.
4 He subdues peoples under us, and nations under our feet.
5 He chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Jacob whom He loved. Selah 6 God is gone up amidst shouting, ADONAI amidst the sound of the shofar.
7 Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
8 For God is the King of all the earth.
Sing praises with a skillful song.
9 God reigns over the nations.
God sits upon His holy throne.
10 The princes of the peoples are gathered as a people of the God of Abraham.
For the shields of earth belong to God— He is greatly exalted!

Consider Zion's Towers

Psalm 48

1 A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah.
2 Great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God—His holy mountain.
3 A beautiful height—the joy of the whole earth— is Mount Zion, on the northern side of the city of the great King.[44]
4 God, in her palaces, is known as a stronghold.
5 For behold, the kings assembled, they advanced
together.
6 They saw, then they were astounded, they fled in terror.
7 Trembling seized them there, pain like a woman in labor.
8 With an east wind You broke the ships of Tarshish.
9 As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of ADONAI-Tzva'ot, in the city of our God.
God will establish her forever. Selah 10 We have meditated on Your lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of Your Temple.
11 Like Your Name, O God, so is Your praise
to the ends of the earth.
Your right hand is full of righteousness.
12 Mount Zion is glad, the daughters of Judah rejoice, because of Your judgments.
13 Walk about Zion, go around her.
Count her towers.
14 Consider her ramparts, go through her palaces,
so you may describe it to the next generation.
15 For this God is our God, forever and ever!

He will guide us to the end.

Rich and Poor Alike

Psalm 49

1 For the music director: a psalm of the sons of Korah.
2 Hear this, all you peoples.
Give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,
3 both low and high, rich and poor together.
4 My mouth speaks wisdom, My heart's meditation is understanding.
5 I will turn my ear to a proverb.
I will utter my riddle on the harp:
6 Why should I fear in evil days?
when the iniquity of my deceivers surrounds me?
7 Or those trusting in their wealth, boasting about their great riches?
8 No man can redeem his brother, or give to God a ransom for him.
9 For the redemption of a soul is costly— so, one should stop trying forever.
10 Will he live forever— and never see the Pit?
11 Surely he must see, even wise men die.
The fool and the brutish will alike perish,
leaving their wealth to others.[45]
12 Their inward thought is: Their houses are eternal, their dwellings for generation after generation.
They name their lands after themselves.
13 But the pompous man will not endure— he is like the beasts that perish.
14 Such is the way of the self-confident, and their followers who approve their sayings. Selah 15 Like sheep they are destined for Sheol.

Death will be their shepherd
and the upright will rule over them in the morning.
Their image will decay in Sheol— far from its lofty
place.
16 But God redeems my soul from the power of Sheol—
for He receives me. Selah 17 Do not be afraid when a man gets rich, when his house’s splendor increases.
18 For when he dies he takes nothing away.
His splendor will not follow him down.
19 Though during his life he congratulates himself, and men praise you when you do well for yourself— 20 He will still join his fathers’ company, who will never see the light.
21 A pompous man, without understanding— he is like the beasts that perish.

A Sacrifice of Thanks

Psalm 50

1 A psalm of Asaph.
God, Elohim ADONAI has spoken and summoned the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth.
3 Our God comes, and does not keep silent.
A fire is devouring before Him,
and it storms around Him mightily.
4 He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, to judge His people:
5 "Gather My kedoshim to Me, who cut a covenant with Me with a sacrifice."
6 The heavens declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge. Selah 7 "Hear, My people, and I will speak, O Israel, and I will testify against you: I am God, your God.
8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices, for your burnt offerings are continually before Me.
9 I have no need of a bull from your house nor goats
from your pens.
10 For every beast of the forest is Mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.
11 I know every bird of the mountains.
Everything moving in the field is Mine.
12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you— for the world is Mine and all it contains!
13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?
14 Offer God a sacrifice of thank offerings, then fulfill your vows to Elyon.
15 Call upon Me in the day of trouble.

When I rescue you, you will honor Me.”

16 But to the wicked, God says: “What are you doing, reciting My laws
and taking My covenant in your mouth?
17 For you hate discipline, and you cast My words behind you.
18 When you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and your portion is with adulterers.
19 You have unleashed your mouth for evil and harnessed your tongue for deceit.
20 You sit, speaking against your brother, slandering
your own mother’s son.
21 These things you have done—Should I keep silent?
You thought I was just like you—but I reprove you,
and set the case before your eyes.
22 Now consider this, you who forget God.
Or else I will tear you in pieces with no one to rescue
you.
23 A sacrifice of praise honors Me, and to the one who orders his way,
I will show the salvation of God.”

Create in Me a Clean Heart Psalm 51

1 For the music director: a psalm of David, 2 when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he went to Bathsheba.

3 Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your mercy.

According to Your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
4 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me
from my sin.
5 For I know my transgressions and my sin is ever before me.
6 Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done what is evil in Your sight,
so that You are just when You speak,
and blameless when You judge.
7 Behold, I was born in iniquity and in sin when my mother conceived me.
8 Surely You desire truth in the inner being.
Make me know wisdom inwardly.
9 Cleanse me with hyssop and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
10 Let me hear joy and gladness, so the bones You crushed may rejoice.
11 Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.

12 Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
13 Do not cast me from Your presence— take not Your Ruach ha-Kodesh from me.
14 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation and sustain me with a willing spirit.
15 Then will I teach transgressors Your ways and sinners will return to You.
16 Deliver me from bloodguilt, O God— God of my
salvation.
Then my tongue will sing for joy of Your
righteousness.
17 O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare Your praise.

18 For You would not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it, nor be pleased by burnt offerings.
19 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and a contrite heart, O God,
You will not despise.

20 In Your favor do good to Zion.
Build up the walls of Jerusalem.
21 Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices and whole burnt offerings.
Then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Treacherous Tongue!

Psalm 52

[1] For the music director: a contemplative song of David,
[2] when Doeg the Edomite came and reported to Saul telling him, “David went to Ahimelech’s house.”
[3] Why do you brag about evil, mighty man?
God’s lovingkindness is every day.
[4] Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceit.
[5] You love evil instead of good, lying rather than speaking right. Selah [6] You love only devouring words— treacherous tongue!
[7] God will pull you down forever, and snatch you, rip you out of your tent, and uproot you from the land of the living. Selah [8] Then the righteous will see and fear, and laugh at him:
[9] “Here is the man who did not make God his stronghold.
Instead he trusted in his great riches—
and was strong in his evil desire.”
[10] But I—I am like an olive tree flourishing in the House of God.
I trust in God’s lovingkindness forever and ever.
[11] I will praise You forever for what You have done.
I will hope in Your Name, for it is good, in the presence of Your kedoshim.

A Fool Denies God Psalm 53

[1] For the music director: on Mahalath, a contemplative song of David.
[2] The fool says in his heart: “There is no God.”
They are corrupt, commit vile injustice.
There is no one who does good.
[3] God looks down from the heavens on the children of men,
to see if anyone understands, who seeks after God.
[4] All have turned aside— together they have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good— no, not even one!
[5] Will the evildoers never learn?
They consume My people as they would eat bread,
and never call upon God.
[6] There they are in great dread— where there is nothing to fear.
For God has scattered the bones of those besieging
you.
You have put them to shame,
for God has rejected them.

[7] Who will give salvation for Israel out of Zion?
When God restores His captive people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad!

Surely God is My Helper Psalm 54

[1] For the music director, on stringed instruments, a contemplative song of David, [2] when the Ziphites came and said to Saul: “Is not David hiding himself among us?”
[3] O God, save me by Your Name, vindicate me by Your might.
[4] O God, hear my prayer, listen to the words of my mouth.
[5] For strangers have risen up against me.
Violent men seek after my soul.
They do not set God before them. Selah [6] Surely God is my helper.
My Lord is the supporter of my soul.
[7] Let evil return to my foes.
Silence them with Your truth!
[8] I will sacrifice a freewill offering to You.
I will praise Your name, ADONAI, for it is good.
[9] For He has delivered me from all trouble, and my eye has gazed upon my enemies.

Betrayal by a Friend

Psalm 55

1 For the music director, on stringed instruments, a contemplative song of David.
2 Give ear, O God, to my prayer and do not ignore my plea for help.
3 Listen to me and answer me.
I am restless in my complaint and moan— 4 because of the voice of the enemy, because of the pressure
of the wicked.
For they thrust trouble on me,
and in anger bear a grudge against me.
5 My heart shudders within me and the terrors of death sweep over me.
6 Fear and trembling come upon me and horror has overwhelmed me.
7 So I said, “Oh that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and find rest.
8 Surely I would flee far away.
I would stay in the wilderness. Selah 9 I would hurry to my shelter from the rushing wind of the storm.”
10 Lord, confuse and confound their speech, for I see violence and strife in the city.
11 Day and night they make the rounds on her walls.
Iniquity and mischief are within her.
12 Ruins are in her midst.
Oppression and deceit never leave her square.
13 For if it were an enemy taunting me, I could endure
it.
If my foe was exalting himself over me, I could hide
from him.

14 But it is you, a man like me— my companion and my close friend!
15 Together we enjoyed great fellowship.
We used to walk with the throng in the House of God.
16 Let desolation come upon them, let them go down alive into Sheol— for evil is in their dwelling, among them.

17 As for me, I will call on God, and ADONAI will save me.
18 Evening, morning and noon, I complain and moan, then He hears my voice.
19 He will redeem my soul in shalom from the battle against me.
For many are striving with me.
20 God will hear and humble them —yes, the One enthroned of old. Selah Nothing changes—they do not fear God.
21 My companion put forth his hands against those at peace with him, as he violates his covenant.
22 Smoother than butter was his speech, yet war was in his heart.
His words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

23 Cast your burden on ADONAI, and He will sustain you.
[46]
He will never let the righteous be shaken.
24 But You, O God, will bring them down to the Pit of destruction.
Bloodthirsty, deceitful men will not live out half their days.
But I—I will trust in You.

In God I Trust

Psalm 56

1 For the music director: “A Silent Dove Far Away,” a Michtam of David, when the Philistines had seized him in Gath.
2 Be gracious to me, O God!
For man has crushed me,
fighting all day he oppresses me.
3 My foes trample me all day.
For many are fighting me arrogantly.
4 In a day when I am afraid, I will put my trust in You.
5 In God—I keep praising His word— in God I trust, I will not fear.
What can mere flesh do to me?

6 All day they twist my words.
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
7 They stir up strife; they lie hidden.
They mark my steps, eager to take my soul.
8 In spite of such sin, will they escape?
In fierce anger, O God, cast down such people!
9 You have recorded my wanderings.
You put my tears in Your bottle.
Are they not in Your book?
10 Then my enemies will turn back in the day I call.
This I know—that God is for me.
11 In God—I keep praising His word— in Adonai—I keep praising His word— 12 in God I trust, I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?

13 I am under vows to You, O God.

I will present thank offerings to You.
14 For You have delivered my soul from death and my feet from stumbling,
that I may walk before God in the light of life.

Be Exalted Over All the Earth Psalm 57

1 For the music director, “Do Not Destroy,” a Michtam
of David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.
2 Be gracious to me, O God, be gracious to me, for in
You my soul takes refuge.
In the shadow of Your wings I take refuge, until destruction passes by.
3 I will cry out to El Elyon, to God who accomplishes it for me.
4 He will send from heaven and save me.
He rebukes the one trampling on me. Selah God is sending His mercy and His truth.
5 My soul is in the midst of lions.
I lie among those breathing fire—
sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows,
whose tongue is a sharp sword.
6 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens.
Let Your glory be over all the earth!

7 They spread a net for my steps, my soul is bowed down.
They have dug a pit before me—they fell into it themselves. Selah 8 My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast.
I will sing, yes, I will make music.
9 Awake, my glory! Awake, harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.
10 I will praise You, my Lord, among the peoples.
I will sing praises to You among the nations.
11 For Your lovingkindness is great up to the heavens,
and Your truth to the skies.
12 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens.

Let Your glory be over all the earth!

God Really Judges

Psalm 58

1 For the music director: “Do Not Destroy,” a Michtam
of David.
2 Do you really speak of justice, O “gods”?
Do you judge with fairness, sons of man?
3 No, in heart you devise injustice.
Your hands weigh out violence on earth.
4 The wicked are strangers from the womb.
Speaking lies, they go astray from birth.
5 Their venom is like a serpent’s venom, like a deaf cobra shutting its ear— 6 not hearing the voice of charmers, or a cunning spell binder.
7 O God, break their teeth in their mouths.
Tear out the fangs of young lions, ADONAI.
8 Let them flow away like water that runs off.
When he bends his bow, let the arrows be cut off.
9 Like a slug melting away as it slithers, like a woman’s miscarriage,
may they never see the sun.
10 Even before your pots can feel a thorn —whether alive or ablaze— He will sweep the wicked away.
11 The righteous one will rejoice when he beholds
vengeance,
when he washes his feet in the blood of the wicked.
12 Then men will say: “There really is a reward for the righteous.
There really is a God who judges on earth!”

God Is My Strong Tower Psalm 59

1 For the music director: “Do Not Destroy,” a Michtam of David, when Saul sent men to watch the house to kill him.
2 Deliver me from my enemies, my God!
Set me on high,
away from those who rise up against me.
3 Deliver me from workers of iniquity.
Rescue me from bloodthirsty men.
4 For behold, they lie in wait for me.
Defiant men stir up strife against me— not for my transgression or sin, ADONAI.
5 For no guilt of mine, they run and set things up.
Awake! Help me! Look!
6 For You are ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot, the God of Israel!
Rouse Yourself to punish all the nations.
Show no mercy to any iniquitous traitors. Selah 7 They return at evening, snarling like a dog, prowling about the city.
8 See, they are spewing with their mouth —swords in their lips— “After all, who is listening?”

9 But You, ADONAI, are laughing at them.
You scoff at all the nations.
10 O my strength, I watch for You— for God is my strong tower.
11 My God in His lovingkindness will go before me.
God will let me look down on my foes.
12 Do not slay them, lest my people forget.

With Your power shake them
and bring them down, O Lord our shield.
13 The sin of their mouth is the words of their lips.
So let them be caught in their pride, and for uttering a curse and a lie.
14 Consume them in wrath, consume them till they are no more.
Let them know that God rules over Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah 15 They return at evening, snarling like a dog, prowling about the city.
16 They wander around for food.
If they are not full, they stay up all night.
17 But I—I sing of Your strength!
Yes, in the morning I sing aloud of Your lovingkindness.
For You have been my fortress,
a refuge in the day of my trouble.
18 O my strength, to You I sing praises.
For God is my strong tower—
my God of lovingkindness.

Song of Victory Over Edom Psalm 60

[1] For the music director, on the “Lily of the Covenant,” a Michtam of David, for teaching, [2] when he fought with Aram-Naharaim and with Aram-Zobah, and Joab returned and struck down twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.
[3] O God, You have spurned us.
You have broken out against us.
You have been angry. Turn back to us!
[4] You made earth shake; You split it open.
Heal its fractures—for it shudders.
[5] You made Your people see hardship.
You made us drink wine of staggering.
[6] To those who fear You, You gave a banner, to be unfurled before the archers. Selah [7] Save with Your right hand and answer us, so that Your beloved may be delivered.

[8] God has spoken in His holiness: “I will exult!
I will parcel out Shechem and measure off the valley of Succoth.
[9] Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine, Ephraim is a helmet for my head,
Judah is my scepter.
[10] Moab is my washbasin, On Edom I toss my sandal, Philistia, cry aloud because of me!”

[11] Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
[12] Should it not be You, O God— who spurned us and no longer goes out with our armies?
[13] Give us aid against the adversary, for the help of man is worthless.

14 With God we will do mighty things, and He will trample our foes.

Lead Me to the Rock

Psalm 61

1 For the music director, on string instrument, of David.
2 Hear my cry, O God, listen to my prayer.
3 From the end of the earth I call to You when my heart is faint.
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
4 For You have been a refuge for me, a tower of strength before the enemy.
5 Let me dwell in Your tent forever.
Let me take refuge in the shelter of Your wings. Selah
6 For You have heard my vows, O God.
You have given the inheritance of those who fear Your Name.
7 May You add days to the king's days.
May his years span many generations.
8 May he be enthroned before God forever.
Appoint mercy and truth to protect him.
9 So I will sing praise to Your Name forever, to fulfill my vows day after day.

My Rock and My Salvation

Psalm 62

1 For the music director, on Jeduthun. A psalm of David.
2 My soul, wait in stillness, only for God— from Him comes my salvation.
3 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress—I will never be moved.
4 How long will all of you assault a man, to crush him,
like a leaning wall,
a fence to be torn down?
5 They only plot to topple him from his rank.
Delighting in falsehood, they bless with their mouth, but inwardly they curse. Selah 6 My soul, wait in stillness, only for God— for from Him comes my expectation.
7 He alone is my rock and my salvation, my strong tower—I will not be moved.
8 On God, my salvation and my glory is the rock of my strength.
My refuge is in God.
9 Trust in Him at all times, you people.
Pour out your heart in His presence.
God is our refuge. Selah

10 Sons of Adam are a vapor, sons of man are an illusion.
In balanced scales they go up—
altogether they are less than a breath.
11 Do not trust in extortion, and do not put vain hope in plunder.
Though these things increase riches,
do not set your heart on them.

12 Once God has spoken, twice I have heard this:
might belongs to God.
13 Also Yours, O Lord, is lovingkindness.
For You reward a man for his work.[47]

You Are My God

Psalm 63

1 A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.
2 O God, You are my God, earnestly I seek You.
My soul thirsts for You.

My flesh longs for You in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.
3 So, I looked for You in the Sanctuary, to see Your power and Your glory.
4 Since Your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips
will praise You.
5 So I will bless You as long as I live.
In Your name I lift up my hands.[48]
6 My soul is satisfied as with fat and oil, so my mouth praises You with joyful lips.

7 When I remember You on my bed, I meditate on You through the night watches.
8 For You have been my help, and in the shadow of Your wings I sing for joy.
9 My soul clings to You— Your right hand upholds me.
10 But those who seek my soul to destroy it will go down to the depths of the earth.
11 They will be gutted by the sword, and become a prey for jackals.
12 But the king will rejoice in God.
All who swear by Him will boast,
when the mouth speaking lies is shut.

Protect Me from Conspiracies Psalm 64

[1] For the music director, a psalm of David.
[2] Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint.
Protect my life from terror of the enemy.
[3] Hide me from the conspiracy of evildoers, from the tumult of workers of iniquity, [4] who sharpened their tongue like a sword, and aimed their arrow—bitter words,
[5] to shoot from hiding at the innocent, shooting
suddenly at him, with no fear.
[6] They are firming up their evil plan.
They talk about setting secret traps.
They asked, “Who would see them?”
[7] They are plotting injustices: “We have completed a perfect plot!”
A man’s inward part and heart are deep.

[8] But God will shoot them with an arrow— suddenly their wounds will appear.
[9] So their tongue will be their downfall.
All who see them will flee away.
[10] Then all men will fear.
So they will declare the work of God,
and ponder what He has done.
[11] The righteous will be glad in ADONAI and take refuge in Him.
Let all the upright in heart give glory!

Praise is Awaitng You in Zion Psalm 65

1 For the music director, a psalm, a song of David.
2 Praise is awaiting You in Zion, O God, and to You the vow will be fulfilled.
3 O You who hear prayer, to You all flesh will come.
4 Records of sins overwhelm me— You will atone for our transgressions.
5 Blessed is the one You choose and bring near to dwell
in Your courts!
We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your House
—Your holy Temple.
6 You respond to us in righteousness with awe-inspiring works —O God of our salvation— hope of all ends of the earth and farthest seas, 7 who establishes mountains by His power, being girded with might, 8 who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their
waves,
and the tumult of the peoples.
9 Those dwelling in the uttermost parts stand in awe of Your signs.
You make morning and evening shout for joy.
10 You visit the land and make it abundant, greatly enriching it— the stream of God is full of water.
You prepare their grain,
for so You have prepared the earth.
11 You drench her furrows, leveling the ridges.
You soften her with showers,
blessing her growth.
12 You crown the year with Your goodness.
Your wagon tracks drip with abundance.
13 Pastures of the wilderness overflow and hills are robed with joy.

14 Meadows are clothed with flocks and valleys are covered with grain— they shout for joy, yes, they sing!

How Awesome Your Deeds

Psalm 66

1 For the music director, a song, a psalm.
Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!
2 Sing the glory of His Name— make His praise glorious.
3 Say to God: “How awesome are Your deeds!
Because of Your great power,
Your enemies cringe before You.
4 All the earth bows down to You, and sings praises to You.
All sing praises to Your Name.” Selah 5 Come and see the works of God.
How awesome His deeds for the children of Adam!
6 He turned the sea into dry land.
They crossed the river on foot.
There let us rejoice in Him!
7 He rules by His might forever.
His eyes keep watch on the nations.
Let no rebels exalt themselves. Selah 8 Bless our God, O peoples!
Let the sound of His praise be heard.
9 Keeping our soul in life, He has not let our foot slip.
10 For You have tested us, O God— You have purified us, as silver is refined.
11 You brought us into a net.
You laid a burden on our backs.
12 You caused men to ride over our heads.
We went through fire and water.
Yet You brought us out to superabundance.

13 With burnt offerings I will come to Your House, fulfilling my vows to You 14 that my lips uttered and mouth spoke, when I was in trouble.
15 To You I will present burnt offerings of fat animals,
with the sweet smoke of rams.
I will offer bulls with goats. Selah 16 Come and listen, all you who fear God.
I will tell what He has done for my soul.
17 I cried out to Him with my mouth, and exaltation was on my tongue.
18 If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord
would not have listened.
19 But surely God has heard.
He has listened to my voice in prayer.
20 Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer,
nor His lovingkindness from me.

Let All Peoples Praise You

Psalm 67

1 For the music director, with stringed instruments, a psalm, a song.
2 May God be gracious to us and bless us.
May He cause His face to shine upon us—Selah 3 so that Your way may be known on earth, and Your salvation among all nations.
4 Let the peoples praise You, O God.
Let all the peoples praise You.
5 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for You will judge the peoples fairly, and guide the nations on the earth. Selah 6 Let the peoples praise You, O God.
Let all the peoples praise You.
7 The earth has yielded its harvest— God, our God will bless us.
8 God will bless us, and all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

Triumphal Procession up to the Temple Psalm 68

1 For the music director, a psalm of David, a song.
2 Let God arise!
Let His enemies be scattered!
Let those who hate Him flee before Him.
3 As smoke is blown away, may You blow them away.
As wax melts before the fire,
may the wicked perish before God.
4 But let the righteous be glad.
Let them exult before God.
Let them rejoice with gladness.
5 Sing to God, sing praises to His Name.
Prepare the road for Him who rides through the deserts, whose Name is ADONAI— and rejoice before Him.
6 A father of orphans, defender of widows, is God in His holy dwelling.
7 God settles the lonely in a home.
He leads prisoners out to prosperity.
But the rebellious live in a parched land.

8 O God, when You went out before Your people, when You marched through the desert—Selah— 9 the earth shook, the heavens rained at the presence of God— the One of Sinai— at the presence of God, God of Israel.
10 You poured down abundant rain, O God.
You sustained Your weary inheritance.
11 Your community settled in it.
In Your goodness, O God, You provided for the poor.
12 The Lord gives the word— a great company of women proclaims the good news.

13 “Kings of armies, flee, flee!”
She who stays at home divides the spoil.
14 When you lie among the campfires, wings of a dove were covered with silver and her feathers with shimmering gold.
15 When Shaddai scattered kings there, it was snowing on Zalmon.
16 Mount Bashan is a mountain of God.
Mount Bashan is a mountain of peaks.
17 Why do you gaze with envy, you mountain peaks, at the mountain God desired for His dwelling?
Yes, ADONAI will dwell there forever!
18 The chariots of God are thousands and thousands — my Lord is among them as at Sinai, in holiness.
19 You went up on high.
You led captivity captive.
You received gifts from humanity,[49]
even from the rebellious—
so that God might dwell there.

20 Blessed be my Lord!
Day by day He bears our burdens—
the God of our salvation! Selah 21 God is for us—a God of deliverance.
ADONAI my Lord has escapes from death.
22 Surely God crushes the head of His foes, the hairy scalp of one walking in his guilt.
23 My Lord said: “I will bring them back from Bashan,
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea.
24 So your foot may wade in blood, and your dogs’ tongue may have their share of your enemies’ blood.”

25 They have seen Your processions, O God— the processions of my God, my King, into the Sanctuary:

[26] The singers go before, the musicians last, between maidens beating tambourines.
[27] “Bless God in the congregations— ADONAI, from the fountain of Israel.”
[28] There Benjamin, the youngest, is leading them, there the throng of Judah’s princes,
there the princes of Zebulun,
there the princes of Naphtali.
[29] Your God commanded your strength.
Strengthen, O God,
You who have acted for us.
[30] From Your Temple above Jerusalem, kings bring You tribute.
[31] Rebuke the beast of the reeds, the herd of bulls with the calves,
peoples trampling down pieces of silver.
He has scattered the peoples who delight in war!
[32] Nobles come from Egypt.
Cush runs to stretch her hands to God.
[33] Sing to God, kingdoms of the earth, sing praises to the Lord—Selah— [34] to Him who rides upon the ancient heavens of heavens.
Look, He utters His voice, a mighty voice!
[35] Ascribe strength to God— His majesty is over Israel and His strength is in the skies.
[36] O God, You are awesome from Your holy places.
The God of Israel gives strength and power to the people.
Blessed be God!

Scorn and Disgrace, Gall and Vinegar Psalm 69

1 For the music director, on “Lilies,” of David.
2 Save me, O God, for the waters
have reached my soul.
3 I have sunk in deep mud, and there is no footing,
I have come into deep waters,
and a flood sweeps over me.
4 I am worn out by my crying, my throat is parched,
my eyes fail, waiting for my God.
5 Those who hate me without a cause[50] outnumber the hairs of my head.
Powerful are my enemies who would destroy me with lies.
What I did not steal, must I restore?
6 O God, You know my folly, nor are my trespasses hidden from You.
7 May those who hope in You not be ashamed because
of me,
my Lord, ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

May those who seek You
not be disgraced because of me,
O God of Israel.
8 For I have endured scorn for Your sake.
Disgrace has covered my face.
9 I have become a stranger to my brothers, a foreigner to my mother’s children.
10 For zeal for Your House consumed me— the insults of those who insulted You have fallen on me.[51] 11 When I wept and fasted— that became a reproach to
me.
12 When I put on sackcloth, I became a joke to them.
13 Those who sit at the gate chatter about me, and I am the song of the drunkards.

14 But as for me, my prayer to You, ADONAI, is for a time of favor.
O God, in Your great love, answer me with the truth of Your salvation.
15 Deliver me from the mire— do not let me sink.
Deliver me from those who hate me,
out of the deep waters.
16 Do not let floodwaters sweep over me, nor the deep swallow me up,
nor the Pit shut its mouth over me.
17 Answer me, ADONAI, for good is Your mercy.
With Your great compassion, turn to me.
18 Hide not Your face from Your servant.
For I am in distress—answer me quickly.
19 Draw near to my soul and redeem it.
Ransom me because of my foes.
20 You know my reproach, my shame, my disgrace.
All my adversaries are before You.
21 Scorn has broken my heart, so I am sick.

I looked for sympathy, but there was none, for comforters, but found none.
22 They put gall in my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.[52]
23 Let their table before them be a snare, and what should have been for their well-being, let it be a trap.
24 Let their eyes be darkened so they cannot see and their backs be bent forever.[53]
25 Pour out Your indignation on them.
Let Your fierce anger overtake them.
26 Let their encampment be deserted.
Let none dwell in their tents.
27 For they persecute the one You have smitten, so they tell of the pain
of those You have wounded.
28 Add guilt to their guilt— may they not come into Your
righteousness.
29 May they be wiped out of the book of life and not be recorded with the righteous.[54]

30 But I—I am afflicted and in pain.
Let Your salvation, O God, set me up on high.
31 I will praise God's Name with a song, and magnify Him with praise.
32 It will please ADONAI better than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs.
33 The humble will see it and be glad.
You who seek God, let your hearts revive.
34 For ADONAI hears the needy and does not despise His captive people.
35 Let heaven and earth praise Him, the seas and everything moving in them.
36 For God will save Zion, and rebuild the cities of Judah.

Then they will dwell there and possess it.
37 The children of His servants will inherit it and those who love His Name will dwell there.

My Help and My Deliverer Psalm 70

1 For the music director, of David, for a memorial.
2 O God, come quickly to deliver me, ADONAI, to help me.
3 May they be put to shame and disgrace who seek my life.
May they be turned back in humiliation who delight
in my hurt.
4 May those who say, “Aha! Aha!”
be turned away because of their shame.
5 But may all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You.
May those who love Your salvation always say, “Let God be magnified.”
6 But I am poor and needy— God, come quickly to me.
You are my help and my deliverer—
ADONAI, do not delay.

My Hope When I Am Gray

Psalm 71

1 In You, ADONAI, have I taken refuge.
Let me never be ashamed.
2 Deliver me and rescue me in Your justice.
Turn Your ear to me and save me.
3 Be to me a sheltering rock where I may always go.
Give the command to save me—
for You are my rock and my fortress.
4 My God, rescue me out of the hand of the wicked, out of the grasp of an evil, ruthless man.
5 For You are my hope, ADONAI my Lord— my trust from my youth.
6 From my birth I have leaned on You.
You took me out of my mother's womb.
My praise is always about You.
7 I am like an ominous sign to many, but You are my strong refuge.
8 My mouth is filled with Your praise and with Your glory all day.

9 Do not cast me away in the time of old age.
When my strength fails, do not forsake me.
10 For my enemies speak against me.
Those who watch for my soul conspire together,
11 saying: "God has forsaken him— Pursue and take him, for no one will deliver."
12 O God, be not far from me!
My God, come quickly to help me.
13 Let the accusers of my soul be disgraced and destroyed.
Let those who seek to harm me

be covered with scorn and confusion.

14 But I—I will hope continually and will praise You more and more.
15 My mouth will recount Your justice and Your salvation all day, though I do not know the sum of
them.
16 I come because of the mighty deeds of ADONAI my Lord.
I will remember Your righteousness—Yours alone.
17 God, You taught me from my youth, and I still keep declaring Your wonders.
18 So even until I am old and gray, O God, do not forsake me, till I tell of Your strong arm to the next generation, Your might to all who are to come.
19 For Your righteousness, O God, reaches to high heaven.
You have done great things—O God,
who is like You?
20 You made me see many troubles and evils —You will revive me again— from the depths of the earth
You will bring me up again.
21 You will increase my greatness, and comfort me once again.
22 So I will praise You with the harp for your truth, O my
God.
I will sing praises to You with the lyre O Holy One of Israel.
23 My lips will shout for joy —when I sing praises to You
— and my soul, which You have redeemed.
24 Also my tongue will tell of Your righteousness all day.
For those who seek my hurt have been put to shame
and confusion.

A Powerful King for the Poor Psalm 72

1 Of Solomon.
Give the king Your judgments, O God,
and Your righteousness to the king's son.
2 May he judge Your people with righteousness, and Your poor ones with justice.
3 Let the mountains bring shalom to the people, and the hills righteousness.
4 May he vindicate the poor of the people, save the children of the needy,
and crush the oppressor.
5 Let them fear You while the sun endures, and while the moon lasts, throughout all generations.
6 May he be like rain falling on a mown field, like showers watering the ground.
7 Let the righteous flourish in his days.
Let shalom abound till the moon is no more.
8 May he have dominion from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.
9 Let desert dwellers bow before him, and his enemies lick the dust.
10 May kings of Tarshish and the islands bring tribute, kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
11 So let all kings bow down before him, and all nations
serve him.

12 For he rescues the needy crying for help, also the poor and the one with no helper.
13 He will take pity on the poor and needy, and the souls of the needy he will save.
14 From oppression and violence he redeems their soul,
for precious is their blood in his sight.
15 Long may he live!

May gold from Sheba be given to him.
May he pray for him continually,
and bless him all day.
16 Let there be abundance of grain in the land.
Let it sway on the top of the hills,
let its fruit be like Lebanon,
and let people of the city flourish like grass of the field.
17 May his name endure forever.
May his name increase before the sun,
and may all nations be blessed by him
and call him blessed.

18 Blessed be ADONAI Elohim, God of Israel, who alone does wonders.
19 Blessed be His glorious Name forever.
May all the earth be filled with His glory!
Amen and Amen!

20 The prayers of David son of Jesse are complete.

God Is the Strength of My Heart Psalm 73

[1] A psalm of Asaph.
Surely God is good to Israel,
to the pure in heart.
[2] But as for me, my feet almost slipped.
My steps nearly slid out from under me.
[3] For I envied the arrogant, when I saw the prosperity
of the wicked.
[4] For there are no pains at their death, their body is healthy.
[5] They have none of humanity's trouble, nor are they plagued like others.
[6] Therefore, they put on pride as a necklace, and violence wraps around them like a garment.
[7] Their eyes bulge out from fatness.
The imaginations of their hearts run wild.
[8] They scoff and wickedly plan evil.
From on high they threaten.
[9] They set their mouth against heaven.
Their tongue struts through the earth.
[10] Therefore His people return here, while they drink their fill.
[11] So they say: "How does God know?
And does Elyon have knowledge?" [12] Behold, such are the wicked— always at ease and amassing wealth.
[13] Surely in vain have I kept my heart pure, and washed my hands in innocence.
[14] For all day I have been stricken, my chastisement comes every morning.

[15] If I had said: "I will speak thus,"

surely I would have betrayed a generation of Your children.
16 But when I tried to make sense of this, it was troubling in my eyes— 17 until I entered the Sanctuary of God, and perceived their end.
18 Surely You put them in slippery places.
You hurled them down to destruction.
19 How suddenly they became a ruin— terminated, consumed by terrors.
20 Like a dream when one awakes, thus when You arise, my Lord,
You will despise their form.
21 When my heart was embittered and I was pierced in my heart,
22 I was brutish and ignorant.
I was like a beast before You.
23 Yet I am continually with You.
You hold my right hand.
24 You guide me with Your counsel, and afterward You will take me into glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but You?
On earth there is none I desire besides You.
26 My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
27 For behold, those far from You will perish.
You put an end to all who like a harlot are unfaithful to You.
28 But for me, it is good to be near God.
I have made my Lord ADONAI my refuge.
So I will tell of all Your works.

Intercession for Restoration of Zion Psalm 74

[1] A contemplative song of Asaph.
Why have You cast us off forever, O God?
Why does Your anger smolder against the flock of Your pasture?
[2] Remember Your congregation, which You purchased of old, redeemed as the tribe of Your inheritance,
and Mount Zion, where You dwelt.
[3] Lift Your steps toward the perpetual ruins— an enemy has done all evil to the Sanctuary!
[4] Your adversaries have roared in the midst of Your meeting place.
They have set up their standards as signs.
[5] It seemed like bringing up axes into a thicket of trees
— [6] and now all its carved work they smash with hatchet and hammers!
[7] They set Your Sanctuary on fire, burning it to the ground.
They defiled the dwelling place of Your Name.
[8] They said in their hearts: “Let us crush them totally!”
They burned down all the meeting places of God in the land.
[9] We do not see our signs.
No longer is there any prophet—
and no one among us knows how long.
[10] How long, O God, will the adversary mock?
Will the enemy revile Your Name forever?
[11] Why do You hold back Your hand, Your right hand?
Draw it out of Your bosom and consume them!

[12] Yet God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the land.

13 You split the sea with Your power.
You smashed the monsters' heads in the waters.
14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan, giving him as food to the desert dwellers.
15 You opened up spring and brook.
You dried up ever-flowing rivers.
16 The day is Yours, the night also is Yours.
You provided moon and sun.
17 You set all the borders of earth.
You made summer and winter.

18 Remember how the enemy mocked, ADONAI, and how foolish people despised Your Name.
19 Do not deliver Your turtledove's soul to the wild beast.
Do not forget the life of Your afflicted ones forever.
20 Look upon the covenant—for haunts of violence fill the dark places of earth.
21 Do not let the oppressed turn back in shame.
But let the poor and needy praise Your Name.
22 Rise up O God, and defend Your cause.
Remember how the fool mocks You all day.
23 Do not forget the noise of Your foes, the uproar of those rising up against You, ascending continually.

He Lowers One and Lifts Another Psalm 75

1 For the music director: “Do not Destroy,” a psalm of Asaph, a song.
2 We praise You, we praise God, for Your Name is near.
People declare Your wonders.

3 “When I appoint a set time, I Myself will judge
uprightly.
4 When the earth wavers with living on it, I Myself hold its pillars firm. Selah 5 I say to the arrogant, ‘No more boasting!’
And to the wicked,
‘Do not be lifting up your horn.’
6 Do not lift your horn up high.
Do not speak with outstretched neck.”

7 For exaltation comes not from the east nor from the west, nor even from the desert.
8 For God is the Judge: He lowers one and lifts up
another.
9 For in the hand of ADONAI is a cup of foaming wine
mixed with spices, and He pours it out.
Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink, draining
it down to the dregs.[55]
10 But I—I will declare it forever, I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
11 I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.

Who Can Stand in Your Presence?

Psalm 76

1 For the music director, on stringed instruments: a psalm of Asaph, a song.
2 In Judah God is known.
In Israel His Name is great.
3 In Salem is His sukkah and His dwelling place in Zion.
4 There He broke the fiery shafts of the bow, the shield, the sword, and the battle. Selah 5 You are brilliant,
more majestic than nourishing mountains.
6 The valiant have been plundered— they slumbered in their sleep.
The mighty could not lift their hands.
7 At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both horse and rider lay dead asleep.
8 You are awesome, yes You are!
Who can stand in Your presence once You are angry?
9 From heaven You pronounced judgment.
The earth feared and was still—10 when God rose up to judgment, to save all the humble of the land. Selah 11 For wrath upon man will bring You praise, a remnant of wrath You put on as a belt.
12 Make vows to ADONAI your God and fulfill them.
Let all around Him bring tribute to the One who is to be feared.
13 He cuts off the breath of princes.
The kings of earth are in awe of Him.

Remember the Wonders

Psalm 77

1 For the music director, on Jeduthun: a psalm of Asaph.
2 My voice to God—and I cried out, my voice to God—
and He heard me!
3 In the day of my trouble I seek my Lord.
At night my hand stretches out untiringly.
My soul refuses to be comforted.
4 I remember God and I moan.
I muse, and my spirit grows faint. Selah 5 You hold my eyelids open— I am so troubled—I cannot speak.
6 I ponder the days of old, the years long ago.
7 In the night I remember my song.

I meditate with my heart
and my spirit is searching.
8 “Will the Lord reject forever and never again show favor?
9 Has His mercy vanished forever?
Has His promise come to an end forever?
10 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Or has He in anger withdrawn his mercies?” Selah
11 Then I said: “It wounds me— that the right hand of Elyon has changed.”
12 I will remember the deeds of ADONAI.
Yes, I will muse about Your wonders of old.
13 I will meditate also on all Your work and consider Your deeds.”
14 O God, Your way is holy.
What god is great like God?
15 You are the God who works wonders.
You have made Your power known among the peoples.
16 With your arm You redeemed Your people, the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah 17 The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You and writhed, even the depths shook.
18 The clouds poured out water, the skies resounded,
Your arrows flashed back and forth.
19 The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind.
Lightning lit up the world.
The earth trembled and shook.
20 Your way was in the sea, and Your path in the mighty waters,
but Your footprints were not seen.
21 You led Your people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Israel from Moses to David

Psalm 78

1 A contemplative song of Asaph.
Listen, my people, to my teaching.
Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.
2 I will open my mouth with a parable.
I will utter perplexing sayings from of old, 3 which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.
4 We will not hide them from their children, telling to the next generation the praises of ADONAI
and His strength and the wonders He has done.
5 For He established a testimony in Jacob and ordained Torah in Israel, which He commanded our fathers to teach their children, 6 so that the next generation might know, even the children yet to be born:
they will arise and tell their children.
7 Then they will put their trust in God, not forgetting the works of God,
but keeping His mitzvot.
8 So they will not be like their fathers— a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation that did not prepare its heart, whose spirit was not loyal to God.
9 The sons of Ephraim were archers armed with bows,
yet they turned back in the day of battle.
10 They did not keep God’s covenant and refused to walk in His Torah.
11 They forgot His deeds and His wonders that He had shown them.
12 He did miracles in front of their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the plain of Zoan.

13 He split the sea and led them through, and He made the water stand like a wall.
14 By day He led them with a cloud and all night with a light of fire.
15 He split apart rocks in the wilderness and gave them
drink as abundant as the depths.
16 So He brought streams out of a rock, and made waters flow down like rivers.[56]
17 Yet they added more sinning against Him, rebelling against Elyon in the desert.
18 They put God to the test in their heart by demanding food for their craving.
19 Then they spoke against God, saying, “Can God set a table in the wilderness?
20 See, He struck the rock, waters gushed out, streams overflowed.
But can He give bread?
Will He provide meat for His people?”

21 When Adonai heard, He was angry.
A fire was kindled against Jacob,
and fury also rose against Israel.
22 For they did not believe in God or trust in His
salvation.
23 Yet He commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven, 24 and rained down manna upon them to eat, and gave them grain of heaven.[57]
25 Man did eat the bread of angels.
He sent them abundant provision.
26 He loosed the east wind in the skies, and by His power He drove the south wind.
27 He rained meat upon them like dust, and winged fowl
like sand of the seas.

28 And He let it fall amidst their camp, all around their tents.
29 So they ate and were very full— for He gave them their desire.
30 No longer a stranger from their desire, while their food was still in their mouths, 31 the anger of God rose against them and slew the stoutest of them,
and struck down young men of Israel.
32 Despite all this they sinned still more, and did not trust in His wonders.
33 So He ended their days in futility and their years in terror.
34 But when He slew them, then they sought Him, and turned back,
and desired God eagerly.
35 Then they remembered that God was their Rock and El Elyon their Redeemer.
36 But they flattered Him with their mouth and kept lying to Him with their tongue.
37 For their heart was not steadfast with Him, nor were they faithful to His covenant.
38 But He is compassionate, forgives iniquity and does not destroy.
Yes, many times He restrains His anger,
and does not stir up all His wrath.
39 For He remembered that they are but flesh, a passing breath that never returns.

40 How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness, and grieved Him in the desert!
41 Again and again they tested God, and pained the Holy
One of Israel.
42 They did not remember His hand— the day He redeemed them from the foe,

43 when He displayed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the plain of Zoan.
44 He turned their rivers into blood, so they could not drink from their streams.
45 He sent on them flies to devour them, and frogs to devastate them,
46 and gave their crops to the grasshopper, and their labor to the locust.
47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost, 48 and gave over their cattle to the hail, and their flocks to fiery bolts.
49 He sent on them the fury of His anger —wrath and indignation and trouble— a band of evil angels.
50 He cleared a path for His anger.
He spared not their soul from death,
but gave their life over to the plague.
51 He struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, the firstfruits of their strength in the tents of Ham.
52 But He brought His people out like sheep, and led them in the wilderness like a flock.
53 He led them to safety, so they did not fear, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
54 Then He brought them to His holy territory, to the mountain His right hand had gotten.
55 He drove out nations before them, and allotted them
an inheritance.
He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

56 Yet they tested and rebelled against El Elyon, and did not keep His decrees.
57 Like their fathers they turned and were treacherous.
They turned aside like a faulty bow.
58 For they provoked Him with their high places,

so they aroused His jealousy
with their graven images.
59 God heard and was furious, and He greatly detested Israel.
60 He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent He pitched among men.
61 He gave up His strength into captivity, and His glory
into the adversary’s hand.
62 He gave His people over to the sword, when He was angry at His inheritance.
63 Fire consumed their young men, and their virgins had no wedding songs.
64 Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows
could not weep.

65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, as a warrior shaking off wine.
66 He beat back His foes, putting them to lasting scorn.
67 Then He detested Joseph’s tent and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.
68 Instead He chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which He loved.
69 He built His Sanctuary like the heights, like the earth
that He established forever.
70 He also chose David His servant and took him from the sheepfolds,
71 from following nursing ewes.
He brought him to shepherd Jacob His people, and Israel His inheritance.
72 So He shepherded them with the integrity of His heart, and led them with His skillful hands.

A Lament Over Jerusalem

Psalm 79

1 A Psalm of Asaph.
God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance,
defiled Your holy Temple,
and reduced Jerusalem to ruins.
2 They gave the carcasses of Your servants as food to the birds of the skies, the flesh of Your kedoshim to the beasts of the earth.
3 They poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.
4 We have become a taunt to our neighbors, a scorn and derision to those around us.

5 How long, ADONAI, will You be angry?
Forever?
Will Your jealousy keep blazing like fire?
6 Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge You, on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name.
7 For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his country.
8 Do not hold against us the sins of our fathers.
May Your mercies come quickly to meet us, for we are brought very low.
9 Help us, God of our salvation— for the sake of the glory of Your Name.
Deliver us, and atone for our sins—
for Your name's sake.
10 Why should the nations say: "Where is their God?"
Before our eyes, let it be known among the nations that You avenge the shed blood of Your servants.

11 Let the prisoner’s groan come to You.
By Your great arm preserve those who are doomed to die.
12 Pay back into the midst of our neighbors sevenfold
their reproach— the reproach they hurled at You, my Lord.

13 So we, Your people, the flock of Your pasture, will praise You forever.

From generation to generation
we will recount Your praise.

Restore Us, Revive Us

Psalm 80

1 For the music director, on “Lilies,”[58] a testimony: a psalm of Asaph.
2 Give ear, Shepherd of Israel, You who lead Joseph like a flock.
You who are enthroned upon the cheruvim, shine
forth!
3 Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up Your might, and come to save us.
4 O God, restore us, make Your face shine, and we will be saved.

5 ADONAI-Tzva’ot, how long will You be angry with the prayer of Your people?
6 You have fed them the bread of tears and made them
drink a measure of tears.
7 You make us a contention to our neighbors, and our enemies mock as they please.
8 Elohei-Tzva’ot, restore us, and make Your face shine,
and we will be saved.

9 You pulled out a vine from Egypt.
You drove out nations and planted it.
10 You cleared a place for it, and it took deep root and filled the land.
11 The mountains were covered by its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches.
12 It sent out its branches to the sea, and its shoots to the river.
13 Why have You broken down its fences, so all who pass
by the way pick its fruit?

14 A boar from the forest ravages it, whatever moves in the field feeds on it.
15 Elohei-Tzva’ot, please return!
Look down from heaven and see!
Now take care of this vine—
16 the shoot Your right hand planted— the son You strengthened for Yourself.
17 It is burned with fire, it is cut down.
They perish from the rebuke of Your face.
18 Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand—
the son of man
You made strong for Yourself.
19 Then we will not turn away from You.
Revive us, and we will call on Your Name.
20 ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot, restore us.
Make Your face shine, and we will be saved.

Hear O Israel

Psalm 81

1 For the music director, on the Gittite lyre, of Asaph.
2 Sing for joy to God our strength, shout to the God of Jacob!
3 Lift up a song and sound a tambourine, a sweet lyre
with a harp.
4 Blow the shofar at the New Moon, at the full moon for the day of our festival.
5 For it is a decree for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
6 He set it up as a testimony in Joseph, when He went throughout the land of Egypt,
I heard a language I did not understand.

7 "I relieved his shoulder of the burden, his hands were set free from the basket.
8 You called out in trouble, and I rescued you.
I answered you from the hiding place of thunder.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah 9 Hear,
My people, I will admonish you— if you would listen to Me, O Israel!
10 Let there be no foreign god among you, and you shall not worship any alien god.
11 I am ADONAI your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

12 But My people did not listen to My voice.
Israel was not willing to be Mine.
13 So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their
heart,

to walk in their own counsels.
14 Oh that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways!
15 I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn My hand against their foes.
16 Those who hate ADONAI would cringe before Him—
their time of doom would be forever.
17 But you would be fed with the finest wheat, with honey out of a rock would I satisfy you.”

A Rebuke for Unjust Judges Psalm 82

1 A psalm of Asaph.
God takes His stand in the assembly of God.
He judges among the ‘gods’:
2 “How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah 3 Give justice to the poor and fatherless.
Be just to the afflicted and destitute.
4 Rescue the weak and needy.
Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.
5 They know nothing; they understand nothing— they walk about in darkness.
All of earth’s foundations are shaken.
6 I said: ‘You are ‘gods’, and you are all sons of Elyon,[59] 7 yet you will die like men, and will fall like any of the princes.’”

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth!
For You possess all the nations.

Nations Conspire Against Israel Psalm 83

1 A song: a psalm of Asaph.
2 God, do not keep silent.
Do not hold Your peace, O God.
Do not be still.
3 For look, Your enemies make an uproar.
Those who hate You lift up their head.
4 They make a shrewd plot against Your people,
conspiring against Your treasured ones.
5 “Come,” they say, “let’s wipe them out as a nation!
Let Israel’s name be remembered no more!”
6 For with one mind they plot together.
Against You do they make a covenant.
7 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites,
8 Gebal, Ammon and Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre,
9 even Assyria has joined them, becoming a strong arm for Lot’s sons. Selah 10 Do to them as You did to Midian, to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River, 11 who perished at En-dor— they became as dung for the ground.
12 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb— all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna, 13 who said, “Let us take possession of the pasturelands of God.” 14 My God, make them like tumbleweed, like chaff before the wind.
15 As a fire burns a forest, and as a flame sets mountains ablaze,
16 so pursue them with Your tempest, and terrify them with Your storm.

17 Cover their faces with shame, so they may seek Your Name—ADONAI.
18 Let them be ashamed and dismayed forever.
Let them be humiliated and perish.
19 Let them know that You alone —whose Name is ADONAI— are El Elyon over all the earth.

Pilgrim Road to Adonai's Courts Psalm 84

1 For the music director, upon the Gittite lyre, a psalm
of the sons of Korah.
2 How lovely are Your tabernacles, Adonai-Tzva'ot!
3 My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of Adonai.
My heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.
4 Even the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young — near Your altars, Adonai-Tzva'ot— my King and my God!
5 Blessed are they who dwell in Your House —they are ever praising You. Selah

6 Blessed is one whose strength is in You, in whose heart are the pilgrim roads.
7 Passing through the valley of Baca, they make it a spring.
The early rain covers it with blessings.
8 They go from strength to strength— every one of them appears before God in Zion.
9 Adonai-Tzva'ot, hear my prayer, give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah

10 O God, look at our shield, and look upon the face of Your anointed.
11 For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand anywhere else.
I would rather stand at the threshold of the House of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.
12 For Adonai Elohim is a sun[60] and a shield.
Adonai gives grace and glory.
No good thing will He withhold from those who walk
uprightly.

13 ADONAI-Tzva’ot, blessed is the one who trusts in You.

Restore Your People from Captivity

Psalm 85

1 For the music director, a psalm of the sons of Korah.
2 ADONAI, will you favor Your land?
Will You restore Jacob from captivity?
3 Will You bear away Your people's iniquity, Will You pardon all their sin?[61] Selah 4 Will You withdraw all Your wrath?
Will You turn from Your burning anger?[62]
5 Restore us, O God of our salvation, and renounce Your indignation with us.
6 Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You prolong Your anger from generation to generation?
7 Will You not revive us again, so Your people may rejoice in You?
8 Show us Your mercy, ADONAI, and grant us Your salvation.

9 Let me hear what God ADONAI will say.
For He will speak shalom to His people, and to His kedoshim— but let them not turn back to folly.
10 Surely His salvation is near those who fear Him, so that glory may dwell in our land.
11 Lovingkindness and truth meet together.
Righteousness and shalom kiss each other.
12 Truth will spring up from the earth, and justice will look down from heaven.
13 Yes, ADONAI will give what is good, and our land will yield its produce.
14 Righteousness is going before Him and prepares a way for His feet.

Slow to Anger, Full of Chesed Psalm 86

1 A prayer of David.
Turn Your ear, ADONAI, and answer me, for I am weak and needy.
2 Watch over my soul, for I am godly.
You are my God—
save Your servant who trusts in You.
3 Be gracious to me, my Lord, for to You I cry all day.
4 Gladden the soul of Your servant, for to You, my Lord,
I lift up my soul.
5 For You, my Lord, are good, and ready to forgive and full of mercy to all who call upon You.
6 Give ear, ADONAI, to my prayer, listen to the voice of my supplications.
7 In the day of my trouble I call upon You, for You will answer me.

8 There is none like You among the gods, my Lord,
there are no deeds like Yours.
9 All nations You have made will come and bow down before You, my Lord,
and they will glorify Your Name.
10 For You are great, and do wonders— You alone are
God.
11 Teach me Your way, ADONAI, that I may walk in Your truth.
Give me an undivided heart to fear Your Name.
12 I praise You, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and glorify Your Name forever.
13 For great is Your lovingkindness toward me.
You have delivered my soul from the lowest part of Sheol.

14 God, the proud have risen up against me and a gang of ruthless people have sought my life, and have not set You before them.
15 But You, my Lord, are a compassionate and gracious
God,
slow to anger, full of love and truth.
16 Turn to me and be gracious to me.
Give Your strength to Your servant,
and save the son of Your maidservant.
17 Make me a sign for good, so that those who hate me
may see it and be ashamed.
For You, ADONAI, have helped me and comforted me.

This One Was Born in Zion

Psalm 87

1 A psalm of the sons of Korah, a song.
His foundation is in the holy mountains.
2 ADONAI loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
3 Glorious things are spoken of you, city of God. Selah 4 "I will mention Rahab and Babylon among those who acknowledge Me— behold Philistia and Tyre, with Cush:
'This one was born there.'"
5 But of Zion it will be said: "This one and that one were born in her."
And Elyon Himself will establish her.
6 ADONAI will count in the register of the peoples: "This one was born there." Selah 7 Then singing and dancing— all my fountains of joy are in you!

Cry of Desperation

Psalm 88

1 A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah, for the music director, for singing Mahalath, a contemplative song[63] of Heman the Ezrahite.
2 ADONAI, God of my salvation, day and night I cried out
before You.
3 Let my prayer come before You.
Turn Your ear to my cry.
4 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draws near to Sheol.
5 I am counted with those who go down into the Pit.
I have become as one with no strength—6 abandoned among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave,
whom You remember no more—
cut off from Your hand.
7 You have laid me in the lowest places, in dark places, in the depths.
8 Your wrath lies heavily on me.
You afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah 9 You have put my companions far from me.
You have made me repulsive to them.
I am shut in and I cannot go out.
10 My eye fails from affliction.
I call upon You every day, ADONAI.
I spread out my hands to You.
11 Will You work wonders for the dead?
Or will the departed spirits rise up praising You?
Selah 12 Will Your love be declared in the grave?
Or Your faithfulness in the place of ruin?

13 Will Your wonders be known in the darkness?
Your righteousness in the land of oblivion?

14 But I—I cried out to You, ADONAI, and in the morning
my prayer meets You.
15 ADONAI, why do You spurn me?
Why do You hide Your face from me?
16 From my youth I have been afflicted and close to death.
I suffer Your terrors—I am desperate!
17 Your fury has swept over me.
Your terrors have cut me off.
18 Like water they surge around me all day.
They close in on me together.
19 Friend and loved one You took far from me.
Darkness has become my companion.

Covenant with David’s Seed

Psalm 89

1 A contemplative song of Ethan the Ezrahite.
2 I will sing of the love of ADONAI forever.
To all generations I will make known Your faithfulness with my mouth.
3 For I said, “Let your lovingkindness be built up
forever!
The heavens—let Your faithfulness be made firm
there!”

4 “I have made a covenant with My chosen one.
I have sworn to David My servant:
5 ‘Forever I will establish your seed, and will build your throne from generation to generation.’”[64] Selah

6 The heavens praise Your wonders, ADONAI
—Your faithfulness, too—
in the assembly of the kedoshim.
7 For who in the skies can compare to ADONAI?
Who is like ADONAI among the sons of gods?
8 God is greatly feared in the council of the holy ones,
and awesome above all around Him.
9 ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot, who is like You, mighty ADONAI, with Your faithfulness all around You?
10 You rule over the swelling of the sea.
When its waves mount up, You still them.
11 You crushed Rahab like a slain one.
You scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.
12 The heavens are Yours, also Yours the earth
—the world and its fullness—

You have founded them.
13 You created the north and the south.
Tabor and Hermon sing for joy at Your Name.
14 Your arm is mighty,
Your hand is strong,
exalted is Your right hand.[65]
15 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne.
Lovingkindness and truth go before You.
16 Blessed are the people who know the joyful shout,[66]
They walk in the light of Your presence, ADONAI.
17 They rejoice in Your Name all day,
and by Your righteousness they are exalted.
18 For You are the glory of their strength,
and by Your favor our horn is exalted.
19 For our shield belongs to ADONAI,
and our king to the Holy One of Israel.

20 Then You spoke in vision to Your godly ones, and said:
"I have bestowed help on a warrior.
I have exalted one chosen from among the people.
21 I have found David My servant.
With My holy oil I have anointed him.
22 With him My hand will be established.
Surely My arm will strengthen him.
23 No enemy will exact tribute from him,
no son of wickedness will oppress him.
24 I will crush his adversaries before him,
and strike down those who hate him.
25 My faithfulness and My lovingkindness will be with him, and by My Name his horn will be exalted.

26 I will also set his hand over the sea,
his right hand over the rivers.
27 He will call to Me: ‘You are my Father,[67]
my God and the rock of my salvation.’ 28 I also will set him as firstborn—[68]
the highest of the kings of earth.[69][70] 29 I will maintain My love for him forever,
and My covenant with him will be firm.
30 His seed I will establish forever,
and his throne as the days of heaven.

31 If his sons forsake My Torah,
and do not walk in My judgments, 32 if they violate My decrees,
and do not keep My mitzvot, 33 then I will punish their transgression with the rod,
and their iniquity with flogging.
34 But I will not withdraw My lovingkindness from him,
nor will I betray My faithfulness.
35 I will not violate My covenant,
nor alter what My lips have uttered.
36 Once for all I have sworn by My holiness
—surely I will not lie to David—37 his descendants will endure forever,
and his throne as the sun before Me, 38 and as the moon, established forever,
and a trustworthy witness in the sky.” Selah

39 But You have cast off and spurned,
You have become furious with Your anointed one.
40 You have renounced the covenant of Your servant.
You have defiled his crown even to the ground.
41 You have broken down all his walls.

You reduced his strongholds to ruin.
42 All who pass by have plundered him.
He has become a taunt to his neighbors.
43 You exalted the right hand of his foes
and made all his enemies rejoice.
44 You turned back the edge of his sword
and have not supported him in battle.
45 You brought his splendor to an end,
and cast his throne down to the ground.
46 You cut short the days of his youth.
You covered him with shame. Selah 47 How long, ADONAI, will You hide Yourself?
Forever?
Will Your fury keep burning like fire?
48 Remember how short my life span is!
For what futility have You created all the children of men?
49 What man can live and not see death?
Can he deliver himself from the clutches of Sheol? Selah 50 Where is Your former lovingkindness, my Lord, which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?[71] 51 Remember, my Lord, the mockery against Your servants that I bear in my heart from so many peoples.
52 How Your enemies have mocked, ADONAI,

how they have mocked
the footsteps of Your Anointed One![72]

53 Blessed be ADONAI forever.
Amen and Amen.

Get a Heart of Wisdom Psalm 90

[1] A prayer of Moses the man of God.
My Lord, You have been our dwelling from generation to generation.
[2] Before the mountains were born, or You gave birth to the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God!
[3] You turn mankind back to dust, saying, “Return, children of Adam!”
[4] For a thousand years in Your sight are like a day just passing by,
or like a watch in the night.
[5] You sweep them away in their sleep.
In the morning they are like sprouting grass— [6] in the morning it flourishes and springs up, by evening it withers and dries up.

[7] For we are consumed by Your anger and terrified by Your wrath.
[8] You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins
in the light of Your presence.
[9] For all our days have passed away under Your wrath.
We spent our years like a sigh.
[10] The span of our years is seventy —or with strength, eighty— yet at best they are trouble and sorrow.
For they are soon gone, and we fly away.
[11] Who knows the power of Your anger?
Your fury leads to awe of you.

[12] So teach us to number our days, so that we may get a heart of wisdom.
[13] Relent, ADONAI! How long?
Have compassion on Your servants.

14 Satisfy us in the morning with Your love, so we may sing for joy
and be glad all our days.
15 Gladden us for as many days as You have humbled us,
as many years as we have seen misery.
16 Let Your work appear to Your servants, and Your splendor on their children.
17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us.
Establish the work of our hands for us— yes,
establish the work of our hands.

Dwell in the Shelter of Elyon Psalm 91

1 He who dwells in the shelter of Elyon, will abide in the shadow of Shaddai.
2 I will say of ADONAI, “He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust.
3 For He will rescue you from the hunter’s trap and from the deadly pestilence.
4 He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge.
His faithfulness is body armor and shield.
5 You will not fear the terror by night, nor the arrow that flies by day,
6 nor the plague that stalks in darkness, nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.
7 A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.
8 You will only look on with your eyes and see the wicked paid back.
9 For you have made Elyon your dwelling, even ADONAI, who is my refuge, 10 so no evil will befall you nor any plague come near your tent.
11 For He will give His angels charge over you, to guard
you in all your ways.
12 Upon their hands they will lift you up, lest you strike
your foot against a stone.[73] 13 You will tread upon the lion and cobra, trample the young lion and serpent.

14 “Because he has devoted his love to Me, I will deliver
him.
I will set him securely on high,
because he knows My Name.

15 When he calls on Me, I will answer him.
I will be with him in trouble, rescue him, and honor him.
16 With long life will I satisfy him and show him My salvation.”

It Is Good to Praise

Psalm 92

1 A psalm, a song for the Shabbat.
2 It is good to praise ADONAI and to make music to Your Name, Elyon, 3 to declare Your love in the morning and Your faithfulness at night,
4 with a ten-string harp, with resounding music on the lyre.
5 For You made me glad, ADONAI, by Your deeds.
I sing for joy at the works of Your hands.
6 How great are Your works, ADONAI!
How profound are Your thoughts!
7 A brutish man does not know, nor does a fool
understand.
8 Though the wicked spring up like grass, and all evildoers flourish,
it is only to be ruined forever.

9 But You, ADONAI, are exalted forever.
10 For behold, Your enemies, ADONAI
—behold Your enemies perish—
all evildoers are scattered.
11 But You exalted my horn like that of a wild ox.
I am anointed with fresh oil.
12 My eye can gaze on those lying in wait for me.
My ears hear about evildoers rising up against me.
13 The righteous will flourish like a palm tree.
He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
14 Planted in the House of ADONAI, they will flourish in the courts of our God.
15 They will still yield fruit in old age.

They will be full of sap and freshness.
16 They declare, “ADONAI is upright, my Rock —there is no injustice in Him.”

Majestic and Unshakable

Psalm 93

1 ADONAI reigns—He is robed in majesty!
ADONAI has robed and armed Himself with strength.
Yes, the world is firmly established—unshakable.
2 Your throne is established from of old.
You are from everlasting.
3 The floods have lifted up, ADONAI, the floods have lifted up their voice,
the floods lift up their crashing waves.
4 More than the sounds of many waters— more majestic than the breakers of the sea—
so majestic is ADONAI on high!
5 Your testimonies are very sure.
Holiness befits Your House, ADONAI, for endless days.

He Will Not Abandon His People

Psalm 94

1 God of vengeance, ADONAI, God of vengeance, shine
forth!
2 Rise up, O Judge of the earth!
Pay back to the proud what they deserve.
3 How long will the wicked, ADONAI, how long will the wicked gloat?
4 They gush out, they speak arrogance— all the evildoers keep boasting.
5 They crush Your people, ADONAI, and afflict Your heritage.
6 They slay the widow and the outsider, and murder the fatherless.
7 So they say: "ADONAI does not see— the God of Jacob pays no attention."

8 Pay attention, stupid among the people!
Fools, when will you comprehend?
9 He who planted the ear, does He not hear?
He who formed the eye, does He not see?
10 He who chastens nations, will He not rebuke— One who teaches humanity knowledge?
11 ADONAI knows human thoughts— they are but a breath.

12 Blessed is the one You discipline, ADONAI, and teach him from Your Torah, 13 to give him rest from days of trouble —until a pit is dug for the wicked.
14 For ADONAI will not forsake His people.
He will never abandon His inheritance.[74]

15 For rightness will be restored to justice, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
Who will stand up for me against evildoers?
17 Unless ADONAI had been my help, my soul would soon have dwelt in the abode of silence.
18 If I say: “My foot has slipped,”
Your mercy, ADONAI, will hold me up.
19 When my troubling thoughts multiply within me, Your consolations comfort my soul.
20 Can a throne of corruption be aligned with You—planning distress by decree?
21 They band together against the life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood.[75]
22 But ADONAI has been my fortress and my God the rock of my refuge.
23 He will repay them for their wickedness, and will annihilate them in their evil.
ADONAI our God will annihilate them.

Today, Hear His Voice

Psalm 95

1 O come, let us sing for joy to ADONAI.
Let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.
2 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving.
Let us shout joyfully to Him with songs.
3 For ADONAI is a great God and a great King above all gods.
4 In His hand are the depths of the earth, the mountain peaks are His also.
5 The sea is His—He made it, and His hands formed the dry land.
6 Come, let us worship and bow down.
Let us kneel before ADONAI our Maker.[76]
7 For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, the flock of His hand.
Today, if you hear His voice:
8 "Do not harden your heart as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, 9 when your fathers tested Me, they challenged Me, even though they had seen My work.
10 For forty years I loathed that generation.
So I said: 'It is a people whose heart goes astray, who do not know My ways.'
11 Therefore I swore in My anger, 'They shall never enter into My rest.'"

Sing a New Song

Psalm 96

1 Sing to ADONAI a new song!
Sing to ADONAI, all the earth.
2 Sing to ADONAI, bless His Name.
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
3 Declare His glory among the nations, His marvelous deeds among all peoples.
4 For great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised.
He is to be feared above all gods.
5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but ADONAI made the heavens.
6 Splendor and majesty are before Him.
Strength and beauty are in His Sanctuary.
7 Ascribe to ADONAI, O families of peoples.
Ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.
8 Ascribe to ADONAI the glory of His Name.
Bring an offering and come into His courts.
9 Bow down to ADONAI in holy splendor.
Tremble before Him, all the earth.
10 Say among the nations: "ADONAI reigns!"
The world is firmly established—it will not move.
He will judge the peoples with fairness.
11 Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice.
Let the sea roar—and all that fills it.
12 Let the land exult—and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy—
13 before ADONAI, for He is coming!
For He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness

and the peoples in His faithfulness.[77]

Exalted Above All Gods

Psalm 97

1 ADONAI reigns, let the earth rejoice, let the many islands be glad.
2 Clouds and darkness are all around Him.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
3 Fire goes before Him and burns up His adversaries on every side.
4 His lightning lights up the world— the earth sees and trembles.
5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of ADONAI, at the presence of the Lord of all earth.
6 The heavens declare His righteousness, and all the peoples have seen His glory.
7 Let all who serve graven images be ashamed—who boast in idols.
Bow down before Him, all you gods!
8 Zion hears and is glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoice,
because of Your judgments, ADONAI.
9 For You, ADONAI, are Elyon above all the earth.
You are exalted far above all gods.

10 You who love ADONAI, hate evil!
He watches over the souls of His godly ones.
He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
11 Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for the upright in heart.
12 Rejoice in ADONAI, you righteous ones, and praise His holy Name.

Creation Rejoices in His Salvation Psalm 98

1 A psalm.
Sing to ADONAI a new song, for He has done
marvelous things.
His right hand and His holy arm
have won victory for Him.
2 ADONAI has made His salvation known.
He has revealed His righteousness before the eyes of the nations.
3 He has remembered His lovingkindness, His faithfulness to the house of Israel.
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
4 Shout joyfully to ADONAI, all the earth.
Break forth, sing for joy, and sing praises.
5 Sing praises to ADONAI with the harp, with the harp and a voice of melody.
6 With trumpets and sound of the shofar blast a sound before the King, ADONAI.
7 Let the sea roar and all within it, the world and those who dwell in it.
8 Let the rivers clap their hands, let the mountains sing for joy together— 9 before ADONAI, for He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness
and the peoples with fairness.

Worship at His Holy Hill

Psalm 99

1 ADONAI reigns, let the peoples tremble.
He is enthroned upon the cheruvim—let the earth shake!
2 ADONAI is great in Zion and He is exalted above all the peoples.
3 Let them praise Your great and awesome Name: holy is He.
4 The might of a king loves justice.
You have established fairness.
You executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.
5 Exalt ADONAI our God and worship at His footstool: holy is He.

6 Moses and Aaron were among His kohanim— also Samuel among those calling on His Name.
They called on ADONAI and He answered them.
7 He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.
They kept His testimonies, and the decree that He gave them.
8 ADONAI our God, You answered them.
A forgiving God You were to them, though You avenged their misdeeds.
9 Exalt ADONAI our God, and worship at His holy hill, for holy is ADONAI our God.

Enter His Gates with Thanksgiving Psalm 100

[1] A psalm of thanksgiving.
Shout joyfully to ADONAI, all the earth!
[2] Serve ADONAI with gladness.
Come before His presence with joyful singing.
[3] Know that ADONAI, He is God.
It is He who has made us, and we are His.
We are His people, the sheep of His pasture.
[4] Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise!
Praise Him, bless His Name.
[5] For ADONAI is good.
His lovingkindness endures forever,
and His faithfulness to all generations.

Pledge of Integrity

Psalm 101

1 A psalm of David.
I will sing of lovingkindness and justice.
To You, ADONAI, I will sing praises.
2 I will behave wisely in the way of integrity —when will You come to me?
I walk in my house with integrity in my heart.
3 No base thing will I set before my eyes.
Twisted behavior I hate—it will not cling to me.
4 A perverse heart will depart from me.
I will know nothing evil.
5 Whoever slanders his neighbor in secret —him I will silence.
Who has haughty eyes and a proud heart
—him I will not tolerate.
6 My eyes are on the trustworthy of the land, to be in my company.
One walking in a blameless way will serve me.
7 No one who practices deceit will dwell in my house.
No one who utters lies will endure before my eyes.
8 Each morning I silence all the land's wicked ones— to cut off from ADONAI'S city every evildoer.

Prayer in Affliction

Psalm 102

1 A prayer of the afflicted one, when he is faint and pours out his lament before ADONAI:

2 ADONAI, hear my prayer,
let my cry come to You.
3 Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my distress.
Turn Your ear to me—in the day I call,
answer me quickly.
4 For my days vanished like smoke,
and my bones were burned like coals.
5 My heart is stricken and withered like grass,
so that I even forget to eat my bread.
6 Because of the sound of my groaning,
my bones cling to my flesh.
7 I am like a pelican of the desert,
like an owl of the waste places.
8 I lie awake, like a lonely bird on a roof.
9 My enemies taunt me all day.
My deriders use my name to curse.
10 For I have eaten ashes like bread,
and mixed my drink with tears—
11 because of Your indignation and wrath,
for You have picked me up and tossed me aside.
12 My days are like a lengthening shadow,
and I wither away like grass.

13 But You, ADONAI, sit enthroned forever.
Your renown is from generation to generation.

14 You will arise and have compassion on Zion,
for it is time to show favor to her,
for the appointed time has come, 15 for her stones are dear to Your servants,
and they cherish her dust.
16 So the nations will fear ADONAI's Name
and all the kings of the earth Your glory.
17 For ADONAI has rebuilt Zion.
He has appeared in His glory.
18 He has turned to the prayer of the destitute,
and has not despised their prayer.
19 Let it be written for a generation to come,
that a people to be created may praise ADONAI.
20 For He looks down from His holy height,
from heaven ADONAI gazes on the earth, 21 to hear the groaning of the prisoner,
to set free those condemned to death,
22 to declare the Name of ADONAI in Zion
and His praise in Jerusalem, 23 when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship ADONAI.

24 He brought down my strength in midcourse.
He shortened my days.
25 I say, "My God,
do not take me up in the middle of my days.
Your years endure through all generations!
26 Long ago You founded the earth,
the heavens are the work of Your hands.
27 They will perish, but You will remain.
All of them will wear out like a garment.
Like clothing You change them, so they change.
28 But You are the same,

and Your years will never end.
29 The children of Your servants will live.
Their descendants will be established before You.”

As a Father Has Compassion

Psalm 103

1 Of David.
Bless ADONAI, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless His holy Name.
2 Bless ADONAI, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits:
3 He forgives all your iniquity.
He heals all your diseases.
4 He redeems your life from the Pit.
He crowns you with lovingkindness and compassions.
5 He satisfies your years with good things, so that your youth is renewed like an eagle.

6 ADONAI executes justice— judgments for all who are oppressed.
7 He made His ways known to Moses, His deeds to the children of Israel.
8 ADONAI is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger,
and plentiful in mercy.
9 He will not always accuse, nor will He keep His anger
forever.
10 He has not treated us according to our sins, or repaid us according to our iniquities.
11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is His mercy for those who fear Him.
12 As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
13 As a father has compassion on his children, so ADONAI has compassion on those who fear Him.
14 For He knows our frame.
He remembers that we are but dust.

15 As for man, his days are like grass— he flourishes like a flower of the field, 16 but when the wind blows over it, it is gone, and its place is no longer known.
17 But the mercy of ADONAI is from everlasting to everlasting on those who revere Him,
His righteousness to children’s children, 18 to those who keep His covenant, who remember to observe His instructions.

19 ADONAI has set up His throne in the heavens, and His kingdom rules over all.
20 Bless ADONAI, you angels of His: mighty in strength, performing His word,
upon hearing the utterance of His word.
21 Bless ADONAI, all you His armies, His servants who do His will.
22 Bless ADONAI, all His works everywhere in His dominion.
Bless ADONAI, O my soul!

Adonai Rejoices in His Works!

Psalm 104

1 Bless Adonai, O my soul.
Adonai my God, You are very great!
You are clothed with splendor and majesty—
2 wrapping Yourself in light as a robe, stretching out heaven like a curtain, 3 laying beams for His upper rooms in waters, making the clouds His chariot, walking on the wings of the wind,
4 making His angels spirits, His servants a flaming fire.
5 He set the earth upon its foundations, so it should not totter forever and ever.
6 You covered it with the deep as with a garment— the waters standing above the mountains.
7 At Your rebuke the waters fled.
At the sound of Your thunder they hurried away.
8 The waters go up the mountains, then down to the valleys— to the place that You assigned to them.
9 You set a boundary to the waters that they may not cross over,
so they may not return to cover the earth.
10 You make springs gush into the valleys.
They run between the mountains.
11 They give drink to all the beasts of the field— the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
12 Beside them the birds of the sky dwell— they sing among the branches.
13 He waters mountains from His upper rooms.
The earth is full of the fruit of Your labors.

14 He causes grass to spring up for the cattle, and vegetation for man to cultivate,
to bring forth bread out of the earth, 15 wine that makes man’s heart glad, oil to make his face shine,
and bread that sustains man’s heart.
16 The trees of ADONAI are satisfied, the cedars of Lebanon that He planted, 17 where birds make their nests, and the stork—her home is the fir trees.
18 The high mountains are for wild goats, the cliffs a refuge for rock badgers.

19 He made the moon for appointed times, the sun
knows its going down.
20 You bring darkness, so it becomes night, when all the beasts of the forest prowl.
21 The young lions roar for prey, seeking their food from
God.
22 But when the sun rises, they gather and lie down in their dens.
23 Man goes out to his work, and to his labor until the evening.

24 ADONAI, how countless are Your works!
In wisdom You made them all—the earth is full of Your creatures.
25 There is the sea, vast and wide, teeming with gliding things innumerable,
living creatures, both small and large.
26 There, ships go to and fro.
Leviathan—You formed to frolic there.
27 They all look to You to give them their food at the right time.
28 When You give it to them, they gather it up.

When You open Your hand, they are satisfied with good.
29 But when You hide Your face—they are dismayed.
You take away their breath—they perish,
and return to their dust.
30 You send forth Your Ruach—they are created, and You renew the face of the earth.

31 May the glory of ADONAI endure forever!
May ADONAI rejoice in His works!
32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles.
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
33 I will sing to ADONAI as long as I live!
I will sing praise to my God yet again!
34 Let my meditation be sweet to Him.
I—I will rejoice in ADONAI.
35 Let sinners vanish from the earth and let the wicked be no more.
Bless ADONAI, O my soul. Halleluyah!

Tell His Wonders for Israel Psalm 105

1 Praise ADONAI, call upon His Name.
Make known His deeds among the peoples.
2 Sing to Him, sing praises to Him— tell about all His wonders!
3 Glory in His holy Name.
Let the heart of those who seek ADONAI rejoice.
4 Seek ADONAI and His strength, seek His face always.
5 Remember His wonders that He has done, His miracles and the judgments of His mouth, 6 O seed of Abraham, His servant, O children of Jacob, His chosen ones.

7 He is ADONAI our God.
His judgments are in all the earth.
8 He remembers His covenant forever— the word He commanded for a thousand generations— 9 which He made with Abraham, and swore to Isaac, 10 and confirmed to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant,
11 saying, “To you I give the land of Canaan, the portion of your inheritance.”
12 When they were but few in number, few indeed, and foreigners in it,[78]
13 wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom
to another people,
14 He allowed no one to oppress them— for their sake
He rebuked kings:
15 “Touch not My anointed ones, and do My prophets no harm.”

16 He called down a famine on the land.
He broke the whole supply of bread.

17 He sent a man before them— Joseph, sold as a slave.
18 They hurt His feet with shackles, he was put in irons
— 19 till the time that his word came true— the word of ADONAI proved him true!
20 The king sent and released him.
The ruler of the peoples set him free.
21 He made him lord of his house, ruler over all his possessions,
22 to discipline his princes at his will, and teach his elders wisdom.
23 Then Israel came into Egypt, Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
24 He made His people very fruitful, and made them
more numerous than their foes.
25 He turned their hearts to hate His people, to deal shrewdly with His servants.
26 He sent Moses His servant, and Aaron, whom He had chosen.
27 They performed His signs among them —miracles in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and it was dark, so they did not rebel against His words.
29 He turned their waters into blood, causing their fish to die.
30 Their land swarmed with frogs, even in their royal chambers.
31 He spoke, and a swarm of gnats came within all their borders.
32 He gave them a rain of hail, flames of fire throughout their land.
33 He struck their vines and their fig trees and shattered the trees of their country.
34 He spoke, and the locust came —young locusts without number— 35 to eat up every green thing in their land and eat up the fruit of their ground.

36 Then He struck all the firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their vigor.

37 Then He brought them out with silver and gold, and no one among His tribes faltered.
38 Egypt was glad when they left— for dread of them had fallen on them.
39 He spread a cloud as a covering and fire to give light at night.
40 They asked, and He brought quail, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.[79] 41 He opened a rock, and waters gushed out, flowed as a river in dry places.
42 For He remembered His holy word to Abraham His servant.
43 So He brought forth His people with joy, His chosen ones with singing.
44 He gave them the lands of the nations, so they inherited the labor of the peoples 45 so that they might keep His statutes and observe His laws.
Halleluyah!

Adonai Still Faithful to Israel Psalm 106

1 Halleluyah!
Praise Adonai, for He is good, for His lovingkindness endures forever.
2 Who can speak of Adonai's mighty acts or declare His praise?

3 Blessed are those who maintain justice, who do what is right at all times.
4 Remember me, Adonai, when You show favor to Your people.
Visit me with Your salvation,
5 so I may behold the prosperity of Your chosen ones, exult in the joy of Your nation, and give praise with Your inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity,
we have acted wickedly.
7 Our fathers in Egypt did not ponder Your wonders.
Nor did they remember Your abundant lovingkindness, but rebelled by the sea—at the Sea of Reeds.
8 Yet He saved them for His Name's sake, to make His mighty power known.
9 He rebuked the Sea of Reeds and it dried up, and He led them through the depths as through a wilderness.
10 So He saved them from the hand of those who hated them, redeemed them from the enemy's hand.
11 The waters covered their adversaries— not one of them was left.
12 Then they believed His words.

They were singing His praise.

13 How quickly they forgot His works, and would not wait for His counsel!
14 In the wilderness they craved ravenously, in the desert they tested God.
15 So He gave them what they asked for, but sent a wasting disease among them.
16 Then they envied Moses in the camp, and also Aaron,
the holy one of ADONAI.
17 The earth opened up, swallowed Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.
18 Also a fire blazed in their company, a flame consumed
the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb and worshipped a molten image.
20 Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a grass-eating ox.
21 They forgot God their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt— 22 miracles in the land of Ham, awesome things by the Sea of Reeds.
23 So He commanded their extermination, had not Moses, His chosen one,
stood in the breach before Him,
to turn His wrath from destroying them.

24 Then they scorned the pleasing land— they did not trust in His word.
25 Instead, they grumbled in their tents.
They would not listen to ADONAI's voice.
26 Therefore He swore to them that He would make them fall in the desert, 27 and disperse their offspring among the nations, and scatter them through the lands.

28 Then they yoked themselves to Baal of Peor, and ate the sacrifices of dead things.
29 So they provoked Him with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
30 But Phinehas stood up and intervened, so the plague was stopped.
31 It was credited to him as righteousness, from generation to generation forever.

32 By the waters of Meribah they angered Him, and trouble came on Moses because of them.
33 For they embittered his spirit and he spoke rashly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the peoples, as ADONAI had commanded them.
35 Instead they mingled with the nations and learned their practices.
36 They worshipped their idols, which became a snare to
them.
37 They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
38 They shed innocent blood— the blood of their sons and their daughters, sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
So the land was desecrated with blood.
39 So they defiled themselves by their deeds, and prostituted themselves by their practices.
40 Therefore the anger of ADONAI was kindled against His people, and He abhorred His inheritance.
41 He handed them to the nations— those who hated them ruled over them.
42 Their enemies oppressed them, so they were subdued
under their hand.

43 Many times He delivered them, but they kept rebelling deliberately,
and so sank low into their iniquity.
44 Yet He saw their distress, when He heard their cry, 45 remembered His covenant to them,[80]
and relented in the greatness of His mercy.
46 He caused them to be pitied in the presence of all their captors.

47 Save us, ADONAI our God, and gather us from the
nations,
so we may praise Your holy Name
and triumph in Your praise.
48 Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, from everlasting
even to everlasting!
Let all the people say, “Amen!”
Halleluyah!

His Chesed and His Wonders Psalm 107

1 Praise ADONAI, for He is good, for His lovingkindness
endures forever.
2 Let the redeemed of ADONAI say so— whom He redeemed from the hand of the foe, 3 whom He gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the sea.
4 Some wandered in a desert, a wasteland.
They found no way to an inhabited city.
5 Hungry and thirsty, their souls ebbed away.
6 So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress, and He delivered them out of their troubles.
7 Then He led them by a straight way to go to a city
where they could live.
8 Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy and His wonders
for the children of men,
9 for He satisfies the thirsty soul and fills the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Some sat in darkness and deep gloom, prisoners in misery and iron chains, 11 for they had defied God’s words, and spurned the counsel of Elyon.
12 So He humbled their heart with trouble.
They stumbled, and no one was helping.
13 So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress, and He delivered them out of their troubles.
14 He brought them out of darkness and deep gloom,
breaking their chains.
15 Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy, and His wonders for the children of men,

16 for He shattered bronze gates, and broke into pieces iron bars.

17 Some became fools because of their rebellious ways,
and were afflicted due to their iniquities.
18 Their soul abhorred all food, and they drew near the gates of death.
19 So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress, and He
delivered them out of their troubles.
20 He sent His word and healed them, and rescued them from their pits.
21 Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy, and His wonders for the children of men.
22 Let them sacrifice thank offerings and tell of His works with joyful singing.

23 Some go out to the sea in ships, doing business on the mighty waters.
24 They saw the works of ADONAI, and His wonders in the deep.
25 For He spoke and raised a stormy wind, lifting up towering waves.
26 They mounted up to the sky and plunged down to the depths.
In their peril their souls melted away.
27 They reeled and staggered like a drunk, and all their skill was bewildered.
28 So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress, and He brought them out of their troubles.
29 He stilled the storm to a whisper— the waves were hushed.[81]
30 They were glad when it became calm, and He led them to their desired haven.
31 Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy, and His wonders to the children of men.

32 Let them exalt Him in the congregation of the people, and praise Him at the assembly of elders.

33 He turns rivers into a wilderness and springs of water into thirsty ground, 34 and a fruitful land into a salt waste, because of the evil of its inhabitants.
35 He turns a desert into a pool of water, a dry land into springs of water.
36 There He brings the hungry to live, and they establish a city for a dwelling.
37 So they sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.
38 He blesses them, they multiply greatly, and He does not let their herds diminish, 39 after they were few and crushed by oppression,
calamity and sorrow.

40 He pours contempt on princes, making them wander
in trackless waste.
41 But He lifts the needy high above affliction, and makes their families like a flock.
42 The upright see it and are glad, and all iniquity shuts its mouth.
43 Who is wise?
Let him observe these things,
and consider ADONAI'S lovingkindness.

With God We Do Valiantly Psalm 108

1 A song, a psalm of David.
2 My heart is steadfast, O God.
I will sing, sing praises with all my soul.
3 Awake, harp and lyre— I will awaken the dawn!
4 I will give thanks to You, ADONAI, among the peoples, I will sing praises to You among the nations.
5 For Your love is higher than the heavens, Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
6 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, let Your glory be above all the earth.
7 Let Your beloved ones be delivered.
Save with Your right hand, answer me!

8 God has spoken in His Sanctuary: “I will triumph! I will parcel out Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succot.
9 Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine.
Also Ephraim is a helmet for My head,
Judah is my scepter.
10 Moab is My washbowl.
I throw my shoe on Edom.
I shout in triumph over Philistia.”

11 Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
12 O God, have You not spurned us?
Will You go out no more with our armies?
13 Give us help against the adversary— for useless is deliverance through man.
14 With God we will do valiantly— and He will trample our foes.

Prayer Against an Accuser

Psalm 109

1 For the music director, a psalm of David.
O God of my praise, be not silent.
2 For the wicked and the deceitful have opened their mouth against me.
They spoke to me with a lying tongue,
3 with hateful words surrounded me, and fought against me without cause.
4 In return for my love they are my accusers, but I am in prayer.
5 They repay me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

6 Set a wicked man over him, let an accuser[82] stand at his right hand.
7 When he is judged, let him be found guilty,
and may his prayer be as sin.
8 Let his days be few, let another take his position.
9 May his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
10 Let his children wander and beg and may they search in their ruins.
11 Let a creditor seize all he has, and may strangers plunder his labor.
12 Let no one show him mercy, or take pity on his fatherless children.
13 Let his posterity be cut off, and his name be blotted
out in the next generation.
14 May the guilt of his fathers be remembered before ADONAI, the sin of his mother never blotted out.
15 Let their sins be before ADONAI continually, that He may cut off the memory of them from the earth.
16 For he never remembered to show mercy.

But he persecuted a poor and needy man,
crushed in spirit, to put him to death.
17 How he loved cursing— may it fall on him!
He had no pleasure in blessing—
may it be far from him!
18 He wore cursing like his robe, until it filled his belly like water, and his bones like oil.
19 May it be like a cloak wrapped around him, like a belt tied around him always.
20 Let this be ADONAI's reward to my accusers, and to those who speak evil against me.

21 But You, ADONAI my Lord, deal with me for Your Name's sake.
Because Your lovingkindness is good, deliver me.
22 For I am afflicted and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
23 I fade away like an evening shadow, shaken off like a locust.
24 My knees totter from fasting, and my flesh is lean,
with no fat.
25 And I have become a taunt to them.
When they see me, they wag their head.
26 Help me, ADONAI my God, Save me through Your lovingkindness.
27 Let them know that it is Your hand— that You,
ADONAI, have done it.
28 They may curse, but You bless.
When they arise, they will be ashamed,
but Your servant will rejoice.
29 My accusers will be clothed in disgrace, and wrapped in shame as in a cloak.
30 I will greatly thank ADONAI with my mouth, and in the midst of a throng will I praise Him.

31 For He stands at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who condemn his soul.

My Lord is a Kohen Forever Psalm 110

1 A psalm of David.
ADONAI declares to my Lord: “Sit at My right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for Your feet.”[83]
2 ADONAI will extend your mighty rod from Zion: “Rule in the midst of your enemies.”[84]
3 Your people will be a freewill offering in a day of your power.
In holy splendors, from dawn’s womb,
yours is the dew of your youth.
4 ADONAI has sworn, and will not His mind: “You are a Kohen forever according to the order of Melchizedek.”[85]
5 My Lord is at your right hand.
He will shatter kings in the day of His wrath.
6 He will judge among the nations, heaping up corpses.
He will crush heads over the entire land.
7 He will drink from a stream along the way —so His head will be exalted.

The Beginning of Wisdom Psalm 111

1 Halleluyah! I praise ADONAI with all my heart in the company and congregation of the upright.
2 Great are the works of ADONAI— searched out by all who delight in them.
3 Glorious and majestic is His work, and His righteousness endures forever.
4 He made His wonders memorable.
ADONAI is gracious and full of compassion.
5 He gives food to those who fear Him.
He remembers His covenant forever.
6 He shows His people His powerful deeds, giving them
the heritage of the nations.
7 The works of His hands are truth and justice.
All His precepts are trustworthy—
8 they are upheld forever and ever, made in truth and uprightness.
9 He has sent redemption to His people.
He has ordained His covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is His Name.
10 The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of wisdom.
All who follow His precepts have good understanding.
His praise endures forever!

Blessed is the Righteous Man Psalm 112

1 Halleluyah! Happy is the man who fears ADONAI, who delights greatly in His mitzvot.
2 His offspring will be mighty in the land.
The generation of the upright will be blessed.
3 Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.
4 Light shines in the darkness for the upright.
Gracious, compassionate and just is he.
5 Good comes to a man who is gracious and lends.
He will order his affairs with fairness.
6 Surely he will never be shaken.
The righteous are remembered forever.
7 He is not afraid of bad news— his heart is steadfast, trusting in ADONAI.
8 His heart is secure, he will not fear— until he gazes on his foes.
9 He gives freely to the poor.
His righteousness endures forever.
His horn is lifted high in honor.
10 The wicked will see it and be indignant.
He will gnash with his teeth and waste away.
The desire of the wicked will perish.

From the Rising of the Sun

Psalm 113

1 Halleluyah! Praise, O servants of ADONAI, praise the Name of ADONAI.
2 Blessed be the Name of ADONAI
from now and forever.
3 From the rising of the sun to its going down
the Name of ADONAI is to be praised.
4 ADONAI is high above all nations,
His glory is above the heavens.
5 Who is like ADONAI our God,
enthroned on high,
6 who brings Himself down to look upon heaven and upon earth?
7 He raises the poor from the dust,
lifts up the needy out of the dunghill,
8 to seat him with princes,
with the princes of His people.
9 He settles the barren woman in her home
as a joyful mother of children.
Halleluyah!

Passover Song

Psalm 114

1 When Israel came out of Egypt, Jacob's house from a people foreign-speaking, 2 Judah became His Sanctuary, Israel His dominion.
3 The sea saw and fled, the Jordan turned back.
4 The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.
5 Why was it, O sea, that you fled?
O Jordan, that you turned back?
6 O mountains, that you skipped like rams?
O hills, like lambs?
7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob, 8 who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of water.

Bless the Maker of Heaven and Earth Psalm 115

1 Not to us, ADONAI, not to us, but to Your Name be the glory— because of Your love and Your faithfulness.
2 Why should the nations say: “Where is their God
now?”
3 Our God is in the heavens— He does whatever pleases
Him!
4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of human
hands.
5 They have mouths, but cannot speak; eyes, but cannot
see.
6 They have ears, but cannot hear; noses, but cannot smell.
7 They have hands, but cannot feel; feet, but cannot walk,
nor utter a sound with their throat.
8 Those making them will become like them —everyone trusting in them.

9 O Israel, trust in ADONAI— He is their help and their shield!
10 O house of Aaron, trust in ADONAI— He is their help
and their shield!
11 O you who fear ADONAI, trust in ADONAI— He is their help and their shield!
12 ADONAI has been mindful of us, He will bless:
He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron; 13 He will bless those who fear ADONAI, the small together with the great.
14 May ADONAI increase you more and more —you and your children.
15 May you be blessed by ADONAI, Maker of heaven and
earth.

16 The heavens are the heavens of ADONAI, but the earth
He gave to the children of men.
17 The dead do not praise ADONAI, nor do any who go down into silence.
18 But we—we will bless ADONAI
both now and forever. Halleluyah!

Lift Up the Cup of Salvation

Psalm 116

1 I love ADONAI, for He hears my voice, my cries.
2 Because He has turned His ear to me, I will call on Him all my days.
3 The ropes of death entangled me, and the torments of Sheol found me.
I found trouble and sorrow.
4 Then I called upon the Name of ADONAI: “ADONAI, save my soul!”
5 ADONAI is gracious and righteous— yes, our God is compassionate.
6 ADONAI protects the simple-hearted.
When I was brought low, He saved me.
7 Return to your rest, my soul, for ADONAI has been good
to you.
8 For You delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears,
my feet from stumbling.
9 I will walk before ADONAI
in the lands of the living.
10 I trusted even when I said, “I am very afflicted”—
11 even when I said in my haste, “All men are liars.”
12 How can I repay ADONAI
for all His bounties to me?
13 I will lift up the cup of salvation, and call on the Name of ADONAI.
14 I will fulfill my vows to ADONAI
in the presence of all His people.
15 Precious in the sight of ADONAI is the death of His kedoshim.

16 O ADONAI! Surely I am Your servant.
I am Your servant,
the son of Your maidservant.
You have freed me from my bonds.
17 To You I will offer a sacrifice of praise, and will call on the Name of ADONAI.
18 I will fulfill my vows to ADONAI
in the presence of all His people,
19 in the courts of the House of ADONAI, in your midst, O Jerusalem. Halleluyah!

Praise Him, All You Nations

Psalm 117

1 Praise ADONAI, all you nations!
Glorify Him, all you peoples.
2 For great is His lovingkindness toward us,
and ADONAI'S truth endures forever.
Halleluyah!

His Chesed Endures Forever Psalm 118

1 Praise[86] ADONAI, for He is good.
For His lovingkindness endures forever.
2 O let Israel say: For His lovingkindness endures
forever.
3 O let the house of Aaron say: For His lovingkindness
endures forever.
4 O let those who fear ADONAI say: For His
lovingkindness endures forever.

5 Out of a tight place I called on ADONAI— ADONAI answered me with a spacious place.
6 ADONAI is for me—I will not fear!
What can man do to me?
7 ADONAI is for me, as my helper.
I will see the downfall of those who hate me.
8 It is better to take refuge in ADONAI
than to trust in man.
9 It is better to take refuge in ADONAI
than to trust in princes.
10 All nations surrounded me— in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
11 They surrounded me, yes, all around me— in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
12 They swarmed around me like bees— they were extinguished like burning thorns— in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
13 You pushed me hard to make me fall, but ADONAI helped me.
14 ADONAI is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation.[87]
15 Shouts of joy and victory are in the tents of the righteous: "ADONAI'S right hand is mighty![88]

16 ADONAI’S right hand is lifted high!
ADONAI’S right hand is mighty!”

17 I will not die, but live, and proclaim what ADONAI has done!
18 ADONAI has chastened me hard, but has not given me over to death.

19 Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and praise ADONAI.
20 This is the gate of ADONAI— the righteous will enter through it.[89]
21 I give You thanks, because You have answered me and have become my salvation.
22 The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone.[90]
23 It is from ADONAI: it is marvelous in our eyes!
24 This is the day that ADONAI has made!
Let us rejoice and be glad in it!
25 Hoshia-na! Please, ADONAI, save now!
We beseech You, ADONAI, prosper us!
26 Baruch haba b’Shem ADONAI— Blessed is He who comes in the Name of ADONAI.[91]
We bless you from the House of ADONAI.
27 ADONAI is God, and He has given us light.
Join the festival with branches, up to the horns of the altar.[92]
28 You are my God, and I praise You.
You are my God—I exalt You!
29 Praise ADONAI, for He is good, for His lovingkindness endures forever.

Learn Torah Letter by Letter Psalm 119

ALEPH א

1 Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the Torah of ADONAI.
2 Happy are those who keep His testimonies, who seek Him with a whole heart,
3 who also do no injustice, but walk in His ways.
4 You have commanded that Your precepts be kept diligently.
5 Oh that my ways were steadfast to observe Your decrees!
6 Then I would not be ashamed, when I consider all
Your mitzvot.
7 I will praise You with an upright heart as I learn Your righteous judgments.
8 I will observe Your statutes.
Never abandon me utterly!

BET ב

9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
By guarding it according to Your word.
10 With my whole heart have I sought You —let me not stray from Your mitzvot.
11 I have treasured Your word in my heart, so I might not sin against You.
12 Blessed are You, ADONAI.
Teach me Your statutes.
13 With my lips I rehearse all the rulings of Your mouth.
14 I rejoice in the way of Your testimonies above all wealth.
15 I will meditate on Your precepts, and regard Your ways.

16 I will delight in Your decrees.
I will never forget Your word.

GIMEL ג

17 Do good to Your servant that I may live and keep Your word.
18 Open my eyes, so I may behold wonders from Your Torah.
19 I am a temporary dweller on earth— do not hide Your mitzvot from me.
20 My soul is crushed with longing for Your judgments
at all times.
21 You rebuke the proud, who are cursed, who wander
from Your mitzvot.
22 Take scorn and contempt away from me, for I have kept Your testimonies.
23 Though princes sit and talk against me, Your servant
meditates on Your decrees.
24 For Your testimonies are my delight— they are also my counselors.

DALET ד

25 My soul clings to the dust.
Revive me according to Your word!
26 I told of my ways and You answered me.
Teach me Your statutes.
27 Help me discern the way of Your precepts, so I may meditate on Your wonders.
28 My soul weeps with grief.
Make me stand firm with Your word.
29 Turn me away from the deceitful way, and be gracious to me with Your Torah.
30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness.

I have set my heart on Your judgments.
31 I cling to Your testimonies.
ADONAI, do not put me to shame!
32 I run the course of Your mitzvot, for You open wide my heart.

HEY ה

33 Teach me the way of Your decrees, ADONAI, and I will follow them to the end.
34 Give me understanding, that I may keep Your Torah and observe it with all my heart.
35 Help me walk in the path of Your mitzvot— for I delight in it.
36 Turn my heart to Your testimonies and not to dishonest gain.
37 Turn my eyes away from gazing at vanity but revive me in Your ways.
38 Fulfill Your word to Your servant, which leads to reverence for You.
39 Make the disgrace I dread pass away, for Your judgments are good.
40 Behold, I long for Your precepts.
Revive me by Your righteousness.

VAV ו

41 May Your lovingkindnesses come to me, ADONAI—
Your salvation according to Your word—
42 so I may answer the one taunting me, for I trust in Your word.
43 Never snatch out of my mouth a word of truth, for I hope in Your judgments.
44 So I may always keep Your Torah, forever and ever,
45 and walk about in freedom.

For I have sought Your precepts.
46 I will speak of Your testimonies before kings, and never be ashamed.
47 I delight in Your mitzvot, which I love.
48 I reach out my hands for Your mitzvot, which I love, and meditate on Your decrees.

ZAYIN ז

49 Remember the word to Your servant, on which You have made me hope.
50 My comfort in my affliction is this: Your word has kept me alive.
51 The arrogant have viciously ridiculed me, yet I did not turn away from Your Torah.
52 I remember Your judgments from of old, ADONAI, and comfort myself.
53 Burning indignation grips me, because of the wicked
who forsake Your Torah.
54 Your decrees have become my songs in the house where I dwell.
55 In the night I remember Your Name, ADONAI, and keep watching over Your Torah.
56 This is my own: that I keep Your precepts.

CHET ח

57 ADONAI is my portion.
I promised to guard Your words.
58 I have entreated Your favor with all my heart.
Be gracious to me according to Your word.
59 I have considered my ways and turned my feet back to Your testimonies.
60 I hasten and do not delay to obey Your mitzvot.

61 The ropes of the wicked are coiled around me, but I did not forget Your Torah.
62 At midnight I rise to praise You, because of Your righteous rulings.
63 I am a companion of all who fear You, of those who observe Your precepts.
64 The earth is full of Your lovingkindness.
ADONAI—teach me Your decrees.

TET ט

65 You do good to Your servant, ADONAI, according to Your word.
66 Teach me good sense and knowledge, for I trusted in Your mitzvot.
67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word.
68 You are good and keep doing good— teach me Your decrees.
69 Though the proud smeared a lie on me, with all my heart I keep Your precepts.
70 Their minds are insensible, but Your Torah is my delight.
71 It is good for me that I was afflicted, so that I may learn Your decrees.
72 The Torah from Your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

YOD י

73 Your hands have made me and formed me.
Give me understanding that I may learn Your mitzvot.
74 Those in awe of You see me and rejoice, because I put my hope in Your word.
75 I know, ADONAI, Your judgments are just.
In faithfulness You have afflicted me.

76 May Your lovingkindness comfort me, according to Your promise to Your servant.
77 Let Your tender mercies reach me, Let me live, for Your Torah is my delight.
78 May the proud be put to shame for wronging me with a lie,
but I will meditate on Your precepts.
79 Let those in awe of You return to me— those who know Your testimonies.
80 My heart will have integrity in following Your decrees, so that I would not be ashamed.

KAF כ

81 My soul faints with longing for Your salvation, but I still hope in Your word.
82 My eyes are worn out longing for Your promise, saying, “When will You comfort me?” 83 Though I became like a wineskin dried in smoke, I do not forget Your decrees.
84 How many are the days of Your servant?
When will You execute judgment on my persecutors?
85 The proud have dug pits for me— that is not in accord with Your Torah!
86 All Your mitzvot are faithful.
They persecute me with a lie—help me!
87 They almost finished me off on earth.
But I—I will not forsake Your precepts.
88 Revive me with Your lovingkindness, so I may keep Your mouth’s testimony.

LAMED ל

89 Forever, ADONAI, Your word stands firm in the heavens.

90 Your faithfulness endures from generation to generation.
You established the earth, and it stands.
91 Your judgments stand today, for all things are Your servants.
92 If Your Torah had not been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.
93 I will never forget Your precepts.
For with them You have kept me alive.
94 I am Yours, save me!
For I have sought out Your precepts.
95 The wicked wait for me to destroy me.
But I will study Your testimonies.
96 I have seen a limit to all perfection, yet Your commandment is boundless.

MEM מ

97 O how I love Your Torah!
It is my meditation all day.
98 Your mitzvot make me wiser than my enemies —for they are mine forever.
99 I have more insight than all my teachers, for Your testimonies are my meditation.
100 I have gained more understanding than all my elders, for I have kept Your precepts.
101 I kept my feet from every evil way, in order to follow
Your word.
102 I do not turn away from Your rulings, for You Yourself have taught me.
103 How sweet is Your word to my taste— yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
104 From Your precepts I get discernment, therefore I hate every false way.

NUN נ

105 Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.[93]
106 I have sworn and confirmed to observe Your righteous rulings.
107 I am severely afflicted.
Keep me alive, ADONAI, according to Your word.
108 Please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, ADONAI, and teach me Your rulings.
109 My soul is continually in danger, yet I have not forgotten Your Torah.
110 The wicked have set a snare for me, yet I did not stray from Your precepts.
111 Your testimonies I have as a heritage forever, for they are my heart's joy.
112 I turned my heart to do Your decrees, forever, to the very end.

SAMECH ס

113 I hate double-minded ones, but Your Torah I love.
114 You are my hiding place and my shield —in Your word I hope.
115 Away from me, evildoers, so I may keep the mitzvot of my God!
116 Sustain me according to Your word, so I may live, and let me not be ashamed of my hope.
117 Support me and I will be saved, and study Your decrees continually.
118 You despise all who wander from Your decrees, for their deceitfulness is in vain.
119 All the wicked of the earth You remove like dross.
Therefore I love Your testimonies.
120 My flesh shudders for fear of You, and I am in awe of Your judgments.

AYIN ע

121 I did what is just and right.
Do not leave me to my oppressors.
122 Guarantee Your servant's well-being.
Do not let arrogant ones oppress me.
123 My eyes fail, longing for Your salvation and for Your righteous word.
124 Deal with Your servant as befits Your lovingkindness, and teach me Your statutes.
125 I am Your servant, give me discernment, so I may understand Your testimonies.
126 It is time for ADONAI to act— they have violated Your Torah!
127 Therefore I love Your mitzvot more than gold, more than pure gold.
128 Therefore I esteem all Your precepts as right in every way —every false way I hate.

PE פ

129 Your testimonies are wonderful.
Therefore my soul obeys them.
130 The unfolding of Your words gives light, giving understanding to the simple.
131 I opened my mouth wide and panted, for I longed for Your mitzvot.
132 Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is fitting to those who love Your Name.
133 Direct my footsteps in Your word, and let no iniquity get mastery over me.
134 Redeem me from human oppression, and I will keep Your precepts.
135 Make Your face shine on Your servant, and teach me
Your decrees.

136 Streams of water run down from my eyes, because they do not observe Your Torah.

TZADHE צ

137 Righteous are You, ADONAI, and Your judgments are upright.
138 You have commanded righteousness, Your testimonies, and great faithfulness.
139 My zeal has consumed me, because my foes forgot
Your words.
140 Your word is thoroughly refined, and Your servant
loves it.
141 I am insignificant and despised, yet I have not forgotten Your precepts.
142 Your justice is righteousness forever, and Your Torah is truth.
143 Trouble and anguish have overtaken me, yet Your mitzvot are my delight.
144 Your testimonies are righteous forever —make me understand, so I may live.

KOF ק

145 I cried out with all my heart, “Answer me, ADONAI!
I will keep Your decrees.”
146 I cried out to You, “Save me, and I will keep Your testimonies.”
147 I am up before dawn, crying for help— I put my hope in Your word.
148 My eyes are up before every night watch, as I meditate on Your word.
149 Hear my voice with Your lovingkindness.
Revive me, ADONAI, with Your judgments.
150 Pursuers of wicked schemes draw near— they are far from Your Torah.

151 You are near, ADONAI, and all Your mitzvot are truth.
152 Long ago I learned from Your testimonies that You founded them firmly forever.

RESH ר

153 See my affliction and rescue me, for I do not forget Your Torah.
154 Defend my cause and redeem me.
Restore my life through Your word.
155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek after Your decrees.
156 Great are Your mercies, ADONAI.
Restore my life with Your judgments.
157 Many are my persecutors and my foes.
Yet I do not turn from Your testimonies.
158 I see the treacherous and loathe them, because they do not keep Your word.
159 See how I loved Your precepts.
Restore my life, ADONAI, with Your lovingkindness.
160 Truth is the essence of Your word, and all Your righteous rulings are eternal.

SHIN ש

161 Princes persecute me for no reason, but my heart is in awe of Your words.
162 I rejoice in Your word, as one who finds great spoil.
163 I hate and abhor falsehood, but Your Torah I love.
164 Seven times a day I praise You, because of Your righteous judgments.
165 Great peace have they who love Your Torah, and nothing causes them to stumble.
166 I hope for Your salvation, ADONAI, and do Your mitzvot.

167 My soul has observed Your testimonies and I love them exceedingly.
168 I observe Your precepts and Your laws, for all my ways are before You.

TAV ת

169 Let my cry come to You, ADONAI.
Grant me understanding by Your word.
170 Let my supplication come before You.
Deliver me, according to Your promise.
171 My lips utter praise, for You teach me Your statutes.
172 My tongue sings of Your word, for all Your mitzvot are righteous.
173 Let Your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen
Your precepts.
174 I long for Your deliverance, ADONAI, and Your Torah
is my delight.
175 Let my soul live and praise You, and may Your rulings help me.
176 I have strayed like a lost sheep—seek Your servant.
For I did not forget Your mitzvot.

I Am for Shalom Psalm 120

[1] A Song of Ascents.
In my trouble I cried out to ADONAI, and He answered me.
[2] ADONAI, deliver my soul from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue.
[3] What can be given to you, and what more can be done to you, O deceitful tongue?— [4] sharp arrows of the mighty, with burning coals of a broom tree!
[5] Woe to me, for I sojourn in Meshech, for I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
[6] My soul has too long dwelt with those who hate shalom.
[7] I am for shalom and thus I speak, but they are for war!

He Watches Over You

Psalm 121

1 A Song of Ascents.
I will lift up my eyes to the mountains— from where does my help come?
2 My help comes from ADONAI, Maker of heaven and
earth.
3 He will not let your foot slip.
Your Keeper will not slumber.
4 Behold, the Keeper of Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps.
5 ADONAI is your Keeper.
ADONAI is your shadow at your right hand.
6 The sun will not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.
7 ADONAI will protect you from all evil.
He will guard your life.
8 ADONAI will watch over your coming and your going from this time forth and forevermore.

Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem

Psalm 122

1 A Song of Ascents. Of David.
I rejoiced when they said to me,
"Let us go to the House of ADONAI."
2 Our feet are standing in your gates, Jerusalem—
3 Jerusalem, built as a city joined together.
4 There the tribes go up, the tribes of ADONAI
—as a testimony to Israel—
to praise the Name of ADONAI.
5 For there thrones for judgment are set up, the thrones
of the house of David.
6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem— "May those who love you be at peace!
7 May there be shalom within your walls— quietness within your palaces."
8 For the sake of my brothers and friends, I now say:
"Shalom be within you."
9 For the sake of the House of ADONAI our God, I will seek your good.

Be Gracious to Your Servants Psalm 123

1 A Song of Ascents.
To You I lift up my eyes—
You enthroned in the heavens.
2 Behold, as the eyes of slaves to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a slave-girl to the hand of her mistress— so our eyes look to ADONAI our God, till
He shows us favor.
3 Show us favor, ADONAI, show us favor!
For we have endured much contempt.
4 Our soul has had enough of the scorn of those at ease,
the contempt of the proud.

Had He Not Been on Our Side Psalm 124

[1] A Song of Ascents. Of David.
"Had ADONAI not been on our side"
—let Israel now say—
[2] "Had ADONAI not been on our side, when men rose up
against us,
[3] then they would have swallowed us alive, when their wrath burned against us.
[4] Then the waters would have engulfed us, the torrent would have swept over our soul, [5] then the raging waters would have swept over our soul."

[6] Blessed be ADONAI, who has not given us as prey for their teeth.
[7] Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the snare of the trappers— the snare is broken, and we escaped!
[8] Our help is in the Name of ADONAI, Maker of heaven and earth.

Like the Mountains Around Jerusalem Psalm 125

1 A Song of Ascents.
Those who trust in ADONAI are like Mount Zion— it cannot be moved, but endures forever.
2 As the mountains are around Jerusalem, so ADONAI is all around His people, both now and forever.
3 For a scepter of wickedness will not rest over the land of the righteous— lest the righteous set their hands
to evil.
4 Do good, ADONAI, to the good, and to those upright in their hearts.
5 But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways,
ADONAI will lead them away with evildoers.
Shalom be upon Israel.

Joyful Restoration of Zion Psalm 126

1 A Song of Ascents.
When ADONAI restored the captives of Zion, it was as if we were dreaming.
2 Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with a song of joy.
Then they said among the nations, “ADONAI has done great things for them.”
3 ADONAI has done great things for us —we are joyful!
4 Restore us from captivity, ADONAI, like streams in the Negev.
5 Those who sow in tears will reap with a song of joy.
6 Whoever keeps going out weeping, carrying his bag of seed,
will surely come back with a song of joy, carrying his sheaves.

He Gives Sleep to His Children Psalm 127

[1] A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.
Unless ADONAI builds the house, the builders labor in vain.
Unless ADONAI watches over the city, the watchman stands guard in vain.
[2] In vain you rise up early and stay up late, eating the bread of toil— for He provides for His beloved ones even in their sleep.

[3] Behold, children are a heritage of ADONAI
—the fruit of the womb is a reward.
[4] As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of one's youth.
[5] Happy is the man whose quiver is full of them.
They will not be put to shame
when they speak with their enemies at the gate.

Blessing on Those Who Fear God

Psalm 128

1 A Song of Ascents.
Happy is everyone in awe of ADONAI, who walks in His ways,
2 for you will eat the labor of your hands.

You will be blessed
and it will be good for you.
3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house.
Your children will be like olive saplings around your table.
4 Behold, thus will the man be blessed who fears ADONAI.
5 May ADONAI bless you out of Zion, and may you see Jerusalem in prosperity all the days of your life,
6 and may you live to see your children's children.

Shalom be upon Israel!

Haters Won’t Prevail

Psalm 129

1 A Song of Ascents.
“How many times they have been hostile to me, even from my youth”—let Israel now say— 2 “How greatly they have been hostile to me, even from my youth.
Yet they have not prevailed against me.
3 Plowmen plowed on my back— they made their furrows long!”
4 ADONAI is righteous— He has cut the ropes of the wicked.
5 May all who hate Zion be driven back in disgrace.
6 Let them be like grass on the roofs, which withers before it springs up— 7 with it a reaper cannot fill his hand, nor can a binder of sheaves fill his lap.
8 So the passersby may never say: “The blessing of ADONAI be upon you— we bless you in the Name of ADONAI.”

Forgiveness and Full Redemption Psalm 130

1 A Song of Ascents.
Out of the depths I cry to You, ADONAI!
2 Lord, hear my voice!
Let Your ears be attentive to the sound of my supplications.
3 If You, ADONAI, kept a record of iniquities— my Lord, who could stand?
4 For with You there is forgiveness, so You may be revered.
5 I wait for ADONAI, my soul waits, and in His word I hope.
6 My soul waits for my Lord, more than watchmen for the morning, watchmen for the morning.
7 O Israel, wait for ADONAI.
For with ADONAI there is lovingkindness, and with Him is full redemption, 8 and He will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Be Still My Soul

Psalm 131

1 A Song of Ascents. Of David.
ADONAI, my heart is not proud, nor my eyes lofty,
nor do I go after things too great or too difficult for me.
2 But I have calmed and quieted my soul— like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me.
3 O Israel, put your hope in ADONAI
from this time forth and forever.

Promise of Ben-David Psalm 132

1 A Song of Ascents.
ADONAI, remember David, all his afflictions,
2 and how he swore to ADONAI, vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
3 “I will not enter the tent of my house nor lie on my bed,
4 nor will I will give sleep to my eyes, nor slumber to my eyelids,
5 till I find a place for ADONAI, a dwelling for the Mighty
One of Jacob.”

6 Behold, we heard of it in Ephratha, we found it in the fields of Joar.
7 Let us go into His dwelling place, let us bow at His footstool.
8 Arise, ADONAI, to Your resting place— You, and the Ark of Your might.
9 Let Your kohanim wear righteousness, and let Your godly ones sing for joy.
10 For Your servant David’s sake do not turn away the face of Your anointed.[94]

11 ADONAI has sworn to David a true promise He will not revoke:
“From the fruit of your body
I will set one upon your throne—[95]
12 if your children keep My covenant and My law that I will teach them,
then their sons will sit on your throne forever.”

13 For ADONAI has chosen Zion, He has desired it for His dwelling:
14 “This is My resting place forever.

Here I dwell, for I have desired it.
15 I will abundantly bless her food.
I will satisfy her needy ones with bread.
16 I will clothe her kohanim with salvation, and her godly ones will sing aloud for joy.
17 There will I make a horn spring up for David,[96]
I have set up a lamp for My anointed.
18 His enemies I will clothe with shame, but upon himself his crown will shine.”

Blessing of Unity

Psalm 133

1 A Song of Ascents. Of David.
Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers
to dwell together in unity!
2 It is like the precious oil upon the head, coming down upon the beard—Aaron’s beard— coming down on the collar of his robes.
3 It is like the dew of Hermon, coming down upon the mountains of Zion.
For there ADONAI commanded the blessing —life
forevermore!

Call to Evening Worship Psalm 134

1 A Song of Ascents.
Behold, bless ADONAI, all servants of ADONAI, who stand by night in the House of ADONAI.
2 Lift up your hands to the Sanctuary and bless ADONAI.
3 May ADONAI bless you out of Zion— Maker of heaven
and earth.

Jacob as His Treasure

Psalm 135

1 Halleluyah! Praise the Name of ADONAI.
Give praise, O servants of ADONAI— 2 standing in the House of ADONAI, in the courts of the House of our
God.
3 Praise ADONAI, for ADONAI is good.
Sing praises to His Name, for it is delightful.
4 For ADONAI has chosen Jacob for Himself, Israel as His treasured possession.[97]
5 For I have known that ADONAI is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.
6 Whatever ADONAI pleases, He does, in heaven and in
earth,
in the seas and in all deeps.
7 He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain.
He brings wind out of His storehouses.

8 He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, both man and beast.
9 He sent signs and wonders among you, O Egypt, on Pharaoh and all his servants.
10 He struck down many nations and slew mighty kings:
11 Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan, 12 and gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance
to His people Israel.

13 ADONAI, Your Name endures forever, Your renown, ADONAI, from generation to generation.

14 For ADONAI will vindicate His people, and have compassion on His servants.
15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of human hands.
16 They have mouths, but cannot speak, eyes, but cannot see;
17 they have ears, but cannot hear, nor is there any breath in their mouths.
18 Those who make them will be like them— so will all who keep trusting in them.

19 O house of Israel, bless ADONAI!
O house of Aaron, bless ADONAI!
20 O house of Levi, bless ADONAI!
You who revere ADONAI, bless ADONAI!
21 Blessed be ADONAI out of Zion, who dwells in Jerusalem. Halleluyah!

His Chesed Endures Forever!

Psalm 136

1 Praise ADONAI, for He is good, for His lovingkindness
endures forever.
2 Praise the God of gods,
for His lovingkindness endures forever.
3 Praise the Lord of lords,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
4 who alone did great wonders, for His lovingkindness
endures forever,
5 who made the heavens by wisdom, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
6 who spread the earth on the waters, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
7 who made great lights,
for His lovingkindness endures forever—
8 the sun to rule by day,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
9 the moon and stars to rule by night, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
10 who struck Egypt in their firstborn, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
11 and led out Israel from among them, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
12 with a strong hand and outstretched arm, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
13 who cut the Sea of Reeds into parts, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
14 and made Israel pass through the midst of it, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
15 but hurled Pharaoh and his army into the Sea of Reeds, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

16 who led His people through the desert, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
17 who struck down great kings, for His lovingkindness
endures forever,
18 and slew mighty kings,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
19 Sihon, king of the Amorites, for His lovingkindness
endures forever,
20 and Og, king of Bashan,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
21 and gave their land for an inheritance, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
22 an inheritance for Israel His servant, for His
lovingkindness endures forever.
23 He remembered us in our lowly estate, for His
lovingkindness endures forever,
24 and separated between us and He delivered us from our adversaries,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
25 who gives food to all flesh, for His lovingkindness
endures forever.
26 Praise the God of heaven, for His lovingkindness
endures forever!

By the Rivers of Babylon Psalm 137

1 By the rivers of Babylon, we sat down and wept,
when we remembered Zion.
2 On the willows there we hung up our harps.
3 For there our captors demanded songs and our tormentors asked for joy: “Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”
4 How can we sing a song of ADONAI in a foreign land?
5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand wither.
6 May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth if I cease to remember you,
if I do not set Jerusalem above my chief joy.
7 Remember, ADONAI, the children of Edom, what they said on the day Jerusalem fell: “Strip her, strip her to her very foundation!”
8 O daughter of Babylon, the devastated one, happy is the one who repays you
as you have paid us.
9 Happy is the one who seizes your little ones and dashes them upon the rock.

Your Right Hand Delivers Me

Psalm 138

1 Of David.
I praise You with all my heart.
In the presence of the mighty I will sing praises to You.
2 I bow down toward Your holy Temple and praise Your Name for Your love and Your faithfulness.
For You—magnified above all Your Name and Your word.
3 On the day I called, You answered me.
You made me bold with strength in my soul.
4 All the kings of the earth will praise You, ADONAI, when they hear Your mouth's speech.
5 So they will sing of the ways of ADONAI, for great is the glory of ADONAI.
6 For though ADONAI is exalted, yet He looks upon the lowly,
but the haughty He knows from afar.
7 Though I walk amid trouble, You revive me.
You stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand delivers me.
8 ADONAI will fulfill His purpose for me.
Your lovingkindness, ADONAI, endures forever.
Do not abandon the work of Your hands.

How Precious Your Thoughts!

Psalm 139

1 For the music director: a psalm of David.
ADONAI, You searched me and know me.
2 Whenever I sit down or stand up, You know it.
You discern my thinking from afar.
3 You observe my journeying and my resting and You are familiar with all my ways.
4 Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, ADONAI,
You know all about it.
5 You hemmed me in behind and before, and laid Your hand upon me.
6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.
7 Where can I go from Your Ruach?
Where can I flee from Your presence?
8 If I go up to heaven, You are there, and if I make my bed in Sheol, look, You are there too.
9 If I take the wings of the dawn and settle on the other side of the sea,
10 even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will lay hold of me.
11 If I say: “Surely darkness covers me, night keeps light at a distance from me,” 12 even darkness is not dark for You, and night is as bright as day— darkness and light are alike.
13 For You have created my conscience.
You knit me together in my mother’s womb.
14 I praise You, for I am awesomely, wonderfully made!
Wonderful are Your works—
and my soul knows that very well.

15 My frame was not hidden from You when I was made in the secret place,
when I was woven together in the depths of the
earth.
16 Your eyes saw me when I was unformed, and in Your book were written the days that were formed—when not one of them had come to be.
17 How precious are Your thoughts, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
18 Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand!
When I awake, I am still with You.

19 If only You would slay the wicked, O God!
Away from me, you bloody men!
20 For they speak about You with wicked intent.
Your enemies reproach You in vain.
21 Do I not hate those who hate You, ADONAI?
Do I not loathe those who rise against You?
22 I hate them with total hatred— I consider them my enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart.
Examine me, and know my anxious thoughts, 24 and see if there be any offensive way within me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Protection from the Wicked

Psalm 140

1 For the music director: a psalm of David.
2 Rescue me, ADONAI, from the evil man.
Protect me from the violent men—
3 who devise evil in their heart— every day they stir up wars.
4 They sharpen their tongue like a serpent's —viper's venom is under their lips.[98] Selah 5 Keep me safe, ADONAI, from the clutches of the wicked.
Protect me from the man of violence who planned to push me off my feet.
6 The proud have hidden a trap and cords for me.
They spread out a net by the path.
They set snares for me. Selah
7 I said to ADONAI: "You are my God!"
Hear, ADONAI, the sound of my supplications.
8 God my Lord, the strength of my deliverance, You shield my head in the day of battle.
9 Grant not, ADONAI, the desires of the wicked.
Do not let their evil plan succeed, or they will exalt themselves. Selah 10 As for the head of those surrounding me, may the mischief of their lips overwhelm them.
11 Let burning coals fall upon them.
May they be cast into the fire, into deep pits,
never to rise again.[99]
12 May a slanderer not endure in the land.
May calamity hunt down a violent man.
13 I know ADONAI will vindicate the poor, and secure justice for the needy.

14 Surely, the righteous ones will praise Your name.
The upright will dwell in Your presence.

Evening Petition for Protection Psalm 141

[1] A psalm of David.
ADONAI, I call to You—come quickly to me!
Hear my voice when I call to You.
[2] May my prayer be set before You like incense.
May the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.
[3] Set a guard, ADONAI, over my mouth.
Keep watch over the door of my lips.
[4] Let not my heart turn to any evil thing, to practice deeds of wickedness with men that work iniquity,
nor let me eat of their delicacies.
[5] Let the righteous strike me—it is kindness.
Let him correct me—it is oil on my head
—my head will not refuse it.
Yet still my prayer is against their wickedness.
[6] Their judges are thrown down from a cliff.
Then they will hear my words, since they are sweet.
[7] As when one plows and breaks open the earth, so our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.
[8] For my eyes are toward You, God my Lord.
In You I have taken refuge—do not expose my soul.
[9] Keep me from the jaws of the trap they have laid for me, and from the snares of the evildoers.
[10] Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by safely.

A Refuge from Trouble Psalm 142

1 A contemplative poem of David, when he was in the cave, a prayer.
2 I cry aloud with my voice to ADONAI.
With my voice I seek favor from ADONAI.
3 I pour out my complaint before Him, before Him I tell my trouble.
4 When my spirit grows faint within me, You know my path.
In the way where I walk they have hidden a trap for
me.
5 Look at my right hand and see, for no one cares about
me.
I have no refuge—
no one cares for my soul.
6 I have cried out to You, ADONAI.
I said: “You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.”
7 Listen to my cry, for I am brought very low.
Rescue me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.
8 Bring my soul out of prison, so I may praise Your Name.
The righteous will triumph through me, for You will reward me.

Hide Not Your Face from Me Psalm 143

1 A psalm of David.
Hear my prayer, ADONAI, give ear to my petitions.
In Your faithfulness and Your righteousness, answer me!
2 Do not bring Your servant into judgment, for in Your eyes no one living is righteous.
3 For an enemy pursues my soul.
He crushes my life down to the ground.
He makes me dwell in darkness, like those long dead.
4 So my spirit grows faint within me.
My heart is shocked within me.
5 I remember the days of old.
I meditate on all You have done.
I ponder the work of Your hands.
6 I spread forth my hands to You.
My soul longs for You as a parched land. Selah
7 Answer me speedily, ADONAI—my spirit fails.
Hide not Your face from me,
lest I become like those who go down into the Pit.
8 Make me hear Your lovingkindness in the morning, for in You I trust.
Show me the way I should go,
for to You I lift up my soul.
9 Deliver me from my enemies, ADONAI.
I hide myself in You.
10 Teach me to do Your will, for You are my God.
Let Your good Ruach lead me on level ground.
11 For Your Name's sake, ADONAI, revive me.
In Your justice bring my soul out of trouble.
12 In Your mercy cut off my enemies and destroy all who harass my soul,

for I am Your servant.

Rescue from Battle

Psalm 144

1 Of David.
Blessed be ADONAI my Rock— who trains my hands for war,
my fingers for battle.
2 He is my lovingkindness, my fortress, my strong tower, and my deliverer, my shield, in whom I take refuge,
who subdues my people under me.
3 ADONAI, what is man, that You take note of him?
Or the son of man, that You consider him?[100]
4 Man is like a breath— his days are like a passing shadow.
5 ADONAI, part Your heavens and come down.
Touch the mountains, so they smoke.
6 Flash forth lightning and scatter them.
Send out Your arrows and confuse them.
7 Stretch forth Your hands from on high.
Snatch me, deliver me out of deep waters, out of the hand of foreigners,
8 whose mouth speaks falsehood, whose right hand is a right hand of deceit.
9 God, I sing a new song to You, on a ten-string harp I sing praises to You— 10 who gives salvation to kings, who rescues Your servant David from the evil sword.
11 Snatch me, deliver me out of the hand of foreigners,
whose mouth speaks falsehood,
whose right hand is a right hand of deceit.
12 Then our sons will be like plants nurtured in their youth, our daughters like corner pillars carved for the construction of a palace.

13 Our storehouses are full, supplying every kind of produce.

Our flocks increase by thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
14 Our oxen bear a heavy load.
There is no breach,
no going into captivity,
no outcry in our streets.
15 Happy are such a people!
Blessed are the people whose God is ADONAI!

Glory of the Kingdom

Psalm 145

[1] A psalm of praise. Of David.
I will exalt You, my God, the King,
and I will bless Your Name forever and ever.
[2] Every day I will bless You, and praise Your Name
forever and ever!
[3] Great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised —His greatness is unsearchable.
[4] One generation will praise Your works to another and declare Your mighty acts.
[5] I will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty and Your wonders.
[6] They will speak of the might of Your awesome deeds,
and I will proclaim Your greatness.
[7] They will pour out the renown of Your great goodness,
and sing joyfully of Your righteousness.
[8] ADONAI is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and great in lovingkindness.
[9] ADONAI is good to all.
He has compassion on all His creatures.
[10] All Your works praise You, ADONAI, and Your kedoshim bless You.
[11] They declare the glory of Your kingdom and speak of Your might,
[12] to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts and the glory of the majesty of His kingdom.
[13] Your kingdom is a kingdom for all ages, and Your dominion endures from generation to generation.

[14] ADONAI upholds all who fall and raises up all who are bowed down.

15 The eyes of all look to You and You give them their food on time.
16 You open Your hand and satisfy every living thing
with favor.
17 ADONAI is righteous in all His ways and kind in all His
deeds.
18 ADONAI is near to all who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth.
19 He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him.
He will hear their cry and save them.
20 ADONAI watches over all who love Him, but all the wicked He will destroy.
21 My mouth declares the praise of ADONAI.
Let all flesh bless His holy Name forever and ever!

Justice of the Kingdom

Psalm 146

1 Halleluyah! Praise ADONAI, O my soul!
2 I will praise ADONAI all my life.
I will praise my God yet again.
3 Do not put your trust in princes—
in man, in whom there is no salvation.
4 His breath departs,
he returns to his dust.
In that very day his plans perish.
5 Happy is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in ADONAI his God, 6 who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them,
who keeps truth forever,
7 who executes justice for the oppressed,
who gives bread to the hungry.
ADONAI sets the prisoners free.
8 ADONAI opens the eyes of the blind.[101]
ADONAI raises up those who are bowed down.
ADONAI loves the righteous.
9 ADONAI protects outsiders, upholds the fatherless and the widow,
but thwarts the way of the wicked.
10 ADONAI will reign forever,
your God, O Zion, from generation to generation.
Halleluyah!

He Builds Up Jerusalem

Psalm 147

1 Halleluyah!
How good it is to sing praises to our God.
How pleasant and fitting is praise.
2 ADONAI builds up Jerusalem.
He gathers together the exiles of Israel.
3 He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
4 He determines the number of the stars.
He gives them all their names.
5 Great is our Lord and mighty in power— His understanding is infinite!
6 ADONAI upholds the humble.
He brings the wicked to the ground.
7 Sing to ADONAI with thanksgiving.
Sing praises to our God on the harp.
8 He covers the sky with clouds.
He provides rain for the earth.
He makes grass sprout on the hills.
9 He gives food to the cattle and to the young ravens which cry.
10 He delights not in the horse's strength, nor takes pleasure in a man's legs.
11 ADONAI delights in those who revere Him, in those who trust in His lovingkindness.

12 Exalt ADONAI, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!
13 For He strengthens the bars of your gates.
He blesses your children within you.

14 He puts shalom within your borders.
He satisfies you with the finest wheat.
15 He sends earth His command— His word runs swiftly.
16 He gives snow like wool.
He scatters frost like ashes.
17 He hurls down His hail like pebbles— who can stand before His cold?
18 He sends forth His word and melts them.
He makes His wind blow and waters flow.
19 He declares His word to Jacob, His decrees and His rulings to Israel.
20 He has not done so with any other nation.
They have not known His judgments.
Halleluyah!

Praise Him, All Creation!

Psalm 148

1 Halleluyah!
Praise ADONAI from the heavens!
Praise Him in the highest!
2 Praise Him all His angels!
Praise Him all His armies.
3 Praise Him, sun and moon!
Praise Him, all stars of light.
4 Praise Him, highest heavens, and waters above the heavens.
5 Let them praise the Name of ADONAI, for He commanded and they were created.
6 He set them in place forever and ever.
He made a decree that will never pass away.
7 Praise ADONAI from the earth, sea monsters and all depths,
8 fire and hail, snow and vapor, storm wind doing His bidding,
9 mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars,
10 beasts and all cattle, crawling things and winged birds,
11 kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of earth, 12 both young men and maidens, old men and children.
13 Let them praise the Name of ADONAI, for His Name alone is exalted.
His glory is above earth and heaven.
14 He has raised up a horn for His people, a praise for all His kedoshim,[102]
for the children of Israel—a people near to Him.

Halleluyah!

Praise with Singing and Dancing

Psalm 149

1 Halleluyah! Sing to ADONAI a new song, His praise in the assembly of the kedoshim.
2 Let Israel rejoice in its Maker.
Let the children of Zion be glad in their King.
3 Let them praise His Name with dancing.
Let them sing praises to Him with tambourine and harp.
4 For ADONAI takes pleasure in His people.
He crowns the humble with salvation.
5 Let the kedoshim exult in glory.
Let them sing for joy on their beds.
6 Let God's high praises be in their mouth and a two-edged sword in their hand— 7 to execute vengeance
upon the nations and rebukes on the peoples, 8 to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron,
9 to carry out the sentence decreed— this is the glory of all His kedoshim.
Halleluyah!

Praise with Shofar and Cymbals Psalm 150

1 Halleluyah! Praise God in His Sanctuary!
Praise Him in His mighty expanse.
2 Praise Him for His acts of power.
Praise Him for His enormous greatness.
3 Praise Him with the blast of the shofar.
Praise Him with harp and lyre.
4 Praise Him with tambourine and dance.
Praise Him with string instruments and flute.
5 Praise Him with clash of cymbals.
Praise Him with resounding cymbals.
6 Let every thing that has breath praise ADONAI.
Halleluyah!

The Value of Wise Sayings

Proverbs 1 [1] The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:
[2] to acquire wisdom and discipline, to understand the words of insight,
[3] to receive instruction in wise behavior, righteousness,
justice and fairness,
[4] to give discernment to the naïve, knowledge and discretion to the youth [5] (let the wise listen and increase learning and the discerning obtain wise counsel) [6] to understand a proverb and a puzzle, the sayings of the wise and their riddles.

The Wisdom of Parents

7 The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline.
8 Hear, my son, your father’s instruction and forsake not your mother’s teaching.
9 For they are a garland of grace for your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

Avoid a Bloodthirsty Gang

10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not give in.
11 Suppose they say: “Come with us!
Let’s lie in wait for blood!
Let’s ambush the innocent—for no reason!
12 Let’s swallow them alive like Sheol— still healthy, as they go down to the Pit!
13 We’ll find all sorts of valuable things, we’ll fill our homes with loot!
14 Throw your lot in with us— we’ll all have one wallet.”
15 My son, do not go along with them, keep your foot from their path— 16 for their feet run to evil and they are swift to shed blood.
17 Surely it is useless to spread a net in the eyes of all winged creatures!
18 But they lie in wait for their own blood.
They ambush their own lives.
19 Such is the fate of all gaining by violence.
It takes the life of its possessor.

Wisdom Calls, But Who Listens?

20 Wisdom calls aloud in the streets, she raises her voice in public squares.
21 She cries out above the commotion.
At the entrances of the city gates, she utters her speech: 22 “How long will you naïve ones love simplicity, you scoffers delight in scoffing,
and you fools hate knowledge?
23 You are repulsed at my rebuke.
Behold, I pour out my heart to you.
I will make my words known to you.

24 Because you refused when I called, and did not pay attention when I stretched out my hand, 25 since you ignore all my advice and would not accept my rebuke,
26 I in turn will laugh at your calamity.
I will mock when dread comes on you, 27 when your terror comes like a storm and your calamity sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when trouble and distress overwhelm you!
28 Then they will cry out to me, but I will not answer!
They will earnestly seek me, but will not find me.
29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of ADONAI, 30 they would not accept my counsel, they spurned all my reproof, 31 so they will eat the fruit of their own way and be filled with their own schemes.
32 For the backsliding of the naïve will kill them and the complacency of fools will destroy them.
33 But whoever pays attention to me will live securely,
and be free from the fear of evil.”

Seek Treasures of Wisdom

Proverbs 2

1 My son, if you accept my words and treasure my mitzvot within you, 2 making your ear attentive to wisdom, inclining your heart to discernment, 3 yes, if you call out for insight, lifting up your voice for discernment,
4 if you seek her as silver and search for her as for hidden treasures,
5 then you will know the fear of ADONAI
and discover the knowledge of God.
6 For ADONAI gives wisdom.[1]
Out of His mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright.
He is a shield to those who walk in integrity.
8 He guards the paths of justice, and protects the way of His kedoshim.
9 Then you will discern what is right and just and fair—
every good path.
10 For wisdom will enter your heart and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
11 Discretion will watch over you —discernment will guard you— 12 to deliver you from the way of evil,
from those speaking perverse things, 13 who leave the straight paths to walk in ways of darkness,
14 who rejoice in doing wrong and delight in the perversity of evil, 15 whose paths are crooked and are devious in their ways— 16 to deliver you from a seducing woman— a wayward wife with seductive words, 17 who forsakes the partner of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God.

18 For her house sinks down to death and her tracks to the dead.
19 None who go to her return nor reach the paths of life.
20 So you will walk in the way of good men and keep to the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright will dwell in the land and the blameless will remain in it.
22 But the wicked will be cut off from the land and the treacherous uprooted from it.

In All Your Ways Acknowledge Him

Proverbs 3

1 My son, do not forget my teaching,[2]
but let your heart keep my mitzvot.
2 For length of days and years of life,
and shalom they will add to you.

3 Let kindness and truth never leave you—bind them around your neck,
write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Then you will gain favor and a good name
in the eyes of God and man.
5 Trust in ADONAI with all your heart,
lean not on your own understanding.
6 In all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He will make your paths straight.

7 Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear ADONAI and turn away from evil.
8 It will be healing to your body
and refreshment to your bones.

9 Honor ADONAI with your wealth
and with the first of your entire harvest.
10 Then your barns will be filled with plenty,
your vats will overflow with new wine.

Discipline as the Father's Love

11 My son, never despise ADONAI'S discipline or dread His correction.
12 For ADONAI loves those He reproves, even as a father, the son in whom he delights.[3]

Precious Pearls, A Tree of Life

13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom and the man who gains understanding.
14 For her trade-value is better than silver,
and her yield better than fine gold.
15 She is more precious than jewels
and nothing you desire compares to her.
16 Length of days is in her right hand.
In her left hand are riches and honor.
17 Her ways are pleasant ways,
and all of her paths are shalom.
18 She is a tree of life to those who embrace her,
and blessed will be all who hold firmly to her.

19 By wisdom ADONAI founded the earth.
By understanding He established the heavens.
20 By His knowledge the deeps were divided,
and the clouds drip dew.

21 My son, hold on to sound wisdom and discernment,
do not let them out of your sight.
22 They will be life to your soul,
and an ornament to grace your neck.
23 Then you will walk on your way in safety,
and your foot will not stumble.
24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
25 Have no fear of sudden terror,
or of the devastation of the wicked when it comes.
26 For ADONAI will be your confidence and will keep your foot from a snare.

27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in your power to act.

28 Do not say to your neighbor,
“Come back later—I’ll give it tomorrow,” when you have it with you.
29 Do not plot evil against your neighbor
while he lives trustfully beside you.
30 Do not quarrel with a man for no reason
—if he has done you no harm.
31 Do not envy a violent man or choose any of his ways.
32 For the devious are detestable to Adonai,
but He takes the upright into His confidence.
33 Adonai’s curse is on a wicked house,
but He blesses a righteous home.
34 Though He scoffs at the scoffers,
He gives grace to the humble.[4]
35 The wise inherit honor,
but fools are held up in disgrace.

A Father's Lesson: Get Wisdom!

Proverbs 4

1 Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction.
Pay attention, to gain understanding.
2 For I give you sound learning— do not forsake my instruction.
3 When I was a son to my father, tender and special to my mother,
4 he taught me and said to me: "Lay hold of my words in your heart,
keep my commands and you will live!
5 Get wisdom! Get understanding!
Do not forget nor turn away from the words of my
mouth.
6 Do not forsake her, and she will guard you.
Love her, and she will watch over you.
7 Wisdom is supreme—acquire wisdom!
With all your acquisitions, get understanding.
8 Prize her, and she will exalt you.
She will honor you when you embrace her.
9 She will set a garland of grace on your head.
She will give you a crown of glory."

Ways of Wisdom and Wickedness 10 Listen, my son, and accept my words, so the years of your life will be many.

11 I instructed you in the way of wisdom.
I have guided you along straight paths.
12 When you walk, your step will not be hindered, and when you run, you will not stumble.
13 Hold on tightly to instruction, do not let it go— guard it, for it is your life.

14 Do not enter the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evil people.
15 Avoid it—do not travel on it— turn away from it and pass by.
16 For they cannot sleep until they do evil.
They are robbed of sleep until they make someone fall.
17 For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
18 The path of the righteous is like the light of dawn,
shining brighter and brighter until the full day.
19 The way of the wicked is like darkness.
They do not know what makes them stumble.
20 My son, pay attention to my words— incline your ear
to my sayings.
21 Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within
your heart.
22 For they are life to those who find them and health to their whole body.
23 Guard your heart diligently, for from it flow the springs of life.
24 Put away perversity from your mouth, and keep devious lips far from you.
25 Let your eyes look directly ahead, and fix your gaze straight in front of you.
26 Clear a level path for your feet, so all your ways will be firm.
27 Do not turn to the right or to the left.
Divert your foot from evil.

Beware Seduction

Proverbs 5

1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Incline your ear to my insight,
2 that you may maintain discretion and your lips may preserve knowledge.
3 For a seducing woman's lips drip honey and her mouth is smoother than oil.
4 But in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a double-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death, her steps lead straight to Sheol.
6 She does not keep straight to the path of life, her paths are crooked
—but she does not know it.
7 So now, my sons, listen to me and do not turn aside from the words of my mouth.
8 Keep your path far from her and do not go near the door of her house— 9 lest you give your strength to others and your years to one who is cruel;
10 lest strangers feast on your strength, your labors go to a foreigner's house.
11 At the end of your life, you will groan, when your flesh and body are spent— 12 and you will say, "How I hated discipline!
How my heart spurned reproof!
13 I would not listen to my teacher's voice or incline my ear to my instructors.
14 I was almost in utter ruin amid the community and congregation."
15 Drink water from your own cistern and running water from your own well.

16 Should your springs flow in the streets, your streams
of water in public squares?
17 Let them be yours alone and not shared with strangers.
18 May your fountain be blessed and may you delight in the wife of your youth.
19 A lovely hind, a graceful doe— may her breasts satisfy you always,
may you always be captivated by her love.
20 Why, my son, be captivated by a seducing woman?
Why embrace a foreigner’s bosom?

21 For a man’s ways are before the eyes of ADONAI, and
He observes all his paths.
22 The iniquities of a wicked man will ensnare him.
The cords of his sin will hold him down.
23 He will die for lack of discipline, led astray by his own great folly.

Economic Entanglements

Proverbs 6

1 My son, if you have become a cosigner for your neighbor, if you have shaken hands in pledge with a stranger, 2 if you are trapped by your own words, ensnared by the words of your mouth, 3 then do this, my son, and free yourself, since you fell into your neighbor's hand:
Go, humble yourself, plead with your neighbor!
4 Allow no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.
5 Escape like a gazelle from the hunter's hand, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

Laziness and Perversity

6 Go to the ant, you slacker— consider its ways and be wise!
7 It has no commander, no overseer or ruler.
8 Yet it prepares its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest.

9 How long will you lie there, slacker?
When will you get up from your sleep?
10 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep— 11 and your poverty comes like a bandit and your need like an armed man.

12 A scoundrel, a wicked man, is one who goes around with a perverse mouth, 13 winking his eyes, shuffling his feet, pointing his fingers, 14 who continually plots evil with deceit in his heart stirring up strife.
15 Therefore his disaster will come suddenly —in an instant he will be broken, with no remedy.
16 Six things ADONAI hates, yes, seven are abominations
to Him:
17 haughty eyes, a lying tongue,
hands that shed innocent blood, 18 a heart that plots wicked schemes, feet that run to evil,
19 a false witness who spouts lies, and one who stirs up strife among brothers.

A Father's Warning Against Adultery 20 My son, keep your father's mitzvah, and forsake not your mother's teaching.

21 Bind them on your heart continually— tie them around your neck.
22 When you walk, they will guide you.

When you lie down, they will watch over you, and when you wake up, they will speak to you.
23 For the mitzvah is a lamp, Torah a light, and corrective discipline the way of life, 24 keeping you from the immoral woman, from a wayward wife’s smooth tongue.
25 Do not lust in your heart after her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyelids.
26 For on account of a prostitute one is reduced to a loaf of bread; a man’s wife preys on your precious life.
27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap without burning his clothes?
28 Or can a man walk upon hot coals without scorching
his feet?
29 So is he who goes to another man’s wife.
No one who touches her will go unpunished.
30 Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is starving.
31 Yet if he is caught, he must repay sevenfold, giving up all the wealth of his house.
32 He who commits adultery with a woman lacks sense.
Whoever does so destroys himself.
33 He will find disease and disgrace.
His shame will never be wiped away.
34 For jealousy enrages a man and he will show no mercy in the day of revenge.
35 He will not accept any compensation, he will not consent,
even if your bribe is great.

Treasure Torah's Teaching

Proverbs 7

1 My son, keep my words and treasure my mitzvot within you.
2 Keep my mitzvot and live, my teaching as the apple of your eye.
3 Bind them on your fingers, write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
and call understanding your relative.

5 They will keep you from a seducing woman, from the foreign woman with her seductive speech.
6 For at the window of my house I looked out through my lattice.
7 I saw among the naïve, I noticed among the youth,
a young man lacking understanding, 8 crossing the street near her corner, walking in the direction of her house, 9 in the twilight of the evening, in the darkest hours of the night.
10 All of a sudden, a woman meets him, dressed as a prostitute and with a cunning heart.
11 She is loud and defiant.
Her feet never stay at home—12 now in the streets, now in the squares, at every corner she lurks.
13 So she grabs him and kisses him and with a brazen face says to him:
14 "I had to sacrifice fellowship offerings; today I paid
my vow.
15 So I've come out to meet you, to seek your presence eagerly—and I found you!

16 I have spread my couch with tapestry of dyed Egyptian linens.
17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18 Come, let’s drink our fill of love till morning!
Let’s delight ourselves with love.
19 For my husband is not at home— he’s gone on a long journey.
20 He took a bag of money with him— he won’t come home until full moon.”
21 With her persistent pleading she entices him, with smooth talk she seduces him.
22 Suddenly he follows her like an ox going to the slaughter,
like a stag bounding toward a trap,
23 till an arrow pierces its liver.
Like a bird darting into a snare,
he never considered his own soul!

24 Now then, sons, listen to me, pay attention to the words of my mouth.
25 Do not let your heart turn to her ways or stray onto her paths.
26 For many are the victims she has brought down, and numerous are all her slain.
27 Her house is a highway to Sheol, leading down to the chambers of death.

Wisdom Appeals at the Gates

Proverbs 8

1 Does not wisdom cry out, and understanding lift her voice?
2 On the topmost heights along the way, at the crossroads, she takes her stand.
3 Beside the gates leading into the city, at the entrances, she cries aloud:
4 “To you, O men, I call out!
My cry is to all mankind!
5 O naïve ones, learn prudence!
Fools, gain understanding!
6 Listen, for I speak excellent things, and my lips utter right things.
7 For my mouth speaks truth, and my lips detest
wickedness.
8 All the words of my mouth are righteous, Nothing in them is perverse or crooked.
9 All of them are straightforward to the discerning, and right to those who find knowledge.
10 Receive my instruction instead of silver and knowledge rather than choice gold.
11 For wisdom is better than jewels, nothing you desire compares with her.

12 “I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and acquire knowledge with discretion.
13 To fear ADONAI is to hate evil.
I hate pride and arrogance,
evil behavior and a perverse mouth.
14 Counsel and sound wisdom are mine.
I have understanding and power.
15 By me kings reign and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes govern, and all nobles who judge righteously.
17 I love those who love me.
Those who earnestly seek me find me.[5] 18 With me are wealth and honor, enduring riches and righteousness.
19 My fruit is better than refined gold, my harvest better than choice silver.
20 I walk in the way of righteousness, along paths of justice.
21 I endow substance to those who love me and fill their treasuries.

Wisdom Before Creation

22 “ADONAI brought me forth, the first of His way, before His works of old.
23 From eternity I was appointed from the beginning,
before the world began.
24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth,
when there were no fountains abounding with water.
25 Before the mountains were shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth.
26 He had not yet made the land, the fields, or the first dust of the earth.
27 When He set the heavens in place, I was there.
When He inscribed the horizon on the face of the ocean, 28 when He established the skies above,
when He securely fixed the fountains of the deep, 29 when He set the boundaries for the sea, so that the waters never transgress His command, when He laid out earth’s foundations— 30 then I was the craftsman beside Him, I was His daily delight, always rejoicing before Him, 31 rejoicing in His whole world, and delighting in mankind.

32 “So now, children, listen to me!
Blessed are those who keep my ways.
33 Heed discipline and be wise, and do not neglect it.
34 Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily
at my gates,
waiting at my doorposts.
35 For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor
from ADONAI.
36 But whoever fails to find me harms his life— all who hate me love death.”

Wisdom and Folly Invite

Proverbs 9

1 Wisdom has built her house.
She has carved out her seven pillars.
2 She has slaughtered her meat, she has mixed her wine;
she has also set her table.
3 She has sent out her servant girls.
She calls from the city's heights:
4 "Whoever is naïve, turn in here!"
To those who lack understanding, she says: 5 "Come,
eat my bread and drink the wine I have mixed.
6 Abandon your foolish ways and live!
Walk in the way of understanding."
7 Whoever corrects a scoffer is asking for insult.
Whoever reproves a wicked man gets abuse.
8 Do not correct a scoffer or he will hate you.
Rebuke a wise man and he will love you.
9 Instruct a wise man and he will be wiser still.
Teach a righteous man and he will increase in learning.
10 The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of wisdom and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
11 For through me your days will be many and years will be added to your life.
12 If you are wise, you are wise to your own advantage,
but if you scoff, you bear it alone.

13 The foolish woman is rowdy.
She is naïve and knows nothing.
14 So she sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the heights of the city,

15 calling to those who pass by, who go straight on their way:
16 “Whoever is naïve, let him turn in here.”
To those who lack understanding, she says: 17 “Stolen water is sweet and bread eaten in secret is delicious!”
18 But he does not know that the dead are there— her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

Diligence and Laziness

Proverbs 10 1 The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son gives joy to his father,
but a foolish son grief to his mother.

2 Ill-gotten treasures profit nothing, but righteousness delivers from death.

3 ADONAI will not let a righteous soul go hungry, but thwarts the cravings of the wicked.

4 Lazy hands make a man poor, but diligent hands bring wealth.

5 He who gathers crops in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son.

Sayings of the Mouth Matter

6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
7 The memory of the righteous is a blessing, but the name of the wicked will rot.
8 The wise in heart accept commands, but a babbling fool comes to ruin.
9 One who walks in integrity, walks securely, but one who takes crooked paths will be discovered.
10 One who winks an eye maliciously causes grief, while a babbling fool comes to ruin.
11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
12 Hatred stirs up strife but love covers up all transgressions.
13 Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning, but a rod is for the back of one lacking sense.
14 Wise men store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool is near ruin.
15 The wealth of a rich man is a strong city.
Poverty is the ruin of the poor.
16 The wages of the righteous are life.
The income of the wicked is sin.[6] 17 One who heeds discipline is on the path of life, but whoever ignores correction goes astray.
18 One who conceals hatred has lying lips, and whoever spreads slander is a fool.
19 When words abound, transgression is unavoidable.
but whoever restrains his lips is wise.
20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver.
The heart of the wicked is of little value.
21 The lips of the righteous feed many, but fools die for lack of understanding.

Dread or Hope

22 The blessing of ADONAI brings wealth and He adds no trouble with it.
23 As doing wickedness is delight to a fool, so is wisdom
to a man of discernment.
24 What the wicked dread will fall on them.
The desire of the righteous will be given.
25 When the whirlwind passes, the wicked are no more,
but the foundation of the righteous is everlasting.
26 Like vinegar to the teeth or smoke to the eyes, so is a slacker to those who send him.
27 The fear of ADONAI prolongs life, but the years of the wicked are cut short.
28 The prospect of the righteous is joy, but the hope of the wicked perishes.
29 The way of ADONAI is a stronghold to the upright, but it is a ruin to those who do evil.
30 The righteous will never be uprooted, but the wicked
will not dwell in the land.
31 The mouth of the righteous bears the fruit of wisdom,
but a perverse tongue will be cut out.
32 The lips of the righteous know what is pleasing, but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

Integrity of Scales and Soul

Proverbs 11

1 Dishonest scales are an abomination to ADONAI, but an accurate weight is His delight.
2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with the humble is wisdom.
3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous will destroy them.
4 Riches make no profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.
5 The righteousness of the blameless man makes his way straight, but the wicked man is brought down
by his wickedness.
6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the treacherous are trapped by their desire.

Righteousness Builds Up a City

7 When the wicked dies, his hope perishes, and the hope of the strong vanishes.
8 The righteous is rescued from trouble.
Instead it comes on the wicked.
9 With his mouth the ungodly destroys his neighbor, but through knowledge the righteous will be delivered.
10 When the righteous do well, a city rejoices.
When the wicked perish, there are shouts of joy.
11 Through the blessing of the upright a city is exalted,
but by the mouth of the wicked it is destroyed.

12 One who despises his neighbor lacks sense, but one with discernment remains silent.

13 A gossip reveals secrets, but one who is trustworthy conceals a matter.
14 Without guidance people fall, with many counselors
there is deliverance.

15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will have trouble, but whoever avoids shaking hands on such a deal is secure.

Rewards for Righteous or Ruthless

16 A gracious woman gains honor, but ruthless men seize riches.
17 A kind man does his own soul good, but a cruel man harms his own flesh.
18 The wicked earn deceptive wages, but a sower of righteousness reaps a true reward.
19 Steadfast righteousness leads to life, but pursuing evil ends in death.
20 Perverse hearts are an abomination to ADONAI.
His favor is on those blameless in their ways.
21 Be sure,[7] the evil will not go unpunished, but the offspring of the righteous will be delivered.
22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
23 The desire of the righteous is only good, but the hope of the wicked only wrath.
24 One gives freely, yet gains even more.
Another withholds unjustly, and comes to poverty.
25 A soul who blesses will prosper, and one who gives water will himself be satisfied.
26 People curse anyone withholding grain, but blessing is on the head of one who dispenses it.
27 A person who diligently seeks good finds favor, but to one who searches for evil, evil comes to him!
28 Whoever trusts in his riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf.
29 Whoever troubles his own household will inherit wind, and the fool will be a servant to the wise-hearted.
30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and whoever wins souls is wise.

31 If the righteous is rewarded on earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner![8]

The Righteous and the Wicked

Proverbs 12

1 Whoever loves knowledge loves correction,
but whoever hates reproof is stupid.

2 A good man obtains favor from ADONAI, but He condemns a person with evil schemes.
3 No one is made secure by wickedness, but a righteous root will not be moved.

4 A virtuous wife is her husband's crown, but a dishonoring one is like rottenness in his bones.

5 The plans of the righteous are just, but the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.
6 The words of the wicked lie in wait for blood, but the mouth of the upright delivers them.
7 The wicked are overthrown and are no more, but the household of the righteous will stand.
8 A man is praised according to his insight, but one with a twisted mind is despised.
9 Better to have little honor and a servant than to have glory and no bread.

Caring for Animals and Land

10 A righteous person cares for the life of his animal, yet even the compassion of the wicked is cruel.
11 The one who works his land will have plenty of food,
but whoever chases daydreams lacks sense.
12 The wicked covets the loot of evil men, but the root of the righteous flourishes.

Fruit of Mouth

13 An evil one is ensnared by the sin of lips, but the righteous one escapes trouble.
14 By the fruit of his mouth a man will be satisfied with good.
The work of a man’s hands will reward him.

15 A fool’s way is right in his own eyes, but the wise listen to advice.
16 A fool shows his irritation immediately, but a prudent person overlooks an insult.

17 A trustworthy witness tells what is right, but a false witness, deceit.
18 Reckless speech is like the thrusts of a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.
19 Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue for only a moment.
20 Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil, but those promoting shalom have joy.
21 No harm befalls the righteous, but the wicked are full of misery.
22 Lying lips are detestable to Adonai, but those who act faithfully are His delight.
23 A clever person conceals his knowledge, but the heart of a fool blurts out folly.

Diligence or Sloth

24 The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy will become forced labor.
25 An anxious heart weighs one down, but a good word
cheers him up.
26 The righteous gives his friend guidance, but the way of the wicked leads astray.
27 A lazy person does not roast his game, but a diligent person prizes his possessions.
28 In the path of righteousness is life— it is a path to immortality.

Guard the Way of Integrity

Proverbs 13

1 A wise son heeds his father’s discipline, but a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

2 From the fruit of a man’s mouth he enjoys good things, but the treacherous crave violence.

3 He who watches his mouth protects his life, but whoever opens wide his lips comes to ruin.

4 The slacker’s soul craves, yet has nothing, but the diligent soul will be satisfied.

5 A righteous person hates lying, but the wicked acts in shameful disgrace.
6 Righteousness guards one who walks in integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.

7 One pretends to be rich, yet has nothing; another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth.[9] 8 A man’s riches may ransom his life, but a poor person hears no threat.

9 The light of the righteous shines brightly.
The lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.

10 Arrogance yields nothing but strife.
Wisdom belongs to those who take advice.

11 Wealth gained by fraud dwindles, but he who gathers
by labor increases it.

12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but longing fulfilled is a tree of life.
13 Whoever despises instruction will pay a penalty, but whoever respects a mitzvah will be rewarded.

14 Wise instruction is a fountain of life, turning one away from snares of death.
15 Good understanding wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful is hard.
16 Everyone shrewd acts with knowledge, but a fool
flaunts folly.

The Wise and the Foolish

17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a faithful envoy brings healing.
18 He who spurns discipline comes to poverty and shame, but whoever accepts correction will be honored.

19 A desire fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools detest turning away from evil.
20 He who walks with wise men is wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.

21 Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards
the righteous.
22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.
23 The fallow field of the poor yields much food, but it is swept away by injustice.
24 He who spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him is diligent with discipline.[10]

25 The righteous eats to his heart's content, but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

Wisdom Builds Up, Folly Tears Down

Proverbs 14

1 A wise woman builds her house, but a foolish
one tears it down with her own hands.
2 The one who walks uprightly fears ADONAI, but one devious in his ways despises Him.
3 In the mouth of a fool is a rod for his back, but the lips of the wise protect them.

4 Where there are no oxen, the stalls are clean, but from the strength of the ox comes an abundant harvest.

5 A trustworthy witness does not lie, but a false witness breathes out lies.

6 A scoffer seeks wisdom yet finds none, but knowledge is easy to the discerning.
7 Walk away from a fool— for you will find no knowledge on his lips.
8 The wisdom of the prudent is to consider his way, but the folly of fools is deception.
9 Fools mock guilt of sin, but among the upright is goodwill.

10 The heart knows its own bitterness, and no one else can share its joy.

11 The house of the wicked will be demolished, but the tent of the upright will flourish.

12 There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end
is the way to death.

13 Even in laughter the heart may ache, and the end of joy may be grief.

14 A backsliding heart partakes of its ways, and a good man is rewarded for his.

15 The naïve believes every word, but the shrewd discerns his steps.
16 The wise fears and turns away from evil, but the fool is hotheaded and reckless.
17 One with a short temper acts foolishly, and one with crafty schemes is hated.
18 The naïve inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 Evil men will bow in the presence of the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

Poverty and Riches

20 The poor is hated even by his neighbor, but many are those who love the rich.
21 Whoever despises his neighbor sins, but whoever is gracious to the needy is blessed.
22 Indeed those who plot evil go astray but grace and truth come to those who plan good.
23 In all hard work there is profit, but mere talk leads only to poverty.
24 The crown of the wise is their riches, but the folly of fools is foolishness.

25 A truthful witness saves lives, but one who utters lies is treacherous.
26 In the fear of ADONAI one has strong confidence.
It will be a refuge for His children.
27 The fear of ADONAI is a fountain of life, turning one from the snares of death.

28 A large population is a king's glory, but lack of subjects is a prince's ruin.

29 One who is slow to anger shows great understanding, but a quick-tempered one exalts folly.
30 A tranquil heart is life to the body, but envy is rottenness to the bones.

31 The one who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honors
Him.

32 The wicked is brought down in his calamity yet the righteous has a refuge even in death.

33 Wisdom rests in the heart of the discerning, and even among fools she is known.
34 Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people.
35 The king shows favor toward a servant who acts wisely, but his wrath is on one who is disgraceful.

Tongue of the Wise

Proverbs 15

1 A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.
2 The tongue of the wise treats knowledge correctly,
but the mouth of fools spouts folly.
3 The eyes of ADONAI are everywhere, observing the wicked and the good.
4 A healing tongue is a tree of life, but a deceitful one crushes the spirit.
5 A fool despises his father's discipline, but one who accepts reproof is smart.
6 The house of the righteous has great wealth, but the income of the wicked brings trouble.
7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge, but not so the heart of fools.
8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to ADONAI, but the prayer of the upright pleases him.

Pursue Righteousness and Reproof 9 ADONAI detests the way of the wicked, but loves those who pursue righteousness.

10 Stern correction awaits one who forsakes the way.
One who hates reproof will die.
11 Sheol and Abaddon[11] are before ADONAI— how much more the hearts of people!
12 A mocker dislikes one who corrects him; he will not go to the wise.

Heart Attitude Matters

13 A joyful heart makes the face cheerful, but heartache
crushes the spirit.
14 A discerning heart seeks knowledge, but the mouth of fools feeds on folly.
15 All the days of the afflicted are bad, but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.
16 Better is little with the fear of ADONAI than great wealth with turmoil.
17 Better a meal of vegetables where there is love, than a fattened ox where there is hatred.
18 A hot-tempered man stirs up strife, but one who is slow to anger calms a quarrel.
19 The way of the slacker is a hedge of thorns, but the path of the upright is a highway.
20 A wise child brings joy to his father, but a foolish person despises his mother.
21 Folly is joy to one who lacks sense, but one with discernment walks straight.

22 Plans fail when there is no counsel, but with many advisers they succeed.
23 A person has joy in an appropriate answer— how good is a timely word.

24 The path of life leads upward for the wise to keep him from going down to Sheol.

25 ADONAI tears down a proud man’s house, but He maintains the widow’s boundary.

26 Evil thoughts are an abomination to ADONAI, but pleasant words are pure.

27 One greedy for gain troubles his household, but whoever hates bribes will live.

28 A righteous heart thinks before answering, but a wicked mouth blurts out evil things.

29 ADONAI is far from the wicked, but hears the prayer of
the righteous.[12]

30 Bright eyes bring joy to the heart.
Good news gives health to the bones.

31 One whose ear heeds a life-giving reproof dwells
among the wise.
32 Whoever avoids correction despises himself, but whoever heeds reproof acquires understanding.

33 The fear of ADONAI is the discipline of wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

Commit Your Heart to Adonai

Proverbs 16

1 The plans of the heart belong to man, but the tongue's answer is from Adonai.
2 All a man's ways are pure in his own eyes, but Adonai weighs the motives.
3 Commit whatever you do to Adonai, and your plans will succeed.
4 Adonai works everything out for his own purpose—
even the wicked for a day of disaster.
5 Adonai abhors all the proud in heart.
Be assured, they will not go unpunished.
6 By mercy and truth is iniquity atoned, and by the fear of Adonai one avoids evil.
7 When one's ways are pleasing to Adonai, he makes even his enemies be at peace with him.
8 Better a little with righteousness than much income without justice.
9 The heart of man plans his course, but Adonai directs his steps.

The Delights of a Just King

10 An oracle is on the lips of the king— let his mouth never be treacherous in judgment.
11 Honest balances and scales are Adonai's.
All the weights in a bag are His handiwork.
12 Wrongdoing is an abomination to kings, for a throne
is established by righteousness.
13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings.
He loves those who speak honestly.
14 A king's fury is like messengers of death, but a wise man will appease it.

15 In the light of a king’s face there is life, and his favor like a cloud of spring rain.

16 How much better to get wisdom than gold, to choose understanding rather than silver.

17 The highway of the upright avoids evil.
He who guards his way protects his life.

18 Pride goes before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall.
19 Better to be lowly in spirit with the afflicted than to share the spoil with the proud.

20 One prudent in a matter will find good Blessed is the one who trusts in ADONAI.
21 The wise in heart is called discerning, and sweetness of lips increases persuasiveness.
22 Insight is a fountain of life to one who has it, but folly leads to the discipline of fools.
23 A wise man’s heart teaches his mouth and adds persuasiveness to his lips.
24 Pleasant words are honeycomb—sweet to the soul
and healing to the bones.

25 There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end
is the way to death.

26 A laborer’s appetite works on his behalf, for his hunger drives him on.

Slow to Anger

27 A wicked scoundrel digs up evil, and on his lips is a scorching fire.[13]
28 A perverse person sows strife, and a gossip separates close friends.
29 A violent person lures his neighbor, leading him down
a path that is no good.
30 One who winks his eyes schemes deceit, one who purses his lips is bent on evil.

31 Gray hair is a crown of glory, found on the path of righteousness.

32 Better to be slow to anger than a mighty warrior.
One who controls his temper is better than one who conquers a city.
33 The lot is cast into the lap, but their very decision is
from ADONAI.

Beware Bribes and Rebellion

Proverbs 17

1 Better is dry crust with peace and quiet than a house full of feasting with strife.

2 A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son and will share the inheritance with the brothers.

3 A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold,
but ADONAI tests the heart.

4 An evildoer listens to wicked lips; a liar listens to a malicious tongue.

5 Whoever mocks the poor insults his Maker.
Whoever rejoices at calamity will not go unpunished.

6 Grandchildren are the crown of the elderly and the glory of children is their parents.

7 Arrogant lips are not fitting for a fool, much less lying lips for a ruler.
8 A bribe is a charm in the eyes of its owner.
Wherever he turns, he succeeds.

9 Whoever covers up an offense seeks love.[14]
Whoever repeats a matter separates close friends.

10 A rebuke makes a greater impression on a discerning person than a hundred lashes on a fool.

11 An evil man seeks only rebellion, and so a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

12 Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than to deal with a fool in his folly.

13 Whoever rewards evil for good— evil will never leave his house.

14 The beginning of strife is like letting out water— so stop a quarrel before it breaks out.

15 Acquitting the wicked and condemning the righteous:
both are an abomination to ADONAI.

16 Of what use is money in the hand of a fool since he has no intention of acquiring wisdom?

17 A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man lacking judgment shakes hands on a deal and puts up financial security for his neighbor.

19 He who loves sin loves strife.
One who builds a high gate invites destruction.

20 A perverse heart finds nothing good a devious tongue falls into trouble.

21 Whoever fathers a fool gets grief.
There is no joy for the father of a disgraceful son.

22 A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.

23 The wicked one receives a bribe in secret to pervert
the ways of justice.

24 Wisdom is before the person of understanding, but the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.
25 A foolish son is grief to his father and bitterness to her that bore him.

[26] Also, to punish a righteous person is not good, nor to beat up an honorable one for his integrity.
[27] One with knowledge restrains his words, and a discerning person stays calm.
[28] Even a fool, who keeps quiet, is considered wise, discerning, if he seals his lips.

A Fool's Big Mouth

Proverbs 18

1 One who isolates oneself seeks his own desire; he defies all sound judgment.
2 A fool finds no delight in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.
3 When wickedness comes, so does contempt, and with dishonor comes disgrace.
4 The words of one's mouth are deep waters, a fountain of wisdom, a flowing brook.
5 Showing partiality to the wicked is not good, nor is depriving the innocent of justice.
6 The lips of a fool enter into an argument and his mouth invites a beating.
7 A fool's mouth is his ruin, and his lips are a snare to his soul.
8 The words of a gossip are tasty morsels, going down into one's innermost being.

9 One who is slack in his work is brother to one who destroys.

10 The Name of ADONAI is a strong tower.
The righteous one runs into it and is set safely up high.
11 A rich person's wealth is a strong city or like a high wall—in his imagination.

12 Before ruin a person's heart is proud, but humility comes before honor.

13 One who answers before listening— that is his folly and his shame.

14 One's spirit sustains him through illness, but who can bear a crushed spirit?

15 A discerning heart gains knowledge, the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

Overcoming Opposition and Offenses 16 A man's gift makes room for him, and leads him before great men.

17 The first to state his case seems just, until another comes and cross-examines him.
18 Casting lots ends quarrels and decides between mighty opponents.
19 An offended brother is more formidable than a fortified city, and quarrels are like the bars of a fortress.

20 From the fruit of his mouth a man's stomach is filled — with the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.

21 Death and life are in the control of the tongue.
Those who indulge in it will eat its fruit.

22 Whoever finds a wife finds good, and receives favor
from ADONAI.

23 The poor request favor, but the rich answer harshly.

24 A man with many friends may be harmed by them, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Better to be Poor with Integrity

Proverbs 19

1 Better to be poor, walking with integrity,
than be a fool whose lips are corrupt.
2 Zeal without knowledge is not good,[15]
or to act hastily and miss the way.
3 A man’s folly undermines his way, and his heart rages against ADONAI.
4 Wealth adds many friends, yet a poor man is deserted by his friend.
5 A false witness will not go unpunished, one who breathes lies will not escape.
6 Many seek the favor of the generous.
Everyone is a friend to a giver of gifts.
7 All a poor man’s relatives despise him— how much more his friends avoid him.
He pursues them with words, but they are not there.
8 One who gets wisdom loves his own soul.
One who treasures understanding prospers.
9 A false witness will not go unpunished, and one who breathes lies will perish.
10 Luxury is not fitting for a fool— how much less for a servant to rule over princes!

Watch Your Temper

11 Prudence makes one slow to anger and his glory is to overlook an offense.
12 A king’s wrath is like a roaring lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

13 A foolish son is trouble for his father, and a quarrelsome wife is constant dripping.
14 House and wealth are an inheritance from fathers,
but a prudent wife is from ADONAI.

15 Laziness brings on deep sleep, and an idle soul will starve.
16 One who keeps a mitzvah guards his soul, but one who neglects His ways will die.

17 One who is kind to the poor lends to ADONAI, and ADONAI will reward him for his good deed.

18 Discipline your son while there is hope.
Do not set your heart on his death.

19 One with great rage will pay a penalty.
For if you rescue him, you will have to do it again.

Listen to Wise Counsel

20 Listen to advice and accept instruction, so that in the end you may be wise.
21 Many are the plans in a man’s heart, but the counsel of ADONAI will stand.
22 What is desired in a man is loyalty, and a poor person is better than a liar.
23 The fear of ADONAI leads to life, and he who has it rests satisfied, untouched by harm.

Sluggards, Scoffers, and Disgraceful Sons 24 The slacker buries his hand in a bowl and will not even bring it back to his mouth!

25 Strike a scoffer and the naïve will learn caution.
rebuke a discerning person and he will gain
knowledge.
26 He who robs his father and drives away his mother is a son who brings shame and disgrace!
27 My son, if you stop heeding instruction, you will stray from words of knowledge.
28 A crooked witness scorns justice, and a wicked mouth
devours iniquity.
29 Judgments are prepared for scoffers, and floggings
for the back of fools.

Proverbs 20

1 Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler.
Whoever is led astray by them is unwise.

2 The terror of a king is like a lion’s growl.
Whoever provokes him endangers his life.

3 It is honor for one to resolve a dispute, yet every fool quarrels.

4 A slacker will not plow in season, so at harvest he looks but finds nothing.

5 The intent of a man’s heart is deep water, but a man of insight draws it out.

Loyalty, Integrity, Justice

6 Many a man proclaims his loyalty, but a faithful man who can find?[16]
7 A righteous person walks in integrity.
Blessed are his children after him.

8 A king sitting on the throne to judge separates out all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say: “I have kept my heart pure; I am cleansed from my sin”?[17]

10 Unequal weights and measures—[18]
both are an abomination to ADONAI.

11 Even a child is known by his actions, whether his conduct is pure and upright.

12 Ears that hear and eyes that see— ADONAI has made them both.

13 Do not love sleep, lest you become poor.

Open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with food.

Adonai's Lamp Searches

14 "It's bad, bad!" says the buyer, but then he goes away and boasts.
15 There is gold and abundance of rubies, but lips that speak knowledge are precious.

16 Take a man's garment, who puts up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge, as security for a foreign woman.

17 Bread gained by fraud is sweet to a man, but later his mouth is filled with gravel.

18 Plans are made by counsel, so wage war with guidance.

19 A talebearer goes about, revealing secrets, so do not associate with a babbler.

20 Whoever curses his father or his mother,[19]
his lamp will be snuffed out in utter darkness.

21 An estate acquired quickly in the beginning will not be blessed in the end.

22 Do not say, "I will pay back evil!"
Wait for ADONAI, so He may deliver You.

23 Unbalanced weights are detestable to ADONAI, and dishonest scales are wicked.

24 A man's steps are directed by ADONAI.
How then can anyone understand his own way?

25 It is a trap for one to say rashly, "It is holy!"

and only afterward to consider his vows.

26 A wise king winnows out the wicked.
He turns a threshing wheel over them.
27 The spirit of man is the lamp of ADONAI, searching all his inmost being.

28 Lovingkindness and truth preserve the king, but his throne is upheld by lovingkindness.

29 The glory of young men is their strength, and the splendor of old men is gray hair.

30 Blows that wound scour away evil, and beatings purge the innermost being.

Adonai Weighs the Heart

Proverbs 21

1 A king's heart is like a stream of water in the hand of Adonai; he directs it wherever He wants.[20] 2 All a man's ways seem right in his own eyes, but Adonai weighs the heart.
3 To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to Adonai than sacrifice.
4 Haughty eyes and a proud heart— the lamp of the wicked is sin.

5 Plans of the diligent surely lead to gain, but all who are hasty come only to loss.
6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue is like a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.

Violence and Ruin of the Wicked

7 The violence of the wicked sweeps them away, because they refuse to act justly.
8 The way of the guilty is crooked, but the conduct of the pure is upright.
9 It is better to live on a corner of a roof than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife.

10 A wicked soul craves evil— his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.
11 When a mocker is punished, the naïve become wise.
When a wise person is instructed, he gains
knowledge.

12 The righteous one considers the house of the wicked, throwing the wicked down to their ruin.

13 Whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor, will also cry out but not be answered.

14 A gift in secret soothes anger, and a bribe given secretly, fierce rage.

15 Doing justice brings joy to the righteous, and terror
to those who do evil.

16 Whoever strays from the path of wisdom ends up in the congregation of the dead.
17 Whoever loves pleasure becomes poor.
Whoever loves wine and oil will not be rich.
18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous and the faithless for the upright.
19 It is better to live in a desert land than with a quarrelsome, worrisome wife.

20 Precious treasure and oil are in a wise person's dwelling, but a foolish person devours all he has.

21 Whoever pursues righteousness and mercy finds life, prosperity and honor.

22 A wise person scales the city of warriors and brings down the stronghold in which they trust.

23 Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps his soul
out of troubles.

24 A proud and haughty man —Mocker is his name—
acts with overbearing pride.

25 A slacker's craving will kill him, because his hands refuse to work.
26 All day long he craves greedily, yet the righteous one gives and does not hold back.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination— how much more when he brings it with evil intent?
28 A false witness will perish, but a man who hears will speak forever.
29 A wicked man puts on a bold face, but the upright man considers his ways.

30 There is no wisdom, there is no understanding,
there is no counsel—
against ADONAI.

31 A horse is prepared for the day of battle, but victory comes from ADONAI.

Proverbs 22

1 A good name is to be chosen rather than great wealth, and grace rather than silver or gold.
2 Rich and poor have this in common— ADONAI is the Maker of them all.
3 A crafty person sees danger and hides, but the naïve
keep going and suffer for it.

4 The reward of humility and fear of ADONAI
is riches, honor and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the path of the perverse, but one who guards his soul stays far from them.

6 Train up a child in the way he should go, when he is old he will not turn from it.

7 The rich rule over the poor, the borrower is a slave to the lender.

8 One who sows injustice will reap trouble, and the rod of his fury will perish.

9 One with a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.

10 Throw out a scoffer and strife will go out, quarreling and disgrace will cease.
11 One who loves purity of heart and whose speech is gracious, will have the king as his friend.

12 The eyes of ADONAI guard knowledge, but He undermines the words of the faithless.

13 The slacker says, “There’s a lion outside!
I’ll be killed in the streets.”

14 The mouth of a seducing woman is a deep pit— into it will fall one with whom ADONAI is angry.

15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, but a rod of discipline will drive it far from him.

16 The one who oppresses the poor to increase his own gain, and the one who gives to the rich—both end in poverty.

17 Incline your ear and listen to the words of the wise,
and apply your heart to my knowledge.
18 For it is delightful if you keep them within you, ready on your lips.
19 So that your trust may be in ADONAI, I made them known to you this day, even you.
20 Have I not written to you thirty sayings of admonition
and knowledge,
21 to show you true and reliable words, that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?

22 Do not rob a poor person because he is poor, nor crush the needy at the gate, 23 for ADONAI will plead their case, and rob life from those who plunder them.

24 Do not be friends with one given to anger or associate with a hot-tempered person, 25 lest you learn his ways, and entangle your soul in a snare.

26 Do not be one who shakes hands or puts up security for debts.
27 If you do not have enough to pay, why should your bed be taken from under you?

28 Do not move an ancient boundary stone which your fathers set up.

29 Do you see a man skilled in his work?

He will stand before kings.
He will not stand before obscure people.

Advice About Appetites

Proverbs 23

1 When you sit down to dine with a ruler, consider carefully what is set before you, 2 and put a knife to your throat if you possess a large appetite.
3 Do not crave his delicacies, for that food is deceptive.

4 Do not wear yourself out to get rich.
Be wise enough to restrain yourself.
5 When you cast your eyes on riches, it is gone; for it surely sprouts wings and flies off into the sky like an eagle.

6 Do not eat the food of a stingy person, or desire his delicacies.
7 For as he thinks within himself, so is he.
"Eat and drink", he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.
8 You will vomit up the morsel you ate, and will waste your pleasant words.
9 Do not speak in the ears of a fool, for he will disdain
the wisdom of your words.

10 Do not move an ancient boundary stone, or encroach on fields of the fatherless, 11 for their redeemer is strong.
He will plead their case against you.

12 Apply your heart to discipline and your ears to words of knowledge.
13 Do not withhold correction from a child.
If you strike him with a rod, he will not die.
14 Punish him with a rod, and deliver his soul from Sheol.

Wisdom's Path to the Future [15] My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart also will be glad.

[16] Yes, my inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

[17] Do not let your heart envy sinners, but always be in the fear of ADONAI.
[18] For surely there is a future, and your hope will never be cut off.
[19] Listen, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart in the right way.

[20] Do not join those drinking too much wine or gorging
on meat,
[21] for both drunkards and gluttons will be impoverished
— grogginess will clothe them with rags.

[22] Listen to your father who begot you and do not despise your mother when she is old.
[23] Acquire truth and do not sell it, acquire wisdom,
instruction and understanding.
[24] The father of a righteous one rejoices greatly.
Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.
[25] Let your father and your mother be glad, let she who bore you rejoice!
[26] My son, give your heart to me, and let your eyes observe my ways.
[27] For a prostitute is a deep pit, an adulterous woman is a narrow pit.
[28] Indeed, she lies in wait like a robber, and increases the unfaithful among men.

Lingering Long Over Wine [29] Who has woe? Who has sorrow?

Who has fights? Who has complaining?

Who has bruises for no reason?
Who has red eyes?
30 Those who linger long over wine, who go looking for mixed wine.
31 Do not gaze at wine when it is red, when it sparkles
in the cup,
when it glides down smoothly.
32 In the end it bites like a serpent and stings like a viper.
33 Your eyes will see strange things.
Your heart will utter perverse things.
34 Then you will be like one lying down in the heart of the sea, or sprawled on the top of a mast.
35 “They hit me! But I was not hurt.
They beat me up! But I did not feel it.
When will I wake up?
I will look for another drink.”

Proverbs 24

1 Do not envy evil people, or desire to be with
them,
2 for their hearts contemplate violence, and their lips speak mischief.

Strength Through Wise Counsel 3 By wisdom a house is built, by understanding it is prepared,
4 and by knowledge its rooms are filled with every rare and pleasing treasure.
5 A wise man is strong, and a man of knowledge becomes even stronger.
6 For with wise advice you wage war and in many counselors there is victory.
7 Wisdom is unattainable for a fool— he does not open his mouth at the gate.
8 One who plots evil will be called a schemer.
9 A foolish scheme is sin, and people detest a mocker.

Counsel on Friendship

10 If you falter in a day of adversity, your strength is small.
11 Rescue those being dragged off to death, hold back
those stumbling to slaughter.
12 If you say, “Look, we didn’t know this.”
Won’t He who weighs hearts perceive it?
Won’t He who guards your soul know it?
Won’t He repay each one according to his deeds?[21]

13 Eat honey, my son, for it is good, and honeycomb is sweet to your taste.
14 Likewise know that wisdom is sweet to your soul.
If you find it, there will be a future, and your hope will not be cut off.

15 Do not lurk like the wicked near the dwelling of the righteous.
Do not assault his home.
16 For though the righteous one may fall seven times, he gets up again, but the wicked stumble in adversity.
17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, or let your heart be glad when he stumbles, 18 or ADONAI may see it as evil in His eyes, and turn His wrath away
from him.
19 Do not be upset because of evil people, or be envious
of the wicked,
20 for the evil person has no future, and the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

21 My son, fear ADONAI and the king,[22]
and do not associate with rebels.
22 For their destruction will arise suddenly, and who knows the ruin both ADONAI and the king can bring?

23 These sayings are also from the wise: Partiality in judgment is not good.
24 Whoever tells the guilty, “You are innocent,” people curse him and nations revile him.
25 But for those who convict the guilty there will be delight— good blessing will come upon them.

26 An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

27 Finish your outdoor work and get your fields ready.
After that, build your house.

28 Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.
29 Do not say, “I will do to him what he has done to me;
I will pay him back for his deed!”[23]

Lesson of the Lazy

30 I passed by the field of the slacker, by the vineyard of one lacking judgment.
31 Surprisingly, it was all overgrown with thorns, the ground was covered with weeds,
and its stone wall was broken down.
32 Then I took to heart what I observed and learned a lesson from what I saw:
33 “A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep,” 34 then your poverty comes tramping in, and your need like an armed soldier.

The Glory of Searching a Matter

Proverbs 25 1 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied: 2 It is the glory of God to conceal a matter and the glory of kings to search it out.
3 As high as heaven and deep as earth, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.
4 Remove impurities from silver and out comes material for the refiner.
5 Remove the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

6 Do not honor yourself in the king's presence, and do not stand in the place of great men.
7 Better for him to say to you, "Come up here,"
than for you to be humiliated before a nobleman.
What your eyes have seen,
8 do not bring hastily to court, or what will you do afterward,
when your neighbor puts you to shame?
9 Argue your case with your associate, without betraying another's confidence, 10 or the one who hears it will shame you, and you will never lose your bad reputation.

A Fitting Reproof is Precious 11 Like apples of gold in settings of silver is a word aptly spoken.

12 Like a gold earring or a gold ornament is a wise reproof to a receptive ear.
13 Like the coolness of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger to those who send him for he refreshes
his master's soul.
14 Like clouds and wind without rain is one who boasts about a gift not given.

15 Through patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue can break a bone.

Proverbs for Daily Life

16 When you find honey, eat just enough, lest you are stuffed and vomit it.
17 Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house, lest he become weary of you and loathe you.
18 Like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow is one who bears false witness against his neighbor.
19 Like a broken tooth or a lame foot is confidence in the unfaithful in time of trouble.
20 Like taking off a garment on a cold day or like vinegar poured on soda,
is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

21 If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, 22 for you will heap coals of fire on his head[24]
and ADONAI will reward you.

23 A north wind brings rain, and a backbiting tongue angry faces.
24 Better to dwell in a corner of a roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.

25 Like cold water to a weary soul is good news from a distant land.
26 Like a muddied spring or a polluted well is a righteous person who yields before the wicked.

27 It is not good to eat too much honey, or honorable to seek one's own honor.
28 Like a city whose walls are broken down is one with no control over his temper.

Folly of Fools

Proverbs 26

1 Like snow in summer or rain at harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.
2 Like a fluttering sparrow or a flying swallow, so an undeserved curse does not land.
3 A whip for a horse, a bridle for a donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.
4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, else you also will be like him.
5 Answer a fool according to his folly, else he will be wise in his own eyes.
6 Like cutting off one's feet or drinking violence is sending a message by a fool's hand.
7 Like a lame man's legs that hang limp, so is a proverb
in a fool's mouth.
8 Like tying a stone into a sling, so is giving honor to a fool.
9 Like a thorn bush in a drunkard's hand is a proverb in a fool's mouth.
10 Like an archer who wounds at random is one who hires a fool or any passer-by.
11 Like a dog that returns to its vomit, so a fool repeats his folly.[25]
12 Do you see one wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than him.

Folly of Slackers

13 A slacker says, “There’s a lion on the road!
A lion is in the streets!”
14 As a door turns on its hinges so a slacker turns on his bed.
15 The slacker plunges his hand in the dish— he is too tired to bring it back to his mouth.
16 A slacker is wiser in his own eyes than seven people who answer sensibly.

Folly of Lashon Ha-Ra 17 Like one who takes a dog by the ears is a passer-by who meddles in a quarrel not his own.

18 Like a madman shooting firebrands and deadly arrows 19 so is one who deceives his friend, and says, “I was only joking.”
20 Without wood a fire goes out; without gossip quarrels cease.
21 As coals are to embers and wood to fire, so is a contentious person to kindling strife.
22 A gossip’s words are like tasty morsels— they slide down into the innermost parts of the body.
23 Like silver glaze overlaying earthenware are fervent[26] lips with an evil heart.
24 One who hates, disguises it with his lips, but he stores up deceit within him.
25 When he speaks favorably, do not believe him, for there are seven abominations in his heart.
26 Though his hatred may be concealed by deceit, his evil will be exposed before the assembly.

27 Whoever digs a pit will fall in it, and whoever rolls a stone—it will come back upon him.

28 A lying tongue hates those crushed by it, and a flattering mouth causes ruin.

Do Not Boast

Proverbs 27

1 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.[27]
2 Let another praise you and not your own mouth, a stranger and not your own lips.
3 A stone is heavy and sand a burden, but provocation
by a fool is heavier than both.

4 Wrath is cruel and anger is overwhelming, but who can stand before jealousy?

5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but excessive the kisses of an enemy.

7 One who is full loathes honeycomb, but to one who is hungry every bitter thing is sweet.

8 Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man that wanders from his home.

Iron Sharpens Iron

9 As ointment and perfume gladden the heart, so the sweetness of one's friend comes from his sincere counsel.
10 Do not forsake your friend, or your father's friend, nor go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster— better a neighbor nearby than a brother far off.

11 Be wise, my son, make my heart glad, so I may answer anyone who taunts me.

12 The prudent see danger and hide, but the naïve keep going and pay the penalty.

13 Take a man's garment, who puts up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge, as security for a seductive woman.

14 If someone blesses his friend with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse.

15 Continual dripping on a day of steady rain and a contentious wife are alike— 16 hiding her is like hiding the wind or grasping oil with the right hand.

17 As iron sharpens iron, so a person sharpens the countenance of his friend.

18 Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, whoever takes care of his master will be honored.

19 As water reflects the face, so a person's heart reflects the person.

20 Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and neither are the eyes of man.
21 A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold, but a person is proved by the praise he receives.

22 Even if you pound the fool along with the grain in a mortar with a pestle, his foolishness would never leave him.

23 Know well the condition of your flocks, pay attention to your herds,
24 for riches are not forever, nor a crown from generation to generation.

25 When hay is removed and grass appears, and grain from the hills is gathered in, 26 lambs will provide you with clothing, and goats with the price of a field.
27 There will be enough goats' milk for food and food for your household,
and sustenance for your maidservants.

Confidence, Discernment, Integrity

Proverbs 28

1 The wicked flee when no one is pursuing,
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
2 When a country is in rebellion, it has many rulers, but a man of discernment and knowledge maintains order.

3 A poor man who oppresses the weak
is like pounding rain without food.
4 Those who forsake Torah praise the wicked,
but those who keep Torah stir them up.
5 Evil men do not understand justice,
but those who seek ADONAI understand it fully.
6 Better the poor who walks in his integrity than the rich whose ways are crooked.
7 He who keeps Torah is a discerning son,
but a companion of gluttons disgraces his father.
8 Whoever increases his wealth by exorbitant interest,
gathers it for one kinder to the poor.
9 One who turns his ear from hearing Torah
—even his prayer is an abomination.
10 One who leads the upright astray along an evil path
will fall into his own pit,
but the blameless will inherit good.
11 A rich person is wise in his own eyes,
but a discerning poor person sees through him.
12 When the righteous triumph there is great glory,
but when the wicked rise to power, people hide.

13 One who covers up his transgressions will not prosper,

but whoever confesses and forsakes them finds
mercy.
14 Blessed is one who is always cautious,
but whoever hardens his heart will fall into trouble.

15 Like a roaring lion or a prowling bear
is a wicked ruler over helpless people.
16 An oppressive leader lacks judgment.
One who hates unjust gain will prolong his life.

17 A man tormented by the guilt of murder
flees to the Pit—let no one support him.
18 Whoever walks blamelessly will be safe,
but whoever is perverse in his ways will fall suddenly.

Wisdom About Finances

19 Whoever works his land will be satisfied with food,
but whoever chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
20 A faithful man will have many blessings,
but one eager to get rich will not go unpunished.
21 To show partiality is not good—yet for a piece of bread a man may do wrong.
22 A stingy man[28] chases after riches,
but does not know that poverty will overtake him.
23 One who rebukes a man will in the end find more favor than one with a flattering tongue.
24 Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, “It’s not a crime,” is a partner to him who destroys.
25 A greedy soul stirs up strife,
but one who trusts in Adonai prospers.
26 Whoever trusts in his own heart is a fool,
but he who walks in wisdom will escape.
27 One who gives to the poor will not lack,
but one who shuts his eyes will have many curses.
28 When the wicked rise to power, people hide,
but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Proverbs 29

1 One who remains stiff-necked after many rebukes will suddenly be destroyed—without remedy.
2 When the righteous thrive, people rejoice.
When the wicked rule, people groan.
3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.

4 By justice a king brings stability to a land, but one who takes bribes brings it ruin.

5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

6 In an evil man's wrongdoing is a trap, but the righteous sings and rejoices.
7 A righteous person considers justice for the poor.
The wicked one has no such concern.
8 Mockers incite a city, but wise men turn away anger.
9 If a wise man argues with a foolish man, he rants or laughs, with no resolution.
10 Bloodthirsty people hate a man of integrity and seek the soul of the upright.
11 A fool gives full vent to his temper, but a wise man holds it back.

12 If a ruler listens to lies, all his servants will be wicked.

13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: ADONAI gives light to the eyes of both.

14 If a king judges the poor with truth, his throne will always be secure.

15 A rod and reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself disgraces his mother.

16 When the wicked thrive, wrongdoing increases, but the righteous will see their downfall.

17 Correct your son and he will give you rest.
He will bring delight to your soul.

18 Where there is no divine vision people cast off restraint, but blessed is the one who keeps Torah.

19 A servant cannot be corrected by words, for though he understands, he will not respond.
20 Do you see someone hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than him.

21 If someone pampers his slave from childhood in the end he will be ungrateful.

22 An angry man stirs up dissention, and a hotheaded
one commits many transgressions.

23 A man's pride will bring him low, but a humble spirit will gain honor.
24 An accomplice of a thief is his own enemy.
He hears the oath but says nothing.

25 Fear of man will prove to be a snare, but one who trusts in ADONAI will be kept safe.
26 Many seek an audience with a ruler, but from ADONAI
one receives justice.
27 The righteous detest the unjust, and the wicked
detest the upright.

What is The Name of His Son?

Proverbs 30

1 The words of Agur son of Jakeh— an oracle
this man declared to Ithiel, to Ithiel and to Ucal:
2 “Surely I am more stupid than any man and do not have a man’s understanding.
3 I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.
4 Who has gone up into heaven, and come down?[29]
Who has gathered the wind in the palm of His hand?
Who has wrapped the waters in a cloak?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name and what is the name of His son—if you know?”[30]

5 Every word of God is purified.
He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.
6 Do not add to His words, or else He will rebuke You and prove you a liar.

7 Two things I ask of You— do not refuse me before I die:
8 Keep falsehood and lies far from me.
Give me neither poverty nor riches,
but feed me with my allotted bread,[31] 9 lest I become satisfied and deny You and say, “Who is ADONAI?”
Or lest I become poor, and steal
and profane the Name of my God.

A Filthy, Haughty Generation

10 Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you pay for it.

11 There is a generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother.
12 There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes, and yet is not cleansed from its filth.
13 There is a generation whose eyes are so haughty,
whose eyelids are lifted up disdainfully.
14 There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose molars are knives,
to devour the poor from the earth
and the needy from among humanity.

15 The leech has two daughters: “Give! Give!”
Three things are never satisfied, four never say, “Enough!”— 16 Sheol, a barren womb, land that is not satisfied with water,
and fire that never says, “Enough!”

17 The eye that mocks a father and scorns obeying a mother— will be pecked out by ravens of the valley and eaten by young vultures!

18 Three things are too amazing for me, four I do not understand:
19 the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a serpent
upon a rock,
the way of a ship in the heart of the sea,
and the way of a man with a maiden.

20 Such is the way of an adulteress: she eats, wipes her mouth and says,
“I have done nothing wrong.”

21 Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it cannot bear up:
22 under a slave when he becomes a king, a fool when he is stuffed with food,

[23] an unloved woman when she is married, and a handmaid when she displaces her mistress.

Lessons from Creatures

24 Four things on earth are small, yet they are exceedingly wise:
25 ants are creatures with little strength, yet they store
up their food in summer;
26 coneys are creatures with little power, yet they make their homes in the cliffs; 27 locusts have no king, yet they advance together in ranks; 28 a lizard you can catch with the hand, yet it is found in kings' palaces.

29 Three things are stately in their stride, four that move with stately bearing:
30 a lion, mighty among beasts, who never backs down
from anything;
31 a strutting rooster, a male-goat, and a king with his army around him.

32 If you have acted foolishly, exalting yourself, or if you have planned evil,
put your hand over your mouth.
33 For as churning milk produces butter, and twisting
the nose produces blood,
so stirring up anger produces strife.

A Mother's Warning

Proverbs 31 [1] The words of King Lemuel, an oracle that his mother taught him: [2] O my son, O son of my womb, O son of my vows,
[3] do not give your vigor to women, or your ways to what ruins kings.
[4] It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink
wine,
or for rulers to crave strong drink,
[5] lest they drink, forget what is decreed, and pervert justice for all the oppressed.
[6] Give strong drink to one who is dying, and wine to those who are bitterly distressed— [7] let him drink, forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

[8] Open your mouth on behalf of those unable to speak,
for the justice of all who are destitute.
[9] Open your mouth, judge righteously, plead the cause of the poor and needy.

A Woman of Valor

10 An accomplished woman who can find?
Her value is far beyond rubies.
11 Her husband's heart trusts in her, and he lacks nothing valuable.
12 She brings him good and not harm all the days of her life.
13 She selects wool and flax and her hands work willingly.
14 She is like merchant ships, bringing her sustenance
from afar.
15 She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household
and portions for her servant girls.
16 She considers a field and buys it.
From the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
17 She girds herself with strength and invigorates her arms.
18 She discerns that her business is good.
Her lamp never goes out at night.
19 She extends her hands to the spindle and her palm grasps the spinning wheel.
20 She spreads out her palms to the poor, and extends her hands to the needy.
21 She is not afraid of snow for her house, for her whole household is clothed in scarlet wool.
22 She makes her own luxurious coverings.
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
23 Her husband is respected at the city gates, when he sits among the elders of the land.
24 She makes linen garments and sells them and supplies sashes to the merchants.

25 Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs
at the days to come.
26 She opens her mouth with wisdom— a lesson of kindness is on her tongue.
27 She watches over the affairs of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.
28 Her children arise and bless her, her husband also praises her:
29 “Many daughters have excelled, but you surpass them all.”
30 Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears ADONAI will be praised.
31 Give her the fruit of her hands.
Let her deeds be her praise at the gates.

Job and His Children

Job 1 [1] There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job.
Now that man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil. [2] He had seven sons and three daughters [3] and his possessions were 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen and 500 female donkeys, and a very large household. That man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

[4] Now it was customary for his sons to hold a banquet, each on his own day in his own house. They would send to invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. [5] When the round of banquet days was completed, Job would send for them and consecrate them. He would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings, according to the number of them all. For Job said, “Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” Thus Job did everyday.

The Adversary Tests Job

6 One day the sons of God came to present themselves before ADONAI, and the satan[1] also came with them. 7 ADONAI said to the satan, “Where have you come from?”

The satan responded to ADONAI and said, “From roaming the earth and from walking on it.”[2]

8 ADONAI said to the satan, “Did you notice my servant Job?
There is no one like him on the earth—a blameless and upright man, who fears God and spurns evil.”

9 Then the satan responded to ADONAI, saying, “Does Job fear God for nothing? 10 Have you not made a hedge around him, his household, and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands and his possessions have increased in the land.
11 But now, stretch out Your hand and strike everything he has,
and he will certainly curse You to Your face!”

12 Then ADONAI said to the satan, “Everything he has is in your hand. Only do not extend your hand against him!” So the satan departed from the presence of ADONAI.

13 One day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house, 14 a messenger came to Job, saying, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing near them, 15 when the Sabeans attacked and carried them off. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword—I alone escaped to tell you!”

16 While this one was still speaking another came in and said,
“The fire of God has fallen from heaven and has burned up the sheep and servants—it has consumed them, and I—I alone—escaped to tell you!”

17 While this one was still speaking another came in and said,
“The Chaldeans formed three bands and raided the camels and took them all away. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I—only I alone—escaped to tell you!”

18 While this one was still speaking another came in and said,
“Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine at their oldest brother’s house 19 when suddenly a mighty wind came from beyond the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it collapsed on the young people and they died. And I—only I alone—escaped to tell you!”

20 Then Job got up, tore his robe, shaved his head, fell to the ground and worshiped. 21 Then he said:

“Naked I came from my mother’s womb,
and naked I will return there.
ADONAI gave and ADONAI has taken away;
blessed be the Name of ADONAI.”

22 Through all this, Job did not sin nor did he cast reproach on God.

Affliction of the Body

Job 2 [1] Again the day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before ADONAI, and the satan also arrived among them to present himself before ADONAI. [2] ADONAI said to him, "Where are you coming from?"

The satan answered ADONAI, "From roaming the earth and from walking on it."

[3] Then ADONAI said to the satan, "Have you noticed My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and spurns evil. And he still holds firmly to his integrity, though you incited Me against him to ruin him without any reason."

[4] The satan replied to ADONAI saying, "Skin for skin! A man will give up all he has for his own life. [5] But now, stretch out Your hand and strike his bone and his flesh, and he will certainly curse You to Your face!"

[6] ADONAI said to the satan, "Very well, he is in your hand—only spare his life!"

[7] So the satan departed from the presence of ADONAI, and afflicted Job with painful boils, from the sole of his foot to the top of his head. [8] He took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself while he was sitting among the ashes.

[9] Then his wife said to him, "Are you still holding firmly to your integrity? Curse God and die!"

[10] He said to her, "You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Should we accept the good from God and not accept the bad?"

Through all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Three Friends Sit Shiva [11] When Job's three friends heard about all this calamity that had come upon him, each of them came from his own place—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite. They met together to come and mourn with him and to comfort him. [12] But when they saw him from a distance they did not recognize him, and they raised their voices and wept. Each one tore his robe and threw dust into the air onto their heads. [13] Then they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one spoke a word to him because they saw that his pain was very great.

Job Curses His Own Birth

Job 3 1 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed his day.
2 Then Job answered and said: 3 “May the day I was born perish,
and the night that said,

‘A man is conceived!’

4 That day—may it be darkness; may God above not regard it;

may no light shine on it.

5 May darkness and deep gloom reclaim it; may a cloud settle over it;

may whatever blackens the day terrify it.

6 That night—may thick darkness seize it; may it not be included among the days of the year, nor be entered among the number of months.

7 Indeed, may that night be barren; may no joyful shout enter it.

8 May those who curse, curse the day— those ready to awaken Leviathan.

9 May its morning stars be darkened; may it hope for light but have none— may it never see the eyelids of dawn.

10 For it did not shut the doors of the womb on me, nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.

11 Why did I not die at birth and expire as I exited the womb?

12 Why did the knees welcome me, and breasts that I might nurse?

13 For now I would be lying down and quiet; I would be asleep and at rest

14 with kings and counselors of the earth, who built for themselves places now desolate, 15 with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

16 Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn, like infants who never saw light?
17 There the wicked cease from turmoil, and there the weary are at rest.
18 Prisoners are at ease together; they do not hear the voice of the taskmaster.
19 Small and great are there; and slave is free from his master.

20 Why is light given to one who suffers and life to the bitter of soul,
21 to those who long for death, but it does not come, who dig for it more than for hidden treasures, 22 who are filled with gladness and rejoice when finding the grave?
23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, and whom God has hedged in?
24 For my sighing comes instead of my bread, and my groans pour out like water.
25 For the thing I dreaded has come upon me, and what I feared has happened to me.
26 I have no ease, no quietness; I have no rest, but turmoil came.”

Eliphaz: God is Righteous

Job 4 1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded and said: 2 “If one attempts a word with you, will you become impatient?
But who can keep from speaking?
3 Behold, you have instructed many; you have strengthened weak hands.
4 Your words have supported those who stumbled, and strengthened buckling knees.
5 Yet now it has come to you, and you are discouraged;
it strikes you,
and you are dismayed.

6 Is not your piety your confidence, the integrity of your ways your hope?
7 Reflect now: Who, being innocent, ever perished?
And where were the upright destroyed?
8 As I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow harm, reap them.[3]
9 By the breath[4] of God they perish; by the blast of His anger they vanish.[5] 10 The lion may roar and the cub growl, but the teeth of young lions are broken.
11 The mighty lion perishes for lack of prey and the lioness’ cubs are scattered.

Testimony of an Accusing Spirit 12 Now a word was secretly brought to me, and my ear caught a whisper of it.

13 Amid unsettling visions in the night, when a deep sleep falls on men, 14 dread and trembling seized me, and made my bones
shake.

15 Then a spirit brushed over my face, and the hair of my flesh stood on end.
16 It stood still, but I could not recognize its appearance,
A form was before my eyes
and I heard a murmur, a voice:
17 ‘Can a mortal be righteous before God; or a man pure before his Creator?
18 If He puts no trust in His servants and accuses His angels of error,
19 how much more those who dwell in houses of clay,
whose foundation is in the dust,
who are crushed before the moth?
20 From morning until evening they are beaten into pieces— unnoticed, they perish forever.
21 Is not their tent cord pulled out, so that they die without wisdom.’”

Eliphaz: God is Correcting You

Job 5

1 “Cry out now! Will anyone answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?
2 For resentment kills a fool, and envy slays the simple.
3 I myself have seen a fool taking root, but suddenly I cursed his dwelling.
4 His sons are far from safety, and crushed at the gate without a deliverer!
5 The hungry consumes his harvest, taking it even from among thorns, and the thirsty pants after their wealth.
6 For evil does not come from the dust, nor does trouble sprout from the ground.
7 Yet man is born for trouble, as surely as sparks fly upward.
8 But as for me, I would seek God; I would lay my cause before God.
9 Who does great things beyond comprehension, wonders without number.
10 Who gives rain to the earth and sends water over the plains.
11 Who places the lowly on high and lifts mourners to salvation.
12 Who frustrates the plans of the crafty, so that their hands attain no success.
13 Who catches the clever in their craftiness, and thwarts the plan of the cunning.
14 By day they encounter darkness and grope at noon as if it were night.
15 But He saves the needy from the sword of their mouth, and from the clutches of the mighty.
16 So the helpless have hope and injustice shuts its mouth.

17 Behold, happy is the one whom God corrects, so do not despise the discipline of Shaddai.
18 For He inflicts pain, but He also binds up; He injures, yet His hands also heal.
19 From six calamities He will deliver you, even in seven, no harm will touch you.
20 In famine, He will redeem you from death, and in war, from the power of the sword.
21 You will be hidden from the lash of the tongue, and not fear when violence comes.
22 You will laugh at violence and famine, and will not fear the beasts of the earth.
23 For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the beasts of the field will be at peace with
you.
24 You will know shalom in your tent, and you will take stock of your home
and find nothing missing.

25 “You will know that your descendants will be numerous
your offspring like the grass of the earth.
26 You will come to the grave in vigor, like sheaves of grain in its season.
27 Behold, we have investigated this—it is true.
Hear it, and apply it to yourself!”

Job Cries For Justice

Job 6 1 Job responded and said: 2 “If only my grief could be weighed and my calamity placed on the scales.
3 For it outweighs the sands of the sea; that is why my words have been rash.
4 For the arrows of Shaddai are in me, my spirit drinks
in their poison;
God’s terrors line up against me.
5 Does a wild donkey bray over fresh grass or an ox
bellow over his fodder?
6 Is something bland eaten without salt, is there taste in the white of an egg?
7 My soul refuses to touch them; they are like sickening food to me.

8 Oh that my request would be realized, that God would grant my hope;
9 that God would be willing to crush me, to release His hand, and cut me off!
10 Then I would still be comforted, even rejoice in spite of unrelenting pain, for I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

11 “What is my strength, that I should hope?
What is my end,
that I should endure?
12 Is my strength the strength of rock?
Is my flesh bronze?
13 Is there no help within me; has not success been banished from me?

14 “A despairing person should have the kindness of his friend, even if he forsakes the fear of Shaddai.

15 My brothers have acted deceptively, as a seasonal stream,
as a torrential stream that overflows 16 when darkened by thawing ice, and obscured by snow,
17 but when they are scorched, they dry up, and in the heat, they vanish from their place.
18 Caravans turn aside from their course; they go up into the wasteland and perish.
19 The caravans of Tema looked intently, the travelers of Sheba hoped for them.
20 They were distressed because they had been confident; they came so far and were disappointed.

21 “Indeed, now you have become nothing; you see a terror and are afraid.
22 Have I ever said, ‘Give to me’
or ‘Pay a bribe for me from your wealth’ 23 or ‘Save me from the enemy’s hand’
or ‘Redeem me from a ruthless hand’?
24 “Teach me, and I will be silent; explain to me how I have been wrong.
25 Honest words are painful, but what does your arguing prove?
26 Do you intend to correct my words, and treat the words of
a despairing man as wind?
27 Would you cast lots for an orphan, and barter over your friend?

28 “Now be so kind as to look at me; I will not lie to your face.
29 Relent, do not be unjust; reconsider, for my righteousness is in it.
30 Is injustice on my tongue?

Can my palate not discern evil?”

Futility of Days

Job 7

1 “Does not man have hard labor on earth?
Are not his days like those of a hired laborer?
2 Like a slave longing for the shadow, or a hired man waiting for his pay, 3 so I have inherited months of futility, and nights of distress have been appointed to me.
4 When I lay down I say, “When will I rise?”
The night drags on, and I toss until the day dawns.
5 My flesh is clothed with maggots and clods of dirt; My skin is broken and festering.
6 My days fly faster than a weaver’s shuttle and come to an end without hope.
7 Remember, my life is but a breath; my eyes will not see goodness again!
8 The eye that sees me now will see me no more; your eyes will be on me, but I will be no more.
9 As a cloud vanishes and is gone, so one descending into Sheol does not come up; 10 he will never return to his house, his place does not know him.

11 “So I will not keep silent; I will speak in the distress of my spirit, I will complain in bitterness of soul.
12 Am I a sea, or a monster of the deep that You have set a watch over me?
13 When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me, my couch will ease my complaint,’ 14 then You frighten me with dreams, and terrify me
with visions,
15 so that my soul prefers strangulation, and my bones
death.
16 I despise it; I would not live forever.
Leave me alone, for my days are a vapor.

17 “What is mankind, that You magnify him,
that You set Your heart on him,
18 that You visit him every morning, and test him in every moment?
19 Will You never look away from me, or let me alone until I swallow my spittle?
20 Have I sinned— what have I done to You,
O watcher of men?
Why have You set me as Your target?
Have I become a burden to You?
21 Why do You not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity?
For now I will lie down in the dust, and You will search for me,
but I will be gone.”

Bildad: God Restores the Righteous

Job 8 1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said: 2 “How long will you say these things?
The words of your mouth are like a mighty wind.
3 Does God pervert justice?
Does Shaddai pervert justice?
4 If your children sinned against Him, He handed them over to their rebellion.
5 If you would seek God and plead with Shaddai, 6 if you are pure and upright, even now He will awaken for
you
and restore your righteous abode.
7 And though your beginning was small, your future
would flourish.

8 Now ask the previous generation; consider the findings of their fathers;
9 for we were born yesterday and know nothing,
and our days on earth are but a shadow.
10 Will they not teach you and tell you?
Will they not bring forth words from their hearts?

11 “Can papyrus grow tall without a marsh?
Can reeds flourish without water?
12 When still in bloom and uncut, it withers more quickly than other grass.
13 Such are the ways of all who forget God; the hope of the godless perishes— 14 whose confidence is snapped off, his trust is a spider’s web.
15 He leans against his house but it does not stand, He holds fast to it, but it does not hold up.
16 He is a well-watered plant in the sun, spreading his shoots over his garden;

17 he entwines his roots around a heap of stones, and looks for a place between the rocks.
18 If he is uprooted from his place, it denies him saying,
‘I never saw you.’
19 Such is his joyous course, and from the earth others spring up.
20 Surely God does not spurn the blameless or strengthen the hand of evildoers.
21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.
22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame.
The tent of the wicked will be no more!”

Job: Who is Righteous Before God?

Job 9 1 Job responded and said: 2 “Truly I know it is so, but how can one be righteous before God?[6] 3 If anyone wished to contend with Him, he could not answer Him once in a thousand.
4 He is wise in heart and mighty in strength.
Who has resisted Him and come out whole?

5 “He who moves mountains, yet they do not know it,
who overthrows them in His anger;
6 who shakes the earth from its place until its pillars
tremble;
7 who speaks to the sun so it does not rise, and seals up
the stars;
8 He alone spreads out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea;
9 He makes the Bear, Orion and Pleiades, and the constellations of the south;
10 He does great and unfathomable things, wonders beyond number.
11 If He were to pass by me, I would not see Him!
Were He to move past me,
I would not perceive Him.
12 If He were to snatch away, who could restrain Him?
Who could say to Him,
‘What are You doing?’

13 “God does not restrain His anger; under Him the helpers of Rahab cower.
14 How then can I answer Him or choose my words with
Him?
15 Even if I were right, I would not answer; I would implore the mercy of my Judge.

16 Even if I called and He answered me, I would not believe that He would listen to my voice.
17 He who crushes me with a storm and multiplies my wounds for no reason.
18 He does not allow me to catch my breath, but fills me
with bitterness.
19 If it is a question of strength— certainly, He is the mighty One!
If it is a matter of justice—
who will summon me?
20 Even if I were innocent, my mouth would condemn
me.
If I were guiltless,
it will declare me perverse.

21 “I am guiltless.
I have no concern for myself.
I despise my life.
22 It is all the same, therefore I say, ‘He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.’
23 If a scourge smites suddenly, He mocks the despair of the innocent.
24 If the land falls into the hand of the wicked He blindfolds the faces of its judges.
If it is not He, then who is it?

25 “My days are swifter than a runner; they flee away without seeing goodness.
26 They slip by like reed boats, like an eagle swooping down on its prey.
27 If I say, ‘I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad face and be cheerful,’ 28 I still dread all my pains, for I know You will not find me innocent.
29 If I am condemned— why should I struggle in vain?

30 If I wash myself with melted snow and cleanse my hands with lye,
31 then You would plunge me into a pit and my own clothes would detest me.
32 For He is not a human being, like I am, that I could answer Him,
that we could go to court together.
33 There is no arbitrator between us, who could lay his hand on us both;
34 who could remove His rod from me, so that His terror
would not frighten me.
35 Then I would speak and not fear Him —except it is not so with me.”

Do Not Condemn Me!

Job 10

1 “I loathe my own life; I will give full vent to my complaint; I will speak out of the bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say to God, ‘Do not condemn me; tell me why
You contend with me.’
3 Is it good for You to oppress, to despise the work of Your hands, while You smile on the plans of the wicked?
4 Do You have eyes of flesh?
Do You see as a human being sees?
5 Are Your days like those of a mortal, or Your years like those of a strong man, 6 that You should seek out my iniquity and search out my sin,
7 though You know that I am not guilty, yet there is no one to deliver from Your hand?

8 “Your hands molded and fashioned me, will You now destroy me completely?
9 Remember You fashioned me like clay; will You return
me to dust?
10 Did You not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese,
11 clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews?
12 You gave me life and steadfast love, and Your care has preserved my spirit.

13 “Yet these things You have hid in Your heart, for I know that this is with You.
14 If I sinned, You would watch me, and not acquit me of my iniquity.
15 If I am guilty, woe to me!
Even if I am innocent,

I cannot lift my head.

I am full of shame
and conscious of my affliction.
16 If my head is held high, You hunt me like a lion,
and again work wonders against me.
17 You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your anger toward me, change and warfare are with
me.

18 “Why then did You bring me out from the womb?
I should have died so no eye would have seen me.
19 If only I had never come into being, or been carried from womb to grave.
20 Are not my days few?
Then stop, leave me alone
so I might have a little joy, 21 before I depart, and never return, to the land of darkness
and the shadow of death,
22 the land of utter darkness, like the deepest darkness
and disorder, where even the light is like darkness.”

Zophar: God Sees Iniquity

Job 11 1 Then, Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:
2 “Should so many words go unanswered?
Is a man justified by his lips?
3 Will your idle talk silence men and will no one rebuke you when you mock?
4 For you have said, ‘My teaching is flawless’
and ‘I am pure in Your eyes!’
5 But if only God would speak and open His lips against you,
6 and show you the secrets of wisdom— for sound wisdom has two sides.
Know that God has forgotten some of your iniquity.

7 “Can you discover the mysteries of God?
Can you find the limits of Shaddai?
8 They are higher than the heavens —what can you do?
They are deeper than Sheol —what can you know?
9 Its measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

10 “If He comes by and imprisons, or convenes a court, who can prevent Him?
11 For He knows deceitful men; when He sees wickedness, does he not consider it?
12 But a witless man will gain understanding when a wild donkey’s colt is born a human being?

13 “If you devote your heart to Him and spread out your hands to Him, 14 if you put away the wickedness that is in your hand, and allow no iniquity to abide in your tent, 15 then you will lift up your face without reproach; you will stand firm and without fear.

16 You will forget your trouble; you will remember it like water that has flowed away.
17 Life will be brighter than noonday; darkness like the morning.
18 You will be confident, because there is hope; you will look about you and lie down in safety.
19 You will lie down with no one to make you afraid,
many will seek your favor.
20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will elude them;
their only hope is their dying breath.”[7]

Job: Everything is in His Hand

Job 12 [1] Job responded and said: [2] “Without a doubt you are the people and wisdom will die with you!
[3] But I have a mind as well as you; I am not inferior to
you.
Who does not know these things?

[4] “I have become a laughingstock to my friend, though I called on God and He answered— a righteous and blameless man is a laughingstock!
[5] Contempt for calamity is the thought of one at ease, prepared for those whose foot slips.
[6] The tents of marauders prosper, and there is security for those who provoke God— for those whom God brings in His hand.
[7] But now ask the animals and they will teach you, or the birds of the sky and they will tell you, [8] or speak to the earth and it will teach you, or the fish of the sea and they will inform you.
[9] Which of these does not know that the hand of ADONAI has done this?
[10] In His hand is the life of every creature, and the breath of all the human race.
[11] Does not the ear test words as the palate tastes food?
[12] Is not wisdom with the aged and understanding bring long life?
[13] “With Him are wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are His.
[14] If He tears down, it cannot be rebuilt; one He imprisons cannot be released.
[15] If He holds back the waters, they dry up; if He releases them, they destroy the earth.

16 With Him are power and sound wisdom; both deceived and deceiver are His.
17 He leads counselors away stripped and makes judges into fools.
18 He loosens the bonds of the kings, and binds a loincloth around their waists.
19 He leads priests away stripped and overthrows the rulers.
20 He silences the lips of trusted advisors and removes the discernment of elders.
21 He pours contempt on nobles and loosens the belts of the mighty.
22 He reveals the deep things of darkness[8]
and brings utter darkness into light.
23 He makes nations great and destroys them.

He enlarges the nations
and leads them away.

24 He deprives the heads of the people of earth of understanding, and causes them to wander in a pathless wasteland.

25 They grope in darkness with no light; He makes them stagger like a drunkard.

Job Challenges God

Job 13

1 “Indeed, my eye has seen it all, my ears have heard and understood it.
2 What you know, I also know; I am not inferior to you.
3 Still, I desire to speak to Shaddai and to argue my case with God.
4 You, however, smear me with lies; you are worthless
doctors—all of you!
5 If only you would keep completely silent!
For you, that would be wisdom.
6 Hear now my argument; listen to the contentions of my lips.
7 Will you speak unjustly on God’s behalf?
Will you speak deceitfully for Him?
8 Will you show Him partiality?
Will you argue the case for God?
9 Would it turn out well if He examined you?
Could you deceive Him as you deceive a man?
10 He would surely rebuke you if you secretly showed favoritism.
11 Would not His majesty terrify you and the dread of Him fall on you?
12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes; your defenses are defenses of clay.

13 Be silent and let me speak; then let come to me what may.
14 Why should I take my flesh in my teeth and take my life in my hands?
15 Even if He slays me, I will wait for Him; I will surely defend my ways before Him.
16 This, too, will be my salvation for no godless can come before Him.

17 “Listen carefully to my words, and let my declaration
be in your ears.
18 See now, I have prepared my case; I know that I will be vindicated.
19 Who will contend with me?
If so, I will be silent and die.

20 “Only two things do not do to me; then I will not hide
from Your face:
21 withdraw Your hand far from me, and do not assail
me with Your terror.
22 Then call, and I will answer, or I will speak, and You respond to me.
23 How many are my iniquities and sins?
Show me my transgressions and sin.
24 Why do You hide Your face and consider me Your enemy?
25 Will You frighten a windblown leaf and chase after dry chaff?
26 For You write bitter things against me and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
27 You put my feet in shackles and watch all my paths;
You put marks on the soles of my feet.

28 “So he wastes away like something rotten,
like a moth-eaten garment.

Death and Resurrection

Job 14

1 “A mortal born of woman, is of few days and full of turmoil.
2 Like a flower he comes up and withers; like a shadow
he flees and does not stay.
3 Do You fix Your eyes on such a one, and bring me for judgment with You?
4 Who can make something pure out of the impure?
No one!
5 Since his days are determined, the number of his months is with You, You have set his limits,
which he cannot exceed.
6 Look away from him and let him alone, until he fulfills his time like a hired laborer.

7 “At least there is hope for a tree— if it is cut down it will sprout again, and its shoots will not cease.
8 Though its roots grow old in the earth and its stump dies in the dry ground, 9 at the scent of water it will bud and sprout sprigs like a new plant.
10 But man dies and is powerless.
Man expires—and where is he?
11 As water evaporates from the sea and a river drains away and dries up, 12 so a person lies down and does not rise; until the heavens are no more,
people will not awake,
or be roused from their sleep.
13 “Oh that You would hide me in Sheol, and conceal me until Your wrath has passed!
Oh that You would set a time for me
and then remember me!
14 If a man dies, will he live again?
All the days of my hard labor

I will wait until my relief comes.
15 You will call and I—I will answer You; You will long for the work of Your hands.
16 For then You will number my steps; You will not keep track of my sin;
17 my transgression will be sealed in a bundle and cover
over my iniquity.

18 “Yet as a mountain falls away and crumbles and a rock is moved from its place, 19 as water wears away stones and torrents wash away
the soil,
so You destroy a person’s hope.
20 You overpower him—once for all, and he perishes;
You change his appearance and send him away.
21 If his sons achieve honor, he does not know it;
if they are brought low,
he does not perceive it.
22 He only feels pain for his own flesh, and mourns for his own soul.”

Eliphaz Rebukes Job

Job 15 1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded and said: 2 “Does a wise man answer with empty knowledge, or fill his belly with the east wind?
3 Does he argue with useless talk and words that have no value in them?
4 You even do away with reverence and hinder devotion before God.
5 For your iniquity prompts your mouth and you choose the tongue of the crafty.
6 Your own mouth condemns you—not I; your own lips testify against you.

7 “Are you the first man to be born?
Were you brought forth before the hills?
8 Do you listen in on God’s counsel?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
9 What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that we do not understand?
10 Both gray-haired and aged are with us, men even older than your father.
11 Are the comforts of God too small for you, or a gentle word toward you?
12 Why has your heart carried you away and why do your eyes flash,
13 so that you turn your spirit against God and bring such words out of your mouth?

14 “What is man, that he could be pure, or one born of woman, that he could be righteous?
15 If He puts no trust in His holy ones, if even the heavens are not pure in His eyes, 16 how much less man, who is vile and corrupt, who drinks evil like water!

17 I will tell you; listen to me, and what I have seen I will declare,
18 what wise men have declared and did not hide from their ancestors,
19 to whom alone the land was given, when no foreigner passed among them:
20 All his days the wicked suffers torment, and numbered are the years stored up for the tyrant.
21 Terrifying sounds are in his ears; in a time of peace,
marauders attack him.
22 He does not expect to escape from darkness; he is destined for the sword.
23 He wanders about for bread—'Where is it?'
He knows that the day of darkness is at hand.
24 Distress and anguish terrify him; they overpower him like a king poised to attack, 25 for he raises his hand against God and flaunts himself against Shaddai, 26 defiantly rushing at Him with a thick, strong shield.
27 Because He covered his face with his fat and made his hips bulge with blubber, 28 he lived in ruined cities, in houses which no one inhabits,
which are ready to crumble into heaps.
29 He will not become rich, and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the land.
30 He will not escape from the darkness; a flame will wither his shoots,
and he will depart by the breath of His mouth.

31 "Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; for emptiness will be his reward.
32 Before his day it will be paid in full and his branch will not be green.

33 He will shake off his unripe grapes like a vine, and cast off his blossoms like an olive tree.
34 For the company of the godless is barren, and fire consumes the tents of bribery.
35 They conceive mischief and bring forth evil and their belly prepares deception.”

Job Reproves His Friends

Job 16 [1] Job answered, saying: [2] “I have heard many things like these; you are miserable comforters, all of you!

[3] Is there no end to your futile words?
What compels you to answer?
[4] I too could speak like you, if you were in my place;
I could compose words against you and shake my head at you.
[5] But I would strengthen you with my mouth and comfort from my lips would bring you relief.

[6] “Yet, if I speak, my pain is not relieved, and if I refrain, does it not go away from me?
[7] Surely now He has exhausted me; You have devastated my entire household.
[8] You have seized me— it has become a witness;

my leanness rises against me
and testifies to my face.
9 His anger has torn and tormented me; He gnashes at me with his teeth;
my enemy looks at me with daggers in his eyes.
10 People open their mouths against me; they strike my cheek in contempt;
they unite together against me.
11 God has handed me over to the ungodly, and tossed me into the hands of the wicked.
12 I was at ease, but He shattered me; He grabbed me by the neck and crushed me.
He has made me His target;
13 His archers surround me.
Without mercy He pierces my kidneys
and spills my gall on the ground.
14 He breaks through against me, breach after breach.
He runs after me like a warrior.

15 “I have sewn sackcloth over my skin and sunk my horn in the dust;
16 my face is red from weeping, and on my eyelids are deep darkness; 17 yet no violence is in my hands and my prayer is pure.
18 “Earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry find no resting place!
19 Even now my witness is in heaven,[9]
my advocate is on high.
20 My intercessor is my friend; as my eyes pour out tears to God;
21 he contends with God on behalf of man as one pleads for a friend.

22 “For the number of years will come to pass, and then I will go the way of no return.

Hope in Sheol?

Job 17

1 “My spirit is broken, my days have cut short, the graveyard awaits me.
2 Surely mockers are with me, my eyes must gaze on their hostility.

3 “Make then a pledge for me with You.
Who else would strike hands with me?
4 Because You have closed their heart to understanding, therefore You will not exalt them.
5 If anyone denounces his friends for profit the eyes of his children will fail.
6 He has made me a byword to people, I am the one in whose face people spit.
7 My eyes have grown dim with grief and all my limbs are like a shadow.
8 The upright are appalled at this; the innocent are stirred up against the ungodly.
9 But the righteous one holds to his way, and the one with clean hands grows stronger.

10 “But turn, all of you, come now!
I will not find a wise man among you.
11 My days have passed, my plans are torn apart.
Yet the desires of my heart 12 turn night into day; in the face of darkness light is near.
13 If I hope for Sheol as my home, if I make my bed in
darkness,
14 if I say to the pit, ‘You are my father,’
and to the worm, ‘My mother,’ or ‘My sister,’ 15 where then is my hope?
And my hope, who sees it?

16 Will it go down to the gates of Sheol?
Will we descend together into the dust?”

Bildad Rebukes Job

Job 18 1 Then, Bildad the Shuhite replied, saying: 2 “How long until you end these words?
Consider, and then we will talk.
3 Why are we regarded as beasts, and stupid in your eyes?
4 You, who tear yourself to pieces in anger, will the earth be abandoned for your sake?
Or must a rock be moved from its place?
5 Indeed, the light of the wicked is snuffed out; the flame of his fire does not shine.
6 The light in his tent grows dark; the lamp above him goes out.
7 His vigorous stride is shortened, and his own scheme throws him down.
8 For he is cast into a net by his feet; he wanders into its mesh.
9 A trap seizes him by the heel; a snare holds him fast.
10 A rope is hidden for him on the ground, and a trap for him lies on the path.
11 On every side terrors frighten him and harass his every step.
12 Calamity is hungry for him; disaster is ready for his fall.
13 It eats away pieces of his skin; death’s firstborn devours his limbs.
14 He is torn from the security of his tent, and marched off to the king of terrors.
15 Nothing of his dwells in his tent; brimstone is scattered over his dwelling.
16 Below his roots dry up, and above his branches wither.

17 His memory perishes from the earth and he has no name in the land.
18 He is driven from light into darkness and is banished
from the world.
19 He has no offspring or descendant among his people,
no survivor where he once dwelt.
20 People of the west are appalled at his fate; people of the east are seized with horror.
21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked; such is the place of one who does not know God.”

Job: Have Pity on Me

Job 19 [1] Job responded, saying: [2] “How long will you torment my soul and crush me with words?
[3] Ten times now you have reproached me; you attack me shamelessly.
[4] But even if it is true that I have erred, my error remains with me.
[5] If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me and prove my humiliation against me, [6] then know that God has wronged me and encircled me with His net.

[7] “Though I cry out, ‘Violence!’ I get no response.
I cry for help, but there is no justice.
[8] He has blocked my way so I cannot pass, and has shrouded my path in darkness.
[9] He has stripped me of my honor, and removed the crown from my head.
[10] He tears me down on every side until I am gone; He uproots my hope like a tree.
[11] His anger burns against me, and He considers me
among His enemies.
[12] His troops advance together; they build a siege ramp
against me
and encamp around my tent.

[13] “He removed my brothers far from me; my acquaintances are only strangers to me.
[14] My relatives have gone away and my close friends have forgotten me.
[15] My houseguests and my maidservants consider me a stranger.
I have become a foreigner in their eyes.

16 I call my servant but he does not reply though I beg him with my own mouth.
17 My breath is repulsive to my wife; I am loathsome to my children.
18 Even young children despise me; when I stand, they speak against me.[10]
19 All my close friends despise me; those I love have turned against me.
20 My bones cling to my skin and my flesh; I have escaped only by the skin of my teeth.

21 “Have pity on me my friends, have pity, for the hand of God has struck me.
22 Why do you pursue me—like God?
Are you not satisfied with my flesh?
23 Oh that my words were written, that they were recorded in a scroll 24 that with an iron pen and lead, they were engraved in stone forever!

My Redeemer Lives!

25 “Yet I know that my Redeemer lives, and in the end,
He will stand on earth.
26 Even after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God;[11] 27 I myself will see Him with my own eyes, I and not a stranger.
My heart[12] grows weak within me.

28 “If you say, ‘How we will pursue him, since the root of the matter is found in him;’ 29 then you should fear the sword for yourselves; for wrath brings the punishments of the sword— so that you may know judgment!”

Zophar: Death and Hell for the Wicked

Job 20 1 Then Zophar the Naamathite responded and said: 2 “In truth, my troubled thoughts urge me to answer because of my feelings within me.

3 I hear a rebuke that dishonors me and my understanding inspires me to reply.
4 Do you not know that it has been from old, since mankind was put on earth,
5 that the triumph of the wicked is short and the joy of the godless is but for a moment?
6 Though his pride reaches to the heavens, and his head touches the clouds,
7 he perishes forever like his own dung.
Those who have seen him will say,
‘Where is he?’
8 Like a dream, he flies away and they cannot find him;
like a vision of the night,
he is chased away.
9 The eye that saw him will not see him again; his place will look on him no more.
10 His children must recompense the poor; his own hands must give back his wealth.
11 His bones were full of his youthful vigor but it will lie down with him in the dust.
12 Though evil is sweet in his mouth, though he hides it under his tongue,
13 though he cannot bear to let it go and holds it in his mouth,
14 his food turns sour in his stomach; it becomes the venom of serpents within him.
15 He swallows riches and vomits them up; God empties
it out of his stomach.

16 He sucks the poison of serpents; fangs of a viper kill
him.
17 He will not look at streams, rivers flowing with honey and butter.
18 He gives back what he toiled for without swallowing
it; he will not enjoy the riches of his trade.
19 For he has oppressed and abandoned the poor.
He has seized a house he did not build.
20 For he knows no satisfaction from his greed, he cannot save himself by his desires.
21 Nothing remains for him to devour; therefore his prosperity will not last.
22 In the fullness of his plenty, he will be distressed; the full force of misery will come upon him.
23 While he is filling his belly, He will send the anger of His wrath against him, and rain it down it on him, on his flesh.
24 Though he flees from an iron weapon, a bronze bow pierces him through.
25 He pulls and it comes out of his back, the gleaming point out of his liver.
Terrors come upon him!
26 Total darkness waits for his treasures; A fire not fanned will devour him;
it will consume what is left in his tent.
27 The heavens will expose his iniquity; the earth will rise up against him.
28 A flood will carry off his house, rushing waters on the day of His wrath.
29 Such is the wicked man’s lot from God, the heritage appointed to him by God.”

Job's Dialogue on the Wicked

Job 21 [1] Then Job replied: [2] "Listen carefully to my words; let this be your consolation.

[3] Bear with me as I speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.

[4] As for me, is my complaint against man?
If so, why should I not be impatient?

[5] Look at me and be appalled; put your hand over your mouth.

[6] When I think of it, I am terrified and my flesh shudders.

[7] Why do the wicked go on living, growing old and increasing in power?

[8] Their children are established in their presence, their offspring before their eyes.

[9] Their homes have peace and are free from fear; no rod of God is on them.

[10] His bull breeds without fail; his cow calves and do not miscarry.

[11] They send out their little ones like a flock and their children dance.

[12] They sing to the tambourine and harp and rejoice at the sound of the flute.

[13] They spend their days in prosperity, and in a moment go down to Sheol.

[14] Yet they say to God, 'Leave us alone!
We have no desire to know Your ways.

[15] Who is Shaddai that we should serve Him?
What would we gain if we pray to Him?'

[16] Look, their prosperity is not in their own hands; the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 “How often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out or calamity fallen on them?
How often does He allot pain in His anger?
18 How often are they like straw before the wind; like chaff swept away by a storm?
19 You say, ‘God stores up the punishment for his children.’
Let Him repay the wicked so he may know it!
20 Let his own eyes see his ruin; let him drink the wrath of Shaddai.
21 For what does he care for his family that he leaves behind, when the number of his months has come to an end?

22 “Can anyone teach God knowledge, since He judges even the highest.
23 One dies in his full strength,[13]
completely secure and at ease.
24 His pails are full of milk; His bones are moist with marrow.
25 Yet another dies in bitterness of soul, never having tasted goodness.
26 Together they lie in the dust and worms cover over
them.

27 “Behold, I know your thoughts, the schemes by which you wrong me.
28 For you ask, ‘Where is the nobleman’s house and the tent where the wicked lived?’
29 Have you not asked travelers?
Do you not recognize their accounts
30 that the wicked are spared for the day of calamity that they are brought to the day of wrath?
31 Who declares his conduct to his face?
Who repays him for what he has done?

32 He is brought to the grave, and watch is kept over his tomb.
33 The soil in the valley is sweet to him; everyone follows after him,
and countless are those before him.

34 “So how will your futility comfort me, for your answers remain nothing but falsehood?”

Eliphaz Keeps Pointing at Sin

Job 22 1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded saying: 2 “Can a man be useful to God?
Can even a wise man benefit Him?
3 What pleasure is it to Shaddai if you are righteous?
Or what gain if your ways are blameless?
4 Is it because of your reverence that He corrects you and He brings judgment against you?
5 Is not your wickedness great, and is there no end to your iniquity?
6 For you took pledges from your brothers for no reason; you stripped the naked of their clothing.
7 You gave the weary no water to drink and from the hungry you withhold bread, 8 Though you were a mighty man, owning land— an honored man living on it.
9 You sent widows away empty-handed and crushed the arms of orphans.

10 “That is why snares surround you, and why sudden fear terrifies you, 11 or why it is so dark that you cannot see.
and why a flood of water covers you.

12 “Is not God in the heights of heaven?
And see the lofty stars how high they are?
13 Yet you say, ‘What does God know?
Does He judge through such thick darkness?
14 Thick clouds veil Him so He does not see, as He walks in the vault of heaven.’
15 Will you keep to the old way that wicked men have trod?

16 They were snatched away before their time, their foundations washed away by a river.
17 They said to God, ‘Leave us alone!
What can Shaddai do to us?’
18 Yet He filled their houses with good things— but the counsel of the wicked is far from me!
19 The righteous see and rejoice; the innocent mock them, saying,
20 ‘Surely our foes are cut off, and fire consumes their abundance.’

21 “Reconcile now with Him and have shalom— in this way prosperity will come to you.
22 Accept instruction from His mouth and store up His words in your heart.
23 If you return to Shaddai, you will be restored; if you remove iniquity far from your tent 24 and throw your gold in the dust, and the gold of Ophir
to the rocks in the wadis, 25 then Shaddai will be your gold and your precious silver.
26 Surely then Shaddai will be your delight and you will lift up your face to God.
27 You will pray to Him and He will hear you, and you will fulfill your vows.
28 What you decide will be done, and light will shine on your ways.
29 When people are brought low, and you say, ‘Lift them
up!’
then He will save the downcast.
30 He will deliver even one who is not innocent, who will be delivered by the cleanness of your hands.”

Job's Argument with God

Job 23 1 Then Job answered: 2 "Even today my complaint is rebellious; His hand is heavy despite my groaning.
3 If only I knew where to find Him; if only I could go to His dwelling.
4 I would lay out my case before Him and fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know with what words He would answer me,
and understand what He would say to me.
6 Would He oppose me with great power?
No, He would only pay attention to me.
7 There the upright can reason with Him, and there I would forever be delivered from my Judge.
8 But, if I go to the east, He is not there; if I go to the west,
I do not find Him.
9 When He is in the north, I cannot perceive Him; When He turns south, I do not see Him.
10 Yet He knows the way that I take; if He tested me, I would come out as gold.
11 My foot has held closely to His steps; I have kept to His way and have not strayed.
12 I have not departed from the commands of His lips.
I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my daily bread.
13 He is unchangeable, and who can change Him?
Whatever His soul desires, He does.
14 For He fulfills the decree against me, and many such things are with Him.
15 That is why I am terrified at His presence; when I consider this, I fear Him.
16 God has made my heart faint; Shaddai has terrified
me.

17 Yet I am not silenced because of the darkness, nor by the thick darkness that covers my face.”

Futility of Injustice

Job 24

1 “Why are times not stored up by Shaddai?
And why do those who know Him not see His days?
2 Some remove the boundary-stones; they steal flocks
and pasture them.
3 They drive away the orphan’s donkey and take the widow’s ox as a pledge.
4 They turn the needy off the path; they force the poor of the land into hiding.
5 Behold, like wild donkeys in the desert, they go about their work, foraging prey in the desert as food for their children.
6 They reap their fodder in the field and glean in the vineyard of the wicked.
7 Without clothing they spend the night naked, without covering against the cold.
8 They are drenched by mountain rains, and hug the rock for lack of shelter.
9 The orphan is snatched from the breast; the infant of the poor is taken as a pledge.
10 They wander about naked, without clothing and go hungry while they carry sheaves.
11 They press oil between the terraces; they tread
winepresses, but are thirsty.
12 From the city men groan, and the souls of the wounded cry out;
yet God charges no one with folly.
13 These are those who rebel against the light, who do not recognize its ways or stay in its paths.
14 The murderer rises with the light, kills the poor and needy, and in the night becomes a thief.
15 The eye of the adulterer waits for twilight, thinking,
‘No eye will see me,’ and he disguises his face.

16 When it is dark, they break into houses, but by day,
they shut themselves in;
they do not know the light.
17 For to all of them, morning is as thick darkness; they are familiar with the terrors of thick darkness.
18 “He is foam on the surface of water; their portion of the land is cursed;
no one turns toward their vineyards.
19 As heat and drought snatch away the melted snow, so Sheol, takes away those who have sinned.
20 The womb forgets him, the worm feasts on him,
no longer will he be remembered.
But like a tree, wickedness is broken.
21 He feeds on the barren and childless woman, and shows no kindness to the widow.
22 But He drags off the mighty by His power; He raises up, yet no one has assurance of life.
23 He allows him to rest in a sense of security, but His eyes are on their ways.
24 They are exalted for a little while and then they are gone;

they are brought low
and gathered up like all others,
they are like heads of grain they wither.
25 Now if it is not so, who can prove me a liar, and reduce my speech to nothing?”

Bildad: Justified With God?

Job 25 [1] Then Bildad the Shuhite answered: [2] “Dominion and awe are with Him; He establishes shalom in His heights.
[3] Can His armies be counted?
On whom does His light not rise?
[4] How then can a man be righteous with God?
How can one born of a woman be pure?
[5] If even the moon is not bright and the stars are not pure in His eyes, [6] how much less man who is but a maggot— a son of man who is a worm!”

Job: God is Awesome

Job 26 1 Then Job responded and said: 2 “How you have helped the powerless!
How you have saved the arm without strength!
3 How you have counseled the one without wisdom and revealed your abundant insights!
4 To whom have you uttered words?
Whose spirit has come from your mouth?

5 “The dead tremble—those beneath the water and all that live in them.
6 Sheol is naked before Him; Abaddon has no covering.
[14]
7 He stretches out the north over the void; He suspendsthe earth over nothing.
8 He wraps up the waters in His clouds, yet the clouds
do not burst under them.
9 He covers the face of the full moon, spreading His clouds over it.
10 He marks out the horizon on the face of the waters,
for a boundary between light and dark.
11 The pillars of heaven tremble, astounded at His rebuke!
12 By His power He churns up the sea; by His understanding He smashed Rahab.
13 By His Ruach the heavens are clear; His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
14 Indeed, these are but glimpses of His ways; how faint
the whisper, we hear of Him!
Who then can understand the thunder of His might?”

What Hope has the Godless?

Job 27 1 And Job took up his discourse again, saying: 2 “As God lives, who has deprived me of justice, Shaddai who has made my soul bitter, 3 as long as my breath is still in me, the Ruach of God in my nostrils, 4 my lips will speak no injustice, nor will my tongue mutter deceit.

5 Far be it from me to say that you are just; until I die, I will not set aside my integrity!
6 I will maintain my righteousness, and not let it go; my conscience will not reproach me for any of my days.

7 “May my enemy be like the wicked my enemy like the unrighteous.
8 For what hope has the godless, when he is cut off,
when God takes his soul?[15]
9 Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?
10 Will he delight in Shaddai?
Will he call upon God at all times?
11 I will teach you about the hand of God; I will not conceal the ways of Shaddai.
12 Look, you have all seen this yourselves.
Why then this meaningless talk?

13 “This is the portion of a wicked man with God, the inheritance that ruthless men receive from Shaddai.
14 If his children increase— it is for the sword.

His offspring will never have enough to eat.
15 Those who survive him will be buried by the plague,
and their widows will not weep.
16 Though he piles up silver like dust, and clothing like heaps of mortar,
17 what he lays up, the righteous will wear, and the upright will divide the silver.
18 The house he built is like a moth’s cocoon, like a hut made for a watchman.
19 “He lies down wealthy, but will gather no more.
When he opens his eyes,
all is gone!
20 Terrors overtake him like a flood; a storm sweeps him away at night.
21 The east wind picks him up and he is gone; it sweeps him out of his place.
22 It hurls itself at him without pity as he flees headlong from its hand.
23 It claps its hands at him in derision, and hisses him out of his place.”

Where Can Wisdom be Found?

Job 28

1 “Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is refined.
2 Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.
3 Man puts an end to darkness; he searches to the farthest reaches
for ore in gloom and blackest darkness.
4 He cuts open a shaft far from dwellings, in places forgotten by feet.
Far from other people,
they dangle back and forth.
5 The earth, from which food comes, is transformed as
by fire;
6 a place whose rocks are sapphires, its dust contains gold.
7 No bird of prey knows the path; nor falcon’s eye has seen it.
8 Proud beasts have not set foot on it, and no lion has passed there.
9 Man sets his hand against the flinty rock and overturns mountains by the roots.
10 He carves out tunnels through the rocks; his eye sees every precious thing.
11 He dams up streams from flowing.
And brings hidden things to light.

12 “But where can wisdom be found?
Where is the place of understanding?
13 No mortal comprehends its worth; it cannot be found in the land of the living.
14 The deep says, ‘It is not in me’— The sea says, ‘It’s not with me.’

15 Pure gold cannot be given for it, nor can its price be weighed in silver.
16 It cannot be weighed in gold from Ophir, in precious onyx, or sapphire.
17 Neither gold or crystal can compare with it, nor vessels of fine gold exchanged for it.
18 No mention will be made of coral or jasper; the price of wisdom is more than pearls.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia cannot compare to it; nor can it be valued in pure gold.
20 Where then does wisdom come from?
Where is the place of understanding?
21 It has been hidden from the eyes of all living things, concealed from the birds of the sky.
22 Abaddon and Death say, ‘With our ears we have heard a rumor of it.’

23 “God understands its way and He knows its place.
24 He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees everything under the heavens.
25 When He made the force of the wind, and measured out the waters,
26 when He set a limit for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm,
27 then He looked at it and assessed it established it and examined it.
28 And He said to mankind, ‘The fear of the Lord—that is wisdom,
and to turn away from evil is understanding.”’

Job Remembers Better Days

Job 29 1 Again Job took up his discourse saying: 2 “O that I could be as in the months gone by, as in the days when God watched over me,
3 when His lamp shone above my head, when by His light I walked through darkness; 4 as I was in the days of my prime, when God’s intimate friendship was upon my tent, 5 when Shaddai was still with me, and my children surrounded me;
6 when my steps were bathed with butter, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil.
7 When I went out to the city gate, and secured my seat in the public square, 8 young men would see me and hide, old men would rise and stand; 9 princes refrained from talking and put their hand over their mouths;
10 the voice of the nobles was hushed and their tongue
stuck to their palate.

11 “When the ear heard, it called me blessed,
and when the eye saw me,
it commended me;
12 for I saved the poor who cried for help, and the orphan who had no one to help him; 13 the blessing of the dying man came on me, and I made the widow’s heart sing for joy.
14 I put on righteousness as my clothing; justice was as my robe and turban.
15 I was eyes for the blind and feet for the lame;
16 I was a father to the needy, and I investigated the case of one I did not know.
17 I broke the jaws of the unjust, and snatched the prey out of his teeth.

18 “Then I thought, ‘I will die in my nest, and multiply my days like the sand.
19 My roots reach the water, and dew lies on my branches all night.
20 My glory is fresh within me, and my bow is renewed in my hand.’

21 “People listened to me and waited, and kept silent for my advice.
22 After I had spoken, they spoke no more; my words fell on them drop by drop.
23 They waited for me as for the rain, and opened their mouths as for spring rain.
24 When I joked with them, they hardly believed it; they did not cause the light of my face to fall.
25 I chose their way and sat as their chief; I lived as a king among the troops;
I was like one who comforts mourners.

Cry of Great Agony

Job 30

1 “But now they mock me—those younger than me, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
2 Moreover, what use was the strength of their hands to me, since their vigor has gone from them.
3 Haggard from want and hunger, they gnaw the parched land,
in former time desolate and waste.
4 In the brush they pluck salt herbs, and their food was from the root of the broom tree.
5 They were banished from society, shouted at as if they were thieves,
6 so they were forced to dwell in wadis, in holes of the earth and among the rocks.
7 They brayed among the bushes and huddled under the nettles.
8 A senseless and nameless brood, they were cast out from the land.
9 “So now I have become their taunt song; I have become a byword to them.
10 They despise me; they keep their distance from me;
they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
11 Because He has loosened my cord and afflicted me, they have cast off restraint in my presence 12 On my right the rabble rise up; they entangle my feet
and build up their destructive paths against me.
13 They break up my path; they succeed in destroying me without anyone helping them.
14 As through a wide breach they come; amid the ruins
they come rolling in.
15 Terrors are turned on me; they chase away my honor
like the wind,

and like a cloud my deliverance vanishes.
16 “And now my soul is poured out within me; days of suffering have taken hold of me.
17 Night pierces my bones within me; my gnawing pains never rest.
18 By great power He seizes my garment; He binds me
like the collar of my tunic.
19 He has cast me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes.

20 “I cry out to You, but You do not answer me; I stand up, but You only look at me.
21 You have turned on me cruelly; You attack me with the might of Your hand.
22 You lift me up on the wind and make me ride on it;
You toss me about in the storm.
23 For I know that you will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all the living.
24 Yet does not one in a heap of ruins stretch out His hand, and in his distress cry for help?
25 Have I not wept for the unfortunate?
Was not my soul grieved for the poor?
26 Yet, when I hoped for good, evil came; when I waited for light, then darkness came.
27 “My heart[16] seethes and never stops; days of suffering confront me.
28 I walk about blackened, but not by the sun; I stand in the assembly and cry for help.
29 I have become a brother to jackals, and a companion to ostriches.
30 My skin has turned black on me; my bones burn with heat.
31 My harp is for mourning and my flute for the sound of weeping.

Job Asks for Judgment

Job 31

1 “I made a covenant with my eyes not to pay attention to a virgin.
2 For what is one’s lot from God above, one’s heritage from Shaddai on high?
3 Is it not calamity for the unjust, and disaster for workers of iniquity?
4 Does He not see my ways and count all my steps?

5 “If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has hurried to deceit,
6 then let Him weigh me with honest scales, then God
will know my integrity.
7 If my step has strayed from the way, if my heart has walked after my eyes,
or if any defilement has stuck to my hands, 8 then let me sow and another eat, and let my crops be uprooted.
9 If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or I have lurked at my neighbor’s door, 10 then let my wife grind for another and let others sleep with her.
11 For that would be a shameful act, an iniquity to be judged.
12 For it is a fire that devours to destruction, and uproots all my harvest.

13 “If I have denied justice to my male or female servant
when they disputed with me, 14 then what could I do when God rises up; when He visits, how will I answer Him?
15 Did not He who made me in the womb, make him?
Did not the same one form us in the womb?

16 “If I withheld the desires of the poor or let the eyes of the widow to fail,
17 if I ate my morsel of bread myself, without letting an orphan eat of it 18 (but from my youth I reared him as a father, and from my mother’s womb I guided her), 19 if I have seen anyone perishing for lack of clothing or the needy without a covering, 20 if his heart did not bless me as he warmed himself with the fleece of my sheep, 21 if I have raised my hand against the orphan, when I saw my support in the gate,
22 then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder, and let my arm be broken off at the joint.
23 For calamity from God was a terror to me, and because of His majesty, I could do nothing.

24 “If I have put my confidence in gold or said to fine gold, ‘You are my security,’ 25 if I rejoiced because of my great wealth or because of the abundance my hand acquired, 26 if I looked at the sun when it shines or the moon moving in splendor, 27 so that my heart was secretly enticed, and my hand
threw a kiss from my mouth, 28 then this also would be iniquity to be judged, for I would have denied God above.

29 “If I rejoiced at my enemy’s misfortune or gloated because calamity found him— 30 I have not allowed my mouth to sin, by asking for his life with a curse—31 if anyone in my household has ever said, ‘Who has not been filled with his meat?’ 32 —but no stranger had to spend the night outside for my door was open to the traveler— 33 if I have I covered my transgressions like Adam, by hiding my guilt in my bosom

34 because I feared a great multitude, and the contempt
of clans terrified me,

so that I kept silent
and would not go outside.
35 O, that I had someone to hear me!
Look, here is my signature,
let Shaddai answer me, let the accuser write the indictment!
36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; I would bind it on me as a crown.
37 I would give Him an account of my steps; like a prince I would approach Him.

38 “If my land cries out against me, and its furrows weep together, 39 if I have eaten its fruits without money, or caused the death of its owners, 40 then let briars come up instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley.”

The words of Job are ended.

Young Elihu Speaks

Job 32 1 So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. 2 Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite of the clan of Ram became very angry. He was angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God. 3 He was also angry with his three friends because they had not found an answer, and yet had condemned Job. 4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were older. 5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his anger was aroused.
6 Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite responded and said:
"I am young in days and you are old; that is why I was timid and dared not to tell what I know.
7 I thought, 'Let days speak, and many years teach
wisdom.'[17]
8 But there is a spirit in people, the breath of Shaddai that gives them understanding.
9 It is not only the aged who are wise or old men who understand justice.

10 "Therefore I say, 'Listen to me!
I, even I, will explain what I know.'
11 Look, I waited for your words, I listened to your reasoning;
while you were searching for words
12 I gave you my full attention.
But behold, no one proved Job wrong;
none among you, answered his statements.
13 Lest you should say, 'We have found wisdom; let God refute him, not man!'
14 Job has not directed his words to me and I will not respond to him with your arguments.

15 “They are dismayed and no longer reply; words have failed them.
16 Must I wait, since they no longer speak since they stand there with no reply?
17 I too will answer my part; I too will declare what I know.
18 For I am full of words, and the spirit within me
compels me;
19 inside I am like wine that has no opening, like new wineskins ready to burst.
20 I must speak that I may find relief; I will open my lips that I may answer.
21 I will show partiality to no one, nor will I flatter anyone;
22 for I do not know how to flatter else my Maker would quickly carry me away!

Job 33

1 “But now, Job, listen to my words and give ear to everything I say.
2 See now, I open my mouth; my tongue in my mouth speaks.
3 My words are from my upright heart; my lips speak
sincerely what they know.

4 “The Ruach of God has made me; the breath of Shaddai gives me life.
5 Answer me, if you can; array yourselves before me;
take your stand!
6 Look, I am the same as you before God; I too am formed from clay.
7 See, no fear of me should terrify you, nor should my pressure be heavy on you.

8 “Indeed, you have said in my hearing, —I heard the sound of the words:

9 ‘I am pure, without transgression; I am innocent, without iniquity.
10 Yet, He has found fault with me; He considers me His enemy.
11 He puts my feet in the shackles; He watches closely all my paths.’

12 “But in this, you are not right— I answer you, for God is greater than a mortal.
13 Why do you contend against Him that He does not answer all His words.
14 Indeed, God speaks once, even twice, yet no one perceives it.
15 “In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, as they slumber in bed, 16 Then He opens the ears of men and seals their instruction,

17 in order to turn a man from his conduct and to cover a person’s pride.
18 He spares his soul from the Pit and his life from perishing by the sword.
19 Or a person is chastened with pain on his bed, with continual strife in his bones, 20 so that his life loathes bread, and his soul, desirable food.
21 His flesh wastes away from sight, and his bones, once unseen, now stick out.
22 His soul draws near to the Pit and his life to the messengers of death.

23 “If there is an angel beside him, a messenger, one out of a thousand, to declare to a man his uprightness, 24 then He is gracious to him, and says ‘Deliver him from going down to the Pit— I have found a ransom;’ 25 let his flesh be restored like a child’s; let him return to the days of his youth.’
26 He entreats God and is accepted by Him; he sees His face with a shout of joy;
He restores to the man his righteousness.
27 He sings to others, saying, ‘I have sinned and perverted what is right, but I did not get what I deserved.
28 He redeemed my soul from going down to the Pit, and my life sees the light.’

29 “Indeed, God does all these things, twice, even three times with a man,
30 to bring his soul back from the Pit, that he may be illuminated with the light of life.
31 Pay attention, Job, listen to me; Be silent, and I will speak.
32 If you have anything to say, answer me.

Speak, for I want to justify you.
33 If not, then listen to me.
Be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Testing Job's Claims

Job 34 1 Then Elihu answered: 2 "Hear my words, you wise men;
give ear to me, you men of learning.
3 For the ear tests words as the mouth tastes food.
4 Let us choose for ourselves what is right; Let us learn together what is good.

5 "For Job says, 'I am righteous, but God has deprived me of justice.
6 Concerning my right, should I lie?
My wound is incurable, although I am without transgression.'
7 What man is like Job, who drinks mockery like water, 8 who keeps company with evildoers, and walks with wicked men?
9 For he says, 'It does not profit a man when he makes his delight with God.'

10 "Therefore, listen to me, you men of understanding:
Wickedness is far from God, injustice from Shaddai 11 For He repays a person for what he has done, and brings on the person what he deserves.

12 "Truly God does not act wickedly, and Shaddai does not pervert justice.
13 Who appointed Him over the earth?
Who put Him over the whole world?

14 "If He were to set His heart on it, and gather to Himself His Ruach and breath, 15 all flesh would perish together and mankind would return to dust.
[18]
16 "Now if you have understanding, hear this; give ear
to the sound of my words.

17 Can someone who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn the mighty, righteous One?
18 Who says to a king, ‘Worthless man’
and to nobles, ‘Wicked men’!
19 Who shows no partiality before princes, and does not favor the rich over the poor, for they are all the work of His hands.
20 They die in a moment, at midnight, people are shaken and they pass away.
The mighty are removed without a hand.

21 “For His eyes are on the ways of man; He sees all his steps.
22 There is no gloom and no deep darkness, where evildoers can hide themselves.
23 For He does not consider a man further that he should go before God in judgment.
24 He shatters the mighty without inquiry, and sets others in their place.
25 Thus He recognizes their deeds, He overturns them in the night and they are crushed.
26 He strikes them for their wickedness in a place where people can see,
27 because they turned from following Him, and have not understood any of His ways.
28 They caused the cry of the poor to come before Him, so that He hears the cry of the afflicted.

29 “But if He is quiet, who can condemn Him?
If He hides His face, who can see Him?
Yet He is over a nation and an individual alike, 30 so that godless men should not rule, nor lay snares for people.
31 “Suppose someone says to God, ‘I have born chastisement, but I will not act wickedly any more.

32 Teach me what I cannot see.
If I have done evil, I will not do it again.’
33 Should He requite it on your terms, because you reject it?
But you must choose and not I;
now declare what you know.
34 “Men of understanding declare, wise men who hear me say to me,
35 ‘Job speaks without knowledge, and his words lack understanding.’
36 Oh, that Job might be tested to the end, for answering like wicked men.
37 For he adds rebellion to his sin; in our midst he claps his hands and multiplies his words against God.”

Job 35 1 Then Elihu answered, saying: 2 “Do you think this is just?
Do you say,
‘My righteousness is greater than God’s?’
3 For you ask, ‘What will it profit you?’
and ‘What do I gain by not sinning?’
4 I will answer you, and your friends with you.
5 Look up at the heavens and see; consider the clouds so high above you.
6 If you sin, how does it affect Him?
If your transgressions are many, what do you do to Him?
7 If you are righteous, what do you give Him, or what does He receive from your hand?[19]
8 Your wickedness is for a man like yourself, and your righteousness for a son of man.

9 “Because of a multitude of oppressions, they cry out; they cry for help because of the power of the mighty.
10 But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,
11 who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?’
12 There they cry out, but He does not answer, because of the pride of the wicked.
13 Indeed God does not hear an empty cry; Shaddai pays no attention to it.
14 How much less when you say that you do not perceive Him that the case is before Him and you must wait for Him.
15 And further, that His anger does not punish and that He does not know transgression?
16 So Job opens his mouth with nonsense, without knowledge he multiplies words.”

Elihu Magnifies the Almighty

Job 36 1 Then Elihu said further: 2 “Be patient with me a bit longer and I will show you that there is more to say on God’s behalf.
3 I get my knowledge from afar; I ascribe righteousness
to my Maker.
4 For truly, my words are not false; One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

5 “Indeed, God is mighty, but despises none, He is mighty in strength of understanding.
6 He does not keep the wicked alive, but gives justice to the afflicted.
7 He does not take His eyes from the righteous, but enthrones them with kings and exalts them forever.
8 But if they are bound in chains, and held captive by cords of affliction, 9 then He declares to them their deed that they have transgressed arrogantly.
10 And He opens their ear to instruction, and commands
that they turn from evil.
11 If they obey and serve, they will end their days in prosperity, and their years in happiness.
12 But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword, and die without knowledge.

13 “The godless in heart harbor anger, they do not cry
for help even when He binds them.
14 Their souls die in youth, their life ends among cult prostitutes.
15 He delivers the afflicted by his affliction and opens their ear in oppression.

16 “And indeed, He will draw you from the mouth of distress, to a spacious place without constraint, and the comfort of a table full of rich food.
17 But you are full of judgment on the wicked, judgment
and justice take hold of you!
18 Beware lest wrath entice you with riches; or a large bribe turn you aside.
19 Will your wealth sustain you to keep you from distress, or even all your mighty efforts?
20 Do not long for the night, when people vanish from their places.
21 Be careful, do not turn to iniquity; for you have chosen this rather than affliction.

22 “Indeed, God is exalted in His power.
Who is a teacher like Him?
23 Who has prescribed His way for Him?
Or said ‘You have done wrong’?
24 Remember to magnify His work, of which people have sung.
25 All mankind has seen it; people gaze on it from afar.
26 Behold, God is exalted—beyond our knowledge!
The number of His years is unsearchable.
27 For He draws up the drops of water; they distill rain
into its mist,
28 which the clouds pour down and shower mankind abundantly.
29 Indeed, who can understand the spreading of the clouds, and the thunder from His pavilion?

30 “See how He scatters His lightning about Him, covering the depths of the sea.
31 For by these, He judges peoples and supplies food in abundance.

32 He covers His hands with lightning and commands it to strike its target.
33 His thunder declares His presence, the cattle also,
about what is coming.

Job 37

1 “At this my heart trembles and leaps from its place.
2 Listen carefully to the roar of His voice, the rumbling
that comes from His mouth.
3 Under the whole heaven He lets it loose, and His light
to the ends of the earth.
4 After that a voice roars; He thunders with His majestic voice.
He does not hold them back when His voice is heard.
5 God thunders wondrously with His voice; He does great things beyond our comprehension.

6 “For to the snow He says, ‘Fall to the earth,’ and to the torrential rain—be a mighty downpour of rain.
7 He seals the hand of every man, so that all men will know His work.
8 The animals go into their lairs; they remain in their dens.
9 Out of its chamber comes the storm, and icy cold from the driving wind.
10 From the breath of God frost is made, and the watery expanse freezes.
11 He loads the cloud with moisture; He scatters His cloud of lightning.
12 It swirls around by His guidance, to do whatever He commands
on the face of the inhabited world.
13 Whether it is a rod of punishment or for His land or for lovingkindness,
He causes it to happen.

14 “Listen to this, Job: stand and consider God’s wonders.

15 Do you know how God orders them, and makes the lightning flash in His cloud?
16 Do you know the balancing of clouds, the wonders of Him who has perfect knowledge?

17 “You, whose clothes are hot, when the earth is still,
because of the south wind, 18 can you, with Him,
stretch out the skies, strong as a mirror of molten metal?
19 Teach us what to say to Him; we cannot prepare a case because of the darkness.
20 Should He be informed that I want to speak?
If a man speaks, would he be swallowed up?
21 But now, they do not see the light, bright as it is in the skies,

until the wind has passed
and cleared the clouds away.
22 Out of the north comes in golden splendor; around
God is awesome majesty.
23 Shaddai, we cannot find Him!
He is great in power and justice,
and abundant righteousness He does not oppress.
24 Therefore people fear Him; He does not regard all the wise of heart.”

Word out of the Whirlwind

Job 38 1 Then ADONAI answered Job out of the whirlwind.
He said:

2 “Who is this, who darkens counsel with words without knowledge?
3 Now gird up your loins like a man; I will question you,
and you will inform Me!

4 “Where were you when I laid the foundations of earth?
Tell Me, if you have understanding.
5 Who set its dimensions—if you know— or who stretched a line over it?
6 On what were its foundations set, or who laid its cornerstone— 7 when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 “And who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb,
9 when I made a cloud its garment and thick darkness its swaddling cloth, 10 when I prescribed my boundary for it, and set bars and gates, 11 when I said, ‘This far you may come, but no further;
here your majestic waves will stop.’
12 “Have you ever in your life commanded the morning,
or caused dawn to know its place; 13 that it would take hold of the corners of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?
14 It changes shape like clay under a seal— they stand out like those of a garment.
15 And from the wicked their light is withheld, and the upraised arm is broken.

16 “Have you gone to the springs of the sea, or walked in the recesses of the deep?
17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Have you seen the gates of the deepest darkness?
18 Have you comprehended the expanses of the earth?
If you know it all, declare it!
19 In what direction does light dwell, and darkness, where is its place— 20 that you can take it to its borders, and discern the paths to its home?
21 Surely you know, for you were born then; and the number of your days is great!

22 “Have you entered the storehouses of snow or seen
the storehouses of hail, 23 which I reserved for a time of distress, for a day of battle and war?
24 In what direction is light distributed, or the east wind scattered over the earth?
25 Who cuts a channel for the flood, and a path for the
thunderstorm,
26 to cause it to rain on an uninhabited land, a desert
with no one in it, 27 to satisfy a devastated and desolate land, and cause it to sprout grass?
28 Does the rain have a father, or who has birthed the drops of dew?
29 From whose womb comes the ice?
Who gives birth to the frost of heaven, 30 when the waters hide like stone, and the surface of the deep is frozen?

31 “Can you bind the chains of Pleiades or loosen the belt of Orion?
32 Do you bring out the constellations in their season or guide the Bear with her cubs?

[33] Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?
Can you set up dominion over the earth?

[34] “Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with an abundance of water?
[35] Can you send out lightning bolts, so they go?
Will they say to you, ‘Here we are’?
[36] Who put wisdom in the secret place or gave understanding to the mind?
[37] Who can count the clouds by wisdom, or tip over the water jars of heaven, [38] when dust hardens into a mass and clods of earth
stick together?

[39] “Do you hunt prey for the lioness or satisfy the hunger of young lions, [40] when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in the thicket?
[41] Who arranges provision for the raven, when its young cry out to God,
and wander about for lack of food?

Job 39

1 “Do you know when the mountain goats give birth?
Do you observe the calving doe?
2 Do you count the months they fulfill and do you know the time when they give birth 3 when they kneel, bring forth their young, and their labor pains end?
4 Their young thrive and grow strong in the open field;
They leaveand never return to them.

5 “Who sent the wild donkey free?
Who released the bonds of the wild ass,
6 to whom I gave the Arabah as its home, the salt land
as its dwelling place?
7 It scorns the commotion in the town; it does not hear the taskmaster’s shouts.
8 It explores the mountains as its pasture and searches
after every green thing.

9 “Is the wild ox willing to serve you?
Will it spend the night at your manger?
10 Will you bind a wild ox to a furrow with his rope?
Will it plow valleys behind you?
11 Will you rely on it for its great strength?
Will you leave your labor to it?
12 Can you trust it to bring in your seed and gather it to your threshing floor?
13 “The wings of the ostrich flap joyously, but are they
the pinions and plumage of a stork?
14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the soil, 15 and forgets that a foot may crush them, that a wild beast may trample them.
16 She treats her young ones harshly, as if they were not hers; She is not concerned that her labor was in vain, [17] for God did not endow her with wisdom or give her a share of understanding.

[18] When she lifts herself to flee she laughs at the horse and its rider.

[19] “Do you give the horse its strength?
Do you clothe his neck with a mane?
[20] Do you cause him to leap like locust?
His majestic snorting is terrifying!
[21] He paws in the valley and exalting in his strength he charges into the fray.
[22] He laughs at fear and is not dismayed; he does not recoil from the sword.
[23] On him the quiver rattles; the spear and javelin flash.
[24] With quaking and excitement, he swallows up the ground.
He cannot stand still when the shofar sounds.
[25] At the blast of the shofar, he says, ‘Aha!’
From a distance he smells battle,
the shout of the captains and the battle cry.
[26] “Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, spreading its wings toward the south?
[27] Is it by your command that an eagle soars and builds its nest high?
[28] It dwells on a cliff and spends the night there, on a rocky crag and stronghold.
[29] From there it searches for food; its eyes detect it
from afar.
[30] Its young ones suck up blood, and where the slain are, there it is.”

Insignificant Before God

Job 40 1 Then ADONAI answered Job, saying: 2 “Will the one who contends with Shaddai correct him?
Let him who accuses God answer!”

3 Then Job answered ADONAI. He said: 4 “Indeed, I am unworthy—what can I reply to You?
I put my hand over my mouth.
5 I spoke once, but I have no answer— twice, but I will say no more.”

6 Then ADONAI answered Job from the whirlwind: 7 “Brace yourself like a man; I will question you,
and you will inform Me!

8 “Would you really annul My judgment?
Would you condemn Me to justify yourself?
9 Do you have an arm like God’s and can you thunder with a voice like His?
10 Then adorn yourself in majesty and dignity; clothe yourself in splendor and honor.
11 Scatter the fury of your anger.
Look at every proud personand bring him low; 12 look at everyone who is proud and humble him; tread down the wicked where they stand.
13 Hide them together in the dust bind their faces in the hidden place.
14 Then I—even I will acknowledge to you, that your own right hand can save you!

Behemoth and Leviathan

15 “Look now at Behemoth, which I made along with
you.
He eats grass like an ox.
16 Now look at his strength in his loins, and his power in the muscles of his belly.
17 He stiffens his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are knit together.
18 His bones are tubes of bronze; His limbs like rods of iron.
19 He is first among the ways of God, Let his Maker
draw near with His sword!
20 For the mountains bring him food, and all the wild animals play there.
21 Under the lotus plants he lies down, in the secrecy of the reeds and marsh.
22 The lotuses conceal him in their shade; the willows of the brook surround him.
23 If the river rages, he is not alarmed.
He is secure, even though the Jordan surges against
his mouth.
24 Can anyone capture it by its eyes, or pierce his nose
with hooks?

25 “Can you pull in Leviathan with a hook,[20]
or tie down his tongue with a cord?
26 Can you put a reed rope in his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?
27 Will he make many supplications to you, or speak softly to you?
28 Will he make a covenant with you, so you can take him as a slave forever?

29 Can you play with him like a bird, or put him on a leash for your girls?
30 Will traders barter for him?
Will they divide him among the merchants?
31 Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
32 If you lay your hands on him— you will remember the battle and never do it again!

Job 41

1 “See, his hope is wrong, he is laid low, even the sight of him.
2 Is he not fierce when he is roused?
Who then is able to stand before Me?
3 Who has confronted Me that I should repay?[21]
Everything under heaven belongs to Me.

4 “I will not keep silent about his limbs, or his might or the grace of his arrangement.
5 Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who can penetrate his double armor?
6 Who can open the doors of his face, ringed with fearsome teeth?
7 His rows of shields are his pride, shut up closely as
with tight seal;
8 each so close to the next, that no air can pass between.
9 They are joined one to another; they clasp each other and cannot be separated.

10 “He sneezes out flashes of light; his eyes are like the eyelids of dawn.
11 Out of his mouth go flames, sparks of fire shoot out.
12 Smoke pours from his nostrils, as a boiling pot over burning reeds.
13 His breath sets coals ablaze and flames dart from his
mouth.

14 “Strength resides in his neck; dismay runs before
him.
15 The folds of his flesh are tightly joined; they are firm on him, immovable.
16 His heart is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.

17 “When he rises up, the mighty are afraid; at his crashing they retreat.

18 A sword that reaches him has no effect— nor with a spear, dart, or javelin.
19 He regards iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood.
20 Arrows do not make him flee; sling stones become like chaff to him.
21 A club is regarded as stubble; he laughs at the rattling of a lance.

22 “His undersides are jagged potsherds, leaving a trail
like a threshing sledge in mud.
23 He makes the deep boil like a cauldron and stirs up the sea like a pot of ointment.
24 He leaves a shining wake behind him; one would think the deep had white hair.
25 Nothing on dry land is his equal— a creature without fear.
26 He sees every haughty thing; he is king over all who are proud.”

Job Retracts

Job 42 [1] Job answered ADONAI and said:

[2] “I know You can do all things;
no purpose of Yours can be thwarted.
[3] You ask, ‘Who is this,
who darkens counsel without knowledge?’
Surely I spoke without understanding,
things too wonderful for me which I did not know.
[4] You said, ‘Hear now, and I will speak;
I will question you,
and you will inform Me.’
[5] I had heard of You by the hearing of the ear;
but now my eye has seen You.
[6] Therefore I despise myself,
and repent on dust and ashes.”

Job Restored

7 After ADONAI had spoken these words to Job, ADONAI said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My anger is kindled against you and against your two friends, because you have not spoken about Me what is right, like My servant Job has. 8 So now, take for yourselves seven young bulls and seven rams and go to My servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, for I will accept Job’s prayer[22] and not deal with you according to your folly because you have not spoken correctly about Me, like My servant Job.”

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what ADONAI told them; and ADONAI accepted Job’s prayer.
10 So ADONAI restored what Job had lost, after he prayed for his friends and ADONAI doubled everything that Job had before.
11 Then all his brothers, all his sisters and everyone who had known him before, came to him and ate bread with him in his house. They consoled him and comforted him for all the calamity that ADONAI had brought upon him. Each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring.
12 So ADONAI blessed Job’s latter days more than at his beginning. He had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen and 1,000 female donkeys. 13 He also had seven sons and three daughters. 14 He called the name of the first Jemimah, the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-happuch. 15 Nowhere in the land were there found women as beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.
16 After this, Job lived 140 years; he saw his children and their children for four generations. 17 And so Job died, old and full of days.

Song of Songs 1 1 The song of songs[1] of Solomon A Bride Sings of Her Lover 2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth!
For your love is better than wine.
3 Your ointments have a pleasing fragrance.
Your name is poured out like perfume.
No wonder maidens love you!
4 Draw me after you, let us run!
The king has brought me into his chambers.

Chorus: Daughters of Zion Let us rejoice and be glad in you;

let us extol your love more than wine.
Rightly do they love you!

The Bride

5 I am black, but beautiful, O daughters of Jerusalem,
like the tents of Kedar,
like the curtains of Solomon.
6 Do not gaze at me because I am dark, because the sun has looked on me.
My mother's sons were angry with me and made me keeper of the vineyards; my very own vineyard I have not kept.
7 Tell me, the one my soul loves, where you graze your flock,
where you make it lie down at noon?
Why should I be as one veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

The Lover and Bride Express Affection 8 If you yourself do not know, O most beautiful among women, go out yourself in the footsteps of the flock and graze your kids by the shepherds' tents.

9 I compare you, my darling, to my mare among Pharaoh's chariots.
10 Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, your neck with strings of beads.
11 Ornaments of gold we will make for you with spangles of silver.

12 While the king is on his couch, my nard spreads its fragrance.[2]
13 My lover is my pouch of myrrh, passing the night between my breasts.
14 My love is to me a spray of henna blooms in the vineyards of En-gedi.

15 How lovely you are, my darling, how lovely!
Your eyes are doves.

16 How handsome you are, my lover!
Oh, so delightful!
Yes, our couch is luxuriant.
17 The beams of our houses are cedar trees, our panels are cypress trees.

1 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

2 Like a lily among thorns, so is my darling among the daughters.

3 Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest, so is my lover among the sons.
In his shadow I delighted to sit,
and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
4 He has brought me to the banquet house and his banner over me is love.
5 Sustain me with raisin cakes, refresh me with apples
— for I am weak with love.
6 His left hand is under my head and his right hand embraces me.

7 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you, by the gazelles
and does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love
until it delights.

8 The voice of my lover!
Behold, he is coming—
leaping over the mountains,
springing over the hills!
9 My lover is like a gazelle or a young buck among the stags.
Look! He is standing behind our wall— gazing
through the windows,
peering through the lattice.

10 In response my lover said to me: “Get yourself up, my darling,
my pretty one, and come, come![3] 11 For behold, the winter has past, the rain is over, it has gone.

12 Blossoms appear in the land, the time of singing has come,
and the voice of the turtle-dove
is heard in our land.
13 The fig tree ripens its early figs.
The blossoming vines give off their fragrance.
Arise, come, my darling,
my pretty one, and come, come!
14 My dove, in the clefts of the rock, in a secret place along the steep path, let me see your form,
let me hear your voice.

For your voice is sweet and your form is lovely.”

15 Catch the foxes for us— the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, for our vineyards are in blossom.

The Bride’s Revelry 16 My lover is mine, and I am his!

He grazes his flocks among the lilies.
17 Until the day cools and the shadows flee away,
turn about, my lover,
like a gazelle or like a stag
upon the mountains of spices.

Song of Songs 3

1 On my bed in the night I longed for the
one my soul loves.
I looked for him but did not find him.
2 I will get up and go about the city, into the streets and into the squares.
I must seek the one my soul loves.
I looked for him but did not find him.
3 The guards patrolling the city found me.
"Have you seen the one my soul loves?"
4 Hardly had I passed beyond them when I found the
one my soul loves.
I held him, and I would not let him go, until I brought him to my mother's house, to the chamber of her who conceived me.

5 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you, by the gazelles
and does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love
until it delights.

The King on his Wedding Day 6 Who is this—she who is coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with every powder of the merchant?

7 Behold, it is Solomon's traveling couch— around it are sixty warriors
from the warriors of Israel.
8 All of them wield a sword, experts in war.
Each man with his sword on his thigh against terrors of the night.
9 King Solomon has made for himself a carriage from the trees of Lebanon.
10 He made its posts of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple cloth,

its interior fitted out with love by the daughters of Jerusalem.
11 Go out, daughters of Zion, and gaze upon King Solomon,
with a wreath his mother placed on him on the day of his marriage— on the day of his heart’s joy.

The King Delights in His Bride

Song of Songs 4

1 How lovely you are, my darling, how lovely!
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
Your hair is like a flock of ewe goats descending down from Mount Gilead.
2 Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes coming up from washing.
Each of them has a twin,
and none among them is missing.
3 Your lips are like a scarlet thread and your speech is lovely.
Your temple is like a slice of pomegranate behind your veil.
4 Like the tower of David is your neck, built for weapons.
A thousand shields are hung on it —all shields of warriors.
5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, like twin gazelles grazing among the lilies.
6 Until the day cools and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.
7 You are altogether lovely, my darling, and no blemish is in you.[4] 8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Watch from the top of Amana,
from the top of Senir, even Hermon, from lions' dens,
from mountains of leopards.
9 You have captivated my heart, my sister, my bride—
you captivated me

with one of your eyes,
with one jewel from your necklace.
10 How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride!
How much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils better than all spices!
11 Your lips, my bride, drip honey from the honeycomb.

Honey and milk
are under your tongue.

The scent of your garments
is like the aroma of Lebanon.
12 A locked garden is my sister, my bride, an enclosed spring, a sealed fountain.
13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruit,

henna with nard
14 —nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon— with all the trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes,
along with all the finest spices— 15 a garden spring,
a well of living water[5]
and flowing streams from Lebanon.

16 Awake, north wind, and come, south wind!
Blow on my garden,
Let its fragrance spread out.
Let my lover come into his garden and eat its choicest fruit.

Awake and Waiting

Song of Songs 5

1 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride.
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey.
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Eat, O friends,
Drink, yes, drink your fill, O lovers!

2 I sleep, but my heart is awake.
A voice! My lover is knocking!
"Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my perfect one!
For my head is drenched with dew, my locks with dewdrops of night."
3 I have stripped off my coat.
How can I put it on again?
I have washed my feet.
How can I soil them?

4 My lover extended his hand through the opening —my heart yearned for him.
5 I rose to open for my lover.
My hands dripped with myrrh,
yes, my fingers with flowing myrrh, on the handles of the lock.
6 I opened to my lover— but my lover had departed,
he was gone!
My soul went out to him when he spoke.
I searched for him, but did not find him.
I called him, but he did not answer me.
7 The guards making rounds in the city found me.

They beat me, bruised me.
The guards on the walls took my veil from me.

8 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you, if you should find my lover, what will you tell him?
That I am sick from love!

9 How is your lover different from other lovers, O most beautiful among women?
How is your lover different from other lovers that you charge us so?

10 My lover is dazzling and ruddy, standing out among ten thousand.
11 His head is purest gold, his hair is wavy, black as a raven.
12 His eyes are like doves beside streams of water,
washed with milk,
mounted in their settings.
13 His cheeks are like a bed of spice, towers of sweet-scented perfume.
His lips are lilies,
dripping with liquid myrrh.
14 His hands are rods of gold set with jasper.

His abdomen is carved ivory inlaid with sapphires.
15 His legs are pillars of alabaster set on bases of pure gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon— excellent like the cedars.
16 His mouth is sweetness.
Yes, he is totally desirable.
This is my lover! Yes, this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Songs 6

1 Where has your lover gone, most beautiful among women?
Where has your lover turned,
so we may seek him with you?

2 My lover went down to his garden, to the beds of balsam to graze his flocks in the gardens and to gather lilies.
3 I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine.
He browses among the lilies.

Acclaiming the Bride's Beauty 4 You are beautiful, my darling, like Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem,
awesome as an army with banners.
5 Turn your eyes away from me, for they overwhelm me!
Your hair is like a flock of ewe goats descending down from Gilead.
6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes that have come up from the washing.
Each of them has a twin,
and none among them is missing.
7 Your temple is like a slice of pomegranate behind your veil.
8 There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and young women beyond number.
9 Yet my dove, my perfect one is unique.
She is her mother's only one— a virtuous child of the one who bore her.
Maidens saw her and called her blessed.
Queens and concubines praised her.
10 Who is this that appears like dawn?

As beautiful as the moon,
bright as the sun,
awesome as an army with banners.

11 I went down into the garden of nut trees to look at the fruit of the valley, to see if the vine had budded,
or the pomegranates had bloomed.
12 Before I was aware, my soul set me among the chariots of my princely people.

Song of Songs 7

1 Come back, come back, O Shulammite!
Come back, come back,
that we may look upon you.

Why do you gaze at the Shulammite like the dance of Mahanaim?

2 How lovely are your sandaled feet, O nobleman's daughter!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels, the work of a craftsman's hand.
3 Your navel is a round goblet, may it not lack mixed wine.
Your belly is a heap of wheat
enclosed with lilies.
4 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.
5 Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are pools in Heshbon
near the gate of Bath-rabbim.
Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon overlooking Damascus.
6 Your head crowns you like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple.
The king is captivated in its tresses!
7 How beautiful and how pleasing you are, O Love, with your delights!
8 Your stature is like a date palm and your breasts like its clusters.
9 I said, "I will climb the date palm and take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apple.

The Bride's Appeal [10] May your mouth be like the best wine, going down smoothly for my beloved, causing the lips of sleepers to speak.

[11] I am my lover's, and his desire is for me.
[12] Come, my beloved, let us go out into the field.
Let us spend the night in the villages.
[13] Let us go out early to the vineyards, —let us see if the vine has budded, if their blossoms have opened,
and if the pomegranates have bloomed— there I will give you my love.
[14] The mandrakes have given off fragrance, and over our door is every choice fruit, both new and old,
that I have stored up for you, my lover.

Song of Songs 8

1 O, that you were like a brother to me, who nursed at my mother's breasts.
If I found you outside, I would kiss you, and no one would despise me.
2 I would lead you and bring you into my mother's house— she who has taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink from the nectar
of my pomegranate.
3 O that his left hand were under my head, and his right hand embraced me.

4 I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem, Do not arouse or awaken love
until it so delights.

Protecting Love

5 Who is this coming up from the wilderness leaning on her lover?
Under the apple tree I roused you.
There your mother travailed with you.
There she who was in labor gave you birth.
6 Set me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm.
For love is as strong as death,
jealousy as cruel as Sheol.
Its flames are bolts of fire,
the flame of ADONAI.
7 Many waters cannot quench love, nor rivers wash it away.
If one gave all the wealth of his house for love, it would be utterly despised.

8 We have a little sister, still without breasts.
What shall we do for our sister
on the day when she is spoken for?
9 If she is a wall, we will build on her a turret of silver.
If she is a door,
we will fence her in with cedar plank.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers.
Thus I have become in his eyes
as one bringing shalom.
11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon.
He entrusted the vineyard to caretakers.
Each was to bring for his fruit
a thousand pieces of silver.
12 My very own vineyard is before me.

The thousand are for you, Solomon,

and two hundred for those who tend the fruit.

13 You who abide in the gardens, friends are listening for your voice.
Let me hear it!

14 Come quickly, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

Ruth

1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Elimelech’s Family in Moab

Ruth 1 1 It came to pass in the days when judges were governing, there was a famine in the land. A man went from the town of Bethlehem[1] in Judah to dwell in the region of Moab with his wife and his two sons. 2 The man’s name was Elimelech, his wife’s name was Naomi, and his two sons were named Mahlon and Chilion. They were Ephratites from Bethlehem in Judah. They came to the region of Moab and remained there.
3 Then Naomi’s husband Elimelech died, so she was left with her two sons. 4 They married Moabite women—one was named Orpah and the second was named Ruth, and they dwelt there about ten years. 5 Then those two, Mahlon and Chilion, also died. So the woman was left without her children and her husband.
6 Then she got up, along with her daughters-in-law to return from the region of Moab, because in the region of Moab she had heard that ADONAI had taken note of His people and given them food. 7 So she left the place where she was, along with her two daughters-in-law, and they started out on the road to return to the land of Judah.
8 So Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go, return each of you to your mother’s house. May ADONAI show you the same kindness that you have shown to the dead and to me. 9 May ADONAI grant that you find rest, each of you in the house of her own husband.” Then she kissed them and they wept loudly.
10 “No!” they said to her, “we will return with you to your
people.”
11 Now Naomi said, “Go back, my daughters! Why should you go with me? Do I have more sons in my womb who could become your husbands? 12 Go home, my daughters! I am too old to have a husband. Even if I were to say that there was hope for me and I could get married tonight, and then bore sons, 13 would you wait for them to grow up? Would you therefore hold off getting married? No, my daughters, it is more bitter for me than for you—for the hand of ADONAI has gone out against me!”

14 Again they broke into loud weeping. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye. But Ruth clung to her. 15 She said, “Look, your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Return, along with your sister-in-law!”

Ruth’s Covenant With Naomi

16 Ruth replied,
“Do not plead with me to abandon you,
to turn back from following you.
For where you go, I will go,
and where you stay, I will stay.
Your people will be my people,
and your God my God.
17 Where you die, I will die,
and there I will be buried.
May ADONAI deal with me, and worse,
if anything but death comes between me and you!”

18 When she saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she no longer spoke to Ruth about it.
19 So the two of them went on until they arrived in Bethlehem. As soon as they arrived in Bethlehem the whole city was excited because of them, and the women asked, “Is this Naomi?”
20 “Do not call me Naomi,” she told them. “Call me Mara—since Shaddai has made my life bitter.[2] 21 I went away full, but ADONAI has brought me back empty. Why should you call me Naomi, since ADONAI has testified against me and Shaddai has brought calamity on me?”
22 So Naomi and her daughter-in-law Ruth the Moabitess returned from the region of Moab. They arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Gleaning in Boaz's Field

Ruth 2 1 Now, Naomi had a relative on her husband's side—from Elimelech's family—a prominent man of substance whose name was Boaz.
2 Ruth the Moabitess, said to Naomi, "Please let me go out to the field and glean grain behind anyone in whose eyes I may find favor."
Naomi said to her, "Go ahead, my daughter." 3 So Ruth went out and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. She just so happened to be in the field of Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.
4 Soon after Boaz arrived from Bethlehem, he said to the harvesters, "ADONAI be with you."
They replied, "May ADONAI bless you." 5 Then Boaz asked the foreman of his harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"
6 "She is a Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the region of Moab," the foreman replied. 7 "She asked 'Please allow me to glean and gather among the barley sheaves behind the harvesters.' So she came and has been working in the field since morning until now, except for a little while in the shelter."
8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen to me, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field or even pass on from here, but stay close to my female workers. 9 Keep your eyes on the field that they are harvesting, and follow after them. I strongly ordered the young men not to touch you. When you are thirsty, you can go to the jars and drink from the water the young men have drawn."
10 Then she fell upon her face, bowing to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes that you have noticed me, even though I am a foreigner?" 11 Boaz replied and said to her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me—how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people you did not know before. 12 May ADONAI repay you for what you have done, and may you be fully rewarded by ADONAI, God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge." 13 She said, "May I continue to find favor in your eyes, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your maidservant, even though I am not one of your maidservants." 14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come over here and eat some bread and dip your piece into the wine vinegar." So she sat beside the harvesters and he held out to her roasted grain.

She ate until she was full, and some was still left. 15 When she got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his workers saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, do not humiliate her. 16 Also be sure to pull out some grain for her from the sheaves and leave them for her to pick up, and do not rebuke her." 17 So she gleaned in the field until evening. When she thrashed what she had gathered, there was about an ephah of barley. 18 She carried it back to town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Ruth took some out and gave her what was left over after eating her fill.
19 Her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you glean today?
Where did you work? May the one who noticed you be blessed!"
She told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked and she said, "The name of the man for whom I worked is Boaz." 20 So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by ADONAI who has not stopped his kindness to the living or to the dead." Then Naomi said to her, "This man is closely related to us, one of our kinsmen-redeemers."[3] 21 Then Ruth the Moabitess said, "He even said to me, 'Stay close to my workers until they have finished the entire harvest.'"
22 Naomi answered her daughter-in-law Ruth, "It is good, my daughter-in-law, that you go out with his female workers, so that you will not be harmed in another field." 23 So she stayed close to Boaz's female workers, gleaning until both the barley harvest and the wheat harvest were completed. Meanwhile she lived with her mother-in-law.

Naomi the Matchmaker

Ruth 3 [1] Naomi her mother-in-law said to her “My daughter, should I not be seeking a resting place for you, so it may go well for you? [2] Now, is Boaz, with whose female workers you have been, not our relative? Look, he will be winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. [3] So bathe and perfume yourself, put on your cloak and go down to the threshing floor. But do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. [4] Let it be that when he lies down and you know the place where he lies down, go uncover his feet and lie down there. He will tell you what to do.”

[5] Ruth answered her, “I will do everything you say.” [6] So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law had said.

[7] After Boaz ate, drank, and was in a good mood, he went to lie down at the far side of the grain pile. So she came to the grain pile quietly, uncovered his feet, and lay down. [8] Now in the middle of the night, the man was startled and pulled back—and to his surprise, a woman was lying at his feet!

[9] “Who are you?” he asked.

“I am Ruth, your handmaid,” she answered. “Spread the corner of your garment over your handmaid, for you are a goel.”

[10] “May you be blessed by ADONAI, my daughter!” he replied.
“You have made the latter act of loyalty greater than the first,
by not running after the young men, whether rich or poor.
[11] Now my daughter, do not be afraid! Everything you propose,
I will do for you, for everyone in town knows that you are a woman of valor. [12] Although it is true that I am a goel, there is one who is a closer goel than me. [13] Stay here tonight, and in the morning, if he will be your goel—good! Let him do so. But if he is not willing to be your goel, then I will be your goel myself, as surely as ADONAI lives. Lie down until morning.”

[14] So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before one person could be distinguished from another, for he said, “Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.” 15 Then he said, “Bring the cloak you are wearing and hold it out.” She held it out and he poured six measures of barley into it and put it on her. Then he returned to town.

16 When Ruth came back to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, “How did it go, my daughter?”

So Ruth told her all that the man had done for her. 17 She said “He gave me six measures of barley, for he said, ‘You shouldn’t go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’”

18 “Wait, my daughter,” Naomi said, “until you find out how the matter turns out, for he will not rest until he has settled the matter today.”

Who Will Redeem?

Ruth 4 1 Meanwhile Boaz had gone up to the gate and sat down there. And all of a sudden, the goel about whom Boaz had spoken passed by. “Come over,” he called, “and sit down here, my friend.” So he came over and sat down.
2 Then Boaz took ten of the town’s elders and said, “Sit down here,” so they sat down. 3 Then he said to the goel, “Naomi, who has returned from the region of Moab, is selling the parcel of land that belongs to our brother Elimelech. 4 I thought I should inform you saying, ‘Buy it in the presence of the people sitting here, and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, redeem it. But if it will not be redeemed, then tell me, so that I can know, because there is no one else in line to redeem it. I am after you.’”
“I will redeem it,” he said.
5 Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from Naomi’s hand, you will also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the deceased, in order to raise up the name of the deceased over his inheritance.”
6 The kinsman said, “Then I cannot redeem it for myself, or else I might endanger my own inheritance. You, take my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.” 7 Now in the past in Israel, one removed his sandal and gave it to another, in order to finalize the redemption and transfer of a matter. This was a legal transaction in Israel.
8 So the kinsman said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself,” then took off his shoe.
9 Boaz announced to the elders and all the people: “You are witnesses today that I have bought from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon. 10 Moreover, I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon to be my wife in order to raise up the name of the deceased over his inheritance, so that the name of the deceased will not be cut off from his brothers or from the gate of his town. You are witnesses today.”

11 All the people at the gate and the elders said, “We are witnesses. May ADONAI make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, who both built up the house of Israel. May you prosper in Ephrath and be renowned in Bethlehem. 12 May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah,[4] through the seed that ADONAI will give you by this young woman.” 13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. When he went to her, ADONAI enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son. 14 Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be ADONAI, who has not left you without a goel today. May his name be famous throughout Israel. 15 Moreover, He will be to you a renewer of life and a sustainer of your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.”
16 Naomi took the child and held it to her bosom, and took care of him. 17 The neighboring women gave him a name saying “A son has been born to Naomi!” So they called him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.
18 These are the generations of Perez: Perez fathered Hezron, 19 Hezron fathered Ram, Ram fathered Amminadab, 20 Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon,
21 Salmon fathered Boaz, Boaz fathered Obed, 22 Obed fathered Jesse, and Jesse fathered David.

Song of Jerusalem's Groaning

Lamentations 1 1 How lonely sits the city, once so full of people!
She who was once great among the nations has become like a widow.

The princess among the provinces
has become a forced laborer.
2 Bitterly she weeps in the night, her tears are on her cheeks.
Among all her lovers,
there is no one to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her.
They have become her enemies!
3 Judah is gone into exile under affliction and great servitude.
She dwells among the nations.
She finds no resting place.
All her pursuers have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

4 The roads to Zion mourn for no one comes to her moadim.
All her gates are desolate.
Her kohanim groan, her maidens[1] grieve— she is in bitter anguish.
5 Her foes have become her masters.
Her enemies are at ease.
For ADONAI has afflicted her, because of her many transgressions.

Her children have gone away
as captives before the adversary.
6 All her splendor has departed, from the daughter of Zion.

Her princes are like stags
that find no pasture.

They have fled without strength
before the pursuer.
7 In the days of her affliction and her wandering, Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers from the days of old.
When her people fell into enemy hands, there was no one to help her.

Her enemies saw her
and mocked at her destruction.
8 Jerusalem has greatly sinned— therefore, she has become niddah.
All who honored her despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness.
She herself groans,
and turns away.
9 Her uncleanness was in her skirts.
She did not consider her future.
Her demise was astonishing,
there was no one to comfort her.
"ADONAI, see my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!"
10 The enemy has stretched his hand over all her treasures.

She even saw nations
enter her sanctuary—

those You had commanded
not to enter Your congregation.
11 All her people groan, as they seek bread.
They traded their treasures for food to keep themselves alive.
"Look, ADONAI, and see!
For I have become despised!"
12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by on the road?
Look and see!
Is any suffering like my suffering that was brought on
me,
that ADONAI has inflicted in the day of His fierce anger?
13 From on high He sent fire into my bones and it overcame them.
He spread out a net for my feet;
He turned me back.
He made me desolate,
faint all the day long.
14 My transgressions are bound into a yoke, woven together by His hand.
They have come upon my neck
and He has sapped my strength.

The Lord delivered me over to those I cannot withstand.
15 The Lord has rejected all the mighty ones in my midst.
He has summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men.
In a winepress the Lord has trampled[2]
the virgin daughter of Judah.
16 Over these things I weep.
My eyes overflow with water.
For far from me is a comforter,
who might refresh my soul.
My children are desolate,
because the enemy has prevailed.”

17 Zion spreads out her hands— there is no one to comfort her.
ADONAI has decreed against Jacob.
Those surrounding him have become his foes;
Jerusalem has become
niddah in their eyes.
18 “ADONAI is righteous, for I have rebelled against His word.
Hear now, all peoples—
look at my suffering!
My maidens and my young men
have gone into captivity.
19 I called to my lovers— they deceived me!
My kohanim and my elders perished in the city

when they sought food
to keep themselves alive.
20 Look, ADONAI, for I am in distress!
My stomach churns,
my heart pounds within me,
for I have been very rebellious.
Outside, the sword bereaves,
in the house it is like death.
21 They have heard me groaning.
There is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies heard of my distress, They rejoice
that You have done it.
May You bring about the day that You proclaimed, so they may become like me!
22 Let all their evil come before You.
Deal with them as you dealt with me, because of all my transgressions.

For my groans are many
and my heart is faint!”

Lament for Zion

Lamentations 2

1 How my Lord has clouded over the daughter of Zion in His anger!
He hurled down the splendor of Israel from heaven to
earth.
He has not remembered His footstool in the day of His anger.
2 My Lord has mercilessly swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob.

He threw down the strongholds
of the daughter of Judah in His fury.
He knocked to the ground and humiliated the kingdom and its princes.
3 In fierce anger He has cut off every horn of Israel.
He has withdrawn His right hand
from before the enemy.
He blazed against Jacob like raging fire, devouring everything around.
4 He bent His bow like an enemy, set His right hand like a foe,
and killed all those pleasant to the eye.
In the tent of the daughter of Zion He has poured out
His wrath like fire.
5 My Lord is like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.
He swallowed up all her citadels,

destroyed her fortifications
and multiplied mourning and moaning for the daughter of Judah.
6 Like the garden He laid waste His dwelling, destroyed His appointed meeting place.
ADONAI has caused moed and Shabbat to be forgotten in Zion.
In the indignation of His anger
He spurned king and kohen.
7 The Lord rejected His altar, despised His Sanctuary.
He has delivered the walls of her citadels into the hand of the enemy.
They raised a shout in the house of ADONAI
as if it were the day of a moed.
8 ADONAI resolved to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.
He stretched out a measuring line.
He did not withdraw His hand from destroying.
He caused rampart and wall to lament— together they languished away.
9 Her gates sank into the ground.
Her bars He destroyed and shattered.
Her king and princes are among nations.
There is no more Torah.

Also her prophets find
no vision from ADONAI.
10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground in silence.
They threw dust on their heads
and girded themselves with sackcloth.

The maidens of Jerusalem
have bowed their heads to the ground.
11 My eyes are filled with tears.
My stomach is in torment.
My heart[3] is poured out on the ground over the destruction of the daughter of my people— as young children and infants languish in the city squares.
12 They say to their mothers, “Where is grain and wine?”
as they faint like a wounded soldier in the city squares,

as their lives ebb away
in their mothers' bosom.
13 How can I admonish you?
To what can I compare you,
O daughter of Jerusalem?
To what can I liken you, so that I might console you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your wound is as deep as the sea!
Who can heal you?
14 Your prophets have seen for you false and worthless visions.
They did not expose your iniquity,
so as to restore your captivity.
Rather, they have seen for you false and worthless oracles.
15 All who pass your way clap their hands at you.
They hiss and shake their heads
at the daughter of Jerusalem.
"Is this the city of which they said, 'The perfection of beauty,'
'the joy of the whole earth'?"
16 All your enemies opened their mouth wide against you; they hissed and gnashed their teeth, and say,
"We have swallowed her up!
Surely this is the day we have waited for; we have lived to see it!"
17 ADONAI has done what He planned; He has fulfilled His word that He commanded from days of old.
He has overthrown you without pity, He enabled the enemy to gloat over you.
He has exalted the horn of your foes.
18 Their heart cried out to the Lord: O wall of the daughter of Zion,

let tears run down
like a river day and night.
Give yourself no relief,
your eyes no rest.
19 Arise! Cry out in the night at the beginning of the watches!
Pour out your heart like water
before the presence of the Lord.
Lift up your hands to Him
for the life of your children who faint from hunger

at the head of every street.
20 Look, ADONAI, and consider with whom You have dealt so severely!
Should women eat their offspring,
their healthy newborn infants?
Should kohen and prophet be slain in the Sanctuary of the Lord?
21 On the ground in the streets lie both young and old.
My maidens and my young men
have fallen by the sword.
You slew them in the day of Your anger.
You slaughtered them without pity.
22 As on a moed day, You summon against me terrors on every side.
On the day of the wrath of ADONAI
no one escaped or survived.
Those whom I bore and raised my enemy has destroyed.

Lamentations 3

1 I am the strong man who has seen affliction by the rod of His wrath.
2 He has driven me and made me walk in darkness and not light.
3 Surely, He has turned His hand against me again and again all day long.
4 He made my flesh and my skin waste away, broken my bones.
5 He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
6 He made me dwell in dark places like those long dead.
7 He has walled me in so I cannot get out.
He made my chain heavy.
8 Even when I cry out and call for help, He shuts out my prayer.
9 He walled in my ways with hewn stone.
He twisted my paths.
10 He is a lurking bear to me, a lion in hiding.
11 He turned aside my paths and tore me to pieces.
He has made me desolate.
12 He bent His bow and made me the target for His arrow.
13 He shot into my kidneys arrows from His quiver.
14 I have become a laughing stock to all my people,
their song all day long.
15 He has filled me with bitterness and made me drink
wormwood.
16 He broke my teeth with gravel.
He made me wallow in ashes.
17 My soul has been deprived of shalom, I have forgotten goodness.
18 So I said, “My endurance has perished, and my hope
from ADONAI.”

19 Remember my affliction my homelessness, bitterness and gall.
20 Whenever I remember, my soul is downcast within
me.

Our Hope—His Faithfulness

21 This I recall to my heart— therefore I have hope:
22 Because of the mercies of ADONAI
we will not be consumed,
for His compassions never fail.
23 They are new every morning!
Great is Your faithfulness.
24 "ADONAI is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in Him."
25 ADONAI is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul that seeks Him.
26 It is good to wait quietly for the salvation of ADONAI.
27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke in his youth.
28 Let him sit alone and be silent, since He has laid it upon him.
29 Let him put his mouth in the dust— there may yet be hope.

Intercession for Justice

30 Let him offer his cheek to the one who strikes him.[4]
Let him have his fill of disgrace.
31 For the Lord will not reject forever.
32 For though He has caused grief, yet He will have compassion
according to His abundant mercies.
33 For He does not afflict from His heart or grieve the sons of men.
34 To crush under His foot all the prisoners of the land,
35 to deprive a person of justice before the face of Elyon,
36 to defraud a person in his lawsuit— would the Lord not see?
37 Who speaks and it comes to pass unless the Lord has decreed it?
38 Is it not from the mouth of Elyon that both calamities and good things proceed?
39 Why should any living person complain when punished for his sins?
40 Let us examine and test our ways, and let us return to ADONAI.
41 Let us lift up our heart and hands to God in heaven.
42 We have transgressed and rebelled— You have not pardoned.
43 You covered Yourself with anger and pursued us.
You have slain without pity.
44 You shrouded Yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can get through.
45 You have made us scum and refuse in the midst of the peoples.
46 All our enemies opened their mouth wide against us.
47 Panic and pitfall have befallen us, devastation and destruction.

48 Streams of tears run down my eyes because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.
49 My eye flows unceasingly, without stopping,
50 until ADONAI looks down from heaven and sees.
51 My eye torments my soul because of all the daughters of my city.
52 For no reason, my enemies hunted me down like a bird.
53 They cut off my life in the Pit, and cast stones upon
me.
54 Waters flowed over my head.
I said, “I have been cut off!”
55 I called on Your Name, ADONAI, from the depths of the Pit.
56 You heard my voice, “Do not close Your ears to my cry for relief.”
57 You drew near on the day I called to You.
You said, “Do not fear!”
58 Lord, You pled my soul’s case, You redeemed my life.
[5]
59 ADONAI, You saw the wrong done to me; judge my cause!
60 You have seen all their vengefulness, all their schemes against me.
61 You heard their taunt, ADONAI, all their plots against
me.
62 The lips of my assailants and their whispering are against me all day long.
63 Look at them, sitting or standing, they mock me in their song.
64 Pay them back what they deserve, ADONAI, according to the work of their hands.
65 Give them a distraught heart.
May Your curse be on them.

66 Pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the heavens of ADONAI.

Devastation of Jerusalem

Lamentations 4

1 How dulled is the gold, how tarnished the fine gold.
The sacred gems are poured out
at the corner of every street.
2 The precious sons of Zion, once worth their weight in gold— alas! now they are treated like clay jars, the work of a potter’s hands!
3 Even jackals offer their breast to nurse their young.
The daughter of my people has become cruel, like ostriches in the desert.
4 The nursing infant’s tongue clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst.
Little children ask for bread,
but no one gives it t0 them.
5 Those who used to eat delicacies are desolate in the streets.
Those who were brought up in purple embrace trash heaps.
6 For the iniquities of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom,
which was overthrown in a moment,[6]
yet no hands turned to her.
7 Purer than snow were her princes,[7]
whiter than milk,
their bodies more ruddy than rubies, their appearance like sapphire.
8 Their form has become darker than soot!
They are not recognized in the street.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones, withered like a tree.

9 Better are those slain by the sword than those struck down by famine— they waste away, racked with pain,
for lack of fruits of the field.
10 The hands of compassionate women boiled their own children.

They became their food
when the daughter of my people were destroyed.
11 ADONAI has vented His fury.
He has poured out His burning anger.
Yes, He kindled a fire in Zion
that devoured her foundations.
12 The kings of the earth did not believe, nor did the inhabitations of the world, that enemy and foe would enter the gates of Jerusalem.
13 Yet it happened because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her kohanim, who shed in her midst the blood of the tzadikim[8].
14 They wander in the streets, like blind men.
They are so defiled with blood,
no one can touch their garments.
15 “Turn away! Unclean!”
They cry to them.
“Turn away, turn away! Don’t touch!”
So they fled and wandered about.
People among the nations say,
“They can stay here no longer.”
16 ADONAI Himself has scattered them.
He will look on them no more.
They did not respect the kohanim.
They did not favor the elders.
17 Even now our eyes waste away looking in vain for our help.

From our towers we watched
for a nation that could not save us.
18 They hunted our steps, so we could not walk in our streets.
Our end was near.
Our days were numbered, for our end had come.
19 Our pursuers were swifter than eagles of the sky;
they pursued us over the mountains;
they ambushed us in the wilderness.
20 The anointed of ADONAI, the breath of our nostrils, was captured in their pits,
of whom we have said,
"Under His shadow we will live among the nations."
21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, you who dwell in the land of Uz.
To you also will the cup be passed.
You will be drunk and stripped naked.
22 O daughter of Zion, your punishment is accomplished;
He will exile you no longer.
But, O daughter of Edom,

He will punish your iniquity and uncover your sins.

Remember Us!

Lamentations 5

1 Remember, ADONAI, what has come upon
us.
Look, and see our disgrace!
2 Our inheritance is turned over to strangers, our homes to foreigners.
3 We have become orphans, fatherless, our mothers are like widows.
4 We pay silver for the water we drink; our wood comes at a price.
5 Our pursuers are at our necks.
We are weary and have no rest.
6 We have held out our hand to Egypt and Assyria to be satisfied with bread.
7 Our fathers sinned and are no more, but we bear their punishment.
8 Slaves rule over us.
There is no one to deliver us from their hand.
9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives because of the sword in the desert.
10 Our skin is hot as an oven due to fever from famine.
11 The women in Zion have been ravished, maidens in the towns of Judah.
12 Princes are hung up by their hands; elders are dishonored.
13 Young men toil at the millstone.
Boys stagger under loads of wood.
14 Elders are gone from the gate, young men from their music.
15 Joy has ceased in our hearts.
Our dance has turned into mourning.
16 The crown has fallen from our head.

Oy to us, for we have sinned!
17 Because of this our heart is faint, for these things our eyes are dim,
18 for Mount Zion, which lies desolate, as jackals prowl
over it.

Hashiveinu (Restore Us) 19 You, Adonai, are enthroned forever; Your throne endures from generation to generation.[9]

20 Why do You always forget us and forsake us for so long?
21 Bring us back to You, Adonai, and we will return.
Renew our days as of old—22 unless You have utterly rejected us and are exceedingly angry with us.

Kohelet: the Preacher

Ecclesiastes 1

1 The words of Kohelet[1], son of David, king in Jerusalem.
2 Futile! Futile! says Kohelet.
Completely meaningless!
Everything is futile![2] 3 What does a person gain in all his labor that he toils under the sun?
4 A generation comes, and a generation goes, but the earth remains forever.
5 The sun rises and the sun sets, and hurries back to the place it rises.
6 The wind goes toward the south, and circles around to the north.
Round and round it swirls about,
ever returning to its circuits.
7 All the rivers flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full.
To the place where the rivers flow, there they go
again.
8 All things are wearisome.
No one can express them.
The eye is never satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.
9 What has been is what will be, and what has been done will be done again.
There is nothing new under the sun.
10 Is there anything about which is said, “Look! This is new!”?
It was already here long ago,
in the ages long before us.

11 There is no remembrance for former things, and things yet to come will not be remembered by those who follow.

Search for Meaning in Life 12 I, Kohelet, am king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13 I applied my heart to seek and examine by wisdom all that is done under heaven. What a burdensome task God has given the sons of men to keep them occupied. 14 I have seen all the deeds done under the sun; and behold, all is meaningless and chasing after the wind.

15 What is crooked cannot be made straight.
What is missing cannot be counted.

16 I spoke with my heart saying: “I have grown rich and increased in wisdom more than any who were before me over Jerusalem. Indeed, my heart has experienced much wisdom and knowledge.” 17 So I applied my heart to know wisdom as well as to know madness and folly. I learned that this too was pursuit of the wind.

18 For with much wisdom comes much grief, and whoever keeps increasing knowledge, increases heartache.

Futility of Human Pleasures

Ecclesiastes 2 1 I said within myself, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure to see what is good.” Yet behold, this too was meaningless. 2 I said of laughter, “It is madness!” and of pleasure, “What does it accomplish?” 3 I thought deeply about how to cheer my flesh with wine—letting my heart guide me with wisdom—and how to grasp folly, so that I could see what was worthwhile for the sons of men to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

4 I increased my possessions. I built myself houses and I planted myself vineyards. 5 I made royal gardens and parks for myself, and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. 6 I constructed for myself pools of water to irrigate a forest of flourishing trees. 7 I purchased male and female servants and had other servants who were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than all my predecessors in Jerusalem.
8 I also amassed silver and gold for myself, as well as the treasure of kings and the provinces. I acquired male and female singers for myself, as well as the luxuries of humankind
—vaults and vaults of them.[3] 9 So I became far wealthier than all before me in Jerusalem, yet my wisdom stayed with me.

10 I denied myself nothing that my eyes desired; I withheld from my heart no enjoyment.
My heart took delight from all my toil— this was my reward for all my labor.
11 Yet when I considered all that my hands had done
and the toil I had expended to accomplish it, behold,
it all was futile and chasing after the wind.
There was nothing to be gained under the sun.

Futility of Human Wisdom 12 Then I turned to consider wisdom, madness and folly. For what more can the one who succeeds the king do than what he has already done? [13] I realized that: Wisdom is more beneficial than folly as light is better than darkness.

[14] A wise man has his eyes in his head, while the fool walks in the darkness.
Yet, I also came to realize that the same destiny befalls them both.

[15] Then said I in my heart: “I, even I, will have the same destiny as a fool.
So why have I become so wise?”
I said in my heart, “This too is meaningless.” [16] For the wise man, together with the fool, is not remembered forever.
For in the days to come both will be forgotten.
Alas, the wise, just like the fool, must die!

[17] And so I hated life, because the work done under the sun was grievous to me. All is but vapor and chasing after the wind. [18] I also hated all the fruit of my toil for which I had labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the one who comes after me. [19] Who knows if he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will be master over all the fruit of my toil for which I had wisely labored under the sun. This too is futile. [20] So I turned my heart over to despair over all the things for which I had toiled under the sun. [21] For sometimes a man, who has labored with wisdom, knowledge and skill, must hand over as an inheritance to someone who did not work for it. This also is futile and a great misfortune. [22] For what does a man get for all his toil and longing of his heart for which he laborers under the sun? [23] For all his days, his work is pain and grief. Even at night his mind does not rest. This also is futility.

[24] There is nothing better for people than to eat and drink, and to find enjoyment in their labor. This too, I perceived, is from the hand of God. [25] For who can eat and who can have joy, apart from Him? [26] For to the one who pleases Him, He gives wisdom, knowledge and joy, but to the sinner He gives the task of gathering and accumulating wealth to give it to one who pleases God. This also is only vapor and striving after the wind.

A Time For Everything

Ecclesiastes 3

1 For everything there is a season and a time for every activity under heaven: 2 a time to give birth and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted; 3 a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build up; 4 a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn
and a time to dance;
5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing; 6 a time to seek and a time to lose, a time to keep and a time to discard;
7 a time to tear apart and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak; 8 a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

9 What gain, then, does the laborer get with his toil? 10 I have seen the task that God has given to the children of men to keep them occupied.

Yet Eternity In Their Heart 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. Moreover, He has set eternity in their heart—yet without the possibility that humankind can ever discover the work that God has done from the beginning to the end. 12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and enjoy themselves in their lifetime. 13 Also when anyone eats and drinks, and finds satisfaction in all of his labor, it is the gift of God. 14 I know that everything that God does will endure forever. There is no adding to it or taking from it. God has made it so, that they will revere Him.

15 Whatever exists, has already been and whatever will be, has already been, but God recalls what has passed.

16 I have also seen under the sun: In the place of justice
there was wickedness, and in the place of righteousness there was wickedness.
17 I said in my heart: “The righteous and the wicked,
God will judge.
For there is a time for every activity
and for every deed.”

Humans Same As Beasts?

18 I also said in my heart, “As for the sons of man, God tests them so that they may see that they are but animals.” 19 For the destiny of humankind and the destiny of animals are one and the same. As one dies, so dies the other. Both have the same breath—a human has no advantage over an animal—both are fleeting. 20 Both go to one place. Both were taken from the dust, and both return to the dust. 21 Who knows that the spirit of the sons of man ascends upward and the animal’s spirit descends into the earth?

22 So I perceived that nothing is better than for man to enjoy his works, because that is his portion. For who can bring him back to see what will be in the future?

Futility of Human Labor

Ecclesiastes 4 [1] Again I looked and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun, and behold, I saw the tears of the oppressed, but they have no comforter.
Power is in the hand of their oppressors, but they had no comforter.
[2] So I considered the dead, who are already dead,
more fortunate than the living, who are still alive.
[3] Yet better than both is one who has not yet been,
who has never seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

[4] Then I saw that all toil and all skill that is done come from man's envy of his neighbor; this too is fleeting and striving after the wind.

[5] The fool folds his hands together and eats his own flesh.
[6] Better is a handful with tranquility than two handfuls of toil
and striving after the wind.

[7] Again I saw something futile under the sun: [8] There is one who has no one else, neither son nor brother,
yet there is no end to all his toil.
His eyes are not content with riches.
"So, for whom am I toiling,
and depriving myself of prosperity?"
This too is meaningless—
a grievous task!

Two Are Better Than One [9] Two are better than one, because they get a good return for their effort.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his companion.
But oy to the one who falls and has no one to lift him up!
11 Furthermore, if two lie together, then they will be warm.
But how can one keep warm alone?
12 Though a man might overpower one, two can stand against him.
Moreover a threefold cord cannot be quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to take warning. 14 For he came out of prison to become king—though he was born poor in his kingdom. 15 I considered all the living that walk under the sun as well as the next youth who stands in his place. 16 There is no end to all the people—to all who were before him. Also those who will come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this too is meaningless and striving after the wind.

Watch Your Words Before God 17 Watch your feet when you go to the House of God. Draw near to listen, rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they are doing wrong.

Ecclesiastes 5

1 Do not be quick with your mouth nor hasty
in your heart
to utter a word in God's presence.
For God is in heaven,
and you are on the earth—
therefore, let your words be few.
2 As a dream comes with excessive burdens so a fool's voice with too many words.
3 When you swear a vow to God, don't delay in fulfilling
it.
For He takes no delight in fools.
Pay what you vow!
4 It is better for you not to vow than to vow and not pay.
5 Don't let your mouth lead your flesh to sin, and don't say before the messenger, "It was a mistake!"
Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands?
6 Many dreams and many words are meaningless.
Therefore, fear God!

Bureaucratic Oppression 7 If you see the oppression of the poor or perversion of justice and righteousness in the province, do not be shocked at the matter. For one authority watches over another authority, and higher ones are over them. 8 Though the profit of the land is taken by all, a king is served by the fields.

Futility of Wealth 9 A lover of money never has enough money, and a lover of wealth is never satisfied with his income.

This too is futile.
10 When goods increase, so do those who consume
them.
So what advantage are they to the owner except he sees it with his eyes?

[11] The sleep of the laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much— but the excess of the rich permits him no sleep.

[12] There is a grievous wrong that I have seen under the sun:
wealth hoarded by its owner to his own hurt, [13] or wealth lost in a bad investment, and when he fathers a son, there is nothing in his hand.

[14] As he came from his mother’s womb, naked he will return as he came.
He takes nothing from his labor
that he can carry in his hand.
[15] This too is a grievous wrong.
Just as he came, so will he go,
so what does he gain,
from his toiling for the wind?
[16] So, all his days he eats in darkness, and he has much grief, sickness, and humiliation.
[17] Behold, this is what I myself have seen. It is beneficial and good for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy all of his toil that he labors under the sun during the few days of his life that God has given him—for this is his reward. [18] Additionally, everyone to whom God has given riches and wealth, and empowers him to eat from it, to receive his share, and to rejoice in his labor—this is a gift of God. [19] For he will not often consider the days of his life, since God keeps him occupied with the joy of his heart.

Futility of Living Without God

Ecclesiastes 6 [1] There is a misery that I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy upon humanity. [2] God gives a man riches, wealth and honor, so that he lacks nothing that his heart desires, yet God does not enable him to eat from it—instead a foreigner will eat it. This is fruitless—an agonizing illness.

[3] Even if a man should father a hundred children and live many years, however many the days of his years may be, yet his soul is never satisfied with his prosperity and he does not have a proper burial, then I say that it is better for the stillborn than him. [4] Even though it comes in futility and departs into darkness, though its name is shrouded in darkness, [5] though it has never seen or experienced the sun, it has more rest than the other. [6] Even if the other man were to live a thousand years twice and never enjoy good things—do not all go to the same place?

[7] All a man's labor is for his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied. [8] So what advantage has the wise over the fool? What does the pauper gain by knowing how to walk before the living? [9] Better is what the eyes see than the pursuit of the soul's desires. This too is fleeting and striving after wind.

[10] Whatever exists has already been named, and it has been made known what humanity is. But man cannot contend with the One who is mightier than he. [11] When there are many words, futility increases! How does that benefit anyone?

[12] For who knows what is good for one during his life—during the few days of his fleeting life—that pass like a shadow? For who can tell a person what happens after him under the sun?

Lessons from Mourning

Ecclesiastes 7

1 Better is a good reputation than precious oil and the day of death than the day of birth.
2 Better to go to a house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting,
since that is the end of all mankind
—and the living should take it to heart.
3 Grief is better than laughter, for though the face is sad, the heart may be glad.
4 The heart of the wise is in a house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in a house of pleasure.

Wisdom Better Than Folly

5 Better to hear a rebuke from the wise than to listen to the song of fools.
6 For like the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool.
This too is vapor.
7 For extortion drives a wise man crazy, and a bribe corrupts the heart.

8 Better the end of a matter than its beginning.
Better a patient spirit than a proud one.
9 Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit,[4]
for anger settles in the bosom of fools.
10 Do not say, “Why were the old days better than these?”
For it is not from wisdom that you ask about this.
11 Wisdom is as good as an inheritance, and even better for those who see the sun.
12 For wisdom is a shelter as money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is this:
wisdom preserves the life of the one who possesses it.

13 Consider the work of God, for who can straighten what He has bent?
14 In a time of prosperity, prosper!
But in a time of adversity, consider:
God has made one as well as the other.
Therefore man cannot discover anything about his future.

Avoid Extremes

15 During my fleeting days I have seen both of these things: sometimes a righteous one perishes in his righteousness and sometimes a wicked one lives
long in his wickedness.
16 Do not be overly righteous nor overly wise— why confound yourself?
17 Do not be overly wicked and do not be a fool— why die before your time?
18 It is good to grasp the one and not withdraw your hand from the other.
For the one who fears God will escape both extremes.

19 Wisdom makes a wise man stronger than ten rulers in a city.

20 Surely there is not a righteous person on earth who does what is good and doesn't sin.[5]

21 Also, do not pay attention to every word people say, otherwise you might hear your servant mocking you
— 22 for your heart knows that many times you too have mocked others.

23 All this I have tested with wisdom and I said, "I determined to be wise"—but it was far from me. 24 Whatever it may be, it is far off and very profound—who can fathom it? 25 So I turned my heart to understand, to search and seek out wisdom and an explanation of things and to know the stupidity of wickedness and madness of folly.

26 I find more bitter than death the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a trap, and whose hands are chains.

He who pleases God will escape her,
but a sinner will be captured by her.

27 “Look,” said Kohelet, “I have discovered this while adding one thing to another to find the scheme of things—28 which my soul is still seeking, but not finding—I found one upright man among a thousand, but one upright woman among them all I have not found. 29 Only this have I discovered: God made mankind upright, but they went seeking after many schemes.”

Wisdom's Light and Limits

Ecclesiastes 8

1 Who is like the wise person?
Who knows the meaning of a matter?
A person's wisdom makes his face shine,
transforming the harshness of his face.

2 I say: "Obey the king's command, and especially in regard to the oath of God. 3 Do not be hasty to rush out of his presence. Do not stand up for an evil cause, because he will do whatever he desires. 4 Since the word of a king has authority, who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'
5 Whoever obeys his command will not experience harm, and a wise person's heart discerns the proper time and procedure.
6 For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter,
though a person's trouble is heavy upon him.

7 Since no one knows what will be,
who can tell when it will happen?
8 No one has authority over the wind to restrain it,
nor authority over the day of death.
As no one is discharged during a battle,
so wickedness cannot rescue its master.

9 I have seen all this while applying my mind to everything done under the sun: sometimes one person dominates another person to his own harm. 10 Then I saw the wicked buried—they used to come and go from the holy place, but will soon be forgotten in the very city where they did this. This too is meaningless.
11 When the sentence against a crime is not swiftly carried out, the human heart is encouraged to do evil. 12 Even though a sinner might commit a hundred crimes and prolong his days, yet I know that it will be well for those who fear God, for those who revere Him. 13 But it will not go well with the wicked, and he will not lengthen his days like a shadow, because he does not fear God.

14 There is another enigma that occurs upon the earth: there are righteous people who are requited according to the work of the wicked, and there are wicked people who are requited according to the work of the righteous. I said, “This also is meaningless.” 15 So I recommend enjoyment, because there is nothing better for humanity under the sun except to eat, drink and enjoy it. So this joy will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life that God gives him under the sun.

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to observe the activity that is done upon the earth (his eyes not seeing sleep either day or night), 17 then I saw all the work of God. No one can comprehend the work that is done under the sun. Despite all human efforts to seek it out, no one comprehends. Even if a wise person claims to know, he cannot really comprehend.

One Destiny for All

Ecclesiastes 9 [1] For all this I laid on my heart and to ascertain all this: that the righteous and the wise, as well as their works are in the hand of God. Whether love or hatred, no one knows—everything awaits them.
[2] Everyone shares the same destiny: for the righteous and the wicked; for the good, the ritually clean and the defiled; for one who sacrifices and one who does not sacrifice; as the good person so the sinner; as the one who swears like the one who fears an oath.
[3] This is a misery in everything done under the sun: that the same destiny awaits everyone. Moreover, the hearts of all humans are full of evil, and folly is in their hearts during their lives—after that they die. [4] Everyone who is among the living has hope—even a living dog is better off than a dead lion.

[5] For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing.
They have no further reward,
even the memory of them is forgotten.
[6] Their love, their hatred, and their zeal have already perished;
never again will they have a share in anything that is done under the sun.

[7] Go! Eat your bread with gladness and drink your wine with a merry heart, for God has already accepted your deeds. [8] Let your clothes always be white, and do not spare oil on your head. [9] Live joyously with the wife whom you love all the days of your fleeting life that He has given you under the sun during all your fleeting days—for this is your portion in life and in your toil that you labor under the sun.
[10] Whatever your hand finds to do, do with your all strength, for there is no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, where you are going.

11 I further observed under the sun: The race is not to the swift
nor the battle to the mighty, nor does bread come to the wise, or wealth to the discerning,
or favor to the skillful;
for time and chance befall them all.
12 Moreover, no man knows his time: like fish caught in a fatal net or birds caught in a snare, so people are trapped in a time of calamity, that falls upon them suddenly.

13 I also observed this as wisdom under the sun, and it greatly impressed me. 14 There was a little city with a few people in it and a mighty king came against it, surrounded it, and built great siege works against it. 15 Now a poor, wise man was found in it, and he delivered the city by his shrewdness. Yet nobody remembered that poor man! 16 So I said: “Wisdom is better than strength.” But the poor man’s wisdom is despised and his words are not heeded.

17 The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than a ruler’s shout among fools.
18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

Wisdom and Folly

Ecclesiastes 10

1 Dead flies make a perfumer's oil stink, so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.
2 The heart of the wise is to his right, and the heart of the fool is to his left.
3 Even as the fool walks along the way, his heart lacks sense
and tells everyone what a fool he is.

4 If a ruler's spirit rises up against you, do not leave your post,
for composure allays great offences.
5 There is a wrong I have seen under the sun like an error proceeding from a ruler.
6 Fools are placed in many high positions, while the rich sit in low ones.
7 I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking on the ground like slaves.

8 Whoever digs a pit may fall into it, and whoever breaks through a fence may be bitten by a snake.
9 Whoever quarries stones may be hurt by them, and whoever splits logs may be endangered by them.
10 If the iron axe is blunt and one doesn't sharpen the edge,
then he must exert more force.
So wisdom has the advantage of giving success.

11 If the snake bites before it is charmed, there is no profit for the charmer.
12 Words from the mouth of the wise are gracious, but the lips of a fool destroy him.
13 The words from his mouth begin as folly and end as grievous madness— 14 and the fool multiplies words.

No one knows what will happen,
and who can tell him what will happen after him?
15 The mischief of fools wearies them for he doesn’t know how to go to town.

16 Oy to you, O land, when your king is a youth[6]
and your princes feast in the morning.
17 Happy are you, O land, when your king is a son of nobles, and your princes eat at the proper time— in self-control and not in drunkenness!

18 By laziness the rafters sag, and by idle hands the house leaks.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes life glad
— but money is the answer for everything.

20 Do not ridicule the king—even in your thoughts, nor curse the rich in your bedroom.
For a bird of the air may carry your voice, and a winged creature may report your words.

Wisdom of the Long View

Ecclesiastes 11

1 Cast your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will find it.
2 Give portions to seven, or even to eight, for you do not know what disaster may happen upon the earth.

3 If the clouds are full, they empty out rain upon the earth.
Whether a tree falls to south or north, the tree lies wherever it falls.
4 Whoever keeps watching the wind will not sow and whoever gazes at the clouds will not reap.

5 Just as you do not know how the spirit passes into the bones in the womb of a pregnant woman, so you do not know the work of God who makes all things.

6 In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not let your hand be idle, for you do not know if this or that will succeed, or if both will prosper together.

7 Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to see
the sun.
8 For if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them
all.
But let him remember the days of darkness— for there will be many.
Everything to come is obscure.

9 Rejoice, young man, in your childhood, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth.
Walk in the ways of your heart
and in the sight of your eyes,
but know that for all these things
God will bring you to judgment.

10 So banish anxiety from your heart and cast off distress from your body,
for youth and prime of life are fleeting.

Ode for the Aging

Ecclesiastes 12

1 So remember your Creator in the days of your youth:
before the days of misery come,
and years draw near when you will say: “I have no pleasure in them”— 2 before the sun and light and moon and the stars grow dark, and the clouds dissipate after the rain, 3 in the day
the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men stoop,
when grinders stop because they are few, and those peering out windows grow dim, 4 when doors are shut in the street and the sound of the mill fades, when one arises at the chirp of a bird and all their songs grow faint,
5 when they also are afraid of heights and of dangers on the road,
when the almond tree blossoms,
the grasshopper drags itself along, and the caper berry fails to excite— for a man is going to his eternal home, and mourners go about in the street— 6 before the silver cord is snapped, or the golden bowl is crushed, or the jug at the cistern is shattered, or the wheel
at the well is broken.
7 Then the dust returns to the ground it came from, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

8 “Evanescent vapors,” says Kohelet.
All is futility.

Conclusion: Fear God 9 Furthermore, Kohelet was not only wise but he also taught the people knowledge. He pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. [10] Kohelet searched to find delightful words and truthful, accurate sayings. [11] The words of the wise are like goads, their collective sayings are like firmly affixed nails. They have been given by one Shepherd. [12] Be warned my son of anything in addition to them: There is no end to the making of many books, and excessive study wearies the flesh.

[13] A final word, when all has been heard: Fear God and keep His mitzvot!
For this applies to all mankind.
[14] God will bring every deed into judgment, including everything that is hidden, whether it is good or evil.

Esther

Persian King's Banquet

Esther 1 [1] This is what happened in the days of Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus who reigned over 127 provinces from India to Ethiopia. [2] At that time King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne in the castle in Shushan. [3] In the third year of his reign, he gave a banquet for all his princes and his servants. The military leaders of Persia and Media plus the nobles and officials of the provinces were present.
[4] He displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendor and glory of his majesty for many days, 180 days.
[5] When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days, in the garden court of the king's palace for all the people who were present in the palace at Shushan, for both the greatest to the least. [6] There were white and blue linen curtains hung by cords of fine linen and purple on silver rings and marble columns, gold and silver couches on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, marble, mother-of-pearl and minerals. [7] Wine was served in golden goblets, each of which was different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant according to the king's wealth. [8] In keeping with the law, there were no restrictions on drinking for the king had instructed the supervisors of his household to comply with each person's desire. [9] In addition Queen Vashti held a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Ahasuerus.

Vashti Refuses to Appear

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry from the wine, he commanded Mehuman, Bizzetha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas—the seven eunuchs who attended Ahasuerus the king—11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king wearing the royal crown. He wanted to show the peoples and the officials her beauty, for she was very attractive. 12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command conveyed by the eunuchs. Then the king became furious, and burned with anger.

13 So the king consulted the wise men who discerned the times, for it was the king's practice to consult experts in matters of law and justice. 14 Those closest to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who had access to the king's presence and were the highest in the kingdom.

15 "By law, what is to be done with Queen Vashti, for failing to obey the command of King Ahasuerus conveyed by the eunuchs?"

16 Then Memucan answered in the presence of the king and the princes: "Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king, but also all the princes and peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus. 17 For the queen's conduct will go out to all the women making their husbands contemptible in their eyes, by saying, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she would not come!' 18 This very day the noblewomen of Persia and Media who have heard of the matter concerning the queen will respond similarly to all the king's princes and there will be no end to the contempt and anger. 19 If it pleases the king, let a royal commandment go forth from him, and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti may not come into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal status to another who is more worthy than she. 20 Then the king’s edict, which he will enact, will be proclaimed throughout all his vast kingdom, and all the wives will give their husbands honor from the greatest to the smallest.”

21 The matter pleased the king and the princes. So the king did according to the word of Memucan. 22 He sent letters throughout all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script, and to each people in its own language, that every man should be in charge of his own household, and speak the language of his own people.

Esther Wins Favor

Esther 2 [1] After these things when King Ahasuerus' anger subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her. [2] Then the king's servants who attended him said: "Let a search be made on the king's behalf for beautiful young virgins. [3] Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom to gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the palace at Shushan in the house of women under the supervision of Hegai the king's eunuch, who oversees the women. Let them be given beauty treatments. [4] Then let the young woman who pleases the king become queen instead of Vashti."

This advice pleased the king and he acted accordingly.

[5] There was a Jewish man in the Shushan palace whose name was Mordecai, son of Jair son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjamite, [6] who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the captives that had been carried away with King Jeconiah of Judah, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had taken away.
[7] He had raised Hadassah—that is Esther—his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The girl was attractive and had a beautiful figure. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her to him as his own daughter.

[8] After the king's order and decree became known, many young women were assembled in the palace of Shushan under the supervision of Hegai. Esther also was taken into the king's household under the supervision of Hegai, guardian of the women. [9] This young woman pleased him and found favor with him. He quickly arranged her beauty treatments and provided her special food. He also provided her with seven specially chosen young women from the king's household. Then he moved her and her maids to the best place in the women's house.

[10] Esther had not disclosed her people or her lineage, because Mordecai had commanded her not to make them known.

11 Every day Mordecai walked in front of the women's courtyard to find out how Esther was, and what might happen to her.
12 When each young woman's turn came to go to King Ahasuerus at the end of 12 months as prescribed for the women—for in this way they fulfilled their beautification: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with perfumes and women's cosmetics—13 the young woman would go to the king in this way: whatever she asked for was given to her to take with her from the women's house to the king's palace. 14 In the evening she would go, and in the morning she would return to the second women's home under the supervision of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, guardian of the concubines. She would not go back to the king unless the king was pleased with her, and summoned her by name.
15 When the turn came for Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her as his daughter, to go to the king, she did not ask for anything except what Hegai the king's eunuch, the guardian of the women, advised. And Esther won favor in the eyes of all who saw her. 16 Then Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus at his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tevet, in the seventh year of his reign.
17 Now the king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she won his grace and favor more than all the other virgins. So he placed the royal crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.
18 Then the king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his princes and servants. He proclaimed a holiday for the provinces and distributed gifts in keeping with the king's wealth.
19 When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate. 20 Esther had not yet made known her lineage or her people, just as Mordecai had told her. Esther continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.

Mordecai Foils a Plot

21 In those days while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded
the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus. 22 But Mordecai found out about the plot and told it to Queen Esther. Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name.
23 When the matter was investigated and found to be so, they were both hanged on a gallows. It was then written in the book of the chronicles in the king's presence.

Haman Hates the Jews

Esther 3 [1] Some time later King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, elevating him and setting his chair above all the officials who were with him. [2] All the king's servants who were at the king's gate bowed down and paid honor to Haman, for the king had commanded it. But Mordecai would not bow down or pay him honor.

[3] Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why are you disobeying the king's command?" [4] Day after day, they spoke to him but he would not listen to them. Therefore they told Haman in order to see whether Mordecai's resolve would prevail, for he had told them that he was a Jew.

[5] When Haman saw that Mordecai was not bowing down or paying him honor, Haman was filled with rage. [6] But it was repugnant in his eyes to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him the identity of Mordecai's people. So Haman sought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

[7] In the first month (that is the month of Nisan), in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast the pur (that is, 'the lot') in the presence of Haman from day to day and month to month, up to the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

[8] Haman then said to King Ahasuerus: "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom whose laws differ from those of every other people and who do not obey the king's laws. It is not in the king's interest to tolerate them. [9] If it pleases the king, let an edict be written to destroy them. I will pay 10,000 talents of silver into the hands of those who carry out this business, to put it into the king's treasuries."

[10] The king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman—son of Hammedatha the Agagite—enemy of the Jews.
[11] The king said to Haman, "The silver and the people are yours
—do with them as you please."

12 The king’s scribes were summoned in the first month, on the thirteenth day, and an edict was written as Haman had commanded. Everything Haman commanded was written to the king’s provincial governors, and to the officials who were in every province, and to the officials of every people, province by province, according to its script and people by people according to its language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king’s ring. 13 Dispatches were sent by couriers into all the king’s provinces, stating to destroy, slay, and annihilate all the Jews—from the youth to the elderly, both little children and women—on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their possessions. 14 A copy of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to all people, so that they would be ready for that day. 15 The couriers went out hurriedly with the king’s command and the edict was issued in the palace in Shushan. The king and Haman then sat down to drink. But the city of Shushan was dumbfounded.

If I Perish!

Esther 4 [1] When Mordecai learned all that was done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the middle of the city crying out in a loud and bitter voice. [2] He went only as far as the king's gate, because no one could enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth. [3] In each and every province where the king's edict and law came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many put on sackcloth and ashes.

[4] When Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, the queen was greatly distressed. She sent clothes for Mordecai to put on so he would remove his sackcloth, but he refused. [5] So Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to find the cause and reason for this.

[6] So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square in front of the king's gate. [7] Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, even the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. [8] He also gave him a written copy of the decree, which had been distributed in Shushan, for their annihilation, to show to Esther and to explain it to her. He instructed her to go in to the king, to beg his favor and plead before him on behalf of her people. [9] Hathach went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said.

[10] Then Esther spoke to Hathach and gave him instructions for Mordecai: [11] "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces fully understand that for anyone, man or woman, who approaches the king in the inner courtyard without being summoned, he has one law—that he be put to death, unless the king extends his golden scepter permitting him to live. But I have not been summoned to come to the king for 30 days." [12] So they conveyed Esther's words to Mordecai.

[13] Mordecai told them to reply to Esther with this answer, "Do not think in your soul that you will escape in the king's household more than all the Jews. 14 For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place—but you and your father's house will perish.

Who knows whether you have attained royal status for such a time as this?"
15 Esther sent this to reply to Mordecai, 16 "Go! Gather together all the Jews who are in Shushan and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast in the same way. Afterwards, I will go in to the king, even though it is not according to the law. So if I perish, I perish!"
17 So Mordecai left and did all that Esther commanded him.

Esther's Request of the King

Esther 5 1 On the third day, Esther put on her royal apparel and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king's hall.
The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance. 2 When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard, she found favor in his eyes, so the king held out to Esther the golden scepter in his hand and Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter.
3 Then said the king to her, "What is it, Queen Esther?
Whatever you request, even as much as half of the kingdom, it will be given to you."
4 So Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for
him."
5 The king replied, "Bring Haman quickly so we may do what Esther said." Then the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther prepared. 6 As they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your request? It will be granted to you.
Whatever you request, even as much as half the kingdom, it will be fulfilled."
7 Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is this: 8 if I have found favor in the king's eyes and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and my request, then let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet that I will prepare for them—and then I will do as the king requests."

Gallows for Mordecai

9 Haman went out that day happy and in good spirits.
However, when Haman saw Mordecai at the king's gate, and he did not rise or tremble before him, Haman was filled with rage against Mordecai. 10 Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home.

He sent for his friends and his wife Zeresh. 11 Haman boasted to them about his vast wealth, his many sons, and how the king had promoted him and exalted him above the other officials and servants of the king. 12 Haman added, "And that's not all!
Queen Esther invited only me to accompany the king to a banquet that she prepared. And she has also invited me along with the king tomorrow. 13 Yet all this does not satisfy me, as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

14 Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Let them set up a gallows 50 cubits high, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go happily with the king to the banquet." This idea delighted Haman and he ordered the gallows to be built.

The King Honors Mordecai

Esther 6 1 That night sleep deserted the king, so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, be brought in and read before the king. 2 It was found recorded there that Mordecai had revealed that Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the door, had conspired to kill King Ahasuerus.

3 The king asked, "What honor or recognition has been shown to Mordecai for this?"

The king's servants that attended him replied, "Nothing has been done for him."

4 The king said, "Who is in the courtyard?" Now Haman had just come into the outer court of the king's palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

5 The king's servants answered, "Haman is standing in the courtyard."

The king said, "Let him come in."

6 When Haman entered, the king asked him, "What should be done for a man whom the king desires to honor?"

Now Haman thought to himself, "Whom would the king desire to honor rather than me?" 7 So Haman replied, "For the man whom the king desires to honor, 8 let them bring a royal robe that the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on his head. 9 Then let the robe and the horse be placed into the hand of one of the king's most noble princes. Let them clothe the man whom the king desires to honor and parade him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming, 'This is what is done for a man the king desires to honor!'"

10 The king said to Haman, "Go quickly! Take the robe and the horse, just as you suggested, for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate! Do not neglect anything that you recommended."

[11] So Haman took the robe and the horse, robed Mordecai, and paraded him through the city streets, proclaiming: “This is what is done for the man whom the king desires to honor.”
[12] Afterwards, Mordecai then returned to the king’s gate, but Haman rushed to his home, grief-stricken and with his head covered.
[13] Haman recounted to his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him. His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, “Since Mordecai, before whom you have begun your downfall, is of Jewish descent, you won’t be able to stand against him. In fact, you will certainly fall before him!” [14] While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs came and hurried Haman along to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Esther Intercedes for Her People

Esther 7 1 So the king and Haman came to dine with Queen Esther, 2 and as they were drinking wine on the second day, the king asked Esther again, “Whatever you request, even as much as half of the kingdom, it will be given to you.”

3 So Queen Esther answered, “If I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king, grant me my life—this is my petition. And spare the life of my people—this is my request! 4 For we have been sold, I and my people, for destruction, slaughter and annihilation. If we had simply been sold as male and female slaves, I would have remained silent, for such distress would not be worth disturbing the king.”

5 King Ahasuerus responded to Queen Esther, “Who is he?
Where is the man that presumed to do this?”

6 Esther replied, “The man—the adversary and foe—is this wicked Haman!”

Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen.
7 Enraged, the king got up from the banquet of wine and withdrew to the palace garden. But Haman stayed behind to plead with Queen Esther for his life, for he realized that the king had determined a catastrophic end for him.

8 When the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the same couch where Esther was. The king exclaimed, “Will he also assault the queen while she is with me in the palace?”

As soon as these words came out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face. 9 Harbonah, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, “Look, a gallows fifty cubits high is standing next to Haman’s house. Haman himself made it for Mordecai, who spoke good on behalf of the king!”[1]

The king said, “Hang him on it!” 10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s rage subsided.

A Decree to Protect the Jews

Esther 8 1 That same day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Then Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had revealed how he was related to her. 2 The king took off his signet ring, which he had taken back from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther then appointed Mordecai over Haman's estate.

3 Esther again pleaded with the king, falling at his feet and weeping. She pleaded with him to stop the evil of Haman the Agagite and his plan that he had devised against the Jews.
4 Then the king extended the golden scepter to Esther, and she arose and stood before the king.

5 She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor before him and it seems right to the king, and if I am pleasing in his eyes, let an edict be written rescinding the dispatches devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are throughout the king's provinces. 6 For how can I endure seeing the disaster that will fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?"

7 King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew,
"I have decided to give Haman's estate to Esther and had him hanged on the gallows, because he stretched out his hand against the Jews. 8 Now write in the king's name on behalf of the Jews what seems good to you and seal it with the king's signet ring. For a decree that is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, cannot be revoked."

9 So the king's scribes were called at that time—on the 23rd day of the third month, the month of Sivan. It was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to all the Jews, as well as to the officials, governors and advisors of all the 127 provinces that stretch from India to Ethiopia. To each province it was written in its own script and in its own language, and also to the Jews in their own writing and language. 10 This decree was written in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed with the king’s ring, and sent on horseback by couriers who rode on the king’s horses specially bred for their speed.

11 The king granted the right for Jews in every city to assemble themselves and to protect themselves—to destroy, kill and annihilate any army of any people or province that might attack them and their women and children, and to plunder their possessions. 12 The day appointed for this in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar. 13 A copy of the written edict was distributed to every province and made known to the peoples of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 The couriers that rode royal horses raced out, pressed on by the king’s command. The decree was also given out at the palace at Shushan.

15 Then Mordecai went out from the king’s presence in blue and white royal robes, with a large gold crown, and also a purple robe of fine linen. The city of Shushan shouted and rejoiced. 16 For the Jews there was light and gladness, joy and honor. 17 Throughout every province and throughout every city, wherever the king’s edict and his law went, the Jews had gladness and joy, banquets and holidays. Many peoples of the land became Jews, because the fear of the Jews had overcome them.

Jews Defend Themselves

Esther 9 [1] Consequently, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (that is the month Adar), the king's edict and his law drew near to be carried out. On that day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but contrary to expectations the Jews gained the upper hand over those that hated them. [2] Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus in order to lay hands on those seeking their harm. No one was able to stand against them, for fear of them had fallen on all the peoples. [3] Even all the administrators of the provinces, the officers and governors, and those doing business for the king, helped the Jews, for the dread of Mordecai had fallen on them. [4] Mordecai was prominent at the palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces. The man Mordecai was growing ever more powerful.

[5] The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying, and they did whatever they wished to those who hated them. [6] In the citadel at Shushan the Jews killed and destroyed 500 people, [7] including Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, [8] Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, [9] Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, [10] the 10 sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. They slew them but did not lay their hands on the plunder.

[11] On that day the number of those that were killed in the citadel at Shushan was brought to the king's attention. [12] Then the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men in the citadel of Shushan, including Haman's ten sons. What have they done, in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your request? It shall be granted to you. What other petition do you have? It shall be done."

[13] "If it please the king," Esther said, "let the Jews in Shushan be allowed to carry out today's edict tomorrow also, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

14 The king commanded that this be done. A decree was issued in Shushan and they hanged Haman's 10 sons. 15 The Jews in Shushan gathered together on the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and they killed 300 men in Shushan, but they did not put their hands on the plunder.
16 Meanwhile the rest of the Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered together to protect themselves and to get relief from their enemies. They killed 75,000 of their enemies, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder. 17 This happened on the thirteenth day of Adar and on the fourteenth day they rested, making it a day of feasting and gladness.
18 But the Jews that were in Shushan had assembled on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth and on the fifteenth they rested, making it a day of feasting and gladness. 19 That is why the rural Jews—those living in unwalled villages—make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a day of sending presents of food to one another.

Purim Festival

20 Mordecai recorded these events and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, 21 urging them to celebrate the fourteenth and fifteenth days of Adar every year 22 as the days when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into celebration.
These were to be days of feasting, celebration and sending presents of food to one another and giving gifts to the poor.

23 So the Jews agreed to continue the commemoration they had begun, and do what Mordecai had written to them. 24 For Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur—that is, the lot—to ruin and destroy them. 25 But when it came to the king's attention, he issued a written edict that the wicked scheme Haman[2] had devised against the Jews should come back on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. (26 For this reason, these days were called Purim, from the word pur.) Therefore because of everything in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them, 27 the Jews established and took upon themselves, upon their descendants, and upon all who joined with them, that they would commemorate these two days in the way prescribed and at the appointed time every year. 28 These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family and in every province and every city. These days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor their remembrance perish from their descendants.

29 Then Queen Esther the daughter of Abihail, and also Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. 30 He sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of shalom and truth, 31 to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, just as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them and just as they had established for themselves and their descendants, matters regarding their times of fasting and lamentations. [32] Esther’s command confirmed these regulations about Purim and it was written into the records.

Esther 10 [1] Now King Ahasuerus imposed a tribute upon the entire land, even to the coastlands of the sea. [2] All the acts of his power and might, along with the full account of the greatness of Mordecai and the story of how the king promoted him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? [3] For Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, preeminent among the Jews, and held in high esteem by the multitude of his people. He sought their good and spoke for the welfare of his descendants.

Kashrut as a Test of Faithfulness

Daniel 1 1 In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. 2 God gave King Jehoiakim of Judah into his hand, along with some of the vessels of the House of God. He brought them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god and put the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 Then the king told Ashpenaz the chief of his officials[1] to bring in some of the sons of Israel from royal descent and nobility—4 youths without any defect, handsome, proficient in all wisdom, knowledgeable, intelligent and capable of serving in the king's palace. He was to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans. 5 The king allotted them a daily portion from the king's delicacies and from the wine that he drank. They were to be trained for three years, and at the end they were to stand before the king.

6 Now among them were some from the sons of Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. 7 The chief officer gave them new names: to Daniel, Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abed-nego.

8 But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the king's delicacies or with the wine he was drinking, so he entreated
the chief official for permission not to defile himself. 9 Now God caused the chief official to show mercy and compassion to Daniel. 10 But the chief official said to Daniel: "I fear my lord the king, who allotted your food and your drink. Why should he see your faces looking poorly, unlike the other youths your age? Then the king would have my head because of you."

11 Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, 12 "Please test your servants for ten days, giving us just vegetables to eat and water to drink. 13 Then compare our appearance and the appearance of the youths who eat the king’s delicacies, and treat your servants according to what you see.” 14 So he listened to them in this matter and tested them for ten days.

15 At the end of ten days their appearance looked better and their bodies healthier than all the youths who ate the king’s food. 16 So the guard took away their delicacies and the wine they were supposed to drink and gave them vegetables instead.

17 Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and proficiency in every kind of wisdom and literature, and Daniel could understand all sorts of visions and dreams.

18 At the end of the time set by the king to bring them in, the chief official presented them before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 When the king spoke with them, he did not find among all of them anyone like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king’s service. 20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers throughout his realm.

21 Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

The King's Dream and Demand

Daniel 2 1 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams. His spirit was troubled and sleep escaped him. 2 So the king issued an order to summon the magicians, astrologers, sorcerers and Chaldeans in order to explain to the king his dreams. When they came and stood before the king, 3 he said to them, "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream."

4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic[2], "May the king live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will declare the interpretation." 5 The king answered the Chaldeans saying, "I firmly decree: If you do not make the dream and its meaning known to me, you will be torn limb from limb and your houses reduced to rubble.
6 But if you tell the dream and its meaning, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. So tell me the dream and its meaning!"

7 They responded a second time, saying, "Let the king tell his servants the dream and we will declare the interpretation."

8 The king replied saying, "I know for sure that you are buying time since you see that I have firmly decreed 9 that if you do not reveal the dream to me, there is only one verdict[3] for you. You have conspired to say something false and fraudulent, until such a time as things might change. So then, tell me the dream and I will know that you can tell me its meaning."

10 The Chaldeans answered the king saying, "There is no man on earth who can meet the king's demand. For no great king, however great or mighty, has ever asked such a thing from any magician, astrologer or Chaldean. 11 What the king asks is too difficult. There is no one who could declare it to the king, except the gods whose dwelling is not with mortals!"

[12] Because of this, the king became furiously angry and gave orders to execute all the wise men of Babylon. [13] So the decree went out that the wise men were about to be slaughtered. They also sought Daniel and his companions to execute them. [14] Then Daniel spoke with tact and discretion to Arioch, who was captain of the king's guard and who had set out to execute the wise men of Babylon. [15] He spoke up and said to Arioch, the king's captain, "Why is the king's decree so urgent?" Then Arioch informed Daniel about the matter.

[16] So Daniel went in and asked the king to grant him time, so that he might disclose the interpretation to the king. [17] Then Daniel went to his house and informed his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah about the matter [18] so they would request mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his friends would not perish along with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

The Dream Revealed to Daniel

19 During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven 20 and answered, saying:

"Blessed be the Name of God forever and ever,
for wisdom and might are His.
21 He changes times and seasons.
He removes kings and installs kings.
He gives wisdom to the wise
and knowledge to the discerning.
22 He reveals deep and hidden things.
He knows what lies in darkness
and light dwells with Him.
23 To You, O God of my fathers,
I give thanks and praise!
For You gave me wisdom and power.
You have made known to me what we asked of You.
You revealed to us the word of the king."

Daniel Interprets the Dream

24 Then Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon and said to him, “Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king and I will declare the interpretation to the king.”

25 So Arioch quickly ushered Daniel into the king’s presence and said to him, “I have found a man among the sons of the exiles from Judah, who can make known the interpretation to the king.”
26 The king then asked Daniel (who was renamed Belteshazzar), “Are you able to reveal to me the dream that I saw, as well as its interpretation?”

27 Daniel answered the king, saying: “The mystery about which the king inquired is such that neither wise men, astrologers, magicians, or sorcerers can disclose it to the king.
28 But, there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar the things that will happen in the latter days. The dream and the visions that went through your head as you lay on your bed are these.

29 “To you, O king—as you lay on your bed—came thoughts about what will come to pass in the future. The Revealer of mysteries has made known to you what is going to happen.
30 But as for me, this mystery is not revealed to me because I posses more wisdom than any other living person, but in order that the king may know the interpretation and understand the thoughts of your heart.

The Statue of Four Kingdoms

31 “You looked, O king, and behold, there before you stood a huge statue—an enormous and dazzling image, whose appearance was awesome. 32 The head of that statue was of pure gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, and its feet partly iron and partly clay. 34 While you were watching, a stone was cut out, but not by hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. 35 Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were crushed together, and became like chaff from summer threshing-floors that the wind blows away.
Not a trace of them could be found. Then the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

36 “This was the dream. Now we will tell the king its interpretation. 37 You, O king, are the king of kings to whom the God of heaven has given sovereignty, power, might and glory.
38 Wherever mankind, beasts of the field, and fowls of the heaven dwell, He has given them into your hand, and made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

39 “Now after you another kingdom will arise, one inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over all the earth. 40 Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron shatters and breaks everything—and just as iron smashes everything, so will it shatter and crush all the others.
41 Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly potter’s clay and partly iron, so this will be a divided kingdom. It will have some of the strength of the iron, for you saw the iron mixed with clay. 42 As the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. 43 Just as you saw iron mixed with clay, people will mix with one another, but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.

44 “Now in the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will this kingdom be left to another people. It will crush and bring to an end all of these kingdoms. But it will endure forever.[4] 45 For just as you saw a stone cut out of a mountain, yet not by hands, crush the iron, bronze, clay, silver and gold, the great God has made known to the king what will happen in the future. Now the dream is certain, and its interpretation is trustworthy.”

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and paid homage to Daniel and gave orders that an offering and incense be provided for him. 47 In response the king said to Daniel, “Surely your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings,[5] and the revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this secret!”

48 Then the king promoted Daniel and lavished on him many marvelous gifts and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief over all the wise men of Babylon.
49 Moreover, at Daniel’s request the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego over the administration of the province of Babylon, while Daniel remained at the royal court.

A Gold Idol and a Blazing Furnace

Daniel 3 1 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, sixty cubits high and six cubits wide. He set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. 2 Then King Nebuchadnezzar summoned the satraps, prefects, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the authorities of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then the satraps, administrators, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the authorities of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had erected. They stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then the herald loudly proclaimed, “You are commanded O peoples, nations and languages, 5 that when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. 6 Whoever does not fall down and worship will that same hour be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire.” 7 Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and pipes, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations and languages fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 At that time certain Chaldeans came forward and denounced the Jews. 9 They spoke up and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “May the king live forever! 10 You, O king, made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, must fall down and worship the golden image, 11 and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire. 12 There are certain Jews whom you appointed over the administration of the province of Babylon—

Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego—those men pay no heed to you, O king. They do not serve your gods, nor will they worship the golden image that you have set up."

13 Furious with rage, Nebuchadnezzar ordered Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego to be summoned. When these men were brought before the king, 14 Nebuchadnezzar responded to them saying, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, that you don't serve my gods or worship the golden image that I set up? 15 Now if you are ready, at the moment you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and pipes and all kinds of music you must fall down and worship the image that I have made. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire! Then what god will be able to deliver you out of my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego replied to the king saying, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to answer you concerning this matter. 17 If it is so, our God whom we serve is able to save us from the furnace of blazing fire and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18 Yet even if He does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image that you set up."

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage and the appearance of his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. He ordered the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than it was normally heated 20 and commanded some of the mighty men in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego and to cast them into the furnace of blazing fire. 21 So these men, wearing their robes, tunics, hats and other clothes, were bound and thrown into the furnace of blazing fire. 22 But because the king's order was so urgent and the furnace so extremely hot, a raging flame killed those men who carried up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, fell bound into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire.

[24] Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and leapt to his feet. He asked his ministers, “Didn’t we cast three men bound into the middle of the fire?”
They replied to the king, “Surely, O king.”

[25] But he answered saying, “Look! I see four men walking about unbound and unharmed in the middle of the fire, and the fourth has the appearance like a son of the gods!”

[26] Nebuchadnezzar then approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire and exclaimed, “Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, servants of the Most High God, come out and come here!”

So Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego came out from the middle of the fire. [27] When the satraps, administrators, governors and royal ministers had gathered around, they saw that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men. Not a hair of their head was singed, nor were their robes scorched, nor was there a smell of fire on them.

[28] Nebuchadnezzar exclaimed, “Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, who has sent His angel and delivered His servants who trusted in Him! They defied the king’s edict and to gave up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. [29] Therefore I hereby decree that any people, nation or language that says anything slanderous against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego will be torn limb from limb and their house made a pile of rubble, because there is no other god that is able to deliver in this way.”
[30] Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar Acknowledges God’s Kingdom

[31] King Nebuchadnezzar—

To all peoples, nations and languages who dwell in all the earth: May your peace abound!

32 It seemed good to me to declare the signs and wonders that God Most High has done for me.

33 How great are His signs,
how mighty are His wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
His dominion from generation to generation.

Dream: “Chop Down the Tree!”

Daniel 4 1 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. 2 I had a dream that frightened me.
While on my bed the images and visions in my mind[6] terrified
me. 3 So I issued a decree to bring all the wise men of Babylon before me so that they could make known to me the meaning of the dream. 4 When the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans and diviners came in, I recounted the dream to them, but they were unable to make known its interpretation to me.

5 Finally Daniel—whose name was Belteshazzar after the name of my god and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods—
came in before me and I told him the dream.

6 I said, “Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery baffles you. Consider my dream that I have seen and tell me its interpretation.

7 “These are the visions in my head while I was on my bed: I looked, and behold, there was a tree in the midst of the earth.
Its height was enormous. 8 The tree grew large and became strong and its top reached to heaven; it was visible to the ends of the earth. 9 Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. Beneath it the beasts of the field found shade and birds of the sky lived in its branches, and from it all creatures were fed.

10 “I was watching the visions in my mind while on my bed,
and behold, a watcher, a holy one, descended from heaven.
11 He called loudly, saying: ‘Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit!

Let beasts flee from under it,
and birds from its branches.

12 Yet leave a stump with its roots in the earth, in fetters of iron and bronze,
in the tender grass of the field.

Let him be damp with the dew of heaven,

and let his portion be with the animals in the grass
of the earth.
13 Let his mind be altered from that of a man and let an animal's mind be given to him
and let seven periods of time pass over him.
14 This sentence is by the decree of the watchers, this verdict by the command of the holy ones, so that the living may know that the Most High is sovereign over the realm of man and bestows it to whomever He wishes,
and may set over them even the lowliest of men.'

15 "I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw this dream. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me its meaning, for none of the wise men of my kingdom are able to make known to me its interpretation. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

Interpretation: A King Eats Grass 16 Then Daniel, whose name is also Belteshazzar, was perplexed for a brief time; his thoughts alarmed him. The king answered, and said, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream or the interpretation disturb you."

But Belteshazzar replied, "My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you and its interpretation for your enemies! 17 The tree that you saw grow large and strong, whose top reached to heaven and that was visible to all the earth, 18 whose leaves were beautiful and whose fruit was so abundant that there was food for all in it and beneath which the beasts of the fields lived and in its branches birds of the sky dwelt—19 it is you, O king! For you have grown great and mighty. Your greatness reaches to heaven, and your authority extends to the end of the earth.

20 "'You, O king, saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying,

'Chop down the tree and destroy it!
Yet leave a stump with its roots

in the ground,
in fetters of iron and bronze,
in the grass of the field.
Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, until seven time periods pass over him.’

21 “This is the interpretation, O king. It is the decree of the Most High that has come upon my lord the king: 22 “You will be driven away from people and will dwell with the wild animals.
You will feed on grass like an ox and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven periods of time will pass over you until you know that the Most High is sovereign over the realm of mankind and gives it to whomever He wishes.
23 “The command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots means that your kingdom will be restored to you[7] as soon as you understand that Heaven is sovereign. 24 Therefore, O king, may my counsel be acceptable to you: Renounce your sins through righteousness and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps your prosperity will be prolonged.”

Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream Fulfilled 25 All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. 26 At the end of twelve months, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, 27 the king exclaimed, “Is this not the great Babylon that I have built as the royal residence by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty?”

28 The words were still in the king’s mouth when a voice fell from heaven. “King Nebuchadnezzar, it has been decreed to you that your kingdom has been removed from you! 29 You will be driven away from men and you will live with the beasts of the field. You will feed on grass like an ox and seven periods of time will pass over you until you come to know that the Most High is sovereignover the realm of mankind and gives it to whomever He wishes.”

30 Immediately the word about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled.
He was driven away from men, ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.
31 But at the end of the appointed days, I Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes up to heaven and my sanity returned to me. So I blessed the Most High and I praised and honored Him who lives forever.

"For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom endures from generation to generation!
32 All the inhabitants of earth are counted as nothing.
He does as He wills with the army of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth.
No one can hold back His hand,
or say to Him, 'What have you done?'

33 "At that moment my sanity returned to me, and my majesty and my splendor were restored to me, for the glory of my kingdom. My ministers and nobles sought me out and I was reestablished over my kingdom. I became even greater than before. 34 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt and honor the King of heaven, because all His works are right and His ways just. He is able to humble those who walk in pride."

Handwriting on the Wall

Daniel 5 1 King Belshazzar held a great feast for 1,000 of his nobles and was drinking wine in front of the thousand. 2 When Belshazzar tasted the wine, he issued an order to bring in the gold and silver vessels that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the Temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his consorts and his concubines could drink from them.
3 So they brought the gold vessels that were taken out of the Temple of the House of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, consorts and concubines drank from them. 4 They drank the wine and praised the gods made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood and stone.

5 At that very moment, the fingers of a human hand emerged and wrote on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace opposite the lampstand, so that the king could see the back of the hand that was writing. 6 The color drained from the king's face, his thoughts alarmed him, his hips gave way and his knees began knocking together.

7 The king called loudly to summon the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. The king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain around his neck, and will have authority as the third ruler in the kingdom!"

8 Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the inscription nor tell the king what it meant. 9 So King Belshazzar became even more terrified and his face grew pale.
His nobles were baffled.

10 The queen hearing the words of the king and his nobles entered the banquet hall. The queen spoke out and said, "May the king live forever! Do not let your thoughts frighten you, or your face be so pale! 11 There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father, he was found to have insight and intelligence, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. So King Nebuchadnezzar your father made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans and diviners. 12 This man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, was found to have extraordinary spirit, knowledge and insight for interpreting dreams, explaining riddles, and solving problems. Now, let Daniel be summoned and he will explain the interpretation."

13 So Daniel was brought before the king and the king said to Daniel, "Are you Daniel who is one of the captives of Judah that my father the king brought from Judah? 14 I have heard about you, how a spirit of the gods is in you and how there has been found in you insight, discernment and extraordinary wisdom. 15 Just now the wise men and diviners were brought before me to read this writing and to make its meaning known to me, but they are unable to declare its interpretation. 16 However, I have heard about you that you are able to provide interpretations and to solve difficult problems. Now if you are able to read the writing and explain to me its meaning, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain around your neck and have the authority to rule as the third in the kingdom."

17 Then Daniel answered the king saying, "You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king and tell him its meaning. 18 Your majesty, God Most High gave your father Nebuchadnezzar the kingdom, as well as greatness, glory, and splendor. 19 Because of the grandeur that He bestowed on him, all the peoples, nations and languages dreaded and feared him. He killed whomever he wanted and spared anyone he wanted; he raised up whomever he wished and humbled anyone he wished. 20 But when his heart became haughty and his spirit hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. 21 He was driven away from among men and his mind became like an animal, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he fed on grass like an ox, and his body was damp with the dew of heaven until he recognized that God

Most High is sovereign over the realm of mankind and that He sets up over it whomever He wills.

22 “But you his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. 23 Instead you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven. You had the vessels of His House brought before you, and you and your nobles, your consorts and your concubines have been drinking wine in them. You have praised the gods made of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand. Yet you did not honor the God who holds in His hand your very breath and all your ways. 24 Therefore, the hand was sent from Him that wrote this inscription.

25 “Now this is the writing that was inscribed:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL UPARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the inscription:

MENE: God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.

27 TEKEL: You have been weighed in the balances and found wanting.

28 PERES: Your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

29 Then at Belshazzar’s command, they clothed Daniel with purple, put a chain of gold around his neck, and issued a proclamation about him that he would have the authority as third ruler in the kingdom.

30 On that very night King Belshazzar of the Chaldeans was slain.

Daniel 6 [1] So Darius the Mede took over the kingdom at the age of 62.

Delivered from the Lions' Den

[2] It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the whole kingdom [3] with three administrators over them, one of whom was Daniel. These satraps were accountable to them so that the king would not be troubled. [4] Now this Daniel was distinguishing himself among the supervisors and satraps because he had an extraordinary spirit in him. In fact, the king planned to appoint him over the entire kingdom. [5] At this time the supervisors and satraps tried to find ground for a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom. But they were unable to find fault or corruption, because he was trustworthy and no negligence or dishonesty could be found in him. [6] Finally these men said, "We're not going to find any basis for charges against this man Daniel, unless we find something against him regarding the law of his God."

[7] So these supervisors and satraps went in to the king as a group, and said to him, "King Darius, live forever! [8] All the supervisors of the realm, the magistrates and satraps, ministers and governors, have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce a decree that anyone who prays to any god or man for 30 days other than you O king, will be cast into the lions' den. [9] Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it may not be altered, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."
[11] Now when Daniel learned that a written decree had been issued, he went into his house, where the windows in his upper room opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he knelt down, prayed and gave thanks before his God, just as he did before. [12] Then these men came as a group and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. [13] So they approached the king and spoke to him about the royal decree:

“Didn’t you issue a written decree that anyone who prays to any god or man for 30 days—except for you, O king—shall be cast into the den of lions?”

The king replied, “The decree stands, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed.”

14 Then they answered and said to the king: “Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the decree that you put in writing. He still prays three times a day!” 15 When the king heard this report, he was deeply distressed, and he set his mind on how he might rescue Daniel. Until sunset he struggled to find a way to save him.

16 Then these men came as a throng in to the king, and said to the king: “Remember, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or edict which the king issues may be altered.”

17 So the king gave the order and Daniel was brought and thrown into the lions’ den. Now the king spoke to Daniel saying, “May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!” 18 A stone was brought to block the mouth of the den. The king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet of his nobles, so that nothing could be changed regarding Daniel. 19 Then the king went to his palace and passed the night fasting —no entertainment was brought before him. He was unable to sleep.

20 At dawn the king got up and hurried to the lions’ den. 21 As he reached the den, he cried out to Daniel with a voice of anguish. The king spoke out to Daniel saying: “Daniel, servant of the living God, was your God, whom you serve continually, able to rescue you from the lions?”

22 Daniel spoke to the king: “May the king live forever! 23 My God sent His angel to shut the lions’ mouths[8] so that they haven’t harmed me, because I was found innocent before Him. Nor have I committed any crime against you, O king.”

24 Then the king was overjoyed, and ordered Daniel taken up out of the den. So Daniel was lifted out of the pit. No injury of any kind was found on him because he had trusted in his God.
25 At the king's command, those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the lions' den—they, their children, and their wives. They had not even reached the bottom of the pit before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

26 Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages dwelling in all the earth:

"May your peace be abundant!

27 I issue a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom people are to tremble with fear before the God of Daniel.
"For He is the living God,
enduring forever!
His kingdom will never be destroyed,
His dominion will never end.[9]
28 He delivers and rescues.
He performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on earth.
He has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions!"

29 So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel's Vision of Four Beasts

Daniel 7 1 In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he was on his bed. He wrote down a summary of the dream. 2 Daniel said:
"I was looking in my vision at night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were churning up the great sea. 3 Four huge beasts came up from the sea, each different from the others.

4 "The first was like a lion with eagle's wings. As I watched, its wings were pulled off and it was lifted off the ground. It was made to stand upon two feet like a man, and the heart of a human was given to it.
5 "And behold there before me was another beast, a second one, like a bear. It raised itself up on one side; it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, 'Arise, devour much flesh!'
6 "After that I looked, and behold, there was another one like a leopard. On its back it had four wings like those of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.
7 "After this in my vision at night, I looked and behold there was a fourth beast—terrifying, frightening, tremendously strong, with large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed—and anything that was left it trampled with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that came before it; it had ten horns.[10] 8 "While I was pondering the horns, behold, another horn, a small one, sprang up between them, and three of the first horns were uprooted from before it. And behold, this horn had eyes resembling human eyes and a mouth speaking boastfully.[11]

Ancient of Days and Son of Man

9 "While I was watching, thrones were set up,
and the Ancient of Days took his seat.
His garment was as white as snow,

and the hair of His head like pure wool.
His throne was ablaze with flames,
its wheels a burning fire.[12]
10 A river of fire was flowing and coming out from before Him.

Thousands of thousands attended Him
and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.[13]
The court was seated,
and the books were opened.[14]

11 “I kept watching because of the boastful words that the horn was speaking. I continued watching until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire.[15] 12 As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion had been taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.
13 “I was watching in the night visions.
Behold, One like a Son of Man,[16]
coming with the clouds of heaven.
He approached the Ancient of Days,
and was brought into His presence.
14 Dominion, glory and sovereignty were given to Him that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will never pass away,
and His kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.
[17]

Interpretation of the Beasts

15 “As for me, Daniel, my spirit was disturbed within me, and the visions of my head alarmed me. 16 I approached one of those standing nearby and asked him the true meaning of all this. So he spoke with me and revealed the interpretation of these things: 17 ‘These large beasts, four in number, are four kings that will rise from the earth. 18 But the kedoshim of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever
—yes, forever and ever.’[18]

19 “Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast that was different from all the others, exceedingly terrifying with iron teeth and bronze claws, which broke in pieces and devoured and then stomped with its feet anything that remained. 20 Of the ten horns on its head, the other horn that sprang up before which three others fell—that horn eyes and a mouth speaking arrogant things, and its appearance was more imposing than its companions. 21 As I was watching, that horn was waging war against the kedoshim and overpowering them, 22 until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was rendered in favor of the kedoshim of the Most High—when the time came and the kedoshim possessed the kingdom.[19]

23 “Thus he explained: ‘The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on earth that will be different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, and trample it and crush it. 24 As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise. Another will arise after them, but he will be different from the previous ones; he will subdue three kings.[20] 25 He will speak words against the Most High, and will continually harass the kedoshim of the Most High,[21] and will try to change the appointed times and law. The kedoshim will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.[22] 26 But the court will sit and he will be stripped of his power to be destroyed and abolished for all time. 27 Then the kingdom, power, and greatness of the kingdoms under all heaven will be given to the people of the kedoshim of the Most High.[23] Their kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and obey him.’

28 This is the conclusion of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me and the color drained from my face. But I kept the matter in my heart.”

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and Goat

Daniel 8 1 "In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had appeared to me earlier. 2 In the vision I saw myself in the citadel[24] of Shushan[25], which is in the province of Elam. In the vision I saw that I was beside the Ulai Canal. 3 I lifted up my eyes and looked up, behold, a ram with two horns was standing in front of the canal. The two horns were long but one was longer than the other, but the longer one grew up last. 4 I saw the ram charging toward the west and north and south. No animal could stand against him—none could deliver from his hand. So he did as he pleased and magnified himself.

5 "While I was contemplating this, behold, a male goat came from the west crossing the face of the whole earth without touching the ground! Now the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes. 6 He came up to the two-horn ram that I had seen standing beside the canal, and charged it with raging strength. 7 I saw him attacking the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering his two horns. Now the ram was not strong enough to stand against him, so he knocked the ram to the ground and trampled him. No one could rescue the ram from his power.

8 "The male goat became exceedingly great, but as soon as he became mighty, the large horn was broken, and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven.

9 "Out of one of them came forth a small horn, which grew extremely large to the south and the east, and toward the beautiful land. 10 It grew as high as the host of heaven and hurled some of the host and the stars down to the earth and trampled them. 11 It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host. It took away from him the daily offering and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down. 12 The host was given over along with the daily sacrifice, in the course of its rebellion. It will hurl truth to the ground and prosper in what it does.

13 “Then I heard a holy one speaking and another holy one said to the one who was speaking, ‘How long will the vision last, the daily sacrifice be forsaken because of rebellion, the sanctuary be surrendered and the host be trampled?’ 14 Then he said to me: ‘For 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be vindicated.’

Interpretation of Vision: Persian Ram and Greek Goat

15 “Now it happened that while I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, behold, standing before me was one with the appearance of a man. 16 Then I heard a human voice coming from between the banks of the Ulai, calling out saying, ‘Gabriel, make this man understand the vision.’ 17 “He came near to where I was standing, and as he approached I was terrified and fell on my face. But he said to me, ‘Son of man, understand that the vision pertains to the time of the end.’
18 “While he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. But he touched me and stood me up, 19 and said: ‘Behold, I am going to inform you about what will happen later in the time of wrath, for the vision pertains to the appointed time of the end. 20 The ram that you saw with the two horns stands for the kings of Media and Persia. 21 The buck, the male goat, is the king of Greece; and the large horn between his eyes is the first king.[26] 22 The four horns that replaced the one that was broken represent four kingdoms that will arise from this nation, though not with its power.

23 “‘Now toward the end of their reign, when the measure of transgressions is completed, a stern-faced king, a master of intrigue, will arise. 24 His power will be mighty, but it will not be by his strength alone. He will cause extraordinary devastation, and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy both the powerful and the holy people. 25 By his cunning he will cause deceit to prosper under his hand and he will consider himself superior. He will destroy many, taking them unaware.

He will even stand up against the Prince of princes, yet he will be broken, but not by human hands.
26 “‘Now the vision of the evenings and mornings that has been told to you is true, but seal up the vision for it concerns many days from now.’
27 “Then I, Daniel, was stricken and languished for days. Then I got up and went about the king’s business, but I was astounded at the vision and no one could explain it.

Daniel Confesses Israel's Sins

Daniel 9 1 "In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign—I, Daniel, understood from the books that according to the word of ADONAI to Jeremiah the prophet, the number of the years for the fulfilling of the desolation of Jerusalem would be 70 years. 3 So I set my face to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes.

4 "I prayed to ADONAI my God and confessed, saying: 'O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy with those who love Him and keep His mitzvot, 5 we have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have acted wickedly;
we have rebelled; we have turned away from Your mitzvot and from Your rulings. 6 We have not listened to Your servants the prophets,[27] who spoke in Your name to our kings, our leaders and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 "'You Lord are righteousness, but shame covers our face to this day—the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, near and far, in all the countries where you have banished them—because they behaved unfaithfully toward you.
8 ADONAI, shame covers our face—our kings, our leaders, our fathers—because we have sinned against you. 9 The Lord our God is compassionate and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against Him. 10 We have not obeyed the voice of ADONAI Eloheinu by walking in His Torah that He set before us through His servants the prophets. 11 Yes, all Israel has transgressed
Your Torah and has turned away—not obeying Your voice.

"'Therefore the curse and sworn judgment written in the Torah of Moses the servant of God has been poured out upon us, for we have sinned against Him. 12 So He has confirmed His words that he spoke against us and against our rulers who ruled over us by bringing on us a great calamity. Under the whole heaven nothing like this has ever been done to Jerusalem![28] 13 As it is written in the Torah of Moses, all this calamity came on us, yet we have not sought the favor of ADONAI Eloheinu by turning away from our iniquities and paying attention to Your truth. 14 So ADONAI was intent on bringing the calamity upon us, for ADONAI Eloheinu is righteous in all His deeds that He has done—while we have not paid attention to His voice.

15 "'So now, ADONAI Eloheinu, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and made for Yourself a Name to this day—we have sinned, we have acted wickedly.
16 Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, let Your anger and Your fury turn away, please, from Jerusalem, Your city, Your holy mountain. Because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become an object of scorn to all those around us.

17 'So now, our God, listen to the prayers and petitions of Your servant, and cause Your face to shine upon Your devastated Sanctuary, for the sake of my Lord. 18 Give ear, my God, and hear! Open Your eyes and see our desolation and the city called by Your name. We do not present our supplications before You because of our own righteousness, but because of Your great compassions. 19 Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and act!
For Your own sake, O my God, do not delay! For Your city and Your people are called by Your name.'

The Mashiach and Seventy Weeks 20 "While I was still speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before ADONAI my God on behalf of the holy mountain of my God—21 yes, while I was praying, Gabriel, the one I had seen in the earlier vision,[29] came to me swiftly about the time of the evening offering.

22 "He instructed me and said to me: 'Daniel, I have come now to give you insight and understanding. 23 At the beginning of your requests, a message went out, and I have come to declare it to you, for you are greatly esteemed. Therefore consider the message and understand the vision: 24 "Seventy weeks[30] are decreed concerning your people and your holy city, to put an end to transgression to bring sin to an end, to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Holy of Holies.

25 So know and understand: From the issuing of the decree to restore and to build Jerusalem until the time Mashiach,[31] the Prince, there shall be seven weeks and 62 weeks.

It will be rebuilt, with plaza and moat, but it will be in times of distress.

26 Then after the 62 weeks Mashiach will be cut off and have nothing.[32]

Then the people of a prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary.[33] But his end will come like a flood. Until the end of the war that is decreed there will be destruction.

27 Then he will make a firm covenant with many for one week, but in the middle of the week he will put an end to sacrifice and offering.

And on a wing of abominations will come one who destroys, [34] until the decreed annihilation is poured out on the one who destroys.’”

Angelic Princes Battle for 21 Days

Daniel 10 1 In the third year of King Cyrus of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar.
The oracle was true and concerns a great war. He understood the message and gained insight through a vision.
2 “In those days, I, Daniel was mourning for three whole weeks. 3 I ate no rich food, nor did meat or wine enter my mouth, nor did I anoint myself with oil, until the end of three weeks.

4 “Now on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, while I was beside the bank of the great river, the Tigris, 5 I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a man dressed in linen with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist.[35] 6 His body was like yellow jasper, his face like a flash of lightning, his eyes like fiery torches, his arms and his feet like the gleam of burnished bronze,[36] and the sound of his words like the roar of a multitude.[37]
7 “Only I, Daniel, saw the vision; the men that were with me did not see the vision. Nevertheless, such a great terror fell upon them that they fled and hid themselves. 8 So I was left alone to see this great vision. My strength drained from me and my vigor was destroyed; I could not summon any strength. 9 Yet I heard the sound of his words. When I heard him speaking, I fell on my face in a deep sleep with my face to the ground.[38] 10 “Then behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. 11 He said to me, ‘Daniel, highly valued man, carefully consider the words I am speaking to you. Stand up! For now I have been sent to you.’ When he spoke this word to me, I stood up trembling.
12 “Then he said to me, ‘Don’t be afraid, Daniel! For from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. I have come because of your words. 13 However, the prince of the kingdom of Persia resisted me for 21 days, but behold Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me because I had been detained there with the kings of Persia. 14 Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future days. For the vision concerns days yet to come.’

15 “While he was speaking these words to me, I bowed my face toward the ground and was speechless. 16 Then behold, one who resembled a human touched my lips. I opened my mouth and spoke, and said to him that stood before me, ‘O my Lord because of the vision, anguish has overcome me and I have no strength. 17 For how can this servant of my Lord speak with my Lord since no strength remains in me and no spirit is left in me?’

18 “Again the one who looked like a man touched me and strengthened me. 19 Then he said: ‘Highly valued man, do not fear! Shalom to you. Be strong, now! Chazak!’

“Even as he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, ‘Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.’

20 “Then he said: ‘Do you understand why I have come to you? Now I must return to fight against the prince of Persia! When I go, behold, the prince of Greece will come. 21 But first, I will tell you what is recorded in the writing of truth.’ (No one strengthened me against these, except Michael your prince.[39]

Daniel 11 [1] “And in the first year of Darius the Mede, I took my stand to support and protect him).

Kings of the South and the North

[2] “Now I will declare the truth. Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia. Then a fourth will be far richer than all. When he becomes powerful through his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the realm of Greece. [3] Then a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great authority and do as he pleases. [4] But as soon as he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken up and distributed to the four winds of heaven—though it will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the authority he exercised, for his kingdom will be uprooted and given to others besides these.

[5] “Then the king of the south will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he, and he will rule a greater kingdom than his. [6] After some years they will form an alliance. The daughter of the king of the south will approach the king of the north to make an agreement. But she will not retain her position of power, nor will his strength endure. Instead she will be given up, together with her escort, her father and the one who supported her in those times. [7] But another shoot from her roots will arise in his place. He will come against the army of the king of the north and enter his fortress. He will fight against them and prevail. [8] He will also carry off their gods into captivity to Egypt, along with their metal images and their precious articles of silver and gold. For a few years he will stay away from the king of the north.

[9] “Then the king of the north will invade the realm of the king of the south, but he will retreat to his own land. [10] His sons will prepare for war and assemble a great army, which will advance and overflow and sweep through like a flood and carry the battle as far as his fortress.

11 “Then the king of the south, enraged, will march out and fight against the king of the north, who will also muster a massive army. But the army will be defeated. 12 But when the army is carried off, the heart of the king of the south will become arrogant, and will slaughter thousands and thousands, yet he will not prevail. 13 The king of the north will raise up another army, one greater than the first. After an interval of some years, he will advance with a great army and with abundant supplies.
14 “In those times many will rise up against the king of the south. The lawless sons among your own people will raise themselves up in order to confirm the vision, but they will stumble. 15 Then the king of the north will come, build a siege-ramp and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the south will not prevail—not even their select troops will have strength to prevail. 16 But the invader will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to stand against him. He will take his stand in the beautiful land and its devastation in his hand. 17 His intention will be to come with the strength of his entire kingdom, but he will reach an agreement with him. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to destroy the kingdom, but his plans will not succeed or help him. 18 Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and capture many. But a commander will put an end to his insolence and pay him back for his insolence. 19 He will then turn his face toward the strongholds of his own land, but he will stumble and fall, not to be found again.

20 “In his place will arise one who will dispatch a tax collector to extract tribute for royal glory, but within a few days he will be destroyed, though not in anger or battle.

21 “Then in his place will arise a despicable person, on whom royal honor has not been conferred. He will come in a time of tranquility, and seize the kingdom through intrigue. 22 Armies will be utterly swept away from before him and will be broken, as well as the leader of the covenant. 23 After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully; he will rise to power with a small force. 24 Without warning, he will invade the richest province and accomplish what his fathers or predecessors were unable to do. He will lavish on them plunder, loot and spoils. He will plot the overthrow of strongholds, though only for a while.

25 “He will summon his strength and courage against the king of the south with a great army. The king of the south will wage war with a very large and mighty army, but he will not succeed because of plots devised against him. 26 Those who eat his delicacies will destroy him, and his army will be swept away;
many will be slain in battle. 27 These two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and speak lies, but to no avail, for the end will still come at the appointed time.
28 The king of the north will return to his own land with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action and then return to his own land.

29 “At the appointed time he will invade the south again, only this time the outcome will not be as before. 30 The ships of Kittim[40] will come against him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his rage against the holy covenant.
When he returns, he will favor those who forsake the holy covenant.
31 “His forces will rise up and profane the fortified Temple;
they will stop the daily offering and set up the abomination of desolation.[41] 32 With smooth words he will seduce those who act wickedly against the covenant, but the people who know their God will stand strong and prevail. 33 Those who are wise among the people will instruct many, though for many days they will fall by the sword, or be burned, captured or pillaged.
34 When they stumble, they will receive a little help, but many will join them deceitfully. 35 Even some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified and made spotless until the time of the end—for it will still come at the appointed time.

An Ungodly King Exalts Himself

36 “So the king will do as he pleases, exalting and magnifying himself above every god. He will even speak outrageous things against the God of gods. He will prosper until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been decided will be done. 37 He will show no regard for the gods[42] of his fathers or the one desired by women, nor will he show regard for any god, but will exalt himself above all. 38 Instead of these, he will honor a god of fortresses—a god his fathers did not acknowledge he will honor with gold, silver, precious stones and costly things. 39 He will attack strong fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him. He will give them authority over many and will parcel out land for a price.

40 “Now at the time of the end the king of the south will attack him, and the king of the north will storm out against him with chariots, horsemen and many ships. He will invade lands and pass through them like an overflowing river. 41 He will also invade the Beautiful Land. Many will be overthrown, but these will escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon. 42 He will extend his hand against other countries; the land of Egypt will not escape. 43 He will gain control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver, as well as all of the riches of Egypt. The Libyans and the Cushites will also be under his feet. 44 But reports from the east and north will alarm him, and he will set out in a great rage to destroy and annihilate many. 45 He will pitch his royal tents between the seas and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will meet his doom with no one to help him.’

Resurrection and Judgment

Daniel 12 1 “At that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people, will arise.[43] There will be a time of distress such as has never occurred since the beginning of the nation until then.[44] But at that time your people—everyone who is found written in the book—will be delivered.[45] 2 Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake—
some to everlasting life, and others to shame and everlasting contempt.[46] 3 Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavenly expanse. And those who turn many to righteousness will be like the stars forever and ever. 4 But you, Daniel, close up the words and seal the book until the time of the end.[47] Many will run back and forth and knowledge will increase.’

The Final Outcome

5 Then I, Daniel, looked and behold, two others stood there, one on this bank of the river and the one on the other bank of the river. 6 One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long until the end of the wondrous things?”

7 Then I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, as he raised both his right and left hands toward heaven and swore an oath by Him who lives forever, saying, “It is for a time, times, and a half. Then when the breaking of the power of the holy people comes to an end, all these things will be finished.”

8 Now I heard, but I did not understand. So I said, ‘My Lord, what will be the outcome of these things?’

9 Then he said: “Go your way, Daniel. For the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. 10 Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.
11 “From the time that the daily burnt offering is taken away, and abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. 12 Happy is the one who keeps waiting, and reaches the 1,335 days.[48] 13 But you, go your way till the end. You will rest and then at the end of days you will arise to receive your portion.”

Cyrus Decrees: Rebuild the Temple

Ezra 1 [1] Now in the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, in order to accomplish the word of ADONAI from the mouth of Jeremiah, ADONAI stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his entire kingdom, announcing in a written edict, saying:
[2] "Thus says King Cyrus of Persia: ADONAI, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build a House for Him in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.
[3] Whoever is among you from all His people—may his God be with him—may go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the House of ADONAI, the God of Israel—He is the God who is in Jerusalem. [4] As for anyone who remains, wherever they may be living, let the people of those places supply him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings for the House of God in Jerusalem."
[5] So the patriarchal leaders of Judah and Benjamin, along with the kohanim and the Levites—everyone whose spirit God had stirred up—arose to go up to build the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem. [6] All those around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, gold, goods, cattle and valuable gifts, besides all that was willingly offered.

[7] Then King Cyrus brought out the vessels from the House of ADONAI that Nebuchadnezzar had brought from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his gods. [8] King Cyrus of Persia had them brought out by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out for Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. [9] And this was the inventory of them:
gold basins—30
silver basins—1,000
silver utensils—29
[10] gold bowls—30
other silver bowls—410
other vessels—1,000

11 In all there were 5,400 vessels of gold and silver.
Sheshbatzar brought them all along when the exiles were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Numbering Those Returning

Ezra 2 [1] Now these are the people of the province who went up from the captives of the exile, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken captive to Babylon. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his town. [2] They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordechai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah.

The number of men of the people of Israel:
[3] the sons of Parosh—2,172
[4] the sons of Shephatiah—372
[5] the sons of Arah—775
[6] the sons of Pahath-moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab—
2,812
[7] the sons of Elam—1,254
[8] the sons of Zattu—945
[9] the sons of Zaccai—760
[10] the sons of Bani—642
[11] the sons of Bebai—623
[12] the sons of Azgad—1,222
[13] the sons of Adonikam—666
[14] the sons of Bigvai—2,056
[15] the sons of Adin—454
[16] the sons of Ater, of Hezekiah—98
[17] the sons of Bezai—323
[18] the sons of Jorah—112
[19] the sons of Hashum—223
[20] the sons of Gibbar—95
[21] the sons of Beth-lehem—123
[22] the men of Netophah—56
[23] the men of Anathoth—128
[24] the sons of Azmaveth—42
[25] the sons of Kiriath-arim, Chephirah, and Beerot—743
[26] the sons of Ramah and Geba—621
[27] the men of Michmas—122

28 the men of Beth-el and Ai—223
29 the sons of Nebo—52
30 the son of Magbish—156
31 the sons of the other Elam—1,254
32 the sons of Harim—320
33 the sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono—725
34 the sons of Jericho—345
35 the sons of Senaah—3,630

36 The kohanim: the sons of Jedaiah from the house of Jeshua
—973
37 the sons of Immer—1,052
38 the sons of Pashhur—1,247
39 the sons of Harim—1,017
40 The Levites: the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel
(through the line of Hodaviah)—74
41 The singers the sons of Asaph—128

56 the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, 57 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, and the sons of Ami.
58 All the Temple servants and the sons of Solomon’s servants
—392.

59 The following came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they were not able to prove their family connection[1] or their ancestry[2] whether they were from Israel:
60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda—652.

61 Also from the sons of the kohanim: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, and the sons of Barzillai. (He took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was subsequently called by their name). 62 These sought their records in the genealogical lists, but did not find them. So they were disqualified from the priesthood. 63 As a result, the governor said to them that they should not eat any of the most holy food until a kohen was ministering with the Urim and Thummim.
64 The entire assembly totaled 42,360, 65 not including their male and female servants, who numbered 7,337. They also had 200 male and female singers. 66 They had 736 horses, 245 mules, 67 435 camels, 6,702 donkeys.
68 When they arrived at the House of Adonai in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the families gave voluntary offerings toward the rebuilding of the House of God on its foundation.
69 According to their ability, they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 gold drachmas, 5,000 silver minas and 100 priestly tunics.
70 Now the kohanim, the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers and the Temple servants settled in their own towns, and all the rest of Israel in their towns.

Rebuilding the Temple

Ezra 3 1 When the seventh month arrived and the sons of Israel were settled in the towns, the people gathered together as one man in Jerusalem. 2 Then Jeshua son of Jozadak, his fellow kohanim, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel, in order to offer burnt offerings on it as written in the Torah of Moses, the man of God. 3 They set up the altar on its fixed resting place despite their fear of the peoples of the lands and they offered burnt offerings on it to ADONAI, both the morning and the evening sacrifices. 4 They also kept the Feast of Sukkot as it is written and offered the prescribed number of daily burnt offerings according to the requirement for each day.
5 After that they presented the regular burnt offerings, the new moon sacrifices and the sacrifices for all the sacred moadim of ADONAI, as well as all the freewill offerings brought to ADONAI. 6 From the first day of the seventh month, they began to offer burnt offerings to ADONAI, though the foundation of the Temple of ADONAI had not been laid. 7 So they gave money to the stone-masons and carpenters, and food, beverages, and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians to bring cedar trees by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as authorized by King Cyrus of Persia.
8 In the second month of the second year after they had come to the House of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers—the kohanim, the Levites and all who returned from captivity to Jerusalem—began the work. They appointed the Levites from twenty years of age and older to supervise the work on the House of ADONAI.
9 Then Jeshua, his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood together to supervise those working in the House of God, along with the sons of Henadad, their sons, and their brothers, the Levites.

10 When the builders had laid the foundation of the Temple of ADONAI, the kohanim, arrayed in their vestments and with clarions, and the Levites sons of Asaph with cymbals, were stationed to praise ADONAI as prescribed by King David of Israel. 11 With praise and thanksgiving they sang to ADONAI,
“For He is good; For His mercy upon Israel endures forever.”
Then all the people gave a great shout of praise to ADONAI because the foundation of the House of ADONAI had been laid.
12 But many of the kohanim, Levites and patriarchal leaders, older men who had seen the former House, wept loudly at the sight of the founding of this House, while many shouted for joy.
13 People could not distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of the people’s weeping. For the people were shouting so loudly that the sound was heard far away.

Resistance Weakens the People

Ezra 4 1 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple for ADONAI the God of Israel, 2 they approached Zerubbabel and the leading patriarchs and said to them, “Let us build with you, for like you we seek your God and have been sacrificing to Him since the days of Esarhaddon, king of Assyria, who brought us here.” 3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua and the rest of the prominent patriarchs of Israel said to them, “It is not for you and us to build a House for our God—but we alone will build it for ADONAI the God of Israel, just as Cyrus—king of Persia—has commanded us.”
4 Then the people of the land began discouraging[3] the people of Judah and making them afraid to build. 5 They bribed advisors in order to thwart their plans all the days of King Cyrus of Persia and until the reign of Darius king of Persia.
6 During the reign of Ahasuerus at the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. 7 Also during the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia. The letter was written in Aramaic and translated. 8 Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter concerning Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes as follows:
9 From Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates—the judges and the officials, the magistrates, and governors over the Erechites, the Babylonians, the people of Susa (that is, the Elamites) 10 and the rest of the peoples whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and the rest of Trans-Euphrates.[4]
(Now 11 this is a copy of the letter they sent to him.)
To Artaxerxes the king, from your servants, the men of Trans-Euphrates:

Now [12] let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding the rebellious and wicked city. They are completing the walls and repairing the foundations.
[13] “Furthermore, let it be known to the king, that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, no more tribute, taxes or duty will be paid and the royal revenue will suffer. [14] Now since we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonored, we are sending this message to inform the king [15] so that a search may be made in the book of records of your fathers and you will discover in the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, inciting internal revolts from ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed. [16] We are informing the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls completed, you will no longer have any possession in Trans-Euphrates.”

“To Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates who dwell in Samaria and the others in Trans-Euphrates.
“Shalom!
[18] “The letter that you sent to us has been translated and read in my presence. [19] At my order a search was made and it was found that this city has from earliest times revolted against kings and that rebellion and sedition continually occur in it. [20] Mighty kings have ruled over Jerusalem governing all the Trans-Euphrates, and tribute, taxes, and duty were paid to them.
[21] “So now, issue a decree to stop these men—this city is not to be rebuilt until I issue a decree. [22] Be careful not to be negligent in this matter. Why should damage increase to the detriment of the kings?”

[23] Then, as soon as the copy of the letter from King Artaxerxes was read in the presence of Rehum, Shimshai the scribe and their associates, they hurried off to the Jews in Jerusalem and by force and power compelled them to stop.

24 Thus the work on the House of God in Jerusalem ceased. It remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Prophets Restart the Project

Ezra 5 1 Now Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the prophet, the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.
2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the House of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them supporting them.
3 At that time Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-bozenai, and their associates came to them and asked them, "Who gave you the authority to build this House and to complete this structure?" 4 They also asked them, "What are the names of the men who are constructing this building?"
5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and a written reply about it be returned.
6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shetar-bozenai, and his colleagues, officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius. 7 The report they sent to him was written as follows:
"To King Darius.
"All Shalom!
8 "Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the House of the great God, which is being built with large stones and timber is being set in the walls. Now this work is being done diligently and is succeeding in their hands.
9 Then we questioned those elders, asking them, 'Who gave you the authority to build this House and to complete this structure?' 10 We also asked them their names in order to inform you, so that we might write the names of the men who were in charge of them.
11 They responded to us saying,
'We are servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the House that was built many years ago. A great king of Israel built and finished it. 12 But because our fathers angered the God of heaven, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Chaldean. He destroyed this House and carried the people away to Babylon.

13 ‘However, in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this House of God. 14 Even the gold and silver utensils of the House of God that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Temple in Jerusalem and had carried away to the temple in Babylon—King Cyrus took those things from the temple in Babylon and gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.
15 ‘Then he said to him, “Take these vessels and go and deposit them in the Temple in Jerusalem and let the House of God be built in its place!” 16 So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the House of God in Jerusalem. From that time until now it has been under construction, yet it is not yet finished.’
17 “Now, if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon, to see if in fact King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this House of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision about this matter.”

Darius Endorses Rebuilding

Ezra 6 1 King Darius then issued an order and a search was made in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon. 2 A scroll was found in the citadel of Ecbatana in the province of Media, and this was written on it:
"Memorandum:
3 "In the first year of Cyrus the king, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the House of God at Jerusalem.
"Let the House be rebuilt as a place where sacrifices are offered. Let its foundations be laid. Its height is to be sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits 4 with three layers of large stones and one layer of timber. Let the expense be paid from the king's house. 5 Also let the gold and silver vessels of the House of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought to the Temple in Jerusalem; you shall deposit them in the House of God.
6 "Now then, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues, officials of Trans-Euphrates, all of you stay away from there. 7 Leave the work of this House of God alone! Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this House of God in its place.
8 "Moreover, I hereby issue a decree as to what you are to do for these elders of the Jews to rebuild this House of God. The complete costs are to be paid to these men from the royal treasury, from the tribute from Trans-Euphrates so that they are not hindered.
9 "Whatever is needed—young bulls, rams or lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven or wheat, salt, wine and oil, as requested by the kohanim in Jerusalem—must be given to them daily without neglect, 10 so that they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.
11 "Furthermore, I decree that if anyone changes this edict, a beam is to be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and impaled on it, and because of this, his house be made a pile of refuse. 12 May God, who makes His name to dwell there, overthrow any king or people who lifts his hand to cause such change to destroy this House of God in Jerusalem. I Darius have issued a decree; let it be carried out with diligence.”

Completion and Dedication of the Temple

13 Then Tattenai the governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-bozenai, and their associates diligently carried it out, just as King Darius had sent. 14 So the elders of the Jews continued building and prospering through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They finished building according to the command of the God of Israel and according to the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia. 15 The Temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

16 Then the sons of Israel—the kohanim, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the House of God with joy. 17 For the dedication of this House of God they offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 male lambs, and, as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel. 18 They appointed the kohanim in their divisions and the Levites in their divisions over the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

19 The exiles celebrated the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, 20 for every one of the kohanim and the Levites had purified themselves and all of them were ceremonially pure. They slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, and for their fellow kohanim and for themselves. 21 So those of Bnei-Yisrael who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the impurity of the nations of the land to seek ADONAI the God of Israel. 22 They celebrated the Feast of Matzot with joy for seven days, because ADONAI had given them joy and had changed the heart of the king of Assyria toward them so as to strengthen their hands in the work on the House of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra Returns From Babylon

Ezra 7 [1] Now after these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah, [2] son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub, [3] son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth, [4] son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki, [5] son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the kohen gadol—[6] this Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the Torah of Moses that ADONAI the God of Israel had given. The king granted him everything he requested, because the hand of ADONAI his God was upon him. [7] Some of Bnei-Yisrael and some of the kohanim, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the sanctuary servants also came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

[8] He arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king. [9] He began his aliyah from Babylon on the first day of the first month and entered Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, because the good hand of his God was upon him. [10] For Ezra had set his heart to seek the Torah of ADONAI, to observe and to teach its statues and ordinances in Israel.

King Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

[11] Now this is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the kohen, the scribe, a teacher of matters pertaining to the mitzvot of ADONAI and His statutes over Israel:

[12] "Artaxerxes, king of kings,
"To Ezra the kohen, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven.

[13] "I have now issued a decree that anyone in my kingdom from the people of Israel—even the kohanim and Levites—who wish to go up to Jerusalem with you may go. [14] For you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand, [15] and to bring the silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, [16] together with all the silver and gold that you find in the whole province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and the kohanim for the House of their God in Jerusalem. [17] Furthermore, with this silver you should be sure to buy bulls, rams and lambs, along with their grain offerings and their drink offerings and offer them on the altar of the House of your God in Jerusalem. [18] You may do whatever seems good to you and your brothers with the remaining silver and gold, according to the will of your God.

[19] "The vessels that are entrusted to you for the service of the House of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. [20] The rest of the needs for the House of your God that you may have occasioned to supply, you may provide from the royal treasury.

[21] "I, King Artaxerxes, hereby issue a decree to all the treasurers of Trans-Euphrates to diligently provide all that Ezra the kohen, scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may ask of you—[22] up to 100 talents of silver, 100 cors of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of oil, and salt without limit. [23] Everything that the God of heaven has required, let it be done with diligence for the House of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?
[24] We also notify you that you have no authority to impose tribute, tax or duty on any of the kohanim, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, sanctuary servants, or attendants at this House of God.

[25] "Now you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint judges and magistrates who may administer justice to all the people in Trans-Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach those who do not know them. [26] Let anyone who does not observe the Law of your God and the law of the king, be punished with due diligence, whether it is death or banishment, confiscation of goods or imprisonment."

[27] Blessed be ADONAI, the God of our fathers, who has put it into the heart of the king to beautify the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem in this way [28] and who has extended lovingkindness to me before the king and his counselors and all the king’s mighty princes. I gained strength, as the hand of ADONAI my God was upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

A Holy People and Their Witness

Ezra 8 [1] Now these are the patriarchal leaders, and the genealogical records of those who came up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:
[2] from the sons of Phinehas—Gershom;
from the sons of Ithamar—Daniel;
from the sons of David—Hattush;
[3] from the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh—Zechariah and with him were 150 males were enrolled by genealogy;
[4] from the sons of Pahath-moab—Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah and with him were 200 males enrolled by genealogy;
[5] from the sons of Shechaniah—the son of Jahaziel and 300
males with him.
[6] from the sons of Adin—Ebed the son of Jonathan and 50
males with him;
[7] from the sons of Elam—Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah and 70
males with him;
[8] from the sons of Shephatiah—Zebadiah the son of Michael and 80 males with him;
[9] from the sons of Joab—Obadiah the son of Jehiel and 128
males with him;
[10] from the sons of Shelomith—the son of Josiphiah and 160
males with him;
[11] from the sons of Bebai—Zechariah the son of Bebai and 28
males with him;
[12] from the sons of Azgad—Johanan the son of Hakkatan and 110 males with him;
[13] from the sons of Adonikam (they came later, but these are their names)—Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah and 60 males with
them;
[14] from the sons of Bigvai—Uthai and Zaccur and 70 males
with him.

15 I assembled them at the river that flows toward Ahava. We camped there for three days, and I observed the people and the kohanim, but I did not find any Levites there. 16 So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leaders and for Joiarib and Elnatan who were men of learning. 17 I sent them to Iddo, the leader at the place Casiphia. I put words in their mouths to speak to Iddo and his brother, who were sanctuary servants at Casiphia, in order to bring us ministers for the House of our God.
18 Now as the good hand of our God was upon us, they brought us Sherebiah, a man of insight from the sons of Mahli, son of Levi, son of Israel, along with his sons and his brothers, 18 men. 19 Also Hashabiah together with Jeshaiah from the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, 20 men. 20 Also from the sanctuary servants, whom David and his officials had given for the work of the Levites, 220 sanctuary servants, all of them designated by name.
21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the Ahava River so that we might humble ourselves before our God and seek from Him a straight way for us, our little ones, and all of our possessions.
22 For I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and cavalry to protect us from the enemy along the way, because we had spoken to the king saying, “The gracious hand of our God is upon everyone who seeks Him, but His great anger is against everyone who forsakes Him.” 23 So we fasted and sought our God about this, and He responded to our plea.
24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading kohanim—Sherebiah, Hashabiah and with them ten of their brothers—25 and I weighed out for them the silver, the gold and the utensils, the contribution to the House of our God that the king, his counselors, his officials and all Israel who were present had offered. 26 Specifically, I weighed into their hand 650 talents of silver, silver utensils worth 100 talents, 100 talents of gold, 27 20 golden bowels valued at 1000 darics, and two exquisite vessels of gleaming bronze, as precious as gold.

[28] Then I said to them, “You are holy to ADONAI and the vessels are holy. The silver and the gold are a freewill offering to ADONAI, the God of your fathers. [29] Guard them carefully until you weigh them before the leading kohanim and the Levites and the leading patriarchs of Israel in Jerusalem, in the storerooms of the House of ADONAI.” [30] So the kohanim and the Levites received the silver, the gold and the vessels by weight to bring them to Jerusalem to the House of our God.

[31] Then we set out from the Ahava River on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was upon us and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the way. [32] So we came to Jerusalem and remained there for three days. [33] On the fourth day the silver, the gold, and the utensils were weighed out in the House of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the kohen. Eleazar the son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui. [34] Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the total weight was recorded at that time.

[35] Then the exiles returning from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs and as a sin offering 12 male goats. All of this was a burnt offering to ADONAI. [36] Then they delivered the decrees of the king to the king’s Persian governors and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, who then gave help to the people and the House of God.

Interceding for Unfaithful Remnant

Ezra 9 1 Now when these things had been completed, the leaders approached me to say: “The people of Israel, the kohanim and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands who practice detestable things just like the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians and the Amorites.
2 For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons and have mingled the holy seed with the peoples of the lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and the officials have been at the forefront in this unfaithful act.”
3 When I heard this report, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled out some of the hair from my head and from my beard. Then I sat down devastated. 4 Everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered themselves around me because of the unfaithful act of the exiles. Devastated, I sat there until the evening offering.
5 At the time of the evening offering, I rose up from my selfabasement with my garment and robe torn, then I bowed down on my knees and spread out my hands to ADONAI my God. 6 I prayed, “O my God, I am ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God! For our iniquities are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens. 7 From the days of our fathers to this day our guilt has been great.
Because of our iniquities we, our kings and our kohanim have been subjected to the sword, to captivity, to plunder and to humiliation at the hand of the kings of the lands, as it is today.
8 “But now for a brief moment ADONAI our God has shown us favor in leaving us a remnant and giving us as a peg in His holy place. Thus our God has enlightened our eyes and has given us a little relief in our bondage. 9 Though we are slaves, our God has not forsaken us in our bondage. He has extended lovingkindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, reviving us in order to restore the House of our God, to raise up its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 “So now, our God, what should we say after this? For we have forsaken Your mitzvot 11 that You commanded through Your servants the prophets saying, ‘The land that you are entering to possess is a land defiled by the impurities of the peoples of the lands. Through their abominations, they have filled it from one end to the other with their uncleanness. 12 Therefore, do not give your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek their shalom or their welfare, so that you may be strong, eat the good things of the land and leave it as an inheritance for your children forever.’
13 “After everything that has happened to us because of our evil deeds and our great guilt—for You, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and given us a remnant such as this—14 shall we once again break Your mitzvot and intermarry with the peoples who commit such detestable actions as these? Would You not be angry enough with us to destroy us, leaving us no remnant or survivor? 15 ADONAI, God of Israel, You are righteous, for we are left this day as a remnant. Behold, here we are before You in our guilt; because of it no one can stand before You.”

Putting Away Pagan Wives

Ezra 10 [1] While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and prostrating himself before the House of God, a very large assembly of Israelites—men, women and children—gathered around him. The people also wept very bitterly. [2] Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel. [3] So now let us make a covenant with our God to send away all these women and their offspring, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Torah. [4] Arise! For this matter concerns you. We are with you, so be strong and do it!”

[5] So Ezra rose up and made the leading kohanim, the Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do according to this word; and they took the oath. [6] Then Ezra got up from before the House of God and went into the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no bread and drank no water, because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

[7] A proclamation was then circulated throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all of the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem.
[8] Everyone who did not come within three days, would forfeit all his property according to the counsel of the officials and the elders, and would himself be excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

[9] So within three days all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled in Jerusalem. On the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the plaza before the House of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the rain. [10] Then Ezra the kohen stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful and taken foreign wives, increasing the guilt of Israel. [11] So now, give praise to ADONAI, the God of your fathers, and do His will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from your foreign wives.”

12 The entire assembly answered and said with a loud voice, “Yes, we will do just as you have said.[5] 13 However, there are many people here and it is the rainy season, and we are not able to stand outside. Besides, this task cannot be resolved in one or two days, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter. 14 Let our leaders stand for the whole assembly. Let everyone in our cities who has married a foreign woman come at an appointed time, and with them the elders of each city and its judges, until the burning wrath of our God is turned back from us in this matter.” 15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah stood against this, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite. 16 So the exiles did as proposed. Ezra the kohen, set apart men who were patriarchal leaders of their fathers’ households each designated by name.
So they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to consider the matter, 17 and they were finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women on the first day of the first month.
18 Among the sons of the kohanim it was found that the following had married foreign women: The sons of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah. 19 They all gave their hands in pledge to put away their wives, and for their guilt, they offered a ram of the flock as a guilt offering.
20 Also from the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.
21 From the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah.
22 From the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasah.
23 From the Levites:
Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah—he is Kelita—Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer.
24 From the singers: Eliashib.
From the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.
25 Also from Israel:
From the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah and Benaiah.

[26] From the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.
[27] From the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.
[28] From the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai and Athlai.
[29] From the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal and Ramoth.
[30] From the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh.
[31] From the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, [32] Benjamin, Malluch and Shemariah.
[33] From the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh and Shimei.
[34] From the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel, [35] Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhu, [36] Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, [37] Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai, [38] Bani, Binnui, Shimei, [39] Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, [40] Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, [41] Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, [42] Shallum, Amariah and Joseph.
[43] From the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel and Benaiah.
[44] All these had taken foreign women, and some of them had children by these wives.

Nehemiah Intercedes for Jerusalem

Nehemiah 1 1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah:

Now it happened that in the month of Kislev in the twentieth year, while I was in Shushan the capitol, 2 that Hanani, one of my brothers, together with some men from Judah, arrived and I asked them about the Judeans, the remnant who had survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

3 They said to me, “The remnant who have survived the captivity there in the province are in great distress and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its gates have been burned with fire.”

4 Upon hearing these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days. I prayed and fasted before the God of heaven. 5 Then I said:

“ADONAI, God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps the covenant and lovingkindness with those who love Him and keep His mitzvot, 6 please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open to hear the prayer of Your servant that I am praying before You today both day and night on behalf of Your servants, the Bnei-Yisrael. I am confessing the sins of Bnei-Yisrael that we have sinned against You—yes, I and my ancestral house have sinned. 7 We have acted very corruptly against You. We have not kept the mitzvot, the statutes, nor the rulings that You commanded Your servant Moses.

8 “Please recall the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you act unfaithfully, I will scatter you among the peoples, 9 but if you return to Me and obey My mitzvot, and do them, then even if your dispersed people are at the ends of the heavens, I will gather them from there, and bring them back to the place where I have chosen for My Name to dwell.’

10 “They are Your servants and Your people whom You redeemed by Your great strength and by Your mighty hand. 11 Please, my Lord, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and to the prayer of Your servants who delight in revering Your Name. Give Your servant success today and grant compassion in the presence of this man.”

Now I was cupbearer to the king.

Favor with the King

Nehemiah 2 [1] Then in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was set before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before. [2] So the king said to me, “Why is your face so sad when you are not ill? This can be nothing but sadness of heart.”
I was very frightened, [3] but I said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”
[4] The king asked me, “What is your request?”
Then I prayed to the God of heaven, [5] and I answered the king, “If it seems good to the king and if your servant has found favor in your sight, send me to the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried that I may rebuild it.”
[6] Then the king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me,
“How long will your journey take, and when will you return?”
Since it pleased the king to send me, I set a time for him.
[7] I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let him give me letters for the governors of Trans-Euphrates that will enable me to pass through until I arrive in Judah, [8] as well as a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king’s forest so he will give me lumber to make beams for the gates of the fortress adjacent to the Temple, for the wall of the city and for the residence I will occupy.”
The king granted me the requests because the good hand of my God was upon me.
[9] Then I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and I gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent army officials and cavalry with me.
[10] When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite officials heard all this, they were very displeased that a man had come to seek the welfare of Bnei-Yisrael.

Inspecting the Walls

11 I came to Jerusalem, and after I was there for three days, 12 I got up during the night along with a few men. But I did not tell anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no animals with me except the animal I was riding. 13 By night I went out by the Valley Gate toward Jackal Spring and the Dung Gate, inspecting the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire. 14 Then I moved on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, where there was not enough room for my animal to pass with me; 15 so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and returned to the Valley Gate. 16 The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, but as yet I had not told the Jews, the kohanim, the nobles, the officials or the rest of the workers.
17 Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation we are in:
Jerusalem is desolate and its gates have been burnt. Come! Let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no longer be a disgrace."
18 Then I told them how the good hand of my God was on me and the words that the king had said to me. Then they replied, "Let us begin building!" So they prepared themselves for this good work.
19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. They said, "What is this you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"
20 I responded to them saying, "The God of heaven will bring us success. We His servants will arise and build. But you have no part, right, or historical claim in Jerusalem."

The Builders of the Wall

Nehemiah 3 [1] Then Eliashib the kohen gadol and his brothers, the kohanim, arose and built the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and set up its doors, dedicating it as far as the Tower of the Hundred and as far as the Tower of Hananel. [2] The men of Jericho built next to it and Zaccur the son of Imri built next to
them.

[3] The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate. They laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. [4] Next to them Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz made repairs.
Adjacent to them Meshullam son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabel made repairs, and next to them Zadok son of Baana made repairs. [5] The men of Tekoa made repairs next to them, but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work of their masters.

[6] Joiada son of Paseah, and Meshullam son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate. They laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts and its bars. [7] Adjacent to them worked Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, men from Gibeon and Mizpah who are under the jurisdiction of the governor of Trans-Euphrates. [8] Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, worked adjacent to him, and Hananiah, one of the perfumers, worked next to him. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. [9] Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem made repairs next to them. [10] Jedaiah son of Harumaph repaired the section adjacent to them opposite his house, and Hattush son of Hashabneiah worked next to them.
[11] Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Furnaces.
[12] Shallum son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, and his daughters repaired the next section.

[13] Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
They also repaired a thousand cubits of wall up to the Dung Gate.

14 Malchijah son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Bethcherem, repaired the Dung Gate. He built it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
15 Shallun son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He built it, covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the King's Garden, as far as the stairs going down from the City of David. 16 Beyond him Nehemiah son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Beth-zur, made repairs as far as the tombs of David and the artificial pool and the House of the Warriors.
17 After him, the Levites made repairs under Rehum son of Bani, and beside him, Hashabiah, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district. 18 After him repairs were made by their brothers under Bavvai son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah. 19 Adjacent to him Ezer son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section opposite the ascent to the armory at the corner buttress. 20 After him Baruch son of Zaccai zealously repaired another section from the corner buttress up to the door of the house of Eliashib, the kohen gadol. After him Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz, repaired another section from the door of the house of Eliashib
to the end of the house of Eliashib.
22 And after him the kohanim worked, men from the surrounding district. 23 After them Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house. After them Azariah son of Maaseiah, son of Ananiah, worked beside his house. 24 Beyond him Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section from the house of Azariah up to the inner buttress and the corner.
25 Palal son of Uzai made repairs opposite the inner buttress and the tower coming out from the upper palace, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah son of Parosh 26 and the Temple servants living on the Ophel made repairs up to the area opposite the Water Gate toward the east and the projecting tower. 27 After him the men of Tekoa repaired another section from opposite the great projecting tower to the wall of the Ophel.

[28] Above the Horse Gate the kohanim worked, each in front of his own house. [29] After them Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house and after him Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the guard of the East Gate, made repairs. [30] After him Hananiah, son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another portion. After him Meshullam son of Berechiah made repairs in front of his living quarters. [31] After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs up to the house of the Temple servants, and the merchants opposite the Inspection Gate and as far as the room above the corner.
[32] Between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants worked.

Opposition Mocks the Rebuilding

[33] Now when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he became very angry and was greatly enraged. He mocked the Jews [34] in the presence of his colleagues and the army of Samaria, saying:

"What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day?
Can they revive the stones from the heaps of rubble that are burnt?"

[35] Then Tobiah the Ammonite, who was beside him, said:
"Even if a fox climbed on what they are building, it would break down their stone wall!"

[36] Hear, our God, for we are despised. Turn their insult back on their own head! Give them up as plunder in a land of captivity. [37] Do not cover their guilt or blot out their sin from before You, for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

[38] So we rebuilt the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a heart to work.

Nehemiah 4 [1] Now when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the people of Ashdod heard that restoration of the walls of Jerusalem was proceeding and that the breaches had begun to be closed, they became extremely angry. [2] They all conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to stir up trouble against it. [3] But we prayed to our God and stationed a guard against them day and night.

[4] Meanwhile the people of Judah said, “The strength of the laborers is failing. There is so much rubble that we are unable to rebuild the wall.”

[5] Our adversaries also said, “They will not know or perceive anything, until we come among them and kill them, and put an end to the work!”

[6] So it happened that the Jews living near them came and told us ten times over, “Wherever you turn, they will attack us!”

Working and Watching

7 So I stationed people in the lower places behind the wall in the exposed places. I stationed the people by families with their swords, spears and bows. 8 When I looked things over, I rose up and said to the nobles, the rulers and the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the great and awesome Lord, and fight on behalf of your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes.” 9 Now when our enemies heard that their plan was known to us, and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to his work. 10 From that day on, half of my men were doing the work, while half of them took hold of the spears, shields, bows and breastplates, and the leaders were behind the entire house of Judah. 11 Those building the wall and those bearing heavy burdens kept one hand on the work and the other holding a weapon. 12 So each of the builders had his sword strapped to his side while they were building, and the shofar blower was beside me.
13 Then I said to the nobles, the rulers and the rest of the people, “The work is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from one another on the wall. 14 Wherever you hear the sound of the shofar, join us there. Our God will fight for us!”
15 So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from dawn until the stars came out. 16 Also at that time I said to the people, “Let every man and his helper lodge inside Jerusalem, so they can be guards for us by night and workers by day.” 17 So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my workers, nor the guards who were with me took off our clothes; each man even had his weapon at the water.

Considering the Poor

Nehemiah 5 1 Then there was a great outcry from the people and their wives to their fellow Jews. 2 There were those who said, “We and our sons and our daughters are numerous. We must take grain, so we may eat and live.”
3 There were others who said, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards and our houses in order to obtain grain during the famine.”
4 Still others were saying, “We have borrowed money to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards. 5 And now, though we share the same flesh as our brothers, and our children are just like their children, still we subject our sons and our daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved but our hands are tied since our fields and vineyards belong to others.”
6 I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words.
7 I pondered them in my heart and then I opposed the nobles and the officials, saying to them, “Usury! Each of you is putting his brother in debt!”
So I convened a great assembly to deal with them. 8 I said to them, “As much as possible, we have bought back our fellow Jews who had been sold to the nations. Now you also are selling your brothers so that they will be sold back to us?” Then they became silent and could not find anything to say.
9 Then I said, “The thing that you are doing is not good!
Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God, in order to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies? 10 Even I, my brothers, and my servants are lending them money and grain. Let this usury stop, now! 11 Now, return to them this very day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, as well as the hundredth that you have extracted from them on the money, the grain, the new wine, and the fresh oil.” 12 Then they said, “We will restore these and require nothing from them. We will do just as you say.”

Then I summoned the kohanim and I made them swear to do according to this promise. 13 Also I shook out my garment, and said, “In this way may God shake out from His house and from His property every one that does not keep this promise. In this way may he be shaken out and emptied!”

And all the assembly replied, “Amen!” and they praised ADONAI. So the people did according to this promise.

Nehemiah’s Unselfishness

14 Moreover, from the day when I was appointed to be the governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes—twelve years—neither I, nor my relatives have eaten the bread allocated to the governor. 15 The earlier governors, those preceding me, placed heavy burdens on the people, and took bread and wine from them, in addition to forty shekels of silver. Their attendants also lorded over the people. But I did not do so, out of fear of God. 16 Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall, without even buying a field. All my attendants were gathered there for the work.

17 Furthermore, 150 Judeans and officials, as well as those that came to us from the nations around us, were at my table. 18 Now, each day one ox and six choice sheep, as well as some fowl, were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundance of every kind of wine was prepared. Despite all this, I did not require the governor’s food allowance, because the work was already heavy on this people.

19 Remember me for good, O my God, for all that I have done for this people.

Attempts to Intimidate Nehemiah

Nehemiah 6 [1] Now it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and no breach remained in it—even though at that time I had not positioned the doors in the gates. [2] Sanballat and Geshem sent word to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono.”
But they were scheming to do me harm.
[3] So I sent messengers to them saying, “I am doing an important work, so I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?”
[4] They sent me the same message four times, and each time I returned a similar response to them. [5] But the fifth time Sanballat sent his young aide to me in this way, he had an open letter in his hand. [6] In it was written:

> “It has been heard among the nations—and Geshem > substantiates it—that you and the Jews are planning to revolt.
> That is why you are rebuilding the wall. Furthermore,
> according to these reports, you are to become their king > [7] and have even appointed prophets to make this > proclamation about you in Jerusalem saying, ‘There is a king > in Judah.’ Now, the king is going to hear about these reports.
> So come now! Let us confer together.”

[8] Then I sent a message to him, saying, “Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are devising them from your own heart.”
[9] For they were all trying to intimidate us, thinking, “Their hands will become weak from the work and it will not be done.”
So now, strengthen my hands!
[10] Then I went to the house of Shemaiah, son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel. He was confined to his home. He said, “Let us meet in the House of God, within the Temple. Let us shut the doors of the Temple, for they are coming to kill you. Indeed, they will come to kill you at night.”

11 But I said, “Should a man like me flee? Who in my position could go into the Temple and live? I will not go in.”
12 I recognized that God had not really sent him, for he had pronounced the prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 13 He had been hired so that I might become so frightened that I would do this and thereby sin. Then they would give me a bad name in order to discredit me.
14 Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who have been trying to intimidate me.
15 So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in just 52 days. 16 When all our enemies heard, all the surrounding nations were afraid and fell greatly in their own eyes, because they realized that this work had been accomplished by our God.
17 Also in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them. 18 For many in Judah were under oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.
19 Moreover, they kept telling me about his good deeds and then reporting my words to him. Also Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

Hanani, Hananiah and the Returning Exiles

Nehemiah 7 [1] After the wall had been rebuilt, the doors set up, and the gatekeepers, singers and Levites appointed, [2] I put in charge over Jerusalem, my brother Hanani along with Hananiah the commander of the fortress, for he was a man of integrity and feared God more than many. [3] I said to them, “The gates of Jerusalem must not be opened until the sun is hot.
While those are still on duty, have them shut and bar the doors.
Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their post and some near their homes.”

[4] Now the city was spacious and large, but there were few people within it and no houses were being built. [5] So my God put into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the people to be registered by genealogy. I found the scroll of the genealogical record of those who formerly returned. I found the following written there:

[6] These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the exile, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had taken away, and who returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each man to his own town. [7] Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of Bnei-Yisrael was:

[8] The sons of Parosh—2,172
[9] The sons of Shephatiah—372
[10] The sons of Arah—652
[11] The sons of Pahat-moab, from the sons of Jeshua and Joab—
2,818
[12] The sons of Elam—1,254
[13] The sons of Zattu—845
[14] The sons of Zaccai—760
[15] The sons of Binnui—648
[16] The sons of Bebai—628
[17] The sons of Azgad—2,328
[18] The sons of Adonikam—667

19 The sons of Bigvai—2,067
20 The sons of Adin—655
21 The sons of Ater of Hezekiah—98
22 The sons of Hashum—328
23 The sons of Bezai—324
24 The sons of Hariph—112
25 The sons of Gibeon—95
26 The men of Bethlehem and Neto-phah—188
27 The men of Anathoth—128
28 The men of Beth-azmaveth—42
29 The men of Kiriath-jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth—743
30 The men of Ramah and Geba—621
31 The men of Michmas—122
32 The men of Bethel and Ai—123
33 The men of the other Nebo—52
34 The sons of the other Elam—1,254
35 The sons of Harim—320
36 The sons of Jericho—345
37 The sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono—721
38 The sons of Senaah—3,930
39 The kohanim:
The sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua—973
40 The sons of Immer—1,052
41 The sons of Pashhur—1,247
42 The sons of Harim—1,017
43 The Levites: the sons of Jeshua of Kadmiel from the sons of Hodeiah—74
44 The singers: the sons of Asaph—148
45 The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita and the sons of Shobai—138.
46 The sanctuary servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaot, 47 the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon, 48 the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Salmai, 49 the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, 50 the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, 51 the sons of Gazzam, the sons of

Uzza, the sons of Paseah, 52 the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephishesim, 53 the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, 54 the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, 55 the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, 56 the sons of Neziah and the sons of Hatipha.
57 The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, 58 the sons of Jala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, 59 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim and the sons of Amon.
60 All the Temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants
—392.
61 Now the following were the ones who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer—but they were not able to identify their ancestral houses or whether their descendants were from Israel: 62 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah and the sons of Nekoda—642.
63 Also of the kohanim: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai. (Their ancestor took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and subsequently was called by their name.) 64 These sought their names in the genealogies, but were not found; so they were disqualified from the priesthood. 65 The governor said to them that they should not eat any of the most holy things until a kohen arose with Urim and Thummim[1].
66 The whole congregation together was 42,360, 67 not including their male and female servants—these were 7,337—as well as 245 male and female singers.
68 There were 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

69 Some from among the family leaders contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury: gold drachmas—1,000; bowls—50; and priestly tunics—500. 70 Those from the heads of ancestral lines gave to the treasury for the work: gold drachmas—20,000; silver minas—2,000. 71 The rest of the people gave: gold drachmas—20,000; silver minas—2,000; and priestly tunics—67.

72 So the kohanim, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, and the Temple servants, even all Israel, dwelt in their towns.

Ezra Reads the Torah

Then the seventh month came and Bnei-Yisrael were in their towns.

Nehemiah 8 1 Then all the people were brought as a single body into the plaza that was before the Water Gate. They said to Ezra the scribe, “Bring out the Torah scroll of Moses that ADONAI had commanded Israel.”
2 Ezra the kohen brought the Torah before the assembly, which included men and women and all who could understand what they heard. This happened on the first day of the seventh month. 3 So he read from it before the plaza in front of the Water Gate from first light until midday, in the presence of the men and women, and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the scroll of the Torah. 4 Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform constructed for this purpose. Standing near him at his right hand were Mattitiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah and at his left hand were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.
5 Ezra opened the scroll in the sight of all the people for he was above all the people. When he opened it, all the people stood up. 6 Ezra blessed ADONAI, the great God, and all the people answered, “Amen, amen!” as they lifted up of their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped ADONAI with their faces to the ground.
7 The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbetai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah—instructed the people in the Torah while the people were standing in their place. 8 They read from the Torah scroll of God, distinctly explaining[2] it and giving insight. Thus they understood what was read.
9 Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the kohen-scribe, and the Levites who were teaching the people said to all the people, “Today is kadosh to ADONAI your God. Do not mourn or weep!”
For all the people had been weeping when they heard the words of the Torah.
10 So he said to them, “Go! Eat choice food, drink sweet drinks, and send portions to those who have nothing ready. For today is kadosh to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of ADONAI is your strength.”

11 Then the Levites quieted all the people, saying, “Hush! For today is kadosh. Do not grieve.” 12 So all the people departed to eat and drink, to send portions and to celebrate with great joy, because they came to understand the words that were explained to them.

Sukkot Joy 13 On the second day, the heads of the families along with the kohanim and the Levites gathered around Ezra to ponder the words of the Torah. 14 They found written in the Torah that Adonai had commanded through Moses that Bnei-Yisrael should dwell in sukkot during the feast of the seventh month. 15 So that they should proclaim and spread this message in all their towns and in Jerusalem saying, “Go out to the hill country and bring olive branches and wild olive branches, myrtle branches, palm branches and branches of other leafy trees to make sukkot, just as it is written.”16 So the people went out and brought branches, and made sukkot for themselves, each on their own roof, in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the House of God, in the plaza before the Water Gate and in the plaza of the Ephraim Gate. 17 The entire assembly who had returned from the captivity made sukkot and dwelt in the sukkot.
Since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day Bnei-Yisrael had not done so—and the joy was very great.

18 Day after day from the first day to the last day, he read from the scroll of the Torah of God. So they kept the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day, according to the regulation, there was a solemn assembly.

Levites Tell Israel's Story

Nehemiah 9 1 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this same month, Bnei-Yisrael gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and putting dust on their heads. 2 The offspring of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, standing and confessing their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. 3 They stood in their place and read in the scroll of the Torah of ADONAI their God for a quarter of the day; and for another quarter they were confessing and prostrating themselves
before ADONAI their God.
4 Then the Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani—stood on the platform and cried out with a loud voice to ADONAI their God. 5 The Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah—said: "Stand up! Bless ADONAI your God, from everlasting to everlasting! May Your glorious Name be blessed; may it be exalted above all blessing and praise.
6 You alone are ADONAI. You made the heavens, even the highest heaven with all its array,[3] the earth and everything on it, the seas and everything in them. You give life to them all, and the multitudes of heaven worship You.

7 "You are ADONAI, the God who chose Abram, brought him from Ur of the Chaldeans and gave him the name Abraham.
8 You found his heart faithful before You and made the covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, Hittite, Amorite, Perizzite, Jebusite and the Girgashite to his seed. You have fulfilled Your words, for You are righteous.

9 "You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt and heard their cry by the Sea of Reeds. 10 You gave signs and wonders against Pharaoh, all his servants, and all the people of his land, for You knew how insolently they treated them. You made a name for Yourself which remains to this day. 11 You divided the sea before them, so that they passed through the midst of the sea on dry land! But their pursuers You threw into the depths like a stone into mighty waters. 12 You led them with a pillar of cloud by day and with a pillar of fire by night to illuminate for them the way they were to go.

13 “You descended on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them just judgments, reliable laws, and good statutes and mitzvot. 14 You made known to them Your holy Shabbat and ordained for them mitzvot, statutes and Torah by the hand of Your servant Moses. 15 You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger, and brought them water from the rock for their thirst. You told them to go in to possess the land that You had sworn to give them.[4]

16 “But they, our ancestors, became arrogant. They stiffened their neck and did not obey Your mitzvot. 17 They refused to obey and did not remember Your wonders that You did among them. Instead, they became stiff-necked and in their rebellion, appointed a leader in order to return to their bondage. But You are a God of forgiveness, merciful and compassionate, slow to anger, and abounding in love. Therefore You did not abandon them, 18 even when they made a cast image of a calf for themselves and said, ‘This is your god who brought you up from Egypt!’ or when they committed great blasphemies.

19 “Yet in Your great compassion You did not abandon them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud by day did not depart from above them, guiding them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night, illuminating the way they should go. 20 You also gave Your good Ruach to teach them. You did not withhold Your manna from their mouth and You gave them water for their thirst. 21 For forty years You sustained them in the desert: they lacked nothing, their garments did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

22 “You gave them kingdoms and peoples and You allotted them their boundaries of the land. They possessed the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the country of Og king of Bashan. 23 You multiplied their descendants like the stars of heaven, and

You brought them into the land that You told their ancestors to enter and inherit. 24 So the children went in and possessed the land. You subdued before them the Canaanites who were the inhabitants of the land. You delivered them into their hands, along with their kings and the peoples of the land to deal with them as they pleased. 25 They captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took possession of houses full of every good thing—hewn cisterns, vineyards, olive groves, and an abundance of fruit trees. They ate and were satisfied, and grew fat. They enjoyed Your great goodness.

26 “Nonetheless they became contentious and rebelled against You. They cast Your Torah behind their back. They killed Your prophets who warned them[5] to return to You; they committed appalling blasphemies. 27 Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies who oppressed them. But in the time of their distress, they cried out to You and You heard from heaven. According to Your great compassion, You gave them deliverers, who rescued them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 “But as soon as they were at rest, they returned to doing evil before You. Therefore You abandoned them into the hand of their enemies who ruled over them. When they repented and cried out to You, You heard from heaven, and according to Your compassion You delivered them many times.

29 “You warned them in order to turn them back to Your Torah, but they became insolent and disobeyed Your mitzvot. They sinned against Your ordinances—those by which if a man does them he will live. They turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck, and would not listen. 30 You bore with them for many years and admonished them by Your Ruach through the hand of Your prophets. Yet they would not listen, so You handed them over to the peoples of the lands. 31 Nevertheless, in Your great compassion, You did not put an end to them or abandon them, for You are a gracious and compassionate God.

32 “So now, our God—the great, mighty and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy—do not let all the hardship that has befallen us seem insignificant to you—our kings, our leaders, our kohanim, our prophets, our ancestors and all Your people, from the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. 33 You are righteous in all that has come upon us. For You have acted faithfully while we have done wickedly. 34 Our kings, our leaders, our kohanim, and our ancestors have not kept Your Torah or paid attention to Your mitzvot or Your testimonies by which you have admonished them.
35 “Even in their own kingdom with the abundance of Your good things that You gave them, or with the spacious and fertile land that You set before them, they did not serve You or turn back from their evil deeds.

36 “But see, even today we are slaves! Slaves in the land that You gave to our ancestors to eat of its fruit and its bounty. We are slaves in it. 37 Its abundant produce goes to the kings You have set over us due to our sins. They rule over our bodies and over our livestock as they please. We are in great distress!

Renewed Covenant

Nehemiah 10 1 “Now because of all this, we are making a binding agreement in writing, and the names of our leaders, our Levites and our kohanim are affixing their seals on the document. 2 On the sealed document were:
Nehemiah, the governor, son of Hachaliah, Zedekiah,
3 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, 4 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,
5 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, 6 Harim, Meremot, Obadiah,
7 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, 8 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
9 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the kohanim.

10 And the Levites were:
Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui from the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,
11 and their associates Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
12 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah, 13 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
14 Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.

15 The leaders of the people:
Parosh, Pahat-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 16 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
17 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
18 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
19 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,
20 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
21 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
22 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
23 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
24 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
25 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
26 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, 27 and Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, 28 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

29 “Now the rest of the people—the kohanim, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands for the sake of the Torah of God, along with their wives, their sons and their daughters who were able to understand—30 all join their brothers the nobles, and enter into a curse and an oath to walk in the Torah of God given through Moses the servant of God, and to keep and do all the mitzvot of ADONAI our Lord, along with His ordinances and His statutes.
31 “Furthermore, we will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and we will not take their daughters for our sons. 32 When the peoples of the land bring merchandise or any kind of grain on Shabbat, we will not buy from them on Shabbat or on a holy day. Also every seventh year we will forego working the land and the debt of every hand. 33 We also assume responsibility for the mitzvot to give a third of a shekel
each year for the work of the House of our God:[6] 34 for the rows of bread, the regular grain offering and regular burnt offering, the Shabbatot, the New Moons, for the moadim, for the holy things, for the sin offerings to atone for Israel, and for all the service of the House of our God.
35 “We—the kohanim, the Levites and the people—have cast lots concerning the offering of wood, to bring it into the House of our God according to our ancestral house at the appointed times year by year to burn on the altar of ADONAI, our God, as it is written in the Torah. 36 Also to bring the firstfruits of our land and the first fruits of all fruit trees year by year to the House of ADONAI, 37 and the firstborn of our sons and our livestock as written in the Torah; the firstborn of our cattle and our sheep to the House of our God—to the kohanim ministering in the House of our God; 38 and the first of our coarse meal, along with our offerings—the fruit from every kind of tree, new wine and oil—to the kohanim at the storerooms of the House of our God, as well as a tenth of the crop of our land to the Levites, for they, the Levites, receive tithes in all the towns where we labor.

[39] “Also the kohen, a descendant of Aaron, will be with the Levites when the Levites receive the tithe, and the Levites will bring a tenth of the tithes up to the House of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury. [40] For Bnei-Yisrael and the sons of Levi will bring the grain offering, new wine, and oil to the storerooms where the utensils for the Sanctuary, and for the ministering kohanim, the gatekeepers, and the singers are kept.

“We will not forsake the House of our God.”

Resettlement of the Land

Nehemiah 11 1 So the leaders of the people dwelt in Jerusalem while the remainder of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine remained in the other towns. 2 Then the people blessed all the men who volunteered to dwell in Jerusalem.
3 These are the leaders of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (Some of Israel, the kohanim, the Levites, the Temple servants, and the children of Solomon's servants dwelt in the towns of Judah, each on his own property in their towns, 4 and some of the descendants of Judah and Benjamin dwelt in Jerusalem).
From the sons of Judah: Athaiah son of Uzziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, from the descendants of Perez; 5 also Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, son of the Shilonite. 6 In all, 468 sons of Perez dwelt in Jerusalem—valiant men.
7 Now these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiah. 8 Following him were 928 valiant men. 9 Joel son of Zichri was in charge over them;
Judah son of Hassenuah was second over the city.
10 Of the kohanim: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin, 11 Seraiah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the ruler of the House of God, 12 their relatives who performed the work of the House—822. Also Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah, 13 and his relatives, leaders of ancestral lines—242. Also Amashsai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer, 14 and their relatives were 128 valiant warriors. Zabdiel son of Haggedolim was in charge over them.

15 From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah of Bunni. 16 From the leaders of the Levites, Shabbethai and Jozabad had oversight over the external business of the House of God. 17 Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, the director who led the thanksgiving prayer. Also Bakbukiah, second among his relatives, and then Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun. 18 In all there were 284 Levites in the holy city.
19 Also there were 172 gatekeepers Akkub, Talmon and their brothers—who kept watch at the gates.

20 The rest of Israel, the kohanim, and the Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each in his own inheritance.
21 But the Temple servants dwelt on the Ophel, with Ziha and Gishpa over the Temple servants. 22 The one in charge over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mica, from the sons of Asaph who were singers responsible for the service in the House of God. 23 The king's command concerning them was to provide regular daily support for the singers. 24 Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, from the descendants of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's agent for any matter concerning the
people.
25 Now as for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah dwelt in Kiriat-arba and its towns, in Dibon and its towns, in Jekabzeel and its villages, 26 in Jeshua; in Moladah, in Beth-pelet; 27 in Hazar-shual, in Beersheba and its towns, 28 in Ziklag, in Meconah and its towns, 29 in En-rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth, 30 in Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its towns. So they settled from Beersheba to the Hinnom valley.
31 The descendants of Benjamin dwelt in Geba, Michmas and Aijah, Bethel and its towns, 32 Anatoth, Nob, Ananiah, 33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, 34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, 35 Lod, Ono and Ge-harashim. 36 Some of the divisions of the Levites of Judah settled with Benjamin.

Identifying the Kohanim and Levites

Nehemiah 12 [1] Now these are the kohanim and the Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, [2] Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, [3] Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremot, [4] Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah, [5] Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, [6] Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, [7] Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the kohanim and their brothers in the days of Jeshua.
[8] The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah—he and his brothers conducted the songs of praise—[9] and Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, were opposite them in ranks. [10] Jeshua fathered Joiakim, Joiakim fathered Eliashib, Eliashib fathered Joiada, [11] Joiada fathered Jonathan, and Jonathan fathered Jaddua.
[12] In the days of Joiakim, the family leaders of the kohanim were: Meraiah for Seraiah, Hananiah for Jeremiah, [13] Meshullam for Ezra, Jehohanan for Amariah, [14] Jonathan for Melicu, Joseph for Shebaniah, [15] Adna for Harim, Helkai for Meraiot, [16] Zechariah for Iddo, Meshullam for Ginnethon, [17] Zichri for Abijah, Piltai for Miniamin and Moadiah, [18] Shammua for Bilgah, Jehonathan for Shemaiah, [19] Mattenai for Joiarib, Uzzi for Jedaiah, [20] Kallai for Sallai, Eber for Amok, [21] Hashabiah for Hilkiah, and Nethanel for Jedaiah.
[22] The family heads of the Levites were recorded in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, as well as for the kohanim, up until the reign of Darius the Persian. [23] The family leaders among the sons of Levi were recorded in the Book of the Chronicles up to the days of Johanan son of Eliashib.
[24] So the leaders of the Levites were: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel, with their brothers facing them, to give praise and thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, one section responding to the other.
[25] Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers guarding the storehouses at the gates. [26] These served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, son of Jozadak, in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the kohen-scribe.

Dedicating the Wall

27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought out Levites from all their places to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with joy and thanksgiving, and songs with cymbals, harps and lyres. 28 The companies of singers were also assembled from the district around Jerusalem and from the Netophathite villages, 29 and from Beth-gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmavet, for the singers had built communities for themselves round about Jerusalem.
30 After the kohanim and the Levites had purified themselves, they purified the people, the gates, and the wall. 31 Then I led the leaders of Judah up on the wall, and I appointed two great choirs to give thanks. One of the processions went to the right on the wall toward the Dung Gate, 32 and going after them, Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah—33 Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah and Jeremiah, 35 some of the kohanim with trumpets, Zechariah son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Micaiah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph, 36 and his brothers, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani—all with the musical instruments of David the man of God—and Ezra the scribe was ahead of them. 37 They went over the Fountain Gate and continued up the stairs of the city of David at the ascent to the wall, and passed, above the house of David all the way to the Water Gate toward the east.
38 The second thanksgiving choir proceeded to the left. I followed them, along with half of the people on the wall above the Tower of the Furnaces as far as the Broad Wall, 39 over the Ephraim Gate, the gate of the old city, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate.
They stopped at the Gate of the Guard.
40 So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the House of God.
41 So did I along with half the officials with me, and the kohanim—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah with their trumpets—42 and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam and Ezer. The singers sang under the direction of Jezrahiah. 43 On that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced, for God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The joy in Jerusalem could be heard from far off.

44 On that day men were appointed over the storehouses for the offerings, firstfruits and tithes. They were to gather into them the portions from the fields of the cities required by the Torah for the kohanim and the Levites. For Judah delighted in the kohanim and in the Levites who were ministering. 45 They kept the ceremonial functions of their God and the ceremony of the purification according to the command of David and of Solomon his son. 46 For of old, in the days of David and Asaph, there were leaders of the singers who sang songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

47 So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel gave daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They also set apart the portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the portion for the sons of Aaron.

Please Remember This, My God

Nehemiah 13 1 On that day, the scroll of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people. The command was found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should enter into the assembly of God forever. 2 For they did not meet Bnei-Yisrael with bread and water, but instead hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.
3 When they heard the Torah, they separated from Israel all of mixed ancestry.

4 Prior to this Eliashib the kohen was given authority over the storerooms in the House of our God. 5 He was closely associated with Tobiah and provided him with a large chamber previously used to store the offerings, frankincense, and the Temple vessels, and also the tithes of grain, wine and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers and gatekeepers, along with the offerings for the kohanim.

6 I was not in Jerusalem during all this, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon, I went to the king.
After a period of time, I requested to take leave from the king 7 and returned to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil that Eliashib had done by preparing a chamber for Tobiah in the courts of the House of God. 8 It greatly displeased me, so I threw all of Tobiah's household goods outside of the storeroom 9 and commanded the storerooms to be cleansed. Then I restored the utensils of the House of God, the offerings and the frankincense.

10 I also learned that the portions for the Levites had not been provided, and that each of the Levites and singers who performed the work had gone back to his own field. 11 So I rebuked the leaders and asked, "Why has the House of God been forsaken?" I assembled them and stationed them at their posts.

12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of grain, new wine and oil to the storehouses. 13 I put Shelemiah the kohen, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites in charge over the storehouses, and made Hanan son of Zaccur son of Mattaniah their assistant, because these men were considered faithful. They were responsible for distributing to their brothers.

14 Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out my loving kindness that I have done for the House of my God and for overseeing it.
15 In those days, I saw in Judah some people treading winepresses on the Shabbat, some bringing and loading heaps of grain on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs and various other burdens, bringing them into Jerusalem on the Shabbat day. So I warned them about selling food on that day. 16 Men from Tyre who lived there were bringing fish and all kinds of merchandise and were selling it on the Yom Shabbat to the children of Judah, even in Jerusalem.
17 So I complained to the nobles of Judah and asked them, “What is this evil thing that you are doing? You are profaning Yom Shabbat! 18 Didn’t your ancestors do exactly the same causing our God to bring all this evil upon us and upon this city? So now you are bringing even more wrath upon Israel by profaning Yom Shabbat.”
19 When evening darkness began to fall on the gates of Jerusalem before Yom Shabbat, I commanded the doors to be shut. I further commanded that they should not be opened till after Yom Shabbat. I appointed some of my attendants over the gates so that no burden could enter during Shabbat.
20 Once or twice the traders and those selling all kinds of merchandise camped outside Jerusalem. 21 But I warned them and said to them, “Why are you camping next to the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you.” From that time they no longer came on the Shabbat.
22 Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves, and to come and guard the gates in order to sanctify Yom Shabbat. Remember this also on my behalf, O my God, and have compassion on me according to the greatness of your lovingkindness.
23 In those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab. 24 Half of their children spoke the dialect of Ashdod or the language of other peoples, but none of them understood the language of Judah. 25 So I rebuked them. I cursed them, beat some of their men and pulled their beards. I made them swear by God, saying, “You shall not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons—or for yourselves. 26 Didn’t Solomon king of Israel sin about these things? Yet among many nations there was never any king like him. Yes, he was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless, the foreign women caused even him to sin.[7] 27 Must we then hear about you doing all this great evil, thereby being unfaithful with our God by marrying foreign women?”

28 Now one of the sons of Joiada, son of Eliashib the kohen gadol, was son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him from me. 29 O my God, please remember them for the defilement of the priesthood as well as the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites. 30 So I purged them from everything foreign and I assigned duties for the kohanim and the Levites, each to his own task, 31 and for the wood offering at appointed times and for the first fruits.

Remember me, O my God, for good.

From Adam to Abraham

1 Chronicles 1 [1] Adam, Seth, Enosh, [2] Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, [3] Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech; [4] Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
[5] The sons of Japheth:
Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tuval, Meshech and Tiras.
[6] The sons of Gomer:
Ashkenaz, Diphath and Togarmah.
[7] The sons of Javan:
Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim and Rodanim.

[8] The sons of Ham:
Cush, Mizraim, Put and Canaan.
[9] The sons of Cush:
Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama and Sabteca.
The sons of Raama:
Sheba and Dedan.
[10] Cush fathered Nimrod; he was the first mighty warrior on
the earth.
[11] Mizraim fathered Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, [12] Pathrusim, Casluhim—from whom the Philistines came—and Caphtorim.
[13] Canaan fathered Zidon his firstborn, Heth, [14] and the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites, [15] the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites, [16] the Arvadites, the Zemarites and the Hamathites.
[17] The sons of Shem:
Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud;
Aram: Uz, Chul, Geter and Meshech.
[18] Arpachshad fathered Shelah and Shelah fathered Eber.
[19] To Eber were born two sons:
the name of the one was Peleg[1]—for in his days the earth
was divided—
and his brother's name was Joktan.

[20] Joktan fathered:
Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah; [21] Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, [22] Ebal, Abimael, Sheba, [23] Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan.

[24] Shem, Arpachshad, Shelah, [25] Eber, Peleg, Reu,
[26] Serug, Nahor, Terah, [27] Abram—that is Abraham.

Abraham's Descendants

[28] The sons of Abraham:
Isaac and Ishmael.
[29] These are their descendants:
the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, [30] Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, [31] Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael.

[32] The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine:
she bore Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah.
The sons of Jokshan:
Sheba and Dedan.
[33] The sons of Midian:
Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah.
All these were the sons of Keturah.
[34] Abraham also fathered Isaac.
The sons of Isaac:
Esau and Israel.
[35] The sons of Esau:
Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam and Korah.
[36] The sons of Eliphaz:
Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, Kenaz, Timna and Amalek.
[37] The sons of Reuel:
Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah.
[38] The sons of Seir:
Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer and Dishan.

39 The sons of Lotan:
Hori and Homam.
Lotan’s sister was Timna.
40 The sons of Shobal:
Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi and Onam.
The sons of Zibeon:
Aiah and Anah.
41 The sons of Anah:
Dishon.
The sons of Dishon:
Hamran, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran.
42 The sons of Etzer:
Bilhan, Zaavan, Jaakan.
The sons of Dishan:
Uz and Aran.

Edom’s Rulers

43 Now these were the kings who ruled in the land of Edom, before any king ruled over Bnei-Yisrael:
Bela the son of Beor, the name of his city was Dinhabah.
44 When Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah ruled in his place.
45 When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites ruled in his place.
46 When Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, ruled in his place—the name of his city was Avith.
47 When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah ruled in his place.
48 When Samlah died, Shaul of Rehoboth-on-the-River ruled in his place.
49 When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor ruled in his place.
50 When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad ruled in his place—the name of his city was Pai, and his wife’s name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-zahab. 51 Then Hadad died.

So the tribal chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth [52] chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon [53] chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, [54] chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

Israel and Judah's Descendants

1 Chronicles 2 [1] These are the sons of Israel:
Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, [2] Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.
[3] The sons of Judah:
Er, Onan and Shelah—the three were born to him by Bath-shua the Canaanite woman. But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of ADONAI, so He put him to death. [4] Then Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all.
[5] The sons of Perez:
Hezron and Hamul.
[6] The sons of Zerah:
Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol and Dara, five in all.
[7] The sons of Carmi:
Achar, the troubler of Israel who violated the ban of devoted things.
[8] The sons of Ethan: Azariah.
[9] The sons of Hezron who were born to him:
Jerahmeel, Ram and Chelubai.
[10] Ram fathered Amminadab; Amminadab fathered Nahshon, the leader of the children of Judah.
[11] Nahshon fathered Salma; Salma fathered Boaz.
[12] Boaz fathered Obed;
Obed fathered Jesse.
[13] Jesse fathered Eliab his firstborn, Abinadab was second, Shimea third, [14] Nethanel fourth, Raddai fifth, [15] Ozem sixth, and David seventh. [16] Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail.
The three sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, Joab and Asahel.
[17] Abigail bore Amasa, and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.
[18] Caleb son of Hezron fathered children by Azubah his wife and by Jerioth. These were her sons: Jesher, Shobab and Ardon.

19 When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him
Hur. 20 Hur fathered Uri and Uri fathered Bezalel.
21 Afterward Hezron had relations with the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead—he had married her when he was 60 years old—and she bore him Segub.
22 Segub fathered Jair, who had 23 cities in the land of Gilead.
23 But Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair from them, along with Kenath and its surrounding villages, 60 towns. All these were the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.
24 After the death of Hezron in Caleb-ephrath, Abijah, Hezron's wife, bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.
25 Now the sons of Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron: Ram the firstborn, then Bunah, Oren, Ozem and Ahijah. 26 Jerahmeel had another wife whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.
27 The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel:
Maaz, Jamin and Eker.
28 The sons of Onam:
Shammai and Jada.
The sons of Shammai:
Nadab and Abishur.
29 The name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.
30 The sons of Nadab:
Seled and Appaim, but Seled died without children.
31 The sons of Appaim:
Ishi, who was the father of Sheshan.
Sheshan was the father of Ahlai.
32 The sons of Jada the brother of Shammai:
Jeter and Jonathan—Jeter died without sons.
33 The sons of Jonathan:
Pelet and Zaza.
These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

34 Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. But Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. 35 So Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as a wife, and she bore him Attai. [36] Then Attai fathered Nathan, and Nathan fathered Zabad. [37] Zabad fathered Ephlal and Ephlal fathered Obed. [38] Obed fathered Jehu, and Jehu fathered Azariah.

[39] Azariah fathered Helez, and Helez fathered Eleasah.
[40] Eleasah fathered Sisamai, and Sisamai fathered Shallum.
[41] Shallum fathered Jekamiah, and Jekamiah fathered Elishama.

[42] Now the sons of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel:
Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and his son Mareshah the father of Hebron.
[43] The sons of Hebron:
Korah, Tappuah, Rekem and Shema.
[44] Shema fathered Raham, the father of Jorkeam. Rekem fathered Shammai. [45] The son of Shammai was Maon and Maon was the father of Beth-Zur.

[46] Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza and Gazez; and Haran fathered Gazez.
[47] The sons of Jahdai:
Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah and Shaaph.
[48] Maacah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.
[49] She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheba the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibea. The daughter of Caleb was Achsah. [50] These were the descendants of Caleb.

The sons of Hur the firstborn of Ephrath:
Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim, [51] Salma the father of Beth-lehem and Hareph the father of Beth-gader.
[52] Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim had sons:
Haroeh, half of the Menuhites. [53] The clans of Kiriath-jearim: the Itrites, the Puhtites, the Shumathites, the Mishraites; from them came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.
[54] The sons of Salma:
Beth-lehem, the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-joab, half the Manahathites, the Zorites, [55] and the clans of scribes who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sucathites. These were the Kenites who descended from Hammath, the father of the Rechabites.

David's Descendants

1 Chronicles 3 1 Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelite woman; second, Daniel, by Abigail the Carmelite woman;
2 third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of King
Talmai of Geshur; fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith;
3 fifth, Shephatiah by Abital; the sixth, Ithream by his wife Eglah.
4 Six were born to him in Hebron. There he reigned seven years and six months; then in Jerusalem he reigned 33 years.
5 These were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan and Solomon. These four were from Bath-shua[2] the daughter of Ammiel; 6 and the other nine were Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet, 7 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, 8 Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet. 9 All these were sons of David, besides his sons by the concubines. Tamar was their sister.

10 Solomon's son was Rehoboam.
Abijah was his son,
Asa his son,
Jehoshaphat his son,
11 Joram his son, Ahaziah his son,
Joash his son,
12 Amaziah his son, Azariah his son,
Jotham his son,
13 Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son,
Manasseh his son,
14 Amon his son, and Josiah his son.

15 The sons of Josiah: Johanan the firstborn, Jehoiakim the second,
Zedekiah the third,
and Shallum the fourth.

16 The sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah was his son,

Zedekiah his son.
17 The sons of Jeconiah, the captive: Shealtiel his son, 18 Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama and Nedabiah.
19 The sons of Pedaiah: Zerubbabel and Shimei.
The sons of Zerubbabel:
Meshullam and Hananiah; Shelomith was their sister, 20 and five others: Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah and Jushabhesed.
21 The sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, whose son was Rephaiah, whose son was Arnan, whose son was Obadiah, whose son was Shecaniah.
22 The descendants of Shecaniah: Shemaiah and sons Hatush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat—six in all.
23 The sons of Neariah: Elioenai, Hizkiah and Azrikam—three
in all.
24 The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani—seven in all.

Judah's Descendants

1 Chronicles 4 [1] The sons of Judah:
Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur and Shobal.
[2] Reaiah the son of Shobal fathered Jahath, and Jahath fathered Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.
[3] These were the sons of Etam:
Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash. The name of their sister was Hazlelponi.
[4] Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These were the descendants of Hur the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Beth-lehem.

[5] Ashhur, the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah and Naarah. [6] Naarah bore him Ahuzam, Hepher, Timeni and Ahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.
[7] The sons of Helah:
Zereth, Zohar and Ethnan.
[8] Koz fathered Anub and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel, the son of Harum.

Prayer of Jabez

9 Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. His mother named him Jabez saying, “Because I bore him with pain.” 10 Jabez called out to the God of Israel, saying, “If only You would greatly bless me, and enlarge my territory. Let Your hand be with me and keep me from harm so that I might not suffer pain.” ADONAI granted what he asked.

Other Descendants of Judah

11 Chelub, the brother of Shuhah, fathered Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. 12 Eshton fathered Beth-rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash. These were the men of Recah.

13 The sons of Kenaz:
Othniel and Seraiah.
The sons of Othniel:
Hatath 14 and Meonothai, who fathered Ophrah.
Seraiah fathered Joab, the father of Ge-harashim[3], for they were craftsmen.
15 The sons of Caleb, son of Jephunneh:
Iru, Elah and Naam.
The son of Elah:
Kenaz.
16 The sons of Jehallelel:
Ziph, Ziphah, Tiriah and Asarel.
17 The sons of Ezrah:
Jether, Mered, Epher and Jalon. She also bore Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. 18 (His Judahite wife bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soho and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) These were the sons of Bithiah, Pharaoh's daughter whom Mered married.

19 The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham:
the father of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.
20 The sons of Shimon:
Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-hanan and Tilon.
The sons of Ishi:
Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.
21 The sons of Shelah, son of Judah:
Er the father of Lecah, Ladah the father of Mareshah, the families of the linen workers at Beth-ashbea, 22 and Jokim, the men of Cozeba, and Joash and Saraph, who had dominion in Moab and Jashubi-lehem (the records are ancient). 23 These were the potters and those who lived in Netaim and Gederah; they lived there while doing the king’s work.

Descendants of Simeon

24 The sons of Simeon:
Nemuel, Jamim, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul, 25 his son Shallum, his son Mibsam, and his son Mishma.
26 The descendants of Mishma:
Hammuel, Zaccur his son and Shimei his son. 27 Now Shimei had 16 sons and six daughters. But his brothers did not have many sons, so their family did not become as numerous as the sons of Judah. 28 They dwelt in Beer-sheba, Moladah, Hazarshual, 29 Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, 30 Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, 31 Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-biri and Shaaraim. These were their towns until the reign of David, 32 together with their villages, Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen and Ashan—five in all, 33 along with all the villages that surrounded these towns as far as Baal. These were their habitations.
Registered in their genealogical records were: 34 Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah the son of Amaziah, 35 Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, son of Seraiah, son of Asiel, 36 Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshoaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, 37 and Ziza son of Shiphi, son of Allon, son of Jedaiah, son of Shimri, son of Shemaiah—38 these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their clans increased greatly. 39 Now they went to the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. 40 They found rich and good pasture, and the land was spacious, quiet, and peaceful. The former inhabitants were Hamites. 41 Now those whose names are recorded came during the days of King Hezekiah of Judah.
They attacked the encampments of the Hamites, as well as the Meunim who were found there, and utterly wiped them out to this very day. They settled in their place because there was pasture there for their flocks. 42 About 500 of them from the descendants of Simeon, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, went to Mount Seir 43 where they struck down the remaining Amalekites who had escaped, and they live there to this day.

Descendants of Reuben

1 Chronicles 5 1 The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel—he was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel—so he is not reckoned as the firstborn in the genealogical record.
2 Though Judah was the strongest among his brothers, and a ruler came from him,[4] the birthright belonged to Joseph.
3 The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel:
Enoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.
4 The descendants of Joel:
his son Shemaiah, his son Gog, his son Shimei, 5 his son Micah, his son Reaiah, his son Baal 6 and his son Beerah whom Tillegath-pilneser king of Assyria carried into exile. He was the leader of the Reubenites.

7 His kinsmen by their families, as listed in their genealogical records:
the leader Jeiel, Zechariah, 8 and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel.
They settled in Aroer as far as Nebo and Baal-meon, 9 while in the east they settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness from this side of the river Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gilead. 10 Now in the days of Saul they had made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand. So they lived in their encampments in the entire eastern area of Gilead.
11 Now the sons of Gad lived opposite them in the land of Bashan as far as Salcah:
12 Joel the leader, Shapham second, then Janai and Shaphat in Bashan. 13 Their kinsmen according to their ancestral families:
Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber—seven
in all.
14 These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jehishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz. 15 Ahi son of Abdiel, son of Guni was leader of their ancestral families. [16] They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its surrounding villages, and in all the pasturelands of Sharon, up to their borders. [17] All these were recorded by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

[18] The sons of Reuben and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 warriors ready for war—men who carried shield and sword and drew the bow, and were skilled in battle. [19] So they made war with the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab. [20] They received help against them, so that the Hagrites and all who were with them were delivered into their hand, for they cried out to God during the battle. He answered their supplications, because they put their trust in Him. [21] They took away their livestock: 50,000 of their camels, 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys, as well as 100,000 people. [22] For many fell slain, because the war was of God. So they dwelt in their place until the exile.

Manesseh East of Jordan

23 Now the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh settled in the land from Bashan to Baal-hermon, Senir and Mount Hermon. They were numerous. 24 These were the heads of their clans: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, Jahdiel.
They were mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their clans.

25 But they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land whom God had destroyed before them. 26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of King Pul of Assyria—the spirit of Tillegath-pilneser king of Assyria—and he carried away the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

Descendants of Levi

[27] The sons of Levi:
Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
[28] The sons of Kohath:
Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.
[29] The children of Amram:
Aaron, Moses and Miriam.
The sons of Aaron:
Nadav and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
[30] Eleazar fathered Phinehas and Phinehas fathered Abishua.
[31] Abishua fathered Bukki, and Bukki fathered Uzzi. [32] Uzzi fathered Zerahiah and Zerahiah fathered Meraioth. [33] Meraioth fathered Amariah and Amariah fathered Ahitub. [34] Ahitub fathered Zadok and Zadok fathered Ahimaaz. [35] Ahimaaz fathered Azariah and Azariah fathered Johanan. [36] Johanan fathered Azariah, who served as kohen in the House that Solomon built in Jerusalem. [37] Azariah fathered Amariah, and Amariah fathered Ahitub. [38] Ahitub fathered Zadok, and Zadok fathered Shallum. [39] Shallum fathered Hilkiah, and Hilkiah fathered Azariah, [40] and Azariah fathered Seraiah, and Seraiah fathered Jehozadak. [41] Jehozadak went into captivity when ADONAI exiled Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

1 Chronicles 6 [1] The sons of Levi:
Gershom, Kohath and Merari.
[2] These are the names of the sons of Gershom: Libni and Shimei.
[3] The sons of Kohath:
Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.
[4] The sons of Merari:
Mahli and Mushi.
These are the families of the Levites according to their clans.

[5] Of Gershom:
Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, [6] Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son and Jeatherai his son.

[7] The sons of Kohath:
Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, [8] Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son, [9] Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son and Shaul his son.

[10] The sons of Elkanah:
Amasai and Ahimoth, [11] his son Elkanah, Zophai his son, Nahath his son, [12] Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son.

[13] The sons of Samuel:
his first-born Vashni, then Abiah.

[14] The sons of Merari:
Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, [15] Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.
[16] Now these are the men David appointed to be in charge of the singing in the House of ADONAI, after the Ark came to rest.
[17] They ministered with song in front of the Tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon built the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem. They carried out their avodah according to their regulations.

[18] These are the ones who took their station, with their sons.

Of the sons of the Kohathites:
Heman the singer, son of Joel, son of Samuel, [19] son of Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Eliel, son of Toah, [20] son of Zuph, son of Elkanah, son of Mahath, son of Amasai, [21] son of Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Azariah, son of Zephaniah, [22] son of Tahath, son of Assir, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, [23] son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, son of Israel.

[24] His kinsman Asaph stood on his right—Asaph son of Berechiah, son of Shimea, [25] son of Michael, son of Baaseiah, son of Malchijah, [26] son of Ethni, son of Zerah, son of Adaiah, [27] son of Ethan, son of Zimmah, son of Shimei, [28] son of Jahath, son of Gershom, son of Levi.
[29] On the left hand their kinsmen the sons of Merari: Ethan son of Kishi, son of Abdi, son of Malluch, [30] son of Hashabiah, son of Amaziah, son of Hilkiah, [31] son of Amzi, son of Bani, son of Shemer, [32] son of Mahli, son of Mushi, son of Merari, son of Levi.
[33] Their fellow Levites were appointed for all the avodah of the tabernacle of the House of God. [34] But Aaron and his sons were the ones presenting offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the service of the Holy of Holies and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.
[35] Now these are the sons of Aaron:
Eleazar his son, Phineas his son, Abishua his son, [36] Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, [37] Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, [38] Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

Towns and Lands for Levites

39 Now these are their dwelling places according to their encampments in their territories. To Aaron’s sons of the Kohathite families (for theirs was the first lot), 40 to them they assigned Hebron in the land of Judah, and the open land around it; 41 but the fields of the city and the villages, they gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh. 42 To sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge: Hebron, also Libnah with its open land, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its open land, 43 Hilen with its open land, Debir with its open land, 44 Ashan with its open land, and Bethshemesh with its open land. 45 From the tribe of Benjamin:
Geba with its open land, and Alemeth with its open land, and Anathoth with its open land. They had 13 cities in all among their families.

46 To the rest of the sons of Kohath ten cities were assigned by lot from the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh. 47 To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, 13 cities were assigned from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from tribe of Naphtali and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan. 48 To the sons of Merari 12 cities were assigned by lot, according to their families, from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun.

49 So Bnei-Yisrael gave to the Levites the cities with their open land. 50 They also assigned by lot from the tribe of the children of Judah, from the tribe of the children of Simeon, and from the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities that were mentioned by name.

51 Some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their territory from the tribe of Ephraim. 52 They assigned to them as cities of refuge: Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim with its open land, Gezer also with its open land, 53 Jokmeam with its open land, Beth-horon with its open land 54 Aijalon with its open land, and Gath-rimmon with its open land. 55 Also from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its open land and Bileam with its open land, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath. 56 To the sons of Gershom were assigned, from the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its open land and Ashtaroth with its open land, 57 and from the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh with its open land, Dobrath with its open land, 58 Ramoth with its open land, and Anem with its open land, 59 and from the tribe of Asher, Mashal with its open land, Abdon with its open land, 60 Hukok with its open land, Rehob with its open land, 61 and from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its open land, Hammon with its open land and Kiriathaim with its open land. 62 To the rest—the sons of Merari—were assigned, from the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono with its open land, Tabor with its open land, 63 and beyond the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness with its open land, Jahaz with its open land, 64 Kedemoth with its open land, and Mephaath with its open land 65 and from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its open land, Mahanaim with its open land, 66 Heshbon with its open land, and Jazer with its open land.

Descendants of Other Tribes

1 Chronicles 7

1 The sons of Issachar:
Tola, Puah, Jashub and Shimron—four.
2 The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam and Shemuel, heads of their clans. The descendants of Tola were mighty men of valor; their number in the days of David was 22,600.
3 The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah:
Michael, Obadiah, Joel, Isshiah—all five of them were leaders.
4 Along with them, by their generations after their clans were 36,000 troops of the army for battle, for they had many wives and sons. 5 Their kinsmen among all the families of Issachar by genealogical records were mighty men of valor—87,700.
6 The sons of Benjamin:
Bela, Becher and Jediael—three.
7 The sons of Bela:
Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth and Iri—five. They were heads of clans, mighty men of valor; by genealogical records they were 22,034.
8 The sons of Becher:
Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth and Alemeth—all sons of Becher. 9 According to their genealogical records, their descendants were heads of their clans, 22,200 mighty men of valor.
10 Finally the sons of Jediael: Bilhan.
The sons of Bilhan:
Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish and Ahishahar. 11 All these were sons of Jediael, heads of their clans, mighty men of valor, 17,200 who were able to go out in the army for war. 12 Shuppim and Huppim were sons of Ir; Hushim was the son of Aher.
13 The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

14 One of the sons of Manasseh was Asriel, whom she bore;
his Aramean concubine bore Machir the father of Gilead.
15 Machir took a wife from Huppim and Shuppim. His sister's name was Maacah. The name of the second was Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had daughters.
16 Machir's wife Maacah bore a son and she named him Peresh. His brother's name was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rekem. 17 Ulam's son was Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead son of Machir, son of Manasseh. 18 His sister Hammolecheth bore Ish-hod, Abiezer and Mahlah. 19 Shemida's sons were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi and Aniam.
20 The descendants of Ephraim:
Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eleadah his son, Tahath his son, 21 Zabad his son and Shuthelah his son, also Ezer and Elead. The native-born men of Gath killed them because they came down to raid their cattle. 22 Their father Ephraim mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. 23 Then he went in to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son and he called him Beriah[5], because evil had befallen his house. 24 His daughter was Sheerah, who built both lower and upper Beth-horon, and also Uzzen-sheerah. 25 Rephah was his son, Resheph his son, Telah his son, Tahan his son, 26 Ladan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, 27 Nun his son and Joshua his son.
28 Their possessions and settlements were Beth-el and its villages, and to the east Naaran, and to the west Gezer with its villages, as well as Shechem and its villages, as far as Aiah and its villages, 29 and along the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth-shean and its villages, Taanach and its villages, Megiddo and its villages, Dor and its villages. In these lived the children of Joseph son of Israel.

30 The sons of Asher:
Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah.
31 The sons of Beriah:
Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith.

[32] Heber fathered Japhlet, Shomer and Hotham, and their sister Shua.
[33] The sons of Japhlet were Pasach, Bimhal, and Asvath. These were the children of Japhlet.
[34] The sons of Shemer:
Ahi, Rohgah, Hubbah and Aram.
[35] The sons of his brother Helem:
Zophah, Imna, Shelesh and Amal.
[36] The sons of Zophah:
Suah, Harnepher, Shaul, Beri, Imrah, [37] Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran and Beera.
[38] The sons of Jether: Jephunneh, Pispa and Ara.
[39] The sons of Ulla:
Arah, Hanniel and Rizia. [40] All these were the descendants of Asher, heads of the clans, choice and mighty men of valor, chief of the princes. The number of them recorded by genealogy for service in war was 26,000 men.

Descendants of Benjamin

1 Chronicles 8 1 Benjamin fathered Bela his firstborn, Ashbel second, Ahrah third, 2 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha fifth.
3 Bela's sons were:
Addar, Gera, Abihud, 4 Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, 5 Gera, Shephuphan and Huram.
6 These were the sons of Ehud—the heads of clans of the inhabitants of Geba, who were taken captive to Manahath: 7 Naaman, Ahijah and Gera—he took them captive and fathered Uzza and Ahihud.
8 Shaharaim fathered children in the country of Moab after divorcing his wives Hushim and Baara. 9 By his wife Hodesh he fathered Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, 10 Jeuz, Sachiah and Mirmah. These were his sons, family leaders.
11 By Hushim he fathered Abitub and Elpaal.
12 The sons of Elpaal:
Eber, Misham and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its villages; 13 Beriah and Shema, leaders of the clans living in Aijalon and who drove out the inhabitants of Gath.
14 Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, 15 Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, 16 Michael, Ishpah, Joha were sons of Beriah.
17 Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber 18 Ishmerai, Izliah, and Jobab were sons of Elpaal.
19 Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, 20 Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, 21 Adaiah, Beraiah and Shimrath were sons of Shimei.
22 Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, 23 Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, 24 Hananiah, Elam, Anthothiah, 25 Iphdeiah and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.
26 Shamsherai, Shechariah, Athaliah 27 Jaareshiah, Elijah and Zichri were sons of Jeroham. 28 These were leaders of the clans listed in their genealogies. These lived in Jerusalem.
29 Now the father of Gibeon dwelt in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah, 30 and his firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, 31 Gedor, Ahio and Zecher 32 and Mikloth who fathered Shimeah. They lived with their relatives in Jerusalem, opposite their relatives.

33 Ner fathered Kish and Kish fathered Saul. Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.
34 Jonathan’s son was Merib-baal and Merib-baal fathered Micah.
35 Micah’s sons:
Pithon, Melech, Taarea and Ahaz.
36 Ahaz fathered Jehoaddah, Jehoaddah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri, and Zimri fathered Moza, 37 Moza fathered Binea; Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.
38 Azel had six sons and these were their names:
Azrikam, Bocru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan—all these were sons of Azel.
39 The sons of his brother Eshek:
Ulam his firstborn, Jeush second, and Eliphelet third. 40 Now the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons and grandsons—150. All these were descendants of Benjamin.

Kohanim and Levites in Nehemiah's Day

1 Chronicles 9 1 So all Israel were registered by genealogies—behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.
Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness. 2 The first to settle on their property in their towns were Israelites, kohanim, Levites and the Temple servants. 3 Those from the children of Judah, the children of Benjamin, and the children of Ephraim and Manasseh who settled in Jerusalem were: 4 Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, who was a descendant of Perez son of Judah.
5 From the Shilonites:
Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.
6 From the sons of Zerah: Jeuel and their kinsmen—690.
7 From the sons of Benjamin:
Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah;
8 Ibneiah son of Jeroham; and Elah son of Uzzi, son of Michri;
and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibneiah, 9 and their kinsmen, according to their genealogies—956. All these men were leaders of their clans.
10 From the kohanim:
Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin, 11 Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the ruler of the House of God; 12 Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah and Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer, 13 and their kinsmen, heads of their clans 1,760 very able men for the work of avodah in the House of God.
14 From the Levites:
Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, from the sons of Merari; 15 Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zichri, son of Asaph; 16 Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 The gatekeepers:
Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and their brothers. Shallum was the leader; 18 he serves to this day at the king's gate to the east. These were the gatekeepers for the camp of the descendants of Levi. 19 Shallum son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, and his kinsmen from his ancesteral clan, the Korahites, were assigned to guard the gates of the Tent. Their ancestors had been responsible for guarding the entrance to the dwelling of ADONAI 20 when Phinehas, son of Eleazar had been ruler over them in time past and ADONAI was with him.
21 Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the door of the Tent of Meeting.
22 All these chosen to be gatekeepers at the gates were 212.
These were registered in the genealogical records of their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their offices. 23 They and their sons were guards of the gates of the House of ADONAI, that is, the Tabernacle. 24 The gatekeepers were posted on the four sides, toward the east, west, north, and south. 25 Their kinsmen in their villages were to come from time to time and serve with them for seven days. 26 For the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted over the chambers and over the treasuries in the House of God. 27 They would spend the night around the House of God, because they were assigned to guard it and were in charge of opening it morning by morning.
28 Now some of them had charge of the utensils for avodah, for by count they brought them in and by count they took them out. 29 Some of them were appointed over the equipment and over all the utensils of the sanctuary, as well as over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense and the spices. 30 But some of the sons of the kohanim prepared the mixture of spices. 31 Mattithiah, one of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was in charge of preparing the flat cakes. 32 Some of the relatives of Kohathites were in charge of preparing the rows of bread every Shabbat.

[33] Now these were the singers, patriarchal leaders of the Levites, who stayed in the chambers and were exempt from other service, for they were on duty day and night. [34] These were heads of the Levite families, chiefs in their geneaological records. These lived in Jerusalem.

[35] Jeiel, the father of Gibeon, lived in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah. [36] His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, [37] Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth. [38] Mikloth fathered Shimeam. They also lived with their kinsmen in Jerusalem, opposite their kinsmen.

[39] Ner fathered Kish and Kish fathered Saul. Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.

[40] The son of Jonathan was Merib-baal and Merib-baal fathered Micah.

[41] The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Taharea and Ahaz.

[42] Ahaz fathered Jarah and Jarah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri.

Zimri fathered Moza [43] and Moza fathered Binea; Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

[44] Azel had six sons:

Azrikam, Bocru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

Saul Dies on Mount Gilboa

1 Chronicles 10 1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel. The men of Israel fled before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. 2 The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons. The Philistines killed Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchishua. 3 The battle raged around Saul and the archers spotted him and he was wounded by the archers.
4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through, so that these uncircumcised will not come and torture me."

But his armor-bearer refused to do it, because he was terrified. Therefore Saul took the sword and fell on it. 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died. 6 So Saul and his three sons died; his whole household died together. 7 Now when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. The Philistines then came and lived in them.
8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. 9 They stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines proclaiming the good news to their idols and to the people. 10 They put his armor in the house of their gods, and hung his head in the house of Dagon.
11 Now when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 all the valiant men arose and retrieved the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh. They buried their bones under the oak tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.
So Saul died because of his unfaithful acts that he committed against the word of ADONAI, which he did not keep, and he even consulted a medium for guidance 14 rather than inquire of ADONAI. So He put him to death and transferred the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

David's Rise and Capture of Zion

1 Chronicles 11 [1] Then all Israel gathered to David at Hebron, saying: "Behold, we are your own flesh and blood. [2] In the past, even when Saul was king, you were the one that led out and brought in Israel. ADONAI your God also said to you, 'You shall shepherd My people Israel and you shall be ruler over My people Israel.'"
[3] When all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, David made a covenant with them in Hebron before ADONAI.
They anointed David king over Israel, in keeping with the word of ADONAI by the hand of Samuel.
[4] Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem—that is Jebus, where the Jebusite inhabitants of the land lived. [5] Now the residents of Jebus said to David, "You cannot get in here!" Nevertheless David captured the stronghold of Zion, which is now the city of David.
[6] David had said, "Whoever strikes down the Jebusites first will be commander-in-chief." So Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became commander. [7] David lived in the stronghold;
for this reason it is called the city of David. [8] He fortified the city all around, from the Millo to the surrounding walls, and Joab repaired the rest of the city. [9] David grew more and more powerful because ADONAI-Tzva'ot was with him.

David's Mighty Men

[10] Now these were chiefs of David's mighty men, who strongly supported him in his kingdom, together with all Israel to make him king, according to the word of ADONAI, over Israel. [11] This is the list of David's mighty men: Jashobeam the son of Hachmoni, was the chief of the 30; he wielded his spear against 300 and slew them all at one time. [12] After him was Eleazar son of Dodo the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.
[13] He was with David at Pas Dammim, when the Philistines assembled there for battle. There was a plot of ground full of barley where the army retreated from before the Philistines, 14 but they took a stand in the middle of the plot; they defended it and struck down the Philistines. ADONAI delivered a great victory.

15 Three of the 30 leaders went down to David at the rock at the cave of Adullam, while a band of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim. 16 At that time, David was in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was in Bethlehem. 17 David had a craving and said, “If only someone would give me water to drink from the cistern by the gate in Bethlehem!” 18 So the three broke through the Philistine camp and drew water from the cistern by the gate in Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But David refused to drink it. He poured it out to ADONAI 19 and said: “Far be it for me that I should do this before my God! Can I drink the blood of these men who risked their lives?”—for they brought it at the risk of their lives and he would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the Three mighty men.

20 Abishai, Joab’s brother, was chief of the Three. He once wielded his spear against 300 and slew them. Thus he won a name among the Three. 21 Of the Three, he was more highly esteemed than the other two and became their commander, even though he was not one of the three.
22 Beniah son of Jehoiada was a valiant man from Kabzeel who had done mighty deeds. He killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab, and went down and killed a lion inside a pit on a snowy day. 23 He also killed the giant Egyptian man who was five cubits tall. In his hand the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver’s beam, yet Beniah attacked him with a club. He snatched the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear. 24 These were the exploits of Beniah son of Jehoiada, who gained renown among the three mighty men. 25 Behold, he was more honorable than the 30, yet he was not one of the Three.
Nevertheless, David set him over his bodyguard.
26 The mighty men were:
Asael Joab’s brother,

Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,
27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,
28 Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,
Abiezer the Anathothite,
29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,
30 Mahrai the Netophathite,
Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,
31 Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,
32 Hurai of Nahale-gaash,
Abiel the Arbathite,
33 Azmaveth the Baharumite,
Eliahba the Shaalbonite,
34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite,
Jonathan son of Shageh the Hararite,
35 Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur,
36 Hepher the Meherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,
37 Hezro the Carmelite,
Naarai the son of Ezbai,
38 Joel the brother of Nathan,
Mibhar son of Hagri,
39 Zelek the Ammonite,
Nahrai the Berothite, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah, 40 Ira the Ithrite,
Gareb the Ithrite,
41 Uriah the Hittite,
Zabad son of Ahlai,
42 Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and 30 with him, 43 Hanan son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,
44 Uzzijah the Ashterathite,
Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotam the Aroerite,

45 Jedaiael son of Shimri and Joha his brother the Tizite, 46 Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah, sons of Elnaam,
and Ithmah the Moabite;
47 Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

All Israel Rallies to David

1 Chronicles 12 [1] Now these are the men who came to David at Ziklag when he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish. They were among the warriors who assisted him in battle.
[2] They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left to sling stones and shoot arrows from the bow. They were Saul's kinsmen from Benjamin. [3] Their chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, Jeziel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite, [4] Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the 30 and leading the 30, [5] Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad
the Gederathite, [6] Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Hariphite, [7] Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam, the Korahites, [8] Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

[9] Some of the Gadites there withdrew to follow David to the stronghold in the wilderness. They were valiant men trained for battle, armed with shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions and were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains. [10] Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, [11] Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, [12] Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, [13] Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, [14] Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh. [15] These were the Gadites, leaders of the army. The least was equal to 100 and the greatest to 1,000. [16] These were the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it was overflowing its banks, routing all those in the valleys to the east and to the west.

[17] Some of the children of Benjamin and also from Judah came to David at the stronghold. [18] David went out to meet them and answered them saying, "If you come to me in peace to support me, then my heart will be united with you. But if it is to betray me to my adversaries, when my hands have done no wrong, then may the God of our fathers take notice and judge."

[19] Then a spirit came upon Amasai, leader of the 30,

“We are yours, David,
on your side, son of Jesse.
Shalom, shalom to you,
and shalom to him who helps you,
for your God supports you!”
So David welcomed them and made them leaders of the troops.
20 Some from Manasseh went over to David when he went with the Philistines to battle against Saul. But they did not help them because the Philistine rulers after consultation sent him away, saying: “It would cost us our heads if he defected to his master Saul.”
21 When he went to Ziklag, these from Manasseh joined him—Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, Zillethai, the leaders of thousands that were from Manasseh. 22 They helped David against the raiding bands, for all of them were valiant warriors and they were officers in the army. 23 Day by day men came to David to help him until there was a great army like the army of God.

24 These are the numbers of the heads of those armed for war who came to David in Hebron to transfer Saul’s kingdom to him, according to the word of Adonai:
25 The sons of Judah that bore shield and spear were 6,800, armed for war;
26 from the sons of Simeon, 7,100 brave warriors ready for war;
27 from the sons of Levi 4,600; 28 Jehoiada the leader of the Aaronides and with him 3,700; 29 Zadok, a young mighty man of valor, with 22 commanders from his clan;
30 from the sons of Benjamin, Saul’s kinsmen, 3,000 for up to that time the majority of them had kept their allegiance to Saul’s house;
31 from the sons of Ephraim 20,800 valliant warriors, famous men in their clan; 32 from the half-tribe of Manasseh 18,000 who were designated by name to come and make David king;

[33] from the sons of Issachar—men who know how to interpret the signs of the times to determine what Israel should do—200 chiefs with all their kinsmen under their command;
[34] from Zebulun 50,000 warriors prepared for battle, arrayed with all types of weapons of war and ready to give their undivided loyalty;
[35] from Naphtali 1,000 officers, along with 37,000 with shield and spear;
[36] from the Danites, 28,600 equipped for battle;
[37] from Asher 40,000 experienced warriors arrayed for battle;
[38] and from beyond the Jordan, from the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh 120,000 armed with every type of weapons of war.
[39] All these fighting men, prepared for the battle line, came to Hebron with a whole heart to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of Israel were also of one heart to make David king.
[40] So they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their kinsmen had given them provision.
[41] Moreover those who were near to them, from as far as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There was flour, pressed figs, raisins, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep in abundance—for indeed, there was joy in Israel.

Ark Retrieved from Kiriath-jearim

1 Chronicles 13 [1] Then David consulted with the officers of the thousands and of the hundreds, with every leader. [2] David said to the entire assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and is from ADONAI Eloheinu, let us spread the word to our kinsmen who remain in all the regions of Israel, along with the kohanim and Levites in their towns and pasturelands to come and join us. [3] Let us bring the Ark of our God back to us—for we did not inquire of it in the days of Saul.” [4] The entire assembly agreed to do so, for the proposal seemed right in the eyes of all the people.

[5] So David assembled all Israel from the Shihor of Egypt to the entrance of Hamat, to bring the Ark of God from Kiriathjearim. [6] David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kiriathjearim, that was in Judah to bring up from there the Ark of God, ADONAI who sits enthroned above the cheruvim, which is called by His Name.

[7] They transported the Ark of God upon a new cart from the house of Abinadab. Uzza and Ahio guided the cart [8] while David and all Israel celebrated before God with all their might, with songs, lyres, harps, timbrels, cymbals and trumpets. [9] But when they came to the threshing-floor of Hidon, Uzza reached out his hand to hold the Ark, because the oxen stumbled. [10] The anger of ADONAI burned against Uzza, and He struck him down, because he reached out his hand and touched the Ark. He died there before God.

[11] David was angry because ADONAI had burst out against Uzza. So he called that place Perez-uzza as it is to this day.

[12] David feared God that day, saying, “How can I ever bring the Ark of God to me?”

[13] So David did not take the Ark with him to the City of David, but left it in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. [14] So the Ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months; ADONAI blessed the house of Obed-edom and everything that he had.

1 Chronicles 14 1 Now King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, as well as cedar logs, stonemasons and carpenters, to build a palace for him. 2 Then David knew that ADONAI had established him king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.
3 David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David fathered more sons and daughters. 4 These are the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, 5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, 6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, 7 Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

David Breaks Through at Baal-perazim

8 When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David, but David heard of it and went out before them. 9 Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim. 10 So David inquired of God, asking, “Should I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them over into my hand?” Then ADONAI said to him, “Go up! I will give them over into your hand.”
11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, where David defeated them. David said, “God burst out against my enemies by my hand, like waters burst out!” Therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim[6]. 12 They abandoned their gods there, so David ordered and they were burned with fire.
13 But the Philistines again raided the valley. 14 So David again inquired of God, and God said to him, “Do not go up after them, but circle around behind them and come against them in front of the baca trees[7]. 15 As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the baca trees, then go out to battle.
For God has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines.”
16 David did just as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.

17 So the fame of David spread throughout every land, and ADONAI brought the fear of him upon all nations.

Ark Enters Jerusalem

1 Chronicles 15 [1] David built houses made for himself in the City of David; he then prepared a place for the Ark of God and pitched a tent for it. [2] Then David said, “No one should carry the Ark of God except the Levites, for ADONAI has chosen them to carry the Ark of ADONAI and to serve Him forever.” [3] David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the Ark of ADONAI up to its place that he had prepared for it. [4] David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites:
[5] from the sons of Kohath:
Uriel the leader and 120 of his kinsmen;
[6] from the sons of Merari:
Asaiah the leader and 220 of his kinsmen;
[7] from the sons of Gershom:
Joel the leader with 130 of his kinsmen;
[8] from the sons of Elizaphan:
Shemaiah the leader with 200 of his kinsmen;
[9] from the sons of Hebron:
Eliel the leader with 80 of his kinsmen;
[10] from the sons of Uzziel:
Amminadab the leader and 112 of his kinsmen.

[11] David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the kohanim, along with the Levites, Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab. [12] He told them, “You are the heads of the Levitical families. Sanctify yourselves, you and your kinsmen, so that you may bring up the Ark of ADONAI, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it. [13] Because you were not there the first time, ADONAI our God burst out upon us, for we did not seek Him regarding the prescribed way.” [14] So the kohanim and the Levites sanctified themselves in order to bring up the Ark of ADONAI, the God of Israel. [15] The Levites carried the Ark of God on their shoulders with poles, just as Moses commanded according to the word of ADONAI.

16 David ordered the leaders of the Levites to appoint their kinsmen, the singers, with musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals, to joyfully make their voices heard. 17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph son of Berechiah; from their brothers the descendants of Merari, Ethan son of Kushaiah; 18 and with them their relatives second in rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphalehu and
Mikneiahu, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel.
19 The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals; 20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoh, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play harps according to alamoth[8], 21 but Mattitiah, Eliphalehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jehiel and Azaziah were to lead with lyres, according to the sheminith[9]. 22 Chenaniah, leader of the Levites in music, was to direct the music because he was a master. 23 Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the Ark. 24 The kohanim
Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezez were to blow the trumpets before the Ark of God.
Obed-edom and Jehiah were gatekeepers for the Ark.
25 So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of the thousands went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Adonai out of the house of Obed-edom with rejoicing. 26 Because God helped the Levites who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant of Adonai, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. 27 Now David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the Ark, and as were the singers and Henaniah the leader of the songs of the singers. David also wore a linen ephod. 28 Thus all Israel brought up the Ark of the Covenant of Adonai with shouting, with the sound of the shofar, trumpets and cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.
29 As the Ark of the Covenant of Adonai came to the City of David, Michal, Saul’s daughter, looked out the window. When she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she despised him in her heart.

Worship in David's Tent

1 Chronicles 16 [1] They brought the Ark of God and set it in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. [2] After David finished offering the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of ADONAI. [3] He then distributed to everyone in Israel—man and woman alike—to each a loaf of bread, a date cake and a raisin cake.

[4] He appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the Ark of ADONAI, to petition, to thank and to praise ADONAI, the God of Israel. [5] Asaph was the chief and second to him were Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom and Jehiel. They were to play harps and lyres; Asaph was to sound the cymbals, [6] and the kohanim Benaiah and Jahaziel were to blow trumpets continually before the Ark of the Covenant of God.

[7] On that day David first appointed Asaph and his kinsmen to give thanks to ADONAI:

[8] Give thanks to ADONAI,
call upon His Name.

Make His deeds known
among the peoples.
9 Sing to Him! Sing praises to Him!
Tell of all His wonderful acts.
10 Glory in His holy Name!
Let the heart of those who seek ADONAI rejoice.
11 Seek ADONAI and His strength.
Seek His face always.
12 Remember the wonders He has done,
His signs and judgments of His mouth,
13 O descendants of Israel His servant,
O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!
14 He is ADONAI our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
15 Remember His covenant forever,
the word that He commanded for a thousand generations—16 that He made with Abraham, swore to Isaac,
17 and confirmed in a decree with Jacob to Israel as an everlasting covenant, 18 saying: “To you I give the land of Canaan
as your allotted inheritance.”

19 When you were but a few in number,
very few, and strangers in it, 20 and wandered from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another,
21 He allowed no one to oppress them,
but for their sake He reproved kings:
22 “Touch not My anointed ones,
and do My prophets no harm.”
23 Sing to ADONAI, all the earth!
Proclaim His salvation from day to day.

24 Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonderous works among all the peoples.
25 For great is ADONAI and greatly to be praised.
He is to be feared above all gods.
26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
but ADONAI made the heavens.
27 Splendor and majesty are before Him;
strength and joy are in His place.
28 Ascribe to ADONAI, O families of the peoples,
ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.
29 Ascribe to ADONAI the glory due to His Name.
Bring an offering and come before Him.
Worship ADONAI in the splendor of holiness.
30 Tremble before Him, all the earth!
The world is firmly established—it will not be moved.
31 Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice!
Let them say among the nations: "ADONAI reigns!"
32 Let the sea roar and all that is in it.
Let the field rejoice and all that is in it.
33 Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before
ADONAI,
for He comes to judge the earth.

34 Give thanks to ADONAI for He is good,
for His mercy endures forever.
35 Declare, "Save us, O God of our salvation!
Gather and rescue us from the nations,
that we may give thanks to Your holy Name,
that we may glory in Your praise."
36 Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.
Then all the people said "Amen," and "Praise ADONAI."

[37] So David left Asaph and his kinsmen there before the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI, to minister before the Ark continually, according to each day's requirements, [38] including Obed-edom and his 68 kinsmen. Obed-edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were gatekeepers. [39] Also he left Zadok the kohen and his fellow kohanim before the Tabernacle of ADONAI in the high place that was at Gibeon [40] to offer burnt offerings to ADONAI on the altar of burnt offering, regularly morning and evening, according to all that is written in the Torah of ADONAI that He commanded Israel. [41] Along with them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, designated by name to give thanks to ADONAI—for His mercy endures forever. [42] Heman and Jeduthun had trumpets and cymbals for music and other instruments for praising God. The sons of Jeduthun were to be at the gate.

[43] Then all the people departed each one to his home, and David returned to bless his household.

Covenant Promise to David

1 Chronicles 17 1 After David settled in his place, David said to Nathan the prophet, “Look! I am living in a house of cedar, while the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI is under a tent.”
2 Then Nathan said to David, “Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.”
3 But that same night the word of God came to Nathan, saying: 4 “Go and tell David My servant, thus says ADONAI, ‘You are not to build Me a house in which to dwell. 5 For I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel out to this day. I have gone from tent to tent, and from one dwelling to another.
6 Wherever I went throughout all Israel, did I ever speak a word to any of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, “Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?”’
7 “So now, say this to My servant David, ‘Thus says ADONAI Tzva’ot, I took you from the pasture and from following the sheep, to be prince over My people Israel. 8 I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make your name like the names of the great ones that are in the earth. 9 I wil establish a place for My people Israel, and plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and shall tremble no more. Violent people will no longer wear them down, as they did formerly, 10 from the days I ordered judges to be over My people Israel. I will subdue all your enemies.’
“‘Moreover, I declare to you that ADONAI will build you a house. 11 It will be that when your days are fulfilled to go with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. 12 He will build a house for Me and I will establish his throne forever. 13 I will be a father to him and he will be a son to Me,[10] I will not withdraw My lovingkindness from him, as I withdrew it from the one who ruled before you. 14 I will appoint him over My House and My kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.’”

15 According to all these words and according to all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

16 Then King David went in and sat before ADONAI, and said, “Who am I, ADONAI Elohim, and what is my family, that You have brought me thus far? 17 And this was not enough in Your eyes, O God! You have spoken about the future of Your servant’s household. You have regarded me as the most distinquished of men, ADONAI Elohim.
18 “What more can David say to You for honoring Your servant? For You know Your servant. 19 ADONAI, for the sake of Your servant and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things, to reveal all Your greatness.
20 “ADONAI, there is none like You and there is no other god besides You, as we have heard with our own ears. 21 And who is like Your people Israel—the one nation on earth whom God went out to redeem as a people for Himself and to make a Name for Yourself by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed from Egypt? 22 You made Your people Israel Your own people forever, and You, ADONAI, became their God.
23 “Now, ADONAI, may the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house be confirmed forever. Do as You have spoken 24 so that it might be established and Your Name might be magnified forever, saying, ‘ADONAI-Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, is Israel’s God.’ Then the house of David Your servant will be established before You.
25 “You, my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build a house for him. So Your servant has found courage to pray before You. 26 Now, ADONAI, You are God! You have promised this good thing to Your servant. 27 Now You are willing to bless the house of Your servant, so that it may continue forever before You, for it is You, ADONAI who have blessed, and it is blessed forever!”

King David's Rule Expands

1 Chronicles 18 [1] In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them. He took Gath and its villages from the hand of the Philistines. [2] He also defeated Moab, and the Moabites became vassals to David and brought tribute.
[3] Moreover, David defeated King Hadadezer of Zobah at Hamath, when he went to establish his dominion to the Euphrates River. [4] David captured from him 1,000 chariots, 7,000 horsemen and 20,000 infantrymen. David hamstrung all the chariot horses but reserved 100 of them for chariots.
[5] When the Arameans of Damascus came to help King Hadadezer of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 of the Arameans. [6] David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus and the Arameans became subject to David and brought tribute. ADONAI gave David victory wherever he went. [7] David took the gold shields that were on Hadadezer's servants and brought them to Jerusalem. [8] From Tibhath and from Kun, Hadadezer's cities, David took a very large quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze sea, pillars and bronze vessels.
[9] When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of King Hadadezer of Zobah, [10] he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet and bless him because he fought against Hadarezer and defeated him—for Hadadezer had many wars with Tou. He also sent all kinds of articles of gold, silver and bronze.
[11] King David dedicated these articles to ADONAI, along with the silver and gold that he had taken from all the nations: from Edom and Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines and Amalek.
[12] Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. [13] Then he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became vassals to David. So ADONAI gave David victory wherever he went.
[14] David reigned over all Israel and he administered justice and righteousness to all his people. [15] Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was secretary.

16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar were kohanim, and Shavsha was scribe. 17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites, and David’s sons were chief officials in the service of the king.

Defeating the Ammonites

1 Chronicles 19 1 Now in the course of time Nachash king of the Ammonites died and his son became king in his place. 2 David said: “l will show lovingkindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father dealt loyally with me.”

So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. But when David’s emissaries came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to console him, 3 the Ammonite officials said to Hanun, “Do you really think that David is honoring your father, by sending messengers to express sympathy? Have not his servants come to you to explore and spy out the country to overthrow it?” 4 So Hanun took David’s emissaries and shaved them. He cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks and sent them away.

5 When some people came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them for the men were throughly humiliated. The king said: “Stay in Jericho until your beards grow and then return.”

6 When the children of Ammon realized they had made themselves a stench to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram-naharaim[11], Aram-maacah and Zobah. 7 So they hired 32,000 chariots along with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. The children of Ammon also assembled from their cities and moved out to the battle.

8 On hearing this, David sent Joab and the entire army of mighty men. 9 The children of Ammon came out and took up battle formation at the city gate, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. 10 When Joab saw that there was a battle line against him both in front and rear, he selected some of Israel’s best men and deployed them against the Arameans. 11 He put the rest of the people under the command of his brother Abishai, and arrayed them against the Ammonites. 12 He said: “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you will help me, but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will help you. 13 Chazak! Take courage for the sake of our people and the cities of our God! ADONAI will do what is good in His eyes.”

14 So Joab and the people who were with him advanced to battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him. 15 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before his brother Abishai and withdrew into the city. Then Joab went to Jerusalem.
16 After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they sent messengers and had the Arameans brought from across the River[12] with Shophah the commander of Hadadezer’s army leading them.
17 When David was informed he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan. He came against them and took up positions against them. David took up positions against the Arameans in battle and they fought with him. 18 But the Arameans fled before Israel. David killed 7,000 Aramean charioteers and 40,000 infantrymen. He also killed Shophah the commander of the army.
19 Now when Hadadezer’s vassals saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. Thus the Arameans were no longer willing to help the Ammonites.

Clearing Out the Giants

1 Chronicles 20 1 At the turn of the year, the season when kings go out to war, Joab led out the army and devastated the land of the Ammonites. He went and besieged Rabbah, while David remained in Jerusalem. Joab smote Rabbah and left it in ruins.
2 David took the crown from the head of their king—its weight was found to be a talent[13] of gold and it was set with precious stones—and it was placed on David's head. He took a vast amount of spoils from the city. 3 Furthermore, he removed the people who were in it and set them to work with saws, sharp iron tools and axes. Thus he did to all the Ammonite cities.
Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 Now it came about after this, that war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaim, and they were subdued. 5 Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear had a shaft like a weaver's beam. 6 Once again there was a battle at Gath, where there was a man of great stature who had 24 fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot. He too also descended from the giants.
7 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, struck him down.

8 These were descendants of the giants in Gath; they fell by the hand of David and his servants.

Census and Plague

1 Chronicles 21 1 Then satan stood up against Israel and incited David to count Israel. 2 So David told Joab and the leaders of the people, “Go, count Israel from Beersheba to Dan. Then bring me a report so I may know their number.” 3 But Joab said, “May ADONAI multiply His people 100 times over! But my master the king, are they not all my master’s servants? Why does my master require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt to Israel?” 4 Nevertheless the king’s word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and finally came back to Jerusalem.
5 Joab gave the number of the census of the people to David:
in all Israel there were 1,100,000 sword-wielding men; Judah had 470,000 sword-wielding men. 6 But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, for the king’s word was detestable to Joab. 7 But God was displeased with this thing and He struck Israel.
8 Then David said to God, “I have sinned greatly by doing this. But now, I entreat you, take away the guilt of Your servant for I have behaved very foolishly.” 9 Then ADONAI spoke to Gad, David’s seer, saying: 10 “Go and speak to David, saying, ‘Thus says ADONAI, “I offer you three things; choose one of them and I will bring it upon you.”’” 11 So Gad went to David and said to him, “Thus says ADONAI:
‘Select for yourself 12 either three years of famine, or three months being swept away from before your adversaries and the sword of your enemies overtaking you or three days of the sword of ADONAI, pestilence in the land and the angel of ADONAI ravaging throughout all the territories of Israel. Now, consider what I should reply to the one who sent me.’” 13 David said to Gad, “I am in a great anguish! Let me fall into the hand of ADONAI for His compassion is very great. But do not let me fall into the hand of man.”
14 So ADONAI sent a plague upon Israel, and 70,000 men of Israel fell. 15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but while he was doing so, ADONAI saw and was grieved over the calamity. He said to the destroying angel, “Enough! Now withdraw your hand!”

The angel of ADONAI was then standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 16 David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of ADONAI standing between the earth and the heaven with a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. 17 David said to God, “Was it not I who commanded to count the people? I alone am the one who sinned and behaved wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand, ADONAI my God, be against me and against my father’s house, but do not let the plague be on Your people.”

18 So the angel of ADONAI told Gad to instruct David that David should go up and build an altar to ADONAI on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 19 So David went up by the word of Gad, which he spoke in the Name of ADONAI. 20 While Ornan was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel. His four sons who were with him hid themselves. 21 When David came to Ornan, Ornan looked up and saw David. He went out from the threshing floor and bowed to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan: “Give me the site of this threshing floor that I may build an altar to ADONAI. Sell it to me for full price, so the plague on the people may be stopped.”

23 Then Ornan said to David, “Take it! Let my lord the king do whatever seems good in his eyes. Look, I will give the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this.”

24 King David said to Ornan, “No, I insist on buying it for the full price. For I will not take for ADONAI what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that cost me nothing.”

25 So David gave Ornan 600 shekels of gold by weight for the place. 26 David built there an altar to ADONAI and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called on ADONAI and He answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering. 27 Then ADONAI commanded the angel, and he put his sword back in its sheath.

[28] At that time, when David saw that ADONAI had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there. [29] For the Tabernacle of ADONAI, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. [30] But David could not go before it to seek God for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of ADONAI.

1 Chronicles 22 1 Then David said, “This is the place where the House of ADONAI Elohim will be, along with the altar for burnt sacrifices for Israel.”

Preparing for the Temple 2 David gave orders to assemble the foreigners in the land of Israel, and assigned them to be masons to quarry stones to build the House of God. 3 David supplied an abundance of iron for nails for the doors of the gates and for the joints, so much bronze that it could not be weighed, 4 and cedar logs without number, for the Zidonians and the Tyrians brought an abundance of cedar logs to David.

5 David said, “Solomon my son is young and inexperienced and the House that is to be built for ADONAI must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all the nations. Therefore I will make preparation for it.” So David made extensive preparations before his death.

6 Then He called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a House for ADONAI, the God of Israel. 7 David said to Solomon, “My son, I had it in my heart to build a House for the name of ADONAI my God. 8 But the word of ADONAI came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and fought many battles. You will not build a House for My Name because you have shed much blood before Me on the earth. 9 Behold, a son will be born to you who will be a man at rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon and I will confer shalom and quietness on Israel in his days. 10 He will build a House for My name; he will be My son and I will be His Father.[14] I will establish his royal throne over Israel forever.’

11 “Now, my son, may ADONAI be with you, and may you succeed in building the House of ADONAI your God as He spoke concerning you. 12 Only may ADONAI give you insight and understanding when He gives you charge over Israel so that you may observe the Torah of ADONAI your God. 13 Then you will prosper, if you carefully observe the statutes and the ordinances that ADONAI commanded Moses concerning Israel. Chazak! And be courageous! Do not be afraid or dismayed.

14 "Now behold, with great pain I have provided for the House of ADONAI 100,000 talents of gold, a million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing for there is so much of it. I have also prepared wood and stone, and you must add to them. 15 Moreover, you have an abundance of workmen: stonecutters, masons, carpenters and every kind of craftsmen skilled in every kind of material—16 in gold, silver, bronze and iron—beyond number. Arise and work! May ADONAI be with you."

17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, 18 "Is not ADONAI your God with you? Has He not given you rest on every side? For He has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand and the land is subdued before ADONAI and before His people. 19 Now set your hearts and souls to seek after ADONAI your God. Rise up and build the Sanctuary of ADONAI Elohim so that you can bring the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI and the holy vessels of God into the House built for the Name of ADONAI."

Census of Levites

1 Chronicles 23 [1] When David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.
[2] He also gathered together all the leaders of Israel along with the kohanim and the Levites. [3] The Levites 30 years old or more were counted; their head count was 38,000 men. [4] Of these, there were 24,000 to oversee the work of the House of ADONAI, 6,000 officers and judges, [5] 4,000 gatekeepers, and 4,000 for praising ADONAI "with the instruments which I made for giving praise."
[6] David organized them into divisions:
The sons of Levi:
Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
[7] Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei.
[8] The sons of Ladan:
Jehiel the leader, Zetham and Joel—three.
[9] The sons of Shimei:
Shelomith, Haziel and Haran—three.
These were the heads of the clans of Ladan.
[10] The sons of Shimei:
Jahath, Zina, Jeush and Beriah.
These were the sons of Shimei—four.
[11] Jahath was the first and Zizah the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were enrolled together as a single clan.

[12] The sons of Kohath:
Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel—four.
[13] The sons of Amram:
Aaron and Moses.
Aaron, along with his descendants, was set apart to be consecrated as most holy forever, to burn incense before ADONAI, to minister to Him, and to bless in His name forever.

14 But as for Moses the man of God, his sons are named among the tribe of Levi.
15 The sons of Moses:
Gershom and Eliezer.
16 The sons of Gershom:
Shebuel, the leader.
17 The sons of Eliezer:
Rehabiah the chief. Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.
18 The sons of Izhar:
Shelomith the leader.
19 The sons of Hebron:
Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.
20 The sons of Uzziel:
Micah the first and Isshiah the second.
21 The sons of Merari:
Mahli and Mushi.
The sons of Mahli:
Eleazar and Kish. 22 Eleazar died having no sons but only daughters; the sons of Kish, their kinsmen, took them as wives.
23 The sons of Mushi:
Mahli, Eder, and Yeremot—three.
24 These were the sons of Levi by clans, with the heads of clans as they were enrolled and with a list of their names by heads who carried out the task of avodah in the House of ADONAI from 20 years old and upward. 25 For David said:
"ADONAI, the God of Israel, has given His people rest and He dwells in Jerusalem forever. 26 Therefore, the Levites need not carry the Tabernacle and all the vessels for avodah." 27 For according to David's final instructions, the Levites 20 years old and upward were counted.
28 For their duty was to help the descendants of Aaron in the avodah of ADONAI'S House concerning the courtyards and rooms, the purification of all holy things and the performance of the avodah of God's House, 29 the rows of bread, the fine flour for the grain offering, the matzot, the cake baked on the griddle or mixed and every measure of capacity and length, 30 and to stand every morning to thank and praise ADONAI. They also did this in the evening 31 and whenever burnt offerings were offered to ADONAI on Shabbatot, New Moons and the moadim. They were to serve regularly before ADONAI, according to the proper number in the manner prescribed for them.

32 They were to keep watch over the Tent of Meeting, the Holy Place and the sons of Aaron their kinsmen for avodah in the House of ADONAI.

1 Chronicles 24 [1] Now these were the divisions of the sons of Aaron.
The sons of Aaron were Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. [2] But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no children, so Eleazar and Ithamar served as kohanim.
[3] David, with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them into their offices according to their avodah. [4] More leading men were found among the sons of Eleazar than among the sons of Ithamar, so they divided them: the sons of Eleazar had 16 leaders of clans and the sons of Ithamar had eight leaders of clans. [5] Thus, they were impartially divided by lot for there were officials of the Holy Place and officials of God, both from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.
[6] The scribe Shemaiah, son of Nethanel from the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the leaders of the clans of the kohanim and of the Levites: one clan taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.
[7] Now the first lot came for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah, [8] the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim, [9] the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin, [10] the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah, [11] the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shecaniah, [12] the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim, [13] the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Heshebeab, [14] the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer, [15] the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Hapizzez, [16] the nineteenth for Petahiah the twentieth for Jehezkel, [17] the twentyfirst for Jachin, the twentysecond for Gamul, [18] the twentythird for Delaiah, the twentyfourth for Maaziah.
[19] These were their duties for their avodah upon entering into the House of ADONAI according to the ordinance given to them by the hand of Aaron their father, just as ADONAI the God of Israel had commanded him.
[20] As for the rest of the sons of Levi:
from the sons of Amram: Shubael;
from the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.
[21] As for Rehabiah, from the sons of Rehabiah

Isshiah was the first.
22 From the Izharites: Shelomoth;
from the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.
23 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.
24 The sons of Uzziel: Micah;
from the sons of Micah: Shamir.
25 The brother of Micah, Ishiah;
from the sons of Ishiah: Zechariah.
26 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi;
the sons of Jaaziah: Beno.
27 The sons of Merari:
from Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri.
28 From Mahli:
Eleazar, who had no sons.
29 From Kish, the sons of Kish: Jerahmeel.
30 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth.

These were the sons of the Levites by their clans. 31 These also cast lots even as their kinsmen the sons of Aaron did in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech and the heads of the clans of the kohanim and the Levites—the families of the oldest just like those of his youngest brother.

Orders of Prophetic Levites

1 Chronicles 25 1 Moreover, David and the commanders of the army, set apart for avodah the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun who prophesied with lyres, harps and cymbals. The list of those who performed this work according to their service was: 2 from the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the supervision of Asaph, who prophesied under the hand of the king.
3 As for Jeduthun, from Jeduthun's sons:
Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Hashabiah and Mattithiah—six, under the charge of their father Jeduthun—who prophesied
with the harp, giving thanks and praise to ADONAI.
4 As for Heman, from Heman's sons:
Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. 5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer according to the promise of God to lift up a horn. God gave Heman 14 sons and three daughters.
6 All these were under the direction of their father for singing in the House of ADONAI with cymbals, harps and lyres for the avodah of the House of God under the hand of the king. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman along with 7 with their kinsmen all trained and skillfull singers of ADONAI, numbered 288. 8 They cast lots for their divisions on the principal of small and great alike, teacher as well as student.
9 Now the first lot went to Asaph's son Joseph—12
the second to Gedaliah, his brothers and sons—12;
10 the third to Zaccur, his sons and his brothers—12;
11 the fourth to Izri, his sons and his brothers—12;
12 the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers—12;
13 the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
14 the seventh to Jesarelah, his sons and his brothers—12;
15 the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
16 the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers—12;

17 the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his brothers—12;
18 the 11th to Azarel, his sons and his brothers—12;
19 the 12th to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
20 the 13th to Shubael, his sons and his brothers—12;
21 the 14th to Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
22 the 15th to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers—12;
23 the 16th to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
24 the 17th to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers—12;
25 the 18th to Hanani, his sons and his brothers—12;
26 the 19th to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers—12;
27 the 20th to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers—12;
28 the 21st to Hothir, his sons and his brothers—12;
29 the 22nd to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers—12;
30 the 23rd to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers—12;
31 the 24th to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his brothers—12.

Gatekeepers and Treasurers

1 Chronicles 26 [1] The divisions of the gatekeepers:
of the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.
[2] Meshelemiah had sons:
Zechariah the firstborn,
Jediael the second,
Zebadiah the third,
Jathniel the fourth,
[3] Elam the fifth,
Jehohanan the sixth,
and Eliehoenai the seventh.
[4] Obed-edom had sons:
Shemaiah the firstborn,
Jehozabad the second,
Joah the third,
Sacar the fourth,
Nethanel the fifth,
[5] Ammiel the sixth,
Issachar the seventh,
and Peullethai the eighth,
(for God had blessed him).

[6] To his son Shemaiah were born sons who were leaders of their clans, for they were men of great ability. [7] The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad. His brothers Elihu and Semachiah were also valiant men. [8] All these were descendants of Obed-edom. They and their sons and their kinsmen were capable men with the strength to do the work—62 of Obed-edom.
[9] Meshelemiah had sons and brothers—18 able men.
[10] Also Hosah, a descendant of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first), [11] Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Hosah were 13.

12 These divisions of the gatekeepers by their chief men had duties corresponding to their kinsmen for avodah in the House of ADONAI. 13 So they cast lots, small and great alike, by clans for each gate.

14 The lot for the east gate fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for Zechariah his son, an insightful counselor, and his lot came out for the north gate. 15 To Obed-edom the south gate and to his sons the storehouse. 16 To Shuppim and Hosah the east gate by the Shallecheth gate on the ascending highway.

Guard corresponded to guard. 17 There were six Levites on the east, four a day on the north, four a day on the south, and at the storehouse by pairs. 18 At the colonnade on the west, there were four on the road and two at the colonnade itself. 19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and the sons of Merari.

20 And the Levites: Ahijah was over the treasuries of the House of God and the treasuries of the dedicated things. 21 The descendants of Ladan who were sons of Gershon through Ladan and were chiefs of the clans of Ladan the Gershonite were Jehieli, 22 the sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother. They were over the treasuries of the House of ADONAI.

23 Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, the Uzzielites:

24 Shebuel son of Gershom son of Moses was officer over the treasuries. 25 His relatives through Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son and Shelomith his son.

26 This Shelomith and his kinsmen were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things that King David and the chiefs of the clans and the commanders over thousands and hundreds, and other army commanders had dedicated. 27 They dedicated some of the plunder taken in battles to maintain the House of ADONAI. 28 All that Samuel the seer, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner and Joab son of Zeruiah had dedicated, and any other dedicated thing was in the care of Shelomith and his relatives.

29 Of the Izharites: Henaniah and his sons were assigned outside duties as officers and judges over Israel.
30 Of the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his brothers, 1,700 capable men, had oversight of Israel west of the Jordan for all the work of ADONAI and for the king's service. 31 As for the Hebronites: Jerijah was the chief of the Hebronites according to the genealogical records of their families. In the fortieth year of David's reign a search was made and found in them were valiant men in Jazer of Gilead. 32 His relatives, 2,700 men of valor, were heads of clans whom King David had appointed over the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of the Manasseh in every matter pertaining to God and the affairs of the king.

David’s Officers

1 Chronicles 27 [1] The number of Bnei-Yisrael—heads of clans, officers of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all matters of the divisions that came in and went out month by month throughout the year—each division had 24,000.

[2] Over the first division, for the first month, was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel. His division had 24,000. [3] He was a descendant of Perez, the head of all the officers of the army for the first month.

[4] Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite. Mikloth was the chief officer and his division consisted of 24,000.

[5] The third army commander, for the third month, was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the kohen. He was leader of his division, which consisted of 24,000. [6] This was Benaiah, who was a mighty man of the 30 and had charge over the 30. Ammizabad his son was over his division.

[7] The fourth commander, for the fourth month, was Asahel brother of Joab. Zebadiah, his son, succeeded him. His division consisted of 24,000.

[8] The fifth commander, for the fifth month, was Shamhuth the Izrahite. His division consisted of 24,000.

[9] The sixth commander, for the sixth month, was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. His division consisted of 24,000.

[10] The seventh commander, for the seventh month, was Heletz the Pelonite, from the children of Ephraim. His division consisted of 24,000.

[11] The eighth commander, for the eighth month, was Sibbcai the Hushathite from the Zerahites. His division consisted of 24,000.

[12] The ninth commander, for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathotite, of the Benjamites. His division consisted of 24,000.

[13] The tenth commander, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite of the Zerahites. His division consisted of 24,000.

14 The eleventh commander, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite a descendant of Ephraim. His division consisted of 24,000.
15 The twelfth commander, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel. His division consisted of 24,000.
16 Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel:
of the Reubenites: Eliezer son of Zichri was the chief officer;
of the Simeonites: Shephatiah son of Maacah;
17 of Levi: Hashabiah son of Kemuel;
of Aaron: Zadok;
18 of Judah: Elihu, one of David's brothers;
of Issachar: Omri son of Michael;
19 of Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah;
of Naphtali: Jerimoth son of Azriel;
20 of the children of Ephraim: Hoshea son of Azaziah;
of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Joel son of Pedaiah;
21 of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead: Iddo son of Zechariah;
of Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner;
22 of Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham.
These were the officers of the tribes of Israel.
23 But David did not count those 20 years old and under, because ADONAI had said He would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven. 24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to count them, but did not finish. Wrath came upon Israel for this and the number was not entered into the account in the chronicles of King David.
25 Over the king's storehouses: Azmaveth son of Adiel.
Over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, in the villages and in the citadels: Jonathan son of Uzziah; 26 over the field laborers for tilling the ground: Ezri the son of Chelub;
27 over the vineyards: Shimei the Ramathite;
over the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars: Zabdi
the Shiphmite;

[28] over the olive trees and the sycamore trees in the lowland:
Baal-hanan the Gederite;
over the cellars of oil: Joash;
[29] over the cattle grazing in Sharon: Shirtai the Sharonite;
over the cattle grazing in the valleys: Shaphat son of Adlai; [30] over the camels: Obil the Ishmaelite;
over the donkeys: Jehdeiah the Meronothite;
[31] and over the flocks: Jaziz the Hagrite.
All these were stewards over the property of King David.
[32] Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, learned man and scribe. Jehiel son of Hachmoni tutored the king's sons.
[33] Ahithophel was the king's counselor. Hushai the Arkite was the king's friend. [34] Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiatar. Joab was the commander of the king's army.

Men and Materials

1 Chronicles 28 1 Now David assembled all the leaders of Israel in Jerusalem—the tribal officers, the commanders of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, and the stewards over all the property and livestock of the king and of his sons, along with the high officials, the mighty warriors and all the men of valor.
2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, “Listen to me, my brothers and my people! As for me, it was in my heart to build a resting place for the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI and for the footstool of our God. So I made the preparations for the building. 3 But God said to me, ‘You will not build a House for My name because you are a man of war and have shed blood.’
4 Yet ADONAI, the God of Israel, has chosen me out of all my ancestral house to be king over Israel forever. For He chose Judah as ruler, and of the house of Judah, my father’s house, and of my father’s sons, He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel. 5 Moreover, of all my sons—for ADONAI has given me many sons—He has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of ADONAI over Israel.
6 “He said to me, ‘Solomon your son will build My House and My courts for I have chosen him to be a son to Me and I will be a father to him. 7 I will establish his kingdom forever, if he resolutely observes My mitzvot and My ordinances as at this day.’ 8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of ADONAI and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek all the mitzvot of ADONAI your God so that you may possess this good land and may bequeath it to your children after you forever.
9 “Now you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve Him with a whole heart and with a willing mind; for ADONAI searches all hearts and understands every intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever. 10 Consider now, for

ADONAI has chosen you to build a House for the Sanctuary. Chazak! And do it!”

11 Then David gave Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, its houses, its storerooms, its upper rooms, its inner rooms, and the place of atonement; 12 and the plan of all that he had by the Ruach for the courts of the House of ADONAI and all the surrounding rooms, for the storehouses of the House of God and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; 13 also for the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites, for all the tasks of the avodah of the House of ADONAI, and for all the vessels of avodah in the House of ADONAI. 14 For gold, the weight of gold for all vessels of every kind of avodah, and silver, the weight of silver for all vessels for every type of avodah; 15 and the weight for the gold menorot and their gold lamps, including the weight of each menorah and its lamps, for the silver menorot, including the weight of each menorah and its lamps according to the use of each menorah; 16 also the weight of gold for the tables of the rows of bread, for every table and silver for the silver tables; 17 and the forks, the basins, and the pitchers of pure gold, and for the golden bowls with the weight for every bowl, and for the silver bowls with the weight for every bowl; 18 and for the altar of incense with the weight of refined gold; and gold for the form of the chariot—the cheruvim—that spread out their wings covering the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI.

19 “All this I put in writing is from the hand of ADONAI upon me as He gave me insight regarding the plan of all the works.”

20 Also David said to his son Solomon: “Chazak! And be courageous, and do it! Do not be afraid or dismayed, for ADONAI Elohim my God is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the avodah of the House of ADONAI is finished. 21 Now behold, here are the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites for all the avodah of the House of God, and with you in all the work are willing men, skilled in all types of tasks. Also the officials and all the people are at your command.”

David Commissions His Son

1 Chronicles 29 [1] Then King David said to the entire assembly: “My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced and the task is great, for the palace is not for man but for ADONAI Elohim. [2] Now I have made every effort to prepare for the House of my God gold for the golden objects, silver for silver, copper for copper, iron for iron, and wood for wood; onyx stones and inlay stones, stones of antimony and varigated colors—every kind of precious stones and marble in abundance. [3] Moreover, in my devotion to the House of my God, I have given over my private treasure of gold and silver to the House of my God, in addition to all that I have already supplied for the holy House: [4] 3,000 gold talents of gold from Ophir, and 7,000 talents of refined silver to overlay the walls of the houses
—[5] gold for golden objects and silver for silver for all the work —into the hands of craftsmen. Who then will offer willingly, consecrating himself this day to ADONAI?” [6] Then the leaders of the clans, the officials of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and hundreds and the supervisors over the king’s work contributed willingly. [7] They gave for the service of the House of God: 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics of gold, 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of bronze and 100,000 talents of iron. [8] Whoever possessed stones gave them to the treasury of the House of ADONAI in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite. [9] Then the people rejoiced over their freewill offerings because with a whole heart they offered willingly to ADONAI. King David also rejoiced with great joy.
[10] David blessed ADONAI before the whole congregation
saying,

> “Blessed are You, ADONAI,
> God of Israel our father,
> from eternity to eternity!
> [11] Yours, ADONAI, is the greatness, the power
> and the splendor, and the victory and the majesty,

indeed everything in heaven and earth.
Yours is the kingdom, ADONAI
and You are exalted above all.
12 Both riches and honor come from You.
You rule over everything.
In Your hand is power and might,
in Your hand, to magnify and give strength to all.
13 Now, our God, we give you thanks and praise Your glorious Name.

14 “But who am I and who are my people that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For everything comes from You, and from Your hand we have given to You. 15 For we are sojourners before You, mere transients like our fathers. Our days on the earth are like a shadow, without security. 16 ADONAI Eloheinu, all this abundance that we have laid aside to build
You a House for Your holy Name is from Your hand; it all belongs to You. 17 I know, my God, that You search the heart and take pleasure in uprightness. With integrity of heart I have willingly offered all these things. And now I have seen with joy
Your people who are present here willingly contribute to You.
18 ADONAI, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel our fathers, preserve forever such motives and thoughts in the heart of Your people and make their heart constant toward You. 19 As for my son Solomon, give him a whole heart to keep Your mitzvot, Your decrees and Your statutes, and to fulfill them all and to build the Temple for which I have made provision.” 20 Then David said to the whole congregation, “Now bless ADONAI your God.”
So the whole congregation blessed ADONAI, the God of their fathers. They bowed down and fell prostrate before ADONAI and the king.

Solomon Acclaimed King

[21] The next day, they sacrificed sacrifices to ADONAI and offered burnt offerings to ADONAI; 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams and 1,000 lambs, along with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. [22] So they ate and drank before ADONAI on that day with great joy.

Then they designated Solomon the son of David as king a second time, anointing him before ADONAI as ruler and Zadok as kohen. [23] So Solomon sat on the throne of ADONAI as king instead of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him. [24] All the officials and mighty men, as well as all the sons of King David, pledged their hand in support of King Solomon.
[25] ADONAI highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had never been on any king before him in Israel.

[26] Now David son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. [27] The length of his reign over Israel was 40 years. He reigned in Hebron seven years and he reigned in Jerusalem 33 years. [28] He died at a good old age, full of days, riches and honor, and his son Solomon became king in his place.

[29] Now the acts of King David, the first and the last, behold, are written in the chronicles of Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet and in the chronicles of Gad
the seer [30] together with all his reign, his power and the events that involved him, Israel and all the kingdoms of the lands.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom at Gibeon

2 Chronicles 1 1 Now Solomon the son of David firmly established himself over his kingdom. For ADONAI his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.
2 Solomon spoke to all Israel—t0 the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the leading patriarchs—3 and Solomon and the whole assembly with him went to the high place that was at Gibeon, for the Tent of Meeting of God was there, which Moses the servant of ADONAI had made in the wilderness. 4 Now David had brought up the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place that David had prepared for it because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. 5 But the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur had made was there in front of the Tabernacle of ADONAI, and Solomon and the assembly inquired of Him there.
6 So Solomon went up before ADONAI to the bronze altar that was at the Tent of Meeting and offered 1,000 burnt offerings on it.

7 That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask!
What should I give you?”
8 Solomon answered God, “You have shown great lovingkindness to my father David and now You have made me king in his place. 9 Now, ADONAI Elohim, let Your word to my father David be fulfilled for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. 10 Now give me wisdom and knowledge that I may go out and come in before this people. For who can govern this great people of Yours?” 11 Then God said to Solomon, “Since this was in your heart and you have not asked for riches, possessions or honor, nor for the life of those who hate you and have not even asked for long life but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself
—so you can govern My people over whom I have made you king—12 wisdom and knowledge will be given to you. Moreover,
I will give you riches, possessions and honor, such as none of the kings who were before you ever had and none after you will have.”

13 Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from in front of the Tent of Meeting. So he reigned over Israel.

Horses and Chariots from Egypt

14 Solomon accumulated chariots and horsemen. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. 15 The king made silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the foothills. 16 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Keve—the king's merchants purchased them from Keve at a price. 17 They imported a chariot from Egypt for 600 talents of silver and a horse for 150. So by the same means they were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

Solomon Prepares to Build

18 Then Solomon vowed to build a House for the Name of ADONAI, as well as a royal palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2 1 Solomon recruited 70,000 men as carriers, 80,000
as stonecutters in the mountains and 3,600 supervisors over
them.
2 Then Solomon sent word to Huram the king of Tyre saying, “Deal with me as you did with my father David when you sent him cedars to build a house to dwell in. 3 Behold, I am about to build a House for the Name of ADONAI my God and to dedicate it to Him for burning fragrant incense before Him, for regular arrangement of the Bread of the Presence and for burnt offerings every morning and evening as well as on Shabbatot, New Moons and moadim of ADONAI Eloheinu. Upon Israel this is forever.
4 “The House that I am about to build will be great, because our God is greater than all the gods. 5 But who is able to build Him a House, since the heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain Him? Who then am I that I should build Him a House—except to burn incense before Him?
6 “So now, send me a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, and in purple, crimson and blue yarn, and experienced in engraving, to work in Judah and Jerusalem with the skilled men who are with me, whom my father David provided. 7 Send me also cedar, evergreen and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants are skilled in cutting timber in Lebanon. Indeed my servants will work with yours 8 to prepare an abundance of timber for me, because the House that I am about to build will be large and magnificent. 9 Now, behold, I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, 20,000 measures[1] of ground wheat, 20,000 measures of barley, 20,000 vats of wine and 20,000 vats[2] of oil.” 10 Then King Huram of Tyre, replied in a letter that he sent to Solomon, “Because ADONAI loves His people, He has made you king over them.” 11 Then Huram continued, “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth. He gave King David a wise son, endowed with insight and understanding, who will build a House for ADONAI and a royal house for himself.
12 So now I am sending Huram-abi—a skilled man endowed with understanding 13 who is the son of a woman from the daughters of Dan and whose father was a man from Tyre—a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, in purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to engrave all kinds of engraving, and who can execute any design given to him. He will work with your skilled men and with the skilled men of my lord David your father. 14 Now let my lord send to his servants the wheat and barley, the oil and wine he has promised 15 and we will cut as many logs from Lebanon as much as you need, and float them in rafts by sea to Jaffa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem.”

16 Solomon counted all the foreign men in the land of Israel, like the census that his father David had taken, and 153,600 were found. 17 He appointed 70,000 of them to carry loads, 80,000 to quarry stones in the mountains, and 3,600 overseers to supervise the people working.

Solomon Builds the Temple in Jerusalem

2 Chronicles 3 1 Then Solomon began to build the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah—where ADONAI appeared to his father David—at the place that David prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 2 He began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign. 3 Now the foundation Solomon laid for the building of the House of God was 60 cubits long and 20 cubits wide, according to the old standard. 4 The porch in front of the House along its width was 20 cubits and its height was 120 cubits, and the inside was overlaid with pure gold. 5 He paneled the main hall with cypress wood, which he overlaid with fine gold and embossed on it palm trees and chains. 6 He adorned the House with precious stones and the gold he used was gold from Parvaim. 7 Furthermore He overlaid the beams, thresholds, walls and doors of the House with gold and carved cheruvim on the walls.

8 He made the Holy of Holies, its length corresponding to the width of the House—20 cubits long and 20 cubits wide. He overlaid it with 600 talents of fine gold. 9 The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold. 10 Next he made two sculptured cheruvim in the Holy of Holies and overlaid them with gold. 11 The wingspan of the cheruvim was 20 cubits. One wing of the first cheruv was five cubits long and touched the wall of the House, while the other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cheruv. 12 Similarly, one wing of the second cheruv was five cubits long and touched the wall of the House, while the other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cheruv. 13 Thus the wingspan of these cheruvim was 20 cubits.
They stood on their feet facing the main hall. 14 Furthermore, he made the veil of blue, purple, crimson yarn and fine linen with cheruvim worked into it.

15 In the front of the House he made two pillars 35 cubits high, each with a capital on the top measuring five cubits. 16 He made interwoven chains for the inner Sanctuary and put them on top of the pillars. He also made 100 pomegranates and attached them to the chains. 17 He erected the pillars in front of the Temple, one to the south and the other to the north. The one to the south he named Jachin and the one to the north Boaz.

The Temple Furnishings

2 Chronicles 4 1 Moreover, he made a bronze altar 20 cubits long, 20 cubits wide and ten cubits high. 2 He also made the Sea of cast metal ten cubits across from brim to brim, perfectly round.
It was five cubits high and its circumference was 30 cubits.
3 Beneath it, figures like bulls were set all around it, ten cubits encircling the Sea. The bulls were in two rows, cast in one piece with it. 4 The Sea stood on 12 bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The Sea rested upon them and their hindquarters were all turned inward. 5 It was a handbreadth thick, and the brim was like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held 3,000 vats.
6 He also made ten basins for washing and placed five on the right side and five on the left. In them the items used for the burnt offering were rinsed, but the kohanim washed in “the Sea”.
7 Next he made the ten menorot[3] of gold in the manner prescribed for them and set them in the Temple, five on the right hand and five on the left. 8 He also made ten tables and placed them in the Temple, five on the right side and five on the left. He also made 100 gold bowls.
9 Then he made the courtyard of the kohanim and the great courtyard and doors for the courtyard. He overlaid the doors with bronze. 10 He set the Sea on the south side at the southeast corner.
11 Huram also made the pots, the shovels and the bowls. So Huram-abi finished the work that he had undertaken for King Solomon in the House of God: 12 the two pillars, the bowls and the two capitals on the top of the pillars, and the two lattice-works to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, 13 and the 400 pomegranates for the two lattice-works (two rows of pomegranates for each lattice-work to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars). 14 He also made the stands, the basins upon the stands, 15 and the one Sea with the 12 bulls under it, 16 as well as the pots, the shovels and the meat hooks. All the utensils Huram-abi made for King Solomon for the House of ADONAI were of polished bronze. 17 The king had them cast with clay earth from the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zeredah. 18 Solomon made all these utensils in such great quantities that the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

19 Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in the House of God, including the golden altar, the tables on which was the Bread of Presence, 20 the menorot with their lamps of pure gold to burn in front of the inner sanctuary as prescribed 21 with the flowers and the lamps and the tongs of gold, the purest gold, 22 and the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons and the fire-pans of pure gold, and the doors of the House—the inner doors for the Holy of Holies and the doors of the House, that is, the Temple—were of gold.

2 Chronicles 5 1 When all the work that Solomon undertook for the House of ADONAI was finished, Solomon brought in the things David his father consecrated—the silver, gold and all the furnishings—and put them in the treasuries of the House of God.

Consecration of the Temple 2 Then Solomon gathered to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the patriarchal leaders of Bnei-Yisrael, in order to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI from the city of David, which is Zion. 3 All the men of Israel gathered together to the king at the feast that is in the seventh month.

4 So all the elders of Israel came and the Levites took up the Ark 5 and brought up the Ark and the Tent of Meeting along with all the sacred furnishings that were in the Tent. The Levitical kohanim brought them up. 6 Meanwhile, King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel who gathered with him before the Ark, were sacrificing so many sheep and bulls that they could not be counted or numbered.

7 The kohanim brought in the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI to its place, into the inner Sanctuary of the House, into the Holy of Holies under the wings of the cheruvim. 8 The cheruvim spread their wings over the place of the Ark so that the cheruvim covered the Ark and its poles from above. 9 Now the poles were so long that the ends of the poles extending from the Ark could be seen in front of the inner Sanctuary, though they could not be seen from outside; and they are there to this day. 10 There was nothing in the Ark except the two tablets that Moses had placed there at Horeb, where ADONAI made a covenant with Bnei-Yisrael when they came out of Egypt.

God's Glory Fills the Temple 11 And it came to pass, when the kohanim came out of the Holy Place—for all the kohanim that were present had consecrated themselves, without regard to divisions —12 all the Levite singers—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, their sons and their relatives—dressed in fine linen with cymbals, harps and lyres, were standing at the east end of the altar and with them were 120 kohanim blowing trumpets. [13] Then it came to pass that when the trumpeters and singers joined as one to extol and praise Adonai, and when the sound of the trumpets, cymbals and musical instruments and the praise of Adonai—"For He is good, for His mercy endures forever"—grew louder, the Temple, the House of Adonai, was filled with a cloud. [14] The kohanim could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of Adonai filled the House of God.

Adonai Has Chosen Jerusalem

2 Chronicles 6 1 Then Solomon declared, “Adonai has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud; 2 I have built You a magnificent House and a place for You to dwell forever.” 3 Then, while all the congregation of Israel was standing the king turned his face and blessed the whole congregation of Israel. 4 He said: “Blessed be Adonai, the God of Israel, who with His hands has fulfilled what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying: 5 ‘Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a House that My Name might be there. Nor did I choose any man to be a leader over My people Israel. 6 But I have chosen Jerusalem that My Name would abide there and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’
7 “Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a House for the Name of Adonai, the God of Israel. 8 But Adonai said to David my father: ‘As for you wanting in your heart to build a House for My Name, you did well that this was in your heart.
9 Nevertheless, you will not build the House. Rather your son who will be born to you, he will build the House for My Name.’ 10 “Now Adonai has confirmed His promise that He spoke. I have succeeded my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, just as Adonai promised, and I have built the House for the Name of Adonai, the God of Israel. 11 There have I set the Ark in which is the Covenant of Adonai that He made with Bnei-Yisrael.”

Solomon’s Prayer

12 Then he stood before the altar of Adonai in front of the entire congregation of Israel and spread forth his hands. 13 For Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high and placed it in the midst of the court. He stood on it and knelt down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven 14 and he said,

"ADONAI, God of Israel, there is no God like You in the heavens or in the earth, keeping covenant and showing mercy to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart.
15 You have kept the promise You made to Your servant David, my father. Surely you spoke with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand—as it is today.

16 "Now therefore, ADONAI, God of Israel, keep for Your servant David, my father, that which You have promised him saying:

'For you will never be cut off, you will not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne—if only your sons pay attention to their way, to walk in My Torah as you have walked before Me.'[4]

17 "Now therefore, ADONAI God of Israel, let Your word, which You spoke to Your servant David, be confirmed.

18 "But will God indeed dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold—heaven even the highest heaven—cannot contain You. How much less this House that I have built! 19 Yet attend to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, ADONAI my God, to hear the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You 20 that Your eyes may be open toward this House day and night, toward the place where You have said You would put Your Name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place. 21 Hear the supplications of Your servant and Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven, and when You hear, forgive.

22 "If a man sins against his neighbor and is required to swear an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this House, 23 then hear from heaven and act. Judge Your servants, repaying the wicked by bringing down on his own head what he has done and vindicating the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness.[5]

24 "If Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, yet when they return and confess Your Name, praying and making supplication before You in this House, [25] then hear from heaven, forgive the sin of Your people Israel and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and to their fathers.

[26] “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, if they pray toward this place and confess Your Name, turning from their sin because You afflicted them, [27] then may You hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel. Indeed may You teach them the good way in which they should walk. Send rain upon Your land that You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

[28] “When there is famine in the land, when there is pestilence, blight, mildew, locust or grasshopper, when their enemies besiege them in the land by their gates, whatever plague or sickness may come, [29] and any prayer or plea is offered by any individual or by all Your people Israel—each acknowledging his own afflictions and pain, even spreading his hands toward this House—[30] then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place and forgive. May You give to every man according to all his ways, as You know his heart—for You alone know the hearts of the children of men—[31] so that they will fear You and walk in Your ways all the days that they live in the land that You gave to our fathers.

[32] “Moreover, concerning the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel but comes from a distant land for the sake of Your great Name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this House, [33] then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place and do whatever the foreigner asks of You. Then all the peoples of the earth will acknowledge Your Name and revere You, as Your people Israel do, and they will know that this House which I have built is called by Your Name.

[34] “When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and they pray to You toward this city that You have chosen and the House that I have built for Your Name, 35 then hear from heaven their prayer and their petition, and uphold their cause.

36 When they sin against You—for there is no man that does not sin[6]—and You become angry with them and hand them over to the enemy who takes them captive to a land far off or near, 37 when they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and they repent and seek You in the land of their captivity saying,
'We have sinned,
we have committed inquity,
we have acted wickedly,' 38 "and they return to You with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken captive, and they pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers and the city which You have chosen and toward the House which I have built for Your Name, 39 then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions and uphold their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against
You.
40 "Now my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open, and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.
41 Now arise, ADONAI Elohim,
to Your resting place,
You and the Ark of Your might.
May Your kohanim, ADONAI Elohim, be clothed with
salvation,
and may Your godly ones rejoice in goodness.
42 ADONAI Elohim, do not reject Your anointed one.
Remember the loyalty of Your servant David."

Sukkot and Shemini Atzeret

2 Chronicles 7 [1] Now when Solomon finished praying the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of ADONAI filled the House. [2] The kohanim could not even enter into the House of ADONAI because the glory of ADONAI filled the House of ADONAI. [3] When all Bnei-Yisrael saw the fire come down and the glory of ADONAI above the House, they bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, prostrating themselves and praising ADONAI,
"For He is good and His mercy endures forever."
[4] Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before ADONAI. [5] King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the House of God. [6] The kohanim stood at their posts, as did the Levites with the musical instruments of ADONAI that King David had made for praising ADONAI—"for His mercy endures forever"—whenever David offered praise by their hand.
Opposite them were the kohanim who sounded trumpets while all Israel was standing.
[7] Moreover, Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was before the House of ADONAI, because there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, since the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to contain the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat. [8] At that time, Solomon observed the feast for seven days and all Israel with him—a very great assembly from Lebo-hamath to the Brook of Egypt.
[9] On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, for they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the feast for seven days. [10] On the 23 rd day of the seventh month
he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that ADONAI had done for David, Solomon and Israel His people.

Adonai's Promise to Solomon [11] Thus Solomon finished the House of _Adonai_ and the king's palace. Indeed, all that Solomon had on his heart to accomplish in the House of _Adonai_ and in his own palace, he successfully completed.

[12] Then Adonai appeared to Solomon at night and said to him:
"I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself for a House of sacrifice. [13] If I shut up heaven that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, [14] when My people, over whom My Name is called, humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.
[15] Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place. [16] For now I have chosen and consecrated this House so that My Name may be there forever.
My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually.
[17] "As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, doing all that I have commanded you, keeping My statutes and My ordinances, [18] then I will establish your royal throne as I covenanted with your father David saying, 'You shall not lack a man to be ruler in Israel.' [19] But if you turn away and forsake My decrees and My mitzvot that I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, [20] then I will uproot them from My land which I gave them, and this House which I have consecrated for My Name I will cast out of My sight. I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. [21] As for this House, which is so exalted, every one passing by it shall be appalled and say, 'Why has Adonai done this to this land and to this House?' [22] And they will answer,
'Because they have forsaken Adonai, the God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and clung to other gods, worshipping and serving them. Therefore He has brought all this misery upon them'"

Solomon’s Exploits Throughout the Land

2 Chronicles 8 1 It came to pass at the end of 20 years, during which Solomon built the House of ADONAI and his own palace, 2 that he built the cities which Huram had given to him and settled Bnei-Yisrael there. 3 Then Solomon marched against Hamath-zobah and overpowered it. 4 He built up Tadmor in the wilderness and all the store cities that he built in Hamath. 5 He also built upper Beth-horon and lower Bet-horon as fortified cities with walls, gates and bars, 6 as well as Baalath and all his store cities, and cities for his chariots and cities for his horsemen—every thing that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land that he ruled.
7 All the people that were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, who were not of Israel, 8 that is, those of their descendants that were left after them in the land, whom Bnei-Yisrael did not destroy—these Solomon conscripted for forced labor, as it is to this day. 9 But Solomon did not make slaves of Bnei-Yisrael for his work. Rather, they were his soldiers, his chief officers and commanders of his chariots and horsemen. 10 These were the chief officers of King Solomon, 250 who ruled over the people.
11 Solomon brought Pharaoh’s daughter up from the city of David to the house that he had built for her, for he said, “My wife shall not dwell in the palace of King David of Israel, because the places where the Ark of ADONAI has entered are holy.”
12 At that time, Solomon offered burnt offerings to ADONAI on the altar of ADONAI which he had built before the porch, 13 according to the daily requirement for offerings commanded by Moses for Shabbatot, for New Moons and for the moadim three times a year—at the Feast of Matzot, at the Feast of Shavuot and at the Feast of Sukkot. 14 Following the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the kohanim for their avodah and the Levites for their duties—to praise and minister alongside the kohanim according to the daily

assignment—and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate, because this is what David the man of God had commanded. 15 They did not depart from the king’s commandment to the kohanim and Levites in any matter, including the treasuries.

16 Thus all Solomon’s work was carried out from the day of the foundation of the House of ADONAI until it was finished. So the House of ADONAI was completed.

17 Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Elat on the coast of the land of Edom. 18 And Huram sent him ships commanded by his servants and servants that knew the sea. They went with Solomon’s servants to Ophir and obtained from there 450 talents of gold and brought them to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Jerusalem

2 Chronicles 9 1 When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon’s fame, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions.[7] Accompanied by a large caravan train, including camels carrying an abundance of spices and gold, and precious stones, she came to Solomon and spoke with him about all that was in her heart. 2 Solomon answered all her questions;
nothing was hidden from Solomon which he did not explain to her.
3 When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the palace he had built, 4 as well as the food on his table, the seating of his courtiers, the service and attire of his attendants, his cupbearers and their attire, and his procession with which he went up to the House of ADONAI, it took her breath away.
5 She said to the king: “The report that I heard in my own land about your achievements and your wisdom is true. 6 But I did not believe their reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. And behold, not even half of the greatness of your wisdom was described to me—you surpass the report that I heard! 7 How blessed are your men, how blessed are your courtiers who continually stand in your presence and hear your wisdom. 8 Blessed be ADONAI your God who delighted in you, setting you on His throne as king before ADONAI your God.
Because your God loved Israel, establishing them forever, He made you king over them to execute justice and
righteousness.”
9 Then she gave the king 120 gold talents, large quantities of spices and precious stones. There had never been such quantities of spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon. 10 The servants of Huram and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir also brought algumwood and precious stones. 11 From the sandalwood the king made ramps for the House of ADONAI and for the royal palace, and lyres and harps for the singers—nothing like them had ever been seen before in the land of Judah. 12 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for—more than what she had brought to the king. Then she with her courtiers, returned, going back to her own land.

Solomon Exceeds All the Earth's Kings

13 Now the weight of gold that Solomon received in one year was 666 gold talents, 14 besides what the traders and merchants brought and the gold and silver that all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the region brought to Solomon.
15 King Solomon made 200 shields of beaten gold, 600 shekels of beaten gold for each shield, 16 and also 300 shields of beaten gold, 300 shekels of gold for each shield. The king put them in the palace of the Lebanon Forest. 17 Furthermore, the king made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold. 18 The throne had six steps and a golden footstool attached to it, and arms on each side of the seat. Two lions stood beside the arms 19 and 12 lions stood on the six steps, one at each end of each step. None like it was ever made for any kingdom. 20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold and all the vessels of the palace of the Lebanon Forest were of pure gold—silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon. 21 Because the king's ships sailed to Tarshish with Huram's servants once every three years, the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks.
22 So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. 23 And all the kings of the earth sought an audience with Solomon to listen to the wisdom that God had put in his heart. 24 Everyone brought his tribute—vessels of silver, vessels of gold, garments, armor, spices, horses and mules—in the due amount each year.
25 Solomon had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen that he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. 26 And he ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt. 27 The king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plentiful as the sycamore trees that are in the foothills. [28] Horses were brought for Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.

Solomon Buried in David's City

[29] Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, the beginning and the end, are they not written in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Jedo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?
[30] Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel 40 years. [31] Then Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David, and Rehoboam his son became king in his place.

The Revolt Against Rehoboam at Shechem

2 Chronicles 10 [1] Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. [2] Now it came to pass that when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard this—for he was in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon—Jeroboam returned from Egypt. [3] So they sent and summoned him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came to Rehoboam and spoke to Rehoboam saying, [4] "Your father made our yoke grievous but now lighten the harsh labor of your father and his heavy yoke that he put on us—then we will serve you." [5] He answered them, "Come back to me in three days." So the people departed.
[6] Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?" [7] They answered him saying, "If you will be kind to this people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."
[8] But he disregarded the counsel that the elders had given him and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him. [9] He said to them, "How do you advise me to answer this people who have spoken to me saying, 'Lighten the yoke that your father put on us?'" [10] The young men that grew up with him answered him saying: "Speak thus to the people who spoke to you saying,
'Your father made our yoke heavy, now you make it lighter for us'. Thus shall you say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. [11] Now, whereas my father laid a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will do so with scorpions.'" [12] Then Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had said to them saying, "Come back to me on the third day." [13] The king answered them harshly.
King Rehoboam ignored the counsel of the elders [14] and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men saying, "I will make your yoke heavy—I will make it even heavier. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scorpions.”

15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from God so that ADONAI might establish His word that He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
16 When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king saying,

“What portion do we have in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse!
To your tents, O Israel!
Now look after your own house, David!”

So all Israel departed to their tents. 17 But Rehoboam continued to reign over Bnei-Yisrael who lived in the cities of Judah. 18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, but men of Israel pelted him to death with stones. King Rehoboam, however, managed to mount his chariot and to flee to Jerusalem. 19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11 1 Now when Rehoboam arrived at Jerusalem, he assembled the House of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel in order to restore the kingdom back to Rehoboam.
2 But the word of ADONAI came to Shemaiah the man of God saying: 3 “Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin saying, 4 ‘Thus says ADONAI, You shall not go up nor fight against your kinsmen. Let everyone return to his house for this matter is of Me.’” So they listened to the words of ADONAI and returned from marching against Jeroboam.

Reign of Rehoboam

5 Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built fortified cities for defense in Judah.
6 He built up Beth-lehem, Etam, Tekoa, 7 Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam, 8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, 9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, 10 Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron, which are fortified cities in Judah and in Benjamin. 11 He also strengthened the fortified towns and put commanders in them, along with stores of food, oil and wine. 12 He also put shields and spears in every town, and made them very strong. So he held Judah and Benjamin.
13 Moreover, the kohanim and the Levites from all their territories throughout Israel presented themselves to him.
14 The Levites even abandoned their pastures and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them as kohanim to ADONAI, 15 and had appointed his own priests for the high places, for the he-goats and for the calves that he had made. 16 Those from all the tribes of Israel, who had set their hearts to seek ADONAI, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to sacrifice to ADONAI, the God of their fathers. 17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.
18 Rehoboam married Mahalat the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse. 19 She bore him sons: Jeush and Shemariah and Zaham.
20 After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith. 21 Now Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom more than all his wives and concubines—for he took 18 wives and 60 concubines and fathered 28 sons and 60 daughters.
22 Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as chief and commander among his brothers, for he intended to make him king. 23 He also wisely dispersed some of his sons throughout the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities and he gave them plenty of food and sought many wives for them.

Shishak Attacks Jerusalem

2 Chronicles 12 1 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and he had become strong, that he and all Israel with him forsook the Torah of ADONAI. 2 It so happened that in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, King Shishak of Egypt marched against Jerusalem—because they had been unfaithful to ADONAI—3 with 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen and innumerable troops that came with him from Egypt: Lybians, Sukkites and Cushites. 4 He captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.
5 Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the officers of Judah who had gathered in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says ADONAI:
'You have abandoned Me—
so I also have abandoned you into the hand of Shishak.'" 6 Then the officers of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "ADONAI is just."
7 But when ADONAI saw that they humbled themselves, the word of ADONAI came to Shemaiah saying: "Since they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but grant them some measure of deliverance, and My wrath will not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. 8 However, they will become subjects to him so that they may learn the difference between serving Me and serving the kings of the earth."
9 So Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem and took away the treasures of the House of ADONAI and the treasures of the king's palace. He took away everything; he even took away the golden shields that Solomon had made. 10 So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and entrusted them to the hands of the captains of the royal guard that guarded the entrance to the royal palace. 11 Whenever the king entered into the House of ADONAI, the guards would carry them and then bring them back into the guard chamber. 12 Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the anger of ADONAI turned from him and He did not destroy him completely. Indeed there were good things in Judah.

13 So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned as king. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he began to reign and he reigned 17 years in Jerusalem—the city that ADONAI had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put His Name there. His mother's name was Naamah, the Ammonite. 14 But he did evil because he had not set his heart to seek ADONAI.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, from beginning to end, are they not written in the chronicles of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer for genealogies? There were continuous wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. 16 Then Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. Then his son Abijah became king in his place.

Abijah's Bold Speech

2 Chronicles 13 1 In the 18 th year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah. 2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.
There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. 3 Abijah went into battle with an army of valiant warriors, 400,000 chosen men, while Jeroboam arranged for battle against him 800,000 chosen men, mighty warriors.
4 Abijah stood on top of Mount Zemaraim, which is a hill of Ephraim, and said, "Listen to me Jeroboam and all Israel!
5 Don't you know that ADONAI, God of Israel, has given kingship over Israel to David forever—to him and his sons by a covenant of salt? 6 Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his master. 7 Riffraff and scoundrels gathered around him and pressed hard on Rehoboam son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted and could not stand up to them.
8 "So now, do you intend to oppose the kingdom of ADONAI, which is in the hand of David's descendants? Are you indeed a great multitude—and with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made for you as gods? 9 Have you not banished the kohanim of ADONAI, the sons of Aaron, as well as the Levites, and then appointed your own priests—just as the peoples of the lands do? Can whoever comes to consecrate himself with a bull from a young cow and seven rams become a priest—for gods of nothing?
10 "But as for us, ADONAI is our God! And we have not forsaken Him. We have the sons of Aaron ministering as kohanim to ADONAI and the Levites in their work. 11 Every morning and evening they burn to ADONAI burnt offerings and sweet incense.
They set the rows of bread on the pure table and they light the golden menorah with its lamps burning every evening—for we keep the service of ADONAI Eloheinu—but you have forsaken Him. 12 So look, God is with us at our head, and His kohanim with the signal trumpets to sound an alarm against you. O men of Israel, do not fight against ADONAI, the God of your fathers—for you will not succeed!”

13 But Jeroboam had commanded the ambush to go around and come from the rear. So while they were in front of Judah, the ambush was behind them. 14 When Judah turned around, behold, the battle was before and behind them. They cried out to ADONAI and the kohanim blew the trumpets. 15 Then the men of Judah raised a battle cry, and as the men of Judah shouted, God struck down Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. 16 Then men of Israel fled before Judah and God delivered them into their hand. 17 So Abijah and his people defeated them with a great slaughter, and 500,000 chosen men of Israel fell slain. 18 Thus men of Israel were subdued at that time, while the children of Judah prevailed—because they relied upon ADONAI, the God of their fathers.
19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured towns from him:
Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages. 20 Jeroboam could not muster strength again in the days of Abijah. Finally ADONAI struck him and he died.
21 But Abijah grew powerful and took to himself 14 wives and fathered 22 sons and 16 daughters. 22 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways and his sayings, are written in the chronicles of the prophet Iddo. 23 Then Abijah slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Asa became king in his place. During his days the land was untroubled for ten years.

Asa's Reforms Bring Adonai's Rest

2 Chronicles 14 1 Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of ADONAI his God. 2 He removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashed the pillars and cut down the Asherah poles.
3 He commanded Judah to seek ADONAI, the God of their fathers, and to obey the Torah and the mitzvah. 4 He also removed the high places and the incense stands out of all the cities of Judah.
So the kingdom remained untroubled under him. 5 He built up fortified cities in Judah, for the land was untroubled and he was not engaged in warfare during those years because ADONAI had given him rest.

6 Then he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is still ours because we have sought ADONAI Eloheinu. We sought Him and He has given us rest all around." So they built and were successful.

Appeal to Defeat the Cushites 7 Now Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah who bore shields and spears and 280,000 from Benjamin who bore shields and drew bows. All of these were valiant warriors.

8 Then Zerah the Cushite marched against them with an army of a million men and 300 chariots. When he arrived at Mareshah, 9 Asa went out to meet him and they arrayed for battle in the valley of Zephath at Mareshah.

10 Then Asa cried to ADONAI his God and said, "ADONAI, there is no one like You to help in battle between the mighty and the powerless. Help us, ADONAI Eloheinu, for we rely on You and in Your Name we have come against this multitude. You are ADONAI Eloheinu! Let no man prevail against You."

11 So ADONAI struck down the Cushites before Asa and before Judah. The Cushites fled 12 and Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So many of the Cushites fell that they could not recover because they were shattered before ADONAI and before His army. They carried away very much spoil. 13 They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the terror from ADONAI came on them. They plundered all the cities, for there was much spoil in them. 14 They also attacked the tents of herdsmen and carried off many sheep and camels.

Then they returned to Jerusalem.

Prophets Encourage Further Reforms

2 Chronicles 15 [1] The Ruach Elohim came upon Azariah the son of Oded. [2] He went out to meet Asa, and said to him, “Listen to me Asa, all Judah and Benjamin. ADONAI is with you as long as you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will spurn you. [3] For many days Israel was without the true God, without a teaching kohen and without Torah. [4] But in their distress they turned to ADONAI, the God of Israel, and sought Him, and He was found by them. [5] In those times there was no shalom for anyone coming or going, for there were many conflicts among all the inhabitants of the lands. [6] Nation was crushed by nation and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress. [7] But you, chazak! Do not let your hands be slack for there is reward for your labor.” [8] When Asa heard these words as well as the prophecy of the prophet Oded, he took courage and removed the abominations from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns that he had seized in the hill country of Ephraim. He also repaired ADONAI’S altar that was in front of ADONAI’S entryway.
[9] He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, as well as those dwelling with them from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon—for many had defected to him from Israel when they saw that ADONAI his God was with him. [10] So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. [11] On that day they sacrificed to ADONAI 700 bulls and 7,000 sheep from the spoil that they had brought. [12] They entered into a covenant to seek ADONAI, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and soul. [13] Whoever would not seek ADONAI, God of Israel, would be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman. [14] They also made an oath to ADONAI with a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets and with shofarot. [15] All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought Him with all their will and He was found by them. Then ADONAI gave them rest all around. [16] He also deposed Maacah, the mother of King Asa, from being queen because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. Asa cut down her abominable image, crushed it and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

17 Though the high places were not removed from Israel, still Asa’s heart was completely committed to Adonai all his days.
18 He brought into the House of God his father’s consecrated articles, as well as his consecrated articles of silver and gold, and utensils. 19 So there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa’s reign.

Asa Backslides

2 Chronicles 16 1 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, King Baasa of Israel marched against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from leaving or coming to King Asa of Judah.
2 In response, Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the House of ADONAI and from the royal palace, and sent them to King Ben-hadad of Aram who lived in Damascus saying, 3 "Let there be a covenant between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with King Baasha of Israel so that he may withdraw from me." 4 So Ben-hadad consented to King Asa's request and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel. They ravaged Ijon, Dan, Abelmaim and all the storage cities of Naphtali. 5 When Baasa heard, he stopped building Ramah and stopped his work. 6 Then King Asa took up all of Judah to carry away the stones of Ramah and the timber with which Baasa had been building—with them he fortified Geba and Mizpah.
7 At that time the seer Hanani came to King Asa of Judah and said to him: "Because you have depended on the king of Aram, and not depended on ADONAI your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand. 8 Were not the Cushites and the Libyans a mighty army with many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on ADONAI, He delivered them into your hand. 9 For the eyes of ADONAI range throughtout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are wholly His. You have acted foolishly in this matter. Indeed, from now on you will have wars."
10 Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in the prison for he was enraged at him for this. Also Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. 11 Behold, the acts of Asa, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.
12 Now in the thirty-nineth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet. His illness was severe, yet even in his disease he did not seek ADONAI but physicians.

13 Finally Asa slept with his fathers, dying in the forty-first year of his reign. 14 He was buried in his own tomb, which he had hewn out for himself in the city of David. They laid him in his resting place, which was filled with sweet spices and various blended perfumes and they made a very large fire for him.

Jehosaphat Restores Judah to Torah

2 Chronicles 17 1 Jehoshaphat his son became king in his place and took firm hold of his position against Israel. 2 He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and set garrisons throughout the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.
3 ADONAI was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the first ways of his father David. He did not seek the Baalim 4 but sought the God of his father, and walked in His mitzvot rather than the deeds of Israel. 5 So ADONAI established the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat so that he had great riches and honor. 6 His heart was devoted to the ways of ADONAI. Furthermore he removed the high places and the Asherah poles from Judah.
7 Then in the third year of his reign he sent his officials—Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah—to teach in the towns of Judah. 8 With them were the Levites Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-adonijah and with them Elishama and Jehoram the kohanim. 9 They taught throughout Judah, having with them a Torah scroll of ADONAI. They went throughout all the towns of Judah and taught the people.
10 Now the fear of ADONAI fell on all the kingdoms of the lands around Judah, so that they did not make war with Jehoshaphat.
11 Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver for tribute. The Arabs also brought him flocks—7,700 rams and 7,700 he-goats.
12 So Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built forts and storage cities in Judah 13 and carried out extensive work in the cities of Judah. He had men of war, valiant warriors, in Jerusalem.
14 These were their appointees according to their clans. From Judah, captains of thousands: Adnah the commander with 300,000 valiant warriors; 15 and next to him Jehohanan the commander with 280,000; 16 and next to him, Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to ADONAI with 200,000 valiant warriors.

17 From Benjamin: Eliada a valiant warrior with 200,000 men armed with bow and shield; 18 and next to him Jehozabad with 180,000 equipped for war.
19 These were the men who served the king besides those whom the king stationed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

Prophecy of the Deceiving Spirit

2 Chronicles 18 [1] Now Jehoshaphat had wealth and honor in abundance but he allied himself with Ahab by marriage. [2] Some years later he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and bulls for him and the people with him, and urged him to march with him against Ramoth-gilead.
[3] King Ahab of Israel asked King Jehoshaphat of Judah, “Will you go with me against Ramoth-gilead?”
He replied, “I am as you are and my people as your people, and we will be with you in battle.”
[4] Jehoshaphat then said to the king of Israel, “Please, let us seek, today, the word of ADONAI.” [5] So the king of Israel assembled the prophets—400 men—and asked them, “Should we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or should I hold off?”
They answered, “Go up, for God will give it into the king’s hand!”
[6] But Jehoshaphat asked, “Isn’t there another prophet of ADONAI here of whom we should inquire?”
[7] The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man through whom we can inquire of ADONAI—but I hate him, because he has never prophesied anything good about me but always evil. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.”
But Jehoshaphat said, “May the king never say such a thing.”
[8] So the king of Israel called an official and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah quickly!”
[9] Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah, wearing their robes, were sitting on their thrones on the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria with all the prophets prophesying before them. [10] Zedekiah son of Henaanah made for himself iron horns and declared, “Thus says ADONAI, ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are exterminated!’”
[11] All the other prophets were prophesying similarly, saying “March against Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for ADONAI will give it into the hand of the king.”

12 Now the messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, “Look, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. So please let your word be like one of them and speak favorably.” 13 But Micaiah replied, “As Adonai lives, what my God says that is what I will say.”
14 When he came to the king, the king asked him, “Micaiah, should we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or should I hold off?”
He replied, “March and be victorious! They will be given into your hand!”
15 But the king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the Name of Adonai?” 16 So he said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd,[8] and Adonai said, ‘These have no master—let each man return home in shalom.” 17 So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you that he never prophesies good about me, only evil?” 18 Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of Adonai. I saw Adonai sitting on His throne with the whole host of heaven standing on His right and on His left. 19 And Adonai said: ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’
Then one said this and another said that, 20 until a spirit came forward and stood before Adonai and said, ‘I will entice him.’
So Adonai said to him, ‘How?’
21 He answered, ‘I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’
Then He said, ‘You will entice him and you will also succeed.
Go and do so.’
22 So now, behold, Adonai has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours and Adonai has decreed disaster against you.”
23 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah approached Micaiah, slapped him on the cheek and said, “How did the spirit of Adonai pass over me to speak to you?”

[24] Micaiah replied, “Behold, you will see on the day that you go to hide in an inner room.” [25] Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and turn him over to Amon, governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son, [26] and say, ‘Thus says the king, “Put this fellow in prison and make him eat the bread and water of affliction—until I return in shalom.”’”
[27] Then Micaiah said, “If you ever return in shalom, ADONAI has not spoken through me.” He added: “Listen, all you
people!”

Ahab Dies in Battle

[28] So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah marched against Ramoth-gilead. [29] Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and they went into the battle.
[30] Now the king of Aram had already ordered his chariot commanders saying: “Don’t attack anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel alone.” [31] So when the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat they thought, “This is the king of Israel.” So they turned to attack him but Jehoshaphat cried out. ADONAI helped him and God diverted them from him. [32] When the chariot commanders realized that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.
[33] But a man drew his bow aimlessly and struck the king of Israel between the lower armor and the breastplate. The king said to the charioteer, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded.”
[34] The battle raged that day and the king of Israel remained propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans until dusk. Then at sunset he died.

Jehoshaphat's Judicial Reforms

2 Chronicles 19 [1] Then King Jehoshaphat of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem. [2] Jehu son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate ADONAI? Because of this, wrath from before ADONAI is against you. [3] Nevertheless, good things are found in you, for you have removed the Asherah poles out of the land and have set your heart to seek God." [4] Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem and he went out again among the people from Beer-sheba over to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to ADONAI, the God of their fathers. [5] He also appointed judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city. [6] He said to the judges.
"Consider what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for ADONAI who is with you when you pass judgment. [7] Now then, let the fear of ADONAI be upon you. Be very careful what you do, for there is no injustice or favoritism or bribe-taking with ADONAI Eloheinu." [8] In Jerusalem also, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, kohanim and the leading patriarchs of Israel to render the judgment of ADONAI and to settle disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
[9] He charged them saying, "This is how you shall act: in the fear of ADONAI, faithfully and wholeheartedly. [10] When any dispute comes to you from your kinsmen who live in their cities, whether bloodshed, or concerning Torah, mitzvot, statutes or ordinances, you must warn them so that they will not be guilty before ADONAI. Otherwise wrath will come upon you and your kinsmen. Act accordingly and you will not be guilty.
[11] "Behold, Amariah the chief kohen will be over you in all matters pertaining to ADONAI, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the House of Judah, in all the matters pertaining to the king. Also the Levites will serve as officials before you. Act courageously and may ADONAI be with the good."

Jehoshaphat's Prayer and the Valley of Bracha

2 Chronicles 20 1 Now it happened after this that the Moabites and the Ammonites together with other Ammonites came to make war against Jehoshaphat. 2 Some came and reported to Jehoshaphat saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Aram, and are already in Hazazon-Tamar" (that is En-Gedi).
3 Jehoshaphat was afraid so he resolved to seek ADONAI, and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. 4 Judah assembled to seek help from ADONAI; indeed, they came from all the cities of Judah to seek ADONAI.
5 Then Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem in the House of ADONAI in front of the new courtyard 6 and said:
"ADONAI, God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in Your hand and no one can stand against You. 7 Are You not our God who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and gave it to the descendants of Your friend Abraham forever? 8 They settled in it and built You a Temple there for Your Name saying, 9 'If calamity comes upon us—the sword of judgment, pestilence or famine—we will stand before this House and before You—for Your Name is in this House—and cry to You in our distress and You will hear and deliver us.'
10 "Now behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir —whose land You did not allow Israel to invade when they came from the land of Egypt, instead they turned aside from them and did not destroy them—11 now behold, how they repay us by coming to drive us out of Your possession that You gave us as an inheritance. 12 Our God, will You not execute judgment on them? For we have no power to face this great multitude that is attacking us. We do not know what to do—but our eyes are on You."
13 All Judah was standing before ADONAI with their infants, their wives and their children.

14 Then in the midst of the congregation, the Ruach ADONAI came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, 15 and
he said:
"Listen all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat. Thus ADONAI says to you, 'Do not be afraid or be dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's. 16 Tomorrow go down against them as they come up the ascent of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel. 17 You will not fight in this battle. Take your positions, stand and see the salvation of ADONAI with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid or be dismayed. Tomorrow go out to face them, for ADONAI is with
you.'"
18 Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the ground and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before ADONAI to worship ADONAI. 19 Levites, from the sons of Kohath and the sons of Korah, stood up to praise ADONAI, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.
20 Early in the morning they arose and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. As they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem!
Believe in ADONAI your God and you will be confirmed. Trust in His prophets and you will succeed." 21 After consulting with the people, he appointed singers to ADONAI praising the splendor of His holiness, as they went out before the army saying,
"Praise ADONAI,
`for His mercy endures forever."
22 As they began singing and praising, ADONAI set ambushes against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir who had come against Judah, and they were defeated. 23 For the Ammonites and Moabites rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to exterminate and annihilate them. When they had exterminated the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.
24 When Judah came to the lookout in the wilderness and looked for the multitude, behold, only corpses were lying on the ground—no one had escaped. 25 When Jehoshaphat and his people went to take the plunder, they found an abundance of goods, clothing and precious articles, which they pillaged, more than they could carry away. For three days they were taking the plunder because there was so much. 26 On the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Bracha[9] where they blessed ADONAI. That is why the name of that place is called the Valley of Bracha to this day.

27 Then every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat at their head, returned joyfully to Jerusalem for ADONAI had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies. 28 They came to Jerusalem to the House of ADONAI with harps, lyres and trumpets. 29 So the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the region because they heard that ADONAI had fought against the enemies of Israel. 30 So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was untroubled for his God gave him rest all around.

Jehoshaphat's Last Days

31 Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was 35 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shlihi. 32 He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not stray from it, doing what was right in the eyes of ADONAI. 33 However, the high places were not removed, nor did the people direct their hearts to the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from beginning to end, behold, they are written in the annals of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is included in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 Afterward, King Jehoshaphat of Judah allied himself with King Ahaziah of Israel, thereby acting wickedly. 36 He joined with him to construct ships to go to Tarshish, and they constructed the ships in Ezion-geber.

37 Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, ADONAI will break up your works." So the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.

Jehoram Slays His Brothers

2 Chronicles 21 [1] Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. Jehoram his son became king in his place. [2] His brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah—all these were the sons of King Jehoshaphat of Israel. [3] Their father had given them great gifts of silver, gold and precious things, along with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.

[4] Now when Jehoram had risen over his father's kingdom and made himself strong, he slew all his brothers with the sword, along with some of the officers of Israel. [5] Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. [6] He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did (for Ahab's daughter was his wife), and he did evil in the eyes of ADONAI. [7] However, ADONAI was not willing to destroy the house of David because of the covenant
He had made with David, and since He had spoken a word to give a lamp to him and his sons always.

[8] In his days Edom rebelled against Judah's rule and set up a king over themselves. [9] So Jehoram crossed over with his officers and all his chariots with him. He rose up by night and struck the Edomites who were surrounding him and the chariot commanders. [10] Thus Edom has been in rebellion against Judah to this day. Then Libnah also revolted from under his hand at that time—because he had forsaken ADONAI, the God of his fathers. [11] Moreover, he built high places on the mountains of Judah and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot and led Judah astray.

Elijah's Letter of Judgment

[12] A letter from Elijah the prophet came to him saying:

"Thus says ADONAI, the God of your father David: Since you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 13 but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, leading Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into prostitution just as the house of Ahab committed prostitution and you have also slain your brothers—your own family, who were better than you—14 behold, ADONAI is going to strike your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions with a monumental catastrophe. 15 You yourself will be striken by multiple illnesses of your intestines, day after day, until your intestines drop out because of the illness."

16 Then ADONAI stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabs that neighbored the Cushites. 17 They rose up against Judah, invaded it and carried away all the possessions found in the royal palace, as well as his sons and his wives. No son was left to him except Jehoahaz, his youngest.
18 After all this, ADONAI smote his intestines with an incurable disease, 19 and it continued day after day for two years, so that at the end his bowels fell out because of his sickness and he died in great agonies. His people made no fire in his honor like the fire of his fathers. 20 He was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years and he passed away, to no one's regret. He was buried in the city of David,
but not in the tombs of the kings.

Ahaziah Falls with Ahab

2 Chronicles 22 1 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place for the troops that invaded the camp with the Arabians had slain all the older ones. Thus Ahaziah the son of Jehoram became king over Judah. 2 Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. 3 He too walked in the ways of the house of Ahab for his mother counseled him to do evil. 4 He did evil in the sight of ADONAI, like the house of Ahab, for they were his counselors after his father's death—to his destruction. 5 He also followed their counsel when he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram, 6 so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought Hazael king of Aram. Then Azariah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he had been wounded.
7 Now through his coming to Joram, God brought about Ahaziah's downfall. Upon his arrival, Ahaziah went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom ADONAI had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. 8 So it came to pass that when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, he came upon the officers of Judah and Azaiah's relatives, who had been attending Azaiah, and slew them. 9 He then searched for Azaiah who was caught hiding in Samaria. Then they brought him to Jehu, put him to death and buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought ADONAI with all his heart." Then there was no one in the house of Azaiah to hold power over the kingdom.

Athaliah and Joash

10 Now when Athaliah, Azaiah's mother, saw that her son had died, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah. 11 But Jehoshebeath, the king's daughter, took Joash the son of Azaiah and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. Because Jehoshebaeath, daughter of King Jehoram and wife of Jehoiada the kohen, was the sister of Azaiah, she could hide him from Athaliah so she could not kill him. 12 He remained hidden with them in the House of God for six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles 23 [1] Now in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself and brought the officers of hundreds—Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri—into a covenant with him. [2] They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the leading patriarchs of Israel. They came to Jerusalem [3] and the entire congregation made a covenant with the king in the House of God. Then he said to them: “Behold, the king’s son! He must reign as ADONAI promised concerning David’s sons. [4] This is what you should do: a third of you, kohanim and Levites coming on duty on Shabbat will keep watch at the gates, [5] a third of you shall be in the royal palace, and a third at the Foundation Gate, and all the people shall be in the courtyard, and all the people should be in the courtyard of the House of ADONAI. [6] But let no one enter into the House of ADONAI except the kohanim and the ministering Levites. They may come in, for they are kadosh, and let all the people observe the service of ADONAI. [7] The Levites will surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand, and whoever enters the House, let him be killed. Stay close to the king in his comings and goings.”

[8] So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the kohen commanded. Each took his men, those that were on duty on Shabbat and those who went off duty on Shabbat, for Jehoiada the kohen had not dismissed any of the divisions. [9] And Jehoiada the kohen delivered to the officers of hundreds King David’s spears, shields and bucklers that were in the House of God. [10] Then he stationed all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand around the king—from the south side of the House to the north side of the House by the altar and by the House.

[11] Then they brought out the king’s son and placed upon him the crown and the insignia. They proclaimed him king, and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and declared, “Long live the king!”

12 When Athaliah heard the shouting of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people to the House of ADONAI. 13 She looked, and behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance and the officers and the trumpeters were beside the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing the trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments were leading the praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, “Treason, treason!”
14 Jehoiada the kohen brought out the officers of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, “Bring her out from between the ranks and put to the sword anyone who follows her.”
For the kohanim said, “Do not put her to death in the House
of ADONAI.”
15 So they seized her as she arrived at the entrance of the Horse Gate of the royal palace and killed her there. 16 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people and the king to be the people of ADONAI. 17 All the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down, smashed its altars and images into pieces, and slew Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars.
18 Then Jehoiada placed the oversight of the House of ADONAI under the authority of the Levitical kohanim, whom David had assigned over the House of ADONAI to offer the burnt offerings of ADONAI, as it is written in the Torah of Moses, accompanied by rejoicing and singing as ordered by David. 19 He also stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the House of ADONAI so that no one who was ritually impure for any reason could enter.
20 He took the officers of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the House of ADONAI. They came through the upper gate of the royal house and seated the king upon the royal throne, 21 and all the people of the land rejoiced. The city was quiet for Athaliah had been slain with the sword.

Joash Repairs the Temple

2 Chronicles 24 1 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 40 years. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. 2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI all the days of Jehoiada the kohen.
3 Jehoiada took two wives by whom he fathered sons and daughters. 4 It came to pass after this that Joash had a heart to renovate the House of ADONAI. 5 He assembled the kohanim and the Levites and told them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel year by year to repair the House of your God. Do this quickly!"
However, the Levites did not act quickly. 6 So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief and asked him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the tax of Moses the servant of ADONAI on the congregation of Israel for the Tent of the Testimony?" 7 For the sons of wicked Athaliah had broken into the House of God, and had even used all the sacred things of the House of ADONAI for the Baalim[10]. 8 So the king commanded that a box be made and placed outside the gate of the House of ADONAI.
9 A proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring in to ADONAI the tax of Moses, God's servant, upon Israel in the wilderness. 10 All the officers and all the people rejoiced, and brought in and cast into the chest until it was full.
11 Whenever the chest was brought by the Levites to the king's officers and when they saw that it was full of money, the royal scribe and the officer of the kohen gadol would come and empty the box and take it back to its place. Thus they did daily and gathered much money. 12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to workmen who carried out the work for the House of ADONAI.
They hired masons and carpenters to renovate the House of ADONAI, as well as craftsmen in iron and bronze to repair the House of ADONAI. 13 So the workmen labored and the renovation work progressed in their hands. They restored the House of God to its original design, and strengthened it. 14 When they had finished, they brought the remainder of the money before the king and Jehoiada and they made it into vessels for the House of ADONAI—vessels for avodah and for burnt offering, pans and utensils of gold and silver. Then they offered burnt offerings in the House of ADONAI continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 When Jehoiada reached a ripe old age, he died. He was 130 years old when he died. 16 So he was buried in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good things in Israel and toward God and His House.

Joash Betrays the Righeous Kohen 17 Now after the death of Jehoiada, the chiefs of Judah came and bowed down to the king. Then the king listened to them. 18 They forsook the House of ADONAI, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherah poles and the idols. Wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for their guilt. 19 ADONAI sent prophets to them to bring them back to Him and although they admonished them, they would not listen.

20 Then the Ruach Elohim came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the kohen.[11] He stood above the people and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do you transgress the mitzvot of ADONAI? You will not succeed. Because you have forsaken ADONAI, He has also forsaken you.'"

21 But they conspired against him, and by order of the king, they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the House of ADONAI. 22 Thus King Joash disregarded the loyalty which his father Jehoiada had shown to him—and slew Jehoiada's son. As he was dying, he said: "May ADONAI see and avenge!"

Judgment on Joash and His Chieftains 23 It came to pass that at the turn of the year, the Aramean army came up against him. They invaded Judah and Jerusalem and massacred all the chieftains of the people, and sent all their plunder to the king of Damascus.
24 Although the Aramean army came with only a small number of men, Adonai gave over a much larger army into their hands, because they had forsaken Adonai, God of their fathers. So they executed judgment upon Joash. [25] When they withdrew from him—for they left him very sick—his own servants plotted against him because of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the kohen, and assassinated him on his bed. He died and was buried in the city of David—but not in the tombs of the kings. [26] These men conspired against him: Zabad son of Shimiath the Ammonitess and Jehozabad son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

[27] Now concerning his sons and the many prophesies against him and the rebuilding of the House of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son became king in his place.

Amaziah Begins Well

2 Chronicles 25 1 Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem. 2 Now he did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI, but not wholeheartedly. 3 Once he had the kingdom firmly secured under him, he executed his courtiers who had assassinated his father the king. 4 He did not put their children to death, but acted according to what is written in the Torah, in the book of Moses, which ADONAI commanded saying,
"Parents should not die for the children, neither should the children die for the parents, but every person should die for his own sin."
5 Amaziah gathered together the people of Judah and assigned them according to their clans to officers of thousands and officers of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those from 20 years old and upward, and found 300,000 chosen men, able to go to war, able to handle spear and shield. 6 He also hired 100,000 valiant warriors from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.
7 But a man of God came to him saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for ADONAI is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim. 8 For if you go and fight courageously in battle, God will overthrow you before the enemy, for God has power to help and to bring down." 9 But Amaziah said to the man of God, "And what is to be done about the 100 talents that I have given to the Israelite troops?"
The man of God answered, "ADONAI is able to give you much more than that."
10 So, Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim to go back to their homes. Their anger burned greatly against Judah and they returned home in a rage.
11 Amaziah then took courage and leading his army, marched to the Valley of Salt. He struck down 10,000 men of Seir. 12 The army of Judah also captured 10,000 alive, and brought them to the top of the cliff. They threw them down from the top of the cliff and everyone fell to their death.

13 Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah had sent back and not allowed to go with him to battle raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-Horon. They struck down 3,000 of them and took considerable spoils.

Idolatry and Defiance

14 Now after Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he had the gods of the men of Seir brought and installed as his gods. He prostrated himself before them and burned incense to them. 15 The anger of ADONAI burned against Amaziah, and He sent a prophet to him, who said to him, “Why have you sought after the gods of the people who could not deliver their own people from your hand?”

16 But while he was still speaking to him, the king said to him,
“Have we appointed you a counselor to the king? Stop! Why should you be struck down?”

So the prophet stopped after he said, “Now I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have acted this way and have not listened to my counsel.”

17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent this message to Joash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel saying, “Come, let us meet face to face.”

18 Joash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah saying: “The thorn bush in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar in Lebanon saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ Then a wild beast of Lebanon passed by and trambled the thorn bush. 19 You say, ‘Behold, I have defeated Edom.’ So now your heart has become arrogant and proud.
Stay home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah with you?”

20 However, Amaziah would not listen, for it was from God in order that He might deliver them into the hand of Joash because they had sought the gods of Edom. 21 So King Joash of Israel attacked. He and King Amaziah of Judah confronted one another at Beth-shemesh, which belonged to Judah. 22 Then Judah was routed before Israel, and every man fled to his tent.
23 King Joash of Israel captured King Amaziah of Judah—son of Joash, son of Jehoahaz—in Beth-shemesh. Then Joash brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim gate to the Corner Gate, 400 cubits. 24 He took all the gold and silver and all the vessels that were found in the House of God with Obed-edom, together with the treasuries of the king’s palace and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

25 Amaziah the son of King Joash of Judah lived 15 years after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? 27 From the time that Amaziah turned away from following ADONAI, they conspired against him in Jerusalem, so he fled to Lachish. But they sent men after him to Lachish and put him to death there. 28 Then they brought him back on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

Uzziah Strengthens Judah's Defenses

2 Chronicles 26 [1] Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was 16 years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.
[2] He built Eloth and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers. [3] Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king, and he reigned 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah from Jerusalem. [4] He did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI just as his father Amaziah had done. [5] He continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding through the visions of God. As long as he sought ADONAI, God made him prosper.

[6] He went out and fought the Philistines and breached the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod. He built cities in Ashdod and among the Philistines. [7] God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabs who dwelt in Gur-Baal, and against the Meunites. [8] The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread abroad even to the border of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.

[9] Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate and at the Angle, and fortified them. [10] He also built towers in the wilderness and dug out many cisterns because he had much livestock, and he had farmers in the foothills and in the plain and vinedressers in the mountains and in the fertile fields—for he loved the soil.

[11] Uzziah also had a well-trained army ready to go out to battle by divisions, according to the numbers mustered by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the official, under Hananiah, one of the king's chieftains. [12] The total number of family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600, [13] and under their command was an army of 307,500 trained for war with mighty power to support the king against the enemy. [14] Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows and slingstones for the entire army. [15] In Jerusalem he made machines designed by skillful men to be used on the towers and on the corners to shoot arrows and hurl large stones. So his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped until he became strong.

Uzziah Usurps the Kohanim [16] But when he became strong, his heart grew so haughty that he acted corruptly. For he trespassed against Adonai his God by entering into the Temple of Adonai to burn incense upon the altar of incense. [17] Then Azariah the kohen with 80 valiant kohanim of Adonai followed him in. [18] They opposed Uzziah the king and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Adonai, but for the kohanim, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the Sanctuary, for you have acted unfaithfully. You will have no honor from Adonai Elohim."

[19] Then Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the kohanim tza'arat broke out on his forehead right in front of the kohanim in the House of ADONAI, beside the incense altar. [20] When Azariah the chief kohen and all the other kohanim stared at him, behold, his forehead had tza'arat! So they rushed him out of there. Indeed, he himself hurried to get out because ADONAI had smitten him.

[21] King Uzziah had tza'arat until the day of his death. He lived in a separate house with tza'arat, for he was cut off from the House of ADONAI. Jotham his son was in charge of the king's house and governed the people of the land.

[22] Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from beginning to end, were recorded by the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz. [23] So Uzziah slept with his fathers and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial that belonged to the kings, for they said: "He had tza'arat." Then Jotham his son became king in his place.

Good King Jotham Prospers

2 Chronicles 27 1 Jotham was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. 2 He did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI, just as his father Uzziah had done. But unlike his father, he did not enter into the Temple of ADONAI. The people, however, acted corruptly. 3 He rebuilt the upper gate of the House of ADONAI and did extensive building on the wall of Ophel. 4 He also built towns in the Judean hills and forts and towers in the forests.

5 Jotham also fought the king of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. That year the Ammonites paid him 100 talents of silver, 10,000 measures of wheat and 10,000 of barley. The Ammonites brought him the same amount also in the second and third years.

6 Jotham became powerful because he ordered his ways before ADONAI his God. 7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all his wars and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. 8 He was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. 9 Jotham slept with his fathers and they buried him in the city of David. Ahaz his son became king in his place.

Ahaz's Sin in the Valley of Ben-hinnom

2 Chronicles 28 1 Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. But he did not do what was right in the eyes of ADONAI as his father David had done, 2 but followed the ways of the kings of Israel, and even made molten images for the Baalim. 3 Moreover, he burned incense in the valley of Ben-hinnom and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom ADONAI had driven out before Bnei-Yisrael. 4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense in the high places, on the hills and under every leafy tree.

5 Therefore ADONAI his God gave him into the hand of the king of Aram who defeated him and took away from him many prisoners and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who inflicted many casualties on him. 6 In one day, Pekah the son of Remaliah killed 120,000 valiant soldiers of Judah—because they had forsaken ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

Mercy Shown to Judah's Captives

7 Also Zichri, a warrior from Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the official in charge of the palace and Elkanah the second to the king. 8 Men of Israel carried away captive 200,000 of their kinsmen, women, sons and daughters.
They also took away a great deal of plunder from them that they brought to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of ADONAI named Oded was there and he went out to meet the army on its return to Samaria. He said to them,
"Behold, because ADONAI, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He has given them into your hand and you have slaughtered them in a rage that reaches to heaven. 10 So now you intend to bring into bondage the children of Judah and Jerusalem as your male and female slaves? Are you not also guilty of transgressions against ADONAI your God? 11 So now, listen to me. Send back the prisoners you have captured from your kinsmen—for the fierce wrath of ADONAI is upon you!”

12 Then some of the leaders of the sons of Ephraim—Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai—confronted those coming from the campaign, 13 and said to them, “Do not bring the captives in here, for that would cause us to trespass against ADONAI. Do you intend to add to our sins and our guilt? For our guilt is already great, and his fierce anger is already against Israel.”
14 So the soldiers released the captives and the plunder in the presence of the chieftains and the entire congregation. 15 Then the men designated by name stood up and took the captives, and they clothed all who were naked from the plunder. They gave them clothes and sandals, food and drink, anointed them, led all the feeble ones on donkeys, and brought them back to their kinsmen at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

Ahaz Leads Judah Into Idolatry

16 About that time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria for help. 17 Once again the Edomites had come and invaded Judah and taken captives, 18 while the Philistines had raided the towns in the foothills and in the South of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth-shemesh, Aijalon and Gederot, as well as Soho, Timnah and Gimzo with their villages. 19 For Adonai humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he threw off restraint in Judah and trespassed against Adonai. 20 Tilgat-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and afflicted him instead of strengthening him—21 even though Ahaz plundered the House of Adonai, the house of the king and the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria—it did not help him.
22 In his time of distress, this same King Ahaz acted even more unfaithfully to Adonai. 23 He even sacrificed to the gods of Damascus after he had been defeated, for he said, “Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them and they will help me.” But they caused the downfall of him and all Israel.
24 Ahaz even collected the utensils of the House of God and cut the utensils of the House of God into pieces. He shut the doors of the House of Adonai and made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. 25 In every town of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods—provoking Adonai, the God of his fathers.
26 Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 27 Then Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of Jerusalem, but he was not brought into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Hezekiah his son became king in his place.

Hezekiah Restores the Temple

2 Chronicles 29 1 Hezekiah became king when he was 25 years old, and he reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah. 2 He did right in the eyes of ADONAI, just as his father David had done. 3 In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the House of ADONAI and repaired them. 4 He brought in the kohanim and the Levites and assembled them into the eastern square.
5 Then he said to them: "Listen to me, Levites! Sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the House of ADONAI, the God of your fathers, and remove the defilement out of the holy place. 6 Our fathers acted unfaithfully and did evil in the sight of ADONAI Eloheinu and have forsaken Him. They turned their faces away from ADONAI'S dwelling place and turned their backs on Him.
7 They also shut the doors of the porch and put out the lamps.
They did not burn incense or offering any burnt offerings in the Holy Place to the God of Israel. 8 Therefore, the wrath of ADONAI was upon Judah and Jerusalem. He has made them an object of horror, dread and scorn, as you are seeing with your own eyes.
9 Behold, for this our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, daughters and wives are in captivity.
10 "Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with ADONAI, the God of Israel, so that His fierce anger may turn away from us.
11 My sons, now do not be negligent, for ADONAI has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and to be His ministers and to burn incense to Him."
12 Then these Levites arose: from the sons of Kohath, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah; from the sons of Merari, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; from the sons of Gershon, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah; 13 from the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; 14 from the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15 When they had gathered their brothers and sanctified themselves, they went in, as the king ordered according to the words of ADONAI, to cleanse the House of ADONAI.
16 So the kohanim went into the inner part of the House of ADONAI to purify it. They brought out to the courtyard of the House of ADONAI every impure thing that they found in the temple of ADONAI. Then the Levites received it and carried it out to Kidron Valley. 17 They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day of the month they reached the porch of ADONAI. For eight days they consecrated the House of ADONAI and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.
18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, “We have purified the entire House of ADONAI—the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the table of the rows of bread with all the vessels. 19 We have also prepared and concecrated all the articles that King Ahaz discarded in his unfaithfulness, while he was king. Behold, they are now before the altar of ADONAI.” 20 Then King Hezekiah arose early gathered the leaders of the city and went up to the House of ADONAI. 21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs and seven he-goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary and Judah, and he commanded the kohanim—the sons of Aaron—to offer them on the altar of ADONAI. 22 So they slaughtered the bulls and the kohanim took the blood and sprinkled it against the altar; next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood against the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood against the altar. 23 The he-goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands on them. 24 The kohanim then slaughtered them and purified the altar with their blood to make atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.
25 He stationed the Levites in the House of ADONAI with cymbals, harps and lyres, according to the command of David, of Gad the king’s seer and of Nathan the prophet. For the command was by the authority of ADONAI through His prophets.

[26] So the Levites stood with David’s instruments and the kohanim with the trumpets.
[27] Then Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of ADONAI also began with the trumpets, together with the instruments of King David of Israel. [28] The entire congregation prostrated themselves, while the singers sang and the trumpeters played. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished.
[29] Now at the completion of the burnt offering, the king and all who were present with him knelt down and worshiped.
[30] Moreover, King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to sing praises to ADONAI with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness and bowed down and worshiped.
[31] Then Hezekiah responded and said, “You have now consecrated yourselves to ADONAI. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the House of ADONAI.” The congregation brought in sacrifices and thankofferings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.
[32] The number of the burnt offerings that the congregation brought was 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs—all of these as a burnt offering to ADONAI. [33] The animals consecrated as sacrifices were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep. [34] The kohanim, however, were too few to flay all the burnt offerings, so their kinsmen, the Levites, helped them until the work was completed, and until other kohanim had consecrated themselves. For the Levites had been more conscientious to consecrate themselves than the kohanim. [35] There were also a great many burnt offerings, along with the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offering at every burnt offering.
Thus the avodah of the House of ADONAI was reestablished.
[36] Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had enabled the people to accomplish, because it happened so suddenly.

Hezekiah and all Israel Celebrate Pesach

2 Chronicles 30 1 Hezekiah then sent word to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the House of ADONAI at Jerusalem to keep the Passover for ADONAI, the God of Israel. 2 The king and his officials and the entire congregation in Jerusalem had decided to celebrate Passover in the second month. 3 For they were not able to celebrate it at the regular time, since not enough kohanim had consecrated themselves, nor had the people assembled in Jerusalem. 4 The matter seemed right in the eyes of the king and of the entire community. 5 So they decided to issue a decree and to proclaim it throughout all Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan, calling the people to come to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover for ADONAI, the God of Israel. For it had not been celebrated as prescribed for a long time.

6 At the king's command, the couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with letters from the king and his officials saying: "You men of Israel, turn back to ADONAI, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you who escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria. 7 Do not be like your fathers and brothers who acted unfaithfully against ADONAI, the God of their fathers, so that He made them a horror as you see. 8 Do not stiffen your neck as your fathers did, but reconcile to ADONAI, and come to His Temple, which He has consecrated forever, and worship ADONAI your God that His burning anger may turn away from you. 9 For if you return to ADONAI, your brothers and children will receive compassion before their captors, and will return to this land. For ADONAI your God is compassionate and merciful; He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him."

10 As the couriers traveled from town to town through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh and as far as Zebulun, they were scorned and mocked. 11 Nevertheless some men from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. 12 The hand of God was also on Judah to give them

one heart to do what the king and the officials commanded by the word of ADONAI.

13 Now a very large assembly gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Matzot in the second month. 14 They arose and removed the altars and all the incense altars that were in Jerusalem, and threw them into the Kidron Valley. 15 Then they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The kohanim and the Levites were ashamed and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings into the House of ADONAI. 16 They stood at their post as prescribed in the Torah of Moses, the man of God. The kohanim sprinkled the blood that they received from the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the congregation that had not concecrated themselves, therefore the Levites were in charge of slaughtering the Passover lambs for everyone that was not ceremonially clean in order to concecrate them to ADONAI. 18 Although a great multitude of the people—many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun—had not purified themselves, they still ate the Passover lamb contrary to what is written.

But Hezekiah prayed for them saying: “May ADONAI who is good, atone for 19 every one who prepares his heart to seek ADONAI, the God of his fathers, even though he is not pure according to rules of the sanctuary.” 20 ADONAI heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

21 So the children of Israel who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Matzot for seven days with great gladness. The Levites and the kohanim were praising ADONAI every day with loud instruments for ADONAI. 22 Then Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who demonstrated good understanding of the service of ADONAI. For seven days they ate their assigned portions while sacrificing peace offerings and praising ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

23 Then the whole congregation decided to celebrate seven more days—so for another seven days they celebrated with gladness. 24 Hezekiah king of Judah contributed 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep to the congregation, and the officials contributed

1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep to the congregation, and great numbers of kohanim consecrated themselves. 25 The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced with the kohanim and the Levites, and all who had assembled from Israel, both the strangers coming from the land of Israel and the residents of Judah. 26 There was great joy in Jerusalem, for nothing like this had happened in Jerusalem since the time of Solomon son of David king of Israel. 27 Then the Levitical kohanim arose and blessed the people, and ADONAI heard their voice, for their prayer reached heaven, His holy dwelling place.

Restoring the Kohanim and Levites

2 Chronicles 31 [1] When all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the towns of Judah and smashed the pillars, smashed the Asherah poles and demolished the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as throughout Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all Bnei-Yisrael returned to their towns, each to their own property.

[2] Then Hezekiah reestablished the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites together with their divisions, each of the kohanim and Levites according to his service: for burnt offerings, peace offerings, to minister, to praise, or to sing praises in the gates of the courts of ADONAI.[12] [3] The king also contributed a portion of his own assets for the burnt offerings: the morning and the evening burnt offerings and the burnt offerings for Shabbatot, the New Moons and the moadim, as it is written in the Torah of ADONAI. [4] Moreover, he commanded the people, the residents of Jerusalem, to give the portion allotted to the kohanim and the Levites, so that they might devote themselves to the Torah of ADONAI. [5] As soon as the word spread, Bnei-Yisrael gave generously the firstfruits of their grain, wine, oil, honey and all the produce of the field, as well as tithe of all the abundance. [6] The children of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah, also brought in the tithe of bulls and sheep, and the tithe of the sacred things consecrated to ADONAI their God. They piled them in heaps. [7] In the third month the heaps began to accumulate and finished in the seventh month. [8] When Hezekiah and the officials came and saw the heaps, they blessed ADONAI and His people Israel.

[9] Hezekiah asked the kohanim and the Levites about the heaps. [10] Azariah the chief kohen from the house of Zadok, replied to him saying, “Ever since the gifts began to be brought into the House of ADONAI, we have had enough to eat and more than enough, for ADONAI has blessed His people with plenty left over.”

[11] Then Hezekiah ordered them to prepare storerooms in the House of ADONAI, and they prepared them. [12] They faithfully brought in the offerings and the tithes and the consecrated gifts. Conaniah the Levite was the leader in charge over them and Shimei his brother was next in rank. [13] Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath and Benaiah were supervisors under Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the leader in charge of the House of God. [14] Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, distributing the offering of ADONAI and the consecrated gifts. [15] Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah faithfully assisted him in the towns of the kohanim, making allocations to their brothers by divisions—to great and little alike, [16] only considering genealogical records, to the males three years old and upward—to all who entered into the House of ADONAI, to perform the daily duties according to their responsibilities and their divisions—[17] to the kohanim who were genealogically registered by their ancestral houses, as well as to the Levites 20 years old and upward, according to their duties and their divisions. [18] The genealogical registry included all their little ones, their wives and sons and daughters of the entire assembly. Thus in their faithfulness they consecrated themselves as holy.

[19] As for the sons of Aaron, the kohanim, who lived in the fields of the common lands of their towns—in every town—men were designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the kohanim and to all who were genealogically registered among the Levites. [20] Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah. He did what was good, right and true before ADONAI his God. [21] Every work he undertook in the service of the House of God and in the Torah and the mitzvot to seek his God, he did wholeheartedly and succeeded.

Assyrian's Failed Seige of Jerusalem

2 Chronicles 32 1 After these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. He encamped against the fortified cities, intending to break into them for himself. 2 When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to wage war against Jerusalem, 3 he consulted with his officers and warriors about blocking the waters of the springs outside the city, and they supported him. 4 Many people assembled and blocked off all the springs and the raging wadi in the land saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?" 5 Then he took courage and rebuilt the entire wall that had been broken down, raised up the towers, added another outer wall, fortified the Millo in the city of David, and made plenty of weapons and shields.

6 He also appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate, and encouraged them saying, 7 "Chazak! Be courageous! Do not be afraid or dismayed by the king of Assyria and the whole horde that is with him—for we have more with us than he has with him! 8 With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is ADONAI Eloheinu to help us and to fight our battles." So the people were encouraged by the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.

9 After this, when King Sennacherib of Assyria, while he and all his forces with him were besieging Lachish, sent his servants to Jerusalem to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying:

10 "Thus says King Sennacherib of Assyria, 'What are you relying on that you would stay in Jerusalem, under siege? 11 Is not Hezekiah misleading you, to let you die by famine and thirst, saying, "ADONAI Eloheinu will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria?" 12 Has not the same Hezekiah removed His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem saying, "You shall worship before one altar and upon it you shall burn incense?" 13 Do not you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands ever able to deliver their land out of my hand? 14 Who among all the gods of these nations—which my fathers utterly destroyed—could deliver his people from my hand? How then is your God able to deliver you from my hand? 15 So now, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or any kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand and from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand!'" 16 His servants spoke further against ADONAI Elohim and against His servant Hezekiah. 17 Sennacharib also wrote letters reviling ADONAI, the God of Israel, speaking against Him saying,

"Just as the gods of the nations of the lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah shall not deliver His people from my hand." 18 Then they cried out loudly in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall to terrify and frighten them, in order to capture the city. 19 They spoke against the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth made by human hands.
20 Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz prayed about this and cried out to heaven.
21 Then ADONAI sent an angel who annihilated every mighty warrior, commander and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he withdrew in disgrace to his own land. When he entered the house of his god some of his own children struck him down with the sword. 22 Thus ADONAI delivered Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib
the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all, and helped them in every way. 23 Many brought offerings to ADONAI in Jerusalem and valuable gifts to King Hezekiah of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded in the eyes of all the nations.

Hezekiah's Pride and Humility

24 In those days Hezekiah became deathly ill, but he prayed to ADONAI who responded to him and gave him a sign. 25 But Hezekiah did not respond according to the favor done to him.

His heart became haughty, so wrath came upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem. 26 Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride in his heart—both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—so that the wrath of ADONAI did not fall upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 Now Hezekiah had very abundant riches and honor. He even made treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and for all kinds of valuables, 28 and storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine and oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds for the flocks. 29 Moreover, he built towns and acquired flocks and herds in abundance, for God had given him very many possessions.

30 It was also Hezekiah who stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon and channeled them downward to the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah succeeded in all that he did. 31 But when the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon were sent to him to inquire about the wonder that had happened in the land, God left him alone to test him, to know all that was in his heart.

Hezekiah's Death and Honor

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 33 So Hezekiah slept with his fathers and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. His son Manasseh became king in his place.

King Manasseh's Transgressions

2 Chronicles 33 [1] Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king, and he reigned 55 years in Jerusalem. [2] He did evil in the sight of ADONAI, just like the abominations of the nations that ADONAI had driven out before Bnei-Yisrael. [3] For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had demolished, he reerected altars for the Baalim, made Asherah poles, and bowed down to all the host of heaven and worshipped them. [4] He built altars in the House of ADONAI—of which ADONAI had said, "My Name will be in Jerusalem forever." [5] He also built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courtyards of the House of ADONAI.
[6] Furthermore, he made his children pass through the fire in the valley of Ben-hinnom and practiced witchcraft, divination and sorcery, and consulted ghosts and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of ADONAI, provoking Him to anger.
[7] Then he placed the carved image of the idol that he had made in the House of God—of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this House and in Jerusalem that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My Name forever. [8] I will never again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for their fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them—all the Torah, the statutes, and the ordinances delivered by the hand of Moses."
[9] But Manasseh led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations whom ADONAI destroyed before Bnei-Yisrael. [10] ADONAI spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

Assyrians Sent to Chasten Manasseh [11] Therefore, ADONAI brought against them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze shackles, and led him to Babylon.

12 In his distress, he entreated ADONAI his God and greatly humbled himself before the God of his fathers. 13 When he prayed to Him, He was moved by his entreaty, heard his plea and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that ADONAI, He is God.
14 Afterward he built an outer wall to the city of David west of Gihon in the valley, as far as the entrance to the Fish Gate, and encircling the Ophel; he also raised it up much higher. He stationed military officers in all the fortified cities of Judah.
15 He also removed the foreign gods and idols from the House of ADONAI, as well as all the altars that he had built on the mount of the House of ADONAI and in Jerusalem and threw them outside the city. 16 He rebuilt the altar of ADONAI and sacrificed on it sacrifices of fellowship and thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve ADONAI the God of Israel. 17 Nevertheless, the people still sacrificed in the high places, but only to ADONAI their God.
18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the Name of ADONAI the God of Israel, behold, they are written in the records of the kings of Israel. 19 His prayer also, and how God was moved by his entreaty, all his sin and his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and erected the Asherah poles and the carved images before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of Hozai.
20 Manasseh slept with his fathers and they buried him in his own house. His son Amon became king in his place.

Wicked King Amon Assassinated 21 Amon was 22 years old when he became king and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. 22 He did what was evil in the sight of ADONAI just as his father Manasseh had done.
Amon sacrificed to all the carved images that Manasseh his father had made, and worshipped them. 23 He did not humble himself before ADONAI as his father Manasseh had humbled himself. Instead Amon increased his guilt. 24 So his servants conspired against him and assassinated him in his own house. 25 Then the people of the land struck down all who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

Josiah Restores the Temple

2 Chronicles 34 1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned 31 years in Jerusalem. 2 He did right in the eyes of ADONAI, and walked in the ways of his father David. He did not turn aside to the right or to the left. 3 In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek after the God of his father David. In the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, the Asherah poles, and the carved and molten images. 4 They tore down the altars of the Baal in his presence and chopped down the sun-images that were above them. Also the Asherah poles and the carved and molten images he smashed into pieces, ground into dust, and scattered upon the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. 5 Then he burned the bones of the priests on their altars
—so he purged Judah and Jerusalem. 6 In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, with their surrounding ruins, 7 he broke down the altars, the Asherah poles, crushed the carved images into powder, and chopped down all the sun-images throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, after purging the land and the House, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the House of ADONAI his God. 9 They came to Hilkiah the kohen gadol and handed over the silver money that was brought into the House of God, which the Levites, the gatekeepers, had collected from Manasseh, Ephraim and all the remnant of Israel, as well as from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 Then they put it in the hands of the workmen who were in charge of the House of ADONAI. The workmen who were working in the House of ADONAI spent it on repairing and restoring the House. 11 They in turn gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone as well as timber—for joining and making beams—for the buildings that the kings of Judah had let fall into ruin. 12 The men did the work faithfully. Over them were appointed Jahath and Obadiah, Levites from the sons of Merari, along with Zechariah and Meshullam from the sons of Kohath, to supervise, while other Levites—all skilled musicians—[13] were over the burden-bearers and supervised all who worked from task to task. Some of the Levites were also scribes, overseers and gatekeepers.

Torah Scroll Found in the Temple [14] While they were bringing out the silver that had been brought into the House of _Adonai_, Hilkiah the _kohen_ found a _Torah_ scroll of _Adonai_ given by Moses. [15] Hilkiah responded by telling Shaphan the scribe, "I have found a scroll of the _Torah_ in the House of _Adonai_." Hilkiah gave the scroll to Shaphan.

[16] Then Shaphan brought the scroll to the king and moreover returned a report to the king, saying, "Your servants are doing everything that was committed to them. [17] They have melted down the silver that was found in the House of ADONAI and handed it over to the overseers and into the hand of the workmen." [18] Shaphan the scribe also said to the king, "Hilkiah the kohen has given me a scroll." Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

[19] When the king heard the words of the Torah, he tore his clothes. [20] The king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, [21] "Go! Inquire of ADONAI for me and for the remnant in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found. For great is the wrath of ADONAI that will be poured out upon us—because our fathers did not observe the word of ADONAI to do according to all that is written in this scroll."

Huldah the Prophetess [22] So Hilkiah, and those whom the king commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tokahath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe—now she was living in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter—and spoke to her about this.

[23] She said to them, “Thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: ‘Tell the man who sent you to me, [24] “Thus says ADONAI, ‘Behold, I am bringing disaster on this place and on its inhabitants—all the curses that are written in the book that they have read before the king of Judah. [25] For they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods in order to provoke Me with all the works of their hands. Therefore, My wrath will be poured out upon this place and it will not be quenched.’” [26] But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of ADONAI, thus you will say to him, “Thus says ADONAI the God of Israel, ‘Regarding the words which you have heard, [27] because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against the inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, tore your clothes, and wept before Me, I have heard you,’ says ADONAI. [28] ‘Behold, I will gather you to your fathers and you will be buried in your grave in shalom. Your eyes will not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place and upon the inhabitants.’”

So they brought her word back to the king.

[29] Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. [30] The king went up to the House of ADONAI with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the kohanim, the Levites, and all the people from the oldest to the youngest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the House of ADONAI.

[31] Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before ADONAI—to follow ADONAI and to observe His mitzvot, His regulations and His decrees with all his heart and with all his soul and to obey the words of the covenant written in this book. [32] Moreover, he made all that were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand with him. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. [33] Josiah removed all the abominations from the whole territory of Bnei-Yisrael and made all who were found in Israel to worship ADONAI their God. All his days they did not turn away from following ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

Josiah Keeps Pesach

2 Chronicles 35 1 Josiah celebrated Passover unto ADONAI in Jerusalem. They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month. 2 He reinstated the kohanim to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the House of ADONAI. 3 He said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were consecrated to ADONAI, “Put the holy Ark in the House which Solomon the son of King David of Israel built.
Since it is no longer a burden on your shoulders now, serve ADONAI your God and His people Israel. 4 Prepare youselves by your ancestral houses in your divisions, according to the writing of King David of Israel and according to the writing of his son Solomon. 5 Stand in the holy place by the divisions of the ancestral houses, by sons of the people and by divisions of ancestral houses of the Levites. 6 Now sanctify yourselves, slaughter the Passover lamb and prepare it for your kinsmen, according to the word of ADONAI by the hand of Moses.” 7 Josiah provided for all the people who were present, flocks of lambs and goats totaling 30,000, all for the Passover offerings, as well as 3,000 bulls—all from the king’s possessions.
8 His officials also gave a freewill offering to the people, the kohanim and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel—the administrators of the House of God—donated to the kohanim
2,600 Passover offerings, and 300 bulls. 9 Likewise, Conaniah along with Shemaiah and Nethaniel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad, leaders of the Levites, provided 5,000 Passover lambs for the Levites and 500 bulls.
10 So the avodah was prepared and the kohanim stood at their posts with the Levites in their divisions according to the king’s command. 11 They slaughtered the Passover lambs and while the kohanim sprinkled the blood handed to them, the Levites flayed them. 12 Then they removed the portions to be burnt to give them to the divisions of ancestral houses of the people to present to ADONAI, as it is written in the book of Moses. They did the same with the bulls. 13 They roasted the Passover lambs with fire according to the ordinance, then boiled the sacred parts in pots, caldrons and pans, and brought them quickly to all the people. 14 Afterward, they made preparations for themselves and for the kohanim, because the kohanim, the sons of Aaron, were busy sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat until nightfall. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the kohanim, the sons of Aaron.

15 The singers, the descendants of Asaph, were at their stations according to the commandment of David, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun, the king's seer. The gatekeepers were at every gate. They did not need to depart from their posts for their fellow Levites provided for them.
16 So on that day the entire service of ADONAI was prepared to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of ADONAI according to the command of King Josiah. 17 The Bnei-Yisrael present celebrated the Passover at that time and observed the Feast of Matzot for seven days. 18 Passover had not been celebrated like that in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet, and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the kohanim, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 19 This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah.

Death of Josiah

20 After all this, when Josiah had set the House in order, King Neco of Egypt came up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates and Josiah went out to engage him. 21 But Neco sent messengers to him saying, “What is there between me and you, king of Judah? I am not coming against you today but against the house that wars with me and God has ordered me to hurry.
Stop for your sake from meddling with God who is with me, so that He will not destroy you!” 22 Josiah, however, would not turn away from him but disguised himself in order to fight him. He did not listen to Neco’s words from the mouth of God and went to fight him in the plain of Megiddo. 23 Archers shot King Josiah and the king said to his servants, “Take me away, for I am seriously wounded.” 24 So his servants carried him out of the chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had. They brought him to Jerusalem where he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned over Josiah.
25 Now Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the singers, male and female, commemorated Josiah in their laments. And they made them an ordinance in Israel and behold, they are written in the lamentations. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion as written in the Torah of ADONAI, 27 and his acts, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Defiance Leads to Devastation

2 Chronicles 36 1 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in Jerusalem in his father's place.
2 Joahaz[13] was 23 years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. 3 The king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and imposed a fine on the land of 100 talents of silver and a talent of gold. 4 The king of Egypt made Eliakim, his brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.
5 Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of ADONAI his God. 6 Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon marched against him and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon.
7 Nebuchadnezzar also took some of the vessels of the House of ADONAI to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon. 8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the detestable things he did, and all that was found against him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.
9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of ADONAI. 10 At the turn of the year, King Nebuchadnezzar sent and had him brought to Babylon along with the precious articles from the House of ADONAI and made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.
11 Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. 12 He did evil in the sight of ADONAI his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet who spoke from the mouth of ADONAI. 13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him take an oath by God. He also stiffened his neck and hardened his heart so as not to turn to ADONAI, the God of Israel.
14 Furthermore, all the leading kohanim and the people became very unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations.

They defiled the House of ADONAI, which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

15 ADONAI, the God of their fathers, sent word to them through His messengers again and again, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. 16 But they mocked the messengers of God and despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets until the wrath of ADONAI rose against His people, until there was no remedy. 17 Therefore He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the House of their Temple. He had no pity on young man or virgin, elderly or infirm—He gave them all into his hand. 18 All the vessels of the House of God, large and small, and the treasures of the House of ADONAI, as well as the treasures of the king and his officers were all brought to Babylon. 19 They burned the House of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all the palaces with fire and destroyed everything of value. 20 He exiled to Babylon those who had escaped the sword and they became slaves to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia—21 in fulfillment of the word of ADONAI by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had paid back her Shabbat rests—for as long as it lay desolate—the Shabbat rest was kept till 70 years were complete.

Proclamation of Cyrus of Persia

22 Now in the first year of King Cyrus of Persia—fulfilling the word of ADONAI by the mouth of Jeremiah—ADONAI stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia so that he sent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom and also put it in writing, saying:
23 “Thus says King Cyrus of Persia ‘ADONAI, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build Him a House in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.
Whoever among you of all His people may go up and may ADONAI his God be with him.’”

Forefathers of Yeshua the Messiah

Matthew 1 1 The book of the genealogy[1] of Yeshua ha-Mashiach, Ben-David,[2] Ben-Avraham: 2 Abraham fathered Isaac, Isaac fathered Jacob, Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers, 3 Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar,[3] Perez fathered Hezron, Hezron fathered Ram, 4 Ram fathered Amminadab, Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon, 5 Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab, Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth,[4] Obed fathered Jesse, 6 and Jesse fathered David the king.

David fathered Solomon by the wife of Uriah,[5] 7 Solomon fathered Rehoboam, Rehoboam fathered Abijah, Abijah fathered Asa, 8 Asa fathered Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, Joram fathered Uzziah, 9 Uzziah fathered Jotham, Jotham fathered Ahaz, Ahaz fathered Hezekiah, 10 Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, Manasseh fathered Amon, Amon fathered Josiah, 11 and Josiah fathered Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

12 After the Babylonian exile Jeconiah fathered Shealtiel, Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel, 13 Zerubbabel fathered Abiud, Abiud fathered Eliakim, Eliakim fathered Azor, 14 Azor fathered Zadok, Zadok fathered Achim, Achim fathered Eliud, 15 Eliud fathered Eleazar, Eleazar fathered Matthan, Matthan fathered Jacob, 16 and Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Miriam, from whom was born Yeshua who is called the Messiah. 17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, from David until the Babylonian exile are fourteen generations, and from the Babylonian exile until the Messiah are fourteen generations.

The Miraculous Birth of Yeshua

18 Now the birth of Yeshua the Messiah happened this way.
When His mother Miriam was engaged to Joseph but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Ruach ha-Kodesh. 19 And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man and not wanting to disgrace her publicly, made up his mind to dismiss her secretly. 20 But while he considered these things, behold, an angel of ADONAI appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Miriam as your wife, for the Child conceived in her is from the Ruach ha-Kodesh. 21 She will give birth to a son; and you shall call His name Yeshua, for He will save His people from their sins.”

22 Now all this took place to fulfill what was spoken by ADONAI through the prophet, saying, 23 “Behold, the virgin shall conceive and give birth to a son, and they shall call His name Immanuel,” which means “God with us.”[6]

24 When Joseph woke up from his sleep, he did as the angel of ADONAI commanded him and took Miriam as his wife. 25 But he did not know her intimately until she had given birth to a Son. And he called His name Yeshua.

Wise Men Follow His Star

Matthew 2 1 Now after Yeshua was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, magi from the east came to Jerusalem, 2 saying, “Where is the One who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him.”[7]

3 When King Herod heard, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 And when he had called together all the ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, he began to inquire of them where the Messiah was to be born. 5 So they told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet:

6 ‘And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
For out of you shall come a ruler
who will shepherd My people Israel.’”[8]

7 Then Herod secretly called the magi and determined from them the exact time the star had appeared. 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search carefully for the Child. And when you have found Him, bring word back to me so that I may come and worship Him as well.”

9 After listening to the king, they went their way. And behold, the star they had seen in the east went on before them, until it came to rest over the place where the Child was. 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great gladness. 11 And when they came into the house, they saw the Child with His mother Miriam; and they fell down and worshiped Him. Then, opening their treasures, they presented to Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.[9] 12 And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their own country by another way.

The Angel of Adonai Appears

13 Now when they had gone, behold, an angel of ADONAI appears to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the Child, to kill Him.”[10] 14 So he got up, took the Child and His mother during the night, and went to Egypt. 15 He stayed there until Herod’s death. This was to fulfill what was spoken by ADONAI through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called My son.”[11] 16 Then when Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he became furious. And he sent and killed all boys in Bethlehem and in all its surrounding area, from two years old and under, according to the time he had determined from the magi. 17 Then was fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremiah
the prophet, saying,

18 “A voice is heard in Ramah,
weeping and loud wailing,

Rachel sobbing for her children
and refusing to be comforted,
because they are no more.”[12]

19 But when Herod died, behold, an angel of Adonai appears in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 saying, “Get up! Take the Child and His mother and go to the land of Israel, for those seeking the Child’s life are dead.” 21 So he got up, took the Child and His mother, and went to the land of Israel. 22 But hearing that Archelaus was king of Judea in place of his father Herod, he became afraid to go there. Then after being warned in a dream, he withdrew to the region of the Galilee. 23 And he went and lived in a city called Natzeret,[13] to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets, that Yeshua shall be called a Natzrati.

John's Witness to Israel's Leaders

Matthew 3 1 In those days, John the Immerser came proclaiming in the wilderness of Judea, 2 "Turn away from your sins, for the kingdom of heaven is near!"[14] 3 For he is the one Isaiah the prophet spoke about, saying,

> "The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
> 'Prepare the way of ADONAI, and make His paths
> straight.'"[15]

4 Now John wore clothing from camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts[16] and wild honey.
5 Then Jerusalem was going out to him, and all Judea and all the region around the Jordan. 6 Confessing their sins, they were being immersed by him in the Jordan River.
7 But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his immersion, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? 8 Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance; 9 and do not think that you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father'! For I tell you that from these stones God can raise up children for Abraham.
10 Already the axe is laid at the root of the trees; therefore every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire!
11 "As for me, I immerse you in water for repentance. But the One coming after me is mightier than I am; I am not worthy to carry His sandals. He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and fire. 12 His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He shall clear His threshing floor and gather His wheat into the barn;
but the chaff He shall burn up with inextinguishable fire."[17]

The Heavens Open at Yeshua's Mikveh

13 Then Yeshua came from the Galilee to John, to be immersed by him in the Jordan. 14 But John tried to prevent Him, saying,

“I need to be immersed by You, and You are coming to me?”
15 But Yeshua responded, “Let it happen now, for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.” So John yielded to Him.
16 After being immersed, Yeshua rose up out of the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Ruach Elohim[18] descending like a dove and coming upon Him.
17 And behold, a voice from the heavens said, “This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased!”[19]

Overcoming Temptation with God's Word

Matthew 4 [1] Then Yeshua was led by the Ruach into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. [2] After He had fasted for forty days and forty nights, He was hungry. [3] And when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are Ben-Elohim, tell these stones to become bread." [4] But He replied, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"[20]
[5] Then the devil took Him into the holy city and placed Him on the highest point of the Temple. [6] "If You are Ben-Elohim," he said, "throw Yourself down. For it is written,

> 'He shall command His angels concerning you,'[21]
> and 'upon their hands they shall lift you up,
> so that you may not strike your foot against a > stone.'"[22]

[7] Yeshua said to him, "Again it is written, 'You shall not put ADONAI your God to the test.'"[23] [8] Again, the devil takes Him to a very high mountain and shows Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. [9] And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me."
[10] Then Yeshua says to him, "Go away, satan! For it is written,
'You shall worship ADONAI your God, and Him only shall you serve.'"[24] [11] Then the devil leaves Him. And behold, angels came and began to take care of Him.

Yeshua Withdraws to Seek God

[12] Now when Yeshua heard that John had been handed over,
He withdrew to the Galilee. [13] Leaving Natzeret, He came and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali. 14 This was to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

15 “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the nations—
16 the people sitting in darkness have seen a great light,
and those sitting in the region and shadow of death,
on them a light has dawned.”[25]

17 From then on, Yeshua began to proclaim, “Turn away from your sins, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

Raising Up Fishers of Men

[18] Now as Yeshua was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon who was called Peter and Andrew his brother. They were casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. [19] And He said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.” [20] Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.
[21] Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, Jacob the son of Zebedee and John his brother. They were in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and He called them. [22] Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed Him.
[23] Yeshua was going throughout all the Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness among the people. [24] News about Him spread throughout all Syria. And they brought to Him all the sick—those tormented by various diseases and afflictions, those plagued by demons, the epileptics, the paralyzed—and He healed them. [25] And large crowds followed Him from the Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

Drash on the Mountain

Matthew 5 1 Now when Yeshua saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain. And after He sat down, His disciples came to Him. 2 And He opened His mouth and began to teach them,
saying,

3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 “Blessed are those who mourn,
for they shall be comforted.
5 “Blessed are the meek,
for they shall inherit the earth.
6 “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for
righteousness,
for they shall be satisfied.
7 “Blessed are the merciful,
for they shall be shown mercy.
8 “Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they shall see God.
9 “Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they shall be called sons of God.
10 “Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 “Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, on account of Me.
12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great! For in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before
you.”[26]

Called to Be Salt and Light

13 “You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt should lose its flavor, how shall it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled under foot by men.
14 “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket. Instead, they put it on a lampstand so it gives light to all in the house. 16 In the same way, let your light shine before men so they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.”

Filling the Law to the Fullest

17 “Do not think that I came to abolish the Torah or the Prophets! I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill. 18 Amen, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or serif[27] shall ever pass away from the Torah until all things come to pass. 19 Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others the same, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps and teaches them, this one shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the Pharisees and Torah scholars, you shall never enter the kingdom of heaven!
21 “You have heard it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not murder,[28] and whoever commits murder shall be subject to judgment.’ 22 But I tell you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be subject to judgment. And whoever says to his brother, ‘Raca’ shall be subject to the council[29]; and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ shall be subject to fiery Gehenna.
23 “Therefore if you are presenting your offering upon the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your offering there before the altar and go.
First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.
25 “Make friends quickly with your opponent while you are with him on the way. Otherwise, your opponent may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the assistant, and you will be thrown into prison. 26 Amen, I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid back the last penny![30]

27 “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’[31] 28 But I tell you that everyone who looks upon a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 And if your right eye causes you to stumble, gouge it out and throw it away! It is better for you that one part of your body should be destroyed, than that your whole body be thrown into Gehenna.[32] 30 And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away! It is better for you that one part of your body should be destroyed, than that your whole body go into Gehenna.

31 “It was said, ‘Whoever sends his wife away, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’[33] 32 But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

33 “Again, you have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but shall carry out your oaths to Adonai.’[34] 34 But I tell you, do not swear at all—not by heaven, for it is the throne of God; 35 or by the earth, for it is the footstool of His feet;[35] or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King.[36] 36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. 37 But let your word ‘Yes’ be ‘Yes’ and your ‘No,’ ‘No’—anything more than this is from the evil one.”

Overcoming Evil with Good

38 “You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’[37] 39 But I tell you, do not resist an evildoer.
But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn to him also the other. 40 And the one wanting to sue you and to take your shirt, let him also have your coat. 41 Whoever forces you to go one mile, go with him two. 42 Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.
43 “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor[38] and hate your enemy.’ 44 But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 so that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Even the tax collectors do the same, don’t they? 47 And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than anyone else? Even the pagans do that, don’t they?
48 Therefore be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.”

Righteous Living

Matthew 6 1 “Beware of practicing your righteousness before others to be seen by them; otherwise you have no reward from your Father in heaven. 2 So whenever you do tzedakah, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, so that they may be glorified by men. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! 3 But when you do tzedakah, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 so that your tzedakah may be in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you.
5 “When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! 6 But you, when you pray, go into your inner room; and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you. 7 And when you are praying, do not babble on and on like the pagans; for they think they will be heard because of their many words. 8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.
9 “Therefore, pray in this way:

‘Our Father in heaven,
sanctified be Your name.
10 Your kingdom come,

Your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
11 Give us this day our daily bread.
12 And forgive us our debts
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
13 And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.’[39]

14 “For if you forgive others their transgressions, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 But if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your transgressions.

16 “And whenever you fast, do not become sad-faced like the hypocrites, for they neglect their faces to make their fasting evident to men. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! 17 But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, 18 so that your fasting won’t be evident to men, but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.[40]

19 “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust[41] destroy and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in or steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. Therefore if your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is bad, your body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

24 “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick by one and look down on the other. You cannot serve God and money.”[42]

Overcoming Worry with Trust

25 “So I say to you, do not worry about your life—what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Isn’t life more than food and the body more than clothing?
26 “Look at the birds of the air. They do not sow or reap or gather into barns; yet your Father in heaven feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? 27 And which of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?[43] 28 And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They neither toil nor spin. 29 Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these.[44]
30 Now if in this way God clothes the grass—which is here today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow—will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?
31 “Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ 32 For the pagans eagerly pursue all these things; yet your Father in heaven knows that you need all these. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. 34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

Measuring Your Measure

Matthew 7 1 “Stop judging, so that you may not be judged. 2 For with the judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.
3 “Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye, but do not notice the beam in your own eye? 4 Or how will you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ and look, the beam is in your own eye? 5 Hypocrite, first take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye.
6 “Do not give what is holy to dogs or throw your pearls before pigs; otherwise they will trample them under their feet,
then turn and rip you to shreds.
7 “Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find.
Knock, and it shall be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it shall be opened.
9 “For what man among you, when his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? 10 Or when he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? 11 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! 12 So in all things, do to others what you would want them to do to you—for this is the Torah and the Prophets.
13 “Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and those who enter through it are many. 14 How narrow is the gate and difficult the way that leads to life, and those who find it are few.”

Judging the Fruit

15 “Watch out for false prophets,[45] who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. 16 You will recognize them by their fruit. Grapes aren’t gathered from thorn bushes or figs from thistles, are they? 17 Even so, every good tree produces good fruit, but the rotten tree produces bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, nor can a rotten tree produce good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire. 20 So then,
you will recognize them by their fruit.

21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord!’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, didn’t we prophesy in Your name, and drive out demons in Your name, and perform many miracles in Your name?’ 23 Then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you. Get away from Me, you workers of lawlessness!’”[46]

Building on a Firm Foundation

[24] “Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. [25] And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house; and yet it did not fall, for its foundation had been built on the rock. [26] Everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. [27] And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house; and it fell—and great was its fall.”

[28] Now when Yeshua had finished these words, the crowds were astounded at His teaching, [29] for He was teaching them as one having authority and not as their Torah scholars.

Healing Those who Trust

Matthew 8 1 When He came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him. 2 And a man with tzara'at came to Him and bowed down before Him, saying, "Master, if You are willing, You can make me clean."
3 Yeshua stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be cleansed." Immediately his tzara'at was cleansed. 4 And Yeshua said to him, "See that you tell no one;
but go show yourself to the kohen and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."[47] 5 Now when Yeshua came into Capernaum, a centurion came begging for help. 6 "Master," he said, "my servant is lying at home paralyzed, horribly tormented."
7 Yeshua said to him, "I'll come and heal him."
8 But the centurion said, "Master, I'm not worthy to have You come under my roof. But just say the word and my servant will be healed. 9 For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another,
'Come!' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this!' and he does it."
10 Now when Yeshua heard this, He marveled and said to those who were following, "Amen, I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith! 11 Moreover, I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and they will recline at table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. 12 But the sons of the kingdom will be driven out into the outer darkness; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 13 Then Yeshua said to the centurion, "Go. As you have believed, let it be done for you." And the servant was healed in that same hour.
14 And when Yeshua came into Peter's house, He saw Peter's mother-in-law lying down, sick with a fever. 15 Yeshua touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began to take care of Him.

16 When evening came, the people brought to Him many who were afflicted by demons. He forced out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. 17 So was fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

> “He Himself took our sicknesses > and carried away our diseases.”[48]

Following the Call

[18] Now when Yeshua saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to go to the other side of the sea. [19] Then a Torah scholar came to Him and said, “Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go.”
[20] Yeshua tells him, “Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.” [21] Then another of the disciples said, “Master, first let me go and bury my father.”
[22] But Yeshua tells him, “Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Master of the Storm

23 As He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him.
24 Suddenly a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves. But Yeshua kept on sleeping. 25 So they came and woke Him up, saying, “Master, save us! We’re perishing!”
26 He said to them, “Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became totally calm.
27 The men were amazed, saying, “What kind of person is this? Even the winds and the sea obey Him!”

Freedom from Demons

28 When He came to the other side, into the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-plagued men coming from the graveyard[49] met Him. They were so violent that no one could pass by that way. 29 And they screamed, “What’s between You and us,[50] Ben-Elohim? Have You come here to torment us, before the appointed time?”

30 Now a large herd of pigs was feeding some distance away from them. 31 The demons kept begging Him, “If You drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

32 And He told them, “Go!” So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the cliff into the sea and drowned. 33 The herdsmen ran away, went into the town, and told everything, including what had happened to the demon-plagued men. 34 The whole town came out to meet Yeshua. And when they saw him, they begged Him to leave their region.

Authority to Pardon Sins

Matthew 9 [1] After getting into a boat, Yeshua crossed over and came to His own town. [2] Just then, some people brought to Him a paralyzed man lying on a cot. And seeing their faith, Yeshua said to the paralyzed man, “Take courage, son! Your sins are forgiven.”
[3] Then some of the Torah scholars said among themselves,
“This fellow blasphemes!”
[4] And knowing their thoughts, Yeshua said, “Why are you entertaining evil in your hearts? [5] For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? [6] But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to pardon sins…” Then He tells the paralyzed man, “Get up, take your cot and go home.” [7] And he got up and went home. [8] When the crowd saw it, they were afraid and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

A Physician for Sinners

9 As Yeshua was passing by from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector’s booth. He said to him, “Follow Me.” And he got up and followed Him.

10 Now it happened that when Yeshua was reclining at the table in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Yeshua and His disciples. 11 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to His disciples, “Why does this Teacher of yours eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

12 But when He heard this, Yeshua said, “Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. 13 Now go and learn what this means: ‘Mercy I desire, and not sacrifice.’[51] For I didn’t come to call the righteous, but the sinful.”

Teaching New Ways

14 Then John's disciples came to Him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"[52] 15 And Yeshua said to them, "The guests of the bridegroom cannot mourn while the bridegroom is with them, can they?
But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away
from them, and then they will fast.
16 "And no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch pulls away from the garment and a worse tear happens. 17 Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise the skins burst, and the wine spills out and the skins are ruined. But they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

Compassion in the Shepherd's Touch

18 Just as He was saying these things to them, a synagogue leader came and began to bow before Him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come lay Your hand on her and she will live." 19 And Yeshua got up and began to follow him, with His disciples.
20 Just then a woman, losing blood for twelve years,[53] came from behind and touched the tzitzit of His garment. 21 For she kept saying to herself, "If only I touch His garment, I will be healed."
22 But then Yeshua turned and saw her. "Take heart, daughter," He said, "your faith has made you well." That very hour the woman was healed.
23 When Yeshua came into the synagogue leader's house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd wailing, 24 He said,
"Go away, for the girl isn't dead, but sleeping." And they began jeering at Him. 25 But when the crowd had been cleared out, He went in and took her hand, and the girl got up. 26 And news of this spread all around that region.

[27] As Yeshua went on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, “Ben-David, have mercy on us!”
[28] When He went into the house, the blind men came to Him.
And Yeshua said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?”
“Yes, Master,” they said to Him.
[29] Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith, let it be done for you.” [30] And their eyes were opened. And Yeshua warned them sternly, “See that no one knows.” [31] But they went out and spread the news about Him all around that region.
[32] As they were going out, a mute man plagued by a demon was brought to Him. [33] After the demon was driven out, the mute man started speaking. The crowds were astounded, saying, “Never has anything like this been seen in Israel!” [34] But the Pharisees were saying, “By the prince of demons He drives out demons.”
[35] Now Yeshua was going around all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness.
[36] When He saw the crowds, He felt compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.[54] [37] Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. [38] Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest that He may send out workers into His harvest field.”

Instructions to the Twelve

Matthew 10 1 Yeshua summoned His twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, so they could drive them out and heal every kind of disease and sickness. 2 Now these are the names of the twelve emissaries: first, Simon, called Peter, and his brother Andrew; Jacob the son of Zebedee and John his brother; 3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; Jacob, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; 4 Simon the Zealot,[55] and Judah the man from Kriot,[56] the one who also betrayed Him.

5 Yeshua sent out these twelve and ordered them, “Do not go to the Gentiles, and do not enter into any Samaritan town. 6 But go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 As you go, proclaim, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near!’ 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those with tzara’at, drive out demons. Freely you received, freely give. 9 Do not get gold or silver or copper for your money belts, 10 or a bag for the journey, or two shirts,[57] or sandals, or a walking stick; for the worker is entitled to his food.

11 “Whatever town or village you shall enter, find out who in it is worthy and stay there until you leave. 12 As you come into the house, greet it. 13 If the household is worthy, let your shalom come upon it. But if it’s not worthy, let your shalom return to you. 14 And whoever will not receive you or listen to your words, as you leave that house or that town, shake the dust off your feet. 15 Amen, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah[58] on the Day of Judgment than for that town.

16 “Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. 17 But beware of men, for they will hand you over to the courts and flog[59] you in their synagogues. 18 You will be brought before governors and kings because of Me, as a witness to them and to the Gentiles. 19 But when they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you should say, for it shall be given to you in that hour what you should say. 20 For it is not you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

21 “Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against their parents and have them put to death. 22 And you will be hated by all because of My name, but the one who endures to the end shall be saved.
23 Whenever they persecute you in one city, flee to the next.
Amen, I tell you, you will never finish going through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.
24 “A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a slave above his master. 25 It is enough for the disciple to become like his teacher, and the slave like his master. If they have called the head of the house beelzebul, how much more the members of his household!
26 “So do not fear them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed and nothing hidden that will not be made known. 27 What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light;
and what you hear in your ear, proclaim from the housetops!
28 And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Instead, fear the One who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.[60] 29 “Are not two sparrows sold for a penny?[61] Yet not one of them shall fall to the ground apart from your Father’s consent.
30 But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 So do not fear; you are worth more than many sparrows.
32 “Therefore whoever acknowledges Me before men, I will also acknowledge him before My Father who is in heaven.
33 But whoever denies Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father who is in heaven.
34 “Do not think that I came to bring shalom on the earth; I did not come to bring shalom, but a sword. 35 For I have come to set

> ‘a man against his father, > a daughter against her mother, and > a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

36 and a man’s enemies will be the members of his household.’[62]

37 “He who loves father or mother more than Me isn’t worthy of Me, and he who loves son or daughter more than Me isn’t worthy of Me. 38 And whoever does not take up his cross and follow after Me isn’t worthy of Me. 39 He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.
40 “He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives the One who sent Me. 41 He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet’s reward, and he who receives a tzaddik in the name of a tzaddik shall receive a tzaddik’s reward. 42 And whoever gives to one of these little ones even a cup of cold water in the name of a disciple, amen I tell you, he shall never lose his reward.”

Signs and Wonders Bear Witness

Matthew 11 1 When Yeshua had finished instructing His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and preach in their towns. 2 Now when John heard in prison about the works of the Messiah, he sent word through his disciples 3 and said to Yeshua, “Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?”
4 Yeshua replied, “Go report to John what you hear and see:
5 the blind see and the lame walk, those with tzara’at are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised and the poor have good news proclaimed to them. 6 Blessed is the one who is not led to stumble because of Me.”[63]

A Prophet Without Honor

7 Now as they were leaving, Yeshua began to talk to the crowd concerning John. “What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 8 No? So what did you go out to see? A man dressed in finery? Look, those who wear finery are in the palaces of kings! 9 Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, even more than a prophet.
10 This is the one about whom it is written,

> ‘Behold, I send My messenger before You,
> who will prepare Your way before You.’[64]

11 “Amen, I tell you, among those born of women, none has arisen greater than John the Immerser. Yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 From the days of John the Immerser until now, the kingdom of heaven is treated with violence, and the violent grasp hold of it. 13 For all the prophets and the Torah prophesied until the time of John. 14 And if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come. 15 He who has ears, let him hear!
16 “But to what shall I compare this generation? It’s like children sitting in the marketplaces who call to one other,
saying,

17 ‘We played the flute for you,
but you did not dance.
We wailed,
but you did not mourn.’

18 “For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say,
‘He has a demon!’ 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is vindicated by her
deeds.”[65]

20 Then Yeshua began to denounce the towns where most of His miracles had happened, because they did not turn from their sins. 21 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon,[66]
they would have turned long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
22 Nevertheless I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the Day of Judgment than for you. 23 And you, Capernaum? Will you be lifted up to heaven? No, you will go down to Sheol! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. 24 Nevertheless I tell you that it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom on the Day of Judgment than for you.”

Yeshua Teaches the Ways of His Father

25 At that time Yeshua said in response, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and discerning and revealed them to infants.
26 Yes, Father, for this way was pleasing to You.
27 “All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son[67] and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him. 28 Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. 29 Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and ‘you will find rest for your souls.’[68] 30 For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

The Lord of Shabbat

Matthew 12 1 At that time Yeshua went through the grain fields on Shabbat. His disciples became hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. 2 But when the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, “Look, Your disciples are doing what is not permitted on Shabbat.”
3 But He said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did when he became hungry, and those with him? 4 How he entered into the house of God, and they ate the showbread, which was not permitted for him to eat, nor for those with him, but only for the kohanim?[69] 5 Or haven’t you read in the Torah that on Shabbat the kohanim in the Temple break Shabbat and yet are innocent? 6 But I tell you that something greater than the Temple is here. 7 If you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice,’[70] you wouldn’t have condemned the innocent. 8 For the Son of Man is Lord of Shabbat.” 9 Leaving from there, He went into their synagogue. 10 A man with a withered hand was there. And so that they might accuse Him, they questioned Yeshua, saying, “Is it permitted to heal
on Shabbat?”
11 He said to them, “What man among you will not grab his sheep and lift it out, if it falls into a pit on Shabbat? 12 How much more valuable then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is permitted to do good on Shabbat.” 13 Then He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out and it was restored, as healthy as the other.
14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

God’s Chosen Servant Brings Hope

15 Knowing this, Yeshua went away from there. And large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all. 16 And He sternly warned them not to make Him known. 17 This was to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

18 “Here is My servant whom I chose,
the One I love, in whom My soul takes delight.
I will put My Ruach upon Him,
and He shall proclaim justice to the nations.
19 He will not quarrel or cry out,
nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.
20 A crushed reed He will not break,
and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out,
until He brings forth justice to victory.
21 And in His name the nations shall hope.”[71]

Whose Power Will Rule?

22 Then a demon-plagued man, who was blind and mute, was brought to Yeshua; and He healed him, so that he spoke and saw. 23 All the crowds were astounded and saying, “This can’t be Ben-David, can it?”

24 But hearing this, the Pharisees said, “This fellow drives out demons only by beelzebul, the ruler of demons.”

25 Knowing their thoughts, Yeshua said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is destroyed, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26 If satan drives out satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand? 27 And if I drive out demons by beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason, they will be your judges. 28 But if I drive out demons by the Ruach Elohim, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. 29 Or how can one enter a strong man’s house and carry off his property, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he will thoroughly plunder his house. 30 He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

31 “For this reason I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but blasphemy against the Ruach will not be forgiven. 32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Ruach ha-Kodesh will not be forgiven, neither in this age nor in the one to come.”

[33] “Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten; for the tree is known by its fruit.
[34] You brood of vipers! How can you who are evil say anything good? For from the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks.
[35] The good man from his good treasury brings forth good, and the evil man from his evil treasury brings forth evil. [36] But I tell you that on the Day of Judgment, men will give account for every careless word they speak. [37] For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

A Sign Greater than Jonah

38 Then some of the Torah scholars and Pharisees answered
Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.”
39 But Yeshua replied to them, “An evil and adulterous generation clamors for a sign, yet no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. 40 For just as Jonah was in the belly of the great fish for three days and three nights,[72] so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights. 41 The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah. And behold, something greater than Jonah is here. 42 The Queen of the South[73] will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And behold, something greater than Solomon is here.
43 “Now when an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places looking for rest and doesn’t find it.
44 Then it says, ‘I’ll go back home where I came from.’ And when it comes, it finds the house vacant, swept clean, and put in order. 45 Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there. And that man’s last condition becomes worse than the first. So also will it be for this evil generation.”

Embrace and Refrain

46 While Yeshua was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and brothers were standing outside, trying to speak to Him.
47 Someone said to Him, “Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, trying to speak to You.”[74] 48 But to the one telling Him this, Yeshua responded, “Who is My mother? And who are My brothers?” 49 Stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers. 50 For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, he is My brother and sister and mother.”

Simple Stories, Profound Truths

Matthew 13 1 On that day after Yeshua left the house, He was sitting by the sea. 2 And large crowds gathered around Him; so He got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood on the shore. 3 And He told them many things in parables, saying, “Behold, a sower went out to spread some seed. 4 As he was scattering the seed, some seeds fell by the road; and the birds came and ate them up. 5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they didn’t have much soil. They sprang up immediately, because the soil wasn’t deep. 6 But when the sun came up, they were scorched; and because they had no roots, they withered away. 7 Other seeds fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew and choked them out. 8 But others fell on good soil and were producing fruit. They yielded a crop—some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 He who has ears,[75] let him hear.” 10 Then the disciples came to Him and said, “Why do You speak to them in parables?”
11 And He replied to them, “To you has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. 12 For whoever has, to him more will be given and he will have plenty. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 13 For this reason I speak to them in parables,

because seeing they do not see,
and hearing they do not hear nor do they understand.

14 “And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

‘You will keep on hearing
but will never understand;
you will keep looking,
but will never see.
15 For the heart of this people has become dull,

their ears can barely hear, and they have shut their
eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts.
Then they would turn back,
and I would heal them.’[76]

16 “But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. 17 Amen, I tell you, many a prophet and tzaddik longed to see what you are seeing and did not see, and to hear what you are hearing and did not hear.”

Parable of the Sower Explained

18 “You then, hear the parable of the sower. 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and doesn’t understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart.
This is the one having been sown along the road.
20 “The one sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy. 21 Yet he has no root himself but lasts only a short while; and when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he falls away.
22 “But the one sown among the thorns, this is the one who hears the word; and the worries of the world and the seduction of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
23 “Now the one sown on the good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands. He indeed bears fruit, yielding a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty times what was sown.”

Yeshua Tells More Parables

24 He presented to them another parable, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. 25 But while the men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. 26 Now when the stalk sprouted and produced grain, then the weeds also appeared. 27 So the slaves of the landowner came and said to him, ‘Master, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Then where did the weeds come from?’ 28 But he replied, ‘An enemy did this.’ Now the slaves say to him, ‘Do you want us, then, to go out and gather them up?’ 29 But he says, ‘No, for while you are gathering up the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time, I will tell the reapers, “First, gather up the weeds and tie them in bundles to burn them up; but gather the wheat into my barn.’”

31 He presented to them another parable, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. 32 It’s the smallest of all seeds; yet when it’s full grown, it’s greater than the other herbs. It becomes like a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest
in its branches.”[77] 33 He told them another parable, “The kingdom of heaven is like hametz, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened.”
34 All these things Yeshua spoke to the crowds in parables.
And apart from a parable, He wasn’t speaking to them, 35 in order to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet, saying,

> “I will open My mouth in parables,
> I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the > world.”[78]

36 Then He sent the crowds away and went into the house. His disciples came to Him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.”
37 He answered, “The one sowing the good seed is the Son of Man, 38 and the field is the world. And the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the weeds are the sons of the evil
one. 39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. 40 Therefore just as the weeds are gathered up and burned with fire, so shall it be at the end of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all stumbling blocks[79] and those who practice lawlessness. 42 They will throw them into the fiery furnace[80]; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun[81] in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear!
44 “The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid. And because of his joy, he goes out and sells all that he has and buys that field.

45 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. 46 Upon finding a pearl of great value, he went out and sold all that he had and bought it.
47 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea, gathering things of every kind. 48 When it was filled, they pulled it ashore; and they sat down and gathered up the good into containers, but threw the bad away. 49 So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth and separate the wicked from among the righteous 50 and throw them into the fiery furnace;[82] in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
51 “Have you understood all these things?”
They said to Him, “Yes.”
52 Then He said to them, “Therefore every Torah scholar discipled for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure both new things and old.”

Unbelief in the Hometown Synagogue

53 Now when Yeshua had finished these parables, He left that place. 54 Coming into His hometown, He began to teach them in their synagogue so that they were amazed. “Where did this fellow get this wisdom and these mighty works?” they said.
55 “Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t His mother called Miriam, and His brothers Jacob and Joseph and Simon and Judah? 56 And His sisters, aren’t they all with us? So where does
He get all these things?” 57 And they took offense at Him.

But Yeshua said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own house.” 58 And He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Yeshua’s Cousin Beheaded

Matthew 14 1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Yeshua. 2 He said to his servants, “This is John the Immerser—he has risen from the dead! Because of this, these powers are at work in Him.” 3 For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, 4 because John had been telling him, “It is not permitted for you to have her.”[83] 5 Although Herod wanted to kill John, he feared the crowd because they considered John a prophet.
6 But when Herod’s birthday celebration came, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod, 7 so much that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. 8 Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me the head of John the Immerser, here on a platter!” 9 The king became sorrowful; but because of his oaths and those reclining with him, he commanded it to be given. 10 And he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. 11 His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. 12 John’s disciples came forth and took the body and buried it. Then they went and reported to Yeshua.

Feeding Hungry Followers

13 Now when Yeshua heard this, He went away from there privately by boat to an isolated place. But when the crowds heard, they followed Him on foot from the towns. 14 As Yeshua came ashore, He saw a large crowd and felt compassion for them and healed their sick. 15 When it became evening, the disciples came to Him, saying, “This place is isolated, and the hour is already late. Send the crowds away so they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” 16 But Yeshua said to them, “They don’t need to leave—you give them something to eat.”
17 “We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish,”
they said to Him.
18 “Bring them here to Me,” He said.
19 Ordering the crowd to recline on the grass, He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha. After breaking the loaves, He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. 20 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of broken pieces left over. 21 Now those eating were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Testing Peter’s Faith to Walk on Water

22 Right away, Yeshua made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away. 23 After He had sent the crowds away, He went up on the hillside by Himself to pray. And when evening came,
He was there alone. 24 But the boat was already a long way[84]
from land, tossed around by the waves, for the wind was against it. 25 Now in the fourth watch[85] of the night, Yeshua came to them, walking on the sea. 26 But when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It’s a ghost!” And they cried out with fear.

[27] But immediately, Yeshua spoke to them, saying, “Take courage! I am. Don’t be afraid.”
[28] Answering, Peter said to Him, “Master, if it’s You, command me to come to You on the water.”
[29] And He said, “Come!”
And Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water to go to Yeshua. [30] But seeing the wind, he became terrified. And beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, “Master, save me!”
[31] Immediately Yeshua reached out His hand and grabbed him. And He said to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?”
[32] When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. [33] And those in the boat worshiped Him, saying, “You really are Ben-Elohim!”[86]
[34] After they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. [35] And when the men of that place recognized Yeshua, they sent word into all the surrounding region. And they brought to Him all those who were in bad shape [36] and kept begging Him that they might just touch the tzitzit of His garment—and all who touched it were cured.

Religious Leaders Quiz Yeshua

Matthew 15 1 Then some Pharisees and Torah scholars came to Yeshua from Jerusalem. They said, 2 “Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not do the ritual handwashing when they eat bread.” 3 And answering, He said to them, “Why do you also transgress the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? 4 For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’[87] and ‘He who speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death.’[88] 5 But you say, ‘Whoever tells his father or mother, “Whatever you might have gained from me is a gift to God,”[89]
6 he need not honor his father.’ On account of your tradition, you made void the word of God. 7 Hypocrites! Rightly did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying,

8 ‘This people honors Me with their lips,
but their heart is far from Me.
9 And in vain they worship Me,
teaching as doctrines the commandments of
men.’”[90]

10 Then Yeshua called the crowd and said to them, “Hear and understand. 11 It’s not what goes into the mouth that makes the man unholy; but what comes out of the mouth, this makes the man unholy.”[91]
12 Then the disciples came and said to Him, “Do You know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard this saying?” 13 But He replied, “Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. 14 Leave them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit.”
15 Then Peter answered and said to Him, “Explain this parable to us.”
16 “Are you also still lacking understanding?” Yeshua said.
17 “Don’t you grasp that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and then is ejected into the sewer? 18 But the things that proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and those things make the man unholy. 19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, and slander.[92] 20 These are the things that make the man unholy; but to eat with unwashed hands does not make the man unholy."

A Reward for a Humble Woman

21 Now Yeshua left from there and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And behold, a Canaanite woman from that district came out and started shouting, "Have mercy on me, O Master, Ben-David! My daughter is severely tormented by a demon."
23 But He did not answer her a word. And when His disciples came, they were urging Him, saying, "Send her away, because she keeps shouting at us."
24 But He responded, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."
25 So she came and got down on her knees before Him, saying, "Master, help me!"
26 And answering, He said, "It's not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." 27 But she said, "Yes, Master, but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." 28 Then answering, Yeshua said to her, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed in that very hour.
29 After Yeshua left there, He went along the Sea of Galilee.
Then He went up on a mountainside and was sitting there.
30 And large crowds came to Him, bringing with them the lame, blind, disabled, mute, and many others. And they laid them at His feet, and He healed them. 31 So the crowd marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the disabled made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing.[93] And they praised the God of Israel.

Feeding More Hungry Followers

32 Yeshua called His disciples and said, “I have compassion for the crowd, because they’ve stayed with Me for three days now and have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry, because they might pass out on the way.” 33 The disciples said to Him, “Where in this wasteland is enough bread to satisfy such a large crowd?”
34 Yeshua said to them, “How many loaves do you have?”
“Seven,” they said, “and a few small fish.” 35 After directing the crowd to recline on the ground, 36 He took the seven loaves and the fish; and after giving thanks, He broke them. And He began giving them to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. 37 And they all ate and were satisfied.
And they picked up the broken pieces left over—seven baskets full. 38 And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39 And after sending away the crowds, Yeshua got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

Religious Leaders Demand Signs

Matthew 16 1 Now the Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and testing Yeshua, they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven. 2 But He replied to them, “When evening comes, you say, ‘Fair weather coming, for the sky is red,’ 3 and in the morning, ‘Stormy weather today, for the sky is red and gloomy.’ You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times! 4 An evil and adulterous generation clamors for a sign, yet no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.”[94] And leaving them behind, He went away.
5 Now when the disciples came to the other side of the sea, they had forgotten to take bread. 6 “Watch out,” Yeshua said to them, “and beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” 7 And they began to discuss among themselves, saying, “We didn’t bring any bread.”
8 But knowing this, Yeshua said, “O you of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves that you have no bread? 9 You still don’t get it? Don’t you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets of leftovers you gathered? 10 Or how about the seven loaves for the four thousand and all the baskets of leftovers you gathered? 11 How is it that you don’t understand that I wasn’t talking to you about bread? Now beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and Sadducees!” 12 Then they understood that He wasn’t talking about the hametz in the bread, but about the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

The Father Reveals His Son

13 When Yeshua came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?”
14 They answered, “Some say John the Immerser, others say Elijah, and still others say Jeremiah or one of the other prophets.”
15 He said, “But who do you say I am?” 16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.”
17 Yeshua said to him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven! 18 And I also tell you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My community[95]; and the gates of Sheol will not overpower it. 19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you forbid on earth will have been forbidden in heaven and what you permit on earth will have been permitted in heaven.” 20 Then He ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that He was the Messiah.

First Prediction: Death and Resurrection

21 From that time on, Yeshua began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed,
and be raised on the third day.
22 Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, “Never, Master! This must never happen to You!”
23 But He turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, satan!
You are a stumbling block to Me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of men.” 24 Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “If anyone wants to follow after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. 25 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world but forfeits his soul?

Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? 27 For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then ‘He will repay everyone according to his deeds.’[96] 28 Amen, I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.”

Two Witnesses and a Voice from Heaven

Matthew 17 1 After six days, Yeshua takes with Him Peter and Jacob and John his brother, and brings them up a high mountain by themselves. 2 Now He was transfigured before them; His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. 3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Yeshua. 4 Peter responded to Yeshua, “Master, it’s good for us to be here! If You wish, I will make three sukkot here—one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”[97]

5 While He was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them; and behold, a voice from out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased. Listen to Him!”[98]

6 When the disciples heard this, they fell face down, terrified.
7 But Yeshua came and touched them. “Get up,” He said. “Stop being afraid.” 8 And lifting their eyes, they saw no one except Yeshua alone.

9 As they were coming down from the mountain, Yeshua commanded them, saying, “Do not tell anyone about the vision until the Son of Man is raised from the dead.”

10 The disciples questioned Him, saying, “Why then do the Torah scholars say that Elijah must come first?”

11 Yeshua replied, “Indeed, Elijah is coming and will restore all things.[99] 12 I tell you that Elijah already came; and they didn’t recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted. In the same way, the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands.” 13 Then the disciples understood that He was speaking to them about John the Immerser.

See What Faith Can Do

14 When they came to the crowd, a man came to Yeshua, falling on his knees before Him and saying, 15 “Master, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and suffers badly. For he often falls into the fire and often into the water. 16 I brought him to Your disciples, but they couldn’t heal him.” 17 And answering, Yeshua said, “O faithless and twisted generation![100] How long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.” 18 Yeshua rebuked the demon and it came out of him, and the boy was healed from that very hour.
19 Then the disciples came to Yeshua in private and said, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”
20 And He said to them, “Because you trust so little. Amen, I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.”(21)[101]

Second Prediction: Death and Resurrection

22 Now while they were gathering in the Galilee, Yeshua said to them, “The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men; 23 and they will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised.” And the disciples became greatly distressed.
24 When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the Temple tax came to Peter and said, “Your teacher pays the Temple tax,[102] doesn’t He?”
25 “Yes,” Peter said.
Now when Peter came into the house, Yeshua spoke to him first, saying, “What do you think, Simon? The kings of the earth, from whom do they collect tolls or tax? From their sons or from strangers?”
26 After Peter said, “From strangers,” Yeshua said to him,
“Then the sons are free. 27 But so that we do not offend them, go to the sea and throw out a hook, and take the first fish that comes up. And when you open its mouth, you'll find a coin.[103] Take that, and give it to them, for Me and you."

Childlike Humility

Matthew 18 [1] At that hour the disciples came to Yeshua, saying, “Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”
[2] And He called a child to Himself, set him in the midst of them, [3] and said, “Amen, I tell you, unless you turn and become like children, you shall never enter the kingdom of heaven. [4] Whoever then shall humble himself like this child, this one is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. [5] And whoever welcomes one such child in My name, welcomes Me.
[6] “But whoever causes one of these little ones who trust in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone hung around his neck and to be sunk in the depth of the sea! [7] Woe to the world because of snares! For snares must come, but woe to that man through whom the snare comes!
[8] “And if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It’s better for you to enter into life crippled or lame than, having two hands or two feet, to be thrown into fiery Gehenna. [9] If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. It’s better for you to enter into life with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into fiery Gehenna.

Parable of the Lost Sheep

10 “See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven continually see the face of My Father in heaven.(11)[104]
12 “What do you think? If a certain man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, won’t he leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go looking for the one that is straying?
13 And if he finds it, amen I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that didn’t stray. 14 Even so, it’s not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.”

Restoring a Lost Brother

15 “Now if your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault while you’re with him alone. If he listens to you, you have won your brother. 16 But if he does not listen, take with you one or two more, so that ‘by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may stand.’[105] 17 But if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to Messiah’s community. And if he refuses to listen even to Messiah’s community, let him be to you as a pagan and a tax collector.
18 “Amen, I tell you, whatever you forbid on earth will have been forbidden in heaven and what you permit on earth will have been permitted in heaven. 19 Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in their midst.”

Lessons about Forgiveness

21 Then Peter came to Him and said, “Master, how often shall I forgive my brother when he sins against me? Up to seven times?”
22 Yeshua said to him, “No, not up to seven times, I tell you, but seventy times seven![106] 23 Therefore, the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. 24 When he had begun to settle up, a man was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.
[107] 25 But since he didn’t have the money to repay, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26 Then the slave fell on his knees and begged him, saying, ‘Be patient with me, and I’ll repay you everything.’ 27 And the master of that slave, filled with compassion, released him and forgave him the debt.
28 “Now that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii. And he grabbed him and started choking him, saying, ‘Pay back what you owe!’
29 “So his fellow slave fell down and kept begging him, saying, ‘Be patient with me, and I’ll pay you back.’ 30 Yet he was unwilling. Instead, he went off and threw the man into prison until he paid back all he owed.
31 “So when his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply distressed. They went to their master and reported in detail all that had happened. 32 Then summoning the first slave, his master said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave all that debt because you pleaded with me. 33 Wasn’t it necessary for you also to show mercy to your fellow slave, just as I showed mercy to you?’ 34 Enraged, the master handed him over to the torturers until he paid back all he owed.
35 “So also My heavenly Father will do to you, unless each of you, from your hearts, forgives his brother.”

Marriage and Covenant Faithfulness

Matthew 19 1 Now when Yeshua had finished these words, He moved on from the Galilee and entered the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. 2 Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there. 3 Pharisees came up to Yeshua, testing Him and saying, “Is it permitted for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?”

4 “Haven’t you read?” He answered. “He who created them from the beginning ‘made them male and female’[108] 5 and said, ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’[109] 6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate.”

7 They said to Him, “Why then did Moses command to ‘give her a certificate of divorce and put her away?’”[110]

8 Yeshua said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart Moses permitted you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. 9 Now I tell you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery.”[111]

10 The disciples said to Him, “If that’s the case for a man and his wife, it’s better not to marry!”

11 But He said to them, “Not everyone can accept this saying —only those to whom it has been given. 12 For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother’s womb;
and there are eunuchs who were made that way by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who can accept this, let him accept it.”

Receiving the Kingdom of Heaven

13 Then little children were brought to Yeshua so that He might lay hands upon them and pray. Then the disciples rebuked those who brought them.[112] 14 But Yeshua said, “Let the little children come to Me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” 15 After laying His hands upon them, He went on from there.

16 Now behold, one came to Him and said, “Teacher, what good shall I do to have eternal life?”

17 “Why do you ask Me about what is good?” Yeshua said to him. “There is only One who is good; but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.”

18 “Which ones?” he said.

Yeshua said, “‘Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, 19 honor your father and mother,’ and ‘love your neighbor as yourself.’”[113]

20 “All these I’ve kept,” the young man said to Him. “What do I still lack?”

21 Yeshua said to him, “If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you own, and give to the poor; and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.” 22 But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieving, for he had much property.

23 Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “Amen, I tell you, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. 24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

25 When the disciples heard this, they were utterly astonished and said, “Then who can be saved?”

26 And looking, Yeshua said to them, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”[114]

27 Then Peter said to Him, “Look, we’ve left everything to follow You! So what will we have?”

28 And Yeshua said to them, “Amen, I tell you, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne in the new world,[115] you who have followed Me shall also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. [29] And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or property, for My name’s sake, will receive a hundred times as much, and will inherit eternal life. [30] But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

Parable of the Day Laborers

Matthew 20 [1] “For the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. [2] Now when he had agreed with the workers for a denarius per day, he sent them into his vineyard. [3] And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing in the marketplace, idle. [4] And to them he said, ‘You go into the vineyard too, and I’ll give you whatever is right.’ [5] So they went. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour and did the same. [6] And about the eleventh hour, he went out and found others standing around. And he said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle the whole day?’

[7] “‘Because no one hired us,’ they said to him.

“He said to them, ‘You go into the vineyard, too.’

[8] “Now when evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.’ [9] And those who had come about the eleventh hour each received a denarius. [10] And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; yet they too received a denarius.

[11] “But when they received it, they began to grumble against the master of the house, [12] saying, ‘These last guys did one hour, and you’ve made them equal to us, who bore the burden and scorching heat of the day!’

[13] “But answering, he said to one of them, ‘Friend, I’m doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me on a denarius? [14] Take what is yours and go. But I want to give this last guy the same as you. [15] Am I not permitted to do what I want with what belongs to me? Or is your eye evil because I am good?’

[16] “So the last will be first, and the first last.”

Third Prediction: Death and Resurrection

[17] Now as Yeshua was going up to Jerusalem, He took the Twelve aside privately; and on the way he told them, [18] “Look, we’re going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the ruling kohanim and Torah scholars. They will condemn Him to death 19 and hand Him over to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify. Yet on the third day, He will be raised up.”[116]

Leading by Serving

20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came with her sons to Yeshua, and she was kneeling down and asking something
from Him.
21 “What do you want?” He said to her.
She said to Him, “Declare that these two sons of mine might sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your kingdom.” 22 But Yeshua replied, “You don’t know what you’re asking!
Are you able to drink the cup I am about to drink?”
“We are able,” they say to Him.
23 He said to them, “You shall indeed drink My cup. But to sit on My right and left, this isn’t Mine to grant. Rather, it’s for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.” 24 Now when the ten heard, they became indignant with the two brothers. 25 But Yeshua called them over and said, “You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones play the tyrant over them. 26 It shall not be this way among you. But whoever wants to be great among you shall be your servant, 27 and whoever wants to be first among you shall be your slave—28 just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

What Do You Want Me to Do for You?

29 Now as they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. 30 And here two blind men sitting by the roadside, when they heard that Yeshua was passing by, cried out, saying, “Have mercy on us, O Master, Ben-David!” 31 The crowd warned them to be quiet, but they cried out all the more, saying, “Have mercy on us, O Master, Ben-David!”[117] 32 Yeshua stopped and called out to them. “What do you want Me to do for you?” He said.
33 They said to Him, “Master, let our eyes be opened!”
34 Moved with compassion, Yeshua touched their eyes. Instantly they regained their sight and followed Him.[118]

Baruch Ha-Ba! Blessed Is He Who Comes!

Matthew 21 1 Now as they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Yeshua sent two disciples, 2 saying to them, “Go into the village before you.
Right away, you’ll find a donkey tied up and a colt with her.
Untie them and bring them to Me. 3 If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Master needs them.’ And right away he will send them.”
4 This happened to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet, saying,

5 “Say to the daughter of Zion,
‘See, your King is coming to you,
humble and sitting on a donkey,
a colt, the foal of a donkey.’”[119]

6 The disciples went and did as Yeshua had directed them.
7 They brought the donkey and colt and put their clothing on them, and He sat on the clothing. 8 Most of the crowd spread their clothing on the road, and others began cutting branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. 9 The crowds going before Him and those following kept shouting, saying, “Hoshia-na to Ben-David!

Baruch ha-ba b’shem ADONAI!
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!
Hoshia-na in the highest!”[120]

10 When He entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred up, saying, “Who is this?” 11 And the crowds kept saying, “This is the prophet Yeshua, from Natzeret in the Galilee.” 12 Then Yeshua entered the Temple[121] and drove out all those selling and buying in the Temple. He overturned the tables of the moneychangers[122] and the seats of those selling doves.[123] 13 And He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’[124] but you are making it ‘a den of thieves’!”[125]

14 The blind and lame came to Him in the Temple, and He healed them. 15 But when the ruling kohanim and Torah scholars saw the wonders He performed, and the children crying out in the Temple and saying, “Hoshia-na to Ben-David,” they became indignant. 16 And they said to Him, “Do You hear what these children are saying?” “Yes,” Yeshua said to them. “Haven’t you ever read,

> ‘Out of the mouth of babes and nursing toddlers
> You have prepared praise for Yourself’?”[126]

17 Then He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and He spent the night there.

Faith Moves Mountains

18 Now early in the morning, as He was returning to the city,
He became hungry. 19 Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He came up to it and found nothing on it except leaves only. And He said to it, “May no fruit ever come from you again!” And the fig tree shriveled up at once.
20 When the disciples saw it they were astonished. “How did the fig tree shrivel on the spot?” they asked.
21 Yeshua answered them, “Amen, I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ it will happen. 22 And whatever you ask in prayer, trusting, you shall receive.”

Questions about Yeshua’s Authority

23 Now when He entered the Temple, the ruling kohanim and the elders of the people came to Him while He was teaching, saying, “By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?” 24 Yeshua replied to them, “I also will ask you one question. If you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 John’s immersion, where was it from? From heaven or from men?”
They began to dialogue among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say to us, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ 26 But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the crowd, for all hold up John as a prophet.” 27 So answering Yeshua, they said, “We don’t know.”
Then He said to them, “Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things.”

A Parable about Intentions and Actions

[28] “Now what do you think? A man had two sons, and he went to the first and said, ‘Son, go work in the vineyard today.’ [29] The son answered, ‘I won’t,’ but afterward he had a change of heart and went. [30] The man went to the second son and said the same thing. But he answered, ‘I will, sir,’ and didn’t go. [31] Which of the two did the will of the father?”

“The first,” they said.

Yeshua said to them, “Amen, I tell you, the tax collectors and prostitutes are going ahead of you into the kingdom of God.
[32] For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes did believe him; and even after you saw this, you had no change of heart to believe him.”

Parable of the Vineyard

33 “Listen to another parable. There was a master of a household who planted a vineyard. He put a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a tower.[127] Then He leased it to some tenant farmers and went on a journey. 34 Now when fruit season drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his fruit. 35 But grabbing his servants, the tenants beat up one, killed another, and stoned still another. 36 Again the master sent other servants, even more than the first, and they did the same thing to them. 37 Finally he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’
38 “But when the tenants saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir! Come on, let’s kill him and get his inheritance!’ 39 So grabbing him, they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. 40 Therefore when the master of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?” 41 “He will bring those miserable men to a miserable end,” they said to Him, “and will lease the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the fruits in their seasons.” 42 Yeshua said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures[128]?

> ‘The stone which the builders rejected,
> this has become the chief cornerstone.
> This came from ADONAI,
> and it is marvelous in our eyes.’[129]

43 Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to people producing its fruits.
44 Whoever falls on this stone will be shattered; but the one upon whom it falls, it will crush him.”[130]
45 When the ruling kohanim and Pharisees heard Yeshua’s parables, they realized He was talking about them. 46 Although they were trying to seize Him, they feared the crowds, because they regarded Him as a prophet.

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

Matthew 22 1 Yeshua answered and spoke to them again in parables, saying, 2 “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who made a wedding feast for his son. 3 He sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they wouldn’t come. 4 Again he sent out other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who were invited, “Look, I’ve prepared my meal. My oxen and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast!”’ 5 “But paying no attention, they went away, one to his own farm, another to his business. 6 And the rest grabbed his servants, humiliated them, and killed them. 7 Now the king became furious! Sending his troops, he destroyed those murderers and set fire to their city.
8 “Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. 9 So go into the highways and byways, and invite everyone you find to the wedding feast.’ 10 And those servants went out into the highways and gathered together all they found, both bad and good; and the wedding was filled with guests.
11 “But when the king came in to look over the guests, he saw a man there who wasn’t dressed in wedding clothes. 12 ‘Friend,’ he said to him, ‘how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ But the man was silent. 13 Then the king said to his servants, ‘Tie him up hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ 14 For many are called, but few are chosen.”

A Trap about Paying Taxes

15 Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might trap Him with a word. 16 And they sent to Him some of their disciples, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that You are honest and teach the way of God in truth. And what others think doesn’t concern You, for You do not look at men’s appearance. 17 Tell us therefore, what do You think? Is it permitted to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?” 18 But Yeshua, knowing their wickedness, said, “Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites? 19 Show Me the tax money.”
So they brought Him a denarius.
20 And He said to them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?”
21 “Caesar’s,” they said to Him.
Then He said to them, “Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” 22 And hearing this, they were amazed. So they left Him and went away.

Religious Leaders Ask a Tricky Question

23 On that day, Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came to Yeshua and questioned Him, saying, 24 “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If someone dies having no children, his brother as next of kin shall marry his widow and father children for his brother.’[131] 25 Now there were seven brothers among us. The first married and died; and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother. 26 In the same way also the second, and the third, down to the seventh. 27 Last of all, the woman died. 28 So in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had married her.”
29 But answering, Yeshua said to them, “You’ve gone astray, because you don’t understand the Scriptures or the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. 31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven't you read what was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living!"[132] 33 When the crowds heard this, they were astounded at His teaching.

The Greatest Mitzvot

34 But the Pharisees, when they heard that Yeshua had silenced the Sadducees, gathered together in one place. 35 And testing Him, one of them, a lawyer, asked, 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Torah?"

37 And He said to him, "'You shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.'[133] 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'[134] 40 The entire Torah and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

Yeshua Overturns the Arguments

41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Yeshua asked them a question, 42 saying, "What do you think about the Messiah? Whose Son is He?"[135]

"David's," they say to Him.

43 "Then how is it," He says to them, "that David by the Ruach calls him 'Lord'?

44 For he says, 'ADONAI said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
until I put Your enemies under Your feet."'[136]

45 If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his son?" 46 No one was able to answer Him a word. Nor did anyone dare from that day on to question Him any longer.

Seven Woes

Matthew 23 1 Then Yeshua spoke to the crowds and to His disciples, 2 saying, “The Torah scholars and Pharisees sit on the seat of Moses. 3 So whatever they tell you, do and observe. But don’t do what they do; for what they say, they do not do. 4 They tie up heavy loads, hard to carry,[137] and lay them on men’s shoulders; but they themselves aren’t willing to lift a finger to move them. 5 All their works they do to be noticed by men. They make their tefillin wide and their tzitziyot long.[138] 6 They love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, 7 greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called rabbi by men.
8 “But you are not to be called rabbi; for One is your Teacher, and you are all brothers. 9 And call no man on earth your father; for One is your Father, who is in heaven. 10 Nor are you to be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Messiah.
11 But the greatest among you shall be your servant. 12 Whoever exalts himself shall be humbled, and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.
13 “But woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites!
For you shut people out of the kingdom of heaven. For you do not enter yourselves, nor do you let those enter who are trying to go in.(14)[139]
15 “Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel over land and sea to make one convert. And when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as yourself.
16 “Woe to you, blind guides! You say, ‘Whoever swears by the Temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the Temple, he is obligated.’ 17 O fools and blind ones! Which is greater, the gold or the Temple that made the gold holy?[140] 18 And you say, ‘Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the offering on it, he is obligated.’ 19 O blind ones! Which is greater, the offering or the altar that makes the offering holy?[141] 20 Therefore, whoever swears by the altar, swears both by the altar and everything on it. 21 And whoever swears by the Temple, swears both by the Temple and by Him who dwells in it. 22 And whoever swears by heaven, swears both by the throne of God and by Him who sits on it.

23 “Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! You tithe[142] mint and dill and cumin, yet you have neglected the weightier matters of Torah—justice and mercy and faithfulness. It is necessary to do these things without neglecting the others. 24 O blind guides, straining out a gnat while swallowing a camel!

25 “Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and uncontrolled desire. 26 O blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, so that the outside may become clean as well.

27 “Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but inside are full of dead men’s bones and everything unclean. 28 In the same way, you appear righteous to men on the outside, but are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29 “Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of the tzaddikim. 30 And you say, ‘If we’d been alive in the days of our forefathers, we wouldn’t have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’ 31 So you testify against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. 32 Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers! 33 O snakes, you brood of vipers! How will you escape the condemnation of Gehenna?

34 “Because of this, behold, I’m sending you prophets and wise men and Torah scholars. Some of them you will kill and execute at the stake, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city. 35 And so, upon you shall come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah,[143] whom you murdered between the Temple and the altar.[144] 36 Amen, I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.”

Holy Temple to Be Destroyed

37 “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her! How often I longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing! 38 Look, your house is left to you desolate![145]
39 For I tell you, you will never see Me again until you say, ‘Baruch ha-ba b’shem Adonai. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!’”[146]

Matthew 24 1 Now when Yeshua went out and was going away from the Temple, His disciples came up to point out to Him the Temple buildings. 2 “Don’t you see all these?” He responded to them. “Amen, I tell you, not one stone will be left here on top of another—every one will be torn down!”

Signs of the End of Time

3 As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?”
4 Yeshua answered them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray! 5 For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Messiah,’ and will lead many astray. 6 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must happen but it is not yet the end. 7 For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.[147] And there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. 8 But all these things are only the beginning of birth pains.
9 “Then they will hand you over to persecution and will kill you. You will be hated by all the nations because of My name.
10 And then many will fall away and will betray one another and hate one other. 11 Many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. 12 Because lawlessness will multiply, the love of many will grow cold. 13 But the one who endures to the end will be saved. 14 This Good News of the kingdom shall be proclaimed in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.
15 “So when you see ‘the abomination of desolation,’[148] which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the Holy Place (let the reader understand), 16 then those in Judea must flee to the mountains. 17 The one on the roof must not go down to take what is in his house, 18 and the one in the field must not turn back to get his coat. 19 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! 20 Pray that your escape will not happen in winter, or on Shabbat. 21 For then there will be great trouble,[149] such as has not happened since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will. 22 And unless those days were cut short, no one would be delivered.

But for the sake of the chosen, those days will be cut short.
23 "Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here's the Messiah,' or 'There He is,' do not believe it. 24 For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up[150] and show great signs and wonders so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen. 25 See, I have told you beforehand.
26 "So if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the wilderness,' do not go out. Or, 'Look, He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it. 27 For just as lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so also will be the coming of the Son of Man. 28 For wherever the carcass is, there the vultures will gather.
29 "But immediately after the trouble of those days,

'the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light
and the stars will fall from heaven
and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.'[151]

30 Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the land will mourn, and they will see 'the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven'[152] with power and great glory. 31 He will send out His angels with a great shofar, and they will gather together His chosen from the four winds,
from one end of heaven to the other."[153]

Watching for Messiah's Return

32 "Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 33 So also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, at the door. 34 Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.[154] 36 But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven nor the Son,[155] except the Father alone.

37 “For just as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 38 For in those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark. 39 And they did not understand until the flood came and swept them all away.[156] So shall it be at the coming of the Son of Man. 40 Then two men will be in the field, one taken and one left. 41 Two women will be grinding at the mill, one taken and one left.[157] 42 Therefore stay alert; for you do not know what day your Lord is coming. 43 But know this, that if the master of the house had known what time the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and not let his house be broken into. 44 So you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.”

The Faithful Servant

45 “Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master put in charge of his household to give them food at the proper time? 46 Blessed is that servant whose master finds him so doing when he comes. 47 Amen, I tell you, his master will put him in charge of all his possessions. 48 But if that wicked servant says in his heart, ‘My master is taking a long time,’ 49 and he begins to beat his fellow servants, and he eats and drinks with drunkards, 50 the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. 51 And he will cut him in two and assign his place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Parable of the Ten Virgins

Matthew 25 1 “Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.[158]
2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3 For when the foolish ones took their lamps, they took no oil with them. 4 But the wise ones took oil in jars along with their lamps.
5 “Now while the bridegroom was taking a long time, they all got drowsy and started falling asleep. 6 But in the middle of the night there was a shout, ‘Look, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’ 7 Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. 8 Now the foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, since our lamps are going out.’ 9 But the wise ones replied, ‘No, there won’t be enough for us and for you. Instead, go to those who sell, and buy some for yourselves.’
10 “But while they were going off to buy, the bridegroom came. And those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut. 11 Now later, the other virgins came, saying, ‘Sir, Sir, open up for us!’
12 “But he replied, ‘Amen, I tell you, I do not know you.’ 13 Therefore stay alert, for you know neither the day nor the hour.”

Parable of the Talents

14 “For it is like a man about to go on a journey. He called his own servants and handed over his possessions to them. 15 To one he gave five talents,[159] to another two, and to another one, each according to his own ability. Then he went on his journey.
16 “Immediately the one who had received the five talents went and traded with them and gained five more. 17 In the same way, the one with two gained two more. 18 But the one who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.
19 “Now after a long time, the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. 20 The one who had received the five talents came up and brought another five talents, saying, ‘Master, you handed me five talents. Look, I’ve gained five more.’ 21 His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You were faithful with a little, so I’ll put you in charge of much. Enter into your master’s joy!’ 22 “The one who had received the two talents also came up and said, ‘Master, you handed me two talents. Look, I’ve gained two more.’ 23 His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You were faithful with a little, so I’ll put you in charge of much. Enter into your master’s joy!’ 24 “Then the one who had received the one talent also came up and said, ‘Master, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you didn’t sow and gathering where you scattered no seed. 25 So I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.’ 26 “But his master responded, ‘You wicked, lazy servant! You knew that I reap where I didn’t sow and gather where I scattered no seed? 27 Then you should have brought my money to the brokers, and when I came I would have received it back with interest. 28 Therefore take the talent away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents. 29 For to the one who has, more shall be given, and he shall have an abundance. But from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away. 30 Throw the worthless servant out, into the outer darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”

The Righteous Judge

31 “Now when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne. 32 All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them from one another, just as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.[160] 33 And He will put the sheep on His right, but the goats on His left. 34 Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35 For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger and you invited Me in; 36 I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.’[161]

37 “Then the righteous will answer Him, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You? Or thirsty and give You something to drink? 38 And when did we see You a stranger and invite You in? Or naked and clothe You? 39 When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?’

40 “And answering, the King will say to them, ‘Amen, I tell you, whatever you did to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.’[162] 41 Then He will also say to those on the left, ‘Go away from Me, you cursed ones, into the everlasting fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels. 42 For I was hungry and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me nothing to drink; 43 I was a stranger and you did not invite Me in; naked and you did not clothe Me; sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.’

44 “Then they too will answer, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not care for You?’ 45 Then He will answer them, saying, ‘Amen, I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me.’ 46 These shall go off to everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting
life.”[163]

The Conspiracy Grows

Matthew 26 1 Now it happened that when Yeshua had finished all these words, He said to His disciples, 2 “You know that Passover comes in two days, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be executed.”
3 Then the ruling kohanim and elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the kohen gadol named Caiaphas. 4 They plotted together in order that they might seize Yeshua by stealth and kill Him. 5 “But not during the festival,” they were saying, “so there won’t be a riot among the people.”

A Woman Anoints Yeshua for Burial 6 Now while Yeshua was in Bethany at the house of Simon ha-Metzora, 7 a woman came up to Him with an alabaster jar of very expensive oil. And she poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table. 8 But when the disciples saw this, they were indignant, saying, “Why this waste? 9 It could have been sold for a lot, and the money given to the poor!”

10 But Yeshua, knowing this, said to them, “Why do you cause trouble for this woman? She’s done Me a mitzvah. 11 You always have the poor with you,[164] but you won’t always have Me.
12 For when she poured this oil on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial. 13 Amen, I tell you, wherever this Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Betrayed and Sold for Silver 14 Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judah of Kriot, went to the ruling kohanim 15 and said, “What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?” And they weighed out thirty shekels[165] of silver for him. 16 From then on, Judah began looking for a chance to hand Him over.

17 Now on the first day of matzah,[166] the disciples came to Yeshua, saying, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

18 He said, “Go into the city to a certain man, and tell him,
‘The Teacher says, “My time is near; at your house I am to keep the Passover with My disciples.”’” 19 The disciples did as Yeshua had ordered them, and they prepared the Passover.[167]
20 Now when it was evening, Yeshua was reclining at the table with the Twelve. 21 As they were eating, He said, “Amen, I tell you, one of you will betray Me.”
22 And being very sorrowful, they began, each one, to say to Him, “I’m not the one, am I, Master?” 23 And He replied, “The one who dipped his hand in the bowl with Me, he’s the one who will betray Me.[168] 24 The Son of Man indeed goes, just as it is written about Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed![169] It would have been better for that man if he had not been born!” 25 And Judah, the one betraying Him, replied, “I’m not the one, am I, Rabbi?”
Yeshua said to him, “You’ve said it yourself.” 26 Now while they were eating, Yeshua took matzah;[170] and after He offered the bracha, He broke and gave to the disciples and said, “Take, eat; this is My body.” 27 And He took a cup; and after giving thanks, He gave to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you; 28 for this is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the removal of sins.[171] 29 But I say to you, I will never drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in My Father’s kingdom.”
30 After singing the Hallel,[172] they went out to the Mount of Olives. 31 Then Yeshua said to them, “This night you will all fall away because of Me; for it is written, ‘I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’[173]

32 But after I am raised up, I will go before you to the Galilee.” 33 But Peter replied to Him, “Though all fall away because of You, I’ll never fall away.”
34 Yeshua said to him, “Truly, I tell you, this very night, before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.”

35 “Even if I must die with You,” Peter says to Him, “I’ll never deny You!” And so said all the disciples.

“Your Will Be Done”

36 Then Yeshua comes with them to a place called Gethsemane, and He tells the disciples, “Sit here, while I go over there and pray.” 37 And He took along Peter and Zebedee’s two sons, and He began to be sorrowful and troubled. 38 Then He tells them, “My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with Me.” 39 Going a little farther, He fell face down and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me! Yet not as I will, but as You will.”
40 Then He comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping; and He tells Peter, “So couldn’t you keep watch with Me for one hour? 41 Keep watching and praying, so that you won’t enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.” 42 Again for a second time He went away and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cannot pass away unless I drink it, let Your will be done.” 43 And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44 So He left them again and prayed a third time, saying the same words once more.
45 Then He comes to the disciples and says to them, “Still sleeping? Taking your rest? Look, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of sinners. 46 Get up, let’s go! Look, My betrayer is near.”

Taken into Custody 47 While Yeshua was still speaking, here came Judah, one of the Twelve, and with him a big crowd with swords and clubs, from the ruling kohanim and elders of the people. 48 Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, ‘The One I kiss, He’s the One —seize Him!’ 49 And immediately Judah drew near[174] to Yeshua and said, “Shalom, Rabbi!” and kissed Him.

50 “Friend,” Yeshua said to him, “do what you’ve come to do.”
Then they came up and threw their hands on Yeshua and seized

Him. 51 And suddenly, one of those with Yeshua stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and he struck the kohen gadol's servant and cut off his ear.
52 Then Yeshua said to him, "Put your sword back in its place!
For all who take up the sword shall perish by the sword.[175] 53 Or do you suppose that I cannot call on My Father, and at once He will place at My side twelve legions[176] of angels?
54 How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?"
55 At that hour Yeshua said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, to capture Me as you would a revolutionary?[177] Every day I sat teaching in the Temple, and you didn't seize Me. 56 But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets would be fulfilled." Then all the disciples fled, abandoning Him.
57 Now those who had seized Yeshua led Him away to Caiaphas, the kohen gadol, where the Torah scholars and elders had gathered. 58 Peter was following Him from a distance as far as the courtyard of the kohen gadol. And after going inside, he was sitting with the guards, to see the outcome.

Yeshua's Trial Begins 59 Now the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin kept trying to get false testimony against Yeshua so they could put Him to death. 60 But they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward 61 and said, "This fellow said, 'I'm able to destroy the Temple of God and rebuild it in three days!'"

62 The kohen gadol stood up and said to Yeshua, "Have You no answer? What's this they're testifying against You?" 63 But Yeshua kept silent.
The kohen gadol said to Him, "I charge You under oath by the living God, tell us if You are Mashiach Ben-Elohim!"[178] 64 "As you have said," replied Yeshua. "Besides that, I tell you, soon after you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven."[179]

65 Then the kohen gadol tore his clothes and said, “Blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, you’ve heard the blasphemy. 66 What’s your verdict?”[180] “Guilty,” they answered. “He deserves death!” 67 Then they spat in His face and pounded Him with their fists.[181] Others slapped Him and demanded, 68 “Prophesy to us, you Messiah!
Which one hit You?”

Peter Denies Yeshua 69 Meanwhile, Peter was sitting in the courtyard. A servant girl came over to him and said, “You also were with Yeshua of the Galilee.”

70 But he denied it before everyone, saying, “I don’t know what you’re talking about!”
71 When he went onto the porch, another servant girl saw him and said to those who were there, “This man was with Yeshua ha-Natzrati.”
72 Again he denied it with an oath: “I don’t know the Man!”
73 A little while later, some of the bystanders approached Peter and said to him, “Surely you’re one of them, too—your accent gives you away.”
74 Then he began to curse[182] and to swear an oath: “I do not know the Man!” Right then, a rooster crowed. 75 Then Peter reminded himself of the word Yeshua had said: “Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.” And he went away and wept bitterly.

Judah's Remorse

Matthew 27 [1] When daybreak came, the ruling kohanim and elders of the people conspired against Yeshua to put Him to death. [2] And they tied Him up, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate, the governor. [3] Then Judah, His betrayer, saw that Yeshua had been condemned. Feeling remorse, he brought the thirty silver pieces back to the ruling kohanim and elders, [4] saying, "I've sinned, betraying innocent blood!"
But they said, "What's that to us? You see to it yourself!"
[5] After tossing the silver into the Temple sanctuary, he left.
Then he went off and hanged himself. [6] But the ruling kohanim took the silver pieces and said, "It is not permitted to put these in the treasury, since it is blood money." [7] So after they conferred, they bought with them the potter's field, as a cemetery for strangers. [8] For this reason that field has been called the "Field of Blood" to this day. [9] Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And they took the thirty silver pieces, the price of Him on whom a price had been set by Bnei-Yisrael; [10] and they gave them for the potter's field, just as ADONAI arranged for me."[183]

"Kill the King!"

[11] Now Yeshua stood before the governor. The governor questioned Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?"
"You say so," Yeshua said. [12] And while He was accused by the ruling kohanim and elders, He did not answer.
[13] Then Pilate said to Him, "Don't You hear how many things they testify against you?" [14] Yeshua did not answer, not even one word, so the governor was greatly amazed.
[15] Now during the feast, the governor was accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner, anyone they wanted. [16] At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Yeshua Bar-Abba. [17] So when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Which one do you want me to release for you? Yeshua who is Bar-Abba, or Yeshua who is called Messiah?”[184] 18 For he knew that they had handed Him over out of envy.

19 While Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying, “Don’t have anything to do with that righteous Man, for today I’ve suffered many things in a dream because of Him.”

20 Now the ruling kohanim and elders persuaded the crowds that they should ask for Bar-Abba and destroy Yeshua. 21 But the governor responded, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?”

And they said, “Bar-Abba!”

22 Pilate said to them, “What then shall I do with Yeshua, who is called Messiah?”

“Execute Him!” all of them say.

23 But Pilate said, “Why? What evil has He done?”

But they kept shouting all the more, saying, “Let Him be executed!”

24 When Pilate saw he was accomplishing nothing, but instead a riot was starting, he took some water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. “I am innocent of this blood,”[185] he said. “You see to it yourselves!”

25 All the people answered and said, “His blood be on us and on our children!”[186]

26 Then he released to them Bar-Abba. And after he had Yeshua scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Nailed to a Stake

27 Then the governor’s soldiers took Yeshua into the Praetorium and gathered the whole cohort around Him. 28 They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe around Him. 29 And after braiding a crown of thorns, they placed it on His head and put a staff in His right hand. And falling on their knees before Him, they mocked Him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” 30 They spat on Him, and they took the staff and beat Him over and over on the head. 31 When they finished mocking Him, they stripped the robe off Him and put His own clothes back on Him. And they led Him away to crucify Him.

32 As they came out, they found a man from Cyrene, Simon by name. They forced him into service, to carry Yeshua’s cross-beam.[187] 33 And when they came to a place called Golgotha (that is to say, Place of a Skull), 34 they offered Him wine mixed with gall to drink;[188] but after tasting, He was unwilling to drink it. 35 And when they had crucified Him, they divided His clothing among themselves by casting lots.[189] 36 And they sat down and kept guard over Him there. 37 Over His head they put the charge against Him, which read: “THIS IS YESHUA, THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

38 Then two outlaws were executed with Him, one on the right and one on the left. 39 Those passing by were jeering at Him,[190] shaking their heads 40 and saying, “You who are going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself!
If you are Ben-Elohim, come down from the stake!”

41 Likewise the ruling kohanim, along with the Torah scholars and elders, were also mocking Him. 42 “He saved others,” they were saying, “but He can’t save Himself? He’s the King of Israel! Let Him come down now from the stake, and we’ll believe in Him! 43 He trusts in God; let God rescue Him now, if He wants Him.[191] For He said, ‘I am Ben-Elohim.’” 44 Even the outlaws who were executed with Him were ridiculing Him in the same way.[192]

Yeshua Lays Down His Life

45 Now from the sixth hour, darkness fell upon all the land until the ninth hour.[193] 46 About the ninth hour Yeshua cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?”[194] that is, “My God, My God, why have You abandoned Me?” 47 When some of those standing there heard it, they began saying, “This Man is calling for Elijah.” 48 Right away one of them ran and took a sponge. He filled it with sour wine and put it on a stick, and was offering it to Yeshua to drink.[195] 49 But the rest were saying, “Leave Him alone! Let’s see if Elijah comes to save Him.” 50 And Yeshua cried out again with a loud voice and gave up His spirit.
51 And behold, the curtain[196] of the Temple was split in two, from top to bottom. And the earth quaked and rocks were split apart. 52 And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the kedoshim who were sleeping were raised to life. 53 And coming forth out of the tombs after His resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.
54 Now the centurion, and those with him keeping guard over Yeshua, when they saw the earthquake and what was happening, they became terribly frightened and said, “This really was the Son of God!”

The Tomb Is Sealed

55 Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Yeshua from the Galilee, serving Him. 56 Among them were Miriam from Magdala, Miriam the mother of Jacob
and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.
57 Now when it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had also become a disciple of Yeshua. 58 This man went to Pilate and asked for Yeshua's body.
Then Pilate ordered it to be given up. 59 And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth. 60 And he laid it in his own new tomb,[197] which he had cut in the rock. Then he rolled a large stone up to the door of the tomb and went away.
61 Now Miriam from Magdala was there, and the other Miriam, sitting opposite the tomb.

Guarding the Tomb

62 Now on the next day, which is after the preparation, the ruling kohanim and Pharisees were gathered before Pilate.
63 “Sir,” they said, “we remember how that deceiver said while He was still alive, ‘After three days I’m to be raised.’
64 Therefore, order the tomb to be made secure until the third day, so His disciples do not come and steal Him away. They will tell the people, ‘He is risen from the dead,’ and the last deception will be worse than the first!” 65 “You have a guard,” Pilate said to them. “Go, make it as secure as you know how.” 66 So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone along with the soldiers of the guard.

The Son Is Risen!

Matthew 28 [1] Now after Shabbat, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Miriam of Magdala and the other Miriam came to look at the tomb. [2] And suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of ADONAI descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. [3] His appearance was like lightning,[198] and his clothing as white as snow. [4] And those keeping watch were shaken for fear of him and became like dead men.

[5] But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know you are looking for Yeshua who was crucified. [6] He is not here; for He is risen, just as He said.
Come, see the place where He[199] was lying. [7] Go quickly now and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead. And behold, He's going before you to the Galilee. There you will see Him. See, I have told you!" [8] They quickly left the tomb, with fear yet with great joy, and ran to bring news to His disciples.

The Good News Cannot Be Hidden

[9] And behold, Yeshua met them. "Shalom!" He said. They drew near, grasped his feet, and worshiped Him. [10] "Don't be afraid," Yeshua said to them. "Go tell My brothers to head for the Galilee, and there they will see Me."

[11] Now while they were going, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the ruling kohanim all that had happened. [12] And when they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of silver to the soldiers, [13] saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we were sleeping.' [14] And if this is heard by the governor, we'll appease him and keep you out of trouble." [15] So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story was spread among the Judeans to this day.

Authority to Make Disciples Everywhere

16 Now the eleven disciples went to the Galilee, to the mountain Yeshua had designated. 17 When they saw Him, they worshiped; but some wavered. 18 And Yeshua came up to them and spoke to them, saying, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me.[200] 19 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, immersing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Ruach ha-Kodesh, 20 teaching them to observe all I have commanded you. And remember! I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

The Kingdom Is Coming Now

Mark 1 1 The beginning of the Good News of Yeshua ha-Mashiach, Ben-Elohim. 2 As Isaiah the prophet has written,

> "Behold, I send My messenger before You,
> who will prepare Your way.[1] > 3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
> 'Prepare the way of ADONAI,
> and make His paths straight.'"[2]

4 John appeared, immersing in the wilderness, proclaiming an immersion involving repentance for the removal of sins. 5 All the Judean countryside was going out to him, and all the Jerusalemites. As they confessed their sins, they were being immersed by him in the Jordan River.
6 John wore clothes made from camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.
7 "After me comes One who is mightier than I am," he proclaimed. "I'm not worthy to stoop down and untie the strap of His sandals! 8 I immersed you with water, but He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh."[3]

The Spirit Rests on Yeshua

9 In those days, Yeshua came from Natzeret in the Galilee and was immersed by John in the Jordan. 10 Just as He was coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens ripping open and the Ruach as a dove coming down upon Him. 11 And there came a voice from the heavens: "You are My Son, whom I love; with You I am well pleased!"[4] 12 That instant, the Ruach drives Him into the wilderness.
13 He was in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by satan. And He was with the wild beasts, and the angels were taking care of Him.

Fishermen Follow Him

14 Now after John was put in jail, Yeshua came into the Galilee, proclaiming the Good News of God. 15 “Now is the fullness of time,” He said, “and the kingdom of God is near!
Turn away from your sins, and believe in the Good News!”
16 Passing along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Simon’s brother Andrew casting a net in the sea, for they were fishermen. 17 And Yeshua said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men.” 18 Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.
19 Going a little farther, He saw Jacob the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets.
20 Immediately He called them, and they left their father
Zebedee in the boat with the hired hands and followed Him.

Demons Flee at His Command

21 And they went into Capernaum. Right away, on Shabbat, He entered the synagogue and began to teach. 22 And they were astounded at His teaching, for He was teaching them as one having authority[5] and not as the Torah scholars.
23 Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, 24 “What have we to do with You, Yeshua of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are! You’re the Holy One of God!”
25 Yeshua rebuked him, saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!”
26 And the unclean spirit, after throwing the man into convulsions and crying out with a loud voice, came out of him.
27 They were all so amazed that they asked among themselves, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!” 28 And immediately news about Him spread throughout the region surrounding Galilee.

The Hurting Become Whole

29 As soon as they left the synagogue, they went with Jacob and John to the house of Simon and Andrew. 30 Now Simon's mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever. Right away, they told Yeshua about her. 31 He came and raised her up by taking her hand. The fever left her, and she began to take care of them.
32 When evening came, at sunset, the people brought to Him all the sick and those who were afflicted by demons. 33 The whole town gathered together at the door. 34 He healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. And He would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.
35 Very early, while it was still night, Yeshua got up, left, and went away to a place in the wilderness; and there He was praying. 36 Then Simon and those with him hunted for Yeshua.
37 And when they found Him, they said to Him, "Everybody's looking for You."
38 He said to them, "Let's go somewhere else, to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also—this is what I came for." 39 And He went throughout all the Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and driving out demons.
40 A man with tzara'at comes to Him, begging Him and falling on his knees, saying, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."
41 Moved with compassion, Yeshua stretched out His hand and touched him. He said, "I am willing. Be cleansed."
42 Immediately, the tzara'at left him, and he was cleansed.
43 Yeshua sent him away at once, sternly warning him. 44 He said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone, but go show yourself to the kohen.[6] Then, for your cleansing, offer what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." 45 But he went out and began to proclaim and spread the word, so much that Yeshua could no longer enter a town openly but had to stay out in wilderness areas. Still, they kept on coming to Him from everywhere.

Power to Pardon the Paralyzed

Mark 2 [1] When He returned to Capernaum after some days, it was heard that He was at the house. [2] So many were gathered that there was no longer room for them even outside the door.
He kept proclaiming the word to them.
[3] Some people came bringing to Him a paralyzed man, carried by four men. [4] When they couldn't get near Yeshua because of the crowd, they removed the roof where He was.
After digging through, they lowered the mat on which the paralyzed man was lying. [5] Yeshua, seeing their faith, said to the paralyzed man, "Son, your sins are forgiven." [6] But some of the Torah scholars were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, [7] "Why does this fellow speak like this? He blasphemes! Who can pardon sins but God alone?" [8] Immediately Yeshua, knowing in His spirit that they were raising questions this way within themselves, said to them,
"Why are you questioning these things in your hearts? [9] Which is easier, to say to the paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, and take your mat and walk'? [10] But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority to pardon sins on earth. . .." He tells the paralyzed man, [11] "I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home!"
[12] At once the man got up, took his mat, and walked before them all. They were all astonished and glorified God, saying,
"We've never seen anything like this!"[7]

Fellowship with Sinners

13 Again, Yeshua went out by the sea. The whole crowd kept coming to Him, and He continued to teach them. 14 As He was passing by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth. He said to him, "Follow Me." And he got up and followed Him.
15 Now it happens that Yeshua was reclining at the table in Levi's house, and many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Yeshua and His disciples. For there were many, and they were following Him. 16 When the Torah scholars of the Pharisees saw Him eating with sinners and tax collectors, they began to say to His disciples, "With tax collectors and sinners He eats?"
17 And when He heard this, Yeshua said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. I did not come to call the righteous, but the sinful."

Feasting in His Presence

18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. They came and said to Him, “Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?”
19 And Yeshua said to them, “The guests of the bridegroom cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.
20 But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.
21 “No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment.
Otherwise the patch pulls away from the old, and a worse tear happens. 22 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins.
Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins; and the wine is lost, also the skins. But one puts new wine into fresh wineskins.”

Shabbat Restoration

23 Now it happened on Shabbat that Yeshua was going through the grain fields; and His disciples began to make their way, plucking the heads of grain.[8] 24 The Pharisees were saying to Him, “Look, why are they doing what is not permitted
on Shabbat?”[9]

25 And He said to them, “Haven’t you ever read what David did when he was in need, and he and those with him became hungry?[10] 26 How he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was kohen gadol and ate the showbread, which is permitted only for the kohanim to eat, and gave some even to those who were with him?”

27 Then He said to them, “Shabbat was made for man, and not man for Shabbat. 28 So the Son of Man is Lord even of Shabbat.”

A Mitzvah on Shabbat

Mark 3 1 Yeshua entered the synagogue again, and a man with a withered hand was there. 2 Now some were carefully watching Him, to see if He would heal him on Shabbat, so that they might accuse Him. 3 He said to the man with the withered hand, “Stand up here in the center.” 4 Then He said to them, “Is it permitted on Shabbat to do good or to do evil, to save a life or to kill?”[11] But they kept silent.
5 After looking around at them with anger, grieved by their hardness of heart, He says to the man, “Stretch out your hand.”
And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. 6 The Pharisees went out right away with the Herodians and began plotting against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Crowds Clamor for Yeshua

7 Yeshua withdrew to the sea with His disciples, and a large crowd from the Galilee followed. From Judea, 8 and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon, a great number, hearing all He was doing, came to Him. 9 He told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him because of the crowd, so that they wouldn’t mob
Him.
10 For He had healed many, so that all those afflicted fell down before Him in order to touch Him. 11 And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, would fall down before Him and cry out, “You are Ben-Elohim!” 12 But Yeshua strictly ordered them not to make Him known.

Appointing the Twelve

13 Now He climbs up on the mountain and calls those He Himself wanted, and they came to Him. 14 He appointed twelve (whom He also named emissaries), so that they might be with Him and He might send them to proclaim the Good News, 15 and to have power to drive out demons. 16 And He appointed the Twelve: to Simon He gave the name Peter; 17 to Jacob and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee, He gave the name Boanerges, which is Sons of Thunder; 18 and Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, Jacob the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot;[12] 19 and Judah from Kriot, who also betrayed Him.

Binding the Strong Man

20 Then He comes into a house, and again a crowd gathers so they couldn't even eat. 21 When His family heard about this, they went out to take hold of Him; for they were saying, "He's out of His mind!"
22 The Torah scholars who came down from Jerusalem said,
"He's possessed by beelzebul," and, "By the ruler of demons
He drives out demons."
23 He called them and began speaking to them in parables:
"How can satan drive out satan? 24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.
26 And if satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand but his end has come.
27 "But no one can enter a strong man's house to ransack his property, unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he will thoroughly plunder his house. 28 Amen, I tell you, all things will be forgiven the sons of men, the sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; 29 but whoever slanders[13] the Ruach ha-Kodesh never has release, but is guilty of an eternal sin!"
30 For they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

A Spiritual Family Begins

31 Then His mother and brothers come. Standing outside, they sent word to Him, summoning Him. 32 A crowd was sitting around Him, and they tell Him, “Look, Your mother and Your brothers are outside looking for You.” 33 Answering them, He said, “Who are My mother and My brothers?” 34 Looking at those sitting in a circle around Him, He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers! 35 For whoever does the will of God, he is My brother and sister and mother.”

Storytelling Opens Hearts

Mark 4 1 Again Yeshua began to teach by the sea. A large crowd gathered around Him, so He got into a boat on the sea and sat down. And the crowd was by the sea on the land. 2 He began teaching them many things by parables, and in His teaching,
He said to them: 3 “Listen! Behold, a sower went out to spread some seed. 4 It happened that as he sowed, some fell beside the road; and the birds came and ate it up.
5 “Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it didn’t have much soil. It sprang up immediately, because the soil wasn’t deep.
6 But when the sun came up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.
7 “Other seed fell among the thorns; and the thorns grew and choked it, and it yielded no crop.
8 “And others fell into the good soil and were producing fruit, springing up and increasing. They yielded a crop, producing thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold.” 9 And He said, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”
10 When Yeshua was alone, those around Him with the Twelve started asking Him about the parables. 11 And He told them, “To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God. But for those who are outside, everything is in parables,[14] so that 12 ‘Seeing, they may se and not perceive,

and hearing, they may hear and not understand,
so they may not turn back and be forgiven.’”[15]

13 He said to them, “Don’t you grasp this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables? 14 The sower sows the word. 15 These are the ones beside the road where the word is sown. Whenever they hear, satan comes quickly and takes away the word that has been sown in them.
16 “These are the ones sown on rocky ground. When they hear the word, immediately they receive it with joy. 17 And they have no root in themselves but last only a short while. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they fall away.

18 “And others are the ones sown among the thorns. They have heard the word; 19 but the worries of the world, the seduction of wealth, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
20 “And those are the ones sown on the good soil. They hear the word and accept it and produce fruit, thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold.”

Reaping What You Sow

21 He also was saying to them, “Is a lamp put under a basket or a bed? No, shouldn’t it be placed on a lampstand? 22 For there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, nor anything kept secret except that it would come to light. 23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.” 24 Then He continued, “Pay attention to what you hear. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you; and more will be added to you. 25 For whoever has, to him more will be given. And whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.”

What Is the Kingdom of God Like?

26 And He was saying, “The kingdom of God is like when a man spreads seed on the soil 27 and falls asleep at night and gets up by day, and the seed sprouts and grows. He himself doesn’t know how. 28 Automatically, the earth brings forth a crop—first the blade, then the head, then the full grain in the head. 29 But when the grain is ready, at once he sends in the sickle, for the harvest has come.”

30 Yeshua also said, “How should we picture the kingdom of God? Or by what story shall we present it? 31 It is like a mustard seed when it’s planted in the ground. Though the smallest of all seeds in the earth, yet when planted it grows up and becomes the largest of all the herbs. It puts forth big branches, so the birds of the air can nest in its shade.”[16]

33 With many such parables He used to tell them the word, as much as they were able to hear. 34 But apart from a parable, He wasn’t speaking to them. Yet when they were alone, to His own disciples He would explain everything.

Power Over Nature

35 Now on that same day in the evening, He says to them, “Let’s cross over to the other side.” 36 After leaving the crowd, they take Him along in the boat, just as He was. And other boats were with Him.
37 A great windstorm arises, and the waves were rushing into the boat. The boat was beginning to fill up. 38 But Yeshua was in the back of the boat, sleeping on a pillow. They wake Him up and say to Him, “Teacher, don’t you care that we are perishing?”
39 So He woke up and rebuked the wind. And He said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind stopped, and it became totally calm. 40 And He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Even now you have no faith?”
41 They were struck with awe and said to one another, “Who is this? Even the wind and the sea obey Him!”

Power Over Demons

Mark 5 1 They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. 2 As soon as Yeshua got out of the boat, a man from the graveyard[17] with an unclean spirit met Him. 3 He lived among the tombs, and no one could restrain him anymore, even with a chain. 4 For he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but the chains had been ripped apart by him and the shackles broken. No one was strong enough to tame him.
5 And through it all, night and day, at the graveyard and in the mountains, he kept screaming and gashing himself with stones.
6 When he saw Yeshua from a distance, he ran and bowed down before Him. 7 Crying out with a loud voice, he said,
"What's between You and me, Yeshua, Ben El Elyon? I'm warning you, in the name of God, do not torment me!" 8 For Yeshua had said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" 9 Then Yeshua began questioning him, "What is your name?"
And he answered, "My name is Legion,[18] for we are many."
10 He kept begging Him not to send them out of the country.
11 Now a large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside nearby.
12 The unclean spirits urged Him, saying, "Send us to the pigs, so we may enter them." 13 So Yeshua gave them permission.
The unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs. And the herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the cliff and were drowned in the sea.
14 The herdsmen ran away and told the town and countryside, and they came to see what had happened. 15 Now they came to Yeshua and saw the madman who had had the legion. He was sitting there, dressed in clothes and in his right mind. The people were scared.
16 Those who had seen it described in detail what had happened to the man plagued by a demon, and they also told about the pigs. 17 And they began to beg Yeshua to leave their country. 18 As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been infested with demons kept begging to remain with Him.

19 Yeshua did not let him, but He told him, “Go home to your friends and tell them how much ADONAI has done for you, how He showed you mercy.”
20 So he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis[19]
how much Yeshua had done for him. And all were amazed.

Power in His Touch

21 When Yeshua had crossed over in the boat again to the other side, a big crowd gathered around Him; and He was by the sea. 22 Then one of the synagogue leaders, named Jairus, comes. Seeing Him, he falls at His feet. 23 He begs Him a great deal, saying, “My little daughter is near death! Come and lay hands on her so that she may be healed and live!”
24 So Yeshua went off with him, and a big crowd was following Him and pressing upon Him. 25 And there was a woman with a blood flow for twelve years,[20] 26 who had suffered much under many doctors. She had spent all that she had without benefit; instead, she grew worse. 27 When she heard about Yeshua, she came through the crowd from behind and touched His garment. 28 For she kept saying, “If I touch even His clothes, I shall be healed.”
29 Right away the blood flow stopped, and she felt in her body that she was healed from her disease. 30 At once Yeshua, knowing in Himself that power had gone out from Him, turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My clothes?” 31 His disciples responded, “You see the crowd pressing upon
You and you say, ‘Who touched Me?’” 32 But He kept looking around to see who had done this.
33 But the woman, scared and shaking, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. 34 And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in shalom and be healed from your disease.”
35 While Yeshua was still speaking, messengers come from the house of the synagogue leader, saying, “Your daughter is dead.
Why do you still trouble the Teacher?”
36 But ignoring what they said, Yeshua tells the synagogue leader, “Do not be afraid; only believe.” 37 He did not let anyone follow Him except Peter, Jacob, and John, the brother of Jacob.
38 They come to the house of the synagogue leader. He sees a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. 39 After entering, He said to them, “Why make such a fuss and weep? The child didn’t die, but is sleeping.”

40 They start jeering at Him. But after sending all of them out, He takes the child’s father and mother, and those with Him, and enters where the child was. 41 Then, taking hold of the child’s hand, He tells her, “Talitha koum,”[21] which means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up.” 42 Immediately, the girl stood up and began to walk around! (She was twelve years old.) And they were overcome with astonishment. 43 But He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this, and He said something to eat should be given to her.

Responding to Rejection

Mark 6 [1] Now Yeshua went out from there, and He comes to His hometown, and His disciples follow Him. [2] When Shabbat came,
He began to teach in the synagogue. Many listeners were amazed, saying, “Where did this fellow get these things?
What’s this wisdom given to Him? Such miracles are done by His hands! [3] Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Miriam, and the brother of Jacob and Joseph and Judah and Simon? Aren’t His sisters here with us?” And they took offense at Him.

[4] Then Yeshua began saying to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his own house.” [5] He was not able to do any miracle, except that He laid hands on a few sick people and healed them. [6] And He was astonished because of their unbelief.[22] And He was going around among the villages teaching.

[7] Yeshua summoned the Twelve, and He began to send them out two by two. And He gave them authority over the unclean spirits. [8] He directed them to take nothing for the journey except a walking stick—no bread, no bag, no copper coin in their belt—[9] but to wear sandals and not to put on two shirts.[23]

[10] He was also telling them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place. [11] And whatever place will not receive you or listen to you, as you leave from there, shake the dust off the bottom of your feet as a witness against them.” [12] So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent, [13] and they were driving out many demons and anointing with oil
many who were sick and healing them.

[14] King Herod heard, for Yeshua’s name had become known.
Some were saying, “John the Immerser has risen from the dead! Because of this, these powers are at work in Him!” [15] But others were saying, “It’s Elijah!” Still others were saying, “It’s a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.”[24]

[16] But when Herod heard, he said, “John, the one I beheaded, has been raised!” [17] For Herod himself sent and arrested John and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because Herod had married her. 18 For John had been telling Herod, “It is not permitted for you to have your brother’s wife.”[25] 19 Now Herodias had a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she wasn’t able. 20 For Herod was in awe of John and kept him safe, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man. When he listened to John he was confused, but he still listened gladly.

21 An opportunity came—when Herod, on his birthday, gave a banquet for his high officials, military brass, and the leaders of the Galilee. 22 When the daughter of Herodias[26] came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those reclining with him. And the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you want, and I’ll give it to you!” 23 He vowed to her, “Whatever you ask of me I’ll give you, up to half of my kingdom!”

24 She left the room and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?”

Her mother said, “The head of John the Immerser!”

25 Immediately she rushed to the king and requested, “I want you to give me, right now, the head of John the Immerser on a platter!”

26 The king became very sorrowful; but because of his oaths and those reclining with him, he didn’t want to refuse her.

27 Immediately the king sent an executioner and gave orders to bring John’s head. And the executioner went out and beheaded John in the prison, 28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.
29 When John’s disciples heard, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding 5000 Families

30 The twelve emissaries gathered together with Yeshua, and they reported to Him all they had done and taught. 31 There were many coming and going, and they had no time even to eat. So He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to an isolated place and rest awhile.” 32 So they left privately by boat to an isolated place. 33 However, the people saw them leaving, and many recognized them. They ran on foot from all the towns to get there ahead of them. 34 As Yeshua came ashore, He saw a large crowd and felt compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd.[27] So He taught them many things.

35 When it was already late, His disciples came to Him and said, “This place is isolated, and the hour is already late.
36 Send these people away so they can go into the nearby countryside and the villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

37 But He answered and said to them, “You give them something to eat!”

And they said to Him, “Should we go and spend two hundred denarii on bread to give them something to eat?”

38 Then He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.”

When they found out, they said, “Five, and two fish.”

39 Then Yeshua made them all sit down in groups on the green grass. 40 So they reclined in groups of hundreds and fifties. 41 And He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha. He broke the loaves and kept giving them to the disciples to serve to the people; and He divided the two fish among them all. 42 They all ate and were satisfied, 43 and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and fish. 44 Now there were five thousand men who ate the loaves.

Walking on Water

45 Right away, Yeshua made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He Himself was sending the crowd away. 46 After leaving them, He went up on the hillside to pray.

47 And when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea and He was alone on the land. 48 He saw the disciples struggling to row, for the wind was against them. Around the fourth watch in the night,[28] Yeshua comes to them, walking on the sea; and He wanted to pass by them. 49 But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought He was a ghost and cried out—50 for they all saw Him and were terrified.

But immediately, He spoke to them. He said, “Take courage!
I am. Do not be afraid.” 51 Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped. They were utterly dumbfounded, 52 for they still hadn’t understood about the loaves. Instead, their hearts were hardened.

Miracles Multiply

53 After they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and set anchor there. 54 As they got out of the boat, immediately people recognized Yeshua. 55 They ran about the region and began to carry around on their mats all those who were in bad shape, to wherever they heard He was. 56 And wherever He entered villages, towns, or countryside, people were placing the sick in the marketplaces and begging Him to let them touch even the tzitzit of His garment—and all who touched it were being healed.

Hearts Harden

Mark 7 1 Now the Pharisees and some of the Torah scholars who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Yeshua. 2 And they saw that some of His disciples were eating bread with unclean hands, that is, not washed. 3 (For the Pharisees and all Jewish people do not eat unless they wash their hands up to the elbow, keeping the tradition of the elders. 4 And when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they perform a ritual washing.[29] There are many other traditions they have received and hold, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels.)[30]
5 The Pharisees and Torah scholars questioned Yeshua, "Why don't Your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders? Why do they eat bread with unwashed hands?" 6 And He said to them, "Rightly did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written,

> 'This people honors Me with their lips
> but their heart is far from Me.
> 7 And in vain they worship Me,
> teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'[31]

8 Having left behind the commandment of God, you hold on to the tradition of men."
9 He was also telling them, "You set aside the commands of God, in order that you may validate your own tradition. 10 For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death.'[32] 11 But you say if anyone tells his father or mother, 'Whatever you might have gained from me is korban (that is, an offering to God),' 12 then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother, 13 making void the word of God with your tradition that you've handed down. And you do many such things."[33]

14 Then Yeshua called the crowd again and began saying to them, “Hear Me, everyone, and understand. 15 There is nothing outside the man that can make him unholy by going into him.
Rather, it is what comes out of the man that makes the man
unholy.”[34] (16)[35]

17 When He had left the crowd and entered the house, His disciples questioned Him about the parable. 18 And He said to them, “Are you then also lacking understanding? Don’t you grasp that whatever goes into the man cannot make him unholy? 19 For it does not enter into the heart but into the stomach, and then goes out into the sewer, cleansing all foods.”[36]

20 And He continued, “It is what comes out of the man that makes the man unholy. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, come evil intentions, sexual immorality, theft, murder, 22 adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustfulness, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. 23 All these evil things come from within and make the man unholy.”

Miracles Touch Gentile Lives

24 Yeshua got up and left from there to the region of Tyre.
When He had entered a house, He didn't want anyone to know;
but He couldn't escape notice. 25 A woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him. She came immediately and fell at His feet. 26 The woman was a Greek, from Syrophoenicia. And she kept begging Yeshua to drive the demon out of her daughter.
27 He was telling her, "First let the children get their fill, for it's not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."
28 "Yes, Master," she said to Him, "but even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."
29 Then He said to her, "Because of this word, go your way!
The demon has left your daughter." 30 She went home and found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.
31 Again He left the region of Tyre and came through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, within the region of the Decapolis. 32 They bring Him a deaf man who had a speech impediment, and they beg Him to lay His hand on him. 33 Yeshua took him aside from the crowd to a private place, and He put His fingers in the man's ears. After spitting, He touched the man's tongue.
34 Looking up to heaven, He says to the man, "Ephphatha,"[37]
which means "Be opened!" 35 Immediately the man's ears were opened, his tongue was loosened, and he began to speak plainly. 36 Yeshua ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more He ordered them, the more they continued proclaiming it. 37 People were completely astounded, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear and the mute speak!"

Do You Still Not Understand?

Mark 8 1 In those days, there was another large crowd with nothing to eat, and Yeshua called the disciples. He said to them, 2 “I have compassion for the crowd, because they’ve stayed with Me for three days now and have nothing to eat. 3 If I send them home hungry they’ll pass out on the way, for some of them have come from very far away.”
4 His disciples answered Him, “How can anyone satisfy these people with bread here in a wasteland?”
5 “How many loaves do you have?” Yeshua was asking them.
“Seven,” they said.
6 He directed the crowd to recline on the ground. After taking the seven loaves and giving thanks, He broke them and began giving them to His disciples to serve; and they served them to the crowd. 7 They also had a few small fish and, after offering a bracha for them, He commanded these to be served as well.
8 They ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the broken pieces left over—seven baskets. 9 About four thousand[38] were there, and Yeshua sent them away.
10 Right away, He got into the boat with His disciples and went to the area of Dalmanutha. 11 The Pharisees came and began to argue with Him, demanding a sign from heaven, to test Him. 12 Sighing deeply in His spirit, Yeshua said, “Why does this generation demand a sign? Amen, I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation.” 13 Leaving them, He got back into the boat and crossed to the other side.

The Un-Seeing Disciples

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, and they had only one loaf in the boat. 15 Yeshua was warning them, “Watch out! Beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and the hametz of Herod.” 16 They began to discuss with each other that they had no bread. 17 And Yeshua, aware of this, said to them, “Why do you discuss that you have no bread? You still don’t get it? Don’t you understand? Are your hearts hardened? 18 Having eyes, don’t you see? And having ears, don’t you hear? And don’t you remember? 19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up?”

“Twelve,” they say to Him.

20 “When I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up?”

“Seven,” they say to Him.

21 He said to them, “Do you still not understand?”

Eyes that Need Opening

22 They come to Bethsaida. Some people bring a blind man to Yeshua and beg Him to touch the man. 23 Taking the blind man by the hand, Yeshua brought him outside the village. After spitting on the man's eyes and laying His hands on him, Yeshua asked the man, "Do you see anything?" 24 The man looked up and said, "I see men! They look like trees walking about." 25 Then Yeshua put His hands on the man's eyes again. The man looked intently, his sight was restored, and he began to see everything clearly.
26 Yeshua sent him straight home, saying, "Don't even enter the village!"
27 Now Yeshua and His disciples went out to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way He asked His disciples,
"Who do people say that I am?"
28 They told Him, "John the Immerser; and others Elijah; but others, one of the prophets."[39]
29 Then He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?"
Peter answered Him, "You are the Messiah!" 30 And He warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

Revealing the Mission

31 Then He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed, and after three days rise again.[40] 32 He was speaking openly about this. And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. 33 But turning around and looking at His disciples, He rebuked Peter. He said, “Get behind Me, satan! You are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of men.”

34 Then He called the crowd, along with His disciples, and said to them, “If anyone wants to follow after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and keep following Me. 35 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the sake of the Good News will save it.
36 For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? 37 For what could a man give in exchange for his soul? 38 For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this unfaithful and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels!”

Mark 9 1 Yeshua was telling them, “Amen, I tell you, there are some standing here who will never taste death until they see the kingdom of God come with power!”

A Glimpse of His Glory

2 After six days, Yeshua takes with Him Peter and Jacob and John, and brings them up a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them. 3 His clothes became radiant and brilliantly white, whiter than any launderer on earth could bleach them. 4 Then Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Yeshua.

5 Peter responds to Yeshua, “Rabbi, it’s good for us to be here. Let’s make three sukkot—one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” 6 (He didn’t know what to say, for they were terrified.)

7 Then a cloud came, overshadowing them;[41] and out of the cloud came a voice, “This is My Son, whom I love. Listen to Him!”[42] 8 Suddenly when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Yeshua.

9 As they were coming down from the mountain, Yeshua ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man rose up from the dead. 10 They kept this word to themselves, discussing among themselves what it is to rise up from the dead. 11 And they questioned Him, saying, “Why do the Torah scholars say that Elijah must come first?”

12 Now He told them, “Indeed Elijah comes first;[43] he restores all things. And how is it written that the Son of Man must suffer much and be treated with contempt?[44] 13 I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written about him.”[45]

The Secret of Prayer

14 When they came to the disciples, they saw a big crowd around them and the Torah scholars arguing with them.
15 Suddenly, when the whole crowd saw Yeshua, they were amazed and began running to greet Him. 16 He questioned them, “What are you arguing about with them?” 17 And a man from the crowd answered Him, “Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a spirit that makes him mute.
18 Whenever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes stiff. I told Your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn’t!” 19 And answering them, He said, “Oh faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you?
Bring him to Me.”
20 They brought the boy to Yeshua. When the spirit saw Him, immediately it threw the boy into a convulsion. The boy fell to the ground and began rolling around and foaming at the mouth. 21 Yeshua asked the father, “How long has this been happening to him?”
“Since he was a child,” the man answered. 22 “It has often thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion and help us!” 23 “‘If You can’?” Yeshua said to him. “All things are possible for one who believes!” 24 Immediately the boy’s father cried out, “I believe! Help my unbelief!”
25 When Yeshua saw that a crowd was gathering fast, He rebuked the unclean spirit, telling it, “I command you, deaf and mute spirit, come out of him and do not ever enter him again!” 26 After howling and shaking the boy wildly, it came out. The boy became so much like a corpse that many were saying, “He’s dead!” 27 But Yeshua took him by the hand and lifted him, and the boy stood up.
28 After Yeshua came into the house, His disciples began questioning Him in private, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”

29 And He said to them, “This kind cannot come out except by prayer.”[46]
30 They left from there and passed through the Galilee. Yeshua didn’t want anyone to know, 31 for He was teaching His disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him. And after He is killed, three days later He will rise up.” 32 But the disciples didn’t understand this statement, and they were afraid to question Him about it.

The Secret of Childlike Humility

[33] Then they came to Capernaum. And when Yeshua was in the house, He began to ask the disciples, “What were you discussing on the way?” [34] But they kept quiet, because on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest.
[35] Sitting down, He called the Twelve and said to them, “If any man wants to be first, he shall be least of all and the servant of everyone.” [36] Taking a small child, He set him in the midst of them. And taking him in His arms, He said to them, [37] “Whoever welcomes one of these children in My name, welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes Me, welcomes not Me
but the One who sent Me.”
[38] John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he wasn’t following us.” [39] But Yeshua responded, “Don’t stop him! No one who does a miracle in My name will be able soon afterward to speak evil about Me. [40] He who is not against us is for us. [41] For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in My name because you belong to Messiah, amen I tell you, he will never lose his reward.”
[42] “But whoever causes one of these little ones who trust in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone put around his neck and to be thrown into the sea!”

The Secret of Salt

43 “And if your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off! It is better for you to enter into life crippled than, having two hands, to go to Gehenna,[47] into the unquenchable fire. (44)[48] 45 And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off! It’s better for you to enter life lame than, having your two feet, to be thrown into Gehenna. (46) 47 If your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out! It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into Gehenna, 48 where

> ‘their worm does not die
> and the fire is not quenched.’[49]

49 “For everyone will be salted with fire. 50 Salt is good; but if the salt becomes unsalty, with what will you flavor it? Have salt in yourselves, and keep shalom with one another.”

Abide in Marriage

Mark 10 1 Then getting up from there, Yeshua goes to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. Again crowds gather around Him, and, as was His custom, He began to teach them once more.
2 Pharisees came up, and to test Him they began asking, “Is it permitted for a man to divorce his wife?”
3 And He replied to them, “What did Moses command you?”
4 The Pharisees said, “Moses permitted a man to write a bill of divorce and to put her away.”[50] 5 But Yeshua said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment! 6 But from the beginning of creation, God ‘made them male and female. 7 For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, 8 and the two shall become one flesh.’[51] So they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate!”
10 In the house, the disciples began questioning Him about this again. 11 And He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. 12 And if she divorces her husband and marries another, she is committing adultery.”

Let the Little Ones Come!

13 Now people were bringing little children to Yeshua so He might touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. 14 But when Yeshua saw this, He got angry. He told them, “Let the little children come to Me! Do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 15 Amen, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it!” 16 And He took them in His arms and began blessing them, laying His hands on them.

The Cost of Discipleship

17 As Yeshua was setting out on His way, a man ran up to Him, fell on his knees before Him, and asked, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” 18 “Why do you call Me good?” Yeshua said to him. “No one is good except One—that is God. 19 You know the commandments, ‘Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony,’ do not cheat, ‘honor your father and mother.’”[52]
20 The man responded, “Teacher, all these I have kept since my youth!”
21 Looking at him, Yeshua loved him and said, “One thing you lack. Go, sell as much as you have, and give to the poor; and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.” 22 But at this statement, the man became sad and went away grieving,
for he had much property.
23 Then looking around, Yeshua says to His disciples, “How hard it will be for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!” 24 The disciples were amazed at His words. But Yeshua answers again and says to them, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.” 26 The disciples were even more astonished, saying among themselves, “Then who can be saved?” 27 Looking at them, Yeshua said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God!”[53] 28 Peter began to say to Him, “Look, we’ve left everything to follow You!”
29 “Amen, I tell you,” Yeshua replied, “there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or property, for My sake and for the sake of the Good News, 30 who will not receive a hundred times as much now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and property, along with persecutions; and in the olam ha-ba, eternal life. [31] But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

Death and Resurrection Revealed

32 They were on the way going up to Jerusalem, and Yeshua was going ahead of them. And they were amazed, while those who followed were fearful. Again Yeshua took the Twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him.
33 He said, “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars. They will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles.[54] 34 They will mock Him and spit on Him, scourge Him and kill Him. Yet after three days, He will rise again!”
35 Then Jacob and John, the sons of Zebedee, come up to Him, saying, “Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask of
You.”
36 And He said to them, “What do you want Me to do for you?”
37 They said to Him, “Let us sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory.” 38 But Yeshua answered them, “You don’t know what you’re asking! Are you able to drink the cup I drink, or endure the immersion I must endure?”
39 They said to Him, “We are able.”
And Yeshua said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink, and you will endure the immersion I must endure. 40 But to sit on My right or left is not Mine to grant—it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”
41 Now when the ten heard, they started to get angry with Jacob and John. 42 And calling them over, Yeshua said to them, “You know those recognized as rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones play the tyrant over them. 43 Yet it is not this way among you. But whoever wants to be great among you shall be your servant, 44 and whoever wants to be first among you shall be slave of all. 45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Ben-David Heals the Blind

46 Then they came to Jericho. Now as Yeshua was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.
47 When he heard that it was Yeshua of Natzeret, he began to cry out, “Ben-David, Yeshua! Have mercy on me!” 48 Many were warning him to be quiet; but he kept crying out all the more, “Ben-David, have mercy on me!”[55]
49 Yeshua stopped and said, “Call him over.”
So they call the blind man, saying, “Take heart! Get up, He’s calling you!” 50 Throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and came to Yeshua.
51 And answering him, Yeshua said, “What do you want Me to do for you?”
The blind man said, “Rabboni, I want to see again!”
52 Yeshua said to him, “Go! Your faith has made you well.”
Instantly he regained his sight and began following Yeshua down the road.

Ben-David Enters Jerusalem

Mark 11 [1] Now as they draw near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, to the Mount of Olives, Yeshua sends two of His disciples [2] and says to them, “Go into the village ahead of you.
Right away as you enter it, you will find a colt tied up that no one has ever sat upon.[56] Untie it and bring it. [3] If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Master needs it.’
And right away he will send it back here.”[57]
[4] They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a door. And they untied it. [5] Some people standing there began saying to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”
[6] They answered just as Yeshua had told them, and the people let them go. [7] And they brought the colt to Yeshua and laid their cloaks on it, and He sat on it. [8] Many spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread branches cut from the fields.[58] [9] Those going before and those following kept shouting,

> “Hoshia-na! Baruch ha-ba b’shem ADONAI!
> Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!
> [10] Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!
> Hoshia-na in the highest!”[59]

[11] And He entered Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around at everything, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve, since it was already late.

The Fruit of the Faithful

12 The next day, when they had left Bethany, He became hungry. 13 Seeing from a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if He would find any fruit on it. When He came up to it, He found nothing except leaves, because it wasn't the season for figs. 14 And He said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" And His disciples were listening.
15 Then they came to Jerusalem. And He entered the Temple and started to drive out those selling and buying in the Temple.
He overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those selling doves, 16 and He wouldn't let anyone carry goods through the Temple. 17 And He began to teach them, saying, "Is it not written,

> 'My house shall be called > a house of prayer for all the nations'?[60]
> But you have made it a 'den of thieves.'"[61]

18 The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars heard this and began looking for a way to destroy Him; for they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching.
19 Whenever evening came, Yeshua and His disciples would leave the city.
20 As they were passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree shriveled from the roots. 21 Peter remembered and said to Yeshua, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree You cursed has shriveled up!"
22 And Yeshua answered, saying to them, "Have faith in God!
23 Amen, I tell you, if someone says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but trusts that what he says is happening, so shall it be for him.
24 For this reason I say to you, whatever you pray and ask, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.
25 Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your transgressions." (26)[62]

A Question for a Question

[27] Again they come to Jerusalem. While Yeshua was walking in the Temple, the ruling kohanim, Torah scholars, and elders come up to Him. [28] And they start saying to Him, “By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority to do these things?”

[29] Yeshua said to them, “I will put one question to you. Answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. [30] The immersion of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me!”

[31] They began to dialogue among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ [32] But if we say, ‘From men’. . .?” They were afraid of the crowd, for all held that John really was a prophet. [33] So answering Yeshua, they say, “We don’t know.”

And Yeshua tells them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Taking the Kingdom by Force

Mark 12 1 Yeshua began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard. He put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a tower. He leased it to some tenant farmers and went on a journey. 2 And at the season, he sent a servant to collect from the tenants part of the vineyard’s fruit.
3 But grabbing him, they beat him up and sent him away empty-handed. 4 And again the man sent another servant to them, and they wounded his head and treated him shamefully. 5 He sent another, and that one they killed; and so on with many others, beating some and killing some. 6 He had yet one, a well-loved son. He sent him to them last of all, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’
7 “But those tenants said to one another, ‘This is the heir!
Come on, let’s kill him and the inheritance will be ours!’ 8 So grabbing the son, they killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.
9 “What then will the master of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants and give the vineyard to others.
10 Haven’t you read this Scripture?

> ‘The stone which the builders rejected,
> this has become the chief cornerstone.
> 11 This came from ADONAI,
> and it is marvelous in our eyes.’”[63]

12 They were trying to seize Yeshua, because they realized that He spoke the parable against them. But they feared the crowd, so they left Him and went away.

A Test of Loyalty

[13] Then they send some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Yeshua in order to trap Him with a word. [14] They come and say to Him, “Teacher, we know that You are honest, and what others think doesn’t concern You. You don’t look at men’s appearance, but teach the way of God according to the truth. Is it permitted to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? [15] Should we pay, or shouldn’t we?”

But Yeshua saw through their hypocrisy and said to them, “Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a denarius so I may see it.”

[16] They brought one. And He said to them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?”

“Caesar’s,” they said to Him.

[17] Then Yeshua said to them, “Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were completely amazed at Him.

The Challenge of the Sadducees

18 Then Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came and began questioning Yeshua, saying, 19 “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that ‘if a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, then his brother should take the widow and father children for his brother.’[64] 20 There were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and, when he died, left no offspring. 21 And the second took her and died, leaving no offspring, and the third likewise. 22 Now the seven left no offspring. Last of all, the woman died, too. 23 In the resurrection, when they rise up, whose wife will she be? For all seven had married her.” 24 Yeshua said to them, “Isn’t this the reason you’ve gone astray, because you don’t understand the Scriptures or the power of God? 25 For when they rise up from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. 26 But concerning the dead being raised, haven’t you read in the book of Moses about the burning bush? How God said to him, ‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’?[65] 27 He’s not the God of the dead, but of the living. You have gone far astray!”

Love Ends the Argument

28 One of the Torah scholars came and heard them debating.
Seeing that Yeshua had answered them well, he asked Him,
"Which commandment is first of all?"
29 Yeshua answered, "The first is, 'Shema Yisrael, ADONAI Eloheinu, ADONAI echad. Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is One. 30 And you shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.'[66] 31 The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'[67] There is no other commandment greater than these."
32 "Well said, Teacher," the Torah scholar said to Him. "You have spoken the truth, that He is echad, and besides Him there is no other![68] 33 And 'to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, and with all the strength,'[69] and 'to love the neighbor as oneself,'[70] is much more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."
34 When Yeshua saw that he had answered wisely, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared any longer to question Him.

Who Is King David's Lord?

35 While Yeshua was teaching in the Temple, He said, "How is it that the Torah scholars say that the Messiah is Ben-David?
36 David himself, through the Ruach ha-Kodesh, said,

> 'ADONAI said to my Lord,
> "Sit at My right hand,
> until I put Your enemies under Your feet."'[71]

37 If David himself calls Him 'Lord,' in what way is He his son?" And the large crowd was listening to Him with delight.
38 In His teaching He said, "Watch out for the Torah scholars, who like to walk around in long robes. They like greetings in the marketplaces, [39] the best seats in the synagogues, and places of honor at feasts. [40] They devour widows' houses and make long prayers as a show. These men will receive greater condemnation!"

[41] He sat down opposite the treasury and began watching how the people were putting money into the offering box. Many rich people were putting in a lot. [42] Then a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, worth less than a penny.
[43] Calling His disciples over, He said to them, "Amen, I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those contributing to the box! [44] For they all put in from their surplus; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything she had, her whole living."

Signs of the End

Mark 13 [1] As Yeshua was going out of the Temple, one of His disciples said to Him, “Teacher, look! What stones and what buildings!”

[2] Yeshua said to him, “You see these great buildings? Not one stone here will be left upon another. Every one will be torn down!”

[3] As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the Temple, Peter, Jacob, John, and Andrew were questioning Him privately, [4] “Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?”

[5] Yeshua began to tell them, “Watch out that no one leads you astray! [6] Many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and they will lead many astray. [7] When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed, for this must happen but it is not yet the end. [8] For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines. These things are only the beginning of birth pains.

[9] “Watch out for yourselves! They will hand you over to the courts, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings because of Me, as a witness to them. [10] The Good News must first be proclaimed to all the nations. [11] When they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Say whatever is given to you in that hour, for it is not you who speaks but the Ruach ha-Kodesh. [12] Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. And children will rise up against parents and have them put to death. [13] And you will be hated by all because of My name, but the one who endures to the end will be saved.”

Birth Pangs Before Deliverance

14 “But when you see ‘the abomination of desolation’[72] standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then those in Judea must flee to the mountains. 15 The one on the roof must not go down, nor enter to take anything out of his house. 16 And the one in the field must not turn back to get his cloak. 17 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! 18 Pray that it will not happen in winter.

19 “For in those days there will be trouble such as has never happened,[73] not since the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will. 20 And unless ADONAI had cut short those days, no one would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom He chose, He cut short the days.

21 “And then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here’s the Messiah!’
or, ‘Look, there He is!’ do not believe it. 22 For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up[74] and show signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, the chosen. 23 So be careful! See, I have told you everything beforehand.”

Messianic Victory

24 “But in those days, after that trouble,

‘the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light,
25 and the stars will be falling from heaven,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.’[75]

26 And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’[76] with great power and glory. 27 Then He will send out the angels and will gather together His chosen from the four winds, from the end of the earth, to the end of heaven.”

Keep Watch

28 “Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 29 So also, when you see all these things happening, know that it is near, at the door. 30 Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen.
31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away. 32 But of that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven nor the Son, except the Father.
33 “Keep on the lookout! Stay alert! For you do not know when the time is. 34 It is like a man away on a journey. After leaving his house and putting his servants in charge and giving each his task, he also commanded the doorkeeper to watch.
35 Therefore stay alert, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, when the rooster crows, or in the early morning. 36 So watch in case, coming suddenly, he finds you asleep. 37 What I say to you I say to all: ‘Stay alert!’”

Anointed for Burial

Mark 14 [1] Now it was two days before Passover and the Feast of Matzah. The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars were searching for a way to grab Yeshua by stealth and kill Him. [2] "But not during the festival," they were saying, "so there won't be a riot among the people."

[3] And while Yeshua was in Bethany at the house of Simon ha-Metzora, reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive oil of pure nard. Breaking open the jar, she poured it over His head. [4] But some got angry and said among themselves, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted? [5] It could have been sold for over three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor!" And they kept scolding her.

[6] But Yeshua said, "Leave her alone. Why do you cause trouble for her? She's done Me a mitzvah. [7] For you always have the poor with you, and you can do good for them whenever you want; but you won't always have Me. [8] She did what she could—she came beforehand to anoint My body for burial. [9] Amen, I tell you, wherever the Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

[10] Then Judah from Kriot, one of the Twelve, went out to the ruling kohanim to betray Yeshua to them. [11] They were delighted when they heard this and promised to give him money. And Judah began looking for a chance to hand Him over.

New Covenant at the Last Seder

[12] Now on the first day of matzah, when they were slaughtering the Passover lamb, Yeshua's disciples say to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

[13] He sends two of His disciples and tells them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him, 14 and wherever he enters, tell the homeowner, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is My guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?”’ 15 He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.” 16 The disciples went out, came to the city, and found just what Yeshua had told them. And they prepared the Passover.

17 When it was evening, He came with the Twelve. 18 As they were reclining and eating, Yeshua said, “Amen, I tell you, one of you who is eating with Me will betray Me.” 19 They began to be sorrowful and to say to Him one by one,
“I’m not the one, am I?”
20 He said to them, “It’s one of the Twelve, one who dips with Me in the bowl.[77] 21 For the Son of Man indeed goes, just as it is written about Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born!”
22 And while they were eating, He took matzah;[78] and after He offered the bracha, He broke it and gave it to them and said, “Take; this is My body.” 23 And He took a cup; and after giving thanks, He gave to them and they all drank from it.
24 And He said to them, “This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.[79] 25 Amen, I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God.”

Denial Predicted

26 After singing the Hallel,[80] they went out to the Mount of Olives. 27 And Yeshua said to them, “You will all fall away, for it is written,

> ‘I will strike the Shepherd,
> and the sheep will be scattered.’[81]

28 But after I’m raised up, I will go before you to the Galilee.”
29 Peter said to Him, “Even though all fall away, I won’t!” 30 And Yeshua said to him, “Amen, I tell you, today—this very night—before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.”
31 But Peter kept insisting exceedingly, “Even if I must die with You, I’ll never deny You!” And they all were saying the same.

A Night of Painful Prayer

32 Then they come to a place whose name is Gethsemane; and Yeshua says to His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” 33 He takes with Him Peter, Jacob, and John; and He began to be deeply distressed and troubled. 34 And He tells them, “My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch.”
35 Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and began praying that if possible this hour might pass Him by. 36 And He was saying, “Abba, Father, all things are possible for You! Take this cup from Me! Yet not what I will, but what You will.”
37 Then He comes and finds them sleeping; and He tells Peter, “Simon, you’re asleep? Couldn’t you keep watch for one hour?
38 Keep watching and praying, so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.” 39 Again
He went away and prayed, saying the same words. 40 And again
He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy. They didn’t know what to answer Him. 41 And He comes the third time and says to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of sinners. 42 Get up, let’s go! Look, My betrayer is near.”

Betrayed and Abandoned

43 Right away, while Yeshua was still speaking, Judah comes up, one of the Twelve, and with him a crowd with swords and clubs, from the ruling kohanim, Torah scholars, and elders.
44 Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, “The One I kiss, He’s the One! Seize Him and lead Him away under guard.”
45 As soon as Judah came, he drew near[82] to Yeshua and said, “Rabbi!” and kissed Him. 46 Then they threw their hands on Yeshua and seized Him. 47 But one of the bystanders, drawing his sword, struck the servant of the kohen gadol and cut off his ear.
48 Yeshua said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs, to capture Me as you would against a revolutionary?
49 Every day I was with you in the Temple teaching, and you didn’t seize Me. But this is so that the Scriptures[83] would be fulfilled.” 50 And all fled, abandoning Him.[84] 51 A certain young man was following Him, with nothing but a linen cloth around his body, and they grabbed him. 52 But he ran away naked, leaving behind the linen cloth.

Falsely Charged

53 Then they led Yeshua away to the kohen gadol. And all the ruling kohanim, elders, and Torah scholars gathered. 54 Peter had followed Him from a distance, right into the courtyard of the kohen gadol. He was sitting with the guards, warming himself by the fire.
55 Now the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin kept trying to get evidence against Yeshua so they could put Him to death, but they weren't finding any. 56 Many were giving false testimony against Him, but their testimony wasn't consistent.
57 Some stood up and began to give false testimony against Him, saying, 58 "We heard Him say, 'I will destroy this Temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" 59 Yet even then, their testimony didn't agree.
60 The kohen gadol stood up in the middle and questioned Yeshua, saying, "Do You have no answer? What is this they're testifying against You?"
61 But keeping silent, Yeshua did not answer. Again the kohen gadol questioned Him, "Are you Mashiach, Son of the Blessed One?"[85]
62 "I am," said Yeshua, "and you shall see 'the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Powerful One,' and 'coming with the clouds of heaven'!"[86] 63 Tearing his clothes, the kohen gadol says, "Why do we still need witnesses? 64 You've heard the blasphemy. What seems right to you?"
Then all condemned Him as deserving death. 65 Some began to spit on Him, to blindfold Him, and to beat Him with their fists, saying, "Prophesy!" Also the guards slapped Him around.

The Rooster Crows

66 As Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the kohen gadol comes by. 67 Seeing Peter warming himself, she looked straight at him. “You also were with Yeshua of Natzeret,” she says.
68 But he denied it, saying, “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about!” Then he went outside to the gateway, and a rooster crowed.
69 Seeing him, the servant girl began again to tell the bystanders, “This is one of them.” 70 But again he denied it. And a little while later, the bystanders were again saying to Peter, “Surely you’re one of them, for you’re also a Galilean.” 71 But he began to curse himself and to swear an oath: “I do not know this Man you’re talking about!” 72 Right then, a rooster crowed a second time. Then Peter called to mind the word Yeshua had said to him: “Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.” And he broke down and began to weep.

Handed Over to the Romans

Mark 15 1 Right at daybreak, the ruling kohanim held a meeting to consult with the elders and Torah scholars and the whole Sanhedrin. They tied up Yeshua, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate. 2 Pilate interrogated Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

Yeshua answers him, “As you say.”

3 The ruling kohanim began to accuse Him of many things.
4 Again, Pilate asked Him, “Aren’t you going to answer? Look how many charges they’re bringing against You!” 5 But Yeshua did not answer, so Pilate was amazed.

6 Now during the feast, he used to release to them one prisoner, anyone they were asking for. 7 Now a man named Bar-Abba[87] had been in jail with the rebels who had committed murder during the rebellion. 8 The crowd came up and began to request what he was accustomed to do for them. 9 But Pilate answered them, saying, “Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?” 10 For he knew that out of envy the ruling kohanim had handed Him over. 11 But the ruling kohanim stirred up the crowd, so he would release Bar-Abba to them instead.

12 Then answering again, Pilate said to them, “So what do you want me to do with the One you call the King of the Jews?”

13 They shouted back, “Execute Him!”

14 Pilate responded, “Why? What evil has He done?”

But they shouted all the more, “Execute Him!”

15 Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Bar-Abba for them. And after he had Yeshua scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

16 The soldiers took Him away, into the palace, the governor’s mansion called the Praetorium. And they call together the cohort[88] of soldiers. 17 They dress Him up in purple. After braiding a crown of thorns, they put it on Him. 18 And they began to salute Him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” 19 Over and over, they kept hitting Him on the head with a staff and spitting on Him; and kneeling down, they worshiped Him. 20 When they finished mocking Him, they stripped the purple off Him and put His own clothes back on Him. And they led Him out to crucify Him.

Crucified as King of the Jews

21 Now Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was coming in from the countryside. The soldiers force this passerby to carry Yeshua's cross-beam.[89] 22 They bring Yeshua to the place called Golgotha (which is translated, Place of a Skull). 23 They were offering Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He didn't take it. 24 Then they crucify Him and divide up His clothing among themselves, casting lots for them[90] to see who should take what.

25 Now it was the third hour[91] when they nailed Him on the stake. 26 And the inscription of the charge against Him was written above: "THE KING OF THE JEWS." 27 And with Him they execute two outlaws, one on His right and one on His left. (28)[92]

29 Those passing by were jeering at Him, shaking their heads and saying, "Ha! You who are going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days, 30 save Yourself by coming down from the stake!"

31 Likewise the ruling kohanim, along with the Torah scholars, were also mocking Him among themselves. "He saved others," they were saying, "but He can't save Himself? 32 Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down now from the stake, so we may see and believe!" Even those executed with Him were ridiculing Him.

Death and Burial

33 When the sixth hour had come, darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour.[93] 34 At the ninth hour Yeshua cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?”[94] which is translated, “My God, My God, why have You abandoned
Me?”[95]
35 When some of the bystanders heard it, they began saying, “Look, He’s calling for Elijah.” 36 Then someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine. He put it on a stick and was offering it to Yeshua to drink, saying, “Wait, let’s see if Elijah comes to take Him down.” 37 But letting out a loud cry, Yeshua breathed His last.
38 Then the curtain[96] of the Temple was split in two, from top to bottom. 39 When the centurion, who was standing in front of Him, saw the way Yeshua breathed His last, he said, “This Man really was the Son of God!”
40 There were also women watching from a distance. Among them were Miriam from Magdala, Miriam the mother of Jacob
the younger and of Joses,[97] and Salome. 41 They would follow Him and serve Him when He was in the Galilee. Many other women who had gone up together with Him to Jerusalem were there also.
42 Now evening had already come. Since it was the Day of Preparation, that is, the day before Shabbat, 43 Joseph of Arimathea, a respected council member who himself was waiting for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for Yeshua’s body.
44 Pilate was surprised that He was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him whether Yeshua had been dead for long. 45 When Pilate learned this from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. 46 Joseph bought a linen cloth, took Him down, wrapped Him in the linen, and laid Him in a tomb that had been cut out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 Miriam from Magdala and Miriam the mother of Joses were watching where Yeshua’s body was placed.

The Empty Tomb

Mark 16 1 When Shabbat was over, Miriam of Magdala, Miriam the mother of Jacob, and Salome bought spices, so that they might come and anoint Yeshua's body. 2 Very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they come to the tomb. 3 They were saying to each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" 4 Looking up, they see that the stone (it was really huge) had been rolled away. 5 As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were startled. 6 But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are looking for Yeshua of Natzeret, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here! See the place where they put Him. 7 But go, tell His disciples and Peter, 'He is going before you to the Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you.'" 8 And going outside, they fled from the tomb, gripped by trembling and amazement. They didn't say anything to anybody, for they were afraid.

He Is Risen[98]

9 After He had risen early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Miriam of Magdala, from whom He had driven out seven demons. 10 She went and brought word to those who had been with Him, while they were mourning and weeping.
11 When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her,
they refused to believe.
12 After that, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking on their way to the country. 13 They went and reported it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.
14 Later He appeared to them, the eleven, as they were reclining at the table. He rebuked them for their unbelief and hardheartedness, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had been raised.

Tell the World!

15 He told them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the Good News to every creature. 16 He who believes and is immersed shall be saved, but he who does not believe shall be condemned. 17 These signs will accompany those who believe:
in My name they will drive out demons; they will speak new languages; 18 they will handle snakes; and if they drink anything deadly, it will not harm them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well.”
19 Then the Lord Yeshua, after He had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.
20 And they went out and proclaimed everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that follow.

A Doctor Charts the Facts

Luke 1 1 Now many have undertaken to organize an account of the events fulfilled among us, 2 just as they were handed down to us from the start by the eyewitnesses and reporters of the word. 3 Therefore it seemed best to me also, because I have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, to write for you an orderly record, most excellent Theophilus, 4 so you may know for sure the truth of the words you have been taught.

Prophecy of Birth to the Barren

5 In the days of Herod, King of Judah, there was a kohen named Zechariah from the priestly division of Abijah.[1]
Elizabeth, his wife, was from the daughters of Aaron.
6 Together they were righteous before ADONAI, walking without fault in all His commandments and instructions. 7 But they were childless, because Elizabeth was barren and both of them were elderly.
8 Now it happened to be Zechariah's time to serve as kohen before ADONAI in the order of his division. 9 According to the custom of the priestly office, it became his lot to enter the Holy Place of ADONAI to burn incense.[2] 10 And the whole crowd of people was praying outside at the hour of incense burning.
11 An angel of ADONAI appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. 12 Zechariah was in turmoil when he saw the angel, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard.
Your wife, Elizabeth, will give birth to your son, and you will name him John. 14 And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. 15 He will be great before ADONAI; and he should not drink wine and intoxicating beverage,[3] but he will be filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh just out of his mother's womb. 16 Many of Bnei-Yisrael will turn to ADONAI their God. 17 And he will go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers to the children[4] and the disobedient ones to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready for ADONAI a prepared people.

18 Zechariah said to the angel, “How will I know this for certain? I’m an old man, and my wife is well-advanced in age.”

19 And speaking to him, the angel declared, “I am Gabriel, the one standing in God’s presence. I was commissioned to tell you and proclaim to you this good news. 20 So look, you will be silent and powerless to speak until the day these things happen, since you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their time.”

21 The people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering about his long delay in the Holy Place. 22 But when he came out, he couldn’t speak to them. Then they realized that he had seen a vision in the Holy Place. He was making signs to them but remained mute. 23 When the days of his priestly service had been completed, he went home. 24 After these days, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and hid herself for five months, saying, 25 “ADONAI has done this for me! In these days He looked upon me, to take away my disgrace among the people.”[5]

Prophecy of Birth to the Virgin

26 Then in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by ADONAI into a town in the Galilee named Natzeret 27 and to a virgin engaged to a man named Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin’s name was Miriam. 28 And coming to her, the angel said, “Shalom, favored one! ADONAI is with you.[6]” 29 But at the message, she was perplexed and kept wondering what kind of greeting this might be. 30 The angel spoke to her, “Do not be afraid, Miriam, for you have found favor with God. 31 Behold, you will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and you shall call His name Yeshua.[7] 32 He will be great and will be called Ben-Elyon. ADONAI Elohim will give Him the throne of David,[8] His father. 33 He shall reign over the house of Jacob for all eternity, and His kingdom will be without end.”[9]

34 Miriam said to the angel, “How can this be, since I am not intimate with a man?”[10]

35 And responding, the angel said to her, “The Ruach ha-Kodesh will come upon you, and the power of Elyon will overshadow you. Therefore, the Holy One being born will be called Ben-Elohim. 36 Behold, even your relative Elizabeth has conceived a son in her old age; and the one who was called barren is six months pregnant. 37 For nothing will be impossible with God.”[11]

38 So Miriam said, “Behold, the servant of ADONAI. Let it be done to me according to your word.” And the angel left her.

Elizabeth Greets Miriam with Joy

39 Now in those days, Miriam got up and quickly traveled into the hill country, to a town in Judah. 40 She entered Zechariah's home and happily greeted Elizabeth. 41 When Elizabeth heard Miriam's greeting, the unborn child leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was completely filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh.
42 She then cried out with a great shout, saying, "You are blessed among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.
43 Who am I, that the mother of my Master should come to me?
44 For even when I just heard the sound of your greeting in my ear, the unborn child leaped with joy in my womb. 45 Blessed is she who trusted that there would be a fulfillment of those things spoken to her by ADONAI."

46 Then Miriam said,

"My soul magnifies ADONAI,[12]
47 and my spirit greatly rejoices in God, my Savior.
48 For He has looked with care upon the humble state of His maidservant.
For behold, from now on all generations will call me
blessed.
49 For the Mighty One has done a great thing for me,
and holy is His name.
50 And His mercy is from generation to generation to the ones who fear Him.
51 He has displayed power with His arm
He has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
52 He has brought down rulers from thrones
and exalted humble ones.
53 He has filled the hungry with good things
and sent away the rich empty-handed.
54 He has helped His servant Israel,[13]
remembering His mercy,

55 just as He spoke to our fathers,
to Abraham and to his seed forever.”

Zechariah Breaks His Silence

56 Miriam stayed with her for three months and then returned to her home. 57 Upon Elizabeth's full term to deliver, she gave birth to a son. 58 Her neighbors and relatives heard how ADONAI had shown her His great mercy, and they began to rejoice with her.
59 Now on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child,[14]
and they kept trying to call him by his father's name, Zechariah. 60 But his mother declared, "No, he will be called John."
61 But they said to her, "No one among your relatives is called by this name." 62 So they began making signs to his father, as to what he wanted him named.
63 Asking for a small tablet, he wrote, "John is his name."
They were all astonished! 64 And his mouth was immediately unlocked as well as his tongue, and he began to speak, praising God. 65 Fear came on all those who lived around them, and all these matters were talked about throughout the hill country of Judah. 66 Everyone who heard pondered these things in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child become?" For the hand of ADONAI was on him.

The Kohen's Song of Prophecy

67 His father Zechariah was filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and prophesied, saying,

68 "Blessed be ADONAI,
God of Israel,
for He has looked after His people
and brought them redemption.
69 He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David,[15]

70 just as He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets from ages past,
71 salvation from our enemies
and from the hand of all who hate us!
72 So He shows mercy to our fathers and remembers His holy covenant,[16] 73 the vow which He swore to Abraham
our father, to grant us—74 rescued fearlessly from the hand of our enemies[17]—to serve Him, 75 in holiness and righteousness before Him all our
days.
76 And you, child, will be called a prophet of Elyon.
For you will go before ADONAI to prepare His ways,[18]
77 to give knowledge of salvation to His people through removal of their sins.[19] 78 Through our God’s heart of mercy,
the Sunrise from on high will come upon us, 79 to give light to those who sit in darkness
and in the shadow of death,[20]
to guide our feet in the way of shalom.”

80 And the child kept growing and became strong in spirit;
and he lived in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

Yeshua's Birth in Bethlehem

Luke 2 1 Now it happened in those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus to register all the world's inhabitants. 2 This was the first census taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria. 3 Everyone was traveling to be registered in his own city.
4 Now Joseph also went up from the Galilee, out of the town of Natzeret to Judah, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was from the house and family of David.[21] 5 He went to register with Miriam, who was engaged to him and was pregnant.
6 But while they were there, the time came for her to give birth—7 and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped Him in strips of cloth and set Him down in a manger, since there was no room for them in the inn.

Shepherds Witness Angelic Praises

8 Now there were shepherds in the same region, living out in the fields and guarding their flock at night. 9 Suddenly an angel of ADONAI stood before them, and the glory of ADONAI shone all around them; and they were absolutely terrified.
10 But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid! For behold, I proclaim Good News to you, which will be great joy to all the people. 11 A Savior is born to you today in the city of David, who is Messiah the Lord. 12 And the sign to you is this: You will find an infant wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger.” 13 And suddenly a multitude of heavenly armies appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

14 “Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth shalom to men of good will.”

15 And when the angels departed from them into the heavens, the shepherds were saying to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened which ADONAI has made known to us!” 16 So they hurried off and found Miriam and Joseph, and the Baby lying in the manger. 17 When they had seen this, they made known the word that had been spoken to them concerning this Child. 18 And all those who heard were amazed at the things the shepherds told them. 19 But Miriam treasured all these things, pondering them in her heart. 20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, just as they had been told.

Temple Prophets Rejoice

21 When eight days had passed for His brit-milah,[22] He was named Yeshua, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb. 22 And when the days of their purification were fulfilled,[23] according to the Torah of Moses, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present to ADONAI. 23 As it is written in the Torah of ADONAI, "Every firstborn male that opens the womb shall be called holy to ADONAI."[24] 24 So they offered a sacrifice according to what was said in the Torah of ADONAI: "a pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons."[25] 25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and pious, waiting for the consolation of Israel.[26] The Ruach ha-Kodesh was on him.
26 And it had been revealed to him by the Ruach ha-Kodesh that he would not die before he had seen the Anointed One of ADONAI. 27 So in the Ruach, Simeon came into the Temple; and when the parents brought the Child Yeshua to do for Him
according to the custom of the Torah, 28 Simeon received Him into his arms and offered a bracha to God, saying,

29 "Now may You let Your servant go in peace, O Sovereign Master,[27]
according to Your word.
30 For my eyes have seen Your salvation, 31 which You have prepared in the presence of all peoples:
32 'A light for revelation to the nations'[28]
and the glory of Your people Israel."

33 And His father and mother were marveling at the things that were said about Him. 34 And Simeon offered a bracha over them and said to Miriam His mother, "Behold, this One is destined to cause the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that is opposed, 35 so the thoughts of many hearts may be uncovered. (And even for you, a sword will pierce through your soul.)”

36 Now Anna, a daughter of Phanuel of the tribe of Asher, was a prophetess. She was well advanced in age, having lived with a husband only[29] seven years 37 and then as a widow until age eighty-four. She never left the Temple, serving night and day with fasting and prayers. 38 And coming up at that very instant, she began praising God and speaking about the Child to all those waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.[30]

39 When Joseph and Miriam had completed everything according to the Torah of Adonai, they returned to the Galilee, to their own city of Natzeret. 40 The Child kept growing and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon Him.

The Boy Astonishes Jerusalem Scholars

41 Now His parents were going every year to Jerusalem for the Passover feast.[31] 42 When He became twelve years old, they were going up according to festival custom. 43 As they headed home after completing the days, the boy Yeshua remained in Jerusalem, but His parents didn't know. 44 Supposing He was in the caravan, they went a day's journey, then began looking for Him among relatives and friends. 45 When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for Him.
46 After three days they found Him in the Temple, sitting in the center of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. 47 And all those hearing Him were astonished at His understanding and His answers. 48 When His parents saw Yeshua, they were overwhelmed. And His mother said to Him,
"Child, why did you do this to us? Look! Your father and I were searching for You frantically!" 49 He said to them, "Why were you searching for Me? Didn't you know that I must be about the things of My Father?" 50 But they did not grasp the message He was telling them.
51 Then He went down with them to Natzeret and was obedient to them. But His mother treasured all these words in her heart. 52 And Yeshua kept increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

John the Immerser at the Jordan

Luke 3 1 It was now the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of the Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Iturаea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene. 2 During the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came upon John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. 3 And he came into all the surrounding region of the Jordan, proclaiming an immersion of repentance for the removal of sins. 4 As it is written in the scroll of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

> "The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
> 'Prepare the way of ADONAI,
> and make His paths straight.
> 5 Every valley shall be filled up > and every mountain and hill brought low.
> The crooked shall be made straight > and the rough ways made smooth,
> 6 and all humanity shall see the salvation of God.'"[32]

7 Therefore John was saying to the crowds that came out to be immersed by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? 8 Therefore produce fruits worthy of repentance; and don't even begin to say among yourselves,
'We have Abraham as our father'! For I tell you that from these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. 9 Even now the axe is laid at the root of the trees, so every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire!"
10 The crowds were asking him, "What should we do?"
11 He answered them, saying, "Whoever has two coats, let him give to the one who has none; and whoever has food, let him do the same."[33]

12 Tax collectors also came to him to be immersed. “Teacher,” they said to him, “what should we do?” 13 He said to them, “Do not take more than you are supposed to.”
14 Also soldiers asked him, saying, “And what should we do?”
He said to them, “Do not take things from anyone by force, do not falsely accuse anyone, and be content with your wages.”[34]
15 Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were wondering in their hearts about John, whether he might be the Messiah. 16 John answered them all, saying, “As for me, I immerse you with water. But One is coming who is mightier than I am; I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandals! He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and fire. 17 His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and gather the wheat into His barn, but the chaff He will burn up with inextinguishable fire.”[35] 18 So with many other exhortations, John proclaimed Good News to the people. 19 But Herod the tetrarch—after being rebuked by John because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and because of all the evil things Herod had done—20 added even this on top of them all: he shut up John in prison.
21 Now when all the people were immersed, Yeshua also was immersed. And while He was praying, heaven was opened 22 and the Ruach ha-Kodesh came down upon Him in bodily form like a dove. And from out of heaven came a voice, “You are My Son, whom I love—with You I am well pleased!”[36]

The Lineage of Yeshua Ben-David Ben-Elohim

23 Yeshua was about thirty years old when He began his ministry. He was the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, 24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, 25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, 26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, 27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, [28] the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, [29] the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, [30] the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, [31] the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,[37] [32] the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, [33] the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, [34] the son of Jacob, the son of Yitzhak, the son of Abraham,[38] the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, [35] the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, [36] the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, [37] the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan, [38] the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam,[39] the son of God.

Temptation in the Wilderness

Luke 4 1 Yeshua, now filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, returned from the Jordan. He was led by the Ruach in the wilderness 2 for forty days, being tested by the devil. Now He ate nothing during those days, and when they had ended, He was hungry.
3 The devil said to Him, “If You are Ben-Elohim, tell this stone to become bread.”
4 Yeshua answered him, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone.’”[40]
5 And leading Him up, the devil showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant. 6 And the devil said to Him, “I’ll give to You all this authority along with its glory, because it has been handed over to me and I can give it to anyone I wish.
7 Therefore, if you will worship before me, all this shall be Yours.”
8 But answering, Yeshua told him, “It is written, ‘You shall worship ADONAI your God, and Him only shall you serve.’”[41] 9 Then he brought Yeshua to Jerusalem and placed Him on the highest point of the Temple. He said to Him, “If You are Ben-Elohim, throw Yourself down from here. 10 For it is written,

> ‘He will command His angels concerning you,
> to guard you,’[42]
> 11 and ‘upon their hands they will lift you up,
> so that you may not strike your foot against a
> stone.’”[43]

12 But answering, Yeshua said to him, “It is said, ‘You shall not put ADONAI your God to the test.’”[44] 13 And when the devil had completed every test, he departed from Him until another occasion.

Isaiah’s Prophecy Fulfilled in Natzeret

14 Yeshua returned in the power of the Ruach to the Galilee, and news about Him went out through all the surrounding region. 15 He taught in their synagogues, and everyone was praising Him. 16 And He came to Natzeret, where He had been raised. As was His custom, He went into the synagogue on Shabbat, and He got up to read. 17 When the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him, He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,

18 “The Ruach ADONAI is on me,

because He has anointed me
to proclaim Good News to the poor.
He has sent me[45] to proclaim release to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to set free the oppressed,
19 and to proclaim the year of ADONAI'S favor."[46]

20 He closed the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. All eyes in the synagogue were focused on Him. 21 Then He began to tell them, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your ears."
22 All were speaking well of Him and marveling at the gracious words coming out of His mouth. And they were saying, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?"
23 But He said to them, "Doubtless you will say to Me this proverb, 'Doctor, heal yourself!' and 'What we have heard was done at Capernaum, do as much here also in your hometown.'"
24 But He said, "Truly, I tell you, 'No prophet is accepted in his own hometown.' 25 But with all truthfulness I say to you, that there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when heaven was closed for three and a half years and there came a great famine over all the land. 26 Elijah was not sent to any of them, but only to Zarephath in the land of Sidon, to a widowed woman.[47] 27 There were many with tzara'at in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them were purified apart from Naaman the Syrian."[48]
28 Now all in the synagogue were filled with rage upon hearing these things. 29 Rising up, they drove Him out of the town and brought Him as far as the edge of the mountain on which their city had been built, in order to throw Him off the cliff. 30 But passing through the middle of them, He went on His way.

Healing and Deliverance in Capernaum and Beyond

31 Yeshua came down to Capernaum, a town in the Galilee. He was teaching them on Shabbat, 32 and they were astounded at His teaching because His message had authority. 33 In the synagogue was a man who had an unclean demonic spirit, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 “Ah! What have we to do with You, Yeshua of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are! You are the Holy One of God!”
35 Yeshua rebuked him, saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!”
And when the demon threw him down in their midst, it came out without hurting him.
36 They were all amazed, and they spoke to one another, saying, “What is this message? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out.” 37 So His reputation grew, spreading to every place in that region.
38 After He left the synagogue, Yeshua entered Simon’s home.
Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they petitioned Him concerning her. 39 Then standing over her,
He rebuked the fever and it left her. Immediately she arose to wait on them.
40 When the sun was setting, they brought to Yeshua all who were sick with various diseases. And He was laying hands on each one and healing them. 41 Even demons were coming out from many, shouting out and saying, “You are Ben-Elohim!”[49]
But He was rebuking them and not permitting them to speak, because they knew Him to be the Messiah.
42 Now when it was day, He left and went to a desert place.
The crowds were searching for Him, and they came to Him and were trying to keep Him from leaving them. 43 But He said to them, “I must proclaim the Good News of the kingdom of God[50] to the other towns also. It was for this purpose I was sent.” 44 So He kept preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

Calling Fishermen at the Kinneret

Luke 5 1 It happened that the crowds were pressing upon Yeshua to hear the word of God as He was standing by the Lake of Kinneret, 2 when He saw two boats standing beside the lake. Now the fishermen had left them and were washing the nets. 3 Getting into one of the boats, Simon's boat, Yeshua asked him to push out a ways from the land. Then sitting down,
He taught the crowds from the boat.

4 When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Go out into the deep water, and let down your nets for a catch."

5 Simon replied, "Master, we've worked hard all night and caught nothing. But at Your word I will let down the nets." 6 When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets began to break. 7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink. 8 But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Yeshua's knees, saying, "Go away from me, Master, for I am a sinful man!" 9 For amazement had gripped him and all who were with him, over the catch of fish they had netted; 10 so also Jacob and John, Zebedee's sons, who were partners with Simon.

But Yeshua said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on, you will be catching men." 11 So when they had brought the boats to the landing, they left everything and followed Him.

Yeshua Heals and News Spreads

12 Now while Yeshua was in one of the towns, a man covered with tzara'at appeared. And when he saw Yeshua, he fell on his face and begged Him, saying, "Master, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

13 Yeshua stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be cleansed!" Immediately, the tzara'at left him.
14 Yeshua ordered him to tell no one, but commanded him, "Go and show yourself to the kohen.[51] Then bring an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

15 But the news about Yeshua was spreading all the more, and many crowds were coming together to hear and to be healed of their diseases. 16 Yet He would often slip away into the wilderness and pray.

Crowds Gather from the Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem

17 Now on one of those days, Yeshua was teaching. Pharisees and Torah scholars were sitting there, who had come from every village of the Galilee and Judea, as well as from Jerusalem. And ADONAI’S power to heal was in Him. 18 And behold, men were carrying a paralyzed man on a stretcher, trying to bring him in and place him before Yeshua. 19 But when they found no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his stretcher through the tiles, right in the middle before Yeshua. 20 When He saw their faith, He said, “Man, your sins are forgiven.”

21 Then the Torah scholars and the Pharisees began to question, saying, “Who is this fellow speaking blasphemies? Who can pardon sins but God alone?”

22 Yeshua, knowing their thoughts, replied to them, “Why are you raising questions in your hearts? 23 Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? 24 But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to pardon sins. . . .” He said to the paralyzed one, “I tell you, get up and take your cot, and go home!”

25 Immediately he got up before them, picked up what he had been lying on, and went home, glorifying God. 26 Astonishment took hold of them, and they glorified God and all were filled with awe, saying, “We’ve seen incredible things today!”

The Banquet at Levi’s House

27 After these things, Yeshua went out and observed a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth. He said to him, “Follow Me.” [28] And leaving everything, he got up and followed Him.

[29] Levi made a great banquet for Yeshua at his house, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. [30] The Pharisees and their Torah scholars began murmuring to His disciples, saying, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

[31] And Yeshua answered and said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. [32] I did not come to call the righteous, but the sinful to repentance.”

[33] But they said to Him, “John’s disciples often fast and offer prayers, as do the disciples of the Pharisees. But Your disciples are eating and drinking.”

[34] But Yeshua said to them, “You cannot make the guests of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you? [35] But the days will come; and when the bridegroom is taken away from them, then they will fast in those days.”

[36] Now he was also telling them a parable. “No one tears a patch from a new garment to use it on an old garment. Otherwise he will rip the new, and the patch from the new will not match the old. [37] And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins, it will be spilled out, and the skins will be destroyed. [38] But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins. [39] No man who drinks old wine wants new, because he says, ‘The old is fine.’”

Shabbat in the Grain Fields

Luke 6 [1] Now during Shabbat, Yeshua was passing through grain fields; and His disciples were picking and eating heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. [2] But some of the Pharisees said, “Why are you doing what is not permitted on Shabbat?”
[3] Then answering them, Yeshua said, “Haven’t you read what David did when he was hungry, and those with him? [4] How he entered into the house of God, took and ate the showbread which only the kohanim are permitted to eat, and even gave it to those with him?”[52] [5] He said to them, “The Son of Man is Lord of Shabbat.”

Shabbat Controversy at the Synagogue

[6] On a different Shabbat, Yeshua entered the synagogue and was teaching. A man was there, whose right hand was paralyzed. [7] But closely watching Him were the Torah scholars and Pharisees, to see if He heals on Shabbat, so that they might find grounds to accuse Him. [8] But He knew their opinions and said to the man with the paralyzed hand, “Get up and stand in our midst.” And getting up, the man stood.
[9] Yeshua said to them, “I ask you, is it permitted on Shabbat to do good or to do evil, to save or to destroy a life?” [10] Then looking around at everyone, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” The man did, and his hand was restored. [11] But they were filled with fury and discussed among themselves
what they might do to Yeshua.

Appointing the Twelve

12 And it was during these days that Yeshua went out to the mountain to pray, and He spent all night in prayer to God.
13 When day came, He called His disciples, choosing from among them twelve whom He also named emissaries—14 Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; and Jacob and John; and Philip and Bartholomew; 15 and Matthew and Thomas; Jacob the son of Alphaeus; Simon who was called the Zealot; 16 Judah the son of Jacob; and Judah from Kriot, who became a traitor.

The Sermon on the Plain

17 Then Yeshua came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples and a multitude of people, from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon, 18 had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases. Even those disturbed by defiling spirits were being healed. 19 Everyone in the crowd was trying to touch Him, because power flowed from Him and He was healing them all.
20 And looking up at His disciples, He said,

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.
21 Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you shall be satisfied.
Blessed are you who weep now,
for you shall laugh.
22 Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude you, and revile you,
and spurn your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.

23 Rejoice in that day and jump for joy! For behold, your reward is great in heaven! For their fathers used to treat the prophets the same way."[53]

24 But woe to you who are rich,
for you are receiving your comfort in full.
25 Woe to you who are full,
for you shall be hungry.
Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you shall mourn and weep.
26 Woe to you when all men speak well of you,

for their fathers used to treat the false prophets the same way.”[54]

27 “But I say to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, pray for the ones who mistreat you. 29 To the one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also. And from the one who takes your cloak, do not hold back your shirt. 30 Give to every one who asks you; and whoever takes something of yours, make no demands upon him.
31 “Do to others as you would have them do to you. 32 If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. 33 And if you do good to those who are doing good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do this. 34 And if you lend to those from whom you expect to take, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners in order to receive back the same.
35 “But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return.[55] Then your reward will be great and you will be sons of Elyon, for He is kind to the ungrateful and evil ones. 36 Be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate
to you.”
37 Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Pardon, and you will be pardoned. 38 Give, and it will be given to you—a good measure, pressed down, shaken together, overflowing, will be given into your lap. For whatever measure you measure out will be measured back to you.”
39 He also spoke this parable to them: “The blind cannot show the way to the blind, can he? Won’t they both fall into a pit? 40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.
41 “Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye, but do not notice the beam in your own eye? 42 How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take out the speck in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly the speck in your brother’s eye, to take it out.”

43 “For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again does a rotten tree produce good fruit. 44 Each tree comes to be known by its own fruit. For figs are not gleaned out of briars; neither are bunches of grapes gathered from thorn bushes.

45 “Out of the good treasure of his heart the good man brings forth good, and out of evil the evil man brings forth evil. For from the overflow of the heart his mouth speaks.”

46 “Why do you call Me ‘Master, Master’ and do not do what I say? 47 Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and does them, I will show you what he is like. 48 He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock. And when a flood came, the torrent burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built.

49 “But the one who hears yet does not do is like a man who built a house upon land without a foundation. When the torrent burst against it, immediately it collapsed—and the destruction of that house was great!”

A Centurion's Faith at Capernaum

Luke 7 [1] When Yeshua finished all His drash in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. [2] Now a certain centurion had a valued slave, who was ill and about to die. [3] When he heard about Yeshua, he sent Jewish elders to Him, asking Him to come and save his slave. [4] When they came to Yeshua, they begged Him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for You to grant this, [5] for he loves our people and even built our synagogue." [6] Now Yeshua started to go with them; and when He wasn't far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to Him,
"Master, do not trouble Yourself, for I'm not worthy for You to come under my roof. [7] That is why I didn't consider myself worthy to come to You. But say the word and let my servant be healed. [8] For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another,
'Come!' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this!' and he does it."
[9] Now when Yeshua heard this, He was amazed at him.
Turning to the crowd following Him, He said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith." [10] When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

An Amazing Report Spreads throughout all Judea

[11] The next day Yeshua traveled to a town called Nain, and coming along with Him were His disciples and a large crowd.
[12] Just as He came near the town gate, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, a widow. A considerable crowd from the town was with her.
[13] When the Lord saw her, He felt compassion for her and said, "Don't cry." [14] Then He came up and touched the coffin, and the pallbearers came to a standstill. He said, "Young man!
I tell you, get up!" [15] The dead man sat up and began speaking,
and Yeshua gave him to his mother.[56]

16 Fear took hold of them all, and they glorified God, saying,
“A great prophet has appeared among us, and God has visited His people.” 17 This report concerning Him spread throughout all Judea and the surrounding region.

John Seeks Confirmation from Prison

18 John’s disciples reported to him about all these things.
Calling two of his disciples, 19 John sent them to the Lord, saying, “Are you the One who is to come, or should we look for another?”
20 When they appeared before Him, the men said, “John the Immerser sent us to you, saying, ‘Are you the One who is to come, or shall we look for another?’” 21 At this very hour He was healing many of diseases, sicknesses, and evil spirits; and He granted sight to many who were blind. 22 And answering, He said to them, “Go report to John what you saw and heard: the blind see, the lame walk, those with tzara’at are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news proclaimed to them.[57]
23 Blessed is he who is not led to stumble because of Me.”
24 And after John’s messengers left, He began to speak about John to the crowds. “What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 25 No? So what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine garments? Look, those who wear finery and live in luxury are in the palaces of kings! 26 Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, even more than a prophet. 27 This is the one about whom it is written,

> ‘Behold, I send My messenger before You,
> who will prepare Your way before You.’[58]

28 I say to you, there is no one greater than John among those born of women; yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”
29 And when all the people heard, even the tax collectors, they affirmed God’s justice, because they had been immersed with John’s immersion. 30 But the Pharisees and Torah lawyers, not having been immersed by John, declared God’s purpose invalid for themselves.

31 “So then, to what shall I compare the people of this generation? What are they like? 32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to each other, saying,

‘We played the flute for you,
and you didn’t dance.
We sang a dirge, and you didn’t weep.’

33 “For John the Immerser has come not eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon.’ 34 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking. and you say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’
35 Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children.”

An Unwelcome Woman Finds Favor

36 Now one of the Pharisees was asking Yeshua if He would eat with him. Upon entering the Pharisee's home, He reclined at the table. 37 And behold, a woman in the town who was a sinner, when she discovered that Yeshua was reclining at the Pharisee's home, brought an alabaster jar of perfume. 38 As she stood behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to drench
His feet with tears and kept wiping them with her head of hair.
Then she was kissing His feet and anointing them with perfume.
39 Now when the Pharisee who invited Him saw this, he said to himself, "If this were a prophet, He would know what sort of woman is touching Him—that she's a sinner." 40 And answering, Yeshua said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you."
And he said, "Say it, Teacher!" 41 "A moneylender had two debtors. One owed him five hundred denarii,[59] but the other fifty. 42 When neither could repay him, he canceled both debts. So which of them will love him more?"
43 Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt canceled."
"You have judged correctly," Yeshua said. 44 Turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you didn't give Me water for My feet. But she has drenched My feet with tears and wiped them with her hair.[60] 45 You didn't greet Me with a kiss; but from the time she entered, she has not stopped kissing My feet. 46 You didn't anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with perfume. 47 For this reason I tell you, her sins, which are many, have been forgiven—for she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little. 48 He then said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven."
49 But those who were reclining at table with Him began to say to one another, "Who is this, who even forgives sins?"

50 Then He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in shalom.”

Sowing Good News from Town to Town

Luke 8 1 Soon afterward, Yeshua began traveling throughout towns and villages, preaching and proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom of God. The twelve were also with Him. 2 And certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities—Miriam, the one called Magdalene, out of whom seven demons had gone; 3 Joanna, the wife of Kuza, Herod's finance minister; Susanna; and many others—were supporting them out of their own resources.

4 And when a large crowd was gathering and those from various towns were traveling to Him, He spoke by means of a parable. 5 "The sower went out to spread his seed. As he sowed, some fell beside the road and was trampled; and the birds of the air ate it up. 6 And other seed fell on rock; when it came up, that seed withered away because it had no moisture. 7 Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it. 8 And other seed fell into the good soil; and when it came up, it produced fruit a hundredfold." While saying these things, He would call out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

9 Now His disciples were asking Him what this parable meant. 10 Then Yeshua said to them, "To you has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but to the others it is given in parables,[61] in order that

> 'Seeing, they may > not see,
> and hearing, they may > not understand.'[62]

11 "Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God.
12 Those beside the road are the ones who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, so that they may not believe and be saved. 13 But those on the rocky places are the ones who, when they hear, accept the word with

joy. But these have no root; they believe for a season, and in a time of testing fall away. 14 Now that which fell into the thorns are those who were hearing; but as they go along the way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and they do not bear mature fruit. 15 But the seed in the good soil are those with a praiseworthy and good heart, who have heard the word and hold it fast and bear fruit with patient endurance.

16 “Now no one after lighting a lamp covers it with some object or places it under a bed. But he puts it on a lampstand so that all those who enter may be able to see the light. 17 For nothing is hidden that will not become evident, nor secret that shall not be known and come into open view. 18 So pay attention how you listen. For whoever has, to him more will be given. And whoever does not have, even what he supposes he has will be taken away from him.”

19 Yeshua’s mother and brothers came to Him, but were not able to reach Him through the crowd. 20 Now it was reported to Him, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You.”

21 But answering, He said to them, “My mother and My brothers are these who are hearing the word of God and doing it.”

Crossing a Stormy Sea

22 Now on one of those days Yeshua and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, “Let’s move to the other side of the lake.” So they set out. 23 Then as they were sailing, He fell asleep. A violent windstorm came down on the lake, and they were swamped with water and in danger.

24 They came to Yeshua and woke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we’re perishing!” He got up and rebuked the wind and the surging wave of water. Then they stopped, and it became calm.[63]

25 Then Yeshua said to them, “Where is your faith?” But they were afraid and marveled, saying to one another, “Who then is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!”

Not Welcome in the Gerasenes

26 They sailed over to the country of the Gerasenes, which is on the opposite side of the Galilee. 27 A demon-plagued man from the town met Yeshua as He was coming out onto the land.
The man hadn't worn any clothing for a long time and was living not in a house but in the tombs.
28 Seeing Yeshua, he cried out and fell down before Yeshua, and with a loud voice said, "What's between You and me, Yeshua, Ben El Elyon? I'm begging You, do not torment me!" 29 For Yeshua commanded the defiling spirit to come out of the man. For many times it had seized him so that, even though he was restrained and bound with chains and shackles, he would break the chains and be driven by the demons into the desert.
30 Yeshua questioned him, "What is your name?"
"Legion," he said, for many demons had entered him. 31 They kept begging Him not to command them to depart into the abyss.[64] 32 Now a large herd of pigs was feeding on the mountain. The demons urged Yeshua to let them enter these pigs, and He gave them permission. 33 Then the demons came out of the man and entered into the pigs. The herd rushed down the cliff into the lake and was drowned. 34 But when the herdsmen saw what happened, they ran away and reported it in the town and countryside.
35 People went out to see what had happened. They came to Yeshua and found the man from whom the demons had gone—clothed and in his right mind, sitting at the feet of Yeshua. And they were frightened. 36 Now those who had seen it reported how the demon-plagued man had been restored. 37 And all the people from the region surrounding the Gerasenes asked Yeshua to go away from them because they were overcome by great fear. So He got into a boat and returned.
38 The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with Yeshua. But Yeshua sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your home, and describe all that God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole town all that Yeshua had done for him.

Interrupted on the Way to a Miracle

40 As Yeshua returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they were all expecting Him. 41 And here came a man named Jairus, a leader in the synagogue. Falling at Yeshua's feet, he begged Him to come to his house, 42 because his only daughter, about twelve years old, was dying. But as He made His way, the masses were crushing in upon Him.
43 And there was a woman with a blood flow for twelve years, [65] who could not be healed by anyone. 44 She came up from behind and touched the tzitzit of Yeshua's garment.
Immediately, her blood flow stopped. 45 Yeshua said, "Who touched Me?"
When everyone denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds are surrounding You and pressing in!"
46 But Yeshua said, "Someone touched Me, for I recognized power going out from Me." 47 Then seeing that she did not escape notice, the woman came trembling and fell prostrate before Him. In the presence of all the people, she confessed why she had touched Him and how she had been healed immediately. 48 He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in shalom."
49 While He was still speaking, someone comes from the house of the synagogue leader, saying, "Your daughter has died. Don't bother the Teacher anymore." 50 But hearing this, Yeshua replied to him, "Do not fear—just keep trusting, and she shall be restored."
51 When Yeshua came into the house, He didn't let anyone enter with Him except Peter, John, Jacob, and the child's father and mother. 52 And everyone was weeping and lamenting her;
but He said, "Don't weep, for she didn't die but is sleeping."
53 But they were ridiculing Him, knowing she had died.
54 But Yeshua, took her by the hand and called out, saying,
"Child, get up!" 55 Her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. Yeshua ordered food to be given to her to eat.

56 Her parents were utterly astonished, but He ordered them to say nothing of what had happened.

Sending Out the Twelve

Luke 9 [1] Now when Yeshua called the twelve together, He gave them power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases. [2] He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. [3] And He said to them, “Take nothing for the journey—no walking stick, no travel bag, no bread, no money, nor even to have two shirts. [4] Whatever house you enter, stay there and depart from there. [5] And whoever does not receive you, when you leave that town, shake off the dust from your feet as a witness against them.” [6] So they went out and began traveling throughout the villages, proclaiming the Good News and healing everywhere.

[7] Now Herod the tetrarch heard all that was happening. He was very confused, because some were saying that John had been raised from the dead, [8] but others that Elijah had appeared, and others that some prophet from among the ancients had arisen. [9] But Herod said, “I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?” And he kept trying to see Him.

A Hungry Crowd in a Desolate Place

[10] When the emissaries returned, they described to Yeshua all they had done. Then He took them along and withdrew privately to a city named Bethsaida. [11] But the crowds found out and followed Him. So Yeshua welcomed them and began speaking to them about the kingdom of God and curing those in need of healing.

[12] Now the day began to wind down, and the twelve came and said to Yeshua, “Send the crowd away, so they might go into the nearby villages and countryside and find food and lodging;
for we are in a desolate place here.”

[13] But Yeshua said to them, “You give them something to eat!”

But they said, “We have no more than five loaves of bread and two fish, unless we go to buy food for all these people.”

14 For there were about five thousand men.
Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “Have the people recline in groups of about fifty each.” 15 They did so, and all reclined.
16 And He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha and broke them. And He kept giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd. 17 Then they all ate and were satisfied. And what was left over was picked up, twelve baskets of the fragments.

Secrets Revealed to the Disciples Alone

18 Once when Yeshua was praying alone and His disciples were near, He put a question to them, saying, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”
19 They replied, “John the Immerser, but others Elijah, and others that some prophet from among the ancients has arisen.”
20 Then He said to them, “But who do you that say I am?”
Then Peter answered and said, “The Messiah of God.”
21 But Yeshua warned them, and He ordered them not to tell this to anyone, 22 saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.”
23 Then Yeshua was saying to everyone, “If anyone wants to follow Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross every day, and follow Me. 24 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.
25 “For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world but loses or forfeits himself? 26 For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and the glory of the Father and the holy angels.[66] 27 But I tell you truthfully, there are some standing here who will never taste death until they see the kingdom of God.”

Glorified on a Mountain

28 About eight days after these teachings, Yeshua took Peter,
John, and Jacob with Him and went up the mountain to pray.
29 While He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothing flashed like white lightning. 30 And behold, two men were talking with Him, Moses and Elijah. 31 Appearing in glory, they were speaking of Yeshua's departure, which was about to take place in Jerusalem.
32 Now Peter and those with him were overcome with sleep.
But when they awakened, they saw Yeshua's glory and the two men standing with Him. 33 And as they were leaving Yeshua, Peter said to Him, "Master, it's good for us to be here. Let's make three sukkot: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he was saying.
34 While he was yet saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. 35 Then a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, the One I have chosen. Listen to Him!"[67] 36 And after the voice happened, Yeshua was found alone. They kept quiet and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

Coming Down from the Mountaintop

37 On the next day as they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met Yeshua. 38 Suddenly a man from the crowd shouted out loudly, saying, “Teacher, I’m begging You to look at my son, for he’s my only child! 39 You see, a spirit takes hold of him, and he immediately screams. It throws him into convulsions with frothing. It hardly ever leaves him—it’s crushing him! 40 I begged Your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn’t.”

41 Then answering, Yeshua said, “O faithless and twisted generation,[68] how long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.” 42 And while the boy was still approaching Yeshua, the demon knocked him down to the ground and threw him into convulsions. But Yeshua rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and restored him to his father. 43 And all were amazed at the mighty power of God. But as everyone was marveling at all He was doing, He said to His disciples, 44 “Put these words into your ears: the Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men.” 45 But they did not understand this statement; it was yet concealed from them so they could not grasp it. And they were afraid to ask Him about this statement.

46 Now a dispute began between the disciples as to who might be the greatest among them. 47 But Yeshua, knowing the reasoning of their heart, took a child and set him by His side.
48 He said to them, “Whoever welcomes this child in My name, welcomes Me. And whoever welcomes Me, welcomes the One who sent Me. The one who is the least among all of you is the one who is great.”

49 John replied, “Master, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he doesn’t follow along with us.”

50 Yeshua said to him, “Do not stop him, for he who is not against you is for you.”

Samaria Turns Yeshua Away

51 When the days were approaching for Him to be taken up, Yeshua was determined to go up to Jerusalem. 52 He sent messengers before Him, and they went and entered a Samaritan village to make His arrangements. 53 But they did not receive Him, because He was focused on going up to Jerusalem. 54 When His disciples Jacob and John saw this, they said, “Master, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them[69]?” 55 But Yeshua turned and rebuked them.[70]
56 Then they moved on to another village. 57 As they were traveling on the road, someone said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You go.”
58 But Yeshua said to him, “Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.” 59 He said to another, “Follow Me.”
But that one said, “First let me go and bury my father.”
60 But Yeshua said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead.
But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”
61 Then another also said, “I will follow You, Master, but first let me say goodbye to those in my home.” 62 But Yeshua said to him, “No one who has put his hand to the plow and looked back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Yeshua Sends Out the Seventy

Luke 10 1 Now after these things, the Lord assigned seventy[71] others and sent them out by twos before Him into every town and place where He Himself was about to go. 2 And He was telling them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore, beg the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.

3 “Go forth! Look, I am sending you as lambs in the midst of wolves. 4 Do not be burdened with a money belt, travel bag, or shoes; and do not greet anyone along the way. 5 Whatever home you enter, first say, “Shalom be on this home.” 6 If a son of shalom is there, your shalom will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. 7 And remain in this same home, eating and drinking the things they offer, for the worker is deserving of his wage. Do not keep moving from house to house.

8 “Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what they set before you. 9 Then heal the sick in that town, and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’ 10 But if you enter a town and they do not welcome you, then go out into its streets and say, 11 ‘Even the dust of your town sticking to our feet, we wipe off as a witness to you. But know this! The kingdom of God has come near.’ 12 I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom[72] on that day than for that town.

13 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have turned long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 Yet it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the Judgment than for you![73] 15 And you, Capernaum? You won’t be lifted up to heaven, will you? No, you will go down as far as Sheol. 16 The one who listens to you hears Me, and the one who rejects you rejects Me, and the one who rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me.”

Returning with a Good Report

17 Then the seventy returned with joy, saying, “Master, even the demons submit to us in Your name!” 18 And Yeshua said to them, “I was watching satan fall like lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I have given you authority to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names have been written in the heavens.”[74]
21 In that very hour, He was overjoyed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and said, “I praise You, Father, Master of the universe, that You have hidden these things from the wise and discerning and revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for this way was pleasing to You. 22 All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him.”
23 Then turning to the disciples, He said privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! 24 For I tell you, many prophets and kings desired to see what you are seeing yet did not see, and to hear what you are hearing yet did not hear.”

Who Is My Neighbor?

25 Now a certain Torah lawyer stood up to entrap Yeshua, saying, “Teacher, what should I do to gain eternal life?” 26 Then Yeshua said to him, “What has been written in the Torah? How do you read it?”
27 And he replied, “You shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.”[75] 28 Yeshua said to him, “You have answered correctly. Do this and you will live.”
29 But wanting to vindicate himself, he said to Yeshua, “Then
who is my neighbor?”

30 Yeshua replied, “A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho. He was attacked by robbers, who stripped him and beat him. Then they left, abandoning him as half dead.
31 And by chance, a kohen was going down that road; but when he saw the man, he passed by on the opposite side. 32 Likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the opposite side. 33 But a Samaritan who was traveling came upon him; and when he noticed the man, he felt compassion. 34 He went up to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on olive oil and wine. Then setting him on his own animal, he brought him to a lodge for travelers and took care of him. 35 The next day he took out two denarii[76] and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him. And whatever else you spend, upon my return I will repay you myself.’ 36 Which of these three seems to you a neighbor to the one attacked by robbers?”
37 And he said, “The one who showed mercy to him.”
Then Yeshua said to him, “Go, and you do the same.”

At Home with Miriam and Martha

38 Now while they were traveling, Yeshua entered a certain village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her house. 39 She had a sister called Miriam, who was seated at the Master’s feet, listening to His teaching. 40 But Martha was distracted with much serving; so she approached Yeshua and said, “Master, doesn’t it concern you that my sister has left me to serve alone? Then tell her to help me!” 41 But answering her, the Lord said, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and bothered about many things; 42 but only one thing is necessary. For Miriam has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her.”[77]

Praying Along the Way

Luke 11 1 Now Yeshua was praying in a certain place. When He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Master, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”
2 Then Yeshua said to them, “When you pray, say,

‘Father, sanctified be Your Name,
Your kingdom come.[78]
3 Give us each day our daily bread.
4 And forgive us our sins,
for we also forgive everyone indebted to us.
And lead us not into temptation.”

5 Then Yeshua said to them, “Which of you has a friend and will go to him in the middle of the night and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, 6 because a friend of mine has come to me on his journey and I have nothing to set before him.’ 7 Then from within he may answer, saying, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can’t get up to give you anything.’ 8 I tell you, even if the friend will not get up and give him anything out of friendship, yet because of the man’s persistence he will get up and give him as much as he needs.
9 “So I say to you, ‘Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. 10 For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.’ 11 What father, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? 12 And if he asks for an egg, will he give him a scorpion? 13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Ruach ha-Kodesh[79] to those who ask Him!”

Crowds Demand a Sign from Heaven

14 Now Yeshua was driving out a demon, and it was mute.
When the demon had gone out, the mute one spoke and the crowds were amazed. 15 But some among them said, “By beelzebul, the ruler of demons, He drives out demons.” 16 Others, testing Him, were demanding from Him a sign from heaven.
17 But Yeshua, knowing their thoughts, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is destroyed, and a house against a house falls. 18 Now if satan is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say by beelzebul I drive out the demons. 19 But if by beelzebul I drive out demons, by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason, they will be your judges. 20 But if by the finger of God[80] I drive out demons, then the kingdom of God has come to you.
21 “When a strong one, fully-armed, protects his own estate, his possessions are safe. 22 But as soon as someone stronger than he attacks and overpowers him, then he takes away the armor that he had trusted in and divides up his plunder. 23 He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.
24 “When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places looking for rest. Not finding any, it says, ‘I will return to my house where I came from.’ 25 And when it comes, it finds the house swept and put in order.
26 Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and settle there. And that man’s last condition becomes worse than the first.”
27 Then as Yeshua was saying these things, a certain woman in the crowd, raising her voice, said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that carried You and the breasts that nursed You!” 28 But He said, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it.” 29 With the crowds increasing, Yeshua began to say, “This generation is a wicked generation. It demands a sign, yet no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. 30 For just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites,[81] so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. 31 The Queen of the South will rise up at the Judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon.[82] And behold, something greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh will rise at the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at Jonah’s proclamation. And indeed, one greater than Jonah is here.

33 “No one lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on the lampstand so that those entering may see the light. 34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light. But when it is sick, your body is full of darkness. 35 Therefore, watch out that the light in you is not darkness. 36 If then your body is full of light, with no part of it dark, it will be as full of light as when a lamp gives you light with its gleam.”

Dinner with a Pharisee

37 As He spoke, a Pharisee asked Yeshua to eat with him, so
He entered and sat down. 38 But the Pharisee was surprised when he saw that Yeshua did not do the ritual handwashing before the meal. 39 But the Lord said to him, “You Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and plate, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. 40 Fools! Didn’t He who created the outside also create the inside? 41 But give as tzedakah those things that are within, and indeed everything is pure to you.
42 “But woe to you Pharisees, for you tithe mint, rue, and every garden herb,[83] yet bypass justice and the love of God. It is necessary to do these things without neglecting the others.
43 Woe to you Pharisees, for you love the best seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces. 44 Woe to you, for you are like unmarked tombs, and people walk over them without knowing.”
45 But answering, one of the Torah lawyers says to Him, “Teacher, when You say these things, You insult us too.”
46 Then Yeshua said, “Woe to you Torah lawyers as well, for you weigh the people down with burdens hard to carry, yet you yourselves will not touch the burdens with even a finger.
47 “Woe to you, for you build the tombs of the prophets whom your own fathers killed! 48 So you are witnesses and approve the deeds of your fathers, for indeed they killed them and you are building their tombs.
49 “For this reason also the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and emissaries, and some of them they will kill and persecute, 50 so that the blood of the prophets shed since the foundation of the world might be required from this generation—51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, the one who perished between the altar and the house of God.
[84] Yes, I tell you, it will be required from this generation.’ 52 “Woe to you, Torah lawyers, for you have taken away the key of knowledge. You yourselves did not enter, and you stood in the way of those entering.”

[53] When Yeshua left there, the Torah scholars and the Pharisees began to be very hostile and to interrogate Him on many issues, [54] plotting against Him to catch Him in His words.

An Aside with the Disciples

Luke 12 [1] Meanwhile, when thousands of people had gathered,
so many that they were trampling one another, Yeshua began speaking first to His disciples, “Be on guard yourselves against the hametz of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. [2] There is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known. [3] Therefore, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in private rooms will be proclaimed from the housetops.

[4] “I say to you, My friends, you should not be afraid of those who kill the body, since after this they have nothing more they can do. [5] But I will show you whom you should fear. Fear the One who, after the killing, has authority to cast into Gehenna.
Yes, I tell you, fear this One!

[6] “Aren’t five sparrows being sold for two pennies?[85] Yet not one of them is forgotten before God. [7] Indeed, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. So do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows. [8] Now I tell you, whoever acknowledges Me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge him before the angels of God. [9] But the one who denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.
[10] And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who slanders[86] the Ruach ha-Kodesh will not be forgiven. [11] And when they bring you to the synagogues, rulers, and authorities, do not worry about how you should defend yourself or what you should say, [12] because the Ruach ha-Kodesh will teach you at that time what is necessary to say.”

A Request from the Crowd

13 Then someone from the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.” 14 But Yeshua said to him, “Man, who made Me a judge or arbitrator over you?” 15 Then He said to them, “Watch out! Be on guard against all kinds of greed, because one’s life does not consist in the abundance of the material goods he possesses.”[87] 16 And Yeshua told them a parable, saying, “The land of a certain rich man produced good crops. 17 And he began thinking to himself, saying, ‘What shall I do? I don’t have a place to store my harvest!’ 18 And he said, ‘Here’s what I’ll do!
I’ll tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I’ll store all my grain and my goods. 19 And I’ll say to myself, ’O my soul, you have plenty of goods saved up for many years! So take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry.”’ 20 But God said to him, ‘You fool! Tonight your soul is being demanded back from you!
And what you have prepared, whose will that be?’[88] 21 So it is with the one who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich in God.”

Instructions for the Disciples

22 Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “So I say to you, do not worry about life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will wear. 23 For life is more than food and the body more than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens. They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn, yet God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than birds!
25 “And which of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?[89] 26 So if you cannot do even something very little, why do you worry about other things? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow. They neither toil nor spin. Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these.[90] 28 But if God so clothes the grass in the field—which is here today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow—then how much more will
He clothe you, O you of little faith?
29 “So do not seek what you will eat and what you will drink, and do not keep worrying. 30 For all the nations of the world strive after these things. But your Father knows that you need these things. 31 Instead, seek His kingdom, and these things shall be added to you. 32 Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father chose to give you the kingdom.
33 “Sell your possessions and do tzedakah. Make money pouches for yourselves that do not get old—a treasure in the heavens that never runs out, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
35 “Have your belt strapped on and lamps burning. 36 Be like people waiting for their master to return from a wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks, they may open to him immediately.
37 “Happy are those slaves whose master finds them alert when he comes. Amen, I tell you, he will prepare himself and have them recline at table, and will come and serve them.
38 “And if he comes in the second or even the third watch[91]
and finds them so, they will be happy. 39 But understand this,

that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into. 40 You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you don't expect."

41 Then Peter said, "Master, are You telling this parable for us, or for everyone?"

42 And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master will put in charge of his servants, to give them their food portion at the proper time? 43 Blessed is that servant whose master finds him so doing when he comes. 44 Truly I tell you, his master will put him in charge of all his possessions.

45 "But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is taking a long time to come,' and he begins to beat the young slave boys and girls and to eat and drink and get drunk, 46 the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. And he will cut him in two and assign him a place with the unfaithful.

47 "That slave who knew his master's will but did not prepare or act according to his desire will be harshly whipped. 48 But the one who did not know and did things worthy of a beating will be whipped lightly. From everyone given much, much will be required; and from the one for whom more is provided, all the more they will ask of him.

49 "I came to pour out fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already ablaze! 50 But I have an immersion to endure,[92] and how distressed I am until it is finished!

51 "Do you suppose that I have come to bring shalom on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. 52 From now on there will be five in one house in opposition, three against two and two against three. 53 They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."[93]

Lessons for the Crowds

54 Then He also was saying to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, instantly you say, ‘A rainstorm is coming’—and so it is. 55 And when a south wind is blowing, you say, ‘It will be a scorcher’—and so it is. 56 Hypocrites! The surface of the earth and sky you know how to interpret yet you don’t know how to interpret this present time? 57 Why can’t you judge for yourselves what is right? 58 For while you are going with your accuser to the authorities, make an effort to come to a settlement with him—so he doesn’t drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer of the court, and the officer of the court throw you into prison. 59 I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid back the last little bit.”[94]

Luke 13 [1] Now there were some present at the same time who told Yeshua about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. [2] He answered and said to them, “Do you suppose that these Galileans are worse sinners than the rest of the Galileans because they have suffered these things? [3] No, I tell you! But unless you repent, you all will perish the same way.
[4] “Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and were killed, do you suppose that they are worse sinners than all the people living in Jerusalem? [5] No, I tell you! But unless you repent, you all will perish the same way.
[6] Then Yeshua began telling this parable: “A man had a fig tree he had planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. [7] So he said to the gardener, ‘Indeed, for three years I’ve come searching for fruit on this fig tree and found none. Remove it! Why does it use up the ground?’
[8] “But answering, the gardener said to him, ‘Master, leave it alone for this year also, until I dig around it and apply fertilizer.
[9] And if it bears fruit, good. But if not, cut it down.’”

Teaching by Example at the Synagogue

[10] Now Yeshua was teaching in one of the synagogues on Shabbat. [11] And behold, there was a woman with a disabling spirit for eighteen years, bent over and completely unable to stand up straight. [12] When Yeshua saw her, He called out to her and said, “Woman, you are set free from your disability.” [13] Then He laid hands on her, and instantly she stood up straight and began praising God.
[14] But the synagogue leader, indignant that Yeshua had healed on Shabbat, started telling the crowd, “There are six days in which work should be done[95]—so come to be healed on those days and not on Yom Shabbat!” [15] But the Lord answered him and said, “Hypocrites! On Shabbat doesn’t each of you untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it away to give it drink? [16] So this one, a daughter of Abraham incapacitated by satan for eighteen years, shouldn’t she be set free from this imprisonment on Yom Shabbat?” 17 When Yeshua said these things, all His opponents were put to shame; but the whole crowd was rejoicing at all the glorious things done by Him.[96]

Teaching throughout the Towns and Villages

18 So Yeshua was saying, “What is the kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it? 19 It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and dropped into his own garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches.”[97] 20 Again He said, “To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? 21 It is like hametz, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened.

22 And He continued on His journey through the towns and villages, teaching and making His way to Jerusalem. 23 And someone said to Him, “Master, are only a few being saved?”

Then Yeshua said to them, 24 “Make every effort to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. 25 Once the Master of the household gets up and shuts the door, and you’re standing outside and begin knocking on the door, saying, ‘Master, open up for us,’ then He will say to you, ‘I don’t know where you come from.’ 26 Then you will start to say, ‘We ate and drank in Your company, and You taught in our streets.’ 27 But He will say, ‘I tell you, I don’t know where you come from. Get away from Me, all of you evildoers!’”[98]

28 “There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves thrown out. 29 And they will come from the east and west and from the north and south, and they will recline at table in the kingdom of God. 30 And indeed, some are last who shall be first, and some are first who shall be last.”

A Warning to Move On

31 In that hour, some Pharisees came up and said to Yeshua, “Get out and leave from here, because Herod wants to kill
You!”
32 But Yeshua said to them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Indeed, I’m driving out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach My goal.’ 33 But I must keep going today and tomorrow because it just can’t be that a prophet would perish outside Jerusalem.
34 “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem who kills the prophets and stones
those sent to her! How often I longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing. 35 Look, your house is left to you desolate![99]
For I tell you, you will never see Me until you say, ‘Baruch ha-ba b’shem Adonai. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!’[100]”

A Dinner Conversation on Shabbat

Luke 14 1 Now when Yeshua went into the home of one of the leaders of the Pharisees to eat a meal on Shabbat, they were watching Him closely. 2 And there before Him was a man swollen with fluid. 3 So Yeshua said to the Torah lawyers and the Pharisees, “Is it permitted to heal on Shabbat, or not?”
4 But they kept silent. So Yeshua took hold of him and healed him, and He sent him away. 5 Then He said to them, “Which of you, with a son or an ox falling into a well on Yom Shabbat, will not immediately pull him out?”[101] 6 And they could not reply to these things.
7 Yeshua began telling a parable to those who had been invited, when He noticed how they were choosing the seats of honor. He said to them, 8 “When you are invited by someone to a wedding, don’t take the seat of honor, for someone more highly esteemed than you may have been invited by him. 9 Then the one who invited both of you will come to you and say, ‘Give up this seat.’ And with shame, you would proceed to take the lowest seat. 10 But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest seat so that when the one who invited you comes, he may say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you shall be honored in the presence of all those who are dining with you.
11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”[102]
12 Then Yeshua was also saying to the one who invited Him,
“When you host a luncheon or dinner, don’t invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors. Otherwise they might invite you in return as your payback. 13 But when you host a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind; 14 and you will be blessed, since they cannot repay
you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.” 15 Now hearing this, one of those dining with Yeshua said to Him, “Blessed is he who eats bread in the kingdom of God.”
16 But Yeshua said to him, “A certain man was hosting a large banquet, and he invited many. 17 At the time for the banquet, he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, everything is already prepared.’

18 “But every one of them began to beg off. The first said to him, ‘I bought a farm, and I’m obligated to go out to see it. I’m asking you to have me excused.’ 19 Then another one said, ‘I’ve purchased five teams of oxen, and I’m going to check them out. I’m asking you to have me excused.’ 20 Still another said, ‘I’ve married a wife, so I cannot come.’[103]

21 “The slave came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house got angry and said to his slave, ‘Quickly go out into the squares and alleys of the city and bring here the poor, the maimed, the blind, and the lame.’

22 “And the slave said, ‘Master, I have done as you instructed, and still there is room.’

23 “So the master said to the slave, ‘Go out into the thoroughfares and fenced areas, and press them to come in so my home may be filled. 24 For I tell you, none of those men who were invited will taste my banquet.’”

Telling Parables Along the Road

25 Now great crowds were traveling with Yeshua; and He turned and said to them, 26 “If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters—and yes, even his own life—he cannot be My disciple.
27 Whoever does not carry his own cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

28 “For which of you, wanting to build a tower, doesn’t first sit down and figure out the cost, to see if he has enough to finish it? 29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and isn’t able to finish everything, all who see it begin to mock him, saying,
‘This man began to build and wasn’t able to finish!’

31 “Or what king, going to make war against another king, won’t first sit down to consider whether he is able with ten thousand to confront the one coming against him with twenty thousand?[104] 32 If not, while the other is still far away, he sends an ambassador and asks for peace. 33 So in the same way, whoever does not renounce all that he has, cannot be My disciple.

34 “Therefore, salt is good; but if the salt should lose its flavor, how shall it be made salty again? 35 It is not suitable for the soil or for a manure heap—it is thrown out. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke 15 1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were drawing near to hear Yeshua. 2 The Pharisees and the Torah scholars began to complain, saying, ‘This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.” 3 So He told this parable to them, saying, 4 “Which man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, will not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the lost one until he finds it? 5 When he has found it, he puts it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says, ‘Rejoice with me, for I’ve found my sheep that was lost!’ 7 I tell you, in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one repenting sinner than over the ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.”

8 “Or which woman, if she has ten silver coins and loses one coin,[105] does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search thoroughly until she finds it? 9 When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I’ve found the coin I had lost!’ 10 In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

11 Then Yeshua said, “A certain man had two sons, 12 and the younger of them said to the father, ‘Father, give me the share of the property that comes to me.’ So he divided his wealth between them.

13 “Not many days later, the younger son gathered everything and traveled to a far country, and there he squandered his inheritance on wild living. 14 Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine came against that country, and he began to be in need. 15 So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. 16 And he was longing to fill up on the carob pods the pigs were eating, but no one was giving him any.

17 “But when he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired workers have food overflowing, but here I am dying of hunger! 18 I’ll get up and go to my father, and I’ll say to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your presence. 19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired workers.

20 “And he got up and went to his own father. But while he was still far away, his father saw him and felt compassion. He ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. 21 Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your presence. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ 22 “But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quick! Bring out the best robe and put it on him! Put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. 23 Bring the fattened calf and kill it! Let’s celebrate with a feast! 24 For this son of mine was dead and has come back to life—he was lost and is found!’ Then they began to celebrate.
25 “Now his older son was out in the field. And as he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 And he called out to one of the servants and began to ask what these things could be.
27 “The servant said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he got him back safe and sound.’
28 “But the older son was angry and didn’t want to go in. So his father came outside and pleaded with him. 29 But he answered and said to his father, ‘Look, so many years I’ve slaved away for you—not once did I ignore your order. Yet you’ve never given me a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. 30 But when this son of yours came—the one who has squandered your wealth with prostitutes—for him you killed the fattened calf!”
31 “Then the father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and everything that is mine is yours. 32 But it was right to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead but has come back to life! He was lost, but is found.’”

A Lesson for the Disciples

Luke 16 1 Now Yeshua was also saying to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a household manager, and this manager was accused of squandering his belongings. 2 So he called the manager and said to him, ‘What’s this I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’
3 “Then the manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I’m not strong enough to dig; I’m ashamed to beg. 4 I know what I’ll do, so that when I’m put out of management others will welcome me into their homes.’ 5 So he called in each one of his master’s debtors, and he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’
6 “He said, ‘One hundred units of olive oil.’
“The manager said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write fifty.’ 7 Then he said to another, ‘Now how much do you owe?’
“He said, ‘A hundred units of wheat.’
“The manager said to him, ‘Take your bill and write eighty.’
8 “Now the master praised the crooked manager because he had acted shrewdly, for the sons of this age are smarter when dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. 9 I say to you, make friends for yourselves from the wealth of the world, so when it runs out, they will welcome you into the eternal shelters.
10 “One who is faithful in the smallest matters is also faithful in much, and the one unjust in the smallest matters will likewise be unjust in much. 11 So then, if you cannot be trusted with unjust wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? 12 Now if you have not been trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you anything of your own? 13 No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick by one and look down on the other. You cannot serve God and money.”[106]

The Pharisees Listen In

14 Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and sneering at Yeshua. 15 But He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves before the people, but God knows your hearts.[107] For what is prized among men is detestable in God’s sight.” 16 “The Torah and the Prophets were proclaimed until John.
Since then, the Good News of the kingdom of God is being proclaimed, and everyone tries forcing his way in. 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for a single serif[108] of the Torah to fail. 18 Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery. And he who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.
19 “Now there was a rich man dressed in purple and fine linen, living it up in luxury every day. 20 But a poor man named Lazarus had been laid at his gate, covered with sores 21 and longing to be fed with what fell from the rich man’s table.
Besides, even the dogs were coming to lick his sores.
22 “It happened that the poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s side. Then the rich man also died and was buried. 23 And from Sheol, as he was in torment, he raised his eyes. And he sees Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his side.[109] 24 So he cried out and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me! And send Lazarus so he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool off my tongue, because I am suffering torment
in this flame.’[110]
25 “But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that in your life you received your good things, even as Lazarus received the bad things. But now he is comforted here, and you are tormented.
26 Besides all this, between us and you a great chasm is firmly set, so that those who want to cross over to you cannot, nor can those from there cross over to us.
27 “Then the rich man said, ‘I beg you then, Father Abraham, send Lazarus to my father’s house! 28 For I have five brothers to warn, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.’

29 “But Abraham says, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets.
Let them listen to them.’
30 “But he said, ‘No, Father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’ 31 “But Abraham said, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead!’”

Back to Teaching His Own

Luke 17 [1] Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “Stumbling blocks are bound to come, but woe to the one by whom they come! [2] It would be better for him to have a millstone put around his neck and to be hurled into the sea, than for him to cause one of these little ones to stumble.
[3] “Keep yourselves alert! If your brother sins, rebuke him;
and if he repents, forgive him. [4] Even if he sins against you seven times a day, and seven times returns to you, saying, ‘I repent,’ you shall forgive him.”
[5] Then the emissaries said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!”
[6] Then the Lord said, “If you have faith like a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you. [7] But if you have a slave who is plowing or tending sheep, who among you will say to him when he comes in from the field, ‘Come right in, and recline at table’? [8] But won’t he instead say to him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat! Dress yourself and wait on me while I eat and drink; and afterward, you may eat and drink’? [9] He doesn’t thank the slave because he did what he was commanded, does he? [10] So you too, when you’ve done everything you are commanded, say, ‘We are unworthy slaves. We have done only what we were supposed to do.’”

On the Move through Samaria

11 Now while going up to Jerusalem, Yeshua was passing between Samaria and the Galilee. 12 As He entered a certain village, ten men with tzara'at came toward Him. They stood some distance away[111] 13 and raised their voices, saying,
"Yeshua, Master, have mercy on us!"
14 When He saw them, He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the kohanim."[112] And as they went, they were cleansed. 15 Now one of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back, glorifying God with a loud voice. 16 And he fell at Yeshua's feet, facedown, giving Him thanks. And he was a Samaritan.
17 Then Yeshua answered and said, "Weren't ten cleansed?
But where are the nine? 18 Weren't any found who came back to give glory to God except this foreigner?" 19 Then Yeshua said to the man, "Stand up and go! Your faith has made you well." 20 Now when Yeshua was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with signs to be seen. 21 Nor will they say, 'Look, here!' or 'There!' For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst."
22 Then Yeshua said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23 They will say to you, 'Look, there!' or 'Look, here!' Do not go and chase after them. 24 For just as the lightning flashes from one part of the sky and lights up another part, so will the Son of Man be in His day. 25 But first He must suffer much and be rejected by this generation. 26 As it was in the days of Noah,[113] so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man. 27 They were eating, drinking, marrying, and being given in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.
28 "It was just the same in the days of Lot.[114] They were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building. 29 But on the day Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed them all. 30 Things will be the same on the day when the Son of Man is made fully known. 31 In that day, the one who is on the roof, and his possessions in the house, must not go down to take them away. In the same way, the one who is in the field must not turn back. 32 Remember Lot's wife![115] 33 Whoever tries to keep his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life will preserve it.

34 "I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed. One will be taken along and the other left. 35 There will be two women grinding at the same place. One will be taken and the other left."(36)[116]

37 "Where, Lord?" they replied.

And He said to them, "Where there is a corpse, there also will
the vultures be gathered."[117]

Luke 18 [1] Then Yeshua told them a parable to show that they should always pray and not be discouraged, [2] He said, “There was a judge in a certain city who neither feared God nor respected people. [3] And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him, saying, ‘Give me justice against my opponent.’

[4] “He was unwilling at the time. But afterward he said to himself, ‘Although I don’t fear God or respect people, [5] yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice so she won’t wear me out by her incessant coming.’”

[6] Then the Lord said, “Hear what the unjust judge is saying. [7] Won’t God do justice for His chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night? Will He be slow to help them? [8] I tell you, He will quickly give them justice. But when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?”

[9] Then Yeshua spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, while holding others in contempt. [10] “Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. [11] The Pharisee stood and was praying this to himself: ‘O God, I thank You that I am not like other people—thieving, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. [12] I fast twice a week and tithe on all that I get.’

[13] “But the tax collector, standing some distance away, wouldn’t even lift his eyes toward heaven, but beat his chest, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, the sinner!’[118] [14] I tell you, this man, rather than the other, went down to his home declared righteous. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

[15] Now they were bringing even their babies to Yeshua, so He might touch them. But when the disciples saw this, they began rebuking them. [16] But Yeshua called for them, saying, “Let the little children come to Me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. [17] Amen, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

18 And a religious leader inquired of Yeshua, saying, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” 19 “Why are you calling Me good?” Yeshua said to him. “No one is good except One—that is God. 20 You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.’”[119]
21 The man said, “All these I have kept since my youth.”
22 When Yeshua heard this, He said to him, “One thing you still lack. Sell all, as much as you have, and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.” 23 But upon hearing these things, he became deeply distressed, for he was very rich.
24 Gazing at him, Yeshua said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”
26 Then those who heard said, “Then who can be saved?”
27 But Yeshua said, “What is impossible with men is possible with God.”[120] 28 Then Peter said, “Look, we’ve left everything of our own to follow You.”
29 And Yeshua said to them, “Amen, I tell you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, 30 who will not receive many times as much in this age; and in the olam ha-ba, eternal life.” 31 Then Yeshua took the twelve aside and said to them, “Look, we’re going up to Jerusalem, and everything written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be carried out. 32 He will be handed over to the Gentiles, and He will be mocked and insulted and spat upon. 33 After they have scourged Him, they will kill Him. Yet on the third day, He will rise again.” 34 But they understood none of these things; this message was hidden from them, and they did not understand what He was saying.

Approaching Jericho

35 Now as Yeshua was approaching Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting by the road, begging. 36 But when he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening. 37 They told him that Yeshua ha-Natzrati was passing by. 38 And he cried out, saying, “Yeshua, Ben-David, have mercy on me!” 39 And those leading the way were scolding him, so he would be quiet. But he kept shouting all the more, “Ben-David, have mercy on me!”
40 So Yeshua stopped and ordered the blind man to be brought to Him. And when he came near, Yeshua asked him, 41 “What do you want Me to do for you?”
And he said, “Master, I want to see again!” 42 Yeshua said to him, “Receive your sight. Your faith has made you well.” 43 Immediately the man received his sight and began following Yeshua, glorifying God. And when all the people saw it, they also gave praise to God.

Visiting Zacchaeus in Jericho

Luke 19 1 Now Yeshua entered Jericho and was passing through.
2 And here was a man by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3 Zacchaeus was trying to see who Yeshua was, but he couldn't because of the crowd, for he was short in height. 4 So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Yeshua, for He was about to pass through that way.

5 When Yeshua came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today."

6 Zacchaeus hurried and came down and welcomed Him joyfully.

7 But when everyone saw it, they began to grumble, saying,
"Yeshua has gone to be the guest of a sinner!"

8 But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord. "Look, Master, half of my possessions I give to the poor, and if I have somehow cheated anyone, I repay four times as much!"[121]

9 Then Yeshua said to him, "Today salvation has come to this home, because he also is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

11 As they were listening to this, Yeshua went on to tell a parable, because He was near Jerusalem and they supposed that the kingdom of God was about to appear at once.
12 Therefore He said, "A certain nobleman went to a faraway land to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. 13 And calling ten of his own slaves, he gave them ten minas[122] and said to them, 'Do business until I come back.' 14 But his citizens detested him and they sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We don't want this fellow to reign over us!' 15 When he returned after receiving the kingdom, he called for those slaves to whom he had given the money. He wanted to know how much business they had done. 16 Now the first appeared, saying,
'Master, your one mina has made ten.' 17 The master said to him, 'Well done, good slave! Because you were faithful with so little, take charge over ten cities.’ [18] Also, the second slave came, saying, ‘Your mina, Master, made five.’ [19] Then he also said to this one, ‘You are likewise over five cities.’ [20] But another came, saying, ‘Master, here is your mina. I was keeping it safe in a handkerchief, [21] for I was afraid of you because you are a strict man. You take what you did not make and reap what you did not sow.’ [22] He said to him, ‘By the words of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked slave!

You knew that I am strict, taking what I did not make and reaping what I did not sow? [23] Then why didn’t you put my money in the bank, so that when I came back I could have collected it with interest?’ [24] Then to the bystanders he said, ‘Take the mina from him, and give it to the one who has ten minas.’ [25] But they said to him, ‘Sir, he has ten minas!’ [26] ‘I tell you, to everyone who has, more shall be given. But from the one who doesn’t have, even what he does have shall be taken away. [27] But those hostile to me, who didn’t want me to reign over them, bring them here and execute them before me.’”

Riding into Jerusalem

28 After saying these things, Yeshua was going on ahead, up to Jerusalem. 29 When He got near Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives,[123] He sent two of the disciples, 30 saying, “Go into the village ahead. As you enter, you will find a colt tied up, that no one has ever sat upon. Untie it and bring it. 31 And if anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ you shall say, ‘The Master needs it.’”
32 Those who were headed out found things just as He told them. 33 Then as they were untying the colt, his owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?” 34 They said, “The Master needs it.” 35 Then they brought it to Yeshua, threw their cloaks[124] on the colt, and set Yeshua on it.
[125] 36 And as He went along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road.[126] 37 When Yeshua came near the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began to rejoice. They praised God with a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen, 38 saying,

> “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of
> ADONAI![127]
> Shalom in heaven and glory in the highest!”

39 Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples!” 40 But answering, Yeshua said, “I tell you that if these keep silent, the stones will shout out!”[128]
41 As He drew near and saw Jerusalem, He wept over her, 42 saying, “If only you had recognized this day the things that lead to shalom! But now they are hidden from your eyes. 43 For the days will come upon you when your enemies will surround you with barricades and hem you in on all sides.[129] 44 And they will smash you to the ground—you and your children within
you. And they won’t leave within you one stone upon another, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation.”

Confrontation at the Temple

45 Then Yeshua entered the Temple and began to drive out the merchants, 46 saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be a house of prayer,’[130]
but you have made it a ‘den of thieves.’”[131]
47 And He was teaching every day in the Temple. The ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars, even the leaders of the people, were trying to destroy Him; 48 but they could not find any way to do it, because all the people were hanging on His words.

Luke 20 [1] On one of the days while Yeshua was teaching the people in the Temple and proclaiming the Good News, the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars, together with the elders, confronted Him. [2] And they spoke, saying to Him, “Tell us by what authority are You doing these things? Or who is the one who gave You this authority?” [3] But answering, Yeshua said to them, “I also will ask you a question, and you tell Me: [4] the immersion of John—was it from heaven or from men?”
[5] They reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’ [6] But if we say, ‘From men,’ then all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John is a prophet.” [7] So they answered that they didn’t know where it came from.
[8] And Yeshua said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”
[9] Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard,[132] leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey for a long time. [10] And at the season, he sent a servant to the tenants so that they would give him part of the vineyard’s fruit. But the tenants beat him up and sent him away empty-handed. [11] So he proceeded to send another servant.
They beat him too and treated him shamefully, and they sent him away empty-handed. [12] And he proceeded to send a third
one. They wounded this one too, and they threw him out.
[13] “Now the master of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my son, whom I love. Probably they will show him respect.’ [14] But when the tenants saw him, they discussed the matter among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir! Let’s kill him so the inheritance will be ours.’ [15] So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the master of the vineyard do to them? [16] He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.”
But when they heard this, they said, “May it never happen!” [17] Then Yeshua looked right at them and said, “Then what is this that has been written,

‘The stone which the builders rejected,
this has become the chief cornerstone’?[133]

18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be shattered; but the one upon whom it falls, it will crush him.”[134]
19 The Torah scholars and the ruling kohanim tried to grab Him that very hour, because they realized that He spoke this parable against them—but they feared the people.

Silencing the Opposition

20 Now they watched Him and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, in order to trap Him in His words so they could hand Him over to the power and authority of the governor. 21 And they asked Him, saying, “Teacher, we know that You tell it straight and You teach it straight. You show no partiality, but teach the way of God according to the truth. 22 Is it permitted for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

23 But carefully considering their treachery, Yeshua said to them, 24 “Show me a denarius.[135] Whose image and inscription does it have?”

And they said, “Caesar’s.”

25 Then He said to them, “Well then, give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” 26 And they could not trap Him in His words in the presence of the people. Astonished by His answer, they kept silent.

27 Then some of the Sadducees (who deny there is a resurrection) came and questioned Yeshua. 28 “Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us that ‘if a man’s brother dies’ having a wife ‘but no children, then his brother should take the widow and father children for his brother.’[136] 29 Now there were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and died childless; 30 and the second 31 and the third took her, but in this same way, each of the seven brothers died and left no children. 32 Finally the woman died too. 33 So in the resurrection, whose wife is she?
For all seven had married her.

34 Yeshua said to them, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. 35 But those considered worthy to reach the olam ha-ba and the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. 36 For they can no longer die, because they are like angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 But at the burning bush even Moses revealed that the dead are raised, when he calls ADONAI ‘the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’[137]

38 Now He is God not of the dead but of the living, for to Him they all are living.”
39 Some of the Torah scholars replied, “Teacher, You have said it well.” 40 For they no longer dared to question Him about anything.
41 Then Yeshua said to them, “How can they say that the Messiah is Ben-David? 42 For David himself says in the Book of Psalms,

‘ADONAI said to my Lord,
“Sit at My right hand,
43 until I make Your enemies a footstool
for Your feet.”’[138]

44 David then calls Him ‘Lord’; so how is He his son?”
45 Then with all the people listening, Yeshua said to the disciples, 46 “Beware of the Torah scholars, who like to walk around in long robes. They love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and places of honor at feasts.
47 They devour widows’ houses and make long prayers as a show. These men will receive greater condemnation!”

Teaching in the Temple

Luke 21 1 Then Yeshua looked up and saw the rich dropping their gifts into the treasury box. 2 He also saw a poor widow dropping in two small copper coins.[139] 3 And He said, “Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all the rest.
4 For all these put in their gifts from their surplus. But she, out of her poverty, put in all she had to live on.”
5 And while some were talking about the Temple, how it was decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, Yeshua said, 6 “As for these things you are looking at, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another. Every one will be torn down!”
7 And they questioned Him, saying, “Teacher, so when will these things happen? What will be the sign that these things are about to take place?”
8 And He said, “Watch out that you are not led astray! For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He’ and ‘The time is near!’ Do not follow them. 9 And when you hear of wars and chaos, do not be terrorized. For these things need to happen first, but the end will not come at once.”
10 Then He continued telling them, “Nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11 There will be great earthquakes along with famines and epidemics in various places, and there will be terrors along with great signs from heaven. 12 But before all these things, they will grab you and persecute you, handing you over to the synagogues and prisons, and leading you away to kings and governors on account of My name. 13 This will lead you to be a witness. 14 So make up your minds not to prepare ahead of time to defend yourselves—15 for I Myself will give you speech and wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or refute. 16 But you will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends—and they will put some of you to death. 17 And you will be hated by all because of My name. 18 Yet not a hair of your head will be lost. 19 By your endurance, you will gain your souls.

20 “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then recognize that her desolation is near. 21 Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those inside the city must get out, and those in the countryside must not enter her. 22 For these are the days of punishment, to fulfill all that has been written.[140]

23 “Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath on this people. 24 They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led away captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.[141]

25 “There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars. And upon the earth nations will be confused by the roaring of the sea and its waves.[142] 26 People will lose heart from fear and anticipation of what is overtaking the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.[143] 27 And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.[144] 28 Now when these things begin to happen, stand straight and lift up your heads, because your salvation is near!”

29 Then Yeshua told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees. 30 As soon as they sprout their leaves, you see it and you know at once that summer is near. 31 So also, when you see these all these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. 32 Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. 33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.[145]

34 “But watch out so your hearts are not weighed down by carousing, strong drink, and the worries of life. Do not let that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. 35 For it will come rushing upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. 36 But stay alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things about to happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

37 So during the days Yeshua was teaching in the Temple, but in the nights He went out and stayed on the Mount of Olives.
[146] 38 And all the people would come early in the morning to hear Him in the Temple.

The Day before Pesach

Luke 22 [1] Now the Feast of Matzah, which is called Passover, was approaching. [2] The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars were searching for a way to do away with Yeshua, for they were afraid of the people.

[3] Then satan entered into Judah, the one from Kriot, one of the twelve. [4] And he went away and talked with the ruling kohanim and officers of the Temple guard about how he might deliver Yeshua over to them. [5] They were delighted and agreed to give him money. [6] So he agreed and began looking for a chance to hand Yeshua over to them without a crowd.

[7] Then came the day of matzah when the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. [8] Now Yeshua sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, so we may eat."

[9] Then they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare?"

[10] And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house that he enters. [11] And say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"' [12] And with that, he will show you a large upper room, fully furnished. Make preparations there." [13] So they left and found just what Yeshua had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

The Seder in the Upper Room

[14] When the hour came, Yeshua reclined at table, and the emissaries with Him. [15] And He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. [16] For I tell you, I will never eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

[17] And when He had taken a cup and offered the bracha, He said, "Take this and share it among yourselves. [18] For I tell you that I will never drink of the fruit of the vine from now on, until the kingdom of God comes."

19 And when He had taken matzah[147] and offered the bracha,
He broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is My body, given for you. Do this in memory of Me.” 20 In the same way, He took the cup after the meal, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you.[148] 21 But look, the hand of the one betraying Me is with Mine on the table.[149] 22 For indeed, the Son of Man is going as has been predetermined;
but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!”
23 So they began to discuss among themselves which of them it might be who would do this thing. 24 But there was also a quarrel among them about which of them is considered the greatest. 25 And Yeshua said to them, “The kings of the nations have mastery over them, and those exercising authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’ 26 But with you, it is not so.
Rather, let the one who is greatest among you become like the youngest, and the one who leads like the one who serves. 27 For who is greater, the one who reclines or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines? But I am among you as one who serves.
28 “You are the ones who have remained with Me in My times of testing. 29 And just as My Father has granted Me a kingdom, so I grant to you 30 that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you shall sit upon thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
31 “Simon, Simon! Indeed, satan has demanded to sift you all like wheat. 32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith will not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”
33 But Simon said to Him, “Master, I am ready to go with You even to prison and to death!”
34 But Yeshua said, “I tell you, Peter, a rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me.” 35 And He said to them, “When I sent you out without a money pouch and travel bag and sandals, you didn’t lack anything, did
you?”
They said, “No, nothing.”

36 Then He said to them, “But now, whoever has a money pouch must carry it as well as a travel bag. And whoever does not own a sword must sell his cloak and buy one. 37 For I tell you that this which is written must be fulfilled in Me: ‘And he was counted with the lawless.’[150] For what is written about Me is being fulfilled.”
38 But they said, “Master, look here! Two swords!”
And He said to them, “It is enough.”

Yeshua Prays at the Mount of Olives

39 And Yeshua came out and went as usual to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed Him. 40 When he reached the place, He said to them, “Pray that you will not enter into temptation.” 41 And He pulled back about a stone’s throw from them, got on His knees, and began to pray, 42 saying, “Father, if You are willing, take this cup from Me; yet not My will, but Yours be done.”
43 Now an angel from heaven appeared to Him and strengthened Him. 44 And in His anguish, He was praying fervently; and His sweat was like drops of blood falling down on the ground. 45 When He rose up from prayer, He came to the disciples and found them asleep, exhausted from grief. 46 And He said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray, so that you won’t enter into temptation.”

Betrayed!

47 While Yeshua was speaking, suddenly a crowd came, and the one called Judah, one of the Twelve, approached Yeshua to kiss Him. 48 But Yeshua said to him, “Judah, with a kiss you betray the Son of Man?”[151]
49 When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they said to Him, “Master, shall we strike with the sword?” 50 And one of them struck the servant of the kohen gadol and cut off his right ear.

51 But Yeshua answered and said, “Stop this now!” And He touched the man’s ear and healed him.
52 Then Yeshua said to the ruling kohanim, officers of the Temple guard, and the elders who had come against Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against a revolutionary? 53 Every day I was with you in the Temple, yet you did not lay a finger on Me. But this is yours—
the hour and the power of darkness.” 54 Then they seized Yeshua and led Him away and brought Him into the house of the kohen gadol. But Peter was following from a distance.

Denied Three Times

55 Now they had lit a fire in the center of the courtyard and sat down together, and Peter was sitting among them. 56 Then a servant girl saw him sitting at the fire. She looked straight at him and said, “This one was with Him too!”
57 But he denied it, saying, “Woman, I don’t know Him!”
58 A little later, another saw him and said, “You too are one of
them.”
But Peter said, “Man, I am not!”
59 And about an hour later, another began to insist, saying,
“Certainly this fellow was with Him, for he too is a Galilean!”
60 But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” And immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. 61 And the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter.
Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, ‘Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.’
62 And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Beaten by Roman Soldiers

63 Now the men who were guarding Yeshua began mocking and beating Him. 64 They blindfolded Him and kept asking Him, saying, “Prophesy! Who is the one who hit You?” 65 And reviling Him, they were saying many other things against Him.

Brought Before the Council

66 As it become day, the elders of the people gathered together, both ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and they led Him away to their council, saying, 67 “If You are Mashiach, tell us.”

But Yeshua said to them, “If I tell you, you will never believe; 68 and if I ask you, you will never answer. 69 But from now on, the Son of Man is seated at the right hand of the power of God.”[152]

70 Then they all said, “Are You then Ben-Elohim?”

And to them He said, “You say that I am.”

71 Then they said, “What further need do we have for testimony? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth!”

Brought Before Pilate

Luke 23 [1] Then the entire assembly got up and brought Yeshua to Pilate. [2] And they began to accuse Him, saying, “We found this fellow subverting our nation, forbidding payment of taxes to Caesar and saying that He Himself is Messiah—a king.” [3] So Pilate questioned Him, saying, “Are You the King of the Jews?”
“As you say,” Yeshua replied.
[4] Then Pilate said to the ruling kohanim and the crowds, “I find no case against this Man.”
[5] But they kept insisting, saying, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, starting from the Galilee to as far as here.”
[6] But when Pilate heard this, he asked whether the Man was a Galilean. [7] And when he learned that Yeshua was from Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

Brought Before Herod

8 Now Herod was overjoyed when he saw Yeshua, for he had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had heard about Him and was hoping to see some miracle done by Him. 9 He was questioning Yeshua on many issues, but Yeshua did not answer at all.[153] 10 And the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars stood their ground, strongly accusing Him.
11 Now Herod together with his soldiers were treating Him with contempt and mocking Him.[154] They put splendid clothing on Him and sent Him back to Pilate. 12 And Herod and Pilate became friends with one another from that very day, for previously they had been enemies with one another.

Pilate's Decree

13 Now Pilate called together the ruling kohanim, the leaders, and the people. 14 And he said to them, "You brought this Man to me as one who incites the people to revolt. But having examined Him in your presence, I have found no case against this Man regarding what you accuse Him of doing. 15 Nor did Herod, for he sent Him back to us. Indeed, He has done nothing that is worthy of death. 16 Therefore I will scourge Him and release Him."(17)[155] 18 But they shouted out all together, saying, "Take this fellow away! Release to us Bar-Abba!"[156] 19 (He was someone who had been thrown into prison for a rebellion in the city and murder.)
20 Again Pilate addressed them, wanting to release Yeshua;
21 but they kept shouting out, saying, "Execute, execute Him!" 22 And a third time he spoke to them, "Why? What evil has this One done? I have found in Him no fault deserving of death.
Therefore, I will scourge and release Him."
23 But they were insistent, demanding with loud shouts that He be executed. And their voices prevailed. 24 So Pilate decreed that their demand be put into effect. 25 And He released the one they were asking for, the one thrown in jail for insurrection and murder. But he handed over Yeshua to their will.

Executed on the Stake

26 As they led Him away, they grabbed a man, Simon of Cyrene, coming in from the countryside. They placed on him the cross-beam,[157] to carry behind Yeshua.
27 Now a great multitude of people was following Him, including women who were mourning and singing dirges for Him. 28 But Yeshua, turning to them, said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but for yourselves and your children. 29 For indeed, the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are barren, and the wombs that never gave birth, and the breasts that did not feed.’

30 ‘Then they will begin to say to the montains, ‘Fall on us!’
and to the hills, ‘Cover us!’[158]

31 “For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?”
32 Others, two evildoers, were also led away to be put to death with Him. 33 When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified Him and the evildoers, one on His right and the other on His left.
34 But Yeshua was saying, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” Then they cast lots, dividing up His clothing.[159]
35 The people stood there watching. And even the leaders were sneering at Him, saying, “He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Messiah of God, the Chosen One!”[160] 36 The soldiers likewise mocked Him, coming up and bringing Him sour wine,[161] 37 and saying, “If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself.”
38 Now there was also an inscription over Him:[162] THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. 39 One of the evildoers hanging there was jeering at Him, saying, “Aren’t You the Messiah? Save Yourself—and us!”

[40] But the other one, rebuking him, replied, “Don’t you fear God, since you are under the same sentence? [41] We’re getting what we deserve for our actions, and rightly so—but this One has done nothing wrong.” [42] And he said, “Yeshua, remember me when You come into Your kingdom.”

[43] Yeshua said to him, “Amen, I tell you, today you shall be with Me in Paradise.”

Temple Curtain Torn in Two

44 It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour,[163] 45 for the sun died out. And the curtain[164] of the Temple was torn in two.
46 And Yeshua, crying out with a loud voice, said, “Father, ‘into Your hands I entrust My spirit.’”[165] When He had said this, He breathed His last.
47 Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he began glorifying God, saying, “Truly this was a righteous Man.” 48 And all the crowds assembled for this spectacle, when they saw what had happened, began to turn back, beating their breasts. 49 But all Yeshua’s acquaintances, and the women who were following Him from the Galilee, were standing at a distance, watching these things.

Buried in a Rich Man’s Tomb

50 Now there was a man named Joseph, a council member, a good and righteous man. 51 (He had not been in agreement with the council and their action.) He was from the Judean town of Arimathea, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God. 52 This man went to Pilate and asked for Yeshua’s body. 53 And he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb[166] cut out of the rock, where no one had ever yet been laid.
54 Now it was the Day of Preparation, and Shabbat was approaching. 55 The women who had come with Him from the Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how His body was laid. 56 Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes.
But on Shabbat they rested according to the commandment.

Women Visit the Garden Tomb

Luke 24 [1] Now on the first day of the week, at daybreak, the women came to the tomb, carrying the spices they had prepared. [2] They found the stone had been rolled away from the tomb; [3] but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Yeshua.

[4] And while they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. [5] The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you search for the living among the dead?
[6] He is not here, but He is risen! Remember what He told you when He was still in the Galilee, [7] saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be executed, and on the third day rise up.”

[8] And they were reminded of His words. [9] And when they returned from the tomb, they told all these things to the eleven and to everyone else. [10] Now it was Miriam from Magdala, Joanna, the Miriam of Jacob and others together with them who were telling these things to the emissaries. [11] But these words appeared to them as nonsense, and they would not believe them. [12] But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Leaning in, he sees only the linen cloths. And he went away to his home, marveling at what had happened.

Eyes Open in Emmaus

13 Now behold, two of them on that very day were traveling to a village named Emmaus, a distance of about seven miles[167] from Jerusalem. 14 They were speaking with one another about all the things that had been happening. 15 While they were talking and discussing, Yeshua Himself approached and began traveling with them. 16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing Him.

17 Then He said to them, “What are these things you are discussing with one another as you are walking along?”

They stood still, looking gloomy. 18 Then the one named Cleopas answered and said to Him, “Are You the only one visiting Jerusalem who doesn’t know the things that happened there in these days?”

19 Yeshua said to them, “What kind of things?”

And they said to Him, “The things about Yeshua from Natzeret, who was a Prophet, powerful in deed and word before God and all the people—20 how the ruling kohanim and our leaders handed Him over to be sentenced to death, and they executed Him. 21 But we were hoping that He was the One about to redeem Israel. Besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened.

22 “But also some women among us amazed us. Early in the morning they were at the tomb. 23 When they didn’t find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said He is alive! 24 Some of those with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women said, but they did not see Him.”

25 Yeshua said to them, “Oh foolish ones, so slow of heart to put your trust in all that the prophets spoke! 26 Was it not necessary for Messiah to suffer these things and to enter into His glory?” 27 Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets,
He explained to them the things written about Himself in all the Scriptures.

28 They approached the village where they were going, and
He acted as though He were going farther on. 29 But they urged Him, saying, “Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is already gone.” So He went in to stay with them.
30 And it happened that when He was reclining at the table with them, He took the matzah,[168] offered a bracha and, breaking it, gave it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened and they recognized Him, and He disappeared from them.

Good News for the Disciples in Jerusalem

32 They said to one another, “Didn’t our heart burn within us while He was speaking with us on the road, while He was explaining the Scriptures to us?” 33 And they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem. They found the eleven and others with them gathered together, 34 saying, “The Lord is risen indeed! He has appeared to Simon!” 35 Then they began telling about the events on the road and how He became recognized by them in the breaking of the matzah.
36 While they were speaking of these things, Yeshua Himself stood in the midst of them and said, “Shalom Aleichem!” 37 But they were startled and terrified, thinking they were seeing a ghost.
38 Then He said to them, “Why are you so shaken? And why do doubts arise in your heart? 39 Look at My hands and My feet —it is I Myself! Touch Me and see! For a spirit doesn’t have flesh and bones, as you see I have.” 40 And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.
41 But while they were still in disbelief due to joy and wonder,
He said to them, “Do you have anything to eat here?” 42 They gave Him a piece of broiled fish, 43 and He took it and ate it in their presence. 44 Then He said to them, “These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you—everything written concerning Me in the Torah of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.
45 Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, 46 and He said to them, “So it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, 47 and that repentance for the removal of sins[169] is to be proclaimed in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.[170] 48 You are witnesses of these things. 49 And behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you; but you are to stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.”

Yeshua Ascends into Heaven

50 Then Yeshua led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands[171] and blessed them. 51 And while blessing them, He departed from them and was taken up into heaven. 52 After worshiping Him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy.
53 And they were continually in the Temple, praising God.

The Word Becomes Flesh

John 1 1 In the beginning was the Word.[1] The Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was with God in the beginning. 3 All things were made through Him, and apart from Him nothing was made that has come into being. 4 In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overpowered it.

6 There came a man sent from God, whose name was John.
7 He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that through him everyone might believe. 8 He was not the light, but he came to bear witness concerning the light. 9 The true light, coming into the world, gives light to every man.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him;
but the world did not know Him. 11 He came to His own, but His own did not receive Him. 12 But whoever did receive Him, those trusting in His name, to these He gave the right to become children of God. 13 They were born not of a bloodline, nor of human desire, nor of man's will, but of God. 14 And the Word became flesh and tabernacled among us. We looked upon His glory,[2] the glory of the one and only[3] from the Father, full of grace and truth.

15 John testifies about Him. He cried out, saying, "This is He of whom I said, 'The One who comes after me is above me, because He existed before me.'" 16 Out of His fullness, we have all received grace on top of grace. 17 Torah was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Yeshua the Messiah.
18 No one has ever seen God; but the one and only God,[4] in the Father's embrace, has made Him known.

John's Witness to Israel's Leaders

19 This is John's testimony, when the Judean leaders sent kohanim and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are
you?"

20 He openly admitted and did not deny; he admitted, “I am not the Messiah.”
21 “What then? Are you Elijah?” they asked him.
“I am not,” said John.
“Are you the Prophet?”
“No,” he answered.
22 So they said to him, “Who are you? Give us an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”
23 He said, “I am ‘the voice of one crying in the wilderness, “Make straight the way of ADONAI,”’[5] as the prophet Isaiah said.”
24 Now those sent were from the Pharisees. 25 They asked him, “If you’re not the Messiah, Elijah, or the Prophet, why then are you immersing?”
26 “I immerse in water,” John answered. “Among you stands
One you do not know, 27 coming after me, whose sandals I’m not worthy to untie.” 28 These things happened in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was immersing.

Behold, the Lamb of God

29 The next day, John sees Yeshua coming to him and says, “Behold, the Lamb[6] of God who takes away the sin of the world! 30 This is the One about whom I told you, ‘He who comes after me is above me, because He was before me.’ 31 I didn’t know Him, but I came immersing with water so that He might be revealed to Israel.”
32 Then John testified, “I have seen the Ruach coming down like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on Him. 33 I did not know Him; but the One who sent me to immerse in water said to me, ‘The One on whom you see the Ruach coming down and remaining, this is the One who immerses in the Ruach ha-Kodesh.’ 34 And I have seen and testified that this is Ben-Elohim.”[7]

Yeshua’s First Disciples

35 Again the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples 36 and watched Yeshua walking by. He said, “Behold, the Lamb of God!” 37 The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Yeshua.
38 Yeshua turned around and saw them following. He said to them, “What are you looking for?”
They said to Him, “Rabbi” (which is translated Teacher), “where are you staying?”
39 “Come and see,” Yeshua tells them. So they came and saw where He was staying, and they spent that day with Him. It was about the tenth hour.[8] 40 Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John speak and followed Yeshua. 41 First he finds his own brother Simon and tells him, “We’ve found the Messiah!”
(which is translated Anointed One).
42 Andrew brought Simon to Yeshua. Yeshua looked at him and said, “You are Simon, son of John. You shall be called Kefa (which is translated Peter).”

Disciples Offer Witness

43 The next day, Yeshua decided to go to the Galilee. He finds Philip and says to him, “Follow Me!” 44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the same town as Andrew and Peter.
45 Philip finds Nathanael and tells him, “We’ve found the One that Moses in the Torah, and also the prophets, wrote about —Yeshua of Natzeret, the son of Joseph!” 46 “Natzeret!” Nathanael answered. “Can anything good come from there?”
Philip said to him, “Come and see.”
47 Yeshua saw Nathanael coming toward Him. He said, “Look, a true Israelite! There’s nothing false in him.”
48 Nathanael said to Him, “How do you know me?”
Yeshua answered, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.” 49 “Rabbi,” Nathanael answered, “You are Ben-Elohim! You are the King of Israel!”[9] 50 “Because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree, you believe?” Yeshua replied to him. “You will see greater things than that!” 51 And He said, “Amen, amen I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God going up and coming down on the Son of Man!”[10]

Water to Wine

John 2 1 On the third day, there was a wedding at Cana in the Galilee. Yeshua's mother was there, 2 and Yeshua and His disciples were also invited to the wedding. 3 When the wine ran out, Yeshua's mother said to Him, "They don't have any wine!" 4 Yeshua said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with you and Me? My hour hasn't come yet."
5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you."
6 Now there were six stone jars, used for the Jewish ritual of purification, each holding two to three measures.[11] 7 Yeshua said to them, "Fill the jars with water!" So they filled them up to the top. 8 Then He said to them, "Take some water out, and give it to the headwaiter." And they brought it.
9 Now the headwaiter did not know where it had come from,
but the servants who had drawn the water knew. As the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, he calls the bridegroom 10 and says to him, "Everyone brings out the good wine first, and whenever they are drunk, then the worse. But you've reserved the good wine until now!" 11 Yeshua did this, the first of the signs, in Cana of the Galilee—He revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

Yeshua Purges the Temple

12 After this Yeshua went down to Capernaum with His mother, brothers,[12] and disciples, and they stayed there a few days. 13 The Jewish feast of Passover was near, so Yeshua went up to Jerusalem. 14 In the Temple, He found the merchants selling oxen, sheep, and doves; also the moneychangers sitting there. 15 Then He made a whip of cords and drove them all out of the Temple, both the sheep and oxen. He dumped out the coins of the moneychangers and overturned their tables. 16 To those selling doves, He said, "Get these things out of here!
Stop making My Father's house a marketplace!" 17 His disciples remembered that it is written, “Zeal for your House will consume Me!”[13]

18 The Judean leaders responded, “What sign do You show us, since You are doing these things?”

19 “Destroy this Temple,” Yeshua answered them, “and in three days I will raise it up.”

20 The Judean leaders then said to Him, “Forty-six years this Temple was being built, and You will raise it up in three days?” 21 But He was talking about the temple of His body. 22 So after He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He was talking about this. Then they believed the Scripture and the word that Yeshua had spoken.

23 Now when He was in Jerusalem for the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name, seeing the signs He was doing. 24 But Yeshua did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all men. 25 He did not need anyone to testify about man, for He knew what was in man.

A Pharisee Comes Seeking Truth

John 3 1 Now there was a man, a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewish people. 2 He came to Yeshua at night and said, “Rabbi, we know that You, a teacher, have come from God. For no one can perform these signs which You do unless God is with Him!”
3 Yeshua answered him, “Amen, amen I tell you, unless one is born from above,[14] he cannot see the kingdom of God.”
4 “How can a man be born when he is old?” Nicodemus said to Him. “He cannot enter his mother’s womb a second time and be born, can he?”
5 Yeshua answered, “Amen, amen I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit,[15] he cannot enter the kingdom of God. 6 What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not be surprised that I said to you, ‘You all must be born from above.’ 8 The wind blows where it wishes and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

The Father’s Love Revealed

9 “How can these things happen?” Nicodemus said.
10 Yeshua answered him, “You’re a teacher of Israel and you do not understand these things? 11 Amen, amen I tell you, We speak about what We know and testify about what We have seen. Yet you all do not receive Our testimony! 12 If you do not believe the earthly things I told you, how will you believe when I tell you about heavenly things? 13 No one has gone up into heaven except the One who came down from heaven—the Son of Man. 14 Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert,[16] so the Son of Man must be lifted up, 15 so that whoever believes in Him may have eternal life!
16 “For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. 17 God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through Him. 18 The one who believes in Him is not condemned; but whoever does not believe has been condemned already, because he has not put his trust in the name of the one and only Ben-Elohim.

19 “Now this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world and men loved the darkness instead of the light,[17] because their deeds were evil. 20 For everyone who does evil hates the light and does not come to the light, so that their deeds will not be exposed. 21 But whoever practices the truth comes to the light, so that it may be made known that his deeds have been accomplished in God.”

The Living Word, Source of Life

22 Afterwards, Yeshua and His disciples came to the land of Judea. There He was staying with them and immersing. 23 Now John also was immersing at Aenon near Salim, because much water was there and many were coming and being immersed; 24 for John had not yet been thrown into prison.

25 Now an argument came up between John’s disciples and a Judean concerning purification. 26 They came to John and said, “Rabbi, the One who was with you beyond the Jordan, the One you testified about—look, He is immersing, and all are coming to Him!”

27 John answered, “A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven. 28 You yourselves testify that I said, ‘I am not the Messiah,’ but rather, ‘I am sent before Him.’ 29 The one who has the bride is the bridegroom, but the best man rejoices when he stands and hears the bridegroom’s voice. So now my joy is complete! 30 He must increase, while I must decrease.”

31 The One who comes from above is above all. The one who is from the earth is of the earth, and of the earth he speaks. The One who comes from heaven is above all. 32 And what He has seen and heard, He testifies to that; yet no one receives His testimony. [33] Whoever receives His testimony has certified that God is true.

[34] The One whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God gives the Ruach without limit. [35] The Father loves the Son and has given everything into His hand. [36] He who trusts in the Son has eternal life. He who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

Yeshua Offers Living Water

John 4 1 Now Yeshua knew that the Pharisees heard that He was making and immersing more disciples than John.
2 (Although Yeshua Himself was not immersing, His disciples were.) 3 So He left Judea and went back again to the Galilee.
4 But He needed to pass through Samaria. 5 So He comes to a Samaritan town called Shechem, near the plot of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.[18] 6 Now Jacob's well was there.
So Yeshua, exhausted from the journey, was sitting by the well.
It was midday.[19]
7 A Samaritan woman comes to draw water. "Give me a drink," Yeshua tells her, 8 for His disciples had gone away to the town to buy food.
9 Then the Samaritan woman tells Him, "How is it that You, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" (For Jewish people don't deal with Samaritans.) 10 Yeshua replied to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water." 11 "Sir," the woman tells Him, "You don't have a bucket, and the well is deep. Then from where do You get this living water?
12 You're not greater than our father Jacob, are You? He gave us this well. He drank out of it himself, with his sons and his cattle."
13 Yeshua replied to her, "Everyone who drinks from this water will get thirsty again. 14 But whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never be thirsty. The water that I give him will become a fountain of water within him, springing up to eternal life!"
15 "Sir," the woman tells Him, "give me this water, so I won't get thirsty or have to come all the way here to draw water!" 16 He tells her, "Go call your husband, and then come back here."
17 "I don't have a husband," the woman replied.

Yeshua tells her, “You’ve said it right, ‘I have no husband.’
18 For you’ve had five husbands, and the man you have now isn’t your husband. This you’ve spoken truthfully!” 19 “Sir,” the woman tells Him, “I see that You are a prophet!
20 Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you all say that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem.” 21 Yeshua tells her, “Woman, believe Me, an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. 22 You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. 23 But an hour is coming—it is here now—when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people as His worshipers. 24 God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” 25 The woman tells Him, “I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called the Anointed One.)[20] When He comes, He will explain everything to us.”
26 Yeshua tells her, “I—the One speaking to you—I am.”

Ready for Harvest

[27] At this moment, His disciples came back. They were amazed that He was speaking with a woman. Yet no one said, “What do You want?” or “Why are You speaking with her?”
[28] So the woman left her water jar and went back to the town. She tells the people, [29] “Come see a man who told me everything I ever did! He couldn’t be the Messiah, could He?” [30] The people left the town and began coming to Him.
[31] Meanwhile, the disciples were pressing Him, “Rabbi, eat!”
[32] But He said to them, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”
[33] So the disciples were saying to each other, “No one brought Him food to eat, did they?”
[34] Yeshua tells them, “My food is to do the will of the One who sent Me and to accomplish His work. [35] Don’t you say, ‘Four more months, and then comes the harvest’? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields! They are white and ready for harvest.
[36] “The reaper receives a reward and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper may rejoice together. [37] For the saying is true, ‘One sows and another reaps.’ [38] I sent you to reap what you haven’t worked for. Others have worked hard, and you have joined in their work.”
[39] Many of the Samaritans from that town put their trust in Him because of the word of the woman testifying, “He told me everything I ever did!” [40] So when the Samaritans came to Him, they kept asking Him to stay with them. He stayed there two days, [41] and many more believed because of His word. [42] They kept telling the woman, “It’s no longer because of your words that we believe. We’ve heard for ourselves! Now we know that this really is the Savior of the world!”

Life for a Dying Son

43 After the two days, He went on from there into the Galilee.
44 Now Yeshua Himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45 But when He came into the Galilee, they welcomed Him. For they had seen all He had done at the feast in Jerusalem, since they also had gone up to celebrate.
46 So He went again to Cana of the Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. Now there was a nobleman whose son was sick in Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Yeshua had come from Judea to the Galilee, he went to Him and begged
Him to come down and heal his son; for he was about to die.
48 Then Yeshua said to him, “Unless you all see signs and wonders, you’ll never believe!” 49 The nobleman said to Him, “Sir, come down before my child dies!”
50 Yeshua tells him, “Go! Your son lives!”
The man believed the word that Yeshua said to him and started off. 51 While on his way down, his servants met him, saying that his son was living. 52 So he asked them the hour when the boy began to get better. They said, “The fever left him yesterday at about the seventh hour.”[21] 53 Then the father realized that it was the same hour Yeshua said to him, “Your son lives!” Now he himself believed, along with his whole household. 54 Yeshua did this as the second sign, after He had come again from Judea into the Galilee.

Healing on Shabbat

John 5 1 After this there was a Jewish feast, and Yeshua went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now in Jerusalem there is a pool by the sheep gate, called Bethzatha in Aramaic,[22] which has five porches.
3 In these a crowd of invalids was lying around—blind, lame, disabled.(4)[23]

5 Now a certain man had been an invalid there for thirty-eight years. 6 Seeing him lying there and knowing he had been that way a long time, Yeshua said to him, “Do you want to get well?”

7 The invalid answered Him, “Sir, I have nobody to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up. While I’m trying to get in, somebody else steps down before me!”

8 Yeshua tells him, “Get up! Pick up your mat and walk!”

9 Immediately, the man was healed! He took up his mat and started walking around. Now that day was Shabbat, 10 so Judean leaders were saying to the man who was healed, “It’s Shabbat! It’s not permitted for you to carry your mat.”

11 But he answered them, “The man who made me well told me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’”

12 They asked him, “Who is the man who told you, ‘Pick up your mat and walk’?” 13 But the man who had been healed didn’t know who it was, for Yeshua had slipped away into the crowd in that place.

14 Afterwards, Yeshua finds him in the Temple. He said to him, “Look, you’ve been healed! Stop sinning, so nothing worse happens to you.” 15 The man left and told the Judean leaders that it was Yeshua who had made him well.

Sent by the Father

16 Because Yeshua was doing these things on Shabbat, the Judean leaders started persecuting Him. 17 But Yeshua said to them, “My Father is still working, and I also am working.” 18 So for this reason the Judean leaders kept trying even harder to kill Him—because He was not only breaking Shabbat,[24] but also calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.

19 Therefore Yeshua answered them, “Amen, amen I tell you, the Son cannot do anything by Himself. He can do only what He sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise. 20 For the Father loves the Son and shows Him everything He does. He will show Him even greater works than these, so that you will be amazed. 21 For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever He wants. 22 The Father does not judge anyone, but has handed over all judgment to the Son 23 so that all should honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

24 “Amen, amen I tell you, whoever hears My word and trusts the One who sent Me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed over from death into life. 25 Amen, amen I tell you, an hour is coming and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of Ben-Elohim. Those who hear will live! 26 For just as the Father has life in Himself, so also He has granted the Son to have life in Himself. 27 Also He has given the Son authority to judge, because He is the Son of Man.

28 “Do not be amazed at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear His voice 29 and come out![25]
Those who have done good will come to a resurrection of life, and those who have done evil will come to a resurrection of judgment. 30 I can do nothing on My own. Just as I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just, for I do not seek My own will, but the will of the One who sent Me.”

The Father Testifies about the Son

31 “If I testify about Myself, My witness is not valid. 32 There is another who testifies about Me, and I know that the testimony
He gives is true. 33 You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. 34 I do not receive the testimony of man, but I say these things so that you may be saved. 35 He was the lamp that was burning and shining, and you wanted to rejoice for a while in his light.

36 “But the testimony I have is greater than that from John.
The works the Father has given Me to finish—the very works I am doing—testify about Me, that the Father has sent Me. 37 And the Father who sent Me has testified concerning Me. You have never heard His voice nor seen His form. 38 Nor do you have His Word living in you, because you do not trust the One He sent.
39 You search the Scriptures because you suppose that in them you have eternal life. It is these that testify about Me. 40 Yet you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life!

41 “I do not accept glory from men. 42 But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. 43 I have come in My Father’s name, and you do not receive Me. But if another comes in his own name, you will receive him. 44 How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and you do not seek the glory that comes from God alone?

45 “Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father. The one who accuses you is Moses, in whom you have put your hope. 46 For if you were believing Moses, you would believe Me —because he wrote about Me. 47 But since you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”[26]

New Manna in the Wilderness

John 6 1 Afterwards, Yeshua went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also known as the Sea of Tiberias. 2 A large crowd kept following Him, because they were watching the signs He was performing on the sick. 3 Then Yeshua went up the mountainside and sat down there with His disciples.
4 Passover, the Jewish feast, was near.

5 Lifting up His eyes and seeing a large crowd coming to Him, Yeshua said to Philip, "Where will we buy bread so these may eat?" 6 Now Yeshua was saying this to test him, for He knew what He was about to do.

7 Philip answered Him, "Two hundred denarii[27] isn't enough to buy bread for each to get a little bit!"

8 One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, 9 "There's a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish—but what's that for so many?"

10 Yeshua said, "Make the people recline." There was much grass in the area. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. 11 Then Yeshua picked up the loaves. And having given thanks, He distributed bread to everyone who was reclining.
He did the same with the fish, as much as they wanted.

12 When the people were full, Yeshua said to His disciples, "Gather up the leftovers, so nothing is wasted." 13 So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had finished eating.

14 When the people saw the sign that Yeshua performed, they began to say, "This is most certainly the Prophet who is to come into the world!"[28] 15 Realizing that they were about to come and seize Him by force to make Him king, Yeshua withdrew again to the mountain, Himself alone.

The Savior on the Sea

16 Now when evening came, Yeshua's disciples went down to the sea. 17 Getting into a boat, they set out to cross the sea toward Capernaum. By now it had become dark, and still Yeshua had not come to them. 18 A great wind began to blow, stirring up the sea.
19 After they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia,[29] they catch sight of Yeshua walking on the sea, approaching the boat. They were terrified! 20 But Yeshua says to them, "I am.
Don't be afraid."[30] 21 Then they wanted to take Him into the boat, and right away the boat reached the shore where they were headed.

The Bread from Heaven

22 The next day, the crowd remaining on the other side of the sea realized that no other boat had been there except the one, and that Yeshua hadn't gone into the boat with His disciples, but that His disciples had gone away alone. 23 Some other boats from Tiberias came close to the place where they had eaten the bread after the Master had given thanks. 24 So when the crowd realized that neither Yeshua nor His disciples were there, they got into the boats and set off for Capernaum to find Him.
25 When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said,
"Rabbi, when did You get here?"
26 Yeshua responded to them, "Amen, amen I tell you, you seek Me not because you saw signs, but because you ate all the bread and were filled. 27 Don't work for food that spoils, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on Him, God the Father has put the seal of approval."
28 Then they said to Him, "What shall we do to perform the works of God?"
29 Yeshua answered them, "This is the work of God, to trust in the One He sent."
30 So they said to Him, "Then what sign do You perform, so that we may see and believe You? What work do You do? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'Out of heaven He gave them bread to eat.'"[31] 32 Yeshua answered them, "Amen, amen I tell you, it isn't Moses who has given you bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33 For the bread of God is the One coming down from heaven and giving life to the world."
34 So they said to Him, "Sir, give us this bread from now on!"
35 Yeshua said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in Me will never be thirsty. 36 But I told you that you have seen Me, yet you do not believe. 37 Everyone the Father gives Me will come to Me, and anyone coming to Me I will never reject. 38 For I have come down from heaven not to do My own will but the will of the One who sent Me.

39 “Now this is the will of the One who sent Me, that I lose not one of all He has given Me, but raise each one on the last day.
40 For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son and trusts in Him may have eternal life; and I will raise him up on the last day.”
41 Some of the Judeans[32] started to grumble about Him, because He said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.” 42 They were saying, “Isn’t this Yeshua the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can He now say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?”
43 Yeshua answered, “Stop grumbling among yourselves! 44 No one can come to Me unless My Father who sent Me draws him —and I will raise him up on the last day. 45 It is written in the Prophets, ‘They will all be taught by God.’[33] Everyone who has listened and learned from the Father comes to Me. 46 Not that anyone has seen the Father except the One who is from God—
He has seen the Father.
47 “Amen, amen I tell you, he who believes has eternal life. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the desert, yet they died. 50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat and not die. 51 I am the living bread, which came down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread, he will live forever. This bread is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.” 52 Then the Jews began arguing with one another, “How can this man give us His flesh to eat?” 53 So Yeshua said to them, “Amen, amen I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves. 54 He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.
55 “For My flesh is real food and My blood is real drink. 56 He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. 57 Just as the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father, so the one who eats of Me will also live because of Me. [58] This is the bread that came down from heaven—not like the bread your fathers ate and then died. He who eats this bread will live forever.”

[59] He said these things while teaching at the synagogue in Capernaum.

Fallout from a Hard Teaching

60 So when many of His disciples heard this, they said, “This is a hard teaching. Who can listen to it?” 61 But Yeshua knew His disciples were murmuring, so He said to them, “Does this offend you? 62 Then what if you see the Son of Man going back up to the place where He was before? 63 It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no benefit. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and are life! 64 Yet some of you do not trust.” Yeshua knew from the beginning who were the ones who did not trust, as well as which one would betray Him.
65 Then He told them, “For this reason I’ve told you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by the Father.”
66 From this time, many of His disciples left and quit walking with Him. 67 So Yeshua said to the Twelve, “You don’t want to leave also, do you?”
68 Simon Peter answered Him, “Lord, to whom shall we go?
You have the words of eternal life! 69 We have trusted and have come to know that you are the Holy One of God.” 70 Yeshua answered them, “Didn’t I choose you, the Twelve?
Yet one of you is the adversary!” 71 Now He was speaking of Judah, the son of Simon of Kriot—for he, one of the Twelve, was about to betray Him.

Anticipating Hostility at Sukkot

John 7 1 After these events, Yeshua was walking about in the Galilee. He did not want to walk in Judea, because the Judean leaders wanted to kill Him. 2 Now the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles[34] was near. 3 Therefore His brothers said to Him,
"Leave here and go to Judea, so Your disciples also may see the works You are doing. 4 No one who wants to be well known does everything in secret. If You are doing these things, show Yourself to the world!" 5 For not even His brothers were trusting in Him.

6 Therefore Yeshua said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always at hand. 7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify that its works are evil. 8 You go on up to the Feast. I'm not going to this feast, because My time hasn't yet fully come." 9 After saying these things, He stayed in the Galilee.

10 But after His brothers went to the Feast, He also went, not openly but secretly. 11 Then the Judean leaders were searching for Him at the Feast and kept asking, "Where is that fellow?" 12 There was a lot of murmuring about Him in the crowds. Some were saying, "He is good." But others were saying, "Not so! He leads the people astray." 13 Yet no one spoke openly about Him for fear of the Judean leaders.

Teaching at the Temple

14 About halfway through the Feast, Yeshua went up to the Temple and began teaching. 15 Then the Judean leaders were amazed, saying, “How does this man know so much, having never been taught?”[35]
16 Yeshua answered, “My teaching is not from Me, but from Him who sent Me. 17 If anyone wants to do His will, he will know whether My teaching comes from God or it is Myself speaking. 18 Whoever speaks from himself seeks his own glory;
but He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him, He is true and there is no unrighteousness in Him. 19 Hasn’t Moses given you the Torah? Yet none of you keeps it. Why are you trying to kill Me?” 20 The crowd answered, “You have a demon! Who’s trying to kill you?”
21 Yeshua answered, “I did one good work, and all of you are amazed. 22 Because Moses has given you circumcision (though it is not from Moses, but from the patriarchs), you circumcise a man on Shabbat. 23 If a man receives circumcision on Shabbat so that the Torah of Moses may not be broken, why are you angry that I healed a man’s whole body on Shabbat? 24 Do not judge by appearance, but judge righteously.” 25 Then some of the people from Jerusalem were saying, “Isn’t this the person they’re trying to kill? 26 Look, He speaks openly and they’re saying nothing to Him. Can it be that the leaders know He is the Messiah? 27 But we know where this person is from. But the Messiah, whenever He may come, no one knows where He is from.”
28 Then, while teaching in the Temple courts, Yeshua cried out, “You know both who I am and where I am from! I have not come on My own, but the One who sent Me is true. You do not know Him, 29 but I know Him because I am from Him and He sent Me.”
30 Then they were trying to seize Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come. 31 Yet many from the crowd believed in Him and were saying, “When the Messiah comes, He won’t perform more signs than this person has, will He?” 32 The Pharisees heard people in the crowd murmuring these things about Him, and the ruling kohanim and Pharisees sent guards to arrest Him.

33 Yeshua said, “I am with you only a little while longer, and then I am going to the One who sent Me. 34 You will look for Me but will not find Me. Where I am, you cannot come.”

35 The Judean leaders then said among themselves, “Where is this person about to go that we shall not find Him? He’s not going to the Diaspora to teach the Greeks, is He? 36 What did He mean by saying, ‘You will look for Me but will not find Me. Where I am, you cannot come’?”

Satisfying Spiritual Thirst

37 On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Yeshua stood up and cried out loudly, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. 38 Whoever believes in Me, as the Scripture says, ‘out of his innermost being will flow rivers of living water.’”[36]
39 Now He said this about the Ruach, whom those who trusted in Him were going to receive; for the Ruach[37] was not yet given, since Yeshua was not yet glorified.

40 When they heard these words, some of the crowd said,
“This man really is the Prophet.” 41 Others were saying, “This is the Messiah.” Still others were saying, “The Messiah doesn’t come from the Galilee, does He? 42 Didn’t the Scripture say that the Messiah comes from the seed of David and from Bethlehem, David’s town?”[38] 43 So a division arose in the crowd because of Yeshua. 44 Some wanted to capture Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Religious Adversaries

45 Then the guards returned to the ruling kohanim and Pharisees, who asked them, “Why didn’t you bring Him?” 46 “Never has anyone spoken like this man,” the guards answered.
47 The Pharisees responded, “You haven’t been led astray also, have you? 48 Have any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in Him? 49 No, but this mob that doesn’t know the Torah—they are cursed!”
50 Nicodemus, the one who had come to Yeshua before and was one of them, said to them, 51 “Our Torah doesn’t judge a man unless it first hears from him and knows what he’s doing,
does it?”
52 They answered him, “You aren’t from the Galilee too, are you? Search, and see that no prophet comes out of the Galilee!”[39]
53 Then everyone went to his own house.

Mercy for a Sinful Woman

John 8 [1] But Yeshua went to the Mount of Olives. [2] At dawn, He came again into the Temple. All the people were coming to Him, and He sat down and began to teach them.
[3] The Torah scholars and Pharisees bring in a woman who had been caught in adultery. After putting her in the middle, [4] they say to Yeshua, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of committing adultery. [5] In the Torah, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do You say?” [6] Now they were saying this to trap Him, so that they would have grounds to accuse Him.
But Yeshua knelt down and started writing in the dirt with His finger. [7] When they kept asking Him, He stood up and said, “The sinless one among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.” [8] Then He knelt down again and continued writing on the ground.
[9] Now when they heard, they began to leave, one by one, the oldest ones first, until Yeshua was left alone with the woman in the middle. [10] Straightening up, Yeshua said to her, “Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?”
[11] “No one, Sir,” she said.
“Then neither do I condemn you,” Yeshua said. “Go, and sin
no more.”

The Light of the World

12 Yeshua spoke to them again, saying, “I am the light of the world. The one who follows Me will no longer walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”
13 Then the Pharisees said to Him, “You are testifying about Yourself, so Your testimony is not valid.” 14 Yeshua answered them, “Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is valid. For I know where I came from and where I am going. But you don’t know where I come from or where I am going.15 You judge according to the flesh, but I do not judge anyone. 16 Yet even if I do judge, My judgment is true, because it is not I alone but I with the Father who sent Me. 17 Even in your Torah it is written that the testimony of two men is true.[40] 18 I am one witness for Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness for Me.”
19 Then they said to Him, “Where is your Father?” Yeshua answered, “You know neither Me nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would also know My Father.” 20 He spoke these words in the treasury while teaching in the Temple, but no one arrested Him because His hour had not yet come.
21 Then again Yeshua spoke to them, “I am going away. You will look for Me and die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.”
22 “He won’t kill Himself, will He?” the Judeans asked. “Is that why He says, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come’?” 23 Yeshua said, “You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. 24 Therefore I told you that you will die in your sins. If you don’t believe that I am, you will die in your sins.”
25 So they asked Him, “Who are you?”
Yeshua replied, “What have I been telling you from the beginning? 26 I have much to say and judge about you. But the One who sent Me is true, and I tell the world what I heard from Him.” 27 They didn’t understand that He was talking to them about the Father.

28 So Yeshua said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know who I am. I do nothing by Myself, but speak just what the Father has taught Me. 29 The One who sent Me is with Me. He has not left Me alone, because I always do what is pleasing to Him.”
30 As He was speaking these things, many people put their trust in Him.
31 Then Yeshua said to the Judeans who had trusted Him, “If you abide in My word, then you are truly My disciples. 32 You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free!” 33 They answered Him, “We are Abraham’s children and have never been slaves to anyone! How can you say, ‘You will become free’?”
34 Yeshua answered them, “Amen, amen I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. 35 Now the slave does not remain in the household forever; the son abides forever. 36 So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed! 37 I know you are Abraham’s children; yet you are trying to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. 38 I tell of what I have seen with the Father; so also you do what you heard from the Father.”[41]
39 “Abraham is our father,” they replied to Him.
Yeshua said to them, “If you are Abraham’s children, do the deeds of Abraham. 40 But now you are seeking to kill Me—a Man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. This Abraham did not do! 41 You are doing the deeds of your father.”
They said to Him, “We were not born as illegitimate children
—we have one Father, God Himself!” 42 Yeshua said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love Me, for from God I came and now I am here. For I have not come on My own, but He sent Me. 43 Why don’t you understand My speech? Because you’re not able to hear My word! 44 You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him.
Whenever he speaks lies he is just being himself—for he is a liar and the father of lies.

45 “But because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me.
46 Which one of you convicts Me of sinning? If I am telling the truth, why don’t you believe Me? 47 He who belongs to God hears the words of God. The reason you don’t hear[42] is because you do not belong to God.” 48 The Judean leaders responded, “Aren’t we right to say you are a Samaritan and have a demon?” 49 Yeshua answered, “I do not have a demon! I honor My Father, yet you dishonor Me. 50 But I do not seek My own glory;
there is One who is seeking and judging. 51 Amen, amen I tell you, if anyone keeps My word, he will never see death.” 52 “Now we know You have a demon!” the Judean leaders said to Him. “Abraham and the prophets died. Yet You say, ‘If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste death.’ 53 You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, are You? The prophets also died! Who do You make Yourself out to be?” 54 Yeshua answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing.
It is My Father who gives Me glory—the One of whom you say,
‘He is our God.’[43] 55 Yet you do not know Him, but I know Him.
If I say I do not know Him, I will be a liar like you. Yet I do know Him and keep His Word. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day; he saw it and was thrilled.” 57 Then the Judeans said to Him, “You’re not even fifty years old and you’ve seen Abraham?”[44] 58 Yeshua answered, “Amen, amen I tell you, before Abraham was, I am!”
59 Then they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Yeshua hid Himself and went out from the Temple.[45]

Bringing Light to the Blind

John 9 [1] As Yeshua was passing by, He saw a man who had been blind since birth. [2] His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?” [3] Yeshua answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned.
This happened so that the works of God might be brought to light in him. [4] We must do the work of the One who sent Me, so long as it is day! Night is coming when no one can work.
[5] While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”
[6] Having said these things, He spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud on the blind man’s eyes.
[7] He told him, “Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam” (which is translated Sent). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing.
[8] Therefore his neighbors and those who had seen him as a beggar kept saying, “Isn’t this the one who used to sit and beg?”
[9] “This is the one!” some said.
“No, but it looks like him,” said others.
But the man himself kept saying, “I am!”
[10] So they asked him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”
[11] He answered, “The Man who is called Yeshua made mud, rubbed it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’
So I went away and washed, and then I received my sight!”
[12] “Where is He?” they asked him.
“I don’t know,” he said.
[13] They bring to the Pharisees the man who once was blind.
[14] Now the day was Shabbat when Yeshua made the mud and opened the man’s eyes. [15] So again the Pharisees were asking him how he received his sight. He responded, “He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see!” [16] So some of the Pharisees began saying, “This man isn’t from God, because He doesn’t keep Shabbat!” But others were saying, “How can a sinner perform such signs?” So there was a split among them.

[17] Again they say to the blind man, “What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?”

And he said, “He’s a prophet.”

[18] So the Judean leaders didn’t believe that he had been blind and received his sight until they called his parents. [19] They questioned them, “Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? Then how does he see now?”

[20] Then his parents answered, “We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. [21] We don’t know how he now sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him—he’s old enough. He will speak for himself.” [22] His parents said this because they were afraid of the Judean leaders. For the Judean leaders had already agreed that anyone who professed Yeshua to be Messiah would be thrown out of the synagogue. [23] That’s why his parents said, “He’s old enough—ask him.”

[24] So a second time they called the man who had been blind and said, “Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner!”

[25] The man replied, “I don’t know whether He’s a sinner. One thing I do know is that I was blind, but now I see!”

[26] So they asked him, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

[27] “I told you already and you didn’t listen!” the man responded. “What, do you want to hear it again? You don’t want to become His disciples too, do you?”

[28] They railed at him and said, “You’re a disciple of that One, but we’re disciples of Moses! [29] We know that God has spoken to Moses; but as for this fellow, we don’t know where He is from.”

[30] The man replied to them, “That’s amazing! You don’t know where He is from, yet He opened my eyes! [31] We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners; but if anyone fears Him and does His will, He hears this one. [32] Since the beginning of the world, no one has ever heard that anyone has opened the eyes of a man born blind. [33] If this man were not from God, He couldn’t do anything.”

34 They replied to him, “You were born completely in sin, and you’re teaching us?” And they threw him out.

Is Seeing Believing?

35 Yeshua heard that they had thrown him out. Finding him,
He said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”[46] 36 The man answered, “Who is He, Sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in Him!”
37 Yeshua said, “You have seen Him—He is the One speaking with you.”
38 He said, “Lord, I believe!” And he worshiped Him.
39 Yeshua said, “For judgment I came into this world, so that those who don’t see may see, and the ones who do see may become blind.”
40 Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard Him say this and asked, “We’re not blind too, are we?”
41 Yeshua said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, ‘We see.’ So your sin remains.”

The Faithful Hear the Shepherd's Voice

John 10 1 "Amen, amen I tell you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber. 2 But he who enters through the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice. The shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.
4 "When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them; and the sheep follow him because they know his voice.
5 They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." 6 Yeshua told them this parable, but they did not understand what He was telling
them.
7 So Yeshua said again, "Amen, amen I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. 8 All those who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. 9 I am the gate![47]
If anyone comes in through Me, he will be saved. He will come and go and find pasture. 10 The thief comes only to steal, slaughter, and destroy. I have come that they might have life,
and have it abundantly!
11 "I am the Good Shepherd.[48] The Good Shepherd lays down
His life for the sheep. 12 The hired worker is not the shepherd, and the sheep are not his own. He sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and flees. Then the wolf snatches and scatters the sheep. 13 The man is only a hired hand and does not care about the sheep.
14 "I am the Good Shepherd. I know My own and My own know Me, 15 just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father. And I lay down My life for the sheep. 16 I have other sheep that are not from this fold; those also I must lead, and they will listen to My voice. So there shall be one flock, one Shepherd.
17 "For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down
My life, so that I may take it up again. 18 No one takes it away from Me, but I lay it down on My own. I have the authority to lay it down, and I have the authority to take it up again. This command I received from My Father."

19 Again a division arose among the Judeans because of these words. 20 Many of them were saying, "He has a demon. He's insane! Why listen to Him?" 21 Others said, "These are not the sayings of someone who is plagued by a demon. A demon cannot open the eyes of the blind, can it?"

Some Despise the Light and Harden

22 Then came Hanukkah;[49] it was winter in Jerusalem.
23 Yeshua was walking in the Temple around Solomon's Colonnade. 24 Then the Judean leaders surrounded Him, saying, "How long will You hold us in suspense? If You are the Messiah, tell us outright!"

25 Yeshua answered them, "I told you, but you don't believe! The works I do in My Father's name testify concerning Me.
26 But you don't believe, because you are not My sheep. 27 My sheep hear My voice. I know them, and they follow Me. 28 I give them eternal life! They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand. 29 My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all. And no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. 30 I and the Father are one."

31 Again the Judean leaders picked up stones to stone Him.
32 Yeshua answered them, "I've shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these are you going to stone Me?"

33 The Judean leaders answered, "We aren't stoning you for a good work, but for blasphemy. Though You are a man, You make Yourself God!"

34 Yeshua answered them, "Isn't it written in your Writings,[50] 'I have said you are gods'? 35 If he called them 'gods,' to whom the Word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), 36 do you say of Him, the One the Father set apart and sent into the world, 'You speak blasphemy,' because I said, 'I am Ben-Elohim'?

37 “If I don’t do the works of My Father, don’t believe Me!
38 But if I do, even if you don’t trust Me, trust the deeds. Then you may come to know and continue to understand that the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father.” 39 Therefore they tried to capture Him again, but He escaped from their hand.
40 Again He went back across the Jordan to the place where John first started immersing, and He stayed there. 41 Many people came to Him and were saying, “John performed no sign, but all John said about this man was true.” 42 And many trusted in Him there.

Lazarus Is Dead

John 11 1 Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Miriam and her sister Martha. 2 This was the same Miriam who anointed the Master with perfume and wiped His feet with her hair. It was her brother Lazarus who was sick. 3 So the sisters sent a word to Yeshua, saying, “Master, the one you love is sick!”

4 When Yeshua heard this, He said, “This sickness will not end in death. It is for God’s glory, so that Ben-Elohim may be glorified through it.” 5 Now Yeshua loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. 6 However, when He heard that Lazarus was sick,
He stayed where He was for two more days.

7 Then after this, He said to His disciples, “Let’s go up to Judea again.”

8 “Rabbi,” the disciples say to Him, “just now the Judean leaders were trying to stone You! And You’re going back there again?”

9 Yeshua answered, “Aren’t there twelve hours in the day? If a man walks in the day, he doesn’t stumble, because he sees the light of the world. 10 But if a man should walk around at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.”

11 After He said this, He tells them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I’m going there to wake him up.”

12 So the disciples said to Him, “Master, if he has fallen asleep, he will get better.” 13 Now Yeshua had spoken about his death, but they thought He was talking about ordinary sleep.

14 Then Yeshua told them clearly, “Lazarus is dead! 15 I’m glad for your sake I wasn’t there, so that you may believe. Anyway, let’s go to him!”

16 Then Thomas called the Twin[51] said to the other disciples, “Let’s go too, so that we may die with Him!”

Comforting the Mourners

17 So when Yeshua arrived, He discovered that Lazarus had been in the tomb already for four days. 18 Bethany was less than two miles[52] from Jerusalem, 19 and many of the Judeans had come to Martha and Miriam to console them about their brother.
20 When Martha heard that Yeshua was coming, she went out to meet Him; but Miriam sat in the house. 21 Martha said to Yeshua, “Master, if You had been here, my brother wouldn’t have died! 22 But I know, even now, that whatever You may ask of God, He will give You.”
23 Yeshua said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” 24 Martha said to Him, “I know, he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.”
25 Yeshua said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life!
Whoever believes in Me, even if he dies, shall live. 26 And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?”
27 She says to Him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, Ben-Elohim who has come into the world.” 28 After she said this, she left and secretly told her sister Miriam, “The Teacher is here, and He’s calling for you.” 29 As soon as Miriam heard, she quickly got up and was coming to Him. 30 Now Yeshua had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met Him. 31 The Judeans, who were with Miriam in the house and comforting her, seeing how quickly she got up and went out, followed her. They thought she was going to the tomb to weep there.
32 So when Miriam came to where Yeshua was, she saw Him and fell at His feet, saying to Him, “Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died!”
33 When Yeshua saw her weeping, and the Judeans who came with her weeping, He was deeply troubled in spirit and Himself agitated. 34 “Where have you laid him?” He asked.
“Come and see, Master,” they tell Him.

35 Yeshua wept. 36 So the Judeans said, “See how He loved
him!” 37 But some of them said, “Couldn’t this One, who opened the eyes of the blind man, have also kept this man from dying?”

Yeshua’s Word Raises the Dead

38 So Yeshua, again deeply troubled within Himself, comes to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.
39 Yeshua says, “Roll away the stone!”
Martha, the dead man’s sister, said to Him, “Master, by this time he stinks! He’s been dead for four days!” 40 Yeshua says to her, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?”
41 So they rolled away the stone. Yeshua lifted up His eyes and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard Me. 42 I knew that You always hear Me; but because of this crowd standing around I said it, so that they may believe that You sent
Me.”
43 And when He had said this, He cried out with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” 44 He who had been dead came out, wrapped in burial clothes binding his hands and feet, with a cloth over his face. And Yeshua tells them, “Cut him loose, and let him go!”

Better that One Man Die

45 Therefore many of the Judeans, who had come to Miriam and had seen what Yeshua had done, put their trust in Him.
46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Yeshua had done.
47 So the ruling kohanim and Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin. “What are we doing?” they asked. “This Man is performing many signs! 48 If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our holy place and our nation.”
49 But one of them, Caiaphas, who was kohen gadol that year, said to them, “You know nothing! 50 You don’t take into account that it is better for you that one man die for the people rather than for the whole nation to be destroyed.” 51 Now he did not say this by himself; but as the kohen gadol that year, he prophesied that Yeshua would die for the nation.
[53] 52 And not for the nation only, but also so that He might gather together into one the scattered children of God.[54] 53 So from that day on, they plotted to kill Him. 54 Therefore Yeshua no longer walked openly among the Judeans, but went from there to the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with His disciples.
55 Now the Jewish Passover was near; and many people went up out of the regions to Jerusalem before Passover, to purify themselves. 56 So they were searching for Yeshua, saying to one another as they stood in the Temple, “What do you think?
Won’t He come to the feast at all?” 57 Now the ruling kohanim and Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it so that they might arrest Him.

Miriam Anoints the Messiah

John 12 1 Six days before Passover, Yeshua came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Yeshua had raised from the dead.
2 So they prepared a dinner there for Yeshua. Martha was serving, and Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him. 3 Then Miriam took a pound[55] of very expensive oil of pure nard and anointed Yeshua's feet, and she wiped His feet dry with her hair. Now the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.
4 But Judah from Kriot, one of His disciples, the one who was about to betray Him, said, 5 "Why wasn't this oil sold for three hundred denarii[56] and the money given to the poor?" 6 Now he said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief. Since he had the moneybox, he used to steal from what was put in it.
7 Therefore Yeshua said, "Leave her alone! She set it aside for the day of My burial. 8 You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have Me." 9 Now a large crowd of Judeans knew He was there and came, not only for Yeshua but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. 10 So the ruling kohanim made plans to kill Lazarus also, 11 because on account of him many of the Jewish people were going and putting their trust in Yeshua.

Israel's King Has Come

12 The next day, the huge crowd that had come up for the feast heard that Yeshua was coming to Jerusalem. 13 So they took palm branches and went out to meet Him, shouting,

> "'Hoshia-na! Baruch ha-ba b'shem ADONAI!
> Blessed is He who comes in the name of the > LORD!'[57]
> The King of Israel!"

14 Finding a young donkey, Yeshua sat on it, as it is written,

15 “Fear not, Daughter of Zion!
Look! Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey’s colt.”[58]

16 His disciples did not understand these things at first. But when Yeshua was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that the crowd had done these things for Him.
17 So the crowd, which had been with Yeshua when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, kept on telling everyone about it. 18 It was also for this reason that the crowd came out to meet Him, because they heard that He had performed this sign. 19 So the Pharisees said to each other, “You see that you can’t do anything. Look, the whole world has taken off after Him!”

Fallen Seed Produces a Harvest

20 Now there were some Greeks among those who were going up to worship at the feast. 21 These came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in the Galilee. “Sir,” they said, “we want to see Yeshua.” 22 Philip comes and tells Andrew; Andrew and Philip come and tell Yeshua.
23 Yeshua answers them, saying, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified! 24 Amen, amen I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the earth and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it produces much fruit. 25 He who loves his life will lose it, and the one who hates his life in this world will keep it forever. 26 If any man serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there also will My servant be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.
27 “Now My soul is troubled. And what shall I say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour’? But it was for this reason I came to this hour. 28 Father, glorify Your name!” Then a voice came out of heaven, “I have glorified it, and again I will glorify it!”
29 Therefore the crowd that was standing there and heard it was saying that it had thundered. Others were saying, “An angel has spoken to Him.”
30 Yeshua responded, “This voice hasn’t come for My sake, but for yours. 31 Now is the judgment of this world! Now the prince of this world will be driven out! 32 And as I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to Myself.” 33 He said this to show the kind of death He was about to die.
34 The crowd answered Him, “We’ve heard from Scripture[59] that the Messiah remains forever. How can You say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”

Choose Either the Light or the Darkness

35 Therefore Yeshua said to them, “The light is with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness will not overtake you. The one who walks in darkness doesn’t know where he is going. 36 While you have the light, believe in the light so that you may become sons of light.”

Yeshua spoke these things, then left and hid Himself from them.
37 But even though He had performed so many signs before them, they weren’t trusting in Him. 38 This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet, who said, > “ADONAI, who has believed our report?

> To whom has the arm of ADONAI been revealed?”[60]

39 For this reason they could not believe, for Isaiah also said,

> 40 “He has blinded their eyes > and hardened their hearts,
> so they might not see with their eyes
> nor understand with their hearts and turn back,
> and I would heal them.”[61]

41 Isaiah said these things because he saw His glory and spoke of Him.
42 Nevertheless many, even among the leaders, put their trust in Him. But because of the Pharisees, they were not confessing Yeshua,[62] so they would not be thrown out of the synagogue;[63] 43 for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.
44 Yeshua cried out, “Whoever puts trust in Me believes not in Me but in the One who sent Me! 45 And whoever beholds Me beholds the One who sent Me. 46 As light I have come into the world, so that everyone who trusts in Me should not remain in darkness.
47 “If anyone hears My words but doesn’t keep them, I do not judge him; for I came to save the world, not to judge the world. 48 The one who rejects Me and doesn’t receive My words has a judge; the word I spoke will judge him on the last day. 49 For I did not speak on My own, but the Father Himself who sent Me has commanded Me what to say and speak. 50 And I know that His commandment is life everlasting. Therefore what I say, I say just as the Father has told Me.”

Modeling Servanthood

John 13 1 Now it was just before the feast of Passover. Yeshua knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them until the end.[64]
2 While the seder meal was happening, the devil had already put in the heart of Judah from Kriot that he should hand over Yeshua. 3 Yeshua knew that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was returning to God. 4 So He gets up from the meal and lays aside His outer garment; and taking a towel, He wrapped it around His waist.
5 Then He pours water into a basin. He began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel wrapped around
Him.
6 Then He comes to Simon Peter, who says to Him, "Master, are You going to wash my feet?"
7 Yeshua responded, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand after these things."
8 Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!"
Yeshua answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with Me."
9 Simon Peter said to Him, "Master, then not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!"
10 Yeshua said to him, "He who has bathed has no need to wash, except the feet; he is completely clean. And you all are clean, though not every one." 11 He knew who was betraying Him; for this reason, He said, "Not all of you are clean." 12 So after He had washed their feet and put His robe back on and reclined again, He said to them, "Do you understand what I have done for you? 13 You call Me 'Teacher' and 'Master'—and rightly you say, for I am. 14 So if I, your Master and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash each other's feet. 15 I have given you an example—you should do for each other what I have done for you.

16 “Amen, amen I tell you, a servant isn’t greater than his master, and the one who is sent isn’t greater than the one who sent him. 17 If you know these things, you are blessed if you do
them!”

Yeshua Reveals His Betrayer

18 “I am not speaking to all of you—I know whom I have chosen. But so the Scripture may be fulfilled, ‘He who eats My bread has lifted up his heel against Me.’[65] 19 From now on I am telling you, before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe that I am. 20 Amen, amen I tell you, he who receives the one I send, receives Me; and he who receives Me, receives the One who sent Me.”
21 After He said these things, Yeshua was agitated in spirit and testified, “Amen, amen I tell you, one of you will betray Me!” 22 The disciples began looking at each other, perplexed—who was He talking about? 23 One of His disciples, whom Yeshua loved, was reclining at His side. 24 Simon Peter nods to him and says, “Ask Him—who is He talking about?”
25 Then he who leaned on Yeshua’s chest says to Him, “Master, who is it?”
26 Yeshua answers, “It’s the one I will give this bit of matzah to, after I dip it.” After dipping the matzah,[66] He takes it and gives it to Judah from Kriot, the son of Simon. 27 And with that bit, satan entered into him. Then Yeshua tells him, “What you’re about to do, do quickly!” 28 But no one reclining at the table knew why Yeshua said this to him. 29 Since Judah had the moneybox, some thought Yeshua was telling him, “Buy what we need for the feast,” or that he should give something to the poor. 30 So after Judah received the bit of matzah, he left immediately. Now it was night.

Leaving a Legacy of Love

31 Then when Judah had gone out, Yeshua said, “Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him! 32 If God is glorified in Him,[67] God will glorify Him in Himself, and will glorify Him at once. 33 Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will search for Me; and just as I told the Judean leaders, so I say to you now, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’

34 “I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, so also you must love one another. 35 By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

36 “Master, where are You going?” Simon Peter said to Him.

Yeshua answered, “Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now; but you will follow Me later.”

37 Peter said to Him, “Master, why can’t I follow You now? I’ll lay down my life for You!”

38 Yeshua answers, “Will you lay down your life for Me?
Amen, amen I tell you, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times!”

The Way to the Father's House

John 14 1 "Do not let your heart be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in Me. 2 In My Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? 3 If I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again and take you to Myself, so that where I am you may also be. 4 And you know the way to where I am going."[68]

5 Thomas said to Him, "Master, we don't know where You are going. How can we know the way?"

6 Yeshua said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life!
No one comes to the Father except through Me. 7 If you have come to know Me, you will know My Father also. From now on, you do know Him and have seen Him."

8 Philip said to Him, "Master, show us the Father, and it is enough for us."

9 Yeshua said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time, and you haven't come to know Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? 10 Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words I say to you, I do not speak on My own; but the Father dwelling in Me does His works. 11 Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me—or at least believe because of the works themselves.

12 "Amen, amen I tell you, he who puts his trust in Me, the works that I do he will do; and greater than these he will do, because I am going to the Father. 13 And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask Me[69] anything in My name, I will do it."

The Believer's Helper

15 "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments. 16 I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper[70] so He may be with you forever—17 the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not behold Him or know Him. You know Him, because He abides with you and will be in you.

18 I will not abandon you as orphans;[71] I will come to you. 19 In a little while, the world will no longer behold Me, but you will behold Me. Because I live, you also will live!
20 “In that day, you will know that I am in My Father, you are in Me, and I am in you. 21 He who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me. He who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself to him.”
22 Judah (not the one from Kriot) said to Him, “Master, what has happened, that You are about to reveal Yourself to us and not the world?”
23 Yeshua answered and said to him, “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our dwelling with him. 24 He who does not love Me does not keep My words. And the word you hear is not Mine, but the Father’s who sent Me. 25 These things I have spoken to you while dwelling with you. 26 But the Helper, the Ruach ha-Kodesh whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you everything and remind you of everything that I said to you.
27 “Shalom I leave you, My shalom I give to you; but not as the world gives! Do not let your heart be troubled or afraid. 28 You’ve heard Me say, ‘I am going away and I am coming back to you.’ If you loved Me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. 29 I have told you now before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe!
30 “I will not talk with you much longer, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has nothing on Me. 31 But in order that the world may know that I love the Father, I do exactly as the Father commanded Me.
“Get up, let’s go from here!”

Abiding in the Vine

John 15 1 “I am the true vine, and My Father is the gardener.
2 Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away;
and every branch that bears fruit, He trims so that it may bear more fruit. 3 You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. 4 Abide in Me, and I will abide in you. The branch cannot itself produce fruit, unless it abides on the vine.
Likewise, you cannot produce fruit unless you abide in Me.
5 “I am the vine; you are the branches. The one who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for apart from Me, you can do nothing. 6 If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away like a branch and is dried up. Such branches are picked up and thrown into the fire and burned.
7 “If you abide in Me and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you. 8 In this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be My disciples.”
9 “Just as the Father has loved Me, I also have loved you.
Abide in My love! 10 If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father’s commandments and abide in His love. 11 These things I have spoken to you so that My joy may be in you, and your joy may be full.
12 “This is My commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you.[72] 13 No one has greater love than this: that he lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are My friends if you do what I command you.
15 “I am no longer calling you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. Now I have called you friends, because everything I have heard from My Father I have made known to you.
16 “You did not choose Me, but I chose you. I selected you so that you would go and produce fruit, and your fruit would remain. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in My name.

17 “These things I command you, so that you may love one another.”

The World Hates God’s Own

18 “If the world hates you, know that it has hated Me before you. 19 If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own. But you are not of the world, since I have chosen you out of the world; therefore the world hates you.
20 “Remember the word I spoke to you: ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’[73] If they persecuted Me, they will persecute you also. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.
21 “But all these things they will do to you for the sake of My name, because they do not know the One who sent Me. 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin.
23 “He who hates Me also hates My Father. 24 If I had not done works among them that no one else did, they would have no sin. But now they have seen and have hated both Me and My Father. 25 So is fulfilled the word written in their Scripture,[74]
‘They hated Me for no reason.’[75]
26 “When the Helper comes—whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father—He will testify about Me. 27 And you also testify, because you have been with Me from the beginning.”

John 16 1 “I have spoken these things to you so that you may be kept from stumbling. 2 They will throw you out of the synagogues. Yes, an hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God. 3 They will do these things because they have never known the Father or Me. 4 But I have spoken these things to you so that when their hour comes, you may remember that I told you of them. I did not tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you.”

The Ruach Reveals Truth

5 “But now I am going to the One who sent Me, and not one of you is asking Me, ‘Where are you going?’ 6 Because I have spoken these things to you, grief has filled your heart. 7 But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away! For if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.
8 “When He comes, He will convict the world about sin, righteousness, and judgment: 9 concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me; 10 concerning righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will no longer see Me; 11 and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.
12 “I still have much more to tell you, but you cannot handle it just now. 13 But when the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on His own; but whatever He hears, He will tell you. And He will declare to you the things that are to come. 14 He will glorify Me, because He will take from what is Mine and declare it to you. 15 Everything that the Father has is Mine. For this reason I said the Ruach will take from what is Mine and declare it to you.”

Death and Resurrection Foretold

16 “A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me.”
17 Then some of His disciples said to one another, “What does
He mean by telling us, ‘A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me’? And, ‘Because I am going to the Father’?”
18 They kept on saying, “What’s this He’s saying, ‘A little while’? We don’t know what He’s talking about!” 19 Yeshua knew that they wanted to question Him, so He said to them, “Are you asking each other about this, that I said, ‘A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me’? 20 Amen, amen I tell you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will celebrate. You will be filled with sorrow, but your sorrow will turn to joy!
21 “When a woman is in labor, she has pain because her hour has come.[76] But when she gives birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, because of the joy that a human being has been born into the world. 22 So also you have sorrow now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you!
23 “In that day, you will ask Me nothing. Amen, amen I tell you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you.
24 Up to now, you have not asked for anything in My name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be full.
25 “These things I have spoken to you in metaphors. An hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in metaphors, but will tell you plainly about the Father. 26 In that day, you will ask in My name—and I’m not telling you that I will ask the Father on your behalf. 27 For the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came forth from God. 28 I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again I am leaving the world and going to the Father.” 29 His disciples say, “See, now You’re speaking plainly and not in metaphors. 30 Now we know that You know everything and have no need to be asked anything. By this we believe that You came forth from God.”

31 Yeshua answered them, “Do you now believe? 32 Look, the hour is coming—indeed has come—when you will be scattered, each to his own, and you will abandon Me. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. 33 These things I have spoken to you, so that in Me you may have shalom. In the world you will have trouble, but take heart! I have overcome the world!”

The Son Glorifies the Father

John 17 1 Yeshua spoke these things; then, lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, so the Son may glorify You. 2 Even as You gave Him authority over all flesh, so may He give eternal life to all those You have given Him. 3 And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Yeshua the Messiah, the One You sent.
4 I glorified You on earth by finishing the work that You have given Me to do. 5 Now, Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the world came to be.”

Yeshua Prays for His Disciples

6 “I have made Your name known to the men of this world that You gave Me. They were Yours; You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. 7 Now they have come to know that everything You have given Me is from You. 8 The words, which You gave Me, I have given to them. They received them and truly understood that I came from You, and they believed that You sent Me. 9 I ask on their behalf. Not on behalf of the world do I ask, but on behalf of those You have given Me, for they are Yours. 10 All Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I have been glorified in them. 11 I am no longer in the world; but they are in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name that You have given Me, so that they may be one just as We are. 12 While I was with them, I was keeping them in Your name that You have given Me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the son of destruction,[77]
so that the Scripture would be fulfilled.

13 “But now I am coming to You. I say these words while I am still in the world, so that they may have My joy made full in themselves. 14 I have given them Your word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world just as I am not of the world. 15 I am not asking that You take them out of the world, but that You keep them from the evil one. [16] They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

[17] “Make them holy in the truth. Your word is truth. [18] Just as You sent Me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. [19] And for their sakes I make Myself holy, so that they also may be made holy in truth.”

Interceding for All Believers

20 “I pray not on behalf of these only, but also for those who believe in Me through their message, 21 that they all may be one. Just as You, Father, are in Me and I am in You, so also may they be one in Us, so the world may believe that You sent Me.
22 The glory that You have given to Me I have given to them, that they may be one just as We are one—23 I in them and You in Me—that they may be perfected in unity, so that the world may know that You sent Me and loved them as You loved Me.
24 “Father, I also want those You have given Me to be with Me where I am, so that they may see My glory—the glory You gave Me, for You loved Me before the foundation of the world.
25 Righteous Father, the world did not know You, but I knew
You; and these knew that You sent Me. 26 I made your Name known to them, and will continue to make it known, so that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.”

Betrayed and Arrested

John 18 1 When Yeshua had said these things, He went out with His disciples across the Kidron Valley,[78] where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered. 2 Now Judah, who was betraying Him, also knew the place, because Yeshua had often met there with His disciples. 3 So Judah, having taken a band of soldiers and some officers from the ruling kohanim and Pharisees, comes there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.
4 Then Yeshua, knowing all the things coming upon Him, went forward. He said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

5 "Yeshua ha-Natzrati," they answered Him.

Yeshua tells them, "I am." Now Judah, the one betraying Him, was also standing with them. 6 So when Yeshua said to them, "I am," they drew back and fell to the ground.

7 So again He asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

And they said, "Yeshua ha-Natzrati."

8 Yeshua answered, "I told you, I am! If you're looking for Me, let these men go their way." 9 This was so the word would be fulfilled that He spoke: "I did not lose one of those You have given Me."[79]

10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the kohen gadol, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant's name was Malchus. 11 So Yeshua said to Peter, "Put the sword into the sheath! The cup the Father has given Me—shall I never drink it?"

Interrogated and Tried 12 Then the band of soldiers, with the captain and the officers of the Judeans, seized Yeshua and tied Him up.
13 They led Him first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the kohen gadol that year. 14 Now Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Judean leaders that it was better for one man to die on behalf of the people.

15 Simon Peter was following Yeshua with another disciple.
Now that disciple was known to the kohen gadol, so he went with Yeshua into the court of the kohen gadol. 16 But Peter was left standing outside by the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the kohen gadol, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter in.

17 The maidservant at the door says to Peter, “Aren’t you one of this Man’s disciples too?”

He says, “No, I’m not.” 18 The servants and officers were standing around a fire they had made, because it was cold and they were warming themselves. And Peter was also with them, standing and warming himself.

19 The kohen gadol then questioned Yeshua about His disciples and His teaching. 20 “I have spoken openly to the world,” Yeshua answered him. “I always taught in the synagogues and the Temple, where all the Jewish people come together. I spoke nothing in secret. 21 Why question Me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them. Look, they know what I said.”

22 When He had said this, one of the officers standing nearby gave Yeshua a slap, saying, “Is that the way you answer the kohen gadol?”

23 Yeshua answered him, “If I have spoken wrongly, give evidence of the wrong; but if rightly, why hit Me?” 24 Then Annas sent Him, still tied up, to Caiaphas, the kohen gadol.

25 Now Simon Peter was standing outside and warming himself. So they said to him, “Aren’t you one of His disciples too?”

He denied it and said, “No, I’m not!”

26 One of the servants of the kohen gadol, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, “Didn’t I see you in the garden with Him?”

27 Again Peter denied it, and immediately a rooster crowed.

28 Then they led Yeshua from Caiaphas to the Praetorium.[80] It was early. They themselves did not enter the Praetorium, so they would not become unclean but might eat the Passover. 29 Therefore Pilate came out to them and said, “What charge do you bring against this man?”

30 They answered, “If He weren’t an evildoer, we wouldn’t have handed Him over to you.” 31 Then Pilate said to them, “Take Him yourselves, and judge Him by your Torah!”
The Judean leaders responded, “We are not authorized to put anyone to death.” 32 This happened so that the word Yeshua spoke would be fulfilled, signifying what kind of death He was about to die.
33 So Pilate went back into the Praetorium, called for Yeshua, and asked Him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” 34 “Are you saying this on your own,” Yeshua answered, “or did others tell you about Me?” 35 Pilate answered, “I’m not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and ruling kohanim handed You over to me! What have You done?” 36 Yeshua answered, “My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would be fighting so that I wouldn’t be handed over to the Judean leaders. But as it is, My kingdom is not from here.”
37 So Pilate said to Him, “Are you a king, then?” Yeshua answered, “You say that I am a king. For this reason I was born, and for this reason I came into the world, so that I might testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.”
38 Pilate said to Him, “What is truth?” After he said this, he went out again to the Judean leaders. He said to them, “I find no case against Him. 39 But it’s your custom that I release someone for you at Passover. So do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?”
40 They shouted back, “Not this One, but Bar-Abba!” Now Bar-Abba[81] was a revolutionary.

Bound and Sentenced

John 19 [1] Then Pilate took Yeshua and had Him scourged. [2] The soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and dressed Him in a purple robe. [3] They kept coming up to Him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” and slapping Him over and over.

[4] Pilate came out again. He said to them, “Look, I’m bringing Him out to you, to let you know that I find no case against Him.” [5] So Yeshua came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. “Behold, the Man!” Pilate said to them.

[6] When the ruling kohanim and officers saw Him, they yelled out, “Execute Him! Execute Him!”[82]

Pilate said to them, “Take Him yourselves and execute Him! For I don’t find a case against Him.”

[7] The Judean leaders answered him, “We have a law,[83] and according to the Torah He must die, because He claimed to be Ben-Elohim!”

[8] When Pilate heard this word, he became even more fearful. [9] He went into the Praetorium again and said to Yeshua, “Where are You from?” But Yeshua gave him no answer. [10] So Pilate said to Him, “You aren’t speaking to me? Don’t You know that I have the authority to release You, and I have the authority to crucify You?”

[11] Yeshua answered, “You would have no authority over Me if it hadn’t been given to you from above. For this reason, the one who handed Me over to you has the greater sin.”

[12] Pilate tried to let Him go after this; but the Judean leaders cried out, saying, “If you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar!”

[13] So when Pilate heard these words, he brought Yeshua out and sat down on the judge’s seat at a place called the Stone Pavement (but in Aramaic,[84] Gabbatha). [14] It was the Day of Preparation for Passover, about the sixth hour.[85] And Pilate said to the Judean leaders, “Behold, your king!”

15 They shouted back, “Take Him away! Take Him away!
Execute Him!”
Pilate said to them, “Should I execute your king?”
The ruling kohanim answered, “We have no king but Caesar!”
16 Finally, Pilate handed Yeshua over to be crucified.

A Sacrificial Death 17 Then they took Yeshua. He went out, carrying His own crossbar, to the Place of a Skull, which in Aramaic[86] is called Golgotha. 18 There they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on each side and Yeshua in between.

19 Pilate also wrote a sign and put it on the execution stake. It was written, “YESHUA HA-NATZRATI, THE KING OF THE JEWS.” 20 Many Judeans read this sign, because the place where Yeshua was executed was near the city; it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek.
21 The ruling kohanim of the Judeans were saying to Pilate, “Don’t write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but that He said, ‘I am King of the Jews.’”
22 “What I have written, I have written,” Pilate answered.
23 So the soldiers, when they executed Yeshua, took His outer garments and made four parts, a part for each soldier. They took His tunic also, but it was seamless, woven top to bottom in one piece. 24 So they said to one another, “Let’s not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it will be.” This was so the Scripture would be fulfilled, “They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots.”[87]

So the soldiers did these things.
25 Standing near the execution stake of Yeshua were His mother, His mother’s sister, Miriam the wife of Clopas, and Miriam from Magdala. 26 Yeshua saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby. He tells His mother, “Woman, behold, your son!” 27 Then He tells the disciple, “Behold, your mother!” From that very hour, the disciple took her into his own home.
28 After this, when Yeshua knew that all things were now completed, to fulfill the Scripture He said, “I am thirsty.”[88] 29 A jar full of sour wine was sitting there, so they put a sponge soaked with the sour wine on a hyssop branch and brought it to His mouth. 30 When Yeshua tasted the sour wine, He said, “It is finished!” And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

31 It was the Day of Preparation, and the next day was a festival Shabbat. So that the bodies should not remain on the execution stake during Shabbat, the Judean leaders asked Pilate to have the legs broken and to have the bodies taken away.

32 So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and then the other who had been executed with Yeshua. 33 Now when they came to Yeshua and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. 34 But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 He who has seen it has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe. 36 These things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled, “Not a bone of His shall be broken.”[89] 37 And again another Scripture says, “They shall look on Him whom they have pierced.”[90]

Buried in a Rich Man’s Tomb 38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate if he could take Yeshua’s body away. Joseph was a disciple of Yeshua, but secretly for fear of the Judean leaders. Pilate gave permission, so Joseph came and took the body away.
39 Nicodemus, who had first visited Yeshua at night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.[91]
40 Then they took the body of Yeshua and wrapped it in linen with the spices, as is the Jewish burial custom.

41 Now in the place where He was executed, there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb[92] where no one had yet been buried. 42 Because it was the Jewish Day of Preparation and the tomb was nearby, they laid Yeshua there.

The Lamb of God is Resurrected

John 20 [1] Early in the morning on the first day of the week, while it is still dark, Miriam from Magdala comes to the tomb. She sees that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb. [2] So she comes running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Yeshua loved. She tells them, “They’ve taken the Master out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they’ve put Him!”
[3] Then Peter and the other disciple set out, going to the tomb.
[4] The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and arrived at the tomb first. [5] Leaning in, he sees the linen strips lying there. But he didn’t go in.
[6] Then Simon Peter comes following him, and he entered the tomb. He looks upon the linen strips lying there, [7] and the face cloth that had been on His head. It was not lying with the linen strips, but was rolled up in a place by itself. [8] So then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also entered. He saw and believed. [9] For they did not yet understand from Scripture that Yeshua must rise from the dead.[93] [10] So the disciples went back to their own homes.

Yeshua Appears to Miriam

[11] But Miriam stood outside the tomb weeping. As she was weeping, she bent down to look into the tomb. [12] She sees two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where Yeshua’s body had been lying.
[13] “Woman, why are you crying?” they say to her.
She says to them, “Because they took away my Master, and I don’t know where they’ve put Him.” [14] After she said these things, she turned around. And she sees Yeshua standing there.
Yet she didn’t know that it was Yeshua.
[15] Yeshua says to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?”
Thinking He’s the gardener, she says to Him, “Sir, if You’ve carried Him away, tell me where You’ve put Him, and I will take Him away."

16 Yeshua says to her, "Miriam!"

Turning around, she says to Him in Aramaic,[94] "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher).

17 Yeshua says to her, "Stop clinging to Me, for I have not yet gone up to the Father. Go to My brothers and tell them, 'I am going up to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.'"

18 Miriam from Magdala comes, announcing to the disciples, "I've seen the Lord," and what He had said to her.

Yeshua Appears to the Disciples

19 It was evening on that day, the first of the week. When the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Judean leaders, Yeshua came and stood in their midst! And He said to them, "Shalom aleichem!" 20 After He said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. 21 Yeshua said to them again, "Shalom aleichem! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you."

22 And after He said this, He breathed on them. And He said to them, "Receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh! 23 If you forgive anyone's sins, they are forgiven; but if you hold back, they are held back."

24 One of the Twelve, Thomas called the Twin, was not with them when Yeshua came. 25 The other disciples were saying to him, "We've seen the Lord!"

But he replied to them, "Unless I see the nail prints in His hands, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand in His side, I will never believe!"

26 Eight days later the disciples were again inside, and Thomas was with them. Yeshua comes, despite the locked doors. He stood in their midst and said, "Shalom aleichem!" 27 Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and look at My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into My side. Stop doubting and believe!"

28 Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

[29] Yeshua said to Him, “Because you have seen Me, you have believed? Blessed are the ones who have not seen and yet have believed!”

The Reason for Signs and Wonders

[30] Yeshua performed many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book. [31] But these things have been written so that you may believe that Yeshua is Mashiach Ben-Elohim, and that by believing you may have life in His name.

Fish for Breakfast with the Risen One

John 21 [1] After these things, Yeshua revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. Now here is how He appeared. [2] Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in the Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two of the other disciples were together.
[3] Simon Peter said to them, “I’m going fishing.” “We’re coming with you too,” they said. They went out and got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing.
[4] At dawn, Yeshua stood on the beach; but the disciples didn’t know that it was Yeshua. [5] So Yeshua said to them, “Boys, you don’t happen to have any fish, do you?”
“No,” they answered Him.
[6] He said to them, “Throw the net off the right side of the boat, and you’ll find some.” So they threw the net, and they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.
[7] Therefore the disciple whom Yeshua loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tied his outer garment around himself—for he was stripped down for work—and threw himself into the sea. [8] But the other disciples came in the boat from about two hundred cubits[95] offshore, dragging the net full of fish.
[9] So when they got out onto the land, they saw a charcoal fire with fish placed on it, and bread. [10] Yeshua said to them, “Bring some of the fish you’ve just caught.” [11] Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net to shore. There were 153 fish, many of them big; but the net was not broken. [12] Yeshua said to them, “Come, have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask Him, “Who are You?”—knowing it was the Lord.[13] Yeshua comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and likewise the fish.
[14] This was now the third time that Yeshua was revealed to the disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Love Restores Peter

15 When they had finished breakfast, Yeshua said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?”
“Yes, Lord,” he said to Him, “You know that I love you.”
He said to him, “Feed My lambs!”
16 He said to him again a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?”
“Yes, Lord,” he said, “You know that I love You.”
He said to him, “Take care of My sheep!”
17 He said to him a third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?”
Peter was grieved because He said to him for a third time, “Do you love Me?” And he said to Him, “Lord, You know everything! You know that I love You!”
Yeshua said to him, “Feed My sheep!”[96]
18 “Amen, amen I tell you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go.” 19 Now this He said to indicate by what kind of death Peter was going to glorify God. And after this, Yeshua said to him, “Follow
Me!” 20 Peter, turning around, sees the disciple following. This was the one whom Yeshua loved, who also had reclined against Yeshua’s chest at the seder meal and said, “Master, who is the one who is betraying You?” 21 Seeing him, Peter said to Yeshua, “Lord, what about him?”
22 Yeshua said to him, “If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me!” 23 Therefore this saying went out among the brothers and sisters, that this disciple would not die. Yet Yeshua did not say to him that he would not die, but, “If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to
you?”

John’s Witness

24 This is the disciple who is an eyewitness of these things and wrote these things. We know that his testimony is true. 25 There are also many other things that Yeshua did. If all of them were to be written one by one, I suppose that not even the world itself will have room for the books being written!

When Will Yeshua Restore the Kingdom?

Acts 1 1 I wrote the first volume, Theophilus, about all that Yeshua began to do and teach—2 up to the day He was taken up, after He had given orders by the Ruach ha-Kodesh to the emissaries He had chosen. 3 To them He showed Himself to be alive after His suffering through many convincing proofs, appearing to them for forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

4 Now while staying with them, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father promised—which, He said, "you heard from Me. 5 For John immersed with water, but you will be immersed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh not many days from now."

6 So when they gathered together, they asked Him, "Lord, are You restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?"

7 He said to them, "It is not your place to know the times or seasons which the Father has placed under His own control.
8 But you will receive power when the Ruach ha-Kodesh has come upon you; and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and through all Judah, and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

9 After saying all this—while they were watching—He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. 10 While they were staring into heaven as He went up, suddenly two men stood with them in white clothing. 11 They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you keep standing here staring into heaven?
This Yeshua, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw Him go into heaven."

Appointing a New Emissary

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives[1] (which is near Jerusalem, a Shabbat day's journey[2]). 13 When they had entered, they went up to the upper room where they were staying—Peter and John and Jacob and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; Jacob son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judah son of Jacob. 14 All these with one mind were continuing together in prayer—along with the women and Miriam, Yeshua's mother, and His brothers.
15 In those days, Peter stood up among the brothers and sisters (the number of names all together was about a hundred and twenty) and said, 16 "Brothers,[3] the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Ruach ha-Kodesh foretold by the mouth of David, concerning Judah—who became a guide to those who seized Yeshua. 17 For he was counted among us and received his share of this office." 18 (Now this man Judah bought a field with the reward of his wickedness. Falling headfirst, he burst open in the middle and his intestines splattered out. 19 And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem, so in their own language that field was called Akeldama[4]—that is, 'Field of Blood.') 20 For it is written in the Book of Psalms,

> 'Let his dwelling place become desolate,
> and let there be no one living in it'[5]
> and 'Let another take his position.'[6]

21 "Therefore one of the men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Yeshua went in and out among us
—22 beginning with His immersion by John until the day He was taken up from us—must become a witness with us of His resurrection."
23 So they nominated two—Joseph, called Barsabbas (also called Justus), and Matthias. 24 And they prayed and said, "You, O Lord, who knows the hearts of all men, show us which of these two You have chosen 25 to take the position in this office as emissary, from which Judah turned aside to go to his own place.” 26 Then they cast lots for them, and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was added to the eleven emissaries.

The Ruach Fills the Disciples

Acts 2 1 When the day of Shavuot[7] had come, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 And tongues like fire spreading out appeared to them and settled on each one of them. 4 They were all filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and began to speak in other tongues as the Ruach enabled them to speak out.

5 Now Jewish people were staying in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven. 6 And when this sound came, the crowd gathered. They were bewildered, because each was hearing them speaking in his own language. 7 And they were amazed and astonished, saying, “All these who are speaking—aren’t they Galileans? 8 How is it that we each hear our own birth language? 9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites and those living in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, [8] 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and parts of Libya toward Cyrene, and visitors from Rome 11 (both Jewish people and proselytes), Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring in our own tongues the mighty deeds of God!” 12 And they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to each other, “What does this mean?”

13 Others, poking fun, were saying, “They are full of sweet new wine!”

Peter Speaks to the Shavuot Crowd

14 But Peter, standing with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: “Fellow Judeans and all who are staying in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and pay attention to my words. 15 These men are not drunk, as you suppose—for it’s only the third hour of the day![9] 16 But this is what was spoken about through the prophet Joel:

17 ‘And it shall be in the last days,’ says God,

‘that I will pour out My Ruach on all flesh.
Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
18 Even on My slaves, male and female,
I will pour out My Ruach in those days,
and they shall prophesy.
19 And I will give wonders in the sky above and signs on the earth beneath—
blood, and fire, and smoky vapor.
20 The sun shall be turned to darkness

and the moon to blood
before the great and glorious Day of ADONAI comes.
21 And it shall be that everyone who calls on the name of ADONAI shall be saved.'[10]

22 "Men of Israel, hear these words! Yeshua ha-Natzrati—a Man authenticated to you by God with mighty deeds and wonders and signs God performed through Him in your midst, as you yourselves know—23 this Yeshua, given over by God's predetermined plan and foreknowledge, nailed to the cross by the hand of lawless men, you killed. 24 But God raised Him up, releasing Him from the pains of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held by it. 25 For David says about Him,

'I saw ADONAI always before me,
for He is at my right hand so that I might not be shaken.
26 Therefore my heart was glad and my tongue rejoiced;
moreover, my body also will live in hope, 27 because You will not abandon my soul to Sheol or let Your Holy One see decay.
28 You have made known to me the paths of life;
You will fill me with joy in Your presence.'[11]

29 "Brothers, I can confidently tell you that the patriarch David died and was buried—his tomb is with us to this day. 30 So because he was a prophet and knew God had sworn with an oath to him to seat one of his descendants on his throne,[12] 31 David saw beforehand and spoke of Messiah's resurrection—that He was not abandoned to Sheol, and His body did not see decay.[13]

32 "This Yeshua God raised up—we all are witnesses! 33 Therefore, being exalted to the right hand of God and receiving from the Father the promise of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, He poured out this—what you now see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend into the heavens; yet he himself says,

‘ADONAI said to my Lord,
“Sit at my right hand,
35 until I make Your enemies a footstool
for Your feet.”’[14]

36 “Therefore let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him—this Yeshua whom you had crucified—both Lord and Messiah!”

Teshuvah—Thousands Immersed

37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the rest of the emissaries, “Fellow brethren, what shall we do?”
38 Peter said to them, “Repent, and let each of you be immersed in the name of Messiah Yeshua for the removal of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Ruach ha-Kodesh.
39 For the promise is for you and your children, and for all who are far away—as many as ADONAI our God calls to Himself.” 40 With many other words he warned them and kept urging them, saying, “Save yourselves from this twisted generation!”[15] 41 So those who received his message were immersed, and that day about three thousand souls were added.

New Covenant Community Begins

42 They were devoting themselves to the teaching of the emissaries and to fellowship, to breaking bread and to prayers.
43 Fear lay upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were happening through the emissaries. 44 And all who believed were together, having everything in common. 45 They began selling their property and possessions and sharing them with all, as any had need. 46 Day by day they continued with one mind, spending time at the Temple and breaking bread from house to house. They were sharing meals with gladness and sincerity of heart, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And every day the Lord was adding to their number[16] those being saved.

A Lame Beggar Walks

Acts 3 1 Now Peter and John were going up to the Temple at the ninth hour,[17] the time of prayer. 2 A man lame from birth was being carried—every day they used to put him at the Temple gate called Beautiful, so he could beg for tzedakah from those entering the Temple. 3 When he saw Peter and John about to go into the Temple, he began asking to receive tzedakah.
4 But Peter, along with John, looked straight at him and said,
"Look at us!" 5 So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, "Silver and gold
I do not have, but what I do have I give to you—in the name of Yeshua ha-Mashiach ha-Natzrati, get up and walk!" 7 Then grabbing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately the man's feet and ankles were made strong.
8 Jumping up, he stood and began walking; and he went with them into the Temple, walking and leaping and praising God!
9 Now all the people saw him walking and praising God.
10 They began to realize he was the one who used to sit begging for tzedakah at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple, and they were filled with wonder and astonishment over what had happened
to him.

Peter Speaks at the Temple

11 While he was clinging to Peter and John, all the people together came running toward them in the place called Solomon's Portico. 12 But when Peter saw, he responded to the people, "Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this? Why do you stare at us—as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? 13 The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant[18]
Yeshua—the One you handed over and disowned before Pilate, though he had decided to release Him. 14 But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you. 15 You killed the Author of life—the One God raised from the dead! We are witnesses of it. 16 Now through faith in the name of Yeshua, His name has strengthened this man whom you see and know. Indeed, the faith through Yeshua has given this man perfect health in front of you all.
17 "Now brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, just as your leaders did. 18 But what God foretold through the mouth of all His prophets—that His Messiah was to suffer—so He has fulfilled. 19 Repent, therefore, and return—so your sins might be blotted out, 20 so times of relief might come from the presence of ADONAI and He might send Yeshua, the Messiah appointed for you. 21 Heaven must receive Him, until the time of the restoration of all the things that God spoke about long ago through the mouth of His holy prophets. 22 Moses said, 'ADONAI your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your brothers. Hear and obey Him in all that He shall say to you. 23 And it shall be that every soul that will not listen to that Prophet shall be completely cut off from the people.'[19] 24 Indeed, all the prophets who have spoken from Samuel on have announced these days. 25 You are the sons of the prophets and also of the covenant that God cut with your fathers,[20] saying to Abraham, 'In your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.'[21] 26 God raised up His Servant and sent Him first to you, to bless you all by turning each of you from your wicked ways.”

Standing Before the Sanhedrin

Acts 4 [1] As Peter and John were speaking to the people, the kohanim and the captain of the Temple and the Sadducees came up to them. [2] They were indignant because Peter and John were teaching the people and announcing in Yeshua the resurrection of the dead. [3] So they grabbed them and put them in jail until the next day, for it was already evening. [4] But many who heard the message believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand.

[5] On the next day, the rulers and elders and Torah scholars were gathered together in Jerusalem. [6] Annas the kohen gadol was there, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all those who were of high-priestly descent. [7] When they had placed Peter and John in their midst, they began to inquire, “By what power or in what name did you do this?”

[8] Then Peter, filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, said to them, “Rulers and elders of the people! [9] If we are on trial today for a mitzvah done for a sick man, as to how this fellow was healed, [10] let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Yeshua ha-Mashiach ha-Natzrati—whom you had crucified, whom God raised from the dead—this one stands before you whole. [11] This Yeshua is ‘the stone—rejected by you, the builders—that has become the chief cornerstone.’[22] [12] There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved!”

[13] Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John and figured out they were laymen without training, they were amazed. They began to realize that these men had been with Yeshua. [14] But seeing the healed man standing with them, they had nothing to say in response. [15] When they had ordered Peter and John to go out of the council chamber, they began to confer with one another, [16] saying, “What shall we do with these men?
For indeed, it’s obvious to everyone living in Jerusalem that a remarkable miracle has happened through them, and we cannot deny it. [17] But so it won’t spread any further among the people, let’s warn them not to speak anymore to anyone in this name.”

18 So they called them in and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Yeshua. 19 But Peter and John replied, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you decide. 20 For we cannot stop speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

21 After threatening them again, they let them go—finding no way they could punish them on account of the people, because they all were glorifying God for what had happened. 22 For the man in whom this miracle of healing had happened was more than forty years old.

Prayer for Courage

23 As soon as they were released, Peter and John went to their own people and reported all that the ruling kohanim and elders had said to them. 24 When they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, “O Sovereign Master, ‘You made heaven and earth and the sea, and everything in them.’[23] 25 You said by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, through the mouth of our father David Your servant,

‘Why did the nations rage
and the peoples plot foolish things?
26 The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers were gathered together against Adonai and against His Anointed One.’[24]

27 “For truly both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, were gathered together in this city against Your holy Servant Yeshua, whom You anointed.
28 They did whatever Your hand and Your purpose predetermined to happen. 29 And now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant Your servants to speak Your word with utmost courage—30 while You stretch out Your hand to heal, and signs and wonders take place through the name of Your holy Servant Yeshua.” 31 When they had prayed, the place where they were gathered was shaken. And they were all filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and began to speak the word of God with boldness.

Ruach-Filled Community Life

32 Now the whole group of those who believed was one in heart and mind. No one would say anything he owned was his own, but they had everything in common. 33 With great power the emissaries were giving witness to the resurrection of the Lord Yeshua, and abundant favor was upon them all. 34 No one among them was needy, for all who were owners of lands or houses would sell them and bring the proceeds 35 and set them at the feet of the emissaries. And the proceeds were distributed according to the need each one had.

36 Now Joseph, also called Barnabas by the emissaries (which is translated Son of Encouragement), was a Levite and native of Cyprus. 37 He sold a field that he owned and brought the money and laid it at the feet of the emissaries.

Ananias and Sapphira Lie to the Ruach

Acts 5 1 On the other hand, a man named Ananias together with his wife, Sapphira, sold a property. 2 He kept back some of the proceeds, with his wife's full knowledge, and brought part of it and set it at the feet of the emissaries.
3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has satan filled your heart to lie to the Ruach ha-Kodesh and keep back part of the proceeds of the land? 4 While it remained unsold, it was your own, wasn't it? And after it was sold, wasn't it at your disposal? How did this deed get into your heart? You haven't lied to men but to God."
5 As soon as he heard these words, Ananias fell down and died. Great fear came upon all who heard about it. 6 The young men got up and wrapped him in a shroud, then carried him out and buried him.
7 After an interval of about three hours, his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter responded to her, "Tell me if you sold the land for this much."
She said, "Yes, for that much."
9 Then Peter said to her, "How did you agree to test the Ruach ADONAI? Look, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door—they will carry you out, too!" 10 Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. When the young men came back in, they found her dead and carried her out and buried her beside her husband. 11 And great fear came over the whole community and all who heard these things.

Signs and Wonders, Angelic Jailbreak, and Bold Witness

12 Meanwhile, through the hands of the emissaries many signs and wonders were happening among the people. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico. 13 But no one else dared to join them, though the people continued to think highly of them.
14 Yet more than ever those trusting in the Lord were added—large numbers of men and women. 15 They even carried the sick

into the streets and laid them on stretchers and cots, so that when Peter passed by at least his shadow might fall on some of them. 16 Crowds were also gathering from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing those who were sick or tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all being healed.

17 But the kohen gadol rose up, and all those with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy. 18 They grabbed the emissaries and put them in a public jail. 19 But during the night an angel of ADONAI opened the prison doors, and leading them out he said, 20 "Go, stand in the Temple and speak to the people the whole message about this Life." 21 Now when they heard that, they entered the Temple at daybreak and began teaching.

When the kohen gadol and those with him arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin, even the council of elders of Bnei-Yisrael, and sent to the prison to have the prisoners brought in. 22 But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison. So they returned and reported, 23 saying, "We found the prison locked with maximum security and the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened up, we found no one inside."

24 When the captain of the Temple and the ruling kohanim heard these words, they were perplexed about them, wondering where this would lead. 25 But someone came and reported to them, "The men you put in prison are standing in the Temple and teaching the people!" 26 Then the captain went off with the officers and brought the emissaries—but not with force, because they feared they might be stoned by the people.

27 When they had brought them, they placed them before the Sanhedrin. The kohen gadol questioned them, 28 saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name—and look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring on us the blood of this Man!"

29 Peter and the emissaries replied, "We must obey God rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Yeshua, whom you seized and had crucified.[25] 31 This One God exalted at His right hand as Leader and Savior,[26] to give repentance to

Israel and removal of sins. 32 And we are witnesses of these events—as is the Ruach ha-Kodesh, whom God has given to those who obey Him."
33 Now when they heard this, they became enraged and wanted to kill them. 34 But a certain Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Torah respected by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and gave orders to put the men outside for a little while. 35 Then he said to them, "Men of Israel, be careful what you are about to do with these men. 36 For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody; and a number of men, maybe four hundred, joined up with him. He was killed, and all who followed him were scattered and came to nothing.
37 After this fellow, Judah the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and got people to follow him. He also perished, and all who followed him were scattered. 38 So now I tell you, stay away from these men and leave them alone. For if this plan or undertaking is of men, it will come to an end; 39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to stop them. You might even be found fighting against God." They took his advice, 40 called in the emissaries, flogged them, ordered them not to continue speaking in the name of Yeshua, and let them go.
41 So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were considered worthy to be dishonored on account of His name.[27] 42 And every day, in the Temple and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming Yeshua as the Messiah.

Appointed for Service

Acts 6 1 Now in those days, when the disciples were multiplying, grumbling arose[28] among the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily support. 2 So the Twelve called together the whole group of the disciples and said, “It is not right for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables. 3 So, brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this duty. 4 But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the Word.”
5 The statement pleased the whole group; and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Ruach ha-Kodesh, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch. 6 They placed these men before the emissaries; and after praying, they laid hands on them.[29] 7 The word of God kept on spreading, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem greatly multiplied; even a great number of the kohanim were becoming obedient to the faith.

Stephen’s Testimony and Martyrdom

8 Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. 9 But some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen—both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, as well as some from Cilicia and Asia[30]—stood up and began arguing with Stephen. 10 But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Ruach by whom he was speaking.
11 Then they secretly instigated men into saying, “We have heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and against God!” 12 They also incited the people, the elders, and the Torah scholars; and they rushed at Stephen, seized him, and led him away to the Sanhedrin. 13 They set up false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking words against this holy place and the Torah. 14 For we have heard him saying that this Yeshua ha-Natzrati will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us.”

15 Watching him intently, everyone who was sitting in the Sanhedrin saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Acts 7 1 Then the kohen gadol said, “Are these things so?”

2 Stephen declared, “Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran. 3 He said to him, ‘Leave your country and your relatives, and come here to the land that I will show you.’ 4 Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. From there, after his father died, God moved him to this land where you now live. 5 He gave him no inheritance in it—not even a foothold—yet He promised ‘to give it to him as a possession to him and to his descendants after him,’ even though he had no child.

6 “But God spoke in this way, that his ‘descendants would be foreigners in a land belonging to others, and they would enslave and mistreat them for four hundred years. 7 But I will judge the nation they serve as slaves,’ God said, ‘and afterward they shall come out and serve Me in this place.’[31]

8 “Then God gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision.[32] So he became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day, and so Isaac with Jacob, and Jacob with the twelve patriarchs. 9 The patriarchs became jealous of Joseph and sold him into Egypt. Yet God was with him. 10 He rescued him out of all his troubles and granted him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and all his household.

11 “Famine and great suffering came over all Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers could find no food. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time. 13 On the second visit, Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and his family became known to Pharaoh. 14 So Joseph sent and called for Jacob and all his relatives—seventy-five persons. 15 Jacob went down to Egypt and died, he and our fathers. 16 They were carried to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

17 “But as the time drew near for the promise God had sworn to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt 18 —until ‘there arose another king over Egypt who knew nothing about Joseph.’[33] 19 Dealing with our people with cruel cunning, this king mistreated our fathers and forced them to abandon their infants so they would not survive.

20 “At this time Moses was born—extraordinary before God.
For three months he was nurtured in his father’s house. 21 And when he was set outside, Pharaoh’s daughter took him and raised him as her own son. 22 Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was powerful in his words and deeds.
23 “When he was approaching forty years of age, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, Bnei-Yisrael. 24 When he saw one of them being treated unjustly, he went to the defense of the oppressed man and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian. 25 He was assuming that his brothers understood that by his hand God was delivering them, but they did not understand. 26 So on the next day he appeared to them as they were fighting. He tried to reconcile them in shalom, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?’
27 “But the one doing wrong to his neighbor pushed him away, saying, ‘Who appointed you ruler and judge over us? 28 You don’t want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday, do you?’[34] 29 At this remark, Moses fled and became an exile in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.
30 “When forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai in the flame of a burning bush.
31 When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. But when he came up to look, there came the voice of Adonai: 32 ‘I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and Isaac and
Jacob.’[35]
“Moses trembled in fear and did not dare to look. 33 But Adonai said to him, ‘Take the sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. 34 I have surely seen the oppression of my people in Egypt and have heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. Now come—let Me send you to Egypt.’
35 “This Moses—whom they rejected, saying, ‘Who appointed you as ruler and judge?’—is the one whom God sent as both ruler and redeemer, by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years. 37 This is the Moses who said to Bnei-Yisrael, ‘God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.’[36] 38 “This is the one who was in the community in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers. He received living words to pass on to us.

39 Our fathers did not want to be obedient to him, but shoved him aside. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt, 40 saying to Aaron, ‘Make gods for us who will go before us. For this Moses who led us out of the land of Egypt—we have no idea what has happened to him.’[37] 41 “And they made a calf in those days, offered a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their hands. 42 But God turned and gave them over to serve the host of heaven,
just as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

‘It was not to Me that you brought sacrifices and offerings
for forty years in the wilderness, was it, O House of Israel?
43 You also took up the tent of Moloch
and the star of your god Rephan,
the images you made to worship.
And I will deport you beyond Babylon.’[38]

44 “Our fathers had the Tent of Witness in the wilderness—just as the One speaking to Moses had directed him to make it according to the design he had seen. 45 Our fathers received it in turn and brought it in with Joshua when they took possession of the land of the nations that God drove out before our fathers.
So it remained until the days of David, 46 who found favor in God’s sight. He asked to find a dwelling place for the God[39] of Jacob. 47 But Solomon built a house for Him. 48 However, Elyon does not dwell in man-made houses. As the prophet says,

49 ‘Heaven is My throne,
and the earth is the footstool of My feet.
What kind of house will you build for Me, says
ADONAI,
or what is the place of My rest?
50 Did not My Hand make all these things?’[40]

51 “O you stiff-necked people! You uncircumcised of heart and ears! You always resist the Ruach ha-Kodesh; just as your fathers did, you do as well. 52 Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed the ones who foretold the coming of the Righteous One. Now you have become His betrayers and murderers—53 you who received the Torah by direction of angels and did not keep it!” 54 When they heard these things, they became enraged and began gnashing their teeth at him. 55 But Stephen, full of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God —and Yeshua standing at the right hand of God. 56 And he said, “Look, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!”
57 But they covered their ears; and crying out with a loud voice, they rushed at him with one impulse. 58 Driving him out of the city, they began stoning him, and the witnesses laid down their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul.
59 They went on stoning Stephen as he was calling out, “Lord Yeshua, receive my spirit!” 60 Then he fell on his knees and cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” After he said this, he died.[41]

Saul Persecutes Messiah's Community

Acts 8 [1] Now Saul was in agreement with Stephen's execution.
On that day a great persecution arose against Messiah's community in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the region of Judea and Samaria, except the emissaries. [2] Some devout men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him.
[3] But Saul was destroying Messiah's community, entering house after house; and dragging off men and women, he was throwing them into prison.

The Good News Spreads to Samaria

[4] Now those who had been scattered went around proclaiming the Word. [5] Philip went down to the main city of Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah to them. [6] The crowds were paying close attention to what Philip was saying—as they both heard and saw the signs that he was doing. [7] For unclean spirits were coming out of many who were plagued, shrieking with a loud voice. Many paralyzed and crippled were healed also. [8] So there was great joy in that city.
[9] Now a man named Simon had been practicing magic in the city and astonishing the people of Samaria, saying he was someone great. [10] They all were paying special attention to him, saying, "This man is the power of God that is called 'Great.'" [11] And they kept paying attention to him, because for a long time he had astonished them with his magical arts. [12] But when they believed Philip proclaiming the Good News about the kingdom of God and the name of Messiah Yeshua, both men and women were immersed. [13] Even Simon himself believed;
and after being immersed, he continued with Philip. And when he saw signs and great miracles happening, he was continually amazed.
[14] Now when the emissaries in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the message of God, they sent Peter and John to them. 15 They came down and prayed for them to receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh. 16 For He had not yet come upon them; they had only been immersed in the name of the Lord Yeshua.

17 Then they began laying their hands on them, and they were receiving the Ruach ha-Kodesh.
18 Now when Simon saw that the Ruach ha-Kodesh was given through the laying on of hands by the emissaries, he offered them money, 19 saying, “Give this power to me, too—so that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh.” 20 Peter said to him, “May your silver go to ruin, and you with it—because you thought you could buy God’s gift with money!
[42] 21 You have no part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right before God. 22 Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be pardoned. 23 For I see in you the poison of bitterness and the bondage of unrighteousness!” 24 Simon replied, “Pray for me, so that none of what you have said may come upon me.”
25 So when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, proclaiming the Good News to many Samaritan villages.

An Ethiopian Asks about Isaiah 53

26 Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, “Get up, and go south on the road going down from Jerusalem to Gaza.”
(This is a desert road.) 27 So he got up and went. And behold, an Ethiopian eunuch—an official who was responsible for all the treasure of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians—had traveled to Jerusalem to worship 28 and was now returning. Sitting in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah.
29 The Ruach said to Philip, “Go, catch up with this chariot.” 30 Philip ran up and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah and said, “Do you understand what you are reading?” 31 “How can I,” he said, “unless someone guides me?” So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 Now the passage of Scripture that he was reading was this:

> “He was led as a sheep to slaughter;
> and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
> so He opens not His Mouth.
> 33 In His humiliation justice was denied Him.
> Who shall recount His generation?
> For His life is taken away from the earth.”[43]

34 The eunuch replied to Philip, “Please tell me, who is the prophet talking about—himself or someone else?” 35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he proclaimed the Good News about Yeshua.
36 Now as they were going down the road, they came to some water. The eunuch said, “Look, water! What’s to prevent me from being immersed?”
37 [44] 38 He ordered the chariot to stop. They both got down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and Philip immersed him. 39 When they came up out of the water, the Ruach ADONAI snatched Philip away.[45] The eunuch saw no more of him, for he went on his way, rejoicing.
40 But Philip found himself at Azotus. And as he passed through, he kept proclaiming the Good News to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Saul Turns from Murder to Messiah

Acts 9 1 Now Saul, still breathing out threats and murder against the Lord’s disciples, went to the kohen gadol. 2 He requested letters of introduction from him to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any men or women belonging to the Way, he might bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem.
3 As he was traveling, approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. 4 Falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”
5 “Who are You, Lord?” Saul said.
“I am Yeshua—whom you are persecuting.[46] 6 But get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”[47] 7 The men travelling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one.[48] 8 Saul got up from the ground—but opening his eyes, he could see nothing. They led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. 9 For three days he could not see, and he did not eat or drink.
10 Now there was a disciple named Ananias in Damascus. The Lord said to him, “Ananias.”
He said, “Here I am, Lord.”
11 The Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street named Straight, and ask in the house of Judah for someone from Tarsus named Saul. For look, he is praying; 12 and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and laying his hands on him, so that he might regain his sight.” 13 But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man—how much harm he has done to your kedoshim in Jerusalem. 14 And here he has authority from the ruling kohanim to tie up all who call on Your name.” 15 But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a choice instrument to carry My name before nations and kings and Bnei-Yisrael.
16 For I will show him how much he must suffer for My name’s sake.”

17 So Ananias left and entered into the house. Laying hands on Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord—Yeshua, the One who appeared to you on the road by which you were coming—has sent me, so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh.” 18 Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was immersed; 19 and when he had taken food, he was strengthened. Now for several days, he was with the disciples in Damascus.
20 Immediately he began proclaiming Yeshua in the synagogues, saying, “He is Ben-Elohim.”
21 All those hearing him were amazed. They were saying, “Isn’t this the one who made havoc in Jerusalem for all those who call on this name? And hasn’t he come here to bring them as prisoners before the ruling kohanim?” 22 But Saul kept growing stronger, and he was confounding the Jewish people living in Damascus by proving that Yeshua is the Messiah.
23 When many days had passed, these Jewish people plotted to kill him—24 but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night, to kill him. 25 But the disciples took Saul by night and let him down over the wall, lowering him in a basket.
26 When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he made attempts to join up with the disciples—but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took him in and brought him to the emissaries. He described to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and the Lord had spoken to him, and how he had spoken boldly in the name of Yeshua.
28 So Saul was with them, going in and out in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. 29 He was speaking and arguing with the Hellenists, but they were trying to kill him. 30 When the brothers found out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.
31 So Messiah’s community throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had shalom and was built up. Walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, it kept multiplying.

Signs and Wonders Follow Peter

32 Peter went here and there among them all. He came down as well to the kedoshim living in Lydda. 33 There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years—he was paralyzed. 34 Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Messiah Yeshua heals you. Get up and pack up your bed.” Immediately, he got up! 35 All who lived in Lydda and the Plain of Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

36 In Joppa, there was a disciple named Tabitha (which translates as Dorcas). She was full of mitzvot and tzedakah, which she continually did. 37 In those days, she became ill and died. When they had washed her for burial, they placed her in an upstairs room. 38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples —hearing that Peter was there—sent two men to him, begging him, “Please come to us without delay!”

39 So Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. All the widows were crying, showing all the tunics and other clothing Dorcas had made while she was with them. 40 But Peter sent them all outside, and he got down on his knees and prayed. Then, turning to the body, he said “Tabitha, get up!” She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 He gave her his hand and raised her up. Then he called the kedoshim and widows and presented her alive.[49]

42 It became known throughout Joppa, and many came to believe in the Lord. 43 So it happened that Peter stayed on in Joppa for several days with Simon, a tanner.[50]

The Centurion's Vision

Acts 10 ¹ Now in Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Cohort. ² He was a devout man, revering God with all his household. He gave tzedakah generously to the people and prayed to God continually. ³ About the ninth hour of the day,[51] he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming and saying to him,
"Cornelius!"

⁴ He stared at him in terror and said, "What is it, Lord?"

The angel said to him, "Your prayers and tzedakah have gone up as a memorial offering before God. ⁵ Now send men to Joppa and call for Simon, also named Peter. ⁶ He is being entertained as a guest by Simon the tanner, whose house is beside the sea."

⁷ When the angel speaking to him had left, he called two of his servants and a soldier from among those attached to his command. ⁸ After he explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

⁹ The next day, as the soldiers were traveling and approaching the city, Peter went up to the rooftop to pray, at about the sixth hour.[52] ¹⁰ Now he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they were preparing something, he fell into a trance. ¹¹ He saw the heavens opened, and something[53] like a great sheet coming down, lowered by its four corners to the earth. ¹² In it were all sorts of four-footed animals and reptiles and birds of the air.

¹³ A voice came to him, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat."

¹⁴ But Peter said, "Certainly not, Lord! For never have I eaten anything unholy or unclean."[54]

¹⁵ Again a voice came to him, a second time: "What God has made clean, you must not consider unholy." ¹⁶ This happened three times, and the sheet was immediately taken up to heaven.

[17] Now while Peter was puzzling about what the vision he had seen might mean, behold, the men sent by Cornelius found Simon’s house and appeared before the gate. [18] They called out and began to ask whether Simon, also called Peter, was staying in this place as a guest.
[19] Now while Peter was mulling over the vision, the Ruach said to him, “Look here, three men are looking for you. [20] But get up, go downstairs, and go with them without hesitating, because I Myself have sent them.” [21] Going down to the men, Peter said, “Here, I’m the one you’re looking for. What is the reason for your coming?” [22] And they said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man well-spoken of by all the Jewish people, was directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear a message from you.”
[23] So Peter invited them in to be his guests. The next day he got up and went with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter Goes to Cornelius

24 The following day he entered Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close friends. 25 As Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.
26 But Peter pulled him up, saying, “Stand up! I too am just a man.”
27 Talking with him, Peter went inside and found many people gathered. 28 He said to them, “You yourselves know that it is not permitted for a Jewish man to associate with a non-Jew or to visit him. Yet God has shown me that I should call no one unholy or unclean. 29 So I came without objection when I was sent for. I ask, then, what is the reason why you sent for me?” 30 Cornelius declared, “Four days ago at this hour, I was praying minchah[55] in my house. Suddenly, a man stood in front of me in shining clothes. 31 He says, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your tzedakah remembered before God.
32 Therefore send to Joppa and ask for Simon, who is also called Peter. He is staying in the house of Simon the tanner, by the sea.’ 33 So I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here before God to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord.” 34 Then Peter opened his mouth and said, “I truly understand that God is not one to show favoritism,[56] 35 but in every nation the one who fears Him and does what is right is acceptable to Him. 36 You know the message He sent to Bnei-Yisrael, proclaiming shalom through Messiah Yeshua—He is Lord of all.
37 You know the message that has spread throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the immersion that John proclaimed. 38 You know how God anointed Yeshua of Natzeret with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and power—how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him. 39 We are witnesses to all He did, both in the Judean countryside and in Jerusalem. They put Him to death by hanging Him on a tree, 40 but God raised Him up on the third day and caused Him to be visible—[41] not to all the people, but to us, witnesses who were chosen beforehand by God. We ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. [42] And He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that He is the One ordained by God as Judge of the living and the dead. [43] All the prophets testify about Him—that everyone who puts his trust in Him receives forgiveness of sins through His name."

The Ruach Falls on the Gentiles

[44] While Peter was still speaking these words, the Ruach ha-Kodesh fell on all those hearing the message. [45] All the circumcised believers who came with Peter were astonished, because the gift of the Ruach ha-Kodesh had been poured out even on the Gentiles. [46] For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and magnifying God.

Then Peter answered, [47] "Can anyone refuse water for these to be immersed, who have received the Ruach ha-Kodesh just as we did?" [48] So he commanded them to be immersed in the name of Messiah Yeshua. Then they asked him to stay for a few days.

Peter's Report to Jerusalem

Acts 11 [1] Now the emissaries and brothers throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. [2] But when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision took issue with him, [3] saying, "You went to uncircumcised men and ate with them!"

[4] So Peter began explaining to them point by point, saying,
[5] "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision—something like a great sheet coming down, being lowered from heaven by its four corners, and it came right to me. [6] I looked inside, considering it carefully, and saw four-footed creatures of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the air. [7] I also heard a voice saying, 'Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.'

[8] "But I said, 'Certainly not, Lord! For never has anything unholy or unclean entered my mouth.' [9] But a voice from heaven answered a second time, 'What God has made clean, you must not consider unholy.' [10] This happened three times,
and then everything was pulled up to heaven.

[11] "At that very moment, three men arrived at the house where we were, sent to me from Caesarea. [12] The Ruach told me to go with them without hesitating. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man's house. [13] He reported to us how he had seen an angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa and bring Simon called Peter. [14] He will speak words to you by which you will be saved—you and all
your household.'

[15] "As I began to speak, the Ruach ha-Kodesh fell on them, just as on us at the beginning. [16] And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, 'John immersed with water, but you will be immersed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh.' [17] Therefore if God gave them the same gift as also to us after we put our trust in the Lord Messiah Yeshua, who was I to stand in God's way?"

[18] When they heard this they became quiet, and they glorified God, saying, "Then even to the Gentiles God has granted repentance leading to life!”

Discipling in Diaspora

19 Now those scattered because of the persecution that happened in connection with Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, telling the message only to Judeans. 20 However, there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the Hellenists also, proclaiming the Lord Yeshua. 21 The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord.

22 News about these things reached the ears of the community in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.
23 When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he was thrilled.
He encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with heartfelt devotion. 24 For Barnabas was a good man, full of the Ruach ha-Kodesh and faith. And a large number was added to the Lord.

25 Then Barnabas left for Tarsus to look for Saul, 26 and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met together with Messiah's community and taught a large number. Now it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called "Christianoi."[57]

27 Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 One of them, named Agabus, stood up and predicted through the Ruach that there was going to be a great famine over all the world. (This took place during the reign of Claudius.) 29 So the disciples decided to send relief to those brothers and sisters living in Judea, each according to his ability. 30 This they did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Persecution and Deliverance

Acts 12 1 Now at that time Herod the king seized some from Messiah's community to do them harm. 2 He had Jacob, John's brother, put to death with the sword. 3 Seeing it pleased the Judean leaders, he proceeded to capture Peter as well. This was during the Days of Matzah. 4 After seizing him, he put him in prison, handing him over to four squads with four soldiers each to guard him. He was intending to bring him before the people after Passover. 5 So Peter was kept in prison, but prayer for him was being offered fervently to God by Messiah's community.

6 Now that very night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping—bound with two chains between two soldiers, while guards before the gate were keeping watch over the prison. 7 Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. He poked Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, "Get up! Quick!" And the chains fell off his hands. 8 Then the angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals," and he did so. Then he tells him, "Put on your cloak and follow me." 9 Peter went out and kept following him—he didn't know that what was happening with the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. 10 After they passed a first guard and a second, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them by itself. They went out and walked along a narrow street. Suddenly the angel left him.

11 When Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I know for real that the Lord has sent His angel[58] and delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Judean people were expecting." 12 When he realized this, he went to the house of Miriam, the mother of John (also called Mark), where many were assembled together and praying. 13 When he knocked on the door of the entrance gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. 14 Although she recognized Peter's voice, out of joy she did not open the gate but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate. 15 They said to her, "You're crazy!"

But she kept insisting it was so. But they were saying, “It is his angel.”

16 But Peter kept on knocking. When they opened the gate, they saw him and were amazed! 17 But he motioned with his hand for them to be silent, and he explained to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, “Go tell these things to Jacob and the brothers.” Then he left and went to another place.

18 When day came, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. 19 After Herod made a search for him and did not find him, he interrogated the guards and commanded that they be led away to execution. Then he went down from Judea and stayed in Caesarea.

Herod Gets His Due

20 Now it happened that Herod was furious with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they came to him, united. Having won over Blastus, the king's personal aide, they began asking for peace—because their country was supplied with food from the king's country.
21 On an appointed day, Herod donned his royal robes and, taking his seat upon the throne, began to make a speech to them. 22 The people were shouting, "The voice of a god and not a human!" 23 Immediately, an angel of the Lord struck him down—because he did not give God the glory. And he was eaten by worms and died.
24 But the word of God kept on growing and multiplying.
25 And Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem when they had fulfilled their service, taking along John (who was also called Mark).

Sent Out from Antioch

Acts 13 1 Now in the Antioch community, there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius the Cyrenian, Manaen (brought up since childhood with Herod the Tetrarch), and Saul. 2 While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Ruach ha-Kodesh said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.” 3 Then after fasting, praying, and laying hands on them, they sent them off.
4 So, sent out by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. 5 When they arrived at Salamis, they began to proclaim the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They also had John[59] as a helper.
6 When they had gone throughout the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a man who was a magician—a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-Yeshua. 7 He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the magician (for so his name is translated) was opposing them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. 9 But Saul, who is also Paul, filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, fixed his gaze on him 10 and said, “O you, full of all deceit and trickery, son of the devil, enemy of all righteousness —will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?[60] 11 Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you,[61] and you shall be blind and not see the sun for awhile.”
Immediately, cloudiness and darkness fell upon him, and he went about seeking people to lead him by the hand. 12 When he saw what had happened, the proconsul believed, because he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul’s Message in Diaspora Synagogues

13 Setting sail from Paphos, Paul’s company came to Perga in Pamphylia. John left them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 But they passed on from Perga and came to Antioch of Pisidia.

Entering the synagogue on the Shabbat, they sat down. 15 After the reading of the Torah and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, speak.”
16 So Paul, standing up and motioning with his hand, said,
“Men of Israel and God-fearers, listen. 17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt,[62] and with an outstretched arm He led them out of there. 18 For about forty years He put up with them in the wilderness.[63] 19 And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He gave their land as an inheritance[64]—20 all of this took about 450 years. After that, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. 21 Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul, son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. 22 After removing him, He raised up David to be their king. He also testified about him and said, ‘I have found David, the son of Jesse, a man after My heart, who will do My will.’[65]
23 “From this man’s seed, in keeping with His promise, God brought to Israel a Savior[66]—Yeshua. 24 Before His coming, John had proclaimed an immersion of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 As John was completing his service, he said, ‘What do you suppose me to be? I am not He. But behold, One is coming after me, whose sandal I’m not worthy to untie.’ 26 “Brothers, sons of the family of Abraham and those among you who are God-fearers, it is to us the message of this salvation has been sent. 27 For those who live in Jerusalem and their rulers—not recognizing Him or the sayings of the Prophets that are read every Shabbat—fulfilled these words by condemning Him. 28 Though they found no charge worthy of a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have Him executed.
29 When they had carried out all that had been written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb.
30 But God raised Him from the dead! 31 For many days He appeared to those who had come up from the Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now His witnesses to the people.

32 “And we proclaim to you Good News—the promise to the fathers has arrived! 33 For God has fulfilled this promise to the children—to us—by raising up Yeshua, as it is also written in the second psalm:

‘You are My Son.
Today I have become Your Father.’[67]

34 “But since He raised Him up from the dead, never to return to decay, He has spoken in this way, ‘I will give you the holy and sure mercies of David.’[68] 35 Therefore He also says in another psalm, ‘You will not permit Your Holy One to see decay.’[69] 36 For after David had served God’s purpose in his own generation, he went to sleep and was laid with his fathers and saw decay. 37 But the One whom God raised up did not see decay.
38 “Therefore, let it be known to you, brothers, that through this One is proclaimed to you the removal of sins, including all those from which you could not be set right by the Torah of Moses. 39 Through this One everyone who keeps trusting is made righteous.
40 “Be careful, then, so that what is said in the Prophets may not come upon you:

41 ‘Look, you scoffers,
be amazed and vanish away.
For I am doing a work in your days—
a work you will never believe,
even if someone tells it to you in detail.’[70]”

42 As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people kept begging them to speak these things to them the next Shabbat.
43 When the synagogue meeting broke up, many of the Jewish people and God-fearing inquirers followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking with them and trying to persuade them to continue in the grace of God.

44 The following Shabbat, almost the entire city came together to hear the word of the Lord. 45 When the Jewish leaders saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and tried to contradict what Paul was saying by reviling him. 46 Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, “It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken to you first. Since you reject it and judge yourselves unfit for eternal life—behold, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so the Lord has commanded us, ‘I have placed you as a light to the nations,
so that you may bring salvation to the end of the
earth.’[71]”
48 When the Gentiles heard this, they were thrilled and glorified the word of the Lord; and as many as had been inscribed for eternal life believed.[72]
49 Now the word of the Lord spread throughout the whole region. 50 But the Jewish leaders incited the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and they drove them out of their district. 51 But Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet against them,[73] and they went on to Iconium. 52 And the disciples were filled with joy and the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

Mixed Crowds Believe Amidst Persecution

Acts 14 1 Now in Iconium, the same thing happened—they entered as usual into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a large number of Jewish and Greek people believed.
2 But the Jewish people who would not believe stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.
3 So they stayed there a considerable time, speaking boldly in the Lord—who was testifying to the message of His grace, granting signs and wonders to come about by their hands. 4 But the population of the city split; some were with the Jewish leaders and some were with the emissaries. 5 Now it happened that an attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jewish people, along with their rulers, to abuse and stone them. 6 But they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding countryside. 7 There they proclaimed the Good News.
8 Now a man was sitting in Lystra without strength in his feet, lame from birth, who had never walked. 9 This man heard Paul speaking. When Paul looked intently at him and saw that he had faith to be healed, 10 he said with a loud voice, “Stand right up! On your feet!” And the man leaped up and began to walk around!
11 Now the crowd, seeing what Paul had done, lifted up their voices, saying in Lycaonian, “The gods have become like men and come down to us!” 12 And they began calling Barnabas “Zeus” and Paul “Hermes” (because he was the main speaker).
13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was before the front gate of the city, brought bulls and garlands; he wanted to offer a sacrifice with the people. 14 But when the emissaries Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their clothes and rushed out among the crowd, crying out 15 and saying, “Men, why are you doing these things? We too are human, just like you! We proclaim the Good News to you, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them.[74] 16 In past generations He allowed all the nations to go their own ways.[75] 17 Yet He did not leave Himself without a witness—He did good by giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with joy and gladness.”[76] 18 Even saying these things, they barely restrained the crowd from sacrificing to them.

19 But Jewish people came from Antioch and Iconium; and after they won the crowd over and stoned Paul, they were dragging him out of the city, supposing him to be dead. 20 But while the disciples surrounded him, he got up and went back into the city. On the next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.
21 After proclaiming the Good News to that city and making many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. 22 They were strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in faith, and saying, “It is through many persecutions that we must enter the kingdom of God.” 23 When they had handpicked elders for them in every community, and prayed with fasting, they placed them in the care of the Lord—in whom they had put their trust.
24 Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphyllia.
25 After speaking the message in Perga, they went down to Attalia. 26 From there they sailed back to Antioch (where they had been entrusted to the gracious care of God for the work now completed). 27 When they arrived and gathered together Messiah’s community, they began to report all that God had done in helping them and that He had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. 28 And they stayed quite awhile with the disciples.

Jerusalem Council Rules on Circumcision

Acts 15 [1] Now some men coming down from Judea were teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.” [2] When Paul and Barnabas had a big argument and debate with them, the brothers appointed Paul and Barnabas with some others from among them to go up to Jerusalem to the emissaries and elders about this issue.
[3] So they were sent on their way by the Antioch community.
They were passing through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they were bringing great joy to all the brothers and sisters. [4] When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the community and the emissaries and the elders. They reported all that God had done in helping them.
[5] But some belonging to the party of the Pharisees who had believed stood up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the Torah of Moses.” [6] The emissaries and elders were gathered together to examine this issue. [7] After much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that in the early days God chose from among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the message of the Good News and believe. [8] And God, who knows the heart, testified to them by giving them the Ruach ha-Kodesh—just as He also did for us. [9] He made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts through faith. [10] Why then do you put God to the test by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples—which neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? [11] But instead, we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Yeshua, in the same way as they are.”
[12] Then the whole group became silent and were listening to Barnabas and Paul as they were describing in detail all the signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. [13] After they finished speaking, Jacob answered,

“Brothers, listen to me. 14 Simon has described how God first showed His concern by taking from the Gentiles a people for His Name. 15 The words of the Prophets agree, as it is written:

16 ‘After this I will return and rebuild the fallen tabernacle of David.

I will rebuild its ruins
and I will restore it, 17 so that the rest of humanity may seek the Lord—
namely all the Gentiles who are called by My name—
says Adonai,
who makes these things[77] 18 known from of old.'[78]

19 Therefore, I judge not to trouble those from among the Gentiles who are turning to God—20 but to write to them to abstain from the contamination of idols, and from sexual immorality, and from what is strangled, and from blood.[79] 21 For Moses from ancient generations has had in every city those who proclaim him, since he is read in all the synagogues every Shabbat."

Letter to Diaspora Communities

22 Then it seemed good to the emissaries and elders, with the whole community, to choose men from among themselves to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judah (also called Barsabbas) and Silas, leading men among the brethren, 23 and this letter along with them:

> "The emissaries and the elders, your brothers,
> To the Gentile brothers of Antioch, Syria,
> and Cilicia:
> Greetings!

24 Since we have heard that some from among us have troubled you with words disturbing to your souls,[80] although we gave them no such authorization, 25 it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to select men to send to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul—26 men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 27 We therefore have sent to you Judah and Silas, who themselves will report to you the same things by word of mouth. 28 It seemed good to the Ruach ha-Kodesh and to us not to place on you any greater burden than these essentials: 29 that you abstain from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality. By keeping away from these things, you will do well.
Shalom!"

30 So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch;
and when they had gathered the whole group together, they delivered the letter. 31 The people read it and rejoiced over its encouragement. 32 Judah and Silas, prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers and sisters with a long message and strengthened them.
33 After spending some time there, they were sent off with shalom by the brothers and sisters to those who had sent them.

34 [81] 35 But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord with many others.

New Teams Strengthen Communities

[36] After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s return and visit the brothers and sisters in every city where we have proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are.”
[37] Barnabas was planning to take along John, called Mark. [38] But Paul was insisting that they shouldn’t take him along—the one who had deserted them in Pamphylia, not accompanying them in the work. [39] A sharp disagreement took place, so that they split off from one another. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus. [40] But Paul selected Silas and went out, being entrusted by the brothers and sisters to the gracious care of the Lord. [41] He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the communities.

Acts 16 [1] Now Paul came to Derbe and Lystra. There was a disciple there named Timothy, son of a woman who was a Jewish believer and a Greek father, [2] who was well-spoken of by the brothers at Lystra and Iconium. [3] Paul wanted this man to accompany him, and he took him and circumcised him for the sake of the Jewish people in those places—for they all knew that his father was Greek.

[4] As they were traveling through the cities, they were handing down the rulings that had been decided upon by the emissaries and elders in Jerusalem, for them to keep. [5] So Messiah's communities were strengthened in the faith and kept increasing daily in number.

Going West to Macedonia

6 They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Ruach ha-Kodesh to speak the word in Asia.[82] 7 When they came to Mysia, they were trying to proceed into Bithynia, but the Ruach of Yeshua would not allow them. 8 So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.
9 Now a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A man from Macedonia was standing and pleading with him, saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us!” 10 As soon as he had seen the vision, immediately we tried to go to Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to proclaim the Good News to them.
11 So we put out to sea from Troas and made a straight course for Samothrace, the next day on to Neapolis, 12 and from there to Philippi—which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia as well as a Roman colony. We stayed in this city for several days.
13 On Yom Shabbat, we went outside the gate to the river, where we expected a place of prayer to be. We sat down and began speaking with the women who had gathered. 14 A woman named Lydia—a seller of purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, a God-fearer—was listening. The Lord opened her heart to respond to what Paul was saying.
15 When she was immersed, along with her household, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my house.” And she insisted.[83]
16 It so happened that as we were going to prayer, we met a slave girl who had a spirit of divination, who was bringing her masters much profit from her fortune-telling.[84] 17 Following after Paul and us, she kept shouting, saying, “These men are servants of El Elyon, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation.” 18 She kept doing this for many days. But Paul was irritated and turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Messiah Yeshua to come out of her!” And it came out of her that very moment.

19 But when her masters saw that the hope of profit was gone, they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. 20 And when they brought them to the chief authorities, they said, “These men are throwing our city into an uproar! Being Jewish, 21 they advocate customs which are not permitted for us to accept or practice,[85]
being Romans.”
22 Then the crowd joined in the attack on them. So the chief authorities ripped their clothes off them and commanded them to be beaten with rods. 23 After inflicting many blows on them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to guard them securely. 24 Having received this charge, he threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.[86]

Salvation for a Jailer’s Household

25 But about midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 Suddenly there was such a great earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. Immediately all the doors were unlocked, and everyone’s chains came loose.
27 When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors opened, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Don’t harm yourself! We’re all here!” 29 The jailer called for lights and rushed in; and trembling with fear, he fell down before Paul and Silas. 30 After he brought them out, he said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” 31 They said, “Put your trust in the Lord Yeshua[87] and you will be saved—you and your household!” 32 Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him, along with everyone in his household. 33 He took them that very hour and washed their wounds, and at once he was immersed—he and all his household. 34 The jailer brought them to his house and set food before them, and he was overjoyed that he with his entire household had put their trust in God.

35 When day came, the chief authorities sent their police officers, saying, “Release those men.” 36 But the jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, “The chief authorities have sent orders to release you. So come out now, and go in shalom.”
37 But Paul said to the officers, “They have beaten us publicly without a trial—men who are Roman citizens—and have thrown us into prison. And now they are sending us away secretly? No!
Let them come themselves and lead us out!”
38 The police officers reported these words to the chief authorities. They became afraid when they heard they were Romans, 39 so they came and apologized to them. After they escorted them out, they kept begging them to leave the city.
40 When Paul and Silas went out of the prison, they visited Lydia’s house. And when they saw the brothers, they encouraged them and then departed.

Synagogue Responses Vary

Acts 17 [1] After passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.
[2] As was his custom, Paul went to the Jewish people; and for three Shabbatot, he debated the Scriptures with them. [3] He opened them and gave evidence that Messiah had to suffer and rise from the dead, saying, “This Yeshua, whom I declare to you, is the Messiah.” [4] Some of them were convinced and became attached to Paul and Silas, as were a large number of the God-fearing Greeks and no small number of the leading women.

[5] But some of the Jewish people became jealous. Taking some wicked fellows of the marketplace and gathering a crowd, they stirred the city into an uproar. They attacked Jason’s house, trying to bring Paul and Silas out to the mob. [6] When they did not find them, they instead began dragging Jason and some of the brethren before the city officials, shouting, “These men who have upset the world have come here too, [7] and Jason has welcomed them! They are all acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king, Yeshua.” [8] Hearing these things, the crowd and the city officials were confused. [9] But after receiving bail from Jason and the rest, they released
them.

[10] As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. Upon arrival, they made their way to the Jewish synagogue. [11] Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, because they received the message with goodwill, searching the Scriptures each day to see whether these things were true. [12] Therefore many of them believed, as well as quite a few prominent Greek women and men.

[13] But when the Jewish people of Thessalonica learned that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul in Berea, they came there too, agitating and inciting the people. [14] Then the brothers immediately sent Paul away to the sea, but Silas and Timothy remained there. [15] Those escorting Paul brought him as far as Athens. After receiving an order for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they left.

An Unknown God in Athens

16 Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was aroused within him when he saw that the city was full of idols. 17 So he was debating in the synagogue with the Jewish people and the God-fearers, as well as in the marketplace every day with all who happened to be there. 18 Also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were conversing with him.
Some were saying, “What’s this babbler trying to say?” while others, “He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign deities”— because he was proclaiming the Good News of Yeshua and the resurrection. 19 So they took Paul to the Aereopagus, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is that you are talking about? 20 For you are bringing some strange things to our ears, so we want to know what these things mean.” 21 Now all the Athenians and foreigners visiting there used to pass their time doing nothing but telling or hearing something new.

22 So Paul stood in the middle of the Aereopagus and said, “Men of Athens, I see that in all ways you are very religious.
23 For while I was passing through and observing the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: ‘To an Unknown God.’ Therefore what you worship without knowing, this I proclaim to you. 24 The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth,[88] does not live in temples made by hands.[89] 25 Nor is He served by human hands, as if He needed anything,[90] since He Himself gives to everyone life and breath and all things.[91] 26 From one He made every nation of men to live on the face of the earth, having set appointed times and the boundaries of their territory.[92] 27 They were to search for Him, and perhaps grope around for Him and find Him. Yet He is not far from each one of us,[93] 28 for ‘In Him we live and move and have our being.’

As some of your own poets have said, ‘For we also are His offspring.’[94] 29 Since we are His offspring, we ought not to suppose the Deity is like gold or silver or stone, an engraved image of human art and imagination.[95] 30 Although God overlooked the periods of ignorance, now He commands everyone everywhere to repent. 31 For He has set a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness, through a Man whom He has appointed.[96] He has brought forth evidence of this to all men, by raising Him from the dead.” 32 Now when they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some began scoffing. But others said, “We will hear from you again about this.” 33 So Paul left from their midst. 34 But some men joined with him and believed—among them Dionysius (a member of the council of the Aereopagus), a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Many Respond in Corinth

Acts 18 1 After these things, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. 2 There he found a Jewish man named Aquila—a native of Pontus having recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all Jewish people to leave Rome. Paul went to see them; 3 and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and began working, for by trade they were tent-makers. 4 And he was debating every Shabbat in the synagogue, trying to persuade both Jewish and Greek people.

5 Now when Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul became occupied with the message, urgently testifying to the Jewish people that Yeshua is the Messiah. 6 But when they resisted and reviled him, he shook out his garments[97] and said,
"Your blood be upon your own heads—I am clean![98] From now on, I will go to the Gentiles."

7 After leaving there, Paul went into the house of a man named Titius Justus, a God-fearer whose house was next door to the synagogue. 8 Crispus, the synagogue leader, put his faith in the Lord, along with his whole household. And many of the Corinthians, upon hearing, were believing and being immersed.

9 Now the Lord said to Paul through a vision in the night, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent! 10 For I am with you and no one shall attack you to harm you—many people in this city are for Me." 11 So he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But while Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jewish leaders made a united attack against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, 13 saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the Torah."

14 But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jewish people, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or a vicious crime, there would be a reason to put up with you, O Jews. 15 But since it is issues about words, names, and your own law, see to it yourselves. I do not wish to be a judge of these."

16 And he drove them from the judgment seat. 17 Then they all grabbed Sosthenes, the synagogue leader, and began beating him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio paid no attention to these things.

Sailing East to Revisit Communities

18 Paul, having stayed many more days, said farewell to the brothers and set sail to Syria, and with him were Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchrea Paul had his hair cut off, for he was keeping a vow. 19 When they arrived at Ephesus, Paul left Priscilla and Aquila there. But he himself went into the synagogue and debated with the Jewish people. 20 When they asked him to stay longer, he declined, 21 instead taking leave of them while saying, “God willing, I’ll return to you again.”

He set sail from Ephesus. 22 After landing at Caesarea, he went up and greeted Messiah’s community; then he went down to Antioch. 23 After spending some time there, he departed and went one place after another throughout the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

Discipling New Leaders

[24] Now a Jewish man named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was a learned man, well versed in the Scriptures. [25] He had been instructed in the way of the Lord.
With a fervent spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the facts about Yeshua—while only being acquainted with the immersion of John. [26] This man began speaking out boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God more accurately.
[27] When Apollos wanted to cross over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him.
Upon arrival, he greatly helped those who by grace had believed. [28] For he powerfully refuted the Jewish people in public, demonstrating through the Scriptures that the Messiah was Yeshua.

Acts 19 1 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul traveled through the upper region and came to Ephesus. He found some disciples 2 and said to them, “Did you receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh when you believed?”

They replied to him, “No, we’ve never even heard that there is a Ruach ha-Kodesh.

3 He said, “Into what were you immersed?”

They said, “Into John’s immersion.”

4 Paul said, “John immersed with an immersion of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the One coming after him—that is, in Yeshua.”

5 When they heard this, they were immersed in the name of the Lord Yeshua. 6 And when Paul laid hands upon them, the Ruach ha-Kodesh came upon them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. 7 In all, there were about twelve men.

God’s Power Displayed in Ephesus

8 Paul went into the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, debating and persuading them about the kingdom of God. 9 But when they were hardening and refusing to believe, speaking evil of the Way before the whole group, he withdrew from them, taking the disciples with him, debating daily in the hall of Tyrannus. 10 This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia[99] heard the word of the Lord—Jewish as well as Greek people.

11 God was doing extraordinary miracles by Paul’s hands, 12 so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that touched his skin were brought to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 But some traveling Jewish exorcists also tried to invoke the name of the Lord Yeshua, saying, “I charge you by the Yeshua whom Paul preaches.” 14 Seven sons of a Jewish ruling kohen named Sceva were doing this. 15 But the evil spirit answered them, “I know Yeshua and I know about Paul, but who are
you?”

16 Then the man with the evil spirit sprang at them, subduing and overpowering all of them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 This became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jewish and Greek people. Fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Yeshua was being magnified.
18 Many also of those who had believed came confessing and recounting their practices. 19 And many of those who practiced magic arts brought their books together in a heap, burning them before everyone. They totaled the value of the books and found it to be about fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 So the word of the Lord was growing in power and prevailing.

Idol-Makers Start a Riot

21 Now after these things were accomplished, Paul resolved in the Ruach to go to Jerusalem after passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.” 22 So after sending two who were assisting him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.
23 Around that time, there arose no small uproar concerning the Way. 24 For a man named Demetrius—a silversmith, a maker of silver shrines of Artemis—was providing no small amount of business to the craftsmen. 25 He gathered these together, along with those of related occupations, and he said, “Men, you know that our wealth is from this business. 26 You see and hear that not only in Ephesus but also throughout all Asia, Paul has persuaded and perverted a considerable crowd, saying that handmade gods are not gods at all.[100] 27 Not only is there a danger that this trade of ours might come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis might be considered as nothing. She whom all Asia and the world worships might even be thrown down from her majesty.”
28 When they heard, they were filled with fury and began shouting, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” 29 The city was filled with confusion. They rushed into the theater, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were travel companions of Paul. 30 Paul was wishing to enter among the crowd, but the disciples would not let him. 31 Some of the chiefs of Asia,[101] being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to surrender himself in the theater.

32 Now some cried out one thing, some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most did not know why they had come together. 33 Some of the crowd solicited Alexander, whom the Jewish people put forward. Alexander motioned with his hand. He wished to offer a defense to the crowd. 34 But recognizing that he was Jewish, for about two hours they all with one voice cried out, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

35 After the town clerk quieted the crowd, he said, “Men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn’t know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great Artemis and of her image fallen from heaven? 36 Since these things are undeniable, you must be calm and do nothing reckless. 37 For you have brought these men here who are neither sacrilegious nor revilers of our goddess. 38 If Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse them. 39 But if you seek anything further, it will be settled in the lawful assembly. 40 For we are in danger of being charged with rioting today, there being no reason which we are able to give to justify this mob.” Upon saying this, he dismissed the assembly.

Escaping Death

Acts 20 1 After the uproar ended, Paul sent for the disciples; and when he had encouraged them and said farewell, he departed to go to Macedonia. 2 When he had passed through these parts and given them a great word of encouragement, he came to Greece, 3 where he spent three months. When a plot was formed against him by the Jewish leaders as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return via Macedonia. 4 Sopater of Berea, son of Pyrrhus, accompanied him; as well as Aristarchus and Secundus of Thessalonica; Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.[102] 5 These went on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas. 6 But we sailed from Philippi after the Days of Matzah. In five days we came to them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

7 Now on the first day of the week, we gathered to break bread. Paul was talking with them, intending to leave the next day, so he prolonged his speech till midnight. 8 There were many lamps in the upper chamber where we were meeting.
9 Now a young man named Eutychus was sitting in a windowsill, sinking into a deep sleep as Paul kept on talking.
Overcome by sleep, he fell from the third story and was picked up—dead.

10 But Paul went down, fell on him and threw his arms around him. He said, “Don’t be upset, for his life is within him.”[103]

11 After he went back up and broke the bread and ate, he talked with them a long while until daybreak and then left. 12 So they took the boy away alive, greatly relieved.

Prophetic Warnings

13 But we went on ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there—for so he had arranged, intending himself to travel there by land. 14 When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and went to Mitylene. 15 Sailing from there, we arrived the next day opposite Chios; the next day we crossed over to Samos, and the day after that we came to Miletus. 16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he might not spend much time in Asia, because he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Shavuot.
17 From Miletus, dispatching someone to Ephesus, he called for the elders of the community. 18 When they came to him, he said to them, “You yourselves know how I behaved among you all the time from the first day I set foot in Asia, 19 serving the Lord with all humility and tears and trials which fell upon me through the plots of the Jewish leaders. 20 I did not shrink back from proclaiming to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly as well as from house to house, 21 testifying to both Jewish and Greek people repentance to God and trust in our Lord Yeshua.
22 “And now, look, bound by the Ruach, I am going to Jerusalem—not knowing what will happen to me there, 23 except that the Ruach ha-Kodesh bears witness to me from city to city, saying that bondage and afflictions await me.
24 However, I don’t consider my life of any value, except that I might finish my course and the office I received from the Lord Yeshua, to declare the Good News of the grace of God.
25 “Now, look! I know that none of you, among whom I have gone proclaiming the kingdom, will ever see my face again.
26 Therefore, I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all. 27 For I did not shrink back from declaring to you the whole purpose of God.
28 “Take care of yourselves and all the flock of which the Ruach ha-Kodesh has made you overseers, to shepherd the community of God—which He obtained with the blood of His own.[104] 29 I know that after my departure, savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.[105] 30 Even from among yourselves will arise men speaking perversions, to draw the disciples away after themselves. 31 Therefore be alert, remembering that night and day for three years I did not stop warning you with tears.

32 “Now I commit you to God and the word of His grace, which is strong to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all who have been made holy. 33 I coveted no one’s silver or gold or clothing. 34 You yourselves know that these hands of mine have provided for my own needs as well as for those with me. 35 In all things I have shown you an object lesson—that by hard work one must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Yeshua, that He Himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”[106]

36 When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. 37 They all began weeping and falling upon Paul’s neck and kissing him, 38 grieving most of all over the statement he made that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Going to Jerusalem Despite Warnings

Acts 21 [1] After tearing ourselves away from them and setting sail, we set a straight course to Cos, the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. [2] Finding a ship crossing to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail. [3] When we came in sight of Cyprus, passing it by on the left, we kept sailing to Syria and landed at Tyre—for there the ship was to unload the cargo. [4] We looked up the disciples and stayed there seven days. They kept telling Paul through the Ruach not to set foot in Jerusalem.

[5] When our days there were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, accompanied us until we were outside the city. After kneeling down on the shore and praying, [6] we said farewell to one another. Then we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

[7] When we had finished the trip from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers and sisters and stayed with them for one day. [8] On the next day, we departed and came to Caesarea. We entered the home of Philip, the proclaimer of Good News, who was one of the seven, and we stayed with him.
[9] Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

[10] While we stayed there for a number of days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. [11] He came to us, took Paul's belt, tied his own hands and feet, and said, "The Ruach ha-Kodesh says this: 'In this way shall the Jewish people in Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

[12] When we heard these things, both we and the local people urged Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. [13] Then Paul responded,
"What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound but to die for the name of the Lord Yeshua!"

[14] Since he would not be persuaded, we fell silent, saying only, "May the Lord's will be done."

15 After these days, we packed and started going up to Jerusalem. 16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing us to Mnason of Cyprus—one of the early disciples by whom we might be hosted.

Advice from Jacob and the Elders

17 When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters welcomed us gladly. 18 On the next day, Paul went in with us to Jacob; all the elders were present. 19 After greeting them, he reported to them in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his service. 20 And when they heard, they began glorifying God.

They said, “You see, brother, how many myriads there are among the Jewish people who have believed—and they are all zealous for the Torah. 21 They have been told about you—that you teach all the Jewish people among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or to walk according to the customs. 22 What’s to be done then? No doubt they will hear that you have come.

23 “So do what we tell you. We have four men who have a vow on themselves.[107] 24 Take them, and purify yourself[108] along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may shave their heads. That way, all will realize there is nothing to the things they have been told about you, but that you yourself walk in an orderly manner, keeping the Torah.

25 “As for Gentiles who have believed, however, we have written by letter what we decided—for them to abstain from what is offered to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from immorality.”

26 The next day Paul took the men, purifying himself along with them. He went into the Temple, announcing when the days of purification would be completed and the sacrifice would be offered for each one of them.

Trouble at the Temple

27 When the seven days were about to be completed, the Jewish leaders from Asia[109] saw Paul in the Temple and began stirring up the whole crowd. They grabbed him, 28 shouting, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who is teaching all men everywhere against our people and the Torah and this place.
Besides, he has even brought Greeks into the Temple and defiled[110] this holy place!” 29 For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they assumed that Paul had brought him into the Temple. 30 The whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together. They grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the Temple, and the gates were shut at once.
31 As they were trying to kill him, news came to the commander of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in chaos.
32 Immediately he took soldiers and centurions and rushed down to them. Upon seeing the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. 33 Then the commander came up, arrested Paul, ordered him to be bound with two chains, and began investigating what he had done. 34 Some in the crowd shouted one thing, and some another. As he could not determine the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into headquarters.
35 When he came to the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd. 36 For the multitude of people that followed kept shouting, “Away with
him!”
37 As Paul was about to be brought into the headquarters, he said to the commander, “Can I say something to you?”
The commander said, “You know Greek? 38 Then you’re not the Egyptian who stirred up a rebellion some time ago—and led four thousand men of the Assassins out into the desert?” 39 Paul said, “I am a Jewish man from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, let me speak to the people.”

40 When the commander had given him permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the people with his hand. When there was a great hush, he spoke to them in Aramaic,[111] saying:

Paul's Testimony on the Temple Stairs

Acts 22 [1] "Brothers and fathers, listen to my defense which I now present to you." [2] When they heard that Paul was addressing them in Aramaic, they became even more quiet. Then he said, [3] "I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, trained strictly according to the Torah of our fathers, being zealous for God just as all of you are today. [4] I persecuted this Way to the death, arresting both men and women and throwing them in prisons—[5] as the kohen gadol and all the council of elders can testify about me. I also received letters from them to the brothers, and I went to Damascus to bring back to Jerusalem even those who were there in chains—to be punished.

[6] "But it happened that as I was traveling and drawing near to Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly flashed all around me. [7] I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?'

[8] "I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?'

"He said to me, 'I am Yeshua ha-Natzrati, whom you are persecuting.'

[9] "Now those who were with me saw the light, but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me. [10] So I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?'

"And the Lord said to me, 'Get up, and go to Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been appointed to do.'

[11] "But since I could not see because of the brilliance of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me and came into Damascus. [12] Then a certain Ananias—a devout man according to the Torah, well spoken of by all the Jewish people living there—[13] came to me. Standing before me, he said to me, 'Brother Saul, look up!' In that very moment, I looked and saw him!

[14] "And he said, 'The God of our fathers handpicked you to know His will—to see the Righteous One and to hear an utterance from His mouth. [15] For you will be a witness for Him to all people of what you have seen and heard. 16 Now why are you waiting? Get up and be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on His Name.’

17 “It happened that when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the Temple, I fell into a trance; 18 and I saw Him saying to me, ‘Hurry! Get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your witness about Me.’ 19 “And I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know that in one synagogue after another, I was imprisoning and beating those trusting in You. 20 Even when the blood of Your witness Stephen was spilled, I too was standing by and approving, and guarding the clothing of those who were killing him.’ 21 “And he said to me, ‘Go! For I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”
22 Up to this statement they listened to him. Then they raised their voices, saying, “Away from the earth with this fellow! For he’s not fit to live!”

The Romans Intervene

23 As they were crying out and flinging off their cloaks and throwing dust into the air,[112] 24 the commander ordered Paul to be brought into headquarters. He said Paul should be examined by lashing, so that he might find out why they were shouting against him so. 25 But when they stretched him out with straps, Paul said to the centurion standing there, “Is it legal for you to scourge a man who is a Roman citizen without due process?” 26 Now when the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and reported it, saying, “What are you going to do?
For this man is Roman.”
27 The commander came and said to him, “Tell me, are you Roman?”
And he said, “Yes.”
28 The commander answered, “I bought this citizenship for a large sum.”
Paul said, “But I was born so.”
29 Therefore, those who were about to interrogate him instantly drew back from him. And the commander also was afraid when he found out that Paul was a Roman and that he had bound him.

Delivered to the Council

30 But on the next day, desiring to know exactly why Paul had been accused by the Judeans, he released him and commanded the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin to meet together. And he brought Paul and set him before them.

Acts 23 [1] Paul, looking intently at the Sanhedrin, said, “Brothers,
I have lived my life in all good conscience for God up to this day.” [2] But the kohen gadol Ananias ordered those standing by him to strike him on the mouth.
[3] Then Paul said to him, “God is going to strike you on the mouth, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit judging me according to the Torah, and yet in violation of the Torah you order me to be struck?”[113]
[4] Those standing nearby said, “Do you insult God’s kohen gadol?”
[5] Paul said, “I didn’t know, brothers, that he is the kohen gadol. For it has been written, ‘You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”[114]
[6] But recognizing that one group was Sadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began crying out in the Sanhedrin, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees! I am on trial because of the hope of the resurrection of the dead!”
[7] When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. [8] For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection or angel or spirit, but the Pharisees affirm them all. [9] Then there was a great uproar. Some of the Torah scholars of the Pharisees’ party stood up and protested sharply, “We find nothing wrong with this man! What if a spirit or angel has spoken to him?”
[10] As a big dispute was developing, the commander was afraid that Paul would be torn to pieces by them. So he ordered the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them and to bring him into headquarters.
[11] The following night the Lord stood beside Paul and said, “Take courage! For just as you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome!”

Conspiracy to Kill Paul

12 When it was day, the Judean leaders formed a conspiracy.
They bound themselves by an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. 13 There were more than forty who formed this plot. 14 They went to the ruling kohanim and elders and said, “We have bound ourselves with a solemn oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 So now you and the Sanhedrin serve notice to the commander to bring him down to you—like you are about to investigate his case more thoroughly. But we are ready to kill him before he comes near.” 16 But the son of Paul’s sister heard of their ambush. He went into the headquarters and told Paul. 17 Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the commander, for he has a message for him.”
18 So the centurion took him and led him to the commander and said, “The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, as he has something to say to you.” 19 The commander took him by the hand, stepped aside, and began asking him privately, “What is it that you have to report to me?”
20 And he said, “The Judean leaders have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow—as if they are about to investigate more thoroughly about him. 21 But do not give in to them, for more than forty of them have bound themselves by an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. Even now, they are ready and waiting for your consent.”
22 So the commander dismissed the young man, charging him,
“Tell no one that you have informed me about these things.”

Escorted to Caesarea

23 Calling two of his centurions, he said, “At the third hour of the night,[115] prepare two hundred soldiers, along with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, to proceed as far as Caesarea. 24 Also provide mounts for Paul to ride, so that he might be brought safely to Felix the governor.”
25 He wrote a letter to this effect:
26 “Claudius Lysias,
To the Most Excellent Governor Felix:
Greetings!
27 This man was seized by the Judean leaders and was about to be killed by them, when I came on the scene with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman citizen. 28 Desiring to know the charge of which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin. 29 I found that he was accused concerning issues of their law, but charged with nothing worthy of death or imprisonment. 30 When I was informed that there was a plot against the man, I sent him to you immediately, also ordering his accusers to state before you what they have against him.” 31 So the soldiers, in keeping with their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 On the next day, they returned to headquarters, leaving the horsemen to go on with him. 33 When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul before him. 34 Upon reading the letter, the governor asked what province he was from. When he learned that Paul was from Cilicia, 35 he said, “I will give you a hearing when your accusers have arrived also.”
Then he gave orders for Paul to be guarded in Herod’s Praetorium.

Defense Before Governor Felix

Acts 24 1 After five days, the kohen gadol Ananias came down with some of the elders and an attorney named Tertullus. They brought formal charges against Paul before the governor.
2 When Paul was called in, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “We are enjoying much peace through you, and reforms are introduced for this nation because of your foresight. 3 We acknowledge this, most excellent Felix, in every way and every place with all gratitude.

4 “But in order that I may not weary you any longer, I beg you in your kindness to hear us briefly. 5 For we have found this man to be a pest, stirring up riots among all the Jewish people throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Natzratim. 6 He even tried to defile the Temple, but we seized him.[116] 8 By examining him yourself, you will be able to learn from him all these things about which we accuse him.”

9 The Judean leaders also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were true. 10 When the governor nodded for him to speak, Paul responded: “Knowing that you have been judge over this nation for many years, I gladly make my own defense.
11 As you can verify, it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. 12 They did not find me arguing with anyone or inciting a riot—not in the Temple or in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. 13 Nor can they prove to you the charges they now bring against me.

14 “But this I confess to you, that according to the Way (which they call a sect), I worship the God of our fathers,[117] believing everything written in the Torah and the Prophets. 15 In God I have a hope—which these men also wait for—that there will surely be a resurrection of both the righteous and the
unrighteous.[118]

16 “Therefore I do my best always to have a clear conscience before both God and men. 17 Now after several years, I came to bring tzedakah to my country for the poor and to present offerings. 18 As I was doing this, they found me in the Temple, having been purified—without any crowd or uproar. [19] But there were some Jewish people from Asia, who ought to be here before you to press charges if they have anything against me. [20] Or let these men themselves tell what wrongdoing they found when I stood before the Sanhedrin—[21] except for this one cry I shouted out while standing among them: ‘It is about the resurrection of the dead that today I am on trial before you.’”

In Prison for Two Years

22 But Felix, having a rather extensive knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I will rule on your case.” 23 Then he gave the centurion orders for Paul to be kept in custody and yet have some freedom, and not to prevent any of his friends from attending to his needs.

24 Now some days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and listened to him speak about faith in Messiah Yeshua. 25 But as he was arguing about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became afraid and said, “Go away for now! When I find time, I will summon you.”

26 At the same time too, he was hoping that money would be given to him by Paul; so he sent for him frequently and would talk with him. 27 But after two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and wishing to do the Judean leaders a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

Appeal to Caesar

Acts 25 [1] Three days after Festus arrived in the province, he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. [2] There the ruling kohanim and the leading Judeans brought charges against Paul. They were urging him, [3] asking a favor—to have Paul sent to Jerusalem, planning an ambush to kill him on the road.
[4] Festus then answered that Paul was being guarded at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to go there shortly.
[5] "So then," he said, "let the prominent men among you go down with me; and if there is any wrong in the man, let them accuse him."
[6] After spending not more than eight to ten days with them, he went down to Caesarea. The next day, he sat on the judgment seat and ordered Paul to be brought in. [7] When he arrived, the Judeans who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many serious charges which they could not prove.
[8] Paul said in his defense, "I have committed no offense against the Torah of the Jewish people, or against the Temple, or against Caesar."
[9] But Festus, wanting to do the Jewish leaders a favor, said to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to be tried before
me?"
[10] But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Judeans, as you very well know. [11] If then I am in the wrong and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not seek to escape death. But if there is nothing to their charges, no one can turn me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!" [12] Then when Festus had consulted with the council, he responded, "You have appealed to Caesar—to Caesar you shall go!"

Festus Seeks Agrippa's Counsel

[13] Now after several days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus.
[14] While they were staying there several days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a man left behind as a prisoner by Felix. [15] When I was in Jerusalem, the ruling kohanim and elders of the Judeans brought charges against him, asking for a judgment against him. [16] I answered them that it is not Roman practice to turn over anyone before the accused meets his accusers face to face and has an opportunity to make his defense concerning the charges. [17] So when they came together here, I did not delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat and ordered the man to be brought in. [18] When the accusers stood up, they were not bringing a charge of what crimes I suspected. [19] Instead, they had certain issues with him about their own religion and about a certain Yeshua, who had died, whom Paul claimed to be alive.
[20] "Since I was at a loss as to how to investigate these matters, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem to be tried there in regard to them. [21] But when Paul appealed to be held in custody for the decision of His Majesty the Emperor, I ordered him to be held until I could send him to Caesar."
[22] Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear the man myself."
"Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."
[23] So on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pageantry. They entered the audience hall with the commanders and the most prominent men of the city. Then at the order of Festus, Paul was brought in.
[24] Festus said, "King Agrippa and all present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Judean population petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting out that he ought not live any longer. [25] But I found that he had done nothing deserving of death; and when he himself appealed to His Majesty the Emperor, I decided to send him. [26] Yet I have nothing specific to write to my lord about him. Therefore I have brought him before you—and especially before you, King Agrippa—so that after the investigation has taken place, I might have something to write. [27] For it seems illogical to me when sending a prisoner, not to report also the charges against him.”

Defense Before King Agrippa

Acts 26 [1] Agrippa said to Paul, “It is permitted for you to speak for yourself.”
Then Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense.
[2] “Concerning all I am accused of by the Judean leaders, I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that it is before you that I am about to make my defense today—[3] since you are especially knowledgeable about all Jewish customs and issues.
Therefore I beg you to listen patiently to me.
[4] “Now all the Jewish people have known my manner of life ever since my youth, starting from the beginning in my own nation and also in Jerusalem. [5] They have known about me for a long time—if they were willing to testify—that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived as a Pharisee.
[6] “Yet now I stand here being judged for the hope in the promise made by God to our fathers. [7] It is the promise that our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day. And for this hope I am accused by Jewish people, O King! [8] Why is it judged incredible by any of you that God raises
the dead?
[9] “In fact, I myself thought it was necessary to do many things in opposition to the name of Yeshua ha-Natzrati. [10] And that is what I did in Jerusalem. Not only did I lock up many of the kedoshim in prisons by the authority I received from the ruling kohanim, but I cast my vote against them when they were being condemned to death. [11] I tried to cause them to blaspheme by punishing them often in the synagogues. In furious rage against them, I persecuted them even in foreign cities.
[12] “While journeying to Damascus with the authority and commission of the ruling kohanim, [13] at midday, O King, I saw on the road a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those traveling with me. [14] When we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic,

‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against goads!’

15 “Then I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“And the Lord said, ‘I am Yeshua—whom you are persecuting. 16 But get up, and stand on your feet.[119] For I have appeared to you for this purpose—to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things you have seen as well as to the things I will yet reveal to you. 17 I will rescue you[120] from your own people, and from the Gentiles to whom I am sending you, 18 to open their eyes—so they may turn from darkness to light[121] and from the power of satan to God, that they may receive release from sins as well as a place among those who are made holy through trusting in Me.’

19 “Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. 20 Rather, I kept declaring—first to those in Damascus, and then Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also the Gentiles—that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds consistent with that repentance.

21 “For this reason some Judeans seized me in the Temple and tried to put me to death. 22 Since I have had God’s help, to this day I have stood here testifying to both small and great. I am saying nothing but what the Prophets and Moses said was going to happen—23 that the Messiah was to suffer and that, being first to rise from the dead, He would proclaim light both to our people and to the nations.[122]”

24 As Paul was thus making his defense, Festus says with a loud voice, “You’re crazy, Paul! Your great learning is driving you insane!”

25 But Paul declares, “I am not insane, most noble Festus! Rather I am speaking the sober truth. 26 For the king knows about these things, and I speak freely to him, since I am convinced that none of these things escape his notice—for this was not done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you do believe!”

28 Agrippa said to Paul, “In a short time you are trying to persuade me to be Messianic!”[123]

[29] And Paul said, “Whether short or long, I would pray to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today would be such as I am—except for these chains!” [30] Then the king stood up, as well as the governor, Bernice, and those sitting with them. [31] When they had gone away, they began talking among themselves, saying, “This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains.” [32] Then Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free, if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

Sailing for Rome

Acts 27 [1] When it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they handed Paul and some other prisoners over to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan Cohort. [2] So we boarded a ship from Adramyttium, which was about to sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, and we set out to sea—accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.
[3] The next day we set down at Sidon. Julius, treating Paul kindly, let him go to his friends to receive care. [4] Setting out to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were against us. [5] When we had sailed across the open sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came down to Myra in Lysia. [6] There the centurion found a ship from Alexandria sailing for Italy and put us on board.
[7] Sailing slowly for a number of days, with difficulty we made it to Cnidus. As the wind did not allow us to go further, we sailed under the shelter of Crete, off Salmone. [8] Coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.
[9] Since considerable time had passed and the voyage was already dangerous because the Fast[124] had already gone by, Paul kept warning them, [10] telling them, “Men, I can see that the voyage is about to end in disaster and great loss—not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives!” [11] But the centurion was persuaded more by the pilot and the captain of the ship than by what was said by Paul. [12] And because the harbor was unsuitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to set out to sea from there—if somehow they might reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete facing northeast and southeast, and spend the winter there.

Storm and Shipwreck

13 When the south wind blew gently, supposing they had obtained their purpose, they raised the anchor and started coasting along the shore by Crete. 14 But before long, a hurricane-force wind called “the Northeaster” swept down from the island. 15 When the ship was caught and could not face into the wind, we gave way to it and were driven along. 16 As we ran under the shelter of a small island called Cauda, we were barely able to get control of the dinghy. 17 When the crew had hoisted it up, they made use of ropes to undergird the ship.
Then fearing they might run aground on the Syrtis,[125] they let down the anchor and so were driven along. 18 But as we were violently battered by the storm, the next day they began throwing cargo overboard. 19 On the third day, they threw out the ship’s gear with their own hands. 20 With neither sun nor stars appearing for many days, and no small storm pressing on us, all hope of our survival was vanishing.

21 As they had long been without food, Paul stood up in their midst and said, “Men, you should have listened to me and not sailed from Crete, to avoid this disaster and loss. 22 Yet now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you—but only of the ship. 23 For this very night, there came to me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve.
24 He said, ‘Do not fear, Paul. You must stand before Caesar; and indeed, God has granted you all who are sailing with you.’
25 So take heart, men, for I trust God that it will be exactly as I have been told. 26 But we must run aground on some island.”

27 Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were drifting across the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to sense that they were nearing some land. 28 So they took soundings and found the water was twenty fathoms deep.
[126] A bit farther along, they took another sounding and found it was fifteen fathoms deep. 29 Fearing that we might run aground on the rocks, they threw out four anchors from the stern. They were longing for day to come.

[30] Now the sailors were trying to escape from the ship and had lowered the dinghy into the sea, pretending they were going to put out anchors from the bow. [31] Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men remain on the ship, you cannot be saved!”
[32] Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the dinghy and let it drift away. [33] As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day that you have kept waiting and going without food, having taken nothing. [34] Therefore, I urge you to take some food—for this is for your survival, since not one of you will lose a hair from his head.”
[35] And when he had said these things, he took bread, gave thanks to God before them all, broke it, and began to eat.
[36] Then all were encouraged and took some food themselves.
[37] (In all we were 276 persons on the ship.)
[38] When they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship, throwing the wheat into the sea. [39] Then when daylight came, they did not recognize the land; but they noticed a bay with a beach, where they planned to run the ship aground if they could. [40] So they cut off the anchors and left them in the sea, while loosening the ropes of the rudders at the same time.
Then, hoisting the forward sail to the wind, they made for the beach. [41] But they struck a sandbar between the seas and ran the ship aground. The bow stuck fast and remained immovable, and the stern began to break up by the pounding of the waves.
[42] The plan of the soldiers was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would escape by swimming away. [43] But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those able to swim to throw themselves overboard first and get to land—[44] and the rest to get there on boards and pieces of the ship. And in this way all were brought safely to land.

From Malta to Rome

Acts 28 1 Once safely ashore, we learned that the island was called Malta. 2 The natives showed us unusual kindness.
Because it had started raining and it was cold, they kindled a fire and welcomed us all.
3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of brushwood and placed it on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened on his hand. 4 When the natives saw the snake hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, “No doubt this man is a murderer! Though he has been saved from the sea, Justice[127] has not allowed him to live.”
5 However, Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm. 6 They were expecting him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead—but after they waited a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and began to say he was a god.
7 Now in the vicinity around that place were lands belonging to the most prominent man of the island, named Publius. He welcomed us and hosted us warmly for three days. 8 It so happened that the father of Publius was lying in bed sick with a fever and dysentery. Paul visited him and, when he had prayed and laid hands on him, he healed him. 9 After this happened, the rest of the sick on the island started coming and getting healed. 10 They also heaped honors on us; and when we sailed,
they put on board all the supplies we needed.
11 After three months, we set sail in a ship from Alexandria that had wintered at the island, with the Twin Brothers[128] as its figurehead. 12 Setting down at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. 13 From there we got underway[129] and reached Rhegium; and a day later a south wind came up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli. 14 There we found some brothers and sisters, and we were invited to stay with them for seven days. And in this way we came to Rome.
15 Now the brothers there, when they heard about us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he gave thanks to God and took courage. 16 When we entered Rome, Paul was permitted to remain in his own quarters, with a soldier guarding him.

Paul Keeps Spreading the Good News

17 It happened that after three days, Paul called together those who were the prominent Jewish leaders. When they had gathered he said to them, “Brothers, although I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. 18 When they examined me, they wanted to release me because there was no basis for the death penalty. 19 But when the Judean leaders protested, I was forced to appeal to Caesar —not that I had any charge to bring against my own nation. 20 For this reason, therefore, I have requested to see you and to speak with you—since it is for the hope of Israel that I am bearing this chain.”

21 They said to him, “We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers coming here has reported or spoken any evil about you. 22 But we think it appropriate to hear from you about what you think. For indeed, it is known to us that regarding this sect, it is spoken against everywhere.”

23 They set a day to meet Paul and came to him at his quarters in large numbers. From morning until evening he was explaining everything to them, testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them about Yeshua from both the Torah of Moses and the Prophets. 24 Some were convinced by what he said, while others refused to believe. 25 So when they disagreed among themselves, they began leaving after Paul had said one last statement: “The Ruach ha-Kodesh rightly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers, 26 saying,

> ‘Go to this people and say,
> “You will keep on hearing but will never
> understand;
> you will keep looking, but will never see.

27 For the heart of this people has become dull,
their ears can barely hear,
and they have shut their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
and understand with their hearts.
Then they would turn back,
and I would heal them.”’[130]

28 Therefore let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!” 29 [131]
30 Paul remained two whole years in his own rented quarters and continued to welcome all who came to him—31 proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Yeshua the Messiah with all boldness and without hindrance.

Introducing Paul and His Message

Romans 1 [1] Paul, a slave of Messiah Yeshua, called to be an emissary and set apart for the Good News of God, [2] which He announced beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures.
[3] Concerning His Son,

He came into being

from the seed of David
according to the flesh.
4 He was appointed Ben-Elohim

in power
according to the Ruach of holiness,
by the resurrection from the dead.
He is Messiah Yeshua our Lord.
5 Through Him we have received grace and the office of emissary, to bring about obedience of faith among all the nations on behalf of His name. 6 And you also are called to Yeshua the Messiah.
7 To all those in Rome, loved by God, called to be kedoshim:
Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord
Yeshua the Messiah!

Eager to Visit

8 First, I thank my God through Messiah Yeshua for all of you, because your faithfulness is made known throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the Good News of His Son. How unceasingly I make mention of you, 10 always pleading in my prayers, if somehow by God's will now at last I will be granted a good journey to come to you.
11 For I long to see you, so I may share with you some spiritual gift to strengthen you. 12 That is to say, we would be encouraged together by one another's faithfulness—both yours and mine.
13 I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters,[1] that many times I planned to come to you (though I was prevented until now)—so I might have some fruit among you also, just as I have among the rest of the nations. 14 I have an obligation to both Greeks and barbarians, to both the wise and the foolish. 15 So I am eager to proclaim the Good News also to you who are in Rome.

The Righteous Shall Live by Faith

16 For I am not ashamed of the Good News, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who trusts—to the Jew first and also to the Greek. 17 In it the righteousness of God is revealed, from trust to trust.[2] As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by emunah."[3]

Yet All Are Guilty

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men. In unrighteousness they suppress the truth, 19 because what can be known about God is plain to them—for God has shown it to them. 20 His invisible attributes—His eternal power and His divine nature—have been clearly seen ever since the creation of the world, being understood through the things that have been made.[4] So people are without excuse—21 for even though they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God or give Him thanks. Instead, their thinking became futile, and their senseless hearts were made dark.[5] 22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools. 23 They exchanged the glory of the immortal God for an image in the form of mortal man and birds and four-footed beasts and creeping things.[6]

24 Therefore God gave them over in the evil desires of their hearts to impurity, to dishonor their bodies with one another.
25 They traded the truth of God for a lie and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. 26 For this reason God gave them up to shameful passions. Even their women exchanged natural relations for what is against nature. 27 Likewise the men abandoned natural relations with women and were burning with passion toward one another—men committing shameful acts with other men[7]
and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

28 And just as they did not see fit to recognize God, God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what is not fitting. 29 They became filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil.
They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice. They are gossips, 30 slanderers, God-haters, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents. 31 They are foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. 32 Though they know God’s righteous decree—that those who practice such things deserve death—they not only do them but also approve of others who practice the same.

God’s Judgment on Unrighteousness

Romans 2 1 Therefore you are without excuse, O man—every one of you who is judging. For by whatever you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things.
[8] 2 We know that God’s judgment on those who practice such things is based on truth. 3 But you, O man—judging those practicing such things yet doing the same—do you suppose that you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you belittle the riches of His kindness and tolerance and patience—not realizing that God’s kindness leads you to repentance?

5 But by your hard and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath, when God’s righteous judgment is revealed.[9] 6 He will pay back each person according to his deeds.[10] 7 To those who by perseverance in doing good are seeking glory, honor, and immortality—eternal life. 8 But to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness—wrath and fury. 9 There will be trouble and hardship for every human soul that does evil—to the Jew first and also to the Greek. 10 But there will be glory, honor, and shalom to everyone who does good—to the Jew first and also to the Greek. 11 For there is no partiality with God.[11]

12 For all who have sinned outside of Torah will also perish outside of Torah, and all who have sinned according to Torah will be judged by Torah. 13 For it is not the hearers of Torah who are righteous before God; rather, it is the doers of Torah who will be justified. 14 For when Gentiles, who do not have the Torah, do by nature the things of the Torah, they are a law to themselves even though they do not have the Torah. 15 They show that the work of the Torah is written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts switching between accusing or defending them 16 on the day when God judges the secrets of men according to my Good News through Messiah Yeshua.

Jewish People Fall Short Too [17] But if you call yourself Jewish and rely upon the Torah and boast in God [18] and know His will and determine what matters because you are instructed from the Torah —[19] and you are sure that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, [20] a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Torah the embodiment of knowledge and the truth— [21] you then who teach another, do you not teach yourself?

You who preach not to steal, do you steal?

[22] You who say not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery?

You who detest idols, do you rob temples?

[23] You who take pride in the Torah, through your violation of the Torah, do you dishonor God?

[24] For as it is written, “the name of God is slandered among the nations because of you.”[12]

[25] Circumcision is indeed worthwhile if you keep the Torah; but if you break the Torah, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.[13] [26] Therefore, if the uncircumcised keeps the righteous decrees of the Torah, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?[14] [27] Indeed, the one not circumcised physically who fulfills the Torah will judge you[15] who—even with the written code[16] and circumcision—break the Torah. [28] For one is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision something visible in the flesh. [29] Rather, the Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart—in Spirit not in letter. His praise is not from men, but from God.[17]

No One Is Acceptable

Romans 3 [1] Then what is the advantage of being Jewish? Or what is the benefit of circumcision? [2] Much in every way. First of all, they were entrusted with the sayings of God. [3] So what if some did not trust? Will their lack of faith nullify God's faithfulness?
[4] May it never be! Let God be true even if every man is a liar, as it is written,

> "that You may be righteous in Your words
> and prevail when You are judged."[18]

[5] But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? God is not unrighteous to inflict wrath, is He? (I am speaking in human terms.) [6] May it never be! For otherwise, how will God judge the world? [7] But if by my lie the truth of God abounds to His glory, why am I still judged as a sinner? [8] And why not say, "Let us do evil, so that good may come"—just as we are being slandered and as some claim that we say. Their condemnation is deserved!
[9] What then? Are we better than they? No, not at all.[19] For we have already made the case that all—both Jewish and Greek people—are under sin. [10] As it is written,

> "There is no one righteous—no, not one.
> [11] There is no one who understands,
> no one who seeks after God.
> [12] All have turned aside;
> together they have become worthless.
> There is no one who does good—no, not even one!
> [13] Their throat is an open grave;
> with their tongues they keep deceiving.
> The poison of vipers is under their lips.
> [14] Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.
> [15] Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Ruin and misery are in their paths,
17 and the way of shalom they have not known.
18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.”[20]

19 Now we know that whatever the Torah says, it says to those within the Torah, so that every mouth may be shut and the whole world may become accountable to God. 20 For no human, on the basis of Torah observance, will be set right in His sight[21]—for through the Torah comes awareness of sin.

How God Accepts Us

21 But now God’s righteousness apart from the Torah has been revealed, to which the Torah and the Prophets bear witness—22 namely, the righteousness of God through putting trust in Messiah Yeshua,[22] to all who keep on trusting. For there is no distinction, 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. 24 They are set right as a gift of His grace, through the redemption that is in Messiah Yeshua.[23] 25 God set forth Yeshua as an atonement,[24] through faith in His blood, to show
His righteousness in passing over sins already committed.
26 Through God’s forbearance, He demonstrates His righteousness at the present time—that He Himself is just and also the justifier of the one who puts his trust in Yeshua.[25]

27 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. By what principle?
Of works? No, but by the principle of faith.[26] 28 For we consider a person to be set right apart from Torah observance. 29 Is God the God of the Jewish people only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also. 30 Since God is One, He will set right the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. 31 Do we then nullify the Torah through faithfulness? May it never be! On the contrary, we uphold the Torah.

Abraham Set Right by Faith

Romans 4 [1] What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has found? [2] For if Abraham was set right by works, he has something to boast about—but not before God. [3] For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”[27] [4] Now to the one who works, the pay is not credited as a gift, but as what is due. [5] But to the one who does not work, but trusts in Him who justifies the ungodly, his trust is credited as righteousness—[6] just as David also speaks of the blessing on the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:
[7] “Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven and whose sins are covered.
[8] Blessed is the man whose sin ADONAI will never count against him.”[28]

[9] Is this blessing then only on the circumcised, or also on the uncircumcised? For we say, “trust was credited to Abraham as righteousness.”[29]
[10] In what state then was it credited? While circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised! [11] And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of the trust he had while he was uncircumcised, so he might be the father of all who are trusting while uncircumcised—that righteousness might be credited to them as well. [12] Also he is the father of the circumcised, to those not only circumcised but also walking in the footsteps of the trust of our father Abraham before his circumcision.[30]

Trusting in the Promise

13 For the promise to Abraham or to his seed—to become heir of the world—was not through law, but through the righteousness based on trust. 14 For if those who are of the Torah are heirs, trust has become empty and the promise is made ineffective. 15 For the Torah brings about wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there a violation.

16 For this reason it depends on trust, so that the promise
according to grace might be guaranteed to all the offspring—not only to those of the Torah but also to those of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all 17 (as it is written, “I have made you a father of many nations”[31]). He is our father in the sight of God in whom he trusted, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence that which does not exist. 18 In hope beyond hope, he trusted that he would become the father of many nations according to what was spoken—“So shall your descendants be.”[32] 19 And without becoming weak in faith, he considered his own body—as good as dead, since he was already a hundred years old—and the deadness of Sarah’s womb. 20 Yet he did not waver in unbelief concerning the promise of God. Rather, he was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God. 21 He was fully convinced that what God has promised, He also is able to do.[33] 22 That is why “it was credited to him as righteousness.”[34]

23 Now not only for his sake was it written that it was credited to him, 24 but for our sake as well. It is credited to us as those who trust in Him who raised Yeshua our Lord from the dead.
25 He was handed over for our transgressions and raised up for the sake of setting us right.[35]

Shalom with God through Messiah

Romans 5 1 Therefore, having been made righteous by trusting, we have shalom with God through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.[36] 2 Through Him we also have gained access by faith into this grace in which we stand and boast in the hope of God’s glory. 3 And not only that, but we also boast in suffering—knowing that suffering produces perseverance; 4 and perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5 And hope does not disappoint, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Ruach ha-Kodesh who was given to us.
6 For while we were still helpless, at the right time Messiah died for the ungodly. 7 For rarely will anyone die for a righteous man—though perhaps for a good man someone might even dare to die. 8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Messiah died for us. 9 How much more then, having now been set right by His blood, shall we be saved from God’s wrath through Him. 10 For if, while we were yet enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved by His life. 11 And not only that, but we also boast in God through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Yet Sin Reigns through Death

12 So then, just as sin came into the world through one man and death through sin, in the same way death spread to all men because all sinned. 13 For up until the Torah, sin was in the world; but sin does not count as sin when there is no law.
14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in a manner similar to the violation of Adam, who is a pattern of the One to come.

15 But the gracious gift is not like the transgression. For if many died because of the transgression of one man, how much more did the grace of God overflow to many through the gift of one Man—Yeshua the Messiah. 16 Moreover, the gift is not like what happened through the one who sinned. For on the one hand, the judgment from one violation resulted in condemnation; but on the other hand, the gracious gift following many transgressions resulted in justification.[37] 17 For if by the one man's transgression, death reigned through the one,[38] how much more shall those who receive the overflow of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the One, Messiah Yeshua.

18 So then, through the transgression of one, condemnation came to all men; likewise, through the righteousness of one came righteousness of life to all men. 19 For just as through the disobedience of one man, many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of one man, many will be set right
forever.[39]

20 Now the Torah came in so that transgression might increase. But where sin increased, grace overflowed even more —21 so that just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness, to eternal life through Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

Who Is Your Master?

Romans 6 [1] What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin so that grace may abound? [2] May it never be! How can we who died to sin still live in it? [3] Or do you not know that all of us who were immersed into Messiah Yeshua were immersed into His death? [4] Therefore we were buried together with Him through immersion into death—in order that just as Messiah was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

[5] For if we have become joined together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also will be joined together in His resurrection—[6] knowing our old man was crucified with Him so that the sinful body might be done away with, so we no longer serve sin. [7] For he who has died is set free from sin.

[8] Now if we have died with Messiah, we believe that we shall also live with Him. [9] We know that Messiah, having been raised from the dead, no longer dies; death no longer is master over Him. [10] For the death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God. [11] So also continually count yourselves both dead to sin and alive to God in Messiah Yeshua.

[12] Therefore do not let sin rule in your mortal body so that you obey its desires. [13] And do not keep yielding your body parts to sin as tools of wickedness; but yield yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your body parts as tools of righteousness to God. [14] For sin shall not be master over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

[15] What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? May it never be! [16] Do you not know that to whatever you yield yourselves as slaves for obedience, you are slaves to what you obey—whether to sin resulting in death, or to obedience resulting in righteousness? [17] But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching under which you were placed;

18 and after you were set free from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.
19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you yielded your body parts as slaves to uncleanness and lawlessness, leading to more lawlessness, so now yield your body parts as slaves to righteousness, resulting in holiness. 20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with regard to righteousness. 21 So then, what outcome did you have that you are now ashamed of? For the end of those things is death. 22 But now, having been set free from sin and having become enslaved to God, you have your fruit resulting in holiness. And the outcome is eternal life. 23 For sin's payment[40] is death, but God's gracious gift is eternal life in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

Two Laws at War

Romans 7 1 Or do you not know, brothers and sisters (for I speak to those who know law), that the law is master over a person as long as he lives? 2 For the married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives; but if the husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband. 3 So then, if she is joined to another man while her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from the law—so she is not an adulteress, though she is joined to another man.

4 Therefore, my brothers and sisters, you also were made dead to the Torah through the body of Messiah, so that you might be joined to another—the One who was raised from the dead—in order that we might bear fruit for God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions that came through the Torah were working in our body parts to bear fruit for death.
6 But now we have been released from the law, having died to what confined us, so that we serve in the new way of the Ruach and not in the old way of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Torah sin? May it never be!
On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the Torah. For I would not have known about coveting if the Torah had not said, "You shall not covet."[41] 8 But sin, taking an opportunity, worked in me through the commandment all kinds of coveting. For apart from the Torah, sin is dead.

9 Once I was alive apart from the Torah; but when the commandment came, sin came to life 10 and I died. The commandment meant for life was found to cause death.[42] 11 Sin, taking an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me.[43] 12 So then, the Torah is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

13 Therefore did that which is good become death to me? May it never be! Rather it was sin working death in me—through that which is good—so that sin might be shown to be sin, and that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful. 14 For we know that the Torah is spiritual; but I am of the flesh, sold to sin. 15 For I do not understand what I am doing—for what I do not want, this I practice; but what I hate, this I do. 16 But if I do what I do not want to do, then I agree with the Torah—that it is good.

17 So now it is no longer I doing it, but sin dwelling in me.
18 For I know that nothing good dwells in me—that is, in my flesh. For to will is present in me, but to do the good is not.
19 For the good that I want, I do not do; but the evil that I do not want, this I practice. 20 But if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I doing it, but sin that dwells in me.
21 So I find the principle—that evil is present in me, the one who wants to do good. 22 For I delight in the Torah of God with respect to the inner man, 23 but I see a different law in my body parts, battling against the law of my mind and bringing me into bondage under the law of sin which is in my body parts.
24 Miserable man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? 25 Thanks be to God—it is through Messiah Yeshua our Lord![44] So then, with my mind I myself serve the Torah of God; but with my flesh, I serve the law of sin.

Life in the Spirit

Romans 8 1 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Messiah Yeshua. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Messiah Yeshua has set you free from the law of sin and death.
3 For what was impossible for the Torah—since it was weakened on account of the flesh—God has done. Sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as a sin offering, He condemned sin in the flesh—4 so that the requirement of the Torah might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Ruach.

5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Ruach set their minds on the things of the Ruach. 6 For the mindset of the flesh is death, but the mindset of the Ruach is life and shalom. 7 For the mindset of the flesh is hostile toward God, for it does not submit itself to the law of God—for it cannot. 8 So those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 However, you are not in the flesh but in the Ruach—if indeed the Ruach Elohim dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Ruach of Messiah, he does not belong to Him. 10 But if Messiah is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the Spirit is alive because of righteousness. 11 And if the Ruach of the One who raised Yeshua from the dead dwells in you, the One who raised Messiah Yeshua from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Ruach who dwells in you.

12 So then, brothers and sisters, we do not owe anything to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. 13 For if you live according to the flesh, you must die; but if by the Ruach you put to death the deeds of the body, you shall live. 14 For all who are led by the Ruach Elohim, these are sons of God. 15 For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall again into fear;
rather, you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!” 16 The Ruach Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.[45] 17 And if children, also heirs—heirs of God and joint-heirs with Messiah—if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

The Coming Glory

18 For I consider the sufferings of this present time not worthy to be compared with the coming glory to be revealed to us. 19 For the creation eagerly awaits the revelation of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility[46]—not willingly but because of the One who subjected it[47]—in hope 21 that the creation itself also will be set free from bondage to decay into the glorious freedom of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans together and suffers birth pains until now—23 and not only creation, but even ourselves. We ourselves, who have the firstfruits[48] of the Ruach, groan inwardly as we eagerly wait for adoption—the redemption of our body.

24 For in hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, then we eagerly wait for it with perseverance. 26 In the same way, the Ruach helps in our weakness. For we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Ruach Himself intercedes for us with groans too deep for words. 27 And He who searches the hearts[49] knows the mind of the Ruach, because He intercedes for the kedoshim according to the will of God.

28 Now we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to His purpose.
29 For those whom He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. 30 And those whom He predestined, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified; and those whom He justified, He also glorified.

31 What then shall we say in view of these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?[50] 32 He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how shall He not also with Him freely give us all things? 33 Who shall bring a charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies.[51] 34 Who is the one who condemns? It is Messiah,[52] who died, and moreover was raised,[53] and is now at the right hand of God and who also intercedes for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Messiah? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? 36 As it is written,

> “For Your sake we are being put to death all day long;
> we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.”[54]

37 But in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

The Role of Israel

Romans 9 1 I tell the truth in Messiah—I do not lie, my conscience assuring me in the Ruach ha-Kodesh—2 that my sorrow is great and the anguish in my heart unending. 3 For I would pray that I myself were cursed, banished from Messiah for the sake of my people—my own flesh and blood,[55] 4 who are Israelites. To them belong the adoption[56] and the glory[57] and the covenants and the giving of the Torah[58] and the Temple service[59] and the promises. 5 To them belong the patriarchs—and from them, according to the flesh, the Messiah, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

6 But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all those who are descended from Israel are Israel, 7 nor are they all children because they are Abraham's seed; rather,
"Your seed shall be called through Isaac."[60] 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God; rather, the children of the promise are counted as seed. 9 For the word of promise is this: "At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son."[61] 10 And not only this, but also Rebecca having twins, from one act with our father Isaac. 11 Yet before the sons were even born and had not done anything good or bad—so that God's purpose and choice might stand not because of works but because of Him who calls—12 it was said to her, "The older shall serve the younger."[62] 13 As it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."[63]

14 What shall we say then? There is no injustice with God, is there? May it never be! 15 For to Moses He says,

"I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."[64]

16 So then it does not depend on the one who wills or the one who strives, but on God who shows mercy. 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I raised you up—to demonstrate My power in you, so My name might be proclaimed in all the earth."[65] 18 So then He has mercy on whom He wills, and He hardens whom He wills.

19 You will say to me then, “Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?” 20 But who in the world are you, O man, who talks back to God? Will what is formed say to the one who formed it, “Why did you make me like this?”[66] 21 Does the potter have no right over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel for honor and another for common use? 22 Now what if God, willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath designed for destruction? 23 And what if He did so to make known the riches of His glory on vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory?
24 Even us He called—not only from the Jewish people, but also from the Gentiles—25 as He says also in Hosea,

“I will call those who were not My people,
‘My people,’
and her who was not loved, ‘Beloved.’
26 And it shall be that in the place where it was said to
them,
‘You are not My people,’
there they shall be called sons of the living God.”[67]

27 Isaiah cries out concerning Israel,

“Though the number of B’nei-Israel be as the sand of the sea,
only the remnant shall be saved.
28 For ADONAI will carry out His word upon the earth,
bringing it to an end and finishing quickly.”[68]

29 And just as Isaiah foretold, “Unless ADONAI-Tzva’ot had left us seed, we would have become like Sodom and resembled Gomorrah.”[69]

[30] What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained righteousness—that is, a righteousness of faith. [31] But Israel, who pursued a Torah of righteousness, did not reach the Torah. [32] Why? Because they pursued it not by faith, but as if it were from works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling, [33] just as it is written,

“Behold, I lay in Zion

a stone of stumbling
and a rock of offense,

and whoever believes in Him shall not be put to shame.”[70]

Misdirected Zeal

Romans 10 1 Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation. 2 For I testify about them that they have zeal for God—but not based on knowledge. 3 For being ignorant of God's righteousness and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For Messiah is the goal[71] of the Torah as a means to righteousness for everyone who keeps trusting.
5 For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on Torah, "The man who does these things shall live by them."[72]
6 But the righteousness based on faith speaks in this way:

"Do not say in your heart,[73]
'Who will go up into heaven?'[74]
(that is, to bring Messiah down),
7 or, 'Who will go down into the abyss?'[75]
(that is, to bring Messiah up from the dead)."
8 But what does it say?

"The word is near you,
in your mouth and in your heart"[76]
—that is, the word of faith
that we are proclaiming:
9 For if you confess with your mouth
that Yeshua is Lord,

and believe in your heart
that God raised Him from the dead,
you will be saved.
10 For with the heart it is believed for righteousness,
and with the mouth it is confessed for salvation.

11 For the Scripture says, “Whoever trusts in Him will not be put to shame.”[77] 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord is Lord of all—richly generous to all who call on Him. 13 For “Everyone who calls upon the name of ADONAI shall be saved.”[78]
14 How then shall they call on the One in whom they have not trusted? And how shall they trust in the One they have not heard of? And how shall they hear without someone proclaiming? 15 And how shall they proclaim unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim good news of good things!”[79] 16 But not all heeded the Good News. For Isaiah says, “ADONAI, who has believed our report?”[80] 17 So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Messiah.
18 But I say, have they never heard? Indeed they have, for “Their voice has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”[81]

19 But I say, did Israel not understand? First Moses says, “I will provoke you to jealousy
by those who are not a nation,
with a nation empty of understanding
I will vex you.”[82]
20 And Isaiah is so bold as to say,
“I was found by those who did not seek Me;
I became visible to those who did not ask for Me.”[83]
21 But about Israel He says,
“All day long I stretched forth My hands to a disobedient and contrary people.”[84]

Israel Not Rejected

Romans 11 1 I say then, God has not rejected His people, has He?[85] May it never be! For I too am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God has not rejected His people whom He knew beforehand.[86] Or do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? 3 "ADONAI, they have killed your prophets, they have destroyed your altars; I alone am left, and they are seeking my life."[87] 4 But what is the divine response to him? "I have kept for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."[88] 5 So in the same way also at this present time there has come to be a remnant[89] according to God's gracious choice. 6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer by works;
otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

7 What then? What Israel is seeking, it has not obtained; but the elect obtained it, and the rest were hardened—8 just as it is written,

> "God gave them a spirit of stupor,
> eyes not to see and ears not to hear,
> until this very day."[90]

9 And David says,

> "Let their table become a snare and a trap,
> a stumbling block and a retribution for them.
> 10 Let their eyes be darkened so they do not see,
> and bend their back continually."[91]

11 I say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they?[92]
May it never be! But by their false step salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke Israel to jealousy.[93] 12 Now if their transgression leads to riches for the world, and their loss riches for the Gentiles, then how much more their fullness!
13 But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Insofar as I am an emissary to the Gentiles, I spotlight my ministry 14 if somehow I might provoke to jealousy my own flesh and blood[94] and save some of them. 15 For if their rejection leads to the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

16 If the firstfruit is holy, so is the whole batch of dough;[95] and if the root is holy, so are the branches. 17 But if some of the branches were broken off and you—being a wild olive—were grafted in among them and became a partaker of the root of the olive tree with its richness,[96] 18 do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, it is not you who support the root but the root supports you. 19 You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.” 20 True enough. They were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but fear—21 for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you. 22 Notice then the kindness and severity of God:

severity toward those who fell;
but God’s kindness toward you,
if you continue in His kindness;
otherwise you too will be cut off!

23 And they also,
if they do not continue in their unbelief,
will be grafted in;
for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if you were cut out of that which by nature is a wild olive tree, and grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

The Mystery Revealed!

25 For I do not want you, brothers and sisters, to be ignorant of this mystery—lest you be wise in your own eyes[97]—that a partial hardening has come upon Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in;[98] 26 and in this way[99] all Israel will be saved, as it is written,

“The Deliverer shall come out of Zion.
He shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.
27 And this is My covenant with them,[100]
when I take away their sins.”[101]

28 Concerning the Good News, they are hostile for your sake;
but concerning chosenness, they are loved on account of the fathers[102]—29 for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.[103] 30 For just as you once were disobedient to God but now have been shown mercy because of their disobedience, 31 in like manner these also have now been disobedient with the result that, because of the mercy shown to you, they also may receive mercy. 32 For God has shut up all in disobedience, so that He might show mercy to all.

33 O the depth of the riches,
both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!

How unsearchable are His judgments
and how incomprehensible His ways!
34 For “who has known the mind of Adonai, or who has been His counselor?”[104] 35 Or “who has first given to Him, that it shall be repaid to him?”[105]

36 For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things.
To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

Be Dead to Self

Romans 12 1 I urge you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice—holy, acceptable to God—which is your spiritual service. 2 Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

3 For through the grace given me, I say to everyone among you not to think more highly of yourself than you ought to think
—but to use sound judgment, as God has assigned to each person a measure of faith. 4 For just as we have many parts in one body—and all the parts do not have the same function—5 so we, who are many, are one body in Messiah and everyone parts of one another. 6 We have gifts that differ according to the grace that was given to us—if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; 7 if service, in our serving; or the one who teaches, in his teaching; 8 or the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who gives, in generosity; the one who leads, with diligence; the one who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without hypocrisy—detesting what is evil, holding fast to the good. 10 Be tenderly devoted to one another in brotherly love; outdo one another in giving honor. 11 Do not be lagging in zeal; be fervent in spirit. Keep serving the Lord, 12 rejoicing in hope, enduring in distress, persisting in prayer, 13 contributing to the needs of the kedoshim, extending hospitality.

14 Bless those who persecute you—bless and do not curse.
15 Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep.
[106] 16 Live in harmony with one another; do not be proud, but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own eyes.[107] 17 Repay no one evil for evil;[108] give thought to what is good in the eyes of all people. 18 If possible, so far as it depends on you, live in shalom with all people. 19 Never take your own revenge, loved ones, but give room for God's wrath—for it is written,
"Vengeance is Mine; I will repay,"[109] says ADONAI. 20 Rather, "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink. For by doing so you will heap coals of fire upon his head.”[110] 21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Respecting Authority

Romans 13 1 Let every person submit himself to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are put in place by God.[111] 2 So whoever opposes the authority has resisted God's direction, and those who have resisted will bring judgment on themselves. 3 For leaders cause no fear for good behavior, but for bad. Now if you do not want to fear the authority, do what is good and you will get his approval—4 for he is God's servant to you for your good. But if you do evil, be afraid—for he does not carry the sword for no reason; for he is God's servant, an avenger who inflicts punishment on the evildoer. 5 Therefore it is necessary to be in submission—not only because of punishment but also because of conscience. 6 For this reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, attending diligently to this very thing. 7 Pay to everyone what is due them—tribute to whom tribute is due; tax to whom tax is due; respect to whom respect is due; honor to whom honor is due.

8 Owe no one anything except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the Torah. 9 For the commandments—"You shall not commit adultery, you shall not murder, you shall not steal, you shall not covet,"[112] and any other commandment—are summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."[113] 10 Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fullness of the Torah.

11 Besides this, you know the time—that it is already the hour for you to awaken from sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first came to trust. 12 The night is almost gone and the day is near, so let us put off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. 13 Let us walk properly as in the day—
not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and sensuality, not in strife and envy. 14 Instead, put on the Lord Messiah Yeshua, and stop making provision for the flesh—for its cravings.

Unity in Community

Romans 14 1 Now accept the one who is weak in faith, but not for the purpose of disputes about opinions. 2 One person has faith to eat anything, but the weak eats only vegetables. 3 Don't let the one who eats disparage the one who does not eat, and don't let the one who does not eat judge the one who eats, for God has accepted him. 4 Who are you to judge another's servant?
Before his own master he stands or falls. Yes, he shall stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.
5 One person esteems one day over another while another judges every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. 6 The one who observes that day does so to the Lord. The one who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and the one who abstains, abstains to the Lord, and he gives thanks to God. 7 For none of us lives for himself, and none dies for himself. 8 For if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. 9 For this reason Messiah died and lived again, so that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living.
10 But you, why do you judge your brother?[114] Or you too, why do you look down on your brother? For we all will stand before the judgment seat of God.[115] 11 For it is written,

> "As I live, says ADONAI,
> every knee shall bow to Me,
> and every tongue shall give praise to God."[116]

12 So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God.
13 Therefore let us not judge one another from now on, but rather decide this—not to put a stumbling block or a trap in the way of a brother. 14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Yeshua, that nothing is unholy in itself; but it is unholy for the one who considers it unholy.[117] 15 For if your brother is grieved on account of food, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy by your food the one for whom Messiah died. 16 Therefore do not let what is good for you be spoken of as evil—17 for the kingdom of God is not about eating and drinking, but righteousness and shalom and joy in the Ruach ha-Kodesh. 18 For the one who serves Messiah in this manner is pleasing to God and approved by men.

19 So then let us pursue what makes for shalom and for the building up of one another.[118] 20 Stop tearing down the work of God for the sake of food. Indeed all things are clean, but wrong for the man who by eating causes stumbling. 21 It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything by which your brother stumbles. 22 The faith you have, keep it to yourself before God.
How fortunate is the one who does not condemn himself for what he approves. 23 But the one who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not of faith. And whatever is not of faith is sin.

Romans 15 1 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the powerless and not just please ourselves.
2 Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, for building him up. 3 For even Messiah did not please Himself, but as it is written, “The insults of those who insulted You have fallen on Me.”[119] 4 For whatever was written before was written for our instruction, so that through patience and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.[120] 5 Now may the God of patience and encouragement grant you to be like-minded with one another in the manner of Messiah Yeshua, 6 so that together with one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Salvation for Gentiles Too

7 Therefore accept one another just as Messiah also accepted you, to the glory of God. 8 For I declare that Messiah has become a servant to the circumcised for the sake of God's truth, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs 9 and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy. As it is written,

> "For this reason I will give You praise among the > Gentiles,
> and I will sing to Your name."[121]

10 And again it says,
"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people."[122]

11 And again,

> "Praise ADONAI all you Gentiles, > and let all the peoples praise Him."[123]

12 And again, Isaiah says,

> "There shall be a shoot of Jesse;
> and the One who arises to rule the Gentiles,
> in Him shall the Gentiles hope."[124]

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and shalom in trusting, so you may overflow with hope in the power of the Ruach ha-Kodesh.
14 Now I myself am convinced about you, my brothers and sisters, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and also able to counsel one another. 15 But I have written rather boldly to you on some points as a reminder—because of the grace given to me by God 16 to be a servant of Messiah Yeshua to the Gentiles, in priestly service to the Good News of God—so that the offering up of the Gentiles might be pleasing,[125] made holy by the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

17 So in Messiah Yeshua, I have reason to boast before God.
18 For I will not dare to speak of anything except what Messiah accomplished through me, to bring about the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed, 19 in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God. So from Jerusalem and around even to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the Good News of Messiah. 20 In this way I make it my aim to proclaim the Good News not where Messiah was already named, lest I build on another person's foundation, 21 but as it is written,

> "Those who have never been told shall see,
> and those who have not heard shall
> understand."[126]

Going to the Ends of the Earth

22 For this reason I was often hindered from coming to you.
23 But now with no place in these regions, and since I have had a desire for many years to come to you, 24 I hope to see you while traveling through when I go to Spain—and to be helped on my journey there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a bit.
25 But now I am going to Jerusalem, bringing aid to the kedoshim. 26 For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the believers in Jerusalem. 27 Yes, they were pleased to do so, and they are under obligation to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual blessings, they also ought to serve them in material blessings. 28 So when I have finished delivering the collection safely to them, I will head for Spain by way of you.
29 Now I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Messiah.
30 Now I urge you, brethren, through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah and through the love of the Ruach, to press on together with me—with prayers to God on my behalf. 31 Pray that I might be rescued from the unbelieving Judeans, and that my service for Jerusalem might be acceptable to the kedoshim.

32 Then, God willing, I may come to you in joy, and together with you find rest.
33 Now may the God of shalom be with you all. Amen.

Welcome the Apostolic Team

Romans 16 1 Now I recommend to you our sister Phoebe—who is a servant-leader of Messiah's community at Cenchrea—2 so you may receive her in the Lord, in a way worthy of kedoshim, and help her in whatever matter she may need from you. For she herself has become a patroness of many, including me as well.
3 Greet Prisca[127] and Aquila, my fellow workers in Messiah Yeshua, 4 who risked their own necks for my life. Not only I give them thanks, but also all of Messiah's communities among the Gentiles. 5 Greet also the community that meets in their house.
Greet Epaenetus whom I dearly love, who is the first fruit in Asia[128] for Messiah.
6 Greet Miriam, who has worked hard for you.
7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, my kin and fellow prisoners who are well known[129] among the emissaries. They were in Messiah before me.
8 Greet Ampliatus, whom I dearly love in the Lord.
9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Messiah, and Stachys whom I dearly love.
10 Greet Apelles, who is approved in Messiah. Greet those from the household of Aristobulus.
11 Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those from the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.
12 Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, workers in the Lord. Greet Persis whom I dearly love, who has worked hard in the Lord.
13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother—who was also a mother to me.
14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters with them.
15 Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, also Olympas and all the kedoshim with them.
16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All of Messiah's communities greet you. 17 Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep your eye on those who are causing divisions and stumbling blocks, contrary to the teaching that you learned.

Turn away from them. 18 For such people do not serve our Lord the Messiah, but only their own belly. By their smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting. 19 Your obedience has become known to all, so I rejoice over you—but I want you to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil. 20 Now the God of shalom will soon crush satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Yeshua be with you.
21 Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kin.
22 I, Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in the Lord.
23 Gaius, host to me and the whole community, greets you.
Erastus, the city treasurer, greets you, and so does brother
Quartus.[130]

Closing Blessing

25 Now to the One who is able to strengthen you according to my Good News and the proclamation of Yeshua the Messiah, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret for long ages 26 but now is revealed and through the Writings of the Prophets has been made known to all the nations, according to the commandment of the eternal God to bring about obedience of faith—27 to the only wise God, through Yeshua the Messiah, to Him be the glory forever. Amen.

Greetings

1 Corinthians 1 [1] Paul, called as an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, [2] To God's community in Corinth—having been made holy in Messiah Yeshua, called as kedoshim—with all who everywhere call on the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, both theirs and ours:
[3] Grace to you and shalom from God our Father, and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

Thanksgiving

4 I always thank my God for you because of God’s grace that was given to you in Messiah Yeshua. 5 For in Him you were made rich in every way—in all speaking and all knowledge
—6 just as the evidence of Messiah was confirmed among you.
7 So you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you eagerly wait for the revealing of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 8 He will also strengthen you until the end—blameless in the Day of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 9 God is faithful,[1] through whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, Yeshua the Messiah our Lord.

Concern about Disunity

10 Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, through the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. 11 For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers and sisters, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are rivalries among you. 12 I say this because you are each saying,
"I follow Paul," or "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Kefa," or "I follow Messiah." 13 Has Messiah been divided? Paul wasn't crucified for you, was he? Or were you immersed into the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I immersed none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, 15 so that no one should say that I had immersed you into my own name. 16 (I also immersed the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't recall if I immersed anyone else.) 17 For Messiah sent me not to immerse, but to proclaim the Good News—not with cleverness of speech, so that the cross of Messiah would not be made of no effect.

Whose Wisdom Is Foolish?

18 For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.
19 For it is written,

> "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise > and bring to nothing the understanding of the > intelligent."[2]

20 Where is the wise one? Where is the Torah scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of the world?[3] 21 For seeing that—in God's wisdom—the world through its wisdom did not know God, God was pleased—through the foolishness of the message proclaimed—to save those who believe. 22 For Jewish people ask for signs and Greek people seek after wisdom, 23 but we proclaim Messiah crucified

—a stumbling block to Jewish people and foolishness to Gentile people, 24 but to those who are called (both Jewish and Greek people), Messiah, the power of God and the wisdom of God.
25 For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For you see your calling, brothers and sisters, that not many are wise according to human standards,[4] not many are powerful, and not many are born well. 27 Yet God chose the foolish things of the world so He might put to shame the wise;
and God chose the weak things of the world so He might put to shame the strong; 28 and God chose the lowly and despised things of the world, the things that are as nothing, so He might bring to nothing the things that are— 29 so that no human might boast before God. 30 But because of Him you are in Messiah Yeshua, who became to us wisdom from God and righteousness and holiness and redemption— 31 so that, just as it is written, “Let him who boasts, boast in ADONAI.”[5]

Wisdom that Rests on God’s Power

1 Corinthians 2 1 When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come with excellence of speech or wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery[6] of God. 2 For I decided not to know about anything among you except Yeshua the Messiah—and Him crucified. 3 I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. 4 My speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power—5 so that your faith would not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.
6 We do speak wisdom, however, among those who are mature—but not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. 7 Rather, we speak God’s wisdom in a mystery—a wisdom that has been hidden, which God destined for our glory before the ages. 8 None of the rulers of this age understood it—for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But as it is written,

> “Things no eye has seen
> and no ear has heard,
> that have not entered the heart of mankind—

these things God has prepared for those who love Him.”[7]
10 But God revealed these things to us through the Ruach.[8]
For the Ruach searches all things—even the depths of God.
11 For who among men knows the things of a man, except the man’s spirit within him? In the same way, no one knows the things of God except the Ruach Elohim. 12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God—so we might come to know the things freely given to us by God. 13 These things we also speak—not in words taught by human wisdom but in words taught by the Ruach, explaining the spiritual to the spiritual.
14 Now a natural man does not accept the things of the Ruach Elohim, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15 But the one who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is discerned by no one. For 16 “who has known the mind of ADONAI, that he will instruct Him?”[9]
But we have the mind of Messiah.

Building Together on God's Foundation

1 Corinthians 3 1 And I, brothers and sisters, could not speak to you as Spirit-filled but as worldly[10]—as infants in Messiah. 2 I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready. Indeed, even now you are not yet ready, 3 for you are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and strife among you, aren't you worldly and walking in a human way? 4 For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not mere humans[11]?

5 What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you came to trust—and to each as the Lord gave. 6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. 7 So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who makes things grow. 8 Now he who plants and he who waters work as one, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's co-workers; you are God's field, God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which was given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each consider carefully how he builds on it. 11 For no one can lay any other foundation than what is already laid[12]—which is Yeshua the Messiah. 12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13 each one's work will become clear. For the Day will show it, because it is to be revealed by fire; and the fire itself will test each one's work—what sort it is. 14 If anyone's work built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. 15 If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss—he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

16 Don't you know that you are God's temple and that the Ruach Elohim dwells among you? 17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a fool so he may become wise.[13] 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the sight of God. For it is written, “He catches the clever in their craftiness.”[14] 20 And again, “The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are useless.”[15] 21 So let no one boast about men. For all things are yours—22 whether Paul or Apollos or Kefa, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come. All are yours, 23 and you are Messiah’s, and Messiah is God’s.

Learning to Imitate Messiah's Emissary

1 Corinthians 4 [1] So let each one think of us in this way—as Messiah's helpers and stewards of the mysteries of God. [2] In this case, moreover, what is required of stewards is to be found trustworthy. [3] But to me it matters very little to be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself.
[4] For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this. It is the Lord who judges me. [5] Therefore do not judge anything before the time—wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light the things hidden in darkness and also make clear the motives of the hearts. Then the praise for each one will come from God.

[6] Now I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers and sisters, so you might learn from us not to go beyond what is written. Then none of you will be puffed up in favor of one against the other. [7] For who makes you different? And what do you have that you did not receive?
But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

[8] Already you are full! Already you have become rich! Without us you have become kings! Indeed, I wish you were kings, so we also might be kings with you! [9] For it seems to me that God has put us, the emissaries, on display last of all—like men sentenced to death. For we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to people. [10] We are fools for Messiah's sake, but you are wise in Messiah! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, but we are dishonored! [11] To this very hour we are both hungry and thirsty, dressed in rags and mistreated and homeless. [12] We toil, working with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless. When we are persecuted, we endure. [13] When we are slandered, we speak kindly. We have become the scum of the earth, the dregs of all things—even to this moment.

[14] I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to warn you as my dearly loved children. [15] For though you may have ten thousand guardians in Messiah, yet you do not have many fathers. For in Messiah Yeshua, I became your father through the Good News. 16 I urge you therefore—be imitators of me. 17 For this reason I have sent you Timothy, my dearly loved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of my ways in Messiah, just as I teach everywhere in every community.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. 19 But I will come to you soon, if the Lord is willing; and I will find out not the talk of those who are puffed up, but their power. 20 For the kingdom of God does not consist of talk but of power. 21 What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Removing the “Hametz” from Your House

1 Corinthians 5 1 It is actually reported that among you there is sexual immorality, and such immorality as is not even among the pagans—that someone has his father’s wife. 2 And you are puffed up! Shouldn’t you have mourned instead, so that the one who did this deed might be removed from among you? 3 For even though I am absent in body, I am present in spirit—I have already passed judgment on the one who has done this thing, as though I were present. 4 When you are gathered together in the name of our Lord Yeshua, I am with you in spirit. With the power of our Lord Yeshua, 5 you are to turn such a fellow over to satan for the destruction of his fleshly nature,[16] so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Yeshua.

6 Your boasting is no good. Don’t you know that a little hametz leavens the whole batch of dough? 7 Get rid of the old hametz,[17] so you may be a new batch, just as you are unleavened—for Messiah, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed. 8 Therefore let us celebrate the feast not with old hametz,[18] the hametz of malice and wickedness, but with unleavened bread—the matzah of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote to you in my letter not to mix together[19] with sexually immoral people—10 not at all meaning the sexually immoral people of this world or the greedy or swindlers or idolaters, for then you would have to exit the world. 11 But now I am writing to you not to mix together with anyone who is being called a brother if he is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or a slanderer or a drunkard or a swindler—not even to eat with such a fellow. 12 For what business do I have judging outsiders? Don’t you judge those who are inside? 13 But those who are outside, God judges. Put away the wicked fellow from among yourselves.[20]

Settle Disputes Within the Community

1 Corinthians 6 1 Does any one of you, when he has a matter against his neighbor, dare to go to court before the unrighteous and not before the kedoshim? 2 Don’t you know that the kedoshim will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to judge trivial matters? 3 Don’t you know that we will judge angels? How much more the matters of this life! 4 So if you have courts for matters of this life, why do you appoint as judges those who have no standing in the community? 5 I say this to put you to shame! Isn’t there even one wise man among you who will be able to settle disputes between his brethren? 6 Instead, a brother goes to court against a brother—and before unbelievers at that!
7 Therefore, it is already an utter failure for you that you have lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? 8 But you yourselves do wrong and cheat—and against your brothers and sisters at that!

Morality in the Temple of God

9 Or don’t you know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Don’t be deceived! The sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, those who practice homosexuality, 10 thieves, the greedy, drunkards, slanderers, swindlers—none of these will inherit the kingdom of God. 11 That is what some of you were—but you were washed, you were made holy, you were set right in the name of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah and by the Ruach of our God.
12 “Everything is permitted for me”—but not everything is helpful. “Everything is permitted for me”—but I will not be controlled by anything. 13 “Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food”—but God will do away with both of them.
Yet the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. 14 Now God raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power. 15 Don’t you know that your bodies are members of Messiah? Shall I then take the members of Messiah and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! 16 Or don’t you know that the one who joins himself to a prostitute is one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall become one flesh.”[21] 17 But the one who joins himself to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

18 Flee from sexual immorality! Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body—but the one committing sexual immorality sins against his own body. 19 Or don’t you know that your body is a temple of the Ruach ha-Kodesh who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? 20 For you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body.[22]

Counsel About Marriage

1 Corinthians 7 1 Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me, it is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2 But because of much immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband fulfill his obligation to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband. 4 The wife does not have the rights to her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband does not have the rights to his own body, but the wife. 5 Do not deprive one another—except by mutual consent for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer.[23] Then come together again, so that satan doesn't tempt you because of your lack of self-control. 6 But this I say as a concession, not as a command.
7 Yet I wish that all men were like me. However, each man has his own gift from God, one in this way and another that.

8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows that it is good for them to remain as I am. 9 But if they do not have self-control, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with desire.

10 But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord[24]—a wife is not to be separated from her husband 11 (but if she gets separated, let her remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and the husband is not to divorce his wife.

12 But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—if any brother has a wife who is not a believer, and she agrees to live with him, he must not divorce her. 13 And if any woman has a husband who is not a believer, and he agrees to live with her, she must not divorce him. 14 For the unbelieving husband is made holy through the wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy through her husband.[25] Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. 15 But if the unbeliever separates, let him be separated. The brother or the sister is not bound in such cases, but God has called you to shalom. 16 For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband?

Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

Remain As You Were Called

17 Only, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each, let him walk in this way. I give this rule in all of Messiah's communities. 18 Was anyone called when he already had been circumcised? Let him not make himself uncircumcised. Has anyone been called while uncircumcised?
Let him not allow himself to be circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing[26]—but keeping God's commandments matters. 20 Let each one remain in the calling in which he was called. 21 Were you called as a slave? Don't let that bother you—but if indeed you can become free, make the most of the opportunity. 22 For the one who was called in the Lord as a slave is the Lord's freedman. Likewise the one who was called while free is Messiah's slave. 23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. 24 Brothers and sisters, let each one—in whatever way he was called—remain that way with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no command from the Lord, but I give an opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. 26 I think then, because of the present distress, that it is good for a man to remain as he is. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek a divorce. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife. 28 But if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such people will have trouble in this fleshly life, and I am trying to spare you. 29 But this I say, brothers and sisters—the time is short. From now on those who have wives should be as though they had none; 30 and those who weep, as though not weeping; and those who rejoice, as though not rejoicing; and those who buy, as though not possessing; 31 and those who use the world, as though not using it to the fullest. For the present form of this world is passing away.

32 But I want you to be free from cares. An unmarried man cares about the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord; 33 but the married man cares about the things of the world—how he may please his wife—[34] and he is divided. The unmarried woman, as well as the virgin, cares about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But the married woman cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. [35] Now I say this for your own benefit—not to put a restraint on you, but to promote proper and constant service to the Lord without distraction.

[36] But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if the time is ripe and it is meant to be, let him do what he decides. He does not sin. Let them marry. [37] But he who stands firm in his heart—who has no pressure, but has power over his own will and has so determined in his own heart to keep her a virgin—he will do well. [38] So then both he who marries the virgin does well, and he who doesn't marry her does better.

[39] A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives; but if her husband dies, she is free to be married to anyone she wishes—only in the Lord.[27] [40] But in my judgment she is happier if she stays as she is—and I also think that I have the Ruach Elohim.

Concerning Idol Sacrifices

1 Corinthians 8 1 Now concerning idol sacrifices, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2 If anyone thinks he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know. 3 But if anyone loves God, he is known by Him.
4 Therefore concerning the eating of idol sacrifices, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one.[28] 5 For even if there are so-called "gods," whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many "gods" and many "lords"),

6 yet for us there is one God, the Father,[29]
from whom are all things,
and we exist for Him;
and one Lord, Yeshua the Messiah,
through whom are all things,
and we exist through Him.

7 But that knowledge is not in everyone—some, so accustomed to idols up until now, eat food as an idol sacrifice;
and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 But food will not bring us before God. We are no worse off if we do not eat and no better off if we do eat. 9 But watch out that this freedom of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak.[30] 10 For suppose someone sees you—who have this knowledge—dining in an idol's temple. If his conscience is weak, won't he be emboldened to eat idol sacrifices? 11 For the one who is weak is destroyed by your knowledge—the brother for whom Messiah died. 12 In this way, when you sin against the brothers and sisters and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Messiah. 13 For this reason, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I do not cause my brother to stumble.

Servant Leadership Wins Over All

1 Corinthians 9

1 Am I not free? Am I not an emissary? Have I not seen Yeshua our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? 2 If to others I am not an emissary, at least I am to you—for you are the seal of my office of emissary in the Lord.

3 My defense to those who examine me is this. 4 Don't we have the right to food and drink? 5 Don't we have the right to take along a believing wife, as do the other emissaries and the Lord's brothers and Kefa? 6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to not work? 7 What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink its milk?

8 I don't say these things merely as a man, do I? Doesn't Torah also say these things? 9 For it is written in the Torah of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it is threshing."[31] Is it the oxen that concern God, 10 or is He speaking entirely for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because the one plowing ought to plow in hope and the one threshing in hope of a share in the crop. 11 If we sowed spiritual things into you, is it too much if we reap material things from you? 12 If others have a share in this claim over you, shouldn't we even more?

Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we put up with all things so that we cause no hindrance to the Good News of Messiah. 13 Don't you know that those who perform the holy services eat from the Temple, and those who wait on the altar receive a share at the altar?[32] 14 So also the Lord ordered those who proclaim the Good News to get their living from the Good News.

15 But I have used none of these things, and I am not writing these things so it will happen this way in my case—for I would rather die than let anyone deprive me of my reason to boast.
16 For if I proclaim the Good News, I have no reason to boast—for pressure is put on me and woe to me if I don't proclaim the Good News! 17 For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward.
But if not of my own will, I have been entrusted with a commission. 18 What then is my reward? That when I preach, I may present the Good News free of charge, not making use of my right[33] in the Good News.

19 For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win over more of them. 20 To the Jewish people I identified[34] as a Jew, so that I might win over the Jewish people. To those under Torah I became like one under Torah (though not myself being under Torah), so that I might win over those under Torah; 21 to those outside Torah, like one outside Torah (though not being outside God's Torah but in Messiah's Torah), so that I might win over those outside Torah. 22 To the weak I became weak, so that I might win over the weak. I have become all things to all men, so that by all means possible I might save some. 23 I do it all for the sake of the Good News, so that I might be a fellow partaker of it.
24 Don't you know that in a stadium the runners all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win!
25 Every competitor exercises self-control in all respects. They do it to receive a perishable crown, but we do it to receive an imperishable one. 26 So I run in this way—not aimlessly. So I box in this way—not beating the air. 27 Rather, I punish my body and bring it into submission, so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

Warnings from History

1 Corinthians 10 1 For I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers and sisters, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea.[35] 2 They all were immersed into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. 3 And all ate the same spiritual food, 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink—for they were drinking from a spiritual rock that followed them, and the Rock was Messiah.[36] 5 Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the desert.[37]

6 Now these things happened as examples for us, so we wouldn't crave evil things, just as they did.[38] 7 Do not be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."[39] 8 And let's not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did—and in one day 23,000 fell.[40] 9 And let's not test the Lord, as some of them did—and were destroyed by serpents.[41] 10 And let's not grumble, as some of them did—and were destroyed by the destroying angel.[42] 11 Now these things happened to them as an example, and it was written down as a warning to us—on whom the ends of the ages have come. 12 Therefore let the one who thinks that he stands watch out that he doesn't fall. 13 No temptation has taken hold of you except what is common to mankind. But God is faithful—He will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you can handle. But with the temptation
He will also provide a way of escape, so you will be able to endure it.

Feast with the Lord—Not with Idols

14 Therefore, my dearly loved ones, flee from idolatry. 15 I speak as to sensible people—judge for yourselves what I say.
16 The cup of blessing that we bless—isn't it a sharing of Messiah's blood? The bread which we break—isn't it a sharing of Messiah's body? 17 Since there is one bread, we who are many are one body—for we all partake of the one bread.

18 Consider physical Israel. Those who eat the sacrifices—aren't they partners in the altar?[43] 19 What am I saying then—that an idol sacrifice is anything, or that an idol is anything? 20 No, I'm saying that what the pagans sacrifice is to demons and not to God, and I don't want you to become partners with demons.[44] 21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. 22 Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy?[45] We are not stronger than He, are we?
23 "Everything is permitted"—but not everything is helpful.
"Everything is permitted"—but not everything builds up. 24 Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. 25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, without raising questions of conscience. 26 For "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness."[46] 27 If an unbeliever invites you over and you want to go, eat whatever is set before you, without raising questions of conscience. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This is from an idol sacrifice," do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience—29 not your own conscience, I mean, but the other person's. For why is my freedom judged by another's conscience? 30 If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of something I give thanks for?
31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. 32 Give no offense either to Jewish or Greek people or to God's community—33 just as I also try to please everyone in everything, not seeking my own benefit but the benefit of many, so that they may be saved.

1 Corinthians 11 [1] Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Messiah.

Headship and Coverings

2 Now I praise you because you remember me in everything and hold firm the traditions just as I passed them on to you.
3 But I want you to know that the head of every man is Messiah, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Messiah is God. 4 Every man praying or prophesying with his head covered dishonors his head. 5 But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same as having been shaved. 6 For if a woman does not cover her head, let her cut off her hair. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her cover her head.
7 For surely a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God.[47] But the woman is the glory of man.
8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man. 9 Neither was man created for the woman's sake, but woman for the man's sake.[48] 10 For this reason the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels. 11 In any case—in the Lord—woman is not independent of man and man is not independent of woman. 12 For just as the woman came from the man, so also the man comes through the woman
—but all things are from God.
13 Judge for yourselves—is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? 14 Doesn't the natural order of things[49] teach you—if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace for him; 15 but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory, for her hair was given to her as a covering. 16 But if anyone intends to be contentious, we have no such custom—nor do God's communities.

Unity at the Lord's Table

17 But in giving you this instruction I do not praise you, for when you meet together it does more harm than good. 18 For first of all, when you come together as Messiah's community, I hear that there are divisions among you; and to some extent I believe it—[19] for there must be factions among you, so that those among you who are tried and true may be evident.

[20] Therefore, when you meet together in the same place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper—[21] for each one takes his own supper beforehand, and one goes hungry while another gets drunk. [22] What! It is certainly not that you do not have houses, is it? Don't you have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise God's community and try to humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? I don't praise you for this!

[23] For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you—that the Lord Yeshua, on the night He was betrayed, took matzah;[50] [24] and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said,[51] "This is My body, which is for you. Do this in memory of Me." [25] In the same way, He also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant[52] in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in memory of Me." [26] For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

[27] Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the Lord's cup in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. [28] But a man must examine himself, and then let him eat of the bread and drink from the cup. [29] For the one who eats and drinks without recognizing the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself. [30] For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and quite a few have died.[53] [31] For if we were judging ourselves thoroughly, we wouldn't be coming under judgment. [32] But when we are judged, we are being disciplined by the Lord so that we might not be condemned along with the world.

[33] So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. [34] If anyone is hungry let him eat at home, so that when you meet it doesn't lead to judgment. And the rest I will put in order when I come.

Spiritual Gifts for the Body

1 Corinthians 12 1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be ignorant. 2 You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed by idols that cannot speak, and you got led astray.[54] 3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Ruach Elohim says, “Yeshua be cursed,” and no one can say, “Yeshua is Lord,” except by the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

4 Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Ruach.
5 There are various kinds of service, but the same Lord. 6 There are various kinds of working, but the same God who works all things in all people. 7 But to each person is given the manifestation of the Ruach for the benefit of all. 8 For to one is given through the Ruach a word of wisdom, to another a word of knowledge according to the same Ruach, 9 to another faith by the same Ruach, to another gifts of healings by the one Ruach, 10 to another workings of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. 11 But one and the same Ruach activates all these things, distributing to each person individually as He wills.

12 For just as the body is one and has many parts, and all the parts of the body—though many—are one body, so also is Messiah. 13 For in one Ruach we were all immersed into one body—whether Jewish or Greek, slave or free—and all were made to drink of one Ruach.

14 For the body is not one part, but many. 15 If the foot says, “Since I’m not a hand, I’m not part of the body,” is it therefore not part of the body? 16 And if the ear says, “Since I’m not an eye, I’m not part of the body,” is it for this reason any less part of the body? 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? 18 But now God has placed the parts—each one of them—in the body just as He desired. 19 If they were all one part, where would the body be? [20] But now there are many parts, yet one body.

[21] The eye cannot tell the hand, “I don’t need you!” or in turn the head to the feet, “I don’t need you!” [22] On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be less important are indispensable. [23] Those parts of the body that we think to be less honorable, we clothe with greater honor; and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty; [24] but our presentable parts have no such need. Rather God assembled the body, giving more honor to those who are lacking, [25] so that there may be no division in the body, but so that the parts may have the same care for one another. [26] If one part suffers, all the parts suffer together. If one part is honored, all the parts rejoice together.

[27] Now you are the body of Messiah, and members individually. [28] God has put into His community first emissaries, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then healings, helps, leadership, various kinds of tongues. [29] All are not emissaries, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All do not work miracles, do they? [30] All do not have gifts of healing, do they? All do not speak in tongues, do they? All do not interpret, do they? [31] But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And still I show you a far better way:

The Superior Way of Love

1 Corinthians 13

1 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels but have not love,
I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

2 If I have the gift of prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains but have not love,
I am nothing.

3 If I give away all that I own and if I hand over my body
so I might boast[55]
but have not love,
I gain nothing.

4 Love is patient, love is kind,
it does not envy,
it does not brag,
it is not puffed up,
5 it does not behave inappropriately, it does not seek its own way, it is not provoked, it keeps no account of wrong, 6 it does not rejoice over injustice but rejoices in the truth; 7 it bears all things, it believes all things,
it hopes all things,
it endures all things.

8 Love never fails— but where there are prophecies,
they will pass away;
where there are tongues, they will cease;
where there is knowledge, it will pass away.

9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part; 10 but when that which is perfect has come, then that which is partial will pass away.

11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child,
I thought like a child,
I reasoned like a child.
When I became a man,
I put away childish things.

12 For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face.
Now I know in part,
but then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known.

13 But now these three remain— faith, hope, and love.
And the greatest of these is love.

Orderly Governing of the Gifts

1 Corinthians 14 1 Pursue love and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2 For one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to people but to God—for no one understands, but in the Ruach he speaks mysteries. 3 But one who prophesies speaks to people for building up, urging on,
and uplifting. 4 One who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but one who prophesies builds up the community. 5 Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more that you would prophesy.[56] One who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues—unless he interprets, so that the community may be built up.

6 But now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you—unless I speak to you by way of revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? 7 It is the same for lifeless things that make a sound—like a flute or a harp. If they make no distinction in the tones, how will what is played be recognized? 8 For if the trumpet[57] makes an unclear sound, who will prepare himself for battle? 9 So also with you with your tongue—unless you utter speech that is intelligible, how will what is spoken be understood? For you will be talking to the wind! 10 It may be that there are many kinds of languages in the world—and none without meaning. 11 If then I do not understand the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner[58] to the speaker, and the speaker will be a foreigner to me. 12 Likewise with you—since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, keep trying to excel for the building up of the community.

13 Therefore let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. 15 What is it then? I will pray in my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing praises with my spirit, and I will also sing praises with my mind. 16 Otherwise if you give thanks and praise in the spirit, how will one filling the place of the ungifted say the “Amen” to your thanksgiving, since he has no idea what you’re saying? 17 For you certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. 18 I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. 19 However, in Messiah's community I would rather speak five words with my mind, so I may also instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 Brothers and sisters, stop being children in your thinking—rather, be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature. 21 In the Prophets[59] it is written,

"By those with strange tongues and by the lips of strangers
I will speak to this people.
And not even then will they listen to me," says
ADONAI.

22 Therefore tongues are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers—but prophecy is a sign not for unbelievers but for believers. 23 So if Messiah's whole community comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and uninstructed or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy?
24 But if all are prophesying and some unbelieving or ungifted person comes in, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all. 25 The secrets of his heart become known, and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring, "God really is among you!"[60]
26 What is it then, brothers and sisters? Whenever you come together, each one has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation, a tongue, an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification.
27 If someone speaks in a tongue, let it be by two or at most three, and each in turn; and let one interpret. 28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the community but speak to himself and to God. 29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate. 30 But if something is revealed to another sitting nearby, let the first one become silent. 31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so all may learn and be encouraged. 32 The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, 33 for God is not a God of confusion, but shalom.

As in all the communities of the kedoshim, 34 let women keep silent in the communities, for it is not permitted for them to speak out. Rather let them be in order, as the Torah also says.
[61] 35 If they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home—for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak out in the community. 36 Did the word of God originate with you? Or did it reach you alone?
37 If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, let him recognize that what I write to you is the Lord’s command. 38 But if someone does not recognize it, he is not recognized.
39 Therefore, brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. 40 But let everything be done decently and in order.

The Victory of the Resurrection

1 Corinthians 15 1 Now I make known to you, brothers and sisters, the Good News which I proclaimed to you. You also received it, and you took your stand on it, 2 and by it you are being saved if you hold firm to the word I proclaimed to you—unless you believed without proper consideration. 3 For I also passed on to you first of all what I also received—

that Messiah died for our sins
according to the Scriptures,[62]
4 that He was buried,
that He was raised on the third day
according to the Scriptures,
5 and that He appeared to Kefa,
then to the Twelve.
6 Then He appeared to over five hundred brothers and sisters at one time—
most of them are still alive,
though some have died.[63]
7 Then He appeared to Jacob,
then to all the emissaries,
8 and last of all, as to one untimely born,
He also appeared to me.

9 For I am the least of the emissaries, unworthy to be called an emissary because I persecuted God's community. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace toward me was not in vain. No, I worked harder than them all—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me. 11 Whether then it is I or they,
so we proclaim, and so you believed.

12 Now if Messiah is proclaimed—that He has been raised from the dead—how can some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Messiah has been raised! 14 And if Messiah has not been raised, then our proclaiming is meaningless and your faith also is meaningless. 15 Moreover, we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that He raised up Messiah—whom He did not raise up, if in fact the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, not even Messiah has been raised. 17 And if Messiah has not been raised, your faith is futile—you are still in your sins. 18 Then those also who have fallen asleep in Messiah have perished. 19 If we have hoped in Messiah in this life alone, we are to be pitied more than all people.

20 But now Messiah has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. 21 For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also has come through a Man.[64] 22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Messiah will all be made alive.

23 But each in its own order: Messiah the firstfruits; then, at His coming, those who belong to Messiah; 24 then the end, when He hands over the kingdom to God the Father after He has destroyed all rule and all authority and power.[65] 25 For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.[66] 26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death. 27 For God has "put all things in subjection underneath His feet."[67] But when the psalmist says that "all" has been put in subjection, it is clear that this does not include God Himself, who put all things under Messiah. 28 Now when all things become subject to Him, then the Son Himself will also become subject to the One who put all things under Him, so that God may be all in all.

29 Otherwise, what will they do who are immersed for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, then why are they immersed for them? 30 And why are we in danger every hour? 31 I die every day—yes, as surely as the boast in you, brothers and sisters, which I have in Messiah Yeshua our Lord. 32 If, for human reasons, I fought with "wild animals" at Ephesus, what good is that to me? If the dead are not raised, "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"[68] 33 Do not be deceived!

"Bad company corrupts good morals."

34 Come to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning! For some have no knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.
35 But someone will say, “How are the dead raised?”[69] and,
“With what kind of body do they come?” 36 Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. 37 As for what you sow—you are not sowing the body that will be, but a bare seed, maybe of wheat or something else. 38 But God gives it a body just as He planned, and to each of the seeds a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of humans, another flesh of animals, another of birds, and another of fish. 40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one thing while the earthly is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead:
Sown in corruption, raised in incorruption!
43 Sown in dishonor, raised in glory!
Sown in weakness, raised in power!
44 Sown a natural body, raised a spiritual body!

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. 45 So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living soul.”[70] The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual.
47 The first man is of the earth, made of dust; the second man is from heaven.

48 Like the one made of dust,
so also are those made of dust[71];
and like the heavenly,
so also are those who are heavenly.
49 And just as we have borne the image of the one made from dust,

so also shall we bear[72] the image of the One from heaven.

50 Now I say this, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, and what decays cannot inherit what does not decay. 51 Behold, I tell you a mystery:

We shall not all sleep,
but we shall all be changed—52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye,
at the last shofar.[73]
For the shofar will sound,
and the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we will be changed.
53 For this corruptible must put on incorruptibility,
and this mortal must put on immortality.
54 But when this corruptible will have put on incorruptibility
and this mortal will have put on immortality,
then shall come to pass the saying that is written:

"Death is swallowed up in victory."[74]
55 "Where, O Death, is your victory?
Where, O Death, is your sting?"[75]

56 Now the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Torah. 57 But thanks be to God, who keeps giving us the victory through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah! 58 Therefore, my dearly loved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord—because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Collection for Jerusalem and Final Greetings

1 Corinthians 16 1 Now concerning the collection for the kedoshim, as I directed Messiah's communities in Galatia, you do likewise.
2 On the first day of the week, let each of you set something aside, saving up whatever is gained, so no collections take place when I come. 3 Then whenever I arrive, I will send whomever you approve with letters of introduction to carry your gift to Jerusalem. 4 If it is advisable for me to go also, they will go with me.

5 But I will come to you after I have passed through Macedonia—for I am passing through Macedonia. 6 Perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey—wherever I go. 7 For I do not wish to see you now just in passing—for I hope to stay on with you for a while, if the Lord permits. 8 But I will stay on at Ephesus until Shavuot, 9 for a great door has opened wide for me, though many are in opposition.

10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear among you—for he is doing the Lord's work, just as I am. 11 No one, then, should treat him with disrespect. But set him on his way in shalom, so that he might come to me; for I am expecting him, along with the brothers.

12 Now about our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers and sisters, and he was quite unwilling to come now—but he will come when he has an opportunity.

13 Be on the alert! Stand firm in the faith! Be men of courage!
Be strong![76] 14 Let all that you do be done in love.

15 Now I urge you, brothers and sisters (you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves in service to the kedoshim), 16 also to submit to people such as these, and to everyone working together and laboring. 17 I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, for they made up for your absence. 18 For they refreshed my spirit and yours.

Therefore acknowledge such men.
19 Messiah’s communities in Asia[77] greet you. Aquila and Prisca[78] greet you warmly in the Lord, with the community that meets in their house. 20 All the brothers and sisters greet
you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.
21 This greeting is in my own hand—Paul’s. 22 If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be cursed. Marana, tha! Our Lord,
come![79]
23 The grace of the Lord Yeshua be with you. 24 My love be with you all in Messiah Yeshua.

Greetings

2 Corinthians 1 [1] Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua through the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To God’s community at Corinth, with all the kedoshim who are throughout Achaia:

[2] Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Encouragement Through Hardships

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, the Father of compassion and God of all encouragement. 4 He encourages us in every trouble, so that we may be able to encourage those who are in any trouble, through the very encouragement with which we ourselves are encouraged by God. 5 For just as the sufferings of Messiah overflow into us, so also through Messiah our encouragement overflows. 6 If we are suffering hardship, it is for your encouragement and salvation. Or if we are encouraged, it is for your encouragement, which produces in you the patient endurance of the same sufferings that we also suffer. 7 Our hope for you is firm, since we know that as you are partners in our sufferings, so also in our encouragement.

8 For we do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of our trouble that happened in Asia.[1] We were under great pressure—so far beyond our strength that we despaired even of living. 9 In fact, we had within ourselves the death sentence—so that we might not rely on ourselves, but on God who raises the dead. 10 He who rescued us from so great a danger of death will continue to rescue us—we have set our hope on Him that He will rescue us again. 11 You also are helping by your prayer for us, so that from many people thanks may be given on our behalf for the gracious gift given us through the help of many.

12 For our reason for boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that we behaved in the world, and most especially toward you, with simplicity and godly sincerity—not by human wisdom but by the grace of God. 13 For we write nothing to you other than what you can read and understand—and I hope you will understand in full 14 just as you understood us in part, so that we are your reason for boasting just as you also are ours in the Day of our Lord Yeshua.

Paul's Change of Plans

15 Because of this confidence, I was planning to come to you first, so that you might have a second benefit—16 to pass by you on my way to Macedonia and again from Macedonia to come back to you, and to be helped by you on my journey to Judea.
17 So when I was planning to do this, I didn't do so lightly, did I?
Or the things I plan, do I plan according to the flesh—so it might be with me "Yes, yes" and "No, no" at the same time?
18 But as God is faithful, our message to you is not both "Yes" and "No."[2] 19 For Ben-Elohim—Yeshua the Messiah, who was proclaimed among you by us, by myself and Silvanus[3] and Timothy—was not "Yes" and "No." Rather, in Him it has always been "Yes." 20 For in Him all the promises of God are "Yes."
Therefore also through Him is the "Amen" by us, to the glory of God.[4] 21 Now it is God who establishes us with you in Messiah.
He anointed us, 22 set His seal on us, and gave us the Ruach in our hearts as a pledge.

23 But I call God as my witness[5]—to spare you, I didn't come to Corinth again. 24 Not that we lord it over you in matters of faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy—for in the faith you are standing firm.

Forgive the Repentant Sinner

2 Corinthians 2 [1] So I made up my mind that I would not come to you again causing sorrow. [2] For if I cause you sorrow, then who is there cheering me on but the one I have made sorrowful?
[3] And I wrote this very thing to you, so that when I came I wouldn't have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice
—having confidence in you all that my joy is yours. [4] For out of much distress and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears—not to make you sorrowful, but to let you know the love that I have especially for you.

[5] But if anyone has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not to me, but to some extent—not to exaggerate—to all of you.
[6] For such a person, this punishment by the majority is enough.
[7] So instead you should forgive him and encourage him.
Otherwise such a person might be swallowed up by excessive sorrow. [8] Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.
[9] For to this end I also wrote, that I might know your character, whether you are obedient in all things. [10] Now anyone you forgive, I also forgive. For indeed, what I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything), I did it for you in the presence of Messiah, [11] so that we might not be outwitted by satan—for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

Revealing Messiah's Fragrance

[12] Now when I arrived in Troas for the Good News of Messiah, and a door was opened to me by the Lord, [13] I had no rest in my spirit, because I didn't find Titus my brother. So I said farewell to them, and I set out for Macedonia. [14] But thanks be to God, who in Messiah always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us reveals everywhere the aroma[6] of the knowledge of Himself. [15] For we are the aroma of Messiah to God, among those who are being saved and those who are perishing—[16] to the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. Who is competent for these things? [17] For we are not like many, peddling the word of God. Rather, in Messiah we speak in the sight of God with sincerity, as persons sent from God.

A New Covenant on Hearts of Flesh

2 Corinthians 3 1 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again?
Or do we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you or from you? 2 You are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone. 3 It is clear that you are a letter from Messiah delivered by us—written not with ink but with the Ruach of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.[7]

4 Such is the confidence we have through Messiah toward God—5 not that we are competent in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our competence is from God. 6 He also made us competent as servants of a new covenant[8]—not of the letter, but of the Ruach. For the letter kills, but the Ruach gives life.

7 Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that Bnei-Yisrael could not look intently upon Moses' face because of its glory[9]—although it was passing away—8 how will the ministry of the Ruach not be even more glorious? 9 For if there is glory in the ministry of condemnation,[10] the ministry of righteousness overflows even more in glory. 10 For even what was glorious is not glorious in comparison to the glory that surpasses it. 11 For if what is passing away is glorious, much more what remains is glorious.

12 Therefore, having such a hope, we act with great boldness.
13 We are not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face in order for Bnei-Yisrael not to look intently upon the end of what was passing away. 14 But their minds were hardened. For up to this very day the same veil remains unlifted at the reading of the ancient covenant, since in Messiah it is passing away. 15 But to this day, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart.
16 But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.[11] 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Ruach ADONAI is, there is freedom.[12] 18 But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory—just as from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Treasures in Jars of Clay

2 Corinthians 4 1 For this reason, since we have this ministry, just as we received mercy, we do not lose heart. 2 Instead, we renounced the hidden shameful ways—not walking in deception or distorting the word of God, but commending ourselves before God to everyone's conscience by the open proclamation of the truth. 3 And even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. 4 In their case, the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so they might not see the light of the Good News of the glory of Messiah, who is the image of God. 5 For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Messiah Yeshua as Lord—and ourselves as your slaves for Yeshua's sake. 6 For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness,"[13] is the One who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Messiah.[14]

7 But we have this treasure in jars of clay,[15] so that the surpassing greatness of the power may be from God and not from ourselves. 8 We are hard pressed in every way, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not in despair; 9 persecuted, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; 10 always carrying in the body the death of Yeshua, so that the life of Yeshua may also be revealed in our mortal body. 11 For we who live are always being handed over to death for Yeshua's sake, so that the life of Yeshua may be revealed in our mortal body. 12 So death is at work in us, but life is at work in you. 13 But we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke."[16] So we also believe, and therefore we also speak, 14 knowing that the One who raised the Lord Yeshua will raise us also with Yeshua, and will bring us with you into His presence. 15 For all things are for your sakes, so that the grace that is spreading through more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow—to the glory of God.

16 Therefore we do not lose heart. Though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day.[17] 17 For our trouble, light and momentary, is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, [18] as we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen. For what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

Earthly Tents, Eternal Dwellings

2 Corinthians 5 [1] For we know that if the tent, our earthly home, is torn down, we have a building from God—a home not made with human hands, eternal in the heavens. [2] For in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling—[3] if indeed, after we have put it on, we will not be found naked.
[4] For we groan while we are in this tent—burdened because we don't want to be unclothed but to be clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. [5] Now the One who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave us the Ruach as a pledge. [6] Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. [7] For we walk by faith, not by sight. [8] We are confident, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and at home with the Lord. [9] So whether at home or absent, we make it our aim to be pleasing to Him. [10] For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Messiah, so that each one may receive what is due for the things he did while in the body
—whether good or bad.

Ambassadors for Messiah

11 Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord,[18] we are trying to persuade people, but what we are is known to God—and I hope it is known to your consciences as well. 12 For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity for boasting about us, so that you may have something to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart.[19] 13 For if we are out of our minds, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. 14 For the love of Messiah compels us, since we have concluded that One died for all; as a result all died. 15 And He died for all so that those who live might no longer live for themselves, but for the One who died for them and was raised.

16 So from now on we recognize no one according to the flesh.
Even though we have known Messiah according to the flesh, yet now we no longer know Him this way. 17 Therefore if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.[20] 18 Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Messiah and gave us the ministry of reconciliation. 19 That is, in Messiah God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them; and He has entrusted the message of reconciliation to us. 20 We are therefore ambassadors for Messiah, as though God were making His appeal through us. We beg you on behalf of Messiah, be reconciled to God. 21 He made the One who knew no sin to become a sin offering on our behalf,[21] so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 6 1 Since we are co-laboring, we also urge you not to receive God's grace in vain. 2 For He says,

"At a favorable time I listened to you,
in a day of salvation I helped you."[22]

Behold, now is the favorable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. 3 We give no cause for offense in anything, so that our ministry may not be blamed. 4 But as God's servants, we are commending ourselves in every way—in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, 5 in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in troubles, in sleeplessness, in hunger; 6 in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Ruach ha-Kodesh, in genuine love, 7 in truthful speech, in the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left; 8 through honor and dishonor, through evil report and good report. We are regarded as deceivers and yet true; 9 as unknown and yet well-known; as dying, yet behold, we live; as disciplined yet not put to death;[23] 10 as grieving yet always rejoicing; as poor yet enriching many;
as having nothing yet possessing everything.

11 We have spoken openly to you, O Corinthians; our heart is open wide! 12 You are not restricted by us, yet you are restricted in your own feelings. 13 Now in return—I speak as to my children—open wide to us also.

Preserving Sanctity in God's Living Temple

14 Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers.[24] For what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness?
Or what fellowship does light have with darkness? 15 What harmony does Messiah have with Belial[25]? Or what part does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? 16 What agreement does God's Temple have with idols?[26] For we are the temple of the living God—just as God said,

"I will dwell in them and walk among them;
and I will be their God,
and they shall be My people.[27]

17 Therefore, come out from among them,
and be separate, says ADONAI.
Touch no unclean thing.[28]
Then I will take you in.[29]
18 I will be a father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters,
says ADONAI-Tzva'ot."[30]

2 Corinthians 7 1 Therefore, since we have these promises, loved ones, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of body and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Godly Sorrow and Joy

2 Make room for us in your hearts. We wronged no one, ruined no one, took advantage of no one. 3 I do not say this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts —to die together and to live together with you. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I have been filled with encouragement. I overflow with joy in all our troubles.

5 For even when we came into Macedonia, our body had no rest. But we were hard pressed on every side—conflicts outside, fears within. 6 But God, who encourages the downcast, encouraged us with the arrival of Titus; 7 and not only by his coming, but also by the encouragement with which he was encouraged by you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your deep concern for me—so that I rejoiced still more.

8 For even if I grieved you with my letter, I do not regret it—though I did regret it, for I see that my letter grieved you, but just for a while. 9 Now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to the point of repentance. For you were grieved according to God's will, so that you might in no way suffer loss from us. 10 For the grief that God wills brings a repentance that leads to salvation, leaving no regret. But the world's grief brings death. 11 For see what this very thing—this grieving that God wills—has brought you! What diligence, what defense, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what rendering of justice! In everything you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter. 12 So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for the sake of the wrongdoer or for the sake of the one who was wronged, but to make known to you your diligence for us in the sight of God. 13 For this reason we have been encouraged.

Besides our own encouragement, we rejoiced even more at the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. 14 For if I have boasted some to him about you, I was not put to shame. But as we spoke all things truthfully to you, so also our boasting to Titus has proved to be the truth. 15 His feelings toward you overflow when he remembers everyone’s obedience—how you received him with fear and trembling. 16 I rejoice that in everything I have confidence in you.

Eagerness to Give

2 Corinthians 8 [1] Now we make known to you, brothers and sisters, the grace God has given to Messiah's communities in Macedonia—[2] that in much testing by affliction, the abundance of their joy and their extreme poverty overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. [3] For I testify that according to their ability, and even beyond their ability, they gave of their own free will—[4] begging us with much urging for the favor of sharing in the relief of the kedoshim. [5] Moreover, it was not just as we had hoped, but they gave of themselves first to the Lord and then to us in keeping with God's will. [6] So we urged Titus that, just as he had made a start before, so he should also complete this gracious service for you. [7] But as you excel in everything—in faith and speech and knowledge and all diligence, and in your love for us—also excel in this grace. [8] I am saying this not as a command, but I am trying to prove by the diligence of others the genuineness of your love as well.
[9] For you know the grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah—that even though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, so that through His poverty you might become rich. [10] Now I give my opinion in this matter, that it is a credit to you that a year ago you were the first to start—not only to do but even to be willing. [11] But now finish doing it, so that just as there was eagerness to be willing, so also to finish it, out of what you have. [12] For if the eagerness is present, the gift is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he doesn't have. [13] For it is not relief for others and hardship for you, but as a matter of equality. [14] Your abundance at this present time meets their need, so that their abundance may also meet your need—so that there may be equality. [15] As it is written, "He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little."[31]

An Offering by Special Delivery

16 But thanks be to God, who put into the heart of Titus the same devotion for you. 17 For indeed he not only accepted our appeal, but went to you with eagerness and on his own initiative. 18 We are sending along with him the brother whose fame in connection with the Good News has spread throughout all of Messiah's communities. 19 Not only that, but he has also been appointed by the communities as our travel companion with this gracious gift, which is administered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself and to show our eagerness to help.
20 We are taking this precaution, so that no one will blame us in regard to the way we administer this generous gift. 21 We have regard for what is honorable—not only before the Lord, but also before people. 22 Also with them we are sending our brother whom we have tested many times and found to be diligent in many things, but now even more diligent because of his great confidence in you. 23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; as for our brothers, they are the emissaries of the communities, a glory to Messiah. 24 Therefore, before Messiah's communities show them the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

2 Corinthians 9 1 Now about this service to the kedoshim, it is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you— 2 for I know your eagerness. I boast about it to the Macedonians, that Achaia has been preparing for a year already; and your zeal has stirred up most of them. 3 But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you may not be in vain in this case, so that you may be prepared, just as I kept saying. 4 Otherwise, if any Macedonians were to come and find you unprepared, we—not to mention you—would be put to shame in this undertaking.
5 So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on to you and arrange ahead of time your generous gift that had been promised beforehand, so that it would be ready as a gift and not as an extortion.

Sowing and Reaping Generosity

6 The point is this: whoever sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully.[32] 7 Let each one give as he has decided in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion—for God loves a cheerful giver.[33] 8 And God is able to make all grace overflow to you, so that by always having enough of everything, you may overflow in every good work. 9 As it is written,

> “He scattered widely, He gave to the poor;
> His righteousness endures forever.”[34]

10 Now the One who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed and increase the harvest of your righteousness.[35] 11 You will be enriched in everything for all generosity, which through us brings about thanksgiving to God. 12 For this service of giving is not only supplying the needs of the kedoshim, but is also overflowing with many thanksgivings to God. 13 Because of the evidence of this service, they praise God for the obedience of your affirmation of the Good News of Messiah and for the generosity of your contribution to them and to everyone. 14 And in their prayer for you, they long for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. 15 Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

Tearing Down Strongholds

2 Corinthians 10 1 Now I, Paul, appeal myself to you by the meekness and gentleness of Messiah—I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold toward you when far away. 2 I beg of you that when I am present I won't need to be bold with the courage I consider showing against some who judge us as walking in the flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh. 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly but powerful through God for the tearing down of strongholds.[36] We are tearing down false arguments 5 and every high-minded thing that exalts itself[37] against the knowledge of God. We are taking every thought captive to the obedience of Messiah—6 ready to punish all disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete.

7 Look at what is before your eyes.[38] If anyone is confident in himself that he belongs to Messiah, let him reconsider that just as he belongs to Messiah, so also do we. 8 For even if I boast a little more about our authority—which the Lord gave for building you up and not for tearing you down—I will not be put to shame. 9 Not that I would try to terrify you by my letters
—10 for they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his presence in person is weak and his speech of no account." 11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word through letters when we are absent, we also are in action when we are present.

12 For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they have no understanding. 13 But we will not boast beyond limits, but within the limits of the area that God has assigned to us—to reach even as far as you. 14 We are not extending ourselves too far, as if we did not reach you—for we did come even as far as to you with the Good News of Messiah.
15 Neither are we boasting beyond limits based on the labors of others, but we have hope while your faith is growing for our area among you to be greatly enlarged—16 so that we may proclaim the Good News even to regions beyond you, not boasting about what has been accomplished in another's area. 17 But "let him who boasts boast in the Lord."[39] 18 For it Is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

True and False Apostles

2 Corinthians 11 1 I wish that you would put up with a little foolishness from me, but indeed you are putting up with me.
2 For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I betrothed you to one husband, to present you to Messiah as a pure virgin.[40] 3 But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your minds might be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion and purity to the Messiah.
4 For if someone comes and proclaims another Yeshua whom we did not proclaim, or if you receive a different spirit that you did not receive, or a different "good news" that you did not accept, you put up with that well enough!

5 For I consider myself in no way inferior to the "super special" emissaries. 6 Even if I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not so in knowledge. No, in every way we have made this clear to you in all things. 7 Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself
so that you might be exalted, because I proclaimed to you God's Good News free of charge? 8 I robbed other communities by taking wages from them for service to you. 9 When I was present with you and I was in need, I did not burden anyone;
for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my need.
In everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and I will continue to do so. 10 As the truth of Messiah is in me, this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia.
11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

12 But what I am doing I will continue to do, so that I may cut off the opportunity from those who want an opportunity in what they boast about to also be regarded just as we are. 13 For such men are false emissaries, deceitful workers masquerading as Messiah's emissaries. 14 And no wonder, for even satan masquerades as an angel of light. 15 It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be according to their deeds.

Paul Boasts in the Lord

16 I say again, let no one consider me to be a fool. But if you do, accept me as a fool, so that I also may boast a little. 17 What I am saying, I am saying not according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this self-confident boasting. 18 Since many boast according to the flesh, I too will boast. 19 For you, being so wise, put up with fools gladly. 20 For you put up with it if someone enslaves you, if someone devours you, if someone takes advantage of you, if someone puts on airs, if someone slaps you on the face. 21 To my shame I must say that we have been weak.

Yet whatever anyone else dares to boast about—I speak in foolishness—I dare, too. 22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the descendants of Abraham? So am I. 23 Are they servants of Messiah? I am more so—I speak like I'm out of my mind—in labors much more, in prisons much more, in beatings more brutal, near death often. 24 Five times from the Jewish leaders I received forty lashes minus one.[41] 25 Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. A night and a day I spent in the open sea. 26 In my many journeys I have been in dangers from rivers, dangers from robbers, dangers from my countrymen, dangers from the Gentiles, dangers in the city, dangers in the desert, dangers in the sea, dangers among false brothers, 27 in labor and hardship, through many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure. 28 Besides these other things, there is daily pressure on me of concern for all of Messiah's communities. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is led into sin, and I do not burn with indignation?
30 If I must boast, I will boast of my weakness. 31 The God and Father of the Lord Yeshua, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. 32 In Damascus the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of the Damascenes in order to seize me, 33 and I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands.[42]

Boasting in Visions and Weakness

2 Corinthians 12 1 I must go on boasting—though it does no good, I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I know a man in Messiah (whether in the body I don't know, or whether out of the body I don't know—God knows)—fourteen years ago, he was caught up to the third heaven.[43] 3 I know such a man (whether in the body or outside of the body I don't know—God knows)—4 he was caught up into Paradise and heard words too sacred to tell, which a human is not permitted to utter. 5 On behalf of such a man I will boast—but about myself I will not boast, except in regard to my weaknesses. 6 For if I should want to boast, I would not be foolish—for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no one may think more of me than what he sees in me or hears from me—7 even in the extraordinary quality of the revelations. So that I would not exalt myself, a thorn in the flesh was given to me—a a messenger of satan to torment me, [44] so I would not exalt myself. 8 I pleaded with the Lord three times about this, that it might leave me. 9 But He said to me,
"My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly in my weaknesses, so that the power of Messiah may dwell in me.
10 For Messiah's sake, then, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in distresses, in persecutions, in calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

11 I have become a fool—you drove me to it, for I ought to have been commended by you. For I am in no way inferior to the super-special emissaries—though I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an emissary were worked out among you, with patient endurance, by signs and wonders and mighty miracles. 13 For in what respect were you treated worse than the rest of Messiah's communities—except that I myself did not burden you? Pardon me this injustice!

14 Look, I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not burden you—for I seek not your possessions, but you! For the children are not obliged to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

16 But be that as it may, I did not burden you myself.
Nevertheless, crafty fellow that I am, I caught you with trickery! 17 I haven’t taken advantage of you through any of those I sent to you, have I? 18 I did urge Titus to visit you, and I sent the brother with him. Titus didn’t take any advantage of you, did he? Didn’t we walk in the same spirit, in the same footsteps?

19 All along you’ve been thinking that we are defending ourselves to you.[45] It is before God that we’ve been speaking in Messiah—and all for building you up, loved ones. 20 For I am afraid that perhaps when I come, I may find you not as I wish, or I may be found by you not as you wish—that there may be strife, envy, outbursts of anger, self-seeking disputes, lashon ha-ra, gossip, arrogance, unruly commotions. 21 I am afraid that when I come again my God may humiliate me before you, and I will mourn for many of those who have sinned before and not repented of the impurity and sexual immorality and indecency which they committed.

Final Warnings

2 Corinthians 13 1 This is the third time I am coming to you. “By the testimony[46] of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”[47] 2 I spoke a warning, when I was with you the second time. Though now I am away, I am again speaking a warning to those who have sinned before, as well as to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare anyone—3 since you are demanding proof that Messiah is speaking through me. He is not weak toward you, but powerful among you. 4 For He was crucified in weakness, yet He lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in Him, yet we shall live with Him by God’s power toward you.

5 Test yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Examine yourselves! Or don’t you know yourselves—that Messiah Yeshua is in you? Unless of course you failed the test. 6 But I hope that you will realize that we haven’t failed the test. 7 Now we pray to God that you do no wrong—not so that we may appear to have passed the test, but in order that you may do what is right even if we may seem to have failed. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth. 9 For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. We also pray for this—your perfecting. 10 For this reason I write these things while I am absent, so that when I am present I need not proceed harshly, according to the authority which the Lord gave me—for building up and not for tearing down.

Final Greetings

11 Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice! Aim for restoration, encourage one another, be of the same mind, live in shalom—
and the God of love and shalom will be with you.
12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.
All the kedoshim greet you.[48]
13 The grace of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah and the love of God and the fellowship of the Ruach ha-Kodesh be with you all.
Amen.

Galatians

1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6

Greetings from Paul

Galatians 1 [1] Paul, an emissary (sent not from men or by man, but by Yeshua the Messiah and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), [2] and all the brothers with me.

To Messiah's communities of Galatia:

[3] Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and our Lord Yeshua the Messiah—[4] who gave Himself for our sins to rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father—[5] to Him be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

No Other Gospel

6 I am amazed that you are so quickly turning away from the One who called you by the grace of Messiah, to a different “good news”—7 not that there is another, but only some who are confusing you and want to distort the Good News of Messiah. 8 But even if we (or an angel from heaven) should announce any “good news” to you other than what we have proclaimed to you, let that person be cursed! 9 As we have said before, so I now repeat: if anyone proclaims to you “good news” other than what you received, let that person be under a curse! 10 Am I now trying to win people’s approval, or God’s? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Messiah.

How Paul Was Sent Out

11 Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the Good News proclaimed by me is not man-made. 12 I did not receive it from any human, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Yeshua the Messiah.
13 For you have heard of my earlier behavior in Judaism—how I persecuted God's community beyond measure and tried to destroy it. 14 I was even advancing within Judaism beyond many my own age among my people, being a more extreme observer of my fathers' traditions. 15 But when God—who set me apart from birth and called me through His grace[1]—was pleased 16 to reveal His Son to me so I would proclaim Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with any human. 17 I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who were emissaries before me, either. Instead I went away to Arabia and returned again to Damascus.
18 Then three years later I went to Jerusalem to visit with Peter, and I stayed with him fifteen days. 19 But I saw no other emissaries except Jacob, the Lord's brother. 20 (In what I'm writing you, before God, I do not lie.) 21 Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. 22 But I was personally unknown to Messiah's communities of Judea; 23 they only kept hearing, "The one who once persecuted us now proclaims the Good News he once tried to destroy!" 24 So they were praising God because of me.

Accepted in Jerusalem

Galatians 2 1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus with me. 2 Because of a revelation, I went up and presented to them the Good News that I proclaim among the Gentiles. But I did so privately to those who seemed to be influential, to make sure I would not run—or had not run—in vain.[2] 3 Yet not even Titus who was with me, a Greek, was forced to be circumcised. 4 Now this issue came up because of false brothers secretly brought in (who slipped in to spy out our freedom in Messiah, in order to bring us into bondage). 5 But we did not give in to them even for a moment, so that the truth of the Good News might be preserved for you.

6 But from those who seemed to be influential (whatever they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)— well, those influential ones added nothing to my message. 7 On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcised just as Peter was for the circumcised. 8 (For the same God who was at work in Peter as an emissary to the Jews, also was at work in me as a emissary to the Gentiles.) 9 Realizing the favor that had been given to me, Jacob and Peter[3] and John—who are the recognized pillars —shook hands in partnership with Barnabas and me,[4] so that we would go to the Gentiles and they to the Jews. 10 They asked only that we remember the poor—something I also was eager to do.

Confronting Hypocrisy

11 But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was clearly in the wrong—12 for before certain people came from Jacob, he regularly ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and separate himself, fearing those from the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. 14 But when I saw that they were not walking in line with the truth of the Good News, I said to Peter in front of everyone, “If you—being a Jew—live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?”

15 We are Jews by birth and not sinners from among the Gentiles. 16 Yet we know that a person is set right not by deeds based on Torah, but rather through putting trust in Messiah Yeshua.[5] So even we have put our trust in Messiah Yeshua, in order that we might be set right based on trust in Messiah and not by deeds based on Torah—because no human will be justified[6] by deeds based on Torah. 17 But if, while seeking to be justified in Messiah, we ourselves also were found to be sinners, is Messiah then an agent of sin? May it never be! 18 For if I rebuild the very things I tore down, I prove myself to be a law-breaker. 19 For through law I died to law, so that I might live for God. I have been crucified with Messiah; 20 and it is no longer I who live, but Messiah lives in me. And the life I now live in the body, I live by trusting in Ben-Elohim[7]—who loved me and gave Himself up for me. 21 I do not nullify the grace of God—for if righteousness comes through Torah, then Messiah died for no reason!

By Deeds or by Faith?

Galatians 3 1 O foolish Galatians, who cast a spell on you? Before your eyes Yeshua the Messiah was clearly portrayed as crucified. 2 I want to find out just one thing from you: did you receive the Ruach by deeds based on Torah, or by hearing based on trust? 3 Are you so foolish? After beginning with the Ruach, will you now reach the goal in the flesh? 4 Did you endure so much for nothing—if it really was for nothing? 5 So then, the One who gives you the Ruach and works miracles among you—does He do it because of your deeds based on Torah or your hearing based on trust and faithfulness?

6 Just as Abraham "believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,"[8] 7 know then that those who have faith are children of Abraham. 8 The Scriptures, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the Good News to Abraham in advance, saying, "All the nations shall be blessed through you."[9] 9 So then, the faithful are blessed along with Abraham, the faithful one.

10 For all who rely on the deeds of Torah are under a curse—for the Scriptures say, "Cursed is everyone who does not keep doing everything written in the scroll of the Torah."[10] 11 It is clear that no one is set right before God by Torah, for "the righteous shall live by emunah."[11] 12 However, Torah is not based on trust and faithfulness; on the contrary, "the one who does these things shall live by them."[12] 13 Messiah liberated us from Torah's curse, having become a curse for us (for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"[13])—14 in order that through Messiah Yeshua the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so we might receive the promise of the Ruach through trusting faith.

Slaves or Sons?

15 Brothers and sisters, I speak in human terms: even with a man's covenant, once it has been confirmed, no one cancels it or adds to it. 16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. It doesn't say, "and to seeds," as of many, but as of one, "and to your seed," who is the Messiah. 17 What I am saying is this: Torah, which came 430 years later, does not cancel the covenant previously confirmed by God, so as to make the promise ineffective. 18 For if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise. But God has graciously given it to Abraham by means of a promise.

19 Then why the Torah? It was added because of wrongdoings until the Seed would come—to whom the promise had been made. It was arranged through angels by the hand of an intermediary. 20 Now an intermediary is not for one party alone —but God is one. 21 Then is the Torah against the promises of God? May it never be! For if a law had been given that could impart life, certainly righteousness would have been based on law. 22 But the Scripture has locked up the whole world under sin, so that the promise based on trust in Messiah Yeshua[14] might be given to those who trust.

23 Now before faith came, we were being guarded under Torah—bound together until the coming faith would be revealed. 24 Therefore the Torah became our guardian to lead us to Messiah, so that we might be made right based on trusting. 25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian. 26 For you are all sons of God through trusting in Messiah Yeshua. 27 For all of you who were immersed in Messiah have clothed yourselves with Messiah. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female—for you are all one in Messiah Yeshua. 29 And if you belong to Messiah, then you are Abraham's seed—heirs according to the promise.

Living as Heirs

Galatians 4 1 Now I am saying, so long as the heir is underage, he is no different from a slave, even though he is the owner of everything. 2 Instead, he is under guardians and managers until the date set by the father. 3 So also, when we were underage, we were subservient to the basic principles of the world. 4 But when the fullness of time came, God sent out His Son, born of a woman and born under law—5 to free those under law, so we might receive adoption as sons. 6 Now because you are sons, God sent the Ruach of His Son into our hearts, who cries out, “Abba! Father!” 7 So you are no longer a slave but a son—and if a son, also an heir through God.[15] 8 But at that time, when you did not know God, you served those who by nature are not gods at all. 9 But now you have come to know God—or rather you have come to be known by God. So how can you turn back again to those weak and worthless principles? Do you want to be enslaved to them all over again? 10 You observe days and months and seasons and years. 11 I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored over you in vain!

12 I plead with you, brothers and sisters, become like me, for I became like you. You have done me no wrong—13 you know it was because of a physical ailment that I proclaimed the Good News to you the first time; 14 and though my physical condition was a trial to you, you did not hate or reject me. No, you welcomed me as a messenger of God—or even as Messiah Yeshua. 15 So where is your sense of joy? For I testify that you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me, if possible. 16 So have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?! 17 Others zealously court you—not in a good way, but they wish to shut you out so that you will court them. 18 To be courted is good, but let it always be in a good way—and not just when I am there with you. 19 My dear children! Again I suffer labor pains until Messiah is formed in you. 20 I wish I could be with you now and change my tone, for I don’t know what to make of you.

Midrash on Abraham's Two Sons

21 Tell me, you who want to be under Torah, don't you understand[16] the Torah? 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and one by the free woman.
[17] 23 But one—the son by the slave woman—was born naturally;
[18] while the other—the son by the free woman—was through the promise. 24 Now these things are being treated allegorically, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, giving birth to slavery—this is Hagar. 25 But this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery along with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem above is free—she is our mother. 27 For it is written:

> "Rejoice, O barren woman
> who bears no children.
> Break forth and shout,
> you who suffer no labor pains.
> For more are the children of the desolate
> than of the one who has a husband."[19]

28 Now you, brothers and sisters—like Isaac, you are children of promise. 29 But just as at that time the one born according to the flesh persecuted the one born according to the Ruach, so it is now. 30 But what does the Scripture say? "Drive out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son"[20] of the free woman. 31 So then, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman but of the free woman.

Freedom Based on Favor

Galatians 5 1 For freedom, Messiah set us free—so stand firm, and do not be burdened by a yoke of slavery again. 2 Listen—I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Messiah will be of no benefit to you. 3 Again I testify to every man who lets himself be circumcised, that he is obligated to keep the whole Torah. 4 You who are trying to be justified by Torah[21] have been cut off from Messiah; you have fallen away from grace.
5 For through the Ruach, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in Messiah Yeshua, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any meaning—but only trust and faithfulness expressing itself through love.

7 You were running a great race! Who blocked you from following the truth? 8 This detour doesn't come from the One who calls you. 9 A little hametz works its way through the whole batch of dough! 10 I am confident in the Lord that you will not think otherwise. But the one who is confusing you will pay the penalty, whoever he is. 11 As for me, brothers and sisters, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case, the stumbling block of the cross has been eliminated.
12 I only wish those who are agitating you would castrate
themselves![22]

Walking by the Ruach

13 Brothers and sisters, you were called to freedom—only do not let your freedom become an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. 14 For the whole Torah can be summed up in a single saying: "Love your neighbor as yourself."[23] 15 But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not destroyed by one another.

16 But I say, walk by the Ruach, and you will not carry out the desires of the flesh. 17 For the flesh sets its desire against the Ruach, but the Ruach sets its desire against the flesh—for these are in opposition to one another, so that you cannot do what you want. 18 But if you are led by the Ruach, you are not under law. 19 Now the deeds of the flesh are clear: sexual immorality, impurity, indecency, 20 idolatry, witchcraft, hostility, strife, jealousy, rage, selfish ambition, dissension,

factions, 21 envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these.
I am warning you, just as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit God's kingdom. 22 But the fruit of the Ruach is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, and self-control—against such things there is no law. 24 Now those who belong to Messiah[24] have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

25 If we live by the Ruach, let us also walk by the Ruach. 26 Let us not become conceited—provoking one another, envying one another.

Bearing Burdens

Galatians 6 1 Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught doing something wrong, you who are directed by the Ruach, restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness—looking closely at yourself so you are not tempted also. 2 Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you fulfill the Torah of Messiah. 3 For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he is fooling himself. 4 Rather let each one examine his own work.
Then he will have pride in himself alone and not in comparison to anyone else. 5 For each one will carry his own load.

6 Now let the one who is taught the word share all good things with his teacher. 7 Do not be deceived—God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows, that he also shall reap.
8 For the one who sows in the flesh will reap corruption from the flesh.[25] But the one who sows in the Ruach will reap from the Ruach eternal life. 9 So let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we will reap if we don't give up. 10 Therefore, whenever we have an opportunity, let us do good toward all[26]
—especially those who belong to the household of faith.

Living under God's Favor

11 Notice the large letters—I am writing to you with my own hand. 12 Those wanting to look good outwardly[27] are trying to force you to be circumcised—only so they will not be persecuted for the cross of Messiah. 13 For not even the circumcised keep Torah themselves. Yet they want to have you circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. 14 But may I never boast—except in the cross of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. Through Him the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. 15 For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means[28] anything—but only a new creation. 16 Now as many as live by this rule[29]—shalom and mercy on them and on the Israel of God.

17 From now on let no one make trouble for me, for I bear on my body the scars[30] of Yeshua.
18 The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ephesians

1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6

Greetings

Ephesians 1 1 Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by God's will,
To the kedoshim in Ephesus[1]—those trusting in Messiah Yeshua:
2 Grace and shalom to you, from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

God's Glorious Grace

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Messiah. 4 He chose us in the Messiah before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless before Him in love. 5 He predestined us for adoption as sons through Messiah Yeshua, in keeping with the good pleasure of His will—6 to the glorious praise of His grace, with which He favored us through the One He loves!
7 In Him we have redemption through His blood—the removal of trespasses—in keeping with the richness of His grace 8 that He lavished on us. In all wisdom and insight, 9 He made known to us the mystery of His will, in keeping with His good pleasure that He planned in Messiah. 10 The plan of the fullness of times is to bring all things together in the Messiah—both things in heaven and things on earth, all in Him. 11 In Him we also were chosen,[2] predestined according to His plan. He keeps working out all things according to the purpose of His will—12 so that we, who were first to put our hope in Messiah, might be for His glorious praise.
13 After you heard the message of truth—the Good News of your salvation—and when you put your trust in Him, you were sealed with the promised Ruach ha-Kodesh. 14 He is the guarantee of our inheritance, until the redemption of His possession—to His glorious praise!

God's Glorious Power Working in Us

15 Therefore, ever since I heard of your trust in the Lord Yeshua and of your love for all the kedoshim, 16 I never stop giving thanks for you as I mention you in my prayers—17 that the God of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, our glorious Father, may give you spiritual wisdom and revelation in knowing Him.
18 I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what is the richness of His glorious inheritance in the kedoshim, 19 and what is His exceedingly great power toward us who keep trusting Him—in keeping with the working of His mighty strength.

20 This power He exercised in Messiah when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in heaven.[3] 21 He is far above any ruler, authority, power, leader, and every name that is named—not only in the olam ha-zeh but also in the olam ha-ba. 22 God placed all things under Messiah's feet[4] and appointed Him as head over all things for His community
—23 which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Destined for Wrath, Saved by Grace

Ephesians 2 1 You were dead in your trespasses and sins. 2 At that time, you walked in the way of this world, in conformity to the ruler of the domain of the air—the ruler of the spirit who is now operating in the sons of disobedience. 3 We too all lived among them in the cravings of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and the mind. By nature we were children of wrath, just like the others. 4 But God was rich in mercy,[5] because of His great love with which He loved us. 5 Even when we were dead in our trespasses, He made us alive together with Messiah. (By grace you have been saved!) 6 And He raised us up with Him and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Messiah Yeshua—7 to show in the olam ha-ba the measureless richness of His grace in kindness toward us in Messiah Yeshua.
8 For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not from yourselves—it is the gift of God. 9 It is not based on deeds, so that no one may boast. 10 For we are His workmanship—created in Messiah Yeshua for good deeds, which God prepared beforehand so we might walk in them.

Jew and Gentile, One in Messiah

11 Therefore, keep in mind that once you—Gentiles in the flesh—were called “uncircumcision” by those called “circumcision” (which is performed on flesh by hand). 12 At that time you were separate from Messiah, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 13 But now in Messiah Yeshua, you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of the Messiah. 14 For He is our shalom, the One who made the two into one and broke down the middle wall of separation. Within His flesh He made powerless the hostility—15 the law code of mitzvot contained in regulations. He did this in order to create within Himself one new man from the two groups, making shalom, 16 and to reconcile both to God in one body through the cross—by which He put the hostility to death. 17 And He came and proclaimed shalom to you who were far away and shalom to those who were near[6]—18 for through Him we both have access to the Father by the same Ruach. 19 So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household. 20 You have been built on the foundation made up of the emissaries and prophets, with Messiah Yeshua Himself being the cornerstone.[7] 21 In Him the whole building, being fitted together, is growing into a holy temple for the Lord. 22 In Him, you also are being built together into God's dwelling place[8] in the Ruach.

The Mystery of the Gentiles Revealed

Ephesians 3 1 For this reason I, Paul, am a prisoner of Messiah Yeshua for the sake of you Gentiles. 2 Surely you have heard about the plan of God's grace given to me for you—3 that the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote before briefly. 4 When you read this, you can understand my insight into the mystery of Messiah—5 which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations, as it has now been revealed by the Ruach to His holy emissaries and prophets. 6 This mystery is that the Gentiles are joint heirs and fellow members of the same body and co-sharers of the promise in Messiah Yeshua through the Good News. 7 I became a servant of this Good News by the gift of God's favor given to me through the exercise of His power.

8 This favor was given to me, the very least of His kedoshim, to proclaim to the Gentiles the endless riches of the Messiah 9 and to bring to light the plan of the mystery—which for ages was hidden in God, who created all things. 10 The purpose is that through Messiah's community the multi-faceted wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places, 11 which is in keeping with the eternal purpose that He carried out in Messiah Yeshua our Lord. 12 In Him we have boldness and access with confidence through trusting in Him.[9] 13 So I ask you not to be discouraged by my troubles on your behalf—they are your glory.

Prayer for Power and Understanding

14 For this reason I bow my knees before the Father[10]
—15 from Him every family in heaven and on earth receives its name. 16 I pray that from His glorious riches He would grant you to be strengthened in your inner being with power through His Ruach, 17 so that Messiah may dwell in your hearts through faith. I pray that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 may have strength to grasp with all the kedoshim what is the width and length and height and depth, 19 and to know the love of Messiah which surpasses knowledge, so you may be filled up with all the fullness of God.

20 Now to Him who is able to do far beyond all that we ask or imagine, by means of His power that works in us, 21 to Him be the glory in the community of believers and in Messiah Yeshua throughout all generations[11] forever and ever! Amen.

Unity of the Body and of God

Ephesians 4 1 Therefore I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you were called—2 with complete humility and gentleness, with patience, putting up with one another in love, 3 making every effort to keep the unity of the Ruach in the bond of shalom.

4 There is one body and one Ruach, just as you also were called in one hope of your calling;
5 one Lord, one faith, one immersion;
6 one God and Father of all,[12]
who is over all and through all and in all.

7 But to each one of us grace was given in keeping with the measure of Messiah's gift. 8 Therefore it says,

"When He went up on high,
He led captive a troop of captives
and gave gifts to his people."[13]

9 Now what does "He went up" mean, except that He first went down to the lower regions of the earth?[14] 10 The One who came down is the same One who went up far above all the heavens, in order to fill all things.
11 He Himself gave some to be emissaries, some as prophets, some as proclaimers of the Good News, and some as shepherds and teachers—12 to equip the kedoshim for the work of service, for building up the body of Messiah. 13 This will continue until we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of Ben-Elohim—to mature adulthood, to the measure of the stature of Messiah's fullness. 14 As a result, we are no longer to be like children, tossed around by the waves and blown all over by every wind of teaching, by the trickery of men with cunning in deceitful scheming. 15 Instead, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all ways into Messiah, who is the Head.

16 From Him the whole body is fitted and held together by every supporting ligament. The proper working of each individual part produces the body's growth, for building itself up in love.

Put Off The Old, Put On The New

17 So I tell you this, indeed I insist on it in the Lord—walk no longer as the pagans do, stumbling around in the futility of their thinking. 18 They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance in them due to the hardness of their heart. 19 Since they are past feeling, they have turned themselves over to indecency for the practice of every kind of immorality, with greed for more.
20 However, you did not learn Messiah in this way—21 if indeed you have heard Him and were taught in Him, as the truth is in Yeshua. 22 With respect to your former lifestyle, you are to lay aside the old self corrupted by its deceitful desires, 23 be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and put on the new self—created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.
25 So lay aside lying and "each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,"[15] for we are members of one another. 26 "Be angry, yet do not sin."[16] Do not let the sun go down on your anger,[17] 27 nor give the devil a foothold. 28 The one who steals must steal no longer—instead he must work, doing something useful with his own hands, so he may have something to share with the one who has need. 29 Let no harmful word come out of your mouth, but only what is beneficial for building others up according to the need, so that it gives grace to those who hear it. 30 Do not grieve the Ruach ha-Kodesh of God,[18] by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31 Get rid of all bitterness and rage and anger and quarreling and slander, along with all malice. 32 Instead, be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving each other just as God in Messiah also forgave you.

Walk in the Light

Ephesians 5 1 Therefore be imitators of God, as dearly loved children; 2 and walk in love, just as Messiah also loved us[19] and gave Himself up for us as an offering and sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma. 3 But sexual immorality and any impurity or greed—don't even let these be mentioned among you, as is proper for kedoshim. 4 Obscene, coarse, and stupid talk are also out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. 5 Know for certain that no immoral, indecent, or greedy person—who is really an idol worshipper at heart—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Messiah and God.
6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things God's judgment comes on the children of disobedience. 7 Therefore do not be partners with them. 8 For once you were darkness, but now in union with the Lord you are light. Walk as children of light 9 (for the fruit of light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 trying to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. 11 Take no part in the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them—12 for it is disgraceful even to mention the things that are done by them in secret. 13 Yet everything exposed by the light is being made visible, 14 for everything made visible is light. This is why it says,

> "Wake up, O sleeper!
> Rise from the dead,
> and Messiah will shine on you."[20]

15 So pay close attention to how you walk—not as unwise people but as wise. 16 Make the most of your time because the days are evil. 17 For this reason do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. 18 And do not get drunk on wine, for that is recklessness.[21] Instead, be filled with the Ruach, 19 speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making music in your heart to the Lord—[20] always giving thanks for everything to God the Father, in the name of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Orderly Relationships: Marriage

[21] Also submit yourselves to one another out of reverence for Messiah—[22] wives to your own husbands as to the Lord. [23] For the husband is head of the wife, as Messiah also is head of His community—Himself the Savior of the body. [24] But as Messiah's community is submitted to Messiah, so also the wives to their husbands in everything.

[25] Husbands, love your wives just as Messiah also loved His community and gave Himself up for her [26] to make her holy, having cleansed her by immersion[22] in the word. [27] Messiah did this so that He might present to Himself His glorious community—not having stain or wrinkle or any such thing, but in order that she might be holy and blameless. [28] In the same way, husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

[29] For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it—just as Messiah also does His community, [30] because we are members of His body. [31] "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh."[23] [32] This mystery is great —but I am talking about Messiah and His community. [33] In any case, let each of you love his own wife as himself, and let the wife respect her husband.

Orderly Relationships: Parents

Ephesians 6 1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.[24] 2 “Honor your father and mother” (which is the first commandment with a promise), 3 “so that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.”[25] 4 Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.[26]

Orderly Relationships: Workplace

5 Slaves, obey your human masters, with respect and reverence, with sincerity of heart, as you would the Messiah
—6 not just under your master’s eye as people-pleasers, but as slaves of Messiah doing God’s will from the soul. 7 Serve with a positive attitude, as to the Lord and not to men—8 knowing that whatever good each one does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether slave or free. 9 And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Stop using threats, knowing that the Master—of them and of you, too—is in heaven,[27] and there is no favoritism with Him.

Put on the Armor of God

10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power.
11 Put on the full armor of God, so that you are able to stand against the schemes of the devil. 12 For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the worldly forces of this darkness, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.
13 Therefore, take up the full armor of God, so that you may be able to resist when the times are evil, and after you have done everything, to stand firm. 14 Stand firm then! Buckle the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness.[28] 15 Strap up your feet in readiness with the Good News of shalom.[29] 16 Above all, take up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.[30] 17 And take the helmet of salvation[31] and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.[32] 18 Pray in the Ruach on every occasion, with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, keep alert with perseverance and supplication for all the kedoshim. 19 And pray for me when I open my mouth to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may speak boldly, the way I should.

21 Now Tychicus, my dearly loved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will give you all the news about me so you may know how I'm doing. 22 I have sent him to you for this very reason, so you may know how we are and he may encourage your hearts.

23 Shalom to the brothers and sisters, and trusting love from God the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Yeshua the Messiah with undying love.

Philippians

1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Greetings

Philippians 1 [1] Paul and Timothy, slaves of Messiah Yeshua,
To all the kedoshim in Messiah Yeshua who are in Philippi with the overseers and servant-leaders:
[2] Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Thanksgiving and Prayers of Joy

3 I thank my God at every memory of you, 4 always praying with joy in every prayer of mine for you all, 5 because of your sharing in the Good News from the first day until now. 6 I am sure of this very thing—that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the Day of Messiah Yeshua.
7 It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I have you in my heart—for you all are partakers of grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News. 8 For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the affection of Messiah Yeshua.
9 Now this I pray, that your love might overflow still more and more in knowledge and depth of discernment, 10 in order to approve what is excellent—so that in the Day of Messiah you may be sincere and blameless, 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Yeshua the Messiah, to the glory and praise of God.

Even in Chains, Proclaiming Messiah

12 Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually resulted in the advancement of the Good News. 13 And so my imprisonment in the cause of Messiah has become well known throughout the whole Praetorian Guard and to everyone else. 14 Because of my imprisonment, most of the brothers and sisters have become confident in the Lord to dare more than ever to speak the message fearlessly. 15 Some are proclaiming the Messiah out of envy and strife, but others out of good will. 16 The latter do so out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News. 17 The former proclaim Messiah not sincerely, but out of selfishness—expecting to stir up trouble for me in my imprisonment. 18 But what does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in dishonesty or in truth, Messiah is being proclaimed—and in this I rejoice!

To Live Is Messiah

Yes, and I will keep rejoicing, [19] for I know that this will turn out for my deliverance, through your intercession and the help of the Ruach of Messiah Yeshua. [20] My eager expectation and hope is that in no way will I be put to shame, but that with complete boldness Messiah will even now, as always, be exalted in my body—whether through life or through death.
[21] For to me, to live is Messiah and to die is gain. [22] But if to live on in the body means fruit from my work, what shall I choose? I do not know. [23] I am torn between the two—having a desire to leave and be with Messiah, which is far better; [24] yet for your sake, to remain in the body is more necessary. [25] Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for the sake of your progress and joy in the faith—[26] so that your confidence in Messiah Yeshua might overflow because of me through my coming to you again.

[27] Only live your lives in a manner worthy of the Good News of the Messiah. Then, whether I come and see you or I am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit—striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the Good News [28] and not being frightened in any way by your opponents. For them this is a sign of destruction, but for you salvation—and that from God. [29] For to you was granted for Messiah's sake not only to trust in Him, but also to suffer for His sake—[30] experiencing the same struggle you saw in me and now you are hearing in me.

Messiah’s Example of Humility

Philippians 2 [1] Therefore if there is any encouragement in Messiah, if there is any comfort of love, if there is any fellowship of the Ruach, if there is any mercy and compassion, [2] then make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love, united in spirit, with one purpose. [3] Do nothing out of selfishness or conceit, but with humility consider others as more important than yourselves, [4] looking out not only for your own interests but also for the interests of others. [5] Have this attitude in yourselves, which also was in Messiah Yeshua,

[6] Who, though existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal to God a thing to be grasped.
[7] But He emptied Himself—
taking on the form of a slave,

becoming the likeness of men
and being found in appearance as a man.
8 He humbled Himself—
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
9 For this reason God highly exalted Him
and gave Him the name that is above every name, 10 that at the name of Yeshua every knee should bow,[1]
in heaven and on the earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue profess that Yeshua the Messiah is Lord—to the glory of God the Father.

Work Out Your Salvation

12 Therefore, my loved ones, just as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now even more in my absence—work out your salvation with fear and trembling. 13 For the One working in you is God—both to will and to work for His good pleasure.
14 Do everything without grumbling or arguing, 15 so that you might be blameless and innocent, children of God in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation.[2] Among them you shine as lights in the world, 16 holding fast to the word of life, so that I may boast in the day of Messiah that I did not run or labor in vain. 17 But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrifice and the service of your faith, I rejoice and share my joy with you all. 18 The same way, you also—rejoice and share your joy with me!

Sending and Receiving Encouragement

19 But I hope in the Lord Yeshua to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too might be encouraged when I know the news about you. 20 I have no one else like him who will genuinely care about you— 21 for all seek after their own interests, not those of Messiah Yeshua. 22 But you know Timothy's proven character, that he served with me in spreading the Good News like a son with his father. 23 Therefore I hope to send him immediately, as soon as I see how things go with me. 24 And I trust in the Lord that soon I too will come myself.

25 But I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus—my brother and co-worker and fellow soldier, as well as your messenger and aide to my need. 26 For he was longing for you all and troubled because you heard that he was sick. 27 He certainly was sick, close to death. But God had mercy on him—and not only on him but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 Therefore I have sent him with special urgency, so that when you see him again you might rejoice and I might be less worried about you. 29 So welcome him in the Lord with all joy, and hold men like him in high regard, 30 because he came close to death for the work of Messiah, risking his life to make up for what was lacking in your service
to me.

Where Do You Put Your Confidence?

Philippians 3 1 Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! To keep writing the same things to you is not troublesome for me—but for you it is a safeguard.
2 Beware of the dogs,[3] beware of the evil workers, beware of the mutilation.[4] 3 For it is we who are the circumcision, who worship by the Ruach Elohim and glory in Messiah Yeshua and have not depended on the flesh—4 though I myself might have confidence in the flesh also. If anyone else thinks he might depend on the flesh, I far more—5 circumcised the eighth day; of the nation of Israel; from the tribe of Benjamin; a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the Torah, a Pharisee; 6 as for zeal, persecuting Messiah's community; as for Torah righteousness,
found blameless.
7 But whatever things were gain to me, these I have considered as loss for the sake of the Messiah. 8 More than that, I consider all things to be loss in comparison to the surpassing value of the knowledge of Messiah Yeshua my Lord.
Because of Him I have suffered the loss of all things; and I consider them garbage[5] in order that I might gain Messiah 9 and be found in Him not having my righteousness derived from Torah, but one that is through trusting in Messiah—the righteousness from God based on trust.[6] 10 My aim is to know Him and the power of His resurrection and the sharing of His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death—11 if somehow I might arrive at the resurrection from among the dead.

Pursuing the Goal

12 Not that I have already obtained this or been perfected, but I press on if only I might take hold of that for which Messiah Yeshua took hold of me.[7] 13 Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself as having taken hold of this. But this one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, 14 I press on toward the goal for the reward of the upward calling of God in Messiah Yeshua.[8] 15 Therefore let all who are mature have this attitude; and if you have a different attitude in anything, this also God will reveal to you.
16 Nevertheless, let us live up to the same standard we have attained.

17 Brothers and sisters, join in following my example and notice those who walk according to the pattern you have in us.
(18 For many walk who are enemies of the cross of Messiah—I have often told you about them, and now I am even weeping as I tell you. 19 Their end is destruction—their god is their belly and their glory is in their shame. They set their minds on earthly things.)

20 For our citizenship is in heaven,
and from there we eagerly wait for the Savior,
the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.
21 He will transform this humble body of ours
into the likeness of His glorious body, through the power that enables Him
even to put all things in subjection to Himself.

Philippians 4 1 Therefore, my brothers and sisters whom I love and long for, my joy and crown—stand firm in the Lord in this way, my loved ones.

Rejoice in the Lord Always

2 I urge Euodia and Syntyche to be in harmony in the Lord.
3 Yes, and I ask you, true companion,[9] to help these women—they labored side by side with me in spreading the Good News, together with Clement also and the rest of my fellow workers,
whose names are in the Book of Life.
4 Rejoice in the Lord always—again I will say, rejoice! 5 Let your gentleness be known to all people. The Lord is near. 6 Do not be anxious about anything—but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the shalom of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Messiah Yeshua.[10]
8 Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable—if there is any virtue and if there is anything worthy of praise—dwell on these things.
9 What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—put these things into practice, and the God of shalom will be with you.

The Secret of Contentment

10 I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at last you have revived your concern for me (though you were concerned before but lacked opportunity to show it). 11 I am not saying this because I am in need—for whatever circumstance I am in, I have learned to be content. 12 I know what it is to live with humble means, and I know what it is to live in prosperity. In any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of contentment—both to be filled and to go hungry, to have abundance and to suffer need. 13 I can do all things through Messiah[11] who strengthens me.
14 Nevertheless, you have done well to share in my trouble.
15 Now you Philippians also know that in the beginning of the Good News, when I left Macedonia, not a single community partnered with me in giving and receiving—except you alone.
16 For even in Thessalonica you sent something for my need more than once. 17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but for fruit that overflows to your credit. 18 But I have received everything and have more than enough. I am amply supplied, having received from Epaphroditus what you sent—a fragrant aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God.[12] 19 My God will fulfill every need of yours according to the riches of His glory in Messiah Yeshua. 20 To our God and Father be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

Final Greetings and Blessings

[21] Greet all the kedoshim in Messiah Yeshua. The brethren who are with me greet you. [22] All the kedoshim greet you, especially those of Caesar's household.
[23] The grace of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with your spirit.

Colossians

1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Greetings

Colossians 1 [1] Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by God’s will,
and Timothy our brother,
[2] To the kedoshim, the faithful brothers and sisters in Messiah, who are at Colossae:
Grace and shalom to you from God our Father![1]

Thanksgiving and Prayer

3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, whenever we pray for you. 4 For we heard of your trust in Messiah Yeshua and the love you have for all the kedoshim 5 because of the hope stored up for you in heaven.
You heard before about this hope in the true message of the Good News 6 that has come to you. In all the world this Good News is bearing fruit and growing,[2] just as it has in you since you first heard it and came to truly know God's grace. 7 You learned it from Epaphras—our dearly loved fellow slave, who is a faithful servant of Messiah on our behalf. 8 He also made clear to us your love in the Ruach.

9 For this reason also, ever since we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you. We keep asking God that you might be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding—10 to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God. 11 We pray that you may be strengthened with all the power that comes from His glorious might, for you to have all kinds of patience and steadfastness. With joy 12 we give thanks to the Father, who qualified you to share in the inheritance of the kedoshim in the light. 13 He rescued us from the domain of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son whom He loves. 14 In Him we have redemption—the release of sins.

Ben-Elohim Is Supreme

15 He is the image of the invisible God,
the firstborn of all creation.
16 For by Him all things were created—in heaven and on earth,
the seen and the unseen,

whether thrones or angelic powers
or rulers or authorities.
All was created through Him and for Him.
17 He exists before everything,
and in Him all holds together.
18 He is the head of the body, His community.
He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead—
so that He might come to have first place in all things.
19 For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in
Him[3]
20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, making peace through the blood of His cross—
whether things on earth or things in heaven!

21 Once you were alienated from God and hostile in your attitude by wicked deeds. 22 But now He has reconciled you in Messiah's physical body through death, in order to present you holy, spotless and blameless in His eyes—23 if indeed you continue in the faith, established and firm, not budging from the hope of the Good News that you have heard. This Good News has been proclaimed throughout all creation under heaven, and I, Paul, have become its servant.

The Mystery Revealed

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and in my physical body—for the sake of His body, Messiah's community—I fill up what is lacking in the afflictions of Messiah. 25 I became its servant according to God's commission, given to me for you, in order to declare His message in full—26 the mystery that was hidden for ages and generations, but now has been revealed to His kedoshim. 27 God chose to make known to them this glorious mystery regarding the Gentiles—which is Messiah in you, the hope of glory! 28 We proclaim Him, warning and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present every person complete[4] in Messiah. 29 To this end I labor, striving with all His strength which is powerfully at work in me.

Colossians 2 1 I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those in Laodicea, as well as for those who have still not seen me face to face. 2 My purpose is that their hearts, joined together in love, may be encouraged. May they have all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, leading to a true knowledge of the mystery of God—that is, Messiah. 3 In Him all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.[5] 4 I am telling you this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive-sounding arguments. 5 For even though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit—rejoicing to see your good order and the steadfastness of your trust in Messiah.

Living Out the Mystery

6 Therefore as you received Messiah Yeshua as Lord, so continue to walk in Him—7 rooted and built up in Him and established in your faith just as you were taught, overflowing with thankfulness. 8 See that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men and the basic principles of the world rather than Messiah.
9 For all the fullness of Deity lives bodily in Him, 10 and in Him you have been filled to fullness. He is the head over every ruler and authority.

11 In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision done not by hand, in the stripping away of the body of the flesh through the circumcision of Messiah. 12 You were buried along with Him in immersion, through which you also were raised with Him by trusting in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead. 13 When you were dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with Him when He pardoned us all our transgressions. 14 He wiped out the handwritten record of debts with the decrees against us, which was hostile to us. He took it away by nailing it to the cross. 15 After disarming the principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in the cross.[6]

The Danger of False Wisdom

16 Therefore, do not let anyone pass judgment on you in matters of food or drink, or in respect to a festival or new moon or Shabbat.[7] 17 These are a foreshadowing of things to come, but the reality is Messiah.[8] 18 Let no one disqualify you by insisting on false humility and worship of angels—going into detail about what he has seen, puffed up without cause by his fleshly mind. 19 He is not holding fast to the Head. It is from Him that the whole body, nourished and held together by its joints and tendons, grows with a godly increase. 20 If you died with Messiah to the basic principles of the world, why—as though living in the world—do you subject yourselves to their rules? 21 “Don’t handle! Don’t taste! Don’t touch!” 22 These all lead to decay with use, based as they are on man-made commands and teachings.[9] 23 Indeed, these are matters that have an appearance of wisdom in self-made religion and humility and self-denial of the body—yet none are of any value for stopping indulgence of the flesh.

Put Off the Old, Put On the New

Colossians 3 [1] Therefore, if you have been raised up with Messiah, keep seeking the things above—where Messiah is, sitting at the right hand of God.[10] [2] Focus your mind on things above, not on things on the earth.[11] [3] For you have died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in God. [4] When Messiah, who is your[12] life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him, in glory!

[5] Therefore, put to death what is earthly in you—sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desire, and greed—for that is idolatry. [6] Because of such things God's wrath is coming upon the sons of disobedience. [7] At one time you also walked in these ways, when you used to live in these ways. [8] But now, set them all aside—anger, rage, malice, slander, and foul language out of your mouth. [9] Do not lie to one another.[13] After all, you have taken off the old self with its practices [10] and have put on the new self that is being renewed in knowledge, according to the image of the One who created him.[14] [11] Here there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, savage,[15] slave and free; but Messiah is all, and in all.

[12] Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves in tender compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience—[13] bearing with one another and forgiving each other, if anyone has a grievance against another.
Just as the Lord pardoned you, so also you must pardon others.
[14] But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfect harmony. [15] Let the shalom of Messiah rule in your hearts—to this shalom you were surely called in one body. Also be thankful. [16] Let the word of Messiah dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another with all wisdom in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with gratitude in your hearts to God. [17] And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Yeshua, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Orderly, Mutual Relationships

18 Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. 19 Husbands, love your wives and do not become harsh toward them.
20 Children, obey your parents in every respect, for this is pleasing to the Lord. 21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they will not become discouraged.
22 Slaves, obey your human masters in every respect—not just within your master's sight as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. 23 Whatever you do, work at it from the soul, as for the Lord and not for people. 24 For you know that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as a reward. It is to the Lord Messiah you are giving service. 25 For the one doing wrong will be paid back for what he did wrong,
and there is no favoritism.[16]

Colossians 4 1 Masters, give your slaves what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Devote Yourselves to Prayer

[2] Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving. [3] At the same time, keep praying for us as well, that God may open up to us a door for the message, to proclaim the mystery of Messiah—for which I am in prison. [4] Pray that I may make the mystery clear, as I ought to speak. [5] Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity. [6] Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, to know how you ought to answer everyone.

Further Instructions and Greetings

7 Tychicus—a dearly loved brother and trustworthy servant and fellow slave to the Lord—will tell you all the news about me. 8 I sent him to you for this very purpose, so you may know about us and he may encourage your hearts. 9 With him I sent Onesimus—a faithful and dear brother, who is one of your own.
They will tell you about everything here.

10 My fellow prisoner Aristarchus sends you his greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. (You received instructions about him—if he comes your way, welcome him.) 11 Yeshua who is called Justus also sends his greetings. These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God that are from among the circumcision—they have been a comfort to me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of your own, a slave of Messiah Yeshua, greets you. He is always laboring in prayer on your behalf, so you may stand complete and fully assured about everything that is God's will. 13 For I testify that he has gone to much trouble for you and for those in Laodicea and Hierapolis.
14 Luke, the dearly loved physician, sends you greetings, and so does Demas.

15 Greet the brothers and sisters in Laodicea, as well as Nympha and the community that meets in her house. 16 When this letter has been read among you, make sure that it is also read in Messiah's community of Laodicea. In turn, you should read my letter coming from Laodicea.

17 Tell Archippus, "See to it that you complete the service you have received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it."

18 This greeting is in my own hand—Paul's. Remember my chains!

Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5

Greetings

1 Thessalonians 1 1 Paul, Silvanus,[1] and Timothy,

To the community of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah:

Grace to you and shalom.

Good News with Power

2 We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers—continually 3 remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadiness of hope in our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 4 We know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that you are chosen, 5 because our Good News did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and with complete certainty—just as you know what kind of men we proved to be while among you for your sake.

6 You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having accepted the message in much tribulation, with the joy of the Ruach ha-Kodesh. 7 So you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. 8 For the word of the Lord rang out from you—not just in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faithfulness toward God has gone out, so that we have no need to say anything. 9 For they themselves bring news about what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, 10 and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Yeshua, the One delivering us from the coming wrath.

Cherishing Spiritual Children

1 Thessalonians 2 1 For you yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our visit to you was not in vain. 2 On the contrary, after we had first suffered and been mistreated in Philippi, as you know, [2] we had boldness in our God to tell you the Good News of God
—even in the midst of much opposition. 3 For our urging is not out of deceit or impure motives or trickery. 4 But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we declare it—not pleasing men but rather God, who examines our hearts.[3]

5 For as you know and God is witness, we never came with a word of flattery or a motive of greed—6 or seeking glory from people, whether from you or from others, 7 even though we could have thrown our weight around as emissaries of Messiah.
Rather, we proved to be infants[4] among you. Like a nursing mother[5] cherishes her children, 8 in this way we were yearning for you. We were delighted to share with you not only the Good News of God but also our very souls, because you had become dear to us.

9 For you recall, brothers and sisters, our labor and hardship —working night and day, so as not to burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the Good News of God. 10 You are witnesses, along with God, of how devoutly and righteously and blamelessly we behaved toward you who believe. 11 For you know how, as a father with his own children, 12 we exhorted and encouraged and urged each one of you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

13 For this reason, we also thank God constantly that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as it truly is—the word of God, which does its work in you who believe. 14 For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of God's communities in Messiah Yeshua that are in Judea—for you suffered the same things at the hands of your own countrymen as they did from the Judean leaders, 15 who killed both the Lord Yeshua and the prophets and drove us out.[6] They are not pleasing to God and hostile to all people, 16 hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they might be saved. As a result, they constantly fill up the measure of their sins. But wrath has come upon them at last.

Longing to Visit and Reassure

17 But brothers and sisters, after we were orphaned by separation from you for a short time (in person, not in heart), we were all the more eager in our great longing to see you face to face. 18 For we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, more than once—but satan thwarted us. 19 For who is our hope or joy or crown of boasting[7] before our Lord Yeshua at His coming? Is it not you? 20 For you are our glory and joy!

1 Thessalonians 3 [1] So when we could stand it no longer, we thought it best to be left behind alone in Athens. [2] We sent Timothy, our brother and co-worker for God in proclaiming the Good News of Messiah, in order to strengthen and encourage you in your faith, [3] so that no one would be shaken by these afflictions. For you yourselves know we are destined for this. [4] For even when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer persecution—just as has happened, as you know. [5] For this reason, when I could stand it no longer, I sent to find out about your faithfulness, for fear that the tempter had tempted you and that our labor might be in vain.

[6] But now that Timothy has come to us from you and brought us the good news of your faithfulness and love, and that you always have good memories of us, longing to see us just as we long to see you—[7] because of this, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and trouble, we were comforted about you by your faithfulness. [8] For now we live, since you are standing firm in the Lord. [9] For what thanks would be enough to offer to God, in return for all the joy we feel before our God because of you?
[10] Night time and day time we keep praying more than ever to see you face to face,[8] and mend any shortcomings in your faith.

Thanks, Joy, and Love Before God

[11] Now may our God and Father Himself and Yeshua our Lord direct our way to you. [12] May the Lord also cause you to increase and overflow in love for one another and for all people, just as we also do for you, [13] in order to strengthen your hearts as blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Yeshua with all His kedoshim. Amen.

Walking in Sanctification

1 Thessalonians 4 1 Finally then, brothers and sisters, we ask you and appeal in the Lord Yeshua—just as you received from us the way you ought to walk and please God (as in fact you are walking)—that you keep progressing more and more.[9] 2 For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Yeshua. 3 For this is the will of God—your sanctification:[10]
to abstain from sexual immorality;
4 to know, each of you, how to gain control over his own body[11] in holiness and honor—5 not in the passion of lust like the pagans who do not know God;
6 and not to overstep his brother and take advantage of him in this matter—
because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, as we told you before and solemnly warned you. 7 For God did not call us to impurity, but in holiness. 8 Consequently, the one who rejects this is not rejecting man, but God, who gives His Ruach ha-Kodesh to you.
9 Now concerning brotherly love, you have no need for anyone to write you—for you yourselves are taught by God[12] to love one another. 10 In fact, you even practice it toward all your brothers and sisters throughout Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, to keep progressing more and more 11 and aspire to lead a quiet life, to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, just as we directed you—12 so you may behave properly toward outsiders and not have need of anything.

The Shofar Call of Messiah's Return

13 Now we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who are asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest who have no hope. 14 For if we believe that Yeshua died and rose again, so with Him God will also bring those who have fallen asleep in Yeshua.[13] 15 For this we tell you, by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord shall in no way precede those who are asleep. 16 For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the blast of God’s shofar,[14] and the dead in Messiah shall rise first. 17 Then we who are alive, who are left behind, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air—and so we shall always be with the Lord. 18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Keep Watch for the Day of the Lord

1 Thessalonians 5 1 Now concerning the times and seasons,[15] brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. 2 For you yourselves know very well that the Day of the Lord[16] comes like a thief in the night. 3 When they are saying, “Shalom and safety,”[17] sudden destruction comes upon them like a woman having birth pains in the womb—there is no way they will escape. 4 But you, brothers and sisters, are not in the dark, so that the Day might overtake you like a thief.
[18] 5 For you all are sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night or of darkness—6 so then, let us not sleep as the others do, but let us remain on the alert and sober-minded. 7 For those who sleep, sleep at night; and those who get drunk, get drunk at night. 8 But since we are of the day, let us be sober-minded—putting on the breastplate of faithfulness and love, and the hope of salvation as a helmet.[19] 9 For God did not destine us for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 10 He died for us so that, whether we may be awake or asleep,[20] we may live together with Him. 11 Therefore encourage one another and build each other up—just as you in fact are doing.

Instructions for Community Life

12 Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to recognize those who work hard among you and are over you in the Lord and correct[21] you, 13 and to esteem them beyond all measure in love because of their work. Keep shalom among yourselves.
14 We urge you, brothers and sisters, correct the unruly, comfort the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone. 15 See that no one repays evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good for one another and for all.

16 Rejoice always,
17 pray constantly,
18 in everything give thanks;
for this is God's will for you in Messiah Yeshua.
19 Do not quench the Spirit,
20 do not despise prophetic messages,
21 but test all things, hold fast to what is good,
22 keep away from every kind of evil.

23 Now may the God of shalom Himself make you completely holy; and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept complete, blameless at the coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 24 Faithful is the One who calls you—and He will make it happen!

Closing Greetings

25 Brothers and sisters, pray for us.
26 Greet all the brothers and sisters with a holy kiss. 27 I charge you under oath, by the Lord, that this letter be read to all the brothers and sisters.
28 The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with you.[22]

2 Thessalonians

1 | 2 | 3

Greetings

2 Thessalonians 1 1 Paul, Silvanus,[1] and Timothy, To the community of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah: 2 Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

Troubles From an Eternal Perspective 3 We ought to always thank God for you, brothers and sisters, as is appropriate, because your faithfulness grows wonderfully, and the love of each one of you for one another continually increases. 4 Therefore, we ourselves boast of you among the communities of God—about your perseverance and faithfulness through all the persecutions and troubles that you endure. 5 This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, so that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering.

(6 For after all, it is right in the sight of God to pay back trouble to those who trouble you, 7 and relief to you who suffer trouble along with us. At the revelation of the Lord Yeshua from heaven with His mighty angels 8 in flaming fire,[2] He will command judgment on those who do not know God and do not heed the Good News of our Lord Yeshua.[3] 9 They will pay the price of eternal ruin, away from the presence of the Lord and the glory of His power[4]—10 on that Day when He comes to be glorified among His kedoshim and marveled at by all who have believed,[5] because our testimony to you was believed.) 11 With this in mind, we pray for you constantly, that our God may consider you worthy of the calling and fulfill with power every good desire and work of faith, 12 so the name of our Lord Yeshua may be glorified in you, and you in Him, in keeping with the grace of our God and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

The Man of Lawlessness

2 Thessalonians 2 1 Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, concerning the coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah and our gathering together to Him, 2 not to get shaken out of your mind or disturbed—either by a spirit or a word or a letter as if through us—as though the Day of the Lord[6] has come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way, for the Day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the one destined to be destroyed.[7] 4 He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he sits in the Temple of God, proclaiming himself that he is God.[8]

5 Don't you remember that when I was still with you I was telling you these things? 6 And you know what now holds back, for him to be revealed in his own time. 7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already operating; only there is one who holds back just now, until he is taken out of the way. 8 Then the lawless one will be revealed. The Lord Yeshua will slay him with the breath of His mouth and wipe him out with the appearance of His coming.[9] 9 The coming of the lawless one is connected to the activity of satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, 10 and with every kind of wicked deception toward those who are perishing. They perish because they did not accept the love of the truth so as to be saved. 11 For this reason God sends them a delusional force, to lead them to believe what is false,[10] 12 so that they may be judged—all those who did not believe the truth but delighted in wickedness.[11]

Firstfruits of Salvation

13 But we should always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because God chose you as firstfruits for salvation[12] through sanctification by the Ruach and belief in the truth. 14 He called you to this salvation through our proclaiming the Good News, for you to gain the glory of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 15 So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold on to the traditions which you were taught,
whether by word of mouth or by our letter.
16 Now may our Lord Yeshua the Messiah Himself and God our Father, who loved us and by grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, 17 comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good deed and word.

2 Thessalonians 3 [1] Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the word of the Lord may spread quickly and be glorified—just as it is with you. [2] Also pray that we may be rescued from perverse and evil people, for not all are trustworthy. [3] But the Lord is trustworthy—and He will strengthen and protect you from the evil one. [4] We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will keep doing what we command. [5] May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Messiah.

No Time to Be Lazy

6 Now we command you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, to keep away from every brother who behaves irresponsibly and not according to the tradition they received from us. 7 For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, for we did not behave inappropriately among you. 8 And we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but worked night and day with labor and hardship, so as not to burden any of you. 9 It wasn't that we had no right, but rather to offer ourselves as an example for you to imitate.
10 For even when we were with you, we would give you this order: if anyone will not work, neither shall he eat. 11 For we hear that some among you are behaving irresponsibly—not busy, but busybodies. 12 Now such people we command and urge in the Lord Messiah Yeshua to work in a quiet demeanor, so they may eat their own bread. 13 But as for you, brothers, do not grow weary of doing good.
14 If anyone does not obey our message in this letter, take special note of him and do not associate with him, so that he may be put to shame. 15 Yet do not consider him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

Final Words

16 Now may the Lord of shalom Himself give you shalom at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all!
17 The greeting is in my own hand—Paul's. It is a sign in every letter—in this way I write.[13]
18 The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with you all.
[14]

1 Timothy

1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6

Greeting

1 Timothy 1 [1] Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by the command of God our Savior and Messiah Yeshua, our hope.
[2] To Timothy, a true child in faith:
Grace, mercy, shalom from God the Father and Messiah
Yeshua, our Lord!

Beware of False Teachers

3 As I urged you, when I was leaving for Macedonia, stay in Ephesus to direct certain people not to pass on different instruction, 4 or to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies. These give rise to useless speculations rather than God's training which is in faithfulness. 5 Now the goal of this command is love from of a pure heart and a clear conscience and a genuine faith. 6 Some, having missed the mark, have turned away to fruitless discussion—7 wanting to be teachers of Torah, even though they do not understand what they keep saying or what they so dogmatically assert.
8 But we know that the Torah is good if one uses it legitimately, 9 knowing that the Torah is not given for a tzaddik but for the lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinful, for the unholy and worldly, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, 10 the sexually immoral, homosexuals, slave-traders, liars, perjurers, and for anything else that opposes sound teaching—11 in keeping with what was entrusted to me, the glorious Good News of the blessed God.

Mercy to the Worst of Sinners

12 I thank Messiah Yeshua our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, appointing me to service—13 even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a violent man. Yet I was shown mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, 14 and the grace of our Lord overflowed with the faith and love that are in Messiah Yeshua.
15 Trustworthy is the saying and deserving of complete acceptance: "Messiah Yeshua came into the world to save sinners"—of whom I am foremost. 16 Yet for this reason I was shown mercy—so that in me as the foremost, Messiah Yeshua might demonstrate His complete patience, as an example for those about to put their trust in Him for eternal life. 17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God,[1] be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Fight the Good Fight

18 This charge I entrust to you, Timothy my son, in keeping with the prophecies once spoken about you, so that by them you fight the good fight, 19 holding onto faith and a good conscience. By rejecting these, some have suffered shipwreck regarding their faith. 20 Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander—whom I have handed over to satan to be disciplined not to blaspheme.

Godliness in Prayer and Worship

1 Timothy 2 1 Therefore, first of all I urge that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made on behalf of all people
—2 for kings and all who are in authority[2]—so we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and respectfulness.
3 This is good and pleasing in the sight of God our Savior. 4 He desires all men to be saved and come into the knowledge of the truth.[3] 5 For there is one God[4] and there is one Mediator between God and men[5]—a human, Messiah Yeshua, 6 who gave Himself as a ransom for all[6]—the testimony at the proper time.
7 For this I was appointed a herald and an emissary (I am telling the truth; I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faithfulness and truth.

8 So I desire all men to pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands,[7] without anger and argument. 9 Likewise, women are to adorn themselves in appropriate clothing with modesty and sound judgment—not in seductive hairstyles[8] and gold or pearls or costly clothing, 10 but what is suitable for women claiming godliness, through good deeds. 11 Let a woman receive training in a quiet demeanor with complete respect for order.
12 But I do not allow a woman to train or dictate to a man, but to be in a quiet demeanor. 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.[9] 14 Also Adam was not deceived but the woman—being deceived, she fell into transgression.[10] 15 Nevertheless, she will be sustained through childbearing[11]—if they continue in faithfulness and love and holiness, with sound judgment.

Qualifications for Oversight and Service

1 Timothy 3 1 Trustworthy is the saying: “If any man aspires to the office of overseer,[12] he desires a good work.” 2 An overseer, then, must be beyond criticism—the husband of one wife, clear-minded, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, 3 not addicted to wine, not violent but gentle, peaceable, free from the love of money, 4 managing his own household well, keeping his children under control with all respectfulness.
5 (But if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he care for God’s community?) 6 He must not be a new believer,[13] or he may become puffed up and fall into the same judgment as the devil. 7 Furthermore, he must have a good reputation with those outside, so that he will not fall into disgrace and the devil’s trap.

8 Servant-leaders likewise must be dignified, not double-speaking, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for dishonest gain. 9 They must keep hold of the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. 10 Also let them first be tested—then let those who are blameless serve as servant-leaders. 11 Women likewise must be dignified, not backbiting; clear-minded, trustworthy in every respect. 12 Let servant-leaders be husbands of one wife, managing their children and their own households well. 13 For those who have served well as servant-leaders gain for themselves a good standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Messiah Yeshua.

14 These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly.
15 But if I delay, I write so you may know how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God—which is the community of the living God, a pillar and foundation of truth.
16 Now beyond question, great is the mystery of godliness:

He was revealed in the flesh,
Vindicated in the Spirit,
Seen by angels,
Proclaimed among the nations,

Trusted throughout the world,
Taken up in glory.

Advice to a Young Leader

1 Timothy 4 1 Now the Ruach clearly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, following deceitful spirits and teachings of demons 2 through the hypocrisy of false speakers—whose own conscience has been seared. 3 They forbid people to marry; they command people to abstain from foods that God created for the faithful to share with thanksgiving, having come to know the truth. 4 For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving; 5 for it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

6 In pointing out these things to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Messiah Yeshua, nourished in the words of the faith and the sound teaching that you have been following. 7 But avoid godless myths and old wives' tales;
instead, train yourself in godliness. 8 For physical exercise has some benefit; but godliness is beneficial for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the one to come.
9 Trustworthy is the saying and deserving of complete acceptance 10 (for to this end we work hard and strive): "We have set our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially those who trust." 11 Insist on these things and teach them.

12 Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but become an example of the faithful—in speech, in conduct, in love, in faithfulness, and in purity. 13 Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to encouragement, and to teaching. 14 Do not neglect the spiritual gift[14] within you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands of the elders. 15 Practice these things—be absorbed in them, so that your progress may be clear to all. 16 Give attention to yourself and your teaching. Persevere in these things, for in doing so you will save yourself[15] and those who hear you.

Giving Honor in the Community

1 Timothy 5 1 Never speak harshly to an older man[16] but appeal to him as a father; to younger men as brothers; 2 older women as mothers; and younger women as sisters—with complete purity.

3 Honor widows who are really widows—4 but if any widow has children or grandchildren, they must first learn to show devotion to their own home and give back to their parents, for this is pleasing before God. 5 Now she who is really a widow and has been left alone, has put her hope in God and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. 6 But she who is self-indulgent is dead even while she lives. 7 Insist on these things, so that they might be beyond criticism. 8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, especially those in his own house, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Let a widow be listed only if she is at least sixty, was the wife of one husband, 10 well known for good deeds, if she raised children, if she showed hospitality, if she washed the feet of the kedoshim, if she helped those in trouble, and if she devoted herself to every good work.

11 But refuse younger widows; for when their sensual desires draw them away from the Messiah, they want to get married —12 facing judgment because they have set aside their previous pledge. 13 And at the same time, they also learn to be idle, going around from house to house—and not just idle, but also gossipers and busybodies, saying things they should not.
14 Therefore, I want the younger widows to get married, have children, manage a household, and give no opportunity to the enemy for slander. 15 For some have already gone astray after satan. 16 If any woman of faith has widows in need, let her help them and not let the community be burdened, so it may help the real widows.

17 The elders who lead well are worthy of honor and honorarium[17]—especially those who work hard in the word and teaching. 18 For the Scripture says, “You shall not muzzle

the ox while he is threshing,”[18] and, “The worker is worthy of his wage.”[19] 19 Do not accept an accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses.[20] 20 Correct those who continue sinning in the presence of everyone, so that the rest also may fear.[21]

21 I solemnly charge you—before God and Messiah Yeshua and the chosen angels—to observe these things without taking sides, doing nothing out of favoritism. 22 Do not lay hands on anyone hastily or take part in the sins of others—keep yourself pure. 23 (No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach and for your frequent ailments.)

24 The sins of some people are obvious, going before them into judgment; but for others, their sins follow. 25 Likewise, good deeds are obvious, and the others cannot stay hidden.

1 Timothy 6 [1] Let all who are under the yoke as slaves consider their own masters worthy of full respect, so that God’s name and our teaching may not be slandered. [2] And let those who have believing masters not disrespect them because they are brothers, but serve them even more, since those who share in the benefit are believers and loved. Teach and encourage these things.

Finding True Riches

3 If anyone passes on a different teaching and does not agree with sound words, those of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, and with the instruction in keeping with godliness, 4 he is prideful, understanding nothing. Instead he is obsessed with arguments and disputes about words—out of which come envy, strife, slander, evil suspicions, 5 and constant friction between people corrupted in mind and deprived of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain.

6 Now godliness with contentment is great gain.[22] 7 For we brought nothing into this world, So we cannot take anything out of it.[23] 8 But having food and clothing, with these things we shall be content.[24] 9 But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and a trap and many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction.[25] 10 For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil—some, longing for it, have gone astray from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But you, O man of God, flee from these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faithfulness, love, perseverance, and gentleness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith! Take hold of the eternal life—you were called to it, and you made the good confession for it in the presence of many witnesses. 13 I charge you before God who gives life to all things and Messiah Yeshua who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate, 14 to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 15 This He will reveal in His own time—the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and the Lord of lords,[26] 16 who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or is able to see.
[27] To Him be honor and eternal dominion! Amen.

17 Direct those who are rich in this present age not to be proud or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches,[28] but rather on God—who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. 18 Direct them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, to be generous, sharing, 19 storing up for themselves a good foundation for the future, so they might take hold of the true life.

20 O Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you, turning away from pointless chatter and the contradictions of so-called knowledge—21 by professing it, some have missed the mark concerning the faith.

Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Greeting

2 Timothy 1 1 Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua through the will of God, according to the promise of life in Messiah Yeshua.
2 To Timothy my beloved child:
Grace, mercy, and shalom from God the Father and Messiah
Yeshua our Lord!

Stir up God's Charisma in You

3 I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience as my forefathers did, when I continually remember you in my prayers night and day. 4 I remember your tears, and I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. 5 I recall the genuine faithfulness within you, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am sure it is within you as well. 6 For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift[1] of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7 For God has not given us a spirit of timidity but of power and love and self-discipline.

Suffer with Me—for the Good News!

8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but share in suffering for the Good News
according to the power of God. 9 He has saved us and called us with a holy calling—not because of our deeds but because of His own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Messiah Yeshua before time began, 10 but now has been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Messiah Yeshua.
Indeed, He nullified the power of death and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News.

11 For this Good News I was appointed a herald and an emissary and a teacher. 12 For this reason I also am suffering these things—but I am not ashamed, for I know in whom I have trusted and I am convinced He is able to safeguard what I have entrusted to Him until that Day.

13 Keep the standard of sound words you have heard from me, in the faithfulness and love that are in Messiah Yeshua.
14 Guard the good that has been entrusted to you, through the Ruach ha-Kodesh who dwells in us.
15 You are aware that everyone in Asia has turned away from me—including Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my imprisonment. 17 On the contrary, when he was in Rome he zealously searched for me and found me. 18 May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord in that day! You know very well how much he served in Ephesus.

Disciples from Generation to Generation

2 Timothy 2 1 Therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Messiah Yeshua. 2 And what you have heard from me among many witnesses, entrust to faithful people who will be capable to teach others also. 3 Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Messiah Yeshua. 4 No one serving as a soldier entangles himself in the activities of everyday life, so that he might please the one who enlisted him. 5 Also, if anyone competes as an athlete, he is not crowned victorious unless he competes according to the rules. 6 The hard-working farmer ought to receive the first share of the crops. 7 Consider what I am saying, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.
8 Remember Yeshua the Messiah, raised from the dead, from the seed of David—according to my Good News. 9 For this I suffer hardship as a criminal, even to the point of chains—though the word of God is not chained. 10 Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the chosen, so they might obtain the salvation that is in Messiah Yeshua with eternal glory.
11 Trustworthy is the saying:

If we died with Him,
we will also live with Him;
12 if we endure, we will also reign with Him;
if we deny Him, He will also deny us;
13 if we are faithless, He remains faithful,
for He cannot deny Himself.

A Workman with the Word

14 Remind them of these things and solemnly charge them before God not to quarrel about words, which is useless—to the ruin of those who are listening. 15 Make every effort to present yourself before God as tried and true, as an unashamed worker cutting a straight path with the word of truth.[2] 16 But avoid godless chatter, for it will lead to further ungodliness 17 and their words will spread like cancer. Among them are Hymeneaus and Philetus—18 men who have missed the mark concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place. They are overturning the faith of some.
19 Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord knows those who are His,”[3] and, “Let everyone who names the name of the Lord keep away from unrighteousness.”[4] 20 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay—some for honor and some for common use. 21 Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor—sanctified, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.
22 Now flee from youthful desires; instead, pursue righteousness, faithfulness, love, and shalom, with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. 23 But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they produce quarrels. 24 The Lord’s slave must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, able to teach, tolerant. 25 Let him give guidance with humility to those who are in opposition—perhaps God may grant them a change of mind, leading to the knowledge of truth. 26 Then they may regain their senses and escape the devil’s snare, in which they had been held captive by him to do his will.

Opposition in the Last Days

2 Timothy 3 1 But understand this, that in the last days[5] hard times will come—2 for people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, 3 hardhearted, unforgiving, backbiting, without self-control, brutal, hating what is good,
4 treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, 5 holding to an outward form of godliness but denying its power. Avoid these people! 6 For among these are those who slip into households and deceive weak women weighed down with sins, led away by various desires, 7 always learning yet never able to come to the knowledge of truth.
8 Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses,[6] so do these people oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind and worthless concerning the faith. 9 But these people will not make any more progress—for their folly, like that of Jannes and Jambres, will be obvious to everyone.

10 You, however, closely followed my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faithfulness, patience, love, perseverance—11 as well as persecutions and sufferings that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! And the Lord rescued me from them all! 12 Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Messiah Yeshua will be persecuted. 13 But evil men and imposters will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

All Scripture Equips God's People

14 You, however, continue in what you have learned and what you have become convinced of. For you know from whom you have learned, 15 and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to make you wise, leading to salvation through trusting in Messiah Yeshua. 16 All Scripture is inspired by God[7] and useful for teaching, for reproof, for restoration, and for training in righteousness, 17 so that the person belonging to God may be capable, fully equipped for every good deed.

2 Timothy 4 1 I solemnly charge you—in the presence of God and Messiah Yeshua, who is about to judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His Kingdom—2 proclaim the Word! Be ready when it is convenient or inconvenient.[8] Confront, rebuke, encourage—with complete patience and instruction.
3 For the time will come when they will not put up with sound instruction, but they will pile up for themselves teachers in keeping with their own desires, to have their ears tickled. 4 And they will turn away from hearing the truth and wander off to myths. 5 You, however, keep a clear mind in all things, withstand hardship, do the work of proclaiming the Good News, and fulfill your service.

Finishing the Fight, Receiving the Crown

6 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. 8 In the future there is reserved for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not to me only, but also to everyone who has longed for His appearing.

9 Do all you can to come to me quickly—10 for Demas, having loved this world, has deserted me and gone to Thessolonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. 11 Luke is the only one with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. 12 I have sent Tychius to Ephesus.
13 When you come, bring the cloak which I left with Carpus in Troas, along with the scrolls, and especially the parchments.
14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm—the Lord will repay him according to his deeds. 15 Be on guard against him too, for he vehemently opposed our message.

16 At my first defense, no one stood by me; instead, they all deserted me—may it not be counted against them! 17 But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be proclaimed in full measure, and all the nations might hear—and I was rescued from the lion’s mouth![9]

18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and will deliver me safely into His heavenly Kingdom. To Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
20 Erastus stayed in Corinth, and I left Trophimus sick in Miletus. 21 Do all you can to come before winter. Eubulus sends you greetings, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters. 22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

1 | 2 | 3

Greetings

Titus 1 1 Paul, a slave of God and an emissary of Messiah Yeshua, for the faith of God's chosen and the knowledge of truth that is in keeping with godliness, 2 based on the hope of eternal life. God—who cannot lie[1]—promised this before the beginning of time. 3 But in His own time He made His message known, through a proclamation with which I was entrusted, by the command of God our Savior.

4 To Titus, a true child of our common faith:

Grace and shalom from God the Father and Messiah Yeshua, our Savior!

Setting the Community in Order

5 The reason I left you in Crete was so that you would set in order the things that remain and appoint elders in every city as I directed you—6 if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children of faith with no charge of wild living or rebellion. 7 For the overseer must be blameless as God's administrator—not arrogant, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain. 8 Rather he must be hospitable, loving what is good, self-controlled, upright, devout, disciplined. 9 He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message in keeping with the teaching, so he can both encourage by instruction that is sound and convict those who speak against it.

10 For there are many who are rebellious, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those from the circumcision. 11 They must be silenced—those who upset entire households by teaching what they should not, for the sake of dishonest gain. 12 One of them, one of their own prophets, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons." 13 This testimony is true. For this reason rebuke them sharply, so they might be sound in the faith, 14 not paying attention to Judaic myths and commands of men who turn away from the truth. 15 To the pure all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Both their mind and conscience are defiled. 16 They claim to know God but their deeds deny Him. They are despicable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed.

Advice for Behavior in Community

Titus 2 [1] But as for you, speak things that are fitting for sound instruction. [2] Older men are to be clear-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, in patience. [3] Likewise, older women are to be sanctified in demeanor—not backbiting or enslaved to much wine. Let them be teachers of what is good, [4] so that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, [5] to be self-controlled, pure, managing their household, kind, submitted to their own husbands, so that God's word may not be dishonored.

[6] Likewise urge the younger men to be self-controlled, [7] in all things showing yourself to be an example of good deeds—integrity in instruction, dignity, [8] sound speech beyond criticism—so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

[9] Urge slaves to submit themselves to their own masters in all things, well-pleasing and not back-talking, [10] not stealing but showing all good faithfulness, so that they may do credit to the teaching about God our Savior in everything.

[11] For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, [12] training us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live in a manner that is self-controlled and righteous and godly in the present age. [13] We wait for the blessed hope and appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior, Messiah Yeshua. [14] He gave Himself for us so that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and so that He might purify for Himself a chosen people, zealous for good deeds.[2] [15] So communicate these things, and encourage and correct with complete authority. Let no one look down on you.

Be Ready for Good Deeds

Titus 3 1 Remind the people to be submitted to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good deed, 2 to slander no one, without fighting, gentle, showing every courtesy to all people. 3 For we also once were foolish, disobedient, deluded, enslaved to various desires and pleasures, spending our lives in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another.

4 But when the kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared— 5 not by deeds of righteousness which we had done ourselves,
but because of His mercy—
He saved us through the mikveh of rebirth and renewing of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, 6 whom He abundantly poured out on us through Messiah Yeshua our Savior, 7 so that being set right by His grace, we might become heirs
with the confident hope of eternal life!

8 Trustworthy is the saying, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have put their trust in God may be careful to devote themselves to good deeds. These things are good and beneficial for people.
9 But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and strife and disputes about Torah, for they are unprofitable and useless. 10 Dismiss a quarrelsome person after a first and second warning, 11 knowing that such a person is twisted and is sinning—he is self-condemned.

Final Words

12 When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to come to me in Nicopolis, for I have decided to winter there. 13 Send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey with great care, so that nothing is lacking for them. 14 And let our people learn to devote themselves to doing mitzvot to meet urgent needs, so they will not be unfruitful.

15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

Greetings to a House Group

1 Paul, a prisoner of Messiah Yeshua, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our beloved and fellow worker.
2 To Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the community that meets in your house:
3 Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord
Messiah Yeshua!

Thanks for Love and Comfort

4 I thank my God always when mentioning you in my prayers,
5 hearing of your love and the trust you have toward the Lord
Yeshua and all the kedoshim. 6 May the fellowship of your faith become effective, with the recognition of all the good that is ours in Messiah. 7 For I've received much joy and comfort in your love, brother, because the hearts of the kedoshim have been refreshed through you.

Request for Philemon's Runaway

8 Therefore, though I have plenty of boldness in Messiah to order you to do what's right, 9 yet for love's sake I appeal to you instead. I, Paul, am an old man and now also a prisoner belonging to Messiah Yeshua. 10 I beg you for my child Onesimus—for whom I became a spiritual father while in chains. 11 He once was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and me. 12 I sent him back to you—he is my very heart. 13 I really wanted to keep him with me, so that on your behalf he might serve me while I am in chains for the Good News. 14 But I didn't want to do anything without your consent, so that your goodness wouldn't be by force but by free will.

15 For perhaps he was separated from you for a while in order that you might have him back forever, 16 no longer as a slave but more than a slave—as a beloved brother, especially to me but even more so to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

17 So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. 18 But if he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge that to my account. 19 I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay. (Not to mention that you owe me your very self.) 20 Yes, brother, let me have some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Messiah.

Added Request and Farewell

21 Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than what I say. 22 At the same time also, prepare a guest room for me—for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you. 23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Messiah Yeshua, greets you. 24 So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. 25 May the grace of our Lord Messiah Yeshua be with your spirit.
Amen.

Hebrews

11 | 12 | 13

Superiority of the Son

Hebrews 1 1 At many times and in many ways, God spoke long ago to the fathers through the prophets. 2 In these last days He has spoken to us through a Son,[1] whom He appointed heir of all things and through whom He created the universe. 3 This Son is the radiance of His glory and the imprint of His being, upholding all things by His powerful word.[2] When He had made purification for our sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.[3] 4 Thus He became as far above the angels as the name He has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

5 For to which of the angels did God ever say, "You are My Son.

Today I have become Your Father"?[4]

And again,

"I will be to Him a Father,

and He will be to Me a Son"?[5]

6 And again, when He brings the firstborn into the world, He says, "Let all the angels of God worship Him."[6]

7 And regarding the angels He says, "He makes His angels winds,

and His servants a flame of fire."[7]

8 But regarding the Son He says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever,

and a scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your Kingdom.

9 You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your companions."[8]

10 And, "In the beginning, ADONAI, You laid the foundation of the earth,

and the heavens are the works of Your hands.

11 They shall pass away, but You remain.
And they will all wear out like clothing.[9] 12 And like a robe You will roll them up, and like clothing they will be changed;
but You are the same,
and Your years shall never end.”[10]

13 But to which of the angels has He ever said, “Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool[11]
for Your feet”?[12]

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out for service to those about to inherit salvation?

Warning Not to Drift Away

Hebrews 2 [1] For this reason it is necessary for us to pay especially close attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away. [2] For if the word spoken through angels proved to be firm, and every violation and disobedience received a just payback, [3] how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? It was first spoken through the Lord and confirmed to us by those who heard. [4] At the same time, God was testifying by signs and wonders and various miracles and gifts of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, according to His will.

Yeshua Greater than Angels

[5] For it is not to angels that God has subjected the olam ha-ba —about which we speak. [6] But somewhere someone has testified, saying,

> "What is man, that You are mindful of him,
> or the son of man, that You care for him?
> [7] For a little while, You made him
> lower than the angels.
> You crowned him with glory and honor.
> [8] You put all things in subjection > underneath his feet."[13]

For when He put all things in subjection to him, He left nothing outside his control. But for now we do not yet see all things subjected to him. [9] But we see One who was made for a little while lower than the angels—namely, Yeshua. He is now crowned with glory and honor, because of the death He suffered so that, by the grace of God, He might taste death for everyone.

[10] For it was fitting for God—for whom and through whom all things exist—in leading many sons to glory, to perfect through sufferings the initiator of their salvation. [11] For both He who sanctifies and those being sanctified are all from one—so He is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,[14] 12 saying,

> “I will proclaim Your name
> to My brothers and sisters.
> In the midst of the congregation
> I will sing praise to You.”[15]

13 And again,

> “I will put My trust in Him.”[16]

And again,

> “Here am I and the children God has given Me.”[17]

14 Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared the same humanity—so that through death He might break the power of the one who had the power of death (that is, the devil) 15 and free those who by fear of death were in bondage all their lives. 16 For surely He is not concerned about angels, but about the seed of Abraham.
17 Therefore He had to be made like His brothers in all things, so He might become a merciful and faithful Kohen Gadol in matters relating to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people.[18] 18 Because He Himself suffered when put to the test, He is able to help those being tested.

Yeshua Greater than Moses

Hebrews 3 1 Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, partners in a heavenly calling, take notice of Yeshua—the Emissary and Kohen Gadol we affirm. 2 He was faithful to the One who appointed Him in His house—as was Moses also.[19] 3 For He has been considered worthy of more glory than Moses, even as the builder of the house has more honor than the house. 4 For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God. 5 Now Moses surely was faithful in all God's house as a servant, for a witness of things to be spoken later. 6 But Messiah, as Son, is over God's house—and we are His house, if we hold firm to our boldness and what we are proud to hope.

Listen and Obey, or Harden and Fall Away

7 Therefore, just as the Ruach ha-Kodesh says,

"Today if you hear His voice,
8 do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion,[20]
on the day of testing[21] in the wilderness.
9 There your fathers put Me to the test,
though they saw My works for forty years.
10 Therefore I was provoked by this generation,
and I said, 'They always go astray in their heart,
and they have not known My ways.'
11 As I swore in my wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest.'"[22]

12 Take care, brothers and sisters, that none of you has an evil heart of unbelief that falls away from the living God. 13 But encourage one another day by day—as long as it is called "Today"—so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we have become partners of Messiah, if we hold our original conviction firm until the end.

15 As it is said,

> “Today if you hear His voice,
> do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.”[23]

16 Now which ones heard and rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt with Moses? 17 And with whom was He provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest? Was it not to those who were disobedient? 19 So we see that they were not able to enter in because of lack of trust.

Make Every Effort to Enter God's Rest

Hebrews 4 1 Let us fear then! Though a promise of entering His rest is left open, some of you would seem to have fallen short.
2 For we also have had Good News proclaimed to us, just as they did. But the word they heard did not help them, because they were not unified with those who listened in faith. 3 For we who have trusted are entering into that rest. It is just as God has said,

> "So in My wrath I swore,
> 'They shall never enter My rest,'"[24]

even though His works were finished since the foundation of the world. 4 For somewhere He has spoken about the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works,"[25] 5 and again in this passage:

> "They shall never enter My rest."[26]

6 So then it remains for some to enter into it; yet those who formerly had Good News proclaimed to them did not enter because of disobedience. 7 Again, God appoints a certain day
—"Today"—saying through David after so long a time, just as it has been said before,

> "Today, if you hear His voice,
> do not harden your hearts."[27]

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. 9 So there remains a Shabbat rest for the people of God. 10 For the one who has entered God's rest has also ceased from his own work, just as God did from His.
11 Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one may fall through the same pattern of disobedience.
12 For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword—piercing right through to a separation of soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. 13 No creature is hidden from Him, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.[28]

Yeshua, Our Compassionate Kohen Gadol

14 Therefore, since we have a great Kohen Gadol who has passed through the heavens, Yeshua Ben-Elohim, let us hold firmly to our confessed allegiance. 15 For we do not have a kohen gadol who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all the same ways—yet without sin. 16 Therefore let us draw near to the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace for help in time of need.

Hebrews 5 1 For every kohen gadol taken from among men is appointed to act on behalf of people in matters relating to God, [29] so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2 He is able to empathize with the ignorant and deluded, since he himself also is subject to weakness. 3 For this reason he has to make offerings for sins—just as for the people, so also for himself.[30] 4 And no one takes this honor for himself, but only when he is called by God, as Aaron was.[31]

5 So also Messiah did not glorify Himself to be made Kohen Gadol; rather, it was God who said to Him, "You are My Son;
today I have become Your Father."[32]
6 And He says in a different passage, "You are a kohen forever, according to the order of Melchizedek."[33]

7 In the days of His life on earth,[34] Yeshua offered up both prayers and pleas, with loud crying and tears, to the One able to save Him from death; and He was heard because of His reverence. 8 Though He was a Son, He learned obedience from what He suffered. 9 And once made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey Him—10 called by God Kohen Gadol "according to the order of Melchizedek."[35]

Moving on to Maturity 11 About this subject there is much for us to say, and it is hard to explain since you have become sluggish in hearing. 12 For although you ought to be teachers by this time, again you need someone to teach you the basics of God's sayings. You have come to need milk, not solid food. 13 For anyone living on milk is inexperienced with the teaching about righteousness—he is an infant.[36] 14 But solid food is for the mature, who through practice have their senses trained to discern both good and evil.

Hebrews 6 1 Therefore leaving the basic teaching of the Messiah, let us move on toward maturity—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of trust in God, 2 of teaching about immersions, laying on of hands, resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. 3 Now this we will do, if God permits.

4 For it is impossible for those who once were enlightened—having tasted of the heavenly gift and become partakers of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, 5 and having tasted the good word of God and the powers of the olam ha-ba, 6 and then having fallen away—to renew again to repentance, since they are again crucifying Ben-Elohim for themselves and publicly disgracing
Him. 7 For the earth—having soaked up the rain frequently falling on it—brings forth vegetation[37] useful to those for whom it is farmed; and it shares in God's blessing. 8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed—its end is to be burned over.[38]

9 But even though we speak like this, loved ones, concerning you we are convinced of better things[39]—things coming with salvation. 10 For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love that you showed for His name, in having served and continuing to serve the kedoshim. 11 But we long for each of you to show the same eagerness for the certainty of hope to the very end—12 so you will not be sluggish,[40] but imitators of those inheriting the promises through trust and perseverance.

The Promise and the Oath

13 Now when God made His promise to Abraham—since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, 14 saying, “Surely I will bless you, and surely I will multiply you.”[41] 15 And so after waiting patiently, Abraham reached the promise.[42] 16 For people swear by someone greater; and the oath, as confirmation, is an end to all their disputing. 17 In the same way God, determining to point out more clearly to the heirs of the promise the unchanging nature of His purpose, guaranteed it with an oath. 18 So by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie,[43] we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope set before us. 19 We have this hope as an anchor of the soul, both firm and steady—a hope that enters the inner place behind the curtain.
[44] 20 Yeshua has entered there as a forerunner on our behalf, having become Kohen Gadol “forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”[45]

Melchizedek, a Kohen Forever

Hebrews 7 1 For this Melchizedek was king of Salem, kohen of God Most High. He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him,[46] 2 and to him Abraham apportioned a tenth of everything. First, by the translation of his name, he is “King of Righteousness”[47]; and then also King of Salem, which is “King of Shalom.” 3 Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life but made like Ben-Elohim, he remains a kohen for all time.

4 Now see how great this man is! Even Abraham the patriarch gave him a tenth out of the plunder. 5 Indeed, those sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have, according to Torah, a command to collect a tithe from the people[48]—that is, from their kin, although they have come out of the loins of Abraham.
6 But this one—who did not have their genealogy—has collected tithes from Abraham and has blessed him, the one holding the promises. 7 Now it is beyond dispute that the lesser is blessed by the greater. 8 In one case, dying men receive tithes; but in the other, one about whom it is testified that he lives on.
9 Through Abraham even Levi, the one receiving tithes, has paid the tithe, so to speak—10 for he was still in his father’s loins when Melchizedek met him.

Yeshua, Our Kohen Gadol Forever

11 Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for based on it the people had been given the Torah[49]), what further need was there for a different kohen to arise—designated according to the order of Melchizedek, not according to the order of Aaron? 12 For whenever the priesthood is altered, out of necessity an alteration[50] of law also takes place.
13 For the one about whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. 14 For it is clear that our Lord has sprung forth[51] from Judah—concerning this tribe, Moses said nothing about kohanim. 15 And it is even more evident, if another kohen arises like Melchizedek—[16] one made not by virtue of a Torah requirement of physical descent,[52] but by virtue of the power of an indestructible life. [17] For it is testified, "You are a kohen forever, according to the order of Melchizedek."[53]

[18] For on the one hand, a former requirement is set aside because of its weakness and ineffectiveness—[19] for Torah made nothing perfect. But on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.
[20] Moreover, it was not without a sworn oath. (Others indeed have become kohanim without a sworn oath, [21] but He with an oath—sworn by the One who said to Him, "ADONAI has sworn and will not change His mind, 'You are a kohen forever.'"[54]) [22] How much more then has Yeshua become the guarantee of a better covenant.
[23] Now on the one hand, many have become kohanim, who through death are prevented from continuing in office.[55] [24] But on the other hand, the One who does remain forever has a permanent priesthood. [25] Therefore He is also able to save completely those who draw near to God through Him, always living to make intercession for them.
[26] For such a Kohen Gadol was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. [27] He has no need to offer up sacrifices day by day like those other kohanim g'dolim—first for their own sins and then for the sins of the people.[56] For when He offered up Himself,
He did this once for all. [28] For the Torah appoints as kohanim g'dolim men who have weakness; but the word of the oath,[57]
which came after the Torah, appoints a Son—made perfect
forever.

Yeshua, Mediator of a Better Covenant

Hebrews 8 1 Now here is the main point being said. We do have such a Kohen Gadol, who has taken His seat at the right hand[58] of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens. 2 He is a priestly attendant of the Holies and the true Tent—which ADONAI set up, not man. 3 For every kohen gadol is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, so it is necessary for this One also to have something to offer.[59] 4 Now if He were on earth, He would not be a kohen at all, since there are those who offer the gifts according to the Torah. 5 They offer service in a replica[60] and foreshadower of the heavenlies—one that is just as Moses was instructed by God when he was about to complete the tabernacle. For He says, "See that you make everything according to the design that was shown to you on the mountain."[61] 6 But now Yeshua has obtained a more excellent ministry, insofar as He is the mediator of a better covenant which has been enacted on better promises.

7 For if that first one had been faultless, there would not have been discourse seeking a second. 8 For finding fault with them, He says, "Behold, days are coming,

says ADONAI, when I will inaugurate a new covenant

with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah.
9 It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt.
For they did not remain in My covenant, and I did not care for them, says ADONAI.
10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel
after those days, says ADONAI.
I will put My Torah into their mind, and upon their hearts I will write it.
And I will be their God,
and they shall be My people.[62]
11 And no more will they teach, each one his fellow citizen and each one his brother, saying,
'Know ADONAI,'
because all will know Me,
from the least of them to the greatest.
12 For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and their sins I will remember no more."[63]
13 In saying "new," He has treated the first as old; but what is being made old and aging is close to vanishing.

Messiah Enters the Heavenly Holies

Hebrews 9 1 Now even the first one had regulations for worship and the earthly sanctuary.[64] 2 For a tent was prepared: in the outer[65] part were the menorah, the table, and the presentation of the bread[66]—this is called the Holy Place. 3 Beyond the second curtain[67] was a dwelling called the Holy of Holies.[68] 4 It held a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant, completely covered with gold. In the ark was a golden jar holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant[69]—5 and above it, cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat.[70] But it is not now possible to speak in detail about these things.

6 Now with these things prepared this way, the kohanim do continually enter into the outer tent[71]

while completing the services; 7 but into the inner,[72]

once a year, the kohen gadol alone[73]—and not without blood which he offers for himself and for the unintentional sins[74] of the people. 8 By this the Ruach ha-Kodesh makes clear that the way into the Holies has not yet been revealed while the first tent is still standing. 9 It is a symbol for the present time. Accordingly, gifts and sacrifices are being offered that cannot make the worshiper perfect with respect to conscience. 10 These relate only to food and drink and various washings[75]—regulations for the body imposed until a time of setting things
straight.

11 But when Messiah appeared as Kohen Gadol of the good things that have now come, passing through the greater and more perfect Tent not made with hands (that is to say not of this creation), 12 He entered into the Holies once for all—not by the blood of goats and calves but by His own blood, having obtained eternal redemption. 13 For if the blood of goats and bulls[76] and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled[77] sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh, 14 how much more will the blood of Messiah—who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God—cleanse our[78] conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 For this reason He is the mediator of a new covenant,[79] in order that those called may receive the promised eternal inheritance—since a death has taken place that redeems them from violations under the first covenant. 16 For where there is a covenant, the death of the one who made it must be established.[80] 17 For a covenant is secured upon the basis of dead bodies, since it has no strength as long as the one who made it lives. 18 That is why not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood. 19 For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Torah, he took the blood of the calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and he sprinkled both the book itself and all the people. 20 He said, “This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded you.”[81] 21 And in the same way, he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry with the blood.[82] 22 And nearly everything is purified in blood according to the Torah, and apart from the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.[83]

23 Therefore it was necessary for the replicas of these heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices—but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Messiah did not enter into Holies made with hands—counterparts of the true things—but into heaven itself, now to appear in God’s presence on our behalf. 25 And He did not offer Himself again and again—as the kohen gadol enters into the Holy of Holies year after year with blood that is not his own. 26 For then He would have needed to suffer again and again from the foundation of the world. But as it is, He has been revealed once and for all at the close of the ages—to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. 27 And just as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this judgment,[84] 28 so also Messiah, was offered once to bear the sins of many.[85] He will appear a second time, apart from sin, to those eagerly awaiting Him for salvation.[86]

Perfect Pardon in the New Covenant

Hebrews 10 1 The Torah has a shadow of the good things to come —not the form itself of the realities. For this reason it can never, by means of the same sacrifices they offer constantly year after year, make perfect those who draw near.
2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshipers—cleansed once and for all—would no longer have consciousness of sins? 3 But in these sacrifices is a reminder of sins year after year—4 for it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.
5 So when Messiah comes into the world, He says,

> "Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
> but a body You prepared for Me.
> 6 In whole burnt offerings and sin offerings
> You did not delight.
> 7 Then I said, 'Behold, I come to do Your will, O God
> (in the scroll of the book it is written of Me).'"[87]

8 After saying above, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not desire, nor did You delight in them" (those which are offered according to Torah), 9 then He said, "Behold, I come to do Your will." He takes away the first to establish the second. 10 By His will we have been made holy through the offering of the body of Messiah Yeshua once for all.
11 Indeed, every kohen stands day by day serving and offering the same sacrifices again and again, which can never take away sins.[88] 12 But on the other hand, when this One offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, He sat down at the right hand of God—13 waiting from then on, until His enemies are made a footstool for His feet.[89] 14 For by one offering He has perfected forever those being made holy. 15 The Ruach ha-Kodesh also testifies to us—for after saying,

16 “This is the covenant that I will cut with them:
‘After those days,’ says ADONAI,
‘I will put My Torah upon their hearts,
and upon their minds I will write it,’”[90]
then He says,
17 “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”[91]
18 Now where there is removal of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Let Us Pray Boldly in God’s Presence

19 Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have boldness to enter into the Holies by the blood of Yeshua. 20 He inaugurated a new and living way for us through the curtain—that is, His flesh.
21 We also have a Kohen Gadol over God’s household.
22 So let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and body washed with pure water.
23 Let us hold fast the unwavering confession of hope, for He who promised is faithful.
24 And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good deeds.
25 And do not neglect our own meetings, as is the habit of some, but encourage one another—and all the more so as you see the Day[92] approaching.
26 For if we keep on sinning willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 27 but only a terrifying expectation of judgment and a fury of fire about to devour the enemies of God.[93] 28 Anyone who rejected the Torah of Moses dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses.[94] 29 How much more severe do you think the punishment will be for the one who has trampled Ben-Elohim underfoot, and has regarded as unholy the blood of the covenant by which he was made holy, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know the One who said, “Vengeance is Mine; I will repay,” and again, “ADONAI will judge

His people.”[95] 31 It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Suffering Perfects Yeshua’s Followers

32 But remember the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings.
33 Sometimes you were publicly exposed to abuses and afflictions, and other times you became partners with those who were treated this way. 34 For you suffered along with the prisoners and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better and lasting possession. 35 Therefore, do not lose your boldness, which has great reward. 36 For you need perseverance so that, after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise. 37 For yet

> “in a very little while,[96]
> the Coming One will come,
> and He will not delay.[97] > 38 But My righteous one shall live by emunah;
> and if he shrinks back,
> My soul takes no pleasure in him.”[98]

39 But we are not among the timid ones on the path to destruction, but among the faithful ones on the path to the preservation of the soul.

The Faithful See from Afar

Hebrews 11 [1] Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of realities not seen. [2] For by it the elders received commendation. [3] By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen did not come from anything visible.

[4] By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain.
Through faith he was commended as righteous[99] when God approved of his gifts. And through faith he still speaks, although he is dead.

[5] By faith Enoch was taken so as not to see death, and he was not found because God took him.[100] For before he was taken, he was commended as pleasing to God. [6] Now without faith it is impossible to please God. For the one who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

[7] By faith Noah, when warned about events not yet seen, in holy fear prepared an ark for the safety of his household.
Through faith he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

[8] By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place he was to receive as an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he was going. [9] By faith he migrated to the land of promise as if it were foreign, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob—fellow heirs of the same promise. [10] For he was waiting for the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is
God.

[11] By faith even Sarah herself received ability to conceive[101]
when she was barren and past the age, since she considered the One who had made the promise to be faithful. [12] So from one—and him as good as dead—were fathered offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven, and as uncountable as the sand on the seashore.[102]

[13] These all died in faith without receiving the things promised—but they saw them and welcomed them from afar, and they confessed that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth.[103] 14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. 15 If indeed they had been thinking about where they had come from, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But as it is, they yearn for a better land —that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had received the promises was offering up his one and only son—18 the one about whom it was said, "Through Isaac offspring shall be named for you."[104] 19 He reasoned that God was able to raise him up even from the dead—and in a sense, he did receive him back from there.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and he bowed in worship while leaning on the top of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the exodus of Bnei-Yisrael and gave instructions about his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was an extraordinary child and they were not afraid of the king's decree. 24 By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. 25 Instead he chose to suffer mistreatment along with the people of God, rather than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin. 26 He considered the disgrace of Messiah[105] as greater riches than the treasures of Egypt—because he was looking ahead to the reward. 27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger—for he persevered as if seeing the One who is invisible. 28 By faith he kept the Passover and the smearing of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as if on dry ground. When the Egyptians tried it, they were swallowed up.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were circled for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she welcomed the spies with shalom.

32 And what more shall I say? For time would fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, also of David and Samuel and the prophets. 33 By faith they conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, and made foreign armies flee.

35 Women received their dead raised back to life; and others were tortured, after not accepting release, so they might obtain a better resurrection. 36 Others experienced the trial of mocking and scourging—yes, and even chains and prison.

37 They were stoned, they were sawed in two, they were murdered with the sword. They went around in sheepskins and goatskins; they were destitute, afflicted, mistreated. 38 The world was not worthy of them! They wandered around in deserts and mountains, caves and holes in the ground. 39 And all these, though commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised—40 because God had provided something better for us, so that only with us would they reach perfection.

Running the Race with Discipline

Hebrews 12 1 Therefore, since we have such a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also get rid of every weight and entangling sin. Let us run with endurance the race set before us, 2 focusing on Yeshua, the initiator and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before Him, He endured the cross, disregarding its shame; and He has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of God.[106] 3 Consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you may not grow weary in your souls and lose heart.
4 In struggling against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of bloodshed. 5 Have you forgotten the warning addressed to you as sons?

> "My son, do not take lightly the discipline of ADONAI > or lose heart when you are corrected by Him, > 6 because ADONAI disciplines the one He loves > and punishes every son He accepts."[107]

7 It is for discipline that you endure. God is treating you as sons—for what son does a father not discipline? 8 But if you are without discipline—something all have come to share—then you are illegitimate and not sons. 9 Besides, we are used to having human fathers as instructors—and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live?
10 Indeed, for a short time they disciplined us as seemed best to them; but He does so for our benefit, so that we may share in His holiness. 11 Now all discipline seems painful at the moment —not joyful. But later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.
12 Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble![108] 13 And make straight paths for your feet,[109] so that what is lame will not be pulled out of joint but rather be healed. 14 Pursue shalom with everyone, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. 15 See to it that no one falls short of the grace of God; and see to it that no bitter root springs up and causes trouble, and by it many be defiled. 16 Also see to it that there is no immoral or godless person—like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal.[110] 17 For you know that later, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. He found no chance for repentance, though he begged for it with tears.[111]

Entering the Unshakeable Kingdom

18 For you have not come to a mountain[112] that can be touched, and to a blazing fire, and to darkness and gloom and storm, 19 and to the blast of a shofar[113] and a voice whose words made those who heard it beg that not another word be spoken to them. 20 For they could not bear what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned.”[114] 21 So terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I am quaking with fear.”[115]

22 But you have come to Mount Zion—to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem,[116] and to myriads of angels, a joyous gathering, 23 and to the assembly of the firstborn[117] who are written in a scroll in heaven,[118] and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect, 24 and to Yeshua, the Mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks of something better than the blood of Abel.

25 See to it that you do not refuse the One who is speaking!
For if they did not escape when they refused the One who was warning them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject the One who warns us from heaven. 26 His voice shook the earth then,[119] but now He has promised, saying, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens.”[120] 27 Now this phrase, “Yet once more,” shows the removal of those things that are shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain.[121] 28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude—through this we may offer worship in a manner pleasing to God, with reverence and awe. 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

Brotherly Love in the Community

Hebrews 13 1 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers—for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. 3 Remember the prisoners as if you were fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated as if you also were suffering bodily. 4 Let marriage be held in honor among all and the marriage bed kept undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. 5 Keep your lifestyle free from the love of money, and be content with what you have. For God Himself has said, “I will never leave you or forsake you,”[122] 6 so that with confidence we say,

“The Lord is my helper; I will not fear.
What will man do to me?”[123]

7 Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you.
Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. 8 Yeshua the Messiah is the same yesterday, today, and forever. 9 Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace—not by foods that have not benefited those occupied by them. 10 We have an altar from which those serving in the tabernacle have no right to eat. 11 For the bodies of those animals—whose blood is brought into the Holies by the kohen gadol as an offering for sin—are burned outside the camp.[124]
12 Therefore, to make the people holy through His own blood, Yeshua also suffered outside the gate. 13 So let us go to Him outside the camp, bearing His disgrace. 14 For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the one that is to come. 15 Through Yeshua then, let us continually offer up to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips giving thanks to His name. 16 Do not neglect doing good and sharing,[125] for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as ones who must give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no benefit to you.

[18] Pray for us, for we are convinced that we have a clear conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things. [19] I especially urge you to do this, so that I may be restored to you sooner.

Closing Blessing

20 Now may the God of shalom, who brought up from the dead
the great Shepherd of the sheep by the blood of an everlasting covenant,[126] our Lord Yeshua, 21 make you complete in every good thing to do His will, accomplishing in us what is pleasing in His sight, through Messiah Yeshua. To Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

22 But I urge you, brothers and sisters, listen patiently to this word of exhortation, for in fact I have written to you in few words. 23 Know that our brother Timothy has been released. If he comes soon, I will visit you with him.
24 Greet all your leaders and all the kedoshim—those from Italy greet you.
25 Grace be with you all.

Jacob (James)

Greetings

Jacob (James) 1 [1] Jacob, a slave of God and of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah,

To the twelve tribes in the Diaspora:

Shalom!

Rejoice in Trials

2 Consider it all joy, my brethren,[1] when you encounter various trials, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. 4 And let endurance have its perfect work, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. 5 But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God,[2] who gives to all without hesitation and without reproach; and it will be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, without any doubting—for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. 7 For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord—8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

9 But let the brother in humble circumstances boast in his high position—10 and the rich person in his humble position, because like the flower of the grass he will pass away. 11 For the sun arises with a scorching heat and withers the grass, and its flower falls off and the beauty of its appearance is destroyed.[3] So also the rich man in the midst of his pursuits will wither away.

12 Happy is the one who endures testing, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love Him. 13 Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am being tempted by God”—for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He himself tempts no one. 14 But each one is tempted when he is dragged away and enticed by his own desire. 15 Then when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin is full grown, it brings forth death.[4]

16 Do not be deceived, my dear brothers and sisters. 17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow. 18 By His will, He brought us forth by the word of truth, so that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all He created.[5]

Quick to Listen, Slow to Anger

19 Know this, my dear brothers and sisters: let every person be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger[6]—20 for human anger doesn't produce the righteousness of God. 21 So put away all moral filth and excess of evil and receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.
22 But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror
—24 for once he looks at himself and goes away, he immediately forgets what sort of person he was. 25 But the one who looks intently into the perfect Torah, the Torah that gives freedom, and continues in it, not becoming a hearer who forgets but a doer who acts—he shall be blessed in what he does.
26 If anyone thinks he is religious and yet does not bridle his tongue[7] but deceives his heart, this person's religion is futile.
27 Pure and undefiled religion before our God and Father is this:
to care for orphans and widows in their distress,[8] and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Honor the Poor Person

Jacob (James) 2

1 My brothers and sisters, do not hold the faith of our glorious Lord Yeshua the Messiah while showing favoritism.[9] 2 For if a man with a gold ring and fine clothes comes into your synagogue, and a poor person in filthy clothes also comes in; 3 and you pay special attention to the one wearing the fine clothing and you say, “Sit here in a good place”; and you say to the poor person, “Stand there,” or “Sit by my footstool”; 4 haven’t you made distinctions between yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

5 Listen, my dear brothers and sisters. Didn’t God choose the poor in this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom that He promised to those who love Him? 6 But you have dishonored the poor person. Isn’t it the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? 7 Don’t they blaspheme the good name by which you were called? 8 If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,” you do well. 9 But if you show favoritism, you are committing sin and are convicted by the Torah as transgressors. 10 For whoever keeps the whole Torah but stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. 11 For the one who said, “Do not commit adultery,” also said, “Do not commit murder.” Now if you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the Torah.
[10] 12 So speak and act as those who will be judged according to a Torah that gives freedom. 13 For judgment is merciless to the one who does not show mercy.[11] Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Show Faith with Works

14 What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith, but does not have works? Can such faith save him?
15 If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, 16 and one of you says to them, “Go in shalom, keep warm and well fed,” but you do not give them what the body needs, what good is that? 17 So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself.
18 But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.”
Show me your faith without works and I will show you faith by my works. 19 You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe—and shudder! 20 But do you want to know, you empty person, that faith without works is dead? 21 Wasn’t Abraham our father proved righteous by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? 22 You see that faith worked together with his works, and by the works his faith was made complete. 23 The Scripture was fulfilled that says, “And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness”[12]—and he was called God’s friend.[13] 24 You see that a man is proved righteous by works and not by faith alone.
25 And likewise, wasn’t Rahab the prostitute also proved righteous by works when she welcomed the messengers and sent them out another way?[14] 26 For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

Dangerous Tongue

Jacob (James) 3 1 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, since you know that we will receive a stricter judgment. 2 For we all stumble in many ways. If someone does not stumble in speech, he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body as well. 3 And if we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole body as well.4 See also the ships—though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. 5 So also the tongue is a small member—yet it boasts of great things.[15] See how so small a fire sets a blaze so great a forest! 6 And the tongue is a fire.[16] The tongue is a world of evil placed among our body parts. It pollutes the whole body and sets on fire the course of life—and is set on fire by Gehenna.
7 For every species of beasts and birds, reptiles and sea creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. 8 But no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.[17] 9 With it we bless our ADONAI and Father, and with it we curse people, who are made in the image of God.[18] 10 From the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, these things should not be. 11 A spring doesn't pour out fresh and bitter water from the same opening, does it? 12 My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree produce olives, or a vine produce figs? Neither can salt water produce fresh water.

Gentle Wisdom from Above

13 Who among you is wise and understanding? By his good conduct let him show his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom.
14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. 15 This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic. 16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil practice. 17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, not hypocritical. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in shalom
by those who make shalom.[19]

Resist Pride and Evil

Jacob (James) 4 1 Where do quarrels and conflicts among you come from? Don't they come from this, namely your passions that battle within your body parts? 2 You crave and have not. You murder and you envy, yet you cannot get it. You fight and you wage war. You do not have because you do not ask. 3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives so you may spend it on your passions. 4 You adulteresses![20] Don't you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God?
Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5 Or do you think that in vain the Scripture says, "He yearns jealously over the spirit which He made to dwell in us"? 6 But He gives greater grace. Therefore it says,

> "God opposes the proud,
> but gives grace to the humble."[21]

7 Therefore submit to God. But resist the devil and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you.
Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded![22] 9 Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into gloom.
10 Humble yourselves in the sight of ADONAI, and He shall lift you up.[23] 11 Do not speak evil against one another, brethren.
The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the Torah and judges the Torah. But if you judge the Torah, you are not a doer of the Torah, but a judge.
12 There is only one lawgiver and judge[24]—the One who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you who judges your neighbor?

If the Lord Wills, We Will

13 Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a town and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit.” 14 Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. What is your life? For you are a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes.[25] 15 Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that.” 16 But now you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil. 17 Therefore whoever knows the right thing to do and does not do it—for him it is sin.

Rotten Riches

Jacob (James) 5

1 Come now, you rich, weep and wail over the miseries that are coming upon you. 2 Your riches have rotted and your clothes have become moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and your silver have rusted and their rust will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up treasure in the last days. 4 Behold, the wages of the workers who mowed your fields—which you kept back by fraud—are crying out against you. And the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts.[26] 5 You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts for a day of slaughter.[27] 6 You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous person[28]—he does not resist you.

Be Patient for His Coming

7 So be patient, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient for it until it receives the early and late rain.[29] 8 You also be patient. Strengthen your hearts because the coming of the Lord is near. 9 Do not grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be judged.
Behold, the judge is standing at the doors. 10 As an example of suffering and patience, brothers and sisters, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

11 Behold, we consider blessed those who showed endurance.
You have heard of the endurance of Job,[30] and you have seen the outcome of ADONAI—that ADONAI is full of compassion and
mercy.[31]

12 But above all, my dear brothers and sisters, do not swear—either by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath. But let your “yes” be “yes,” and your “no,” be “no”—so that you may not fall under judgment.

Praying for the Sick

13 Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray.[32] Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praises. 14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of Messiah's community, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.
15 The prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.
16 So confess your offenses to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous person is very powerful. 17 Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain.
And it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.
[33] 18 He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

19 My brothers and sisters, if any among you strays from the truth and someone turns him back, 20 let him know that the one who turns a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death and cover a multitude of sins.[34]

1 Peter

Greetings

1 Peter 1 1 Peter, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua,

To the sojourners of the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia—chosen 2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, set apart by the Ruach for obedience and for sprinkling with the blood[1] of Yeshua the Messiah:

May grace and shalom be multiplied to you.

A Message of Living Hope

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah! In His great mercy He caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Messiah Yeshua from the dead. 4 An incorruptible, undefiled, and unfading inheritance has been reserved in heaven for you. 5 By trusting, you are being protected by God's power for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 You rejoice in this greatly, even though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been distressed by various trials. 7 These trials are so that the true metal[2] of your faith (far more valuable than gold, which perishes though refined by fire) may come to light in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Messiah Yeshua. 8 Though you have not seen Him, you love Him. And even though you don't see Him now, you trust Him and are filled with a joy that is glorious beyond words, 9 receiving the outcome of your faith
—the salvation of your souls. 10 The prophets, who spoke about the grace that was to be yours, searched for this salvation and investigated carefully. 11 They were trying to find out the time and circumstances the Ruach of Messiah within them was indicating, when predicting the sufferings in store for Messiah[3] and the glories to follow. 12 It was revealed to them that they were providing these messages not to themselves but to you. These messages have now been announced to you through those who proclaimed the Good News to you by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, sent from heaven. Even angels long to catch a glimpse of these things.

A Call to Be Holy

13 So brace your minds for action. Keep your balance. And set your hope completely on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Yeshua the Messiah. 14 Like obedient children, do not be shaped by the cravings you had formerly in your ignorance. 15 Instead, just like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in everything you do. 16 For it is written,

> “Kedoshim you shall be, for I am kadosh.”[4]

17 If you call on Him as Father—the One who judges impartially according to each one’s deeds—then live out the time of sojourning in reverent fear.
18 You know that you were redeemed from the futile way of life handed down from your ancestors—not with perishable things such as silver or gold, 19 but with precious blood like that of a lamb without defect or spot, the blood of Messiah. 20 He was chosen before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake. 21 Through Him you are believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your trust and hope are in God.
22 Now that you have purified your souls in obedience to the truth,[5] leading to sincere brotherly love, love one another fervently from a pure heart. 23 You have been born again—not from perishable seed but imperishable—through the living and enduring word of God. 24 For,

> “All humanity is like grass,
> And all its glory like a wildflower.
> The grass withers, and the flower falls off,
> 25 But the word of the Lord endures forever.”[6]

And this is the word that was proclaimed as Good News to
you.

Living Stones

1 Peter 2 1 So get rid of all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all lashon ha-ra. 2 As newborn babes, long for pure spiritual milk,[7] so that by it you may grow toward salvation—3 now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.[8] 4 As you come to Him, a living stone[9] rejected by men but chosen by God and precious, 5 you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house—a holy priesthood to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Messiah Yeshua. 6 For it says in Scripture,

> “Behold, I lay in Zion a stone,
> a chosen, precious cornerstone.

Whoever trusts in Him
will never be put to shame.”[10]

7 Now the value is for you who keep trusting; but for those who do not trust,

“The stone which the builders rejected—
this One has become the chief cornerstone,”[11]

8 and
“a stone of stumbling,
and a rock of offense.”[12]

They stumble because they are disobeying the word—to this they were also appointed. 9 But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God’s own possession, so that you may proclaim the praises of the One who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.[13]

10 Once you were “not a people,”
but now you are “God’s people.”
You were shown “no mercy,”
but now you have been shown “mercy.”[14]

11 Loved ones, I urge you as strangers and sojourners to keep away from the fleshly cravings that war against the soul.
12 Keep your conduct honorable among the Gentiles. Then while they speak against you as evildoers, they may—from noticing your good deeds—glorify God in the day of visitation.

Respect and Order

13 For the Lord’s sake, submit yourselves to every human authority—whether to a king as supreme, 14 or to governors sent by him for the punishment of those who do evil and the praise of those who do good. 15 For this is God’s will, that you silence the ignorance of foolish men by doing good. 16 Live as free people, but not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil.
Rather, live as God’s slaves. 17 Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.
18 Slaves, with all respect submit yourselves to your masters—not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are harsh. 19 For this finds favor if, for the sake of conscience toward God, someone endures grief from suffering undeservedly. 20 For what credit is there if, when you sin and get a beating, you endure? But if you endure when you do good and suffer for it, this finds favor with God. 21 For you were called to this, because Messiah also suffered for you, leaving you an example so that you might follow in His footsteps:
22 “He committed no sin,
nor was any deceit found in His mouth.”[15] 23 When He was abused, He did not return the abuse.[16] While suffering, He made no threats. Instead, He kept entrusting Himself to the One who judges righteously. 24 He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that we, removed from sins, might live for righteousness. “By His wounds you were
healed.”[17]
25 For you like sheep were going astray,[18] but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

1 Peter 3 1 Likewise, wives, be submitted to your own husbands so that—even if some do not obey the message—by the wives’ conduct, without a word they may be won over 2 as they observe your pure, reverent conduct.[19] 3 Don’t let your beauty[20] be external—braiding the hair and wearing gold jewelry or fine clothes.[21] 4 Instead let it be in the hidden person of the heart, with the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God’s sight is very precious. 5 For this is the way the holy women, who put their hope in God, used to beautify themselves long ago—being submitted to their own husbands 6 just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord.[22]
You have become her daughters by doing what is good and not fearing intimidation. 7 In the same way, husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way. Though they are weaker partners, honor them as equal heirs of the grace of life. In this way, your prayers will not be hindered.

Suffering for Doing Good

8 Finally, all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, brotherly, tenderhearted, humble-minded. 9 Do not repay evil for evil or insult for insult, but give a blessing instead—it is for this reason you were called, so that you might inherit a blessing.
10 For,

"The one who loves life,
wanting to see good days,
must keep his tongue from evil
and his lips from speaking deceit.
11 He must turn away from evil and do good.
He must seek shalom and pursue it.
12 For the eyes of ADONAI are on the righteous and His ears open to their prayer, but the face of ADONAI is against those who do evil."[23]

13 Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good?
14 But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. Do not be afraid or worry about their threats.[24] 15 Instead sanctify Messiah as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an answer to anyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, 16 yet with humility and reverence—keeping a clear conscience so that, whatever you are accused of, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Messiah may be put to shame. 17 For it is better to suffer for doing good (if it is God's will) than for doing evil.

18 For Messiah once suffered for sins also—the righteous for the unrighteous[25]—in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Ruach. 19 Through the Ruach He also went and preached to the spirits in prison.
20 Long ago they disobeyed while God kept waiting patiently, in the days of Noah as the ark was being built. In that ark a few (that is, eight souls) were brought safely through water.
21 Corresponding to that, immersion now brings you to safety—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but a pledge to God of a good conscience—through the resurrection of Messiah Yeshua.

22 He has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels and authorities and powers subjected to Him.

How to Live in the Last Days

1 Peter 4 [1] Therefore, since Messiah suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same attitude. For the one who has suffered in the flesh is finished with sin. [2] As a result, he lives the rest of his time in the flesh no longer for human desires, but for God's will. [3] For the time that has passed was sufficient for you to carry out the desire of the pagans—living in indecency, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, wild parties, and lawless idolatries. [4] They are surprised that you do not run with them into the same riot of recklessness, and they vilify you.
[5] But they will have to give an account to the One who stands ready to judge the living and the dead. [6] For this was the reason the Good News was proclaimed even to those now dead, so that though they are judged in the flesh before humans, they might live in the Ruach before God.

[7] Now the end of all things is near. So be self-controlled and sober-minded for prayer. [8] Above all, keep your love for one another constant, for "love covers a multitude of sins."[26] [9] Be hospitable one to another without grumbling. [10] As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of the many-sided grace of God. [11] Whoever speaks, let it be as one speaking the utterances of God. Whoever serves, let it be with the strength that God supplies. So in all things may God be glorified through Messiah Yeshua—all glory and power to Him forever and ever! Amen.

[12] Loved ones, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal taking place among you to test you—as though something strange were happening to you. [13] Instead, rejoice insofar as you share in the sufferings of Messiah, so that at the revelation of His glory you may also rejoice and be glad. [14] If you are insulted for the name of Messiah,[27] you are fortunate, for the Spirit of glory[28] and of God rests on you. [15] For let none of you suffer as a murderer or thief or evildoer or as a troublemaker. [16] But if anyone suffers for following Messiah,[29] let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this name. [17] For the time has come for judgment to begin with the house of God.[30] If judgment begins with us first, what will be the end for those who disobey the Good News of God?

18 Now, “if it is hard for the righteous to be saved,
what shall become of the ungodly and the sinner?”[31]

19 So then, those who suffer according to God’s will—let them trust their souls to a faithful Creator while continuing to do good.

Shepherds Lead by Example

1 Peter 5 1 Therefore I appeal to the elders among you—as a fellow elder and witness of Messiah's sufferings, and a partaker also of the glory about to be revealed—2 shepherd God's flock among you. Watch over it not under compulsion but willingly before God, not for dishonest gain but eagerly. 3 Don't lord it over[32] those apportioned to you, but become examples to the flock. 4 When the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. 5 Likewise, you younger ones, submit yourselves to the elders. And all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for

> "God opposes the proud,
> but gives grace to the humble."[33]

6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, so that He may lift you up at the appropriate time. 7 Cast all your worries on Him,[34] for He cares for you. 8 Stay alert!
Watch out! Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, searching for someone to devour. 9 Stand up against him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being laid upon your brothers and sisters throughout the world. 10 After you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace—who has called you into His eternal glory in Messiah—will Himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. 11 All power to Him forever![35] Amen.

Final Greetings

12 Through Silvanus,[36] whom I consider our faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it! 13 Messiah's community in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings. So does my son Mark. 14 Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Shalom to you all who are in Messiah. Amen.

2 Peter

Greetings

2 Peter 1 ¹ Simon Peter, a slave and emissary of Messiah Yeshua,
To those who have received a faith equal to ours through the righteousness of our God and Savior, Messiah Yeshua:
² May grace and shalom be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Yeshua our Lord.

Qualities for Living Forever

3 His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and virtue. 4 Through these things He has given us His precious and magnificent promises,[1] so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, since you have escaped the corruption that evil desires have brought into the world. 5 Now for this very reason, making every effort, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue, knowledge; 6 and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, patience; and to patience, godliness; 7 and to godliness, brotherly love; and to brotherly love, love.[2] 8 For if these qualities are in you and increasing, they keep you from becoming idle and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 9 But anyone who lacks these qualities is blind—nearsighted because he has forgotten his cleansing from past sins. 10 Therefore, brothers and sisters, make all the more effort to make your calling and election certain—for if you keep doing these things, you will never stumble. 11 For in this way entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Messiah Yeshua, will be richly provided for you.

12 Therefore I intend to keep reminding you of these things, even though you know them and are well-grounded in the truth that you have. 13 I think it right to stir you up with a reminder, as long as I remain alive in this “tent” of a body[3]—14 knowing that my death[4] is soon, as our Lord Yeshua the Messiah has made clear to me. 15 And I will make every effort for you to always remember these things even after my departure.

Distinguishing True Testimony from Tales

16 For we did not follow cleverly concocted tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. 17 For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, a voice came to Him from the Majestic Glory: “This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased!”[5] 18 And we ourselves heard this voice come out of heaven, when we were with Him on the holy mountain.[6] 19 Furthermore, we have the reliable prophetic word. You do well by paying attention to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.[7] 20 Above all understand this: no prophecy of Scripture comes about from a person’s own interpretation.
21 For no prophecy was ever brought forth by human will;
rather, people spoke from God as they were moved by the Ruach ha-Kodesh.[8]

False Teachers Condemned

2 Peter 2 1 But false prophets also arose among the people,[9] just as there will also be false teachers among you. They will secretly bring in destructive heresies. They will even deny the Master who bought them[10]—bringing swift destruction upon themselves. 2 Many will follow their immoral ways, and as a result the way of the truth will be maligned. 3 In their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction does not slumber.

4 For God did not spare angels when they sinned, but threw them into Sheol.[11] He put them in chains of gloomy darkness, to be held until the judgment.[12] 5 He did not spare the ancient world. He preserved only Noah, a proclaimer of righteousness, along with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly. 6 He devastated the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, reducing them to ashes[13]—making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly. 7 He rescued Lot, a righteous man deeply troubled by the shameless immorality of the wicked.[14] 8 (For that righteous man, while living among them, was tormented in his righteous soul day after day by lawless deeds he saw and heard.) 9 Therefore the Lord certainly knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and how to keep the unrighteous being punished until the Day of Judgment—10 especially those who follow after the flesh in its unclean desires and who despise the Lord's authority.[15]

Brazen and arrogant, these people do not tremble while slandering glorious beings; 11 yet even angels, though stronger and more powerful, do not bring a slanderous charge against them before the Lord.[16] 12 But these people are like irrational animals—creatures of instinct born to be captured and killed. They malign what they don't understand, and in their destruction they will be utterly destroyed. 13 They will be paid back for what they have done—evil for evil.[17] They consider carousing in broad daylight a pleasure. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceitful pleasures while feasting together with you. 14 They have eyes full of adultery that never stop sinning, enticing unstable souls. They have hearts trained in greed—a cursed brood! 15 They have abandoned the straight way. They have gone astray. They have followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor,[18] who loved the wages of wickedness.

16 But he received a rebuke for his own wrongdoing. A dumb donkey spoke with a man's voice and put a stop to the prophet's madness.[19]

17 These people are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. The gloom of utter darkness has been reserved for them.[20] 18 For by mouthing grandiosities that amount to nothing, they entice in sensual fleshly passions those who are barely escaping from those who live in error. 19 They promise them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption—for a person is a slave to whatever has overcome him. 20 For if—after escaping the world's pollutions through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Yeshua the Messiah—they again become entangled in these things and are overcome, the end for them has become worse than the beginning. 21 For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after learning about it, to turn back from the holy commandment passed on to them.[21] 22 What has happened to them confirms the truth of the proverb, "A dog returns to its vomit,"[22] and "A scrubbed pig heads right back into the mud."

The Day of the Lord Is Coming

2 Peter 3 1 Loved ones, this is now the second letter that I am writing to you. In both I am trying to stir you up by way of a reminder to wholesome thinking— 2 to remember the words previously proclaimed by the holy prophets and the commandment of our Lord and Savior through your emissaries.
[23] 3 First of all, understand that in the last days, scoffers will come scoffing, following after their own desires[24] 4 and saying,
"Where is this promise of His coming?[25] Ever since the fathers died,[26] everything goes on just as it has from the beginning of creation." 5 For in holding to this idea, it escapes their notice that the heavens existed long ago and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God.[27] 6 Through these, the world of that time was destroyed by being flooded with water.[28] 7 But by the same word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire—kept until the Day of Judgment and the destruction of ungodly people.[29]

8 But don't forget this one thing, loved ones, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day.[30] 9 The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some consider slowness.[31] Rather, He is being patient toward you—not wanting anyone to perish, but for all to come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief.[32] On that day the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the elements will melt and disintegrate, and the earth and everything done on it shall be exposed. 11 Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what kind of people should you be? Live your lives in holiness and godliness, 12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God. In that day the heavens will be dissolved by fire, and the elements will melt in the intense heat.[33] 13 But in keeping with His promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.[34]

Final Advice

14 Therefore, loved ones, while you are looking for these things, make every effort to be found in shalom, spotless and blameless before Him. 15 Bear in mind that the patience of our Lord means salvation—just as our dearly loved brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom given to him. 16 He speaks about these matters in all of his letters. Some things in them are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist
(as they also do with the rest of the Scriptures)—to their own destruction.

17 Since you already know all this, loved ones, be on your guard so that you are not led astray by the error of the lawless and lose your sure footing. 18 Instead, keep growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Yeshua the Messiah. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity! Amen.

God’s Manifested Word of Life

1 John 1 1 What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the Word of life—2 the life was revealed, and we have seen and testify and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us. 3 What we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so you may have fellowship with us. Indeed, our fellowship is with the Father and His Son, Yeshua the Messiah. 4 These things we write so our joy may be full.

God’s Light Dispels Darkness

5 Now this is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you—that God is light and in Him there is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with Him and keep walking in the darkness, we are lying and do not practice the truth.[1] 7 But if we walk in the light as He Himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another and the blood of His Son Yeshua purifies us from all sin.

Cleansing Begins with Confessing

8 If we say we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.[2] 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make Him a liar and His word is not in us.

Yeshua Atoned for Our Sin

1 John 2 1 My children, I am writing these things to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Intercessor with the Father—the righteous Messiah Yeshua. 2 He is the atonement for our sins, and not only for our sins but also for the whole world.[3]

Loving God Means Obedience 3 Now we know that we have come to know Him by this—if we keep His commandments. 4 The one who says, "I have come to know Him," and does not keep His commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5 But whoever keeps His word, in him the love of God is truly made perfect. We know that we are in Him by this—6 whoever claims to abide in Him must walk just as He walked.

Haters Stumble in Darkness 7 Loved ones, I am not writing a new commandment for you, but an old commandment—one you had from the beginning. This old commandment is the word you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing a new commandment for you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is fading and the true light is already shining.

9 The one who says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in the darkness. 10 The one who loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But whoever hates his brother[4] is in the darkness and walks in the darkness. He doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has made his eyes blind.

Fellowship with God Conquers Evil 12 I am writing to you, children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of His name.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you have known the One
who is from the beginning.
I am writing to you, young men,
because you have overcome the evil one.
14 I have written to you, children, because you have known the Father.
I have written to you, fathers,
because you have known the One
who is from the beginning.
I have written to you, young men,
because you are strong,
the word of God abides in you,
and you have overcome the evil one.

The Fleeting World Opposes Eternal God 15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For everything in the world—the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes,[5] and the boasting of life—is not from the Father but from the world. 17 The world is passing away along with its desire, but the one who does the will of God abides forever.

Anointed People Cling to the Anointed One 18 Children, it is the last hour. Just as you heard that the anti-messiah is coming, even now many anti-messiahs have come—by this we know that it is the last hour. 19 They left us, but they didn't really belong to us. If they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But they left us so it became clear that none of them belongs to us.

20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know. 21 I have not written you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie is of the truth.

Father and Son Come as One [22] Who is the liar, if not the one who denies that Yeshua is the Messiah? This one is the anti-messiah—the one who denies the Father and the Son. [23] No one who denies the Son has the Father; the one who acknowledges the Son also has the Father.

Live in the Anointed One [24] As for you, let what you heard from the beginning remain in you. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will continue to live in the Son and in the Father. [25] Now this is the promise that He Himself has promised us—eternal life. [26] I have written you these things about those who are trying to mislead you. [27] As for you, the anointing you received from Him remains in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you. But as His anointing teaches you about all things—and it is true and not a lie—and just as it has taught you, abide in Him. [28] And now, children, abide in Him, so that when He appears we will have confidence and not be ashamed in His presence at His coming.

Righteous Children Treasure His Purity [29] If you know that He is righteous, you also know that everyone who does what is right is born of Him.

1 John 3 [1] See how glorious a love the Father has given us, that we should be called God's children—and so we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know Him. [2] Loved ones, now we are God's children; and it has not yet been revealed what we will be. But we do know that when it's revealed, we shall be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is. [3] Everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

[4] Everyone practicing sin also practices lawlessness—indeed, sin is lawlessness. [5] You know that Yeshua appeared in order to take away sins, and in Him there is no sin. [6] No one who abides in Him keeps on sinning; no one who sins has seen Him or known Him. [7] Children, let no one mislead you! The one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as Yeshua is righteous. [8] The one who practices sin is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. Ben-Elohim appeared for this purpose—to destroy the works of the devil. [9] No one born of God practices sin, because God's seed remains in him. He cannot sin, because he is born of God.

Loving Children Emulate His Actions

10 It is clear who are the children of God and who are the children of the devil by this—anyone who does not act righteously or love his brother is not of God. 11 For this is the message you have heard from the beginning—we should love one another. 12 Do not be like Cain, who was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him?
Because his deeds were evil, while his brother's were righteous.[6] 13 Do not be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you.

14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers and sisters. The one who does not love remains in death. 15 Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer—and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 We have come to know love by this—Yeshua laid down His life for us, and we also ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. 17 But if someone has material possessions and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him[7], how does the love of God abide in him?
18 Children, let us not love with word or talk, but in deed and truth!

19 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and set our heart at rest before Him 20 whenever our heart condemns us.
For God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.
21 Loved ones, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22 and whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do what is pleasing in His sight. 23 Now this is His commandment—that we should believe in the name of His Son, Yeshua the Messiah, and love one another, just as He commanded us. 24 The one who keeps His commandments abides in God, and God in him. We know that He abides in us by this—by the Spirit He has given us.

Yeshua, the Ruach of Truth

1 John 4 1 Loved ones, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see if they are from God. For many false prophets have gone out into the world.[8] 2 You know the Ruach Elohim
by this—every spirit that acknowledges that Messiah Yeshua has come in human flesh is from God, 3 but every spirit that does not acknowledge Yeshua is not from God. This is the spirit of the anti-messiah, which you have heard is coming and now is already in the world. 4 You are from God, children, and you have overcome them, because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world. 5 They are from the world, so they speak from the world and the world listens to them. 6 We are from God; whoever knows God listens to us, but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God's Life-Giving Spirit of Love

7 Loved ones, let us love one another, for love is from God.
Everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. 8 The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love. 9 The love of God was revealed among us by this—that God sent His one and only Son into the world so that we might live through Him. 10 This is love—not that we have loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atonement for our sins.

11 Loved ones, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 12 No one has ever seen God.[9] If we love one another, God abides in us and His love is made perfect in us. 13 We know that we abide in Him and He in us by this—because He has given us of His Spirit. 14 We have seen and testify that the Father has sent His Son as Savior of the world. 15 If anyone acknowledges that Yeshua is Ben-Elohim, God abides in him and he abides in God. 16 So we have come to know and trust in the love that God has for us. God is love. Now whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

God’s Fulfilling Love

17 In this way, love is made perfect among us, so that we should have boldness on the Day of Judgment. For just as He is, so also are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and the one who fears has not been made perfect in love. 19 We love, because He first loved us.

Love God—Love God’s Family

20 If anyone says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. 21 And this commandment we have from Him: that the one who loves God should also love his brother.[10]

1 John 5 1 Everyone who believes that Yeshua is the Messiah is born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves the one born of Him.

Love God—Live God's Word

2 We know that we love God's children by this—when we love God and obey His commandments. 3 For this is the love of God —that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome. 4 For everyone born of God overcomes the world. And the victory that has overcome the world is this—our faith. 5 Who is it that overcomes the world, if not the one who believes that Yeshua is Ben-Elohim?

Believe God's Own Testimony of Yeshua

6 Messiah Yeshua is the One who came by water and blood—not by water only, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the One who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. 7 For there are three that testify—8 the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and these three are one.[11] 9 If we accept men's testimony, God's testimony is greater—for this it is the testimony that God has given about His Son. 10 The one who trusts in Ben-Elohim has the testimony in himself; the one who does not trust in God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given about His Son. 11 And the testimony is this—that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. 12 The one who has the Son has life; the one who does not have Ben-Elohim does not have life.

Walk Now in Eternal Privileges

13 I wrote these things to you who believe in the name of Ben-Elohim, so you may know that you have eternal life. 14 Now this is the confidence we have before Him—that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. 15 And if we know that He hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have the requests we have asked from Him. 16 If anyone sees his brother committing a sin not leading to death, he should ask, and God will give life to those who commit sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death—I am not saying you should ask about that.[12] 17 All unrighteousness is sin, but there is sin not leading to death.

18 We know that anyone born of God does not keep on sinning; rather, the One born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot touch him. 19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. 20 And we know that Ben-Elohim has come and given us insight, so that we may know Him who is true—and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Yeshua the Messiah. This One is the true God and eternal life.

21 Children, guard yourselves from idols.[13]

2 John

God’s Truth and Blessings Abide Forever

1 The elder.
To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth—
and not I alone, but also all who have come to know the truth
—2 because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us
forever:
3 Grace, mercy, and shalom be with us, from God the Father and from Messiah Yeshua, the Father’s Son, in truth and love!

Lovingly Walk in God’s Truth

4 I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we received as a commandment from the Father.
5 Now I ask you, dear lady, that we love one another. It is not as though I am writing you a new command, but the one we have had from the beginning.[1] 6 Now this is love: that we walk according to His commands. This is the commandment—just as you heard from the beginning—that you walk in love.

Protect Against Messianic Pretenders

7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world—those who do not acknowledge Yeshua as Messiah coming in human flesh. This one is a deceiver and the anti-messiah. 8 Watch yourselves, so you do not lose what we have worked for but receive a full reward. 9 Anyone who goes too far and does not remain in Messiah's teaching does not have God. Anyone who remains in this teaching has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not welcome him into your home or even give him a greeting. 11 For the one greeting him shares in his evil deeds.

Brotherly Fellowship Is Joyful

12 Although I have much to write to you, I don’t want to do it with paper and ink. But I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that our joy may be full.
13 The children of your chosen sister send you greetings.[2]

3 John

The Joys of Walking Out the Truth

1 The elder.
To Gaius the loved one, whom I love in truth:
2 Loved ones, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, just as it is well with your soul. 3 For I was overjoyed when some brethren came and testified of the truth in you—how you are walking in truth. 4 I have no greater joy than this—to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

Support Faithful Kingdom Truth Tellers

5 Loved ones, you are acting faithfully in whatever you do for the brethren and especially for strangers.[1] 6 They have testified to your love before Messiah's community. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.
7 For on behalf of the Name they went out, accepting nothing from the pagans. 8 Therefore we ought to support such people, so we might become co-workers in the truth.

The Lust for Power Condemned

9 I wrote something to Messiah’s community, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn’t welcome us. 10 So if I do come, I will call attention to what he is doing—slandering us with wicked words. Not even content with that, he refuses to welcome the brethren, and even forbids those who want to do so—throwing them out of the community!

Do Good Like God Does

11 Loved ones, do not imitate what is evil but what is good.
The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God.

Virtue Is Honorable

12 Demetrius has a good testimony from everyone, even from the truth itself. We also vouch for him—and you know that our testimony is true.

Fellowship Is Desirable

13 I have much to write you, but I don’t want to write to you with ink and pen. 14 But I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face.
15 Shalom aleichem. The friends here send their greetings.
Greet the friends there by name.

Judah (Jude)

Greeting [1] Judah, a slave of Yeshua the Messiah and brother of Jacob,
To those who are called, who are loved in God the Father, and kept safe for Yeshua the Messiah: [2] May mercy and shalom and love be multiplied to you!

Contend for the Faith with the Ungodly [3] Loved ones, though very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I felt it necessary to write to you urging you to continue to contend for the faith that was once for all handed down to the kedoshim. [4] For certain people have secretly slipped in—those who from long ago have been marked out for this judgment. They are ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into indecency and deny our only Master and Lord, Yeshua the Messiah.

5 Now I wish to remind you—though you have come to know all things—that the Lord,[1] once having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 And the angels—who did not keep their own position of authority but deserted their proper place—He has kept in everlasting shackles under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great Day.[2] 7 In the same way as these angels, Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them—having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after a different sort of flesh—are displayed as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.[3]

8 Yet in the same way these people also, by their visionary dreaming, defile the flesh, reject the Lord's authority,[4] and defame glorious beings. 9 But when Michael the archangel, disputing with the devil, was arguing about the body of Moses,
he did not dare to render a judgment against him for slander,

but said, “May the Lord rebuke you!”[5] 10 But these people slander whatever they do not understand. And whatever they do understand instinctively—like animals without reason—by these things they are destroyed.
11 Woe to them! For they went the way of Cain; they were consumed for pay in Balaam’s error; and in Korah’s rebellion they have been destroyed.[6] 12 These people are hidden rocky reefs at your love feasts—shamelessly feasting with you, tending only to themselves.[7] They are waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, doubly dead, uprooted; 13 wild waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame;[8] wandering stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever.[9] 14 It was also about these people that Enoch, the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord came with myriads of His kedoshim,[10] 15 to execute judgment against all. He will convict all the ungodly for all their ungodly deeds that they have done in an ungodly way, and for all of the harsh things ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.” 16 These are bellyaching grumblers, following after their own desires. Their mouth speaks grandiose things, showing favoritism for the sake of gain. 17 But you, loved ones, ought to remember the words previously proclaimed by the emissaries of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah[11]—18 how they kept telling you, “In the last time there will be scoffers, following after their own ungodly desires.”[12] 19 These are the ones who cause divisions—worldly-minded, not having the Ruach 20 But you, loved ones, continue building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Ruach ha-Kodesh. 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, eagerly waiting for the mercy of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah that leads to eternal life. 22 And have mercy on those who are wavering—23 save them by snatching them out of the fire;[13] but on others have mercy with fear—hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

Hymn to God Our Savior [24] Now to the One who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you blameless before the presence of His glory with great joy, [25] to the only God our Savior, through Yeshua the Messiah our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all time,[14] both now and forever. Amen.

Yeshua's Revelation to John

The Revelation 1 1 The revelation of Yeshua the Messiah, which God gave Him to show to His servants the things that must soon take place. He made it known by sending His angel to His servant John, 2 who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Yeshua the Messiah—to everything he saw. 3 How fortunate is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and those who hear and keep what has been written in it—for the time is near.

4 John, To Messiah's seven communities in Asia:[1]

Grace to you and shalom from Him who is and who was and who is to come, as well as from the seven spirits who are before His throne, 5 and from Messiah Yeshua, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by His blood 6 and made us a kingdom, kohanim to His God and Father—to Him be glory and power forever! Amen!

7 "Look, He is coming with the clouds,[2]

and every eye shall see Him, even those who pierced
Him.

And all the tribes of the earth shall mourn because of
Him.[3]

Yes, amen!"

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega,"[4] says ADONAI Elohim,
"Who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty!"

9 I, John, your brother and fellow partaker with you in the tribulation and kingdom and patient endurance that are in Yeshua, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Yeshua. 10 I was in the Ruach on the Day of the Lord,[5] and I heard behind me a loud voice like that of a trumpet, 11 saying, "Write what you see in a scroll,[6] and send it to Messiah's seven communities—to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea."

Vision of the Glorious Son of Man 12 Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden menorot.[7] 13 In the midst of the menorot, I saw One like a Son of Man, clothed in a robe down to His feet, with a golden belt wrapped around His chest.[8] 14 His head and His hair were white like wool, white like snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire.[9] 15 His feet were like polished bronze refined in a furnace,[10] and His voice was like the roar of rushing waters.[11] 16 In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came forth a sharp, two-edged sword.[12] His face was like the sun shining at full strength.[13]

17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man.[14] But He placed His right hand on me, saying, “Do not be afraid! I am the First and the Last,[15] 18 and the One who lives. I was dead, but look—I am alive forever and ever! Moreover, I hold the keys of death and Sheol.[16] 19 Therefore write down what you have seen, what is, and what will happen after these things. 20 As for the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden menorot—the seven stars are the angels of Messiah’s seven communities, and the seven menorahs are the seven communities.”

Ephesus: Return to Your First Love

The Revelation 2 1 To the angel of Messiah's community in Ephesus write: "Thus says the One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks in the midst of the seven golden menorot: 2 I know all about your deeds and your toil and your patient endurance, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. You have tested those who call themselves emissaries and are not, and have found them to be liars. 3 You have perseverance and have endured for My name's sake, and you have not grown weary.

4 "But this I have against you, that you have forsaken your first love.[17] 5 Remember then from where you have fallen.
Repent and do the deeds you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your menorah from its place—unless you repent.

6 "Yet you have this going for you, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities. To the one who overcomes, I will grant the right to eat from the Tree of Life, which is in the Paradise of God."[18]

Smyrna: Do Not Fear Satan's Testing

8 To the angel of Messiah's community in Smyrna write:
"Thus says the First and Last, who was dead and came to life.
9 I know your tribulation and your poverty (yet you are rich), as well as the slander of those who say they are Jewish and are not, but are a synagogue of satan. 10 Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, so that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.[19] 11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities. The one who overcomes shall never be harmed by the second death."

Pergamum: Beware the Trap of Balaam

12 To the angel of Messiah's community in Pergamum write:
"Thus says the One who has the sharp two-edged sword:[20] 13 I know where you live—where satan's throne is. Yet you continue to hold firm to My name, and you did not deny your faith in Me even in the days of Antipas, My faithful witness, who was killed among you, where satan resides.
14 "But I have a few things against you. You have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who was teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before Bnei-Yisrael, to eat food sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.[21] 15 Likewise you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.
16 Repent then! If not, I will come to you soon and make war against them with the sword of My mouth. 17 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities. To the one who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna,[22] and I will give him a white stone—and written on the stone a new name that no one knows except the one who receives it."[23]

Thyatira: Do Not Tolerate Jezebel

18 To the angel of Messiah's community in Thyatira write:
"Thus says the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire and feet like polished bronze: 19 I know your deeds and your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your last deeds are greater than the first.
20 "But this I have against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel,[24] who calls herself a prophetess—yet she is teaching and deceiving My servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. 21 I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her immorality. 22 Behold, I will throw her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation—unless they repent of her doings. 23 I will also strike her children with a deadly disease. Then all of Messiah's communities will know that I am the One who searches minds and hearts,[25] and I will give to each of you according to your deeds.

24 “But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold to this teaching and have not learned the so-called ‘deep things’ of satan—I place on you no other burden. 25 Only hold firm to what you have until I come. 26 To the one who overcomes and guards
My deeds until the end,

‘I will give him authority over the nations
27 and he shall rule them with an iron rod,
as when clay pots are broken into pieces.’[26]

28 Even as I have received from My Father, so I will give him the morning star. 29 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah’s communities.”

Sardis: Coming Like a Thief

The Revelation 3 1 To the angel of Messiah's community in Sardis write: "Thus says the One having the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: I know your deeds—you have a reputation for being alive, but you are dead. 2 Wake up, and strengthen what remains that was about to die. For I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of My God. 3 So remember what you have received and heard—keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come upon you.

4 "But still, you have a few people in Sardis who have not stained their clothes. They will walk with Me in white, because they are worthy. 5 The one who overcomes thus will be dressed in white clothes; I will never blot his name out of the Book of Life,[27] and will confess his name before My Father and His angels. 6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities.

Philadelphia: I Have Loved You

7 To the angel of Messiah's community in Philadelphia write:
"Thus says the Holy One, the True One, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens:[28] 8 I know your deeds. Behold, I have set before you an open door that no one is able to shut—because you have little power, but you have kept My word and have not denied
My name. 9 Behold, I will cause those of the synagogue of satan —who say they are Jewish and are not, but lie—behold, I will cause them to come and bow down before your feet,[29] so that they acknowledge that I have loved you!

10 "Because you have kept My word about patient endurance,
I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is coming upon the whole world to test those who dwell on the earth. 11 I am coming soon—hold on to what you have, so that no one will take away your crown. 12 The one who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the Temple of My God,[30] and he will never leave it. And on him I will write the name of My God and the name of the city of My God—the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God—and My own new Name. 13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities."

Laodicea: Standing at the Door

14 To the angel of Messiah's community in Laodicea write:
"Thus says the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Originator of God's creation:[31] 15 I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. Oh, that you were either cold or hot! 16 So because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spew you out of My mouth. 17 For you say, 'I am rich, I have made myself wealthy, and I need nothing.'[32] But you do not know that you are miserable and pitiable and poor and blind and naked. 18 I advise you to buy from Me gold refined by fire so that you may be rich, and white clothes so that you may dress yourself and so the shame of your nakedness will not be revealed, and eye salve to anoint your eyes so that you may see. 19 Those whom I love, I rebuke and discipline. Therefore, be zealous and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me. 21 To the one who overcomes I will grant the right to sit with Me on My throne, just as I myself overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. 22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities."

The Heavenly Throne of Adonai

The Revelation 4 1 After these things I looked, and behold, a door was standing open in heaven.[33] And the first voice, which I had heard speaking with me like a trumpet, said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things.”
2 Immediately I was in the Ruach;[34] and behold, a throne was standing in heaven, and One seated on the throne.[35] 3 And the One who was seated was like jasper and carnelian in appearance, and a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance.[36] 4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four elders dressed in white clothes with golden crowns on their heads.
5 And out from the throne come flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder[37]—and seven torches of fire burning before the throne,[38] which are the seven spirits of God. 6 And before the throne was something like a sea of glass, like crystal.

In the middle of the throne and around it were four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind.[39]

7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature was like an ox, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.[40]

8 The four living creatures, each having six wings, were full of eyes all around and within.[41] They do not rest day or night, chanting, “Kadosh, kadosh, kadosh Adonai Elohei-Tzva’ot,[42]

asher haya v’hoveh v’yavo!

Holy, holy, holy

is the Lord God of Hosts, who was and who is

and who is to come!”

9 And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to the One seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever,[43] 10 the twenty-four elders fall down before the One seated on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever. And they throw their crowns down before the throne, chanting, 11 “Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, For You created all things,

and because of Your will they existed and were created!”

A Scroll with Seven Seals

The Revelation 5 1 And I saw in the right hand of the One seated upon the throne a scroll, written on both the front and the back, sealed with seven seals.[44] 2 I also saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?” 3 No one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it. 4 I began to weep loudly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

5 Then one of the elders tells me, “Stop weeping! Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah,[45] the Root of David,[46] has triumphed—He is worthy to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

Worshiping the Lamb 6 And in the midst of the throne and the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, I saw a Lamb standing, as having been slain—having seven horns and seven eyes, [47] which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. 7 He came and took the scroll from the right hand of the One seated on the throne. 8 When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense—which are the prayers of the kedoshim.

9 And they are singing a new song,[48] saying, “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals.

For You were slain,

and by Your blood

You redeemed for God
those from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.[49]
10 You have made them for our God a kingdom and kohanim, and they shall reign upon the earth.”

11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders—their number was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands.[50] 12 They were chanting with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches

and wisdom and might
and honor and glory and blessing!”

13 And I heard every creature in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea and everything in them, responding, “To the One seated on the throne and to the Lamb

be blessing and honor
and glory and power forever and ever!”

14 And the four living creatures kept saying, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

The Revelation 6 1 Then I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, “Come!”[51] 2 I looked, and behold, there was a white horse.[52] The one riding on it had a bow, and a crown was given to him. He went out as a conqueror so he might conquer.

3 When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!” 4 Then another horse came out, fiery red. The one riding on it was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another. He was given a great sword.

5 When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come!” And behold, I saw a black horse.[53] The one riding on it held a balance scale in his hand.
6 Then I heard something like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart[54] of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius—but do no harm to the oil and wine!”[55]

7 When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, “Come!” 8 Behold, I saw a horse, pale greenish gray. The name of the one riding on it was Death, and Sheol was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill by sword and by famine and by plague and by the wild beasts of the earth.[56]

9 When the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those slaughtered[57] for the sake of the word of God and for the witness they had. 10 And they cried out with a loud voice, saying, “O Sovereign Master, holy and true, how long before You judge those who dwell on the earth and avenge our blood?”

11 Then a white robe was given to each of them, and they were told to rest a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants was complete—their brothers and sisters who were to be killed as they had been.

12 I saw when the Lamb opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as black as sackcloth made of goat's hair, and the full moon became like blood. 13 The stars of heaven fell to the earth like a fig tree drops unripe figs when shaken by a great wind. 14 The heaven ripped apart like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved from their places.
15 Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the military commanders and the rich and the mighty and everyone —slave and free—hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains.[58] 16 And they tell the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us[59] from the face of the One seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb. 17 For the great day of their wrath has come,[60] and who is able to stand?"

144,000 Marked with a Seal

The Revelation 7 1 After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth[61]
so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or against any tree. 2 Then I saw another angel coming up from the east,[62] having the seal of the living God. He cried out with a loud voice to the four angels who were permitted to harm the earth and the sea, 3 saying, “Do no harm to the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.”[63]

4 Now I heard the number of those marked with the seal:
144,000 from every tribe of Bnei-Yisrael— 5 12,000 from the tribe of Judah; 12,000 from the tribe of Reuben; 12,000 from the tribe of Gad; 6 12,000 from the tribe of Asher; 12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali; 12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh;
7 12,000 from the tribe of Simeon; 12,000 from the tribe of Levi; 12,000 from the tribe of Issachar; 8 12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun; 12,000 from the tribe of Joseph; 12,000 from the tribe of Benjamin.

Countless Worshipers Before the Throne 9 After these things I looked, and behold, a vast multitude that no one could count—from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues—was standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes, with palm branches[64] in their hands 10 and crying out with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne,

and to the Lamb!”

11 And all the angels were standing around the throne, along with the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, 12 saying, “Amen, blessing and glory
and wisdom and thanksgiving

and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen!”

13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, “Who are these dressed in white robes, and where have they come from?”

I said to him, “Sir, you know.”

14 Then he said to me, “These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation.[65] They have washed their robes and made them white[66] in the blood of the Lamb. 15 For this reason, they are before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His Temple. The One seated on the throne will shelter them.[67] 16 They shall never again go hungry, nor thirst anymore; the sun shall not beat down on them, nor any scorching heat.[68] 17 For the Lamb in the midst of the throne shall shepherd them and guide them to springs of living water, and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.”[69]

The Seventh Seal and Seven Trumpets

The Revelation 8 1 Now when the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets[70] were given to them. 3 Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden incense burner.[71] He was given much incense to offer up along with the prayers of all the kedoshim upon the golden altar before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the kedoshim,[72] rose before God from the angel's hand. 5 Then the angel took the incense burner and filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there were clashes of thunder and rumblings and flashes of lightning and earthquakes.[73]

6 Then the seven angels holding the seven trumpets prepared to sound them. 7 The first trumpeted,[74] and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and they were thrown upon the earth.[75]
A third of the earth burned up, a third of the trees burned up, and all the green grass burned up.

8 The second angel trumpeted, and something like a huge mountain[76] ablaze with fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned into blood, 9 a third of the creatures living in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

10 The third angel trumpeted, and a great star fell from the heavens, burning like a torch. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. 11 Now the name of the star is Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the waters that were made bitter.[77]

12 The fourth angel trumpeted, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them were darkened.[78] A third of the day would not shine, as well as a third of the night.

13 Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying out with a loud voice as it flew high in the sky, saying, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpets the three angels are about to sound!"

The Revelation 9 1 Then the fifth angel trumpeted, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth. The key to the bottomless pit was given to him. 2 He opened the pit, and smoke rose from the pit like the smoke of a gigantic furnace.[79] The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit.

3 Then from the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power was given to them like the scorpions have power over the earth.[80] 4 They were told to do no harm to the grass of the earth or any green plant or any tree, but only the people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.[81] 5 And they were permitted not to kill them, but to torment them for five months—and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a person. 6 In those days, people will seek death but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will flee from
them.[82]

7 Now the appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle.[83] On their heads were something like crowns of gold, and their faces were like human faces. 8 They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions.[84] 9 They had chests like iron breastplates; and the noise of their wings was like the noise of many horse-drawn chariots rushing into battle.[85] 10 They have tails like scorpions with stingers;
and in their tails is their power to harm people for five months.
11 They have as king over them the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.
[86]

12 The first woe is past. Behold, two woes are still coming after these things.

13 The sixth angel trumpeted, and I heard a single voice from the four horns of the golden altar[87] before God. 14 It said to the sixth angel, the one holding the trumpet,[88] "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

15 So the four angels—who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year—were released to kill a third of mankind. 16 The number of mounted troops was two hundred million[89]—I heard their number. 17 Now here is how I saw the horses and those riding on them: they had breastplates that were fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow. The heads of the horses were as heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire and smoke and brimstone.[90]

18 By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone that came out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads by which they inflict injuries.

20 But the rest of mankind, those not killed by these plagues, did not repent and turn away from the works of their hands—they would not stop worshiping demons and the idols of gold and silver and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk.[91] 21 And they did not repent and turn away from their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their stealing.

The Angel with a Little Scroll

The Revelation 10 1 Then I saw another powerful angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud with a rainbow over his head.
His face was like the sun and his feet like pillars of fire. 2 He had in his hand a little scroll that was open. He set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, 3 and he cried out with a loud voice, just as a lion roars. When he cried out, the seven thunders spoke.[92]

4 And when the seven thunders had spoken, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up what the seven thunders have said. Do not write it down!”[93]

5 Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand toward heaven 6 and swore[94] by the One who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, the sea and what is in it, that there would be no more delay.

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel—when he is about to trumpet—the mystery of God is completed, just as He declared to His servants the prophets.[95] 8 Then the voice that I heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, “Go, take the scroll that is open in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land.”

9 So I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little scroll. And he tells me, “Take and eat it. It will be bitter to your stomach, but sweet as honey in your mouth.”[96]

10 So I took the little scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. It was sweet as honey in my mouth; but when I had swallowed it, my stomach was made bitter. 11 And they tell me, “You must prophesy again about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.”

Two Witnesses

The Revelation 11 1 Then a measuring rod like a staff was given to me, saying, “Get up and measure the Temple of God and the altar, and count those worshiping in it.[97] 2 But do not measure the court outside the Temple—leave it out, because it has been given to the nations, and they shall trample the holy city for forty-two months.[98] 3 And I will grant authority to My two witnesses and they will prophesy for 1,260 days,[99] dressed in sackcloth.”

4 These are the two olive trees and the two menorot that are standing before the Lord of the earth.[100] 5 If anyone wishes to harm them, fire comes out of their mouths and consumes their enemies. If anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way.[101] 6 These two have the power to shut the heavens, so that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying.[102]
And they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they wish.[103]

7 When they have finished their testimony, the beast that rises from the abyss will make war on them, and overcome them and kill them.[104] 8 And their corpses will lie in the open street[105] of the great city that figuratively is called Sodom and Egypt—where also their[106] Lord was crucified. 9 Some from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will look at their corpses for three and a half days, not allowing them to be placed into a grave.[107] 10 Those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them. They will celebrate and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

11 But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet;[108] and great fear fell on those who were watching them. 12 Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here!” And they went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched them.[109]

13 At that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city collapsed.[110] Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past. The third woe is coming soon.

The Seventh Trumpet 15 Then the seventh angel trumpeted, and there were loud voices in heaven saying, “The kingdom of this world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Anointed One.

And He shall reign forever and ever!”[111]

16 And the twenty-four elders seated on their thrones
before God fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17 saying, “We thank you, ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot,[112] who is and who was, because You have taken Your great power and begun to reign.
18 The nations were enraged, but Your wrath has
come[113]
and the time for the dead to be judged— to reward
Your servants, the prophets and kedoshim, and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and to destroy the destroyers of the
earth.”[114]

19 Then the Temple of God in heaven was opened, and the Ark of His Covenant appeared in His Temple. And there were flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder and an earthquake and heavy hail.[115]

Mother, Child, Dragon, and War

The Revelation 12 1 A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.[116] 2 She is pregnant—crying out in birth pains, in agony to give birth.[117]

3 Then another sign appeared in heaven: a great fiery red dragon that had seven heads and ten horns, and seven royal crowns on his heads.[118] 4 His tail sweeps away a third of the stars of heaven—it hurled them to the earth.[119] Now the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that whenever she gave birth he might devour her child.

5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with an iron rod.[120] And her child was snatched away to God and to His throne. 6 Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God so they might take care of her for 1,260 days.

7 And war broke out in heaven, Michael and his angels making war against the dragon.[121] The dragon and his angels fought, 8 but they were not strong enough, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was thrown down—the ancient serpent, called the devil and satan, who deceives the whole world.[122] He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.[123] 10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Anointed One, for the accuser of our brothers and sisters—the one who accuses them before our God day and night[124]—has been thrown out. 11 They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives even in the face of death.

12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them!
Woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great rage, knowing that his time is short.

13 Now when the dragon saw that he had been thrown to the earth, he stalked the woman who had given birth to the male child. 14 But the woman was given two wings of the great eagle, [125] so that she might fly away from the presence of the serpent into the wilderness, to the place where she is taken care of—for a time, times, and half a time.[126]
15 And from out of his mouth, the serpent spewed water like a river after the woman, in order to sweep her away with a flood.
16 But the earth came to the aid of the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had spewed from his mouth. 17 So the dragon became enraged at the woman and went off to make war with the rest of her offspring—those who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Yeshua. 18 And he stood on the shore of the sea.

Two Beasts

The Revelation 13 1 Then I saw a beast rising out of the sea,[127] that had ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten royal crowns, and upon his heads were slanderous names. 2 Now the beast that I saw was like a leopard, his feet like a bear's, and his mouth like a lion's. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority. 3 One of his heads seemed to have been slain, but the fatal wound was healed. The whole earth was amazed and followed the beast. 4 And they worshiped the dragon, because he had given authority to the beast. They also worshiped the beast, chanting, "Who is like the beast, and who can make war against him?"[128]

5 The beast was given a mouth uttering great boasts and blasphemies. It was given authority to act for forty-two months.
6 Then he opened his mouth with blasphemies against God, to slander His name and His tabernacle—that is, those dwelling in heaven. 7 He was also permitted to make war against the kedoshim and overcome them, and he was given authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. 8 All who dwell on the earth shall worship him—everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slain.

9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear.
10 If anyone is meant for captivity,
to captivity he goes.
If anyone is to be killed by the sword,
by the sword he must be killed.[129]

Here is the perseverance and faith of the kedoshim.

11 Then I saw another beast rising out of the earth. He had two horns[130] like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. 12 He exercises all the authority of the first beast before him, and he makes the earth and all those who dwell in it worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. 13 He performs great signs, even making fire come down from heaven in the sight of men.[131] 14 And he deceives those who dwell on the earth through the signs he is permitted to perform, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image in honor of the beast who has the sword wound yet lived. 15 The second beast was permitted to give life to the image of the first beast, so that the image of the beast could even speak and cause all who would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. 16 He also causes all—the small and the great, the rich and the poor, the free and the slave—to receive a mark on their right hand or upon their forehead. 17 And so no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark—either the name of the beast or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom: let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is a number of a man, and his number is 666.[132]

A Song for the 144,000

The Revelation 14 1 Then I looked, and behold, the Lamb was standing on Mount Zion,[133] and with Him were 144,000 who had His name and His Father's name written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a voice from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and the booming of loud thunder.[134] The voice I heard was like harpists playing on their harps. 3 And they are singing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one is able to learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth.
4 These are the ones who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins.
These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes.
These have been redeemed from among mankind as firstfruits for God and the Lamb.
5 And in their mouth was found no lie—they are blameless.[135]

Three Angels with Messages

6 And then I saw another angel flying high in the sky, having a timeless message of good news to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation and tribe and tongue and people. 7 He said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship the One who made heaven and earth and sea and springs of water.”
8 Another angel, a second one, followed, saying,

“Fallen, fallen, is Babylon the great[136]—
she who made all nations drink
of the wine of the fury of her immorality.”

9 And another angel, a third one, followed them, saying in a loud voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10 he shall also drink the wine of God’s fury, poured full strength into the cup of His wrath.[137] And he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone[138] before the holy angels and before the Lamb.
11 The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever.[139]
Those who worship the beast and its image and those who receive the mark of his name have no rest day or night.” 12 Here is the perseverance of the kedoshim—those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Yeshua.
13 Then I heard a voice from heaven saying,[140] “Write: How fortunate are the dead—those who die in the Lord from now on!”
“Yes,” says the Ruach, “that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them.”

Time to Harvest the Earth

14 Then I looked, and behold, there was a white cloud—and seated on the cloud was one like a son of man.[141] He had a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.
15 Then another angel came out of the Temple, crying out with a loud voice to the One seated on the cloud,

"Put in your sickle and reap,
for the hour to reap has come,
because the harvest of the earth is fully ripe."

16 So the One seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.[142] 17 Then another angel came out of the Temple in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle. 18 Then another angel—the one who has authority over fire—came out from the altar; and he called out with a loud voice to the one holding the sharp sickle, saying, "Put in your sickle and gather the grape clusters from the vineyard of the earth, because her grapes are ripe." 19 So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and gathered the clusters from the vineyard of the earth and threw them into the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20 And the winepress was stomped on outside the city, and blood flowed from the winepress as high as a horse's bridle for 1,600 stadia.[143]

Song of Moses to the Lamb

The Revelation 15 1 Then I saw another great and wonderful sign in heaven: seven angels who have seven plagues—the last ones, for with them God's wrath is finished. 2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had overcome the beast and his image[144] and the number of his name standing by the sea of glass, holding the harps of God. 3 And they are singing the song of Moses[145] the servant of God and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and wonderful are Your deeds, ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot![146]

Just and true are Your ways, O King of the nations![147]

4 Who shall not fear and glorify Your name, O Lord?
For You alone are Holy.
All the nations shall come and worship before You,[148]
for Your righteous acts have been revealed!"

5 After these things I looked, and the Temple of the Tent of Witness in heaven was opened. 6 Out of the Temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, dressed in pure bright linen and wearing wide gold sashes around their chests.
7 Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. 8 And the Temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power.[149] No one was able to enter the Temple until the seven angels' seven plagues were finished.

Seven Bowls of God's Wrath

The Revelation 16 1 Then I heard a loud voice from the Temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of God's wrath."[150] 2 So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and foul and painful boils[151] came upon the people having the mark of the beast and worshiping his image. 3 Next the second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood like that of a corpse;
and every living thing in the sea died.[152] 4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood.[153] 5 Then I heard the angel of the waters saying, "Righteous are You—the Holy One, who is and who was— because You have passed these judgments.

6 For they have poured out the blood of kedoshim and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink[154]
— they are deserving!"

7 Then I heard the altar saying, "Yes, ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot, true and righteous are Your judgments!"[155]

8 The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was permitted to scorch people with fire. 9 People were scorched with fierce heat, and they cursed the name of God—the One who has power over these plagues. But they did not repent, to give Him glory.

10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness.[156]
People gnawed their tongues in pain 11 and cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and their boils. But they did not repent of their deeds.[157]

12 The sixth angel poured out his bowl over the great river Euphrates; and its water was dried up, to prepare the way for the kings from the east. 13 Then I saw—coming from the dragon's mouth and from the beast's mouth and from the false prophet's mouth—three unclean spirits like frogs.[158] 14 For they are demonic spirits performing miraculous signs, who go out to the kings of the whole world—to gather them for battle on the great Day of Elohei Tzva'ot.[159]

15 "Behold, I am coming like a thief! How fortunate is the one who stays alert and keeps his clothes on, lest he walk around naked and they see his shamefulness."

16 Then the spirits gathered the kings to the place called in Hebrew Har-Megiddo.[160]

17 The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the Temple[161] from the throne, saying, "It is done!"[162] 18 And there were flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder and a great earthquake—such as never happened since mankind has been on the earth, so mighty was the quake.[163]

19 Then the great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. Babylon the great was remembered before God, to force her to drink the cup of the wine of His furious wrath.[164] 20 Every island fled away, and no mountains were to be found. 21 Enormous hail—about a hundred pounds each[165]—falls from heaven on the people. And the people cursed God because of the plague of hail—so extreme was that plague.[166]

The Vile Prostitute and the Beast

The Revelation 17 1 Then one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, “Come, I will show you the sentencing of the great prostitute,[167] who sits on many waters. 2 The earth’s kings committed sexual immorality with her, and those who dwell on the earth got drunk with the wine of her immorality.”

3 So he carried me away in the Ruach into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns.[168]
4 The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls.[169] She was holding a golden cup[170] in her hand full of detestable things and the filth of her immorality, 5 and on her forehead was written a name, a mystery:

“Babylon the Great, the mother of prostitutes and the detestable things of the earth.”

6 And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the kedoshim and with the blood of the witnesses of Yeshua. When I saw her,
I was totally astounded.

7 But the angel said to me, “Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns. 8 The beast that you saw was, and is not, and yet is about to rise up from the abyss and head for destruction. Those who dwell on the earth—whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world—will be astonished when they see the beast, because he was and is not and is to come.

9 “This calls for a mind having wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated. They are also seven kings—10 five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. 11 The beast that was and is not—he himself is the eighth, and is one of the seven, and is heading for destruction. 12 The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received royal power, but receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour. 13 These kings are of one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. 14 They will make war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them—because He is Lord of lords and King of kings,[171] and those with Him are called and chosen and faithful.”

15 Then he tells me, “The waters that you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. 16 The ten horns that you saw, and the beast—these will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked,[172] and devour her flesh and burn her up with fire. 17 For God has put it into their hearts to do His will, and to be of one mind, and to give their royal power to the beast until the words of God are fulfilled. 18 And the woman that you saw is the great city exercising kingship over the kings of the earth.”

Judgment of Babylon

The Revelation 18 [1] After these things, I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his glory. [2] He cried out with a mighty voice, saying: “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great![173]

She has become a den for demons,
a haunt for every unclean spirit

and for every unclean bird
and for every unclean and detestable beast.[174]
3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the fury
of her immorality.
The kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her,
and the merchants of the earth

grew rich off the power of her self-indulgence.”

4 Then I heard another voice from heaven saying, “Come out of her, my people,[175]
lest you participate in her sins
and receive her plagues!
5 For her sins have piled up to heaven,[176]
and God has remembered her crimes.
6 Pay her back just as she has paid out, and give her back double for her deeds![177]
In the cup she has mixed—
mix a double dose for her!
7 As she has exalted herself and indulged herself in luxury, so give her the same measure of torment and grief!
For in her heart she says,
‘I sit as a queen—
I am no widow;
I shall never see grief.’[178]
8 For this reason her plagues will arrive in a single day—
death and grief and famine—
and she shall be burned down with fire.[179]
For mighty is Adonai Elohim who judges her!”
9 Then the kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and indulged in luxury with her shall weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning[180]
—10 standing far off because of the terror of her torment, saying: “Alas, alas, O great city— O Babylon, the mighty city!
For in a single hour your judgment has come!”
11 And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her,[181] because no one buys their merchandise anymore—12 shipments of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet; all kinds of citron wood; all kinds of ivory products; all kinds of products made of costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble; 13 cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, and frankincense; wine, oil, fine flour, and wheat; cattle, sheep, horses, and chariots; and slaves—that is, human souls.

14 The fruit of your soul's desire has gone from you, and all the expensive and beautiful things are lost to you —never again will people find them.

15 The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, shall stand far off for fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, 16 saying, "Alas, alas, O great city— clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!
17 For in a single hour so much wealth has been ruined!"

And every ship captain and passenger, sailors and all who make their living at sea, stood at a distance 18 and were crying out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city?' 19 And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, "Alas, alas, O great city— in her all who had ships at sea grew rich from her wealth!
For in a single hour has she been ruined!
20 Rejoice over her, O heaven,[182]
and you kedoshim, emissaries and prophets!
For God has judged her condemnation of you!"

21 Then a mighty angel picked up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea,[183] saying: "So shall Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence,
never to be found again!
22 And the sound of harpists and musicians, flautists and trumpeters,
shall never be heard in you again![184]
And the craftsman of any craft shall never be found in you again!

And the sound of a mill
shall never be heard in you again!
23 And the light of a lamp shall never shine in you again!
And the voice of the bridegroom and bride shall never be heard in you again![185]
For your businessmen were the tycoons of the world,
for all the nations were deceived by your sorcery![186]
24 And in her was found the blood of the prophets and kedoshim and all those slaughtered on the earth.”

Victory Songs in Heaven

The Revelation 19 1 After these things, I heard something like the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, shouting:

"Halleluyah![187]
Salvation and glory and power belong to our God.
2 For His judgments are true and just.[188]
For He has judged the great prostitute who corrupted
the earth with her whoring,
and has avenged the blood of His servants caused by her hand."[189]
3 And a second time they shouted,
"Halleluyah!
The smoke from her goes up forever and ever!"[190]

4 Then the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying, "Amen! Halleluyah!"[191]
5 Then a voice came from the throne, saying:

"Praise our God,

all you His servants and all who fear Him,
both the small and the great!”[192]

Wedding of the Lamb

6 Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude—like the roar of rushing waters[193] or like the rumbling of powerful thunder—saying,

"Halleluyah!
For ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot reigns!
7 Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him!
For the wedding of the Lamb has come,
and His bride has made herself ready,[194]
8 She was given fine linen to wear, bright and clean!
For the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the
kedoshim."

9 Then the angel tells me, "Write: How fortunate are those who have been invited to the wedding banquet of the Lamb!"
He also tells me, "These are the true words of God."
10 Then I fell down at his feet and worshiped him. But he said to me, "See that you do not do that—for I am only a fellow servant with you and your brothers and sisters who hold to the testimony of Yeshua. Worship God! For the testimony of Yeshua is the Spirit of Prophesy."

Final Battle of this Age

11 Then I saw heaven opened,[195] and behold, a white horse!
The One riding on it is called Faithful and True, and He judges and makes war in righteousness. 12 His eyes are like a flame of fire, and many royal crowns are on His head. He has a name written that no one knows except Himself. 13 He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood,[196] and the name by which He is called is “the Word of God.”
14 And the armies of heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following Him on white horses. 15 From His mouth comes a sharp sword—so that with it He may strike down the nations—and He shall rule them with an iron rod, and He treads the winepress of the furious wrath of Elohei-Tzva’ot.[197] 16 On His robe and on His thigh He has a name written, “King of kings, and Lord of lords.”[198] 17 Then I saw a single angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he cried out to all the birds flying high in the sky, “Come, gather for the great banquet of God—18 to eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of generals and the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and those riding on them, the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great!”[199] 19 Also I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the One who sat on the horse and against His army. 20 Then the beast was captured, and along with him the false prophet who had performed the signs before him by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast, as well as those who had worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.[200] 21 The rest were killed with the sword coming out of the mouth of the One riding on the horse. And all the birds gorged themselves with their flesh.

The First Resurrection

The Revelation 20 1 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the abyss and a great chain. 2 He seized the dragon—the ancient serpent, who is the devil and satan—and bound him for a thousand years.[201] 3 He also threw him into the abyss and locked and sealed it over him, so that he would not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were completed. After these things, he must be released for a short while.

4 Then I saw thrones, and people sat upon them—those to whom authority to judge was given.[202] And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Yeshua and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his image, nor had they received his mark on their forehead or on their hand. And they came to life[203] and reigned with the Messiah for a thousand years.

5 The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection. 6 How fortunate and holy is the one who has a share in the first resurrection! Over such the second death has no authority, but they shall be kohanim of God and the Messiah, and they shall reign with Him for a thousand years.

Judgment After 1000 Years

7 When the thousand years has ended, satan shall be released from his prison, 8 and he shall come out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for the battle.[204] Their number is like the sand of the sea.
9 And they came up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the kedoshim and the beloved city—
but fire fell from heaven and consumed them.[205]

10 And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are too, and they shall be tortured day and night forever and ever.

11 Then I saw a great white throne, and the One seated on it. The earth and heaven fled from His presence, but no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead—the great and the small—standing before the throne. The books were opened, and another book was opened—the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to what was written in the books, according to their deeds.[206] 13 The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Sheol gave up the dead in them. Then they were each judged, each one of them, according to their deeds.

14 Then death and Sheol were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death—the lake of fire. 15 And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

A New Heaven and a New Earth

The Revelation 21 1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.[207]
2 I also saw the holy city—the New Jerusalem—coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.[208] 3 I also heard a loud voice from the throne, saying,

"Behold, the dwelling of God is among men,
and He shall tabernacle among them.
They shall be His people,
and God Himself shall be among them
and be their God.[209]

4 He shall wipe away every tear from their eyes,[210]
and death shall be no more.
Nor shall there be mourning or crying or pain any longer,
for the former things have passed away."

5 And the One seated upon the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new!" Then He said, "Write, for these words are trustworthy and true."
6 Then He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will freely give from the spring of the water of life.[211] 7 The one who overcomes shall inherit these things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son.[212] 8 But for the cowardly and faithless and detestable and murderers and sexually immoral and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars—their lot is in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

9 Then came one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls full of the seven final plagues, and he spoke with me, saying, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”
10 Then he carried me away in the Ruach to a great and high mountain,[213] and he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 having the glory of God—her radiance like a most precious stone, like a jasper, sparkling like crystal. 12 She had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and above the gates twelve angels. On the gates were inscribed the names of the twelve tribes of Bnei-Yisrael —13 three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.[214] 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the twelve names of the twelve emissaries of the Lamb.
15 The angel speaking with me had a gold measuring rod to measure the city and its gates and walls.[215] 16 The city is laid out as a square—its length the same as its width. He measured the city with the rod—12,000 stadia.[216] Its length and width and height are equal. 17 He also measured its wall—144 cubits by human measurement, which is also an angel’s measurement.
18 The material of the city’s wall was jasper, while the city was pure gold, clear as glass. 19 The foundations of the city wall were decorated with every kind of precious stone—the first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; 20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, carnelian; the seventh, yellow topaz; the eighth; beryl;
the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth;
the twelfth, amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls—each of the gates was from a single pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.
22 I saw no temple in her, for its Temple is ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot and the Lamb. 23 And the city has no need for the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God lights it up, and its lamp is the Lamb.[217] 24 The nations shall walk by its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it.[218] 25 Its gates shall never be shut by day,[219] for there shall be no night there!

26 And they shall bring into it the glory and honor of the nations.
27 And nothing unholy[220] shall ever enter it, nor anyone doing what is detestable or false,[221] but only those written in the Book of Life.

The Revelation 22 1 Then the angel showed me a river of the water of life—bright as crystal,[222] flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb 2 down the middle of the city's street. On either side of the river was a tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.[223] 3 No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in the city, and His servants shall serve Him. 4 They shall see His face,[224]
and His name shall be on their foreheads.[225] 5 Night shall be no more, and people will have no need for lamplight or sunlight—for ADONAI Elohim will shine on them.[226] And they shall reign
forever and ever!

Yeshua Is Coming 6 He said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true! _ADONAI_, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent His angel to show His servants what must happen soon.[227] 7 Behold, I am coming soon! How fortunate is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

8 I, John, am the one hearing and seeing these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel showing me these things. 9 But he tells me, "See that you do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets and those keeping the words of this book. Worship God!"

10 Then he tells me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.[228] 11 Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do righteousness, and the holy still be holy.[229] 12 Behold, I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me, to pay back each one according to his deeds.

13 "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.[230] 14 How fortunate are those who wash their robes,[231] so that they may have the right to the Tree of Life[232] and may enter through the gates into the city.
15 Outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the sexually immoral and the murderers and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. 16 I, Yeshua, have sent My angel to testify these things to you for My communities. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star."[233]

17 The Ruach and the bride say, "Come!" And let the one who hears say, "Come!" Let the one who is thirsty come—let the one who wishes freely take the water of life![234] 18 I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book. If anyone adds to them, God shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book; 19 and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his share in the Tree of Life and the Holy City,[235] which are written in this book.

20 The One giving testimony to these things says, "Yes! I am coming soon!" Amen! Come, Lord Yeshua![236] 21 May the grace of the Lord Yeshua be with all![237]

The Messianic Jewish Family Bible Society Story

"... entrusted with the sayings of God"

Rabbi Paul, in the Book of Romans, reminded the mixed crowd of new believers, Jew and Gentile alike, that the Jewish people were charged with the task of preserving the Holy Scriptures from their very first calling as a "people."

In May 2008, this project started as the desire of one small group of Rabbis' wives hoping to publish a Messianic Jewish Children's Bible. Instead, God breathed on this spark and He revitalized our "people" in a move so powerful it reunited families, destroyed disunity between our organizations and gave our movement a fresh vision of what we could accomplish TOGETHER by taking our place "on the wall around Jerusalem" alongside the Christian Church in these last days.

Originally, our desire to use "Messiah Yeshua" instead of "Jesus Christ" and the Jewish book order instead of the Christian book order for the Old Testament seemed meager goals. Few of us had any idea how big the chasm between our worlds was. But, make no mistake, Christianity is based on Judaism. There is so much more that connects us than divides us, and this text is finally finished.

Since our inception: a hope for a children's Bible became a dream for a family Bible, one translator multiplied into 32 scholars, a $5000 check gave seed to $850,000 in donations, a single translation became a collaborative work, the Greek sentence structure was restored to Hebrew sentence structure, faith turned into a verb instead of a noun, salvation became Yeshua, and peace became shalom.

Only God could have orchestrated this marvelous work. We are humbled that God would again call His people Israel to care and preserve His Holy Scriptures for yet another generation. We are honored to carry on the work of our forefathers and trust fully in God's eternal hope of salvation, Messiah Yeshua.

The goal of our 501(c)(3) organization is to translate, guard and preserve a brand new Messianic Jewish Biblical Text for generations. There is plenty more information on our website and Facebook page. And, we encourage you to read the Tree of Life Version to travel a faith journey of your own.

As the keepers of the text, we will make the Good News available on the internet and mobile devices for free for the entire world. We stand with Rabbi Paul. We are “not ashamed of the Good News, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who trusts—to the Jew first and also to the Greek.”

And now, this Tree of Life Version is the body of text inside a fully illustrated Messianic Jewish Family Bible filled with blessings for the family, storytelling headings, Messianic prophecy footnotes, book introductions and plenty of Bible helps. We want to see the Family Bible restored to the heart of every home that trusts in Messiah Yeshua.

Daniah Greenberg, President
Messianic Jewish Family Bible Society

The King's University Sponsorship Declaration

"they will know us by our love, one for another"

The Messianic Jewish Family Bible Project ("MJFB") is creating the Tree of Life Version ("TLV") of the Hebrew Scriptures and the Jewish New Covenant. The Messianic Jewish Community has united around the common purpose of creating a new biblical text to bless the world with the opportunity to more fully read the Word of God through a Hebraic lens.

In creating this new Bible translation, the MJFB has built a diverse team of Messianic Jewish scholars selected from among our maturing movement. As guardians of the Hebrew Bible and divine revelation since the times of the Hebrew prophets and apostles, the Jewish people have been "entrusted with the sayings of God." For the first time in modern history, Jewish believers in Jesus have chosen to fulfill this mandate in community, submitted to one another in love.

Yet, we do not want to walk alone on this journey. The call of God to preserve His Word, bless His people, and honor His land is not only for the Jew, but for all who call Yeshua (Jesus) their Lord. The Gospel is the power of God to salvation for both Jew and Gentile. All believers are partnered in Yeshua for God's glory.

The prophetic times in which we live sound out the great need for the ministry of reconciliation. Messianic Jews and Christians walking and serving together under our Lord and Messiah Jesus demonstrate the veracity of our reconciliation to God in Yeshua. The awakening among tens of thousands of Jewish people to Yeshua in America, Israel and around the world are but the "earnest" on the pending "salvation of All Israel." This is the hour for the Spirit's fullness to be evident among us all as successful witness to the entire Jewish nation.

The King's University has chosen to stand with the Messianic remnant of Israel to help complete this Bible translation out of our loving bond in Yeshua. The King's University Chancellor, Pastor Jack Hayford, has been a spiritual father to key Jewish leaders throughout the development of the Messianic Jewish Movement. His personal commitment to nurture Messianic leaders has been international in scope and multi-generational.

Pastor Jack and The King's University have modeled divine service in their love and support of "All Israel" and have established their faithful partnership with God as joint "blessers" of Israel. (Gen. 12:3)

The King's University has made a firm commitment to develop an extensive Messianic Jewish Studies Program and has provided Messianic scholarships for Jewish Believers in Yeshua. By providing this platform for university-level biblical education for both Jewish and Christian students, they are blessing Israel while advancing the Kingdom of God and the restoration of the world to God through Messiah Yeshua.

Having watched the progress of the MJFB and reviewed our TLV manuscript, The King's University is prepared to acknowledge that the developing Tree of Life Version is a sovereign work of God. Its translation has been guided by approved key principles both in keeping with God's heart and sound hermeneutics while still informed by Jewish sensibilities as required for the successful proclamation of the Good News of Messiah Yeshua to the Jewish world.

Having full confidence in The King's University's resolve to stand alongside us in our Messianic Jewish faith honoring both our Jewish heritage and the teachings of the Son of God, our Messiah Yeshua, we would be deeply honored to have the Tree of Life Bible planted firmly in the International Bible Institute.

Declared by Pastor Jack Hayford, The King's University Chancellor
Rabbi Mark Greenberg, Messianic Jewish Family Bible Society
Chairman The King's University at Gateway, Dallas March 26, 2013

Commendations

“At last a translation that connects the apostolic writings with the Hebrew scriptures in a way that makes the Bible one seamless story. The “Old Covenant” scriptures end with the story of Cyrus, the Persian king, rebuilding the Temple in Jerusalem. The apostolic writings begin with the birth of Yeshua who is taken to that Temple to be dedicated to the Lord.”

Pastor Don Finto, The Caleb Company

“This translation is a miracle in motion. . . The depth of this project’s impact and the scope of its influence over the immediate years ahead will become immeasurable.”

Pastor Jack Hayford, Founder of The King’s University “This Bible is the collective work of this renewed Messianic Jewish Community and the first and only of its kind. Translated directly from the original Greek and Hebrew texts and vetted by some of our best and brightest Messianic theologians and scholars, the translation is true to its original Hebraic roots and idiom. More than a historically important work, it represents the fulfillment of this prophetic, Last Days’ restoration and the re-establishment of the Jewish Remnant to their unique and important leadership role in the Body of Messiah.”

Rabbi Jonathan Bernis, Jewish Voice Ministries International “The Tree of Life Version is a wonderful new Bible. Jews and Gentiles will love this Bible!”

Dr. Daniel Juster, Tikkun International

Tree of Life Version Glossary

The Tree of Life Version (TLV) expanded glossary, by Dr. Glenn Blank, our Literary Editor, can be found at www.TreeofLifeBible.org What is the benefit to studying this glossary? Studying the terms in the glossary will help you understand the Hebrew terms used in this Family Bible. We also included Hebrew used in the headings and introductions. We kept the list short purposefully by introducing you to only common vocabulary regularly used by Jewish believers in Messianic gatherings.

Why are some words italicized? In this translation, the italicized words (such as Elohim) are transliterated Hebrew. This means we use English letters to represent Hebrew sounds. The transliteration allows you to become familiar with the sounds of spoken Hebrew and may encourage you to learn written Hebrew as well.

How do I say the Hebrew transliterated words? Unlike in English, each vowel sound in Hebrew nearly always has the same sound. Use this chart to help with the pronunciation of the vowels: a—sounds like the a in father

e—sounds like the e in sent

i—sounds like the i in spaghetti

ei—sounds like the ey in they

ai—sounds like the ai in aisle

u—sounds like the u in truth

o—sounds like the o in go

’—sounds like a very short a as in about Consonants are like English with these exceptions: tz—sounds like the zz in pizza

ch or kh—sounds like the ch in Bach

Which syllable gets the emphasis in Hebrew? Hebrew words often have their accent on the last part of the word, the opposite of English. But there are many exceptions. Sometimes pronunciation and accents even vary from region to region. So in this glossary we mark the syllable to be accented in bold. And while you would read actual Hebrew writing from right to left, read the transliteration from left to right as in English.
